

The Holy Bible

The New Jerusalem Bible NJB

Gen 1:1 In the beginning God created heaven and earth.

Gen 1:2 Now the earth was a formless void, there was darkness over the deep, with a divine wind sweeping over the waters.

Gen 1:3 God said, 'Let there be light,' and there was light.

Gen 1:4 God saw that light was good, and God divided light from darkness.

Gen 1:5 God called light 'day', and darkness he called 'night'. Evening came and morning came: the first day.

Gen 1:6 God said, 'Let there be a vault through the middle of the waters to divide the waters in two.' And so it was.

Gen 1:7 God made the vault, and it divided the waters under the vault from the waters above the vault.

Gen 1:8 God called the vault 'heaven'. Evening came and morning came: the second day.

Gen 1:9 God said, 'Let the waters under heaven come together into a single mass, and let dry land appear.' And so it was.

Gen 1:10 God called the dry land 'earth' and the mass of waters 'seas', and God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:11 God said, 'Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants, and fruit trees on earth, bearing fruit with their seed inside, each corresponding to its own species.' And so it was.

Gen 1:12 The earth produced vegetation: the various kinds of seed-bearing plants and the fruit trees with seed inside, each corresponding to its own species. God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:13 Evening came and morning came: the third day.

Gen 1:14 God said, 'Let there be lights in the vault of heaven to divide day from night, and let them indicate festivals, days and years.'

Gen 1:15 Let them be lights in the vault of heaven to shine on the earth.' And so it was.

Gen 1:16 God made the two great lights: the greater light to govern the day, the smaller light to govern the night, and the stars.

Gen 1:17 God set them in the vault of heaven to shine on the earth,

Gen 1:18 to govern the day and the night and to divide light from darkness. God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:19 Evening came and morning came: the fourth day.

Gen 1:20 God said, 'Let the waters be alive with a swarm of living creatures, and let birds wing their way above the earth across the vault of heaven.' And so it was.

Gen 1:21 God created great sea-monsters and all the creatures that glide and teem in the waters in their own species, and winged birds in their own species. God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:22 God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the waters of the seas; and let the birds multiply on land.'

Gen 1:23 Evening came and morning came: the fifth day.

Gen 1:24 God said, 'Let the earth produce every kind of living creature in its own species: cattle, creeping things and wild animals of all kinds.' And so it was.

Gen 1:25 God made wild animals in their own species, and cattle in theirs, and every creature that crawls along the earth in its own species. God saw that it was good.

Gen 1:26 God said, 'Let us make man in our own image, in the likeness of ourselves, and let them be masters of the fish of the sea, the birds of heaven, the cattle, all the wild animals and all the creatures that creep along the ground.'

Gen 1:27 God created man in the image of himself, in the image of God he created him, male and female he created them.

Gen 1:28 God blessed them, saying to them, 'Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth and subdue it. Be masters of the fish of the sea, the birds of heaven and all the living creatures that move on earth.'

Gen 1:29 God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the surface of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food.'

Gen 1:30 And to all the wild animals, all the birds of heaven and all the living creatures that creep along the ground, I give all the foliage of the plants as their food.' And so it was.

Gen 1:31 God saw all he had made, and indeed it was very good. Evening came and morning came: the sixth day.

Gen 2:1 Thus heaven and earth were completed with all their array.

Gen 2:2 On the seventh day God had completed the work he had been doing. He rested on the seventh day after all the work he had been doing.

Gen 2:3 God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on that day he rested after all his work of creating.

Gen 2:4 Such was the story of heaven and earth as they were created. At the time when Yahweh God made earth and heaven

Gen 2:5 there was as yet no wild bush on the earth nor had any wild plant yet sprung up, for Yahweh God had not sent rain on the earth, nor was there any man to till the soil.

Gen 2:6 Instead, water flowed out of the ground and watered all the surface of the soil.

Gen 2:7 Yahweh God shaped man from the soil of the ground and blew the breath of life into his nostrils, and man became a living being.

Gen 2:8 Yahweh God planted a garden in Eden, which is in the east, and there he put the man he had fashioned.

Gen 2:9 From the soil, Yahweh God caused to grow every kind of tree, enticing to look at and good to eat, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Gen 2:10 A river flowed from Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided to make four streams.

Gen 2:11 The first is named the Pishon, and this winds all through the land of Havilah where there is gold.

Gen 2:12 The gold of this country is pure; bdellium and cornelian stone are found there.

Gen 2:13 The second river is named the Gihon, and this winds all through the land of Cush.

Gen 2:14 The third river is named the Tigris, and this flows to the east of Ashur. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

Gen 2:15 Yahweh God took the man and settled him in the garden of Eden to cultivate and take care of it.

Gen 2:16 Then Yahweh God gave the man this command, 'You are free to eat of all the trees in the garden.

Gen 2:17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you are not to eat; for, the day you eat of that, you are doomed to die.'

Gen 2:18 Yahweh God said, 'It is not right that the man should be alone. I shall make him a helper.'

Gen 2:19 So from the soil Yahweh God fashioned all the wild animals and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them; each one was to bear the name the man would give it.

Gen 2:20 The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild animals. But no helper suitable for the man was found for him.

Gen 2:21 Then, Yahweh God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And, while he was asleep, he took one of his ribs and closed the flesh up again forthwith.

Gen 2:22 Yahweh God fashioned the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man.

Gen 2:23 And the man said: This one at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh! She is to be called Woman, because she was taken from Man.

Gen 2:24 This is why a man leaves his father and mother and becomes attached to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Gen 2:25 Now, both of them were naked, the man and his wife, but they felt no shame before each other.

Gen 3:1 Now, the snake was the most subtle of all the wild animals that Yahweh God had made. It asked the woman, 'Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?'

Gen 3:2 The woman answered the snake, 'We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden.'

Gen 3:3 But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, "You must not eat it, nor touch it, under pain of death."

Gen 3:4 Then the snake said to the woman, 'No! You will not die!

Gen 3:5 God knows in fact that the day you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods, knowing good from evil.'

Gen 3:6 The woman saw that the tree was good to eat and pleasing to the eye, and that it was enticing for the wisdom that it could give. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.

Gen 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they realised that they were naked. So they sewed fig-leaves together to make themselves loin-cloths.

Gen 3:8 The man and his wife heard the sound of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from Yahweh God among the trees of the garden.

Gen 3:9 But Yahweh God called to the man. 'Where are you?' he asked.

Gen 3:10 'I heard the sound of you in the garden,' he replied. 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.'

Gen 3:11 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating from the tree I forbade you to eat?'

Gen 3:12 The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.'

Gen 3:13 Then Yahweh God said to the woman, 'Why did you do that?' The woman replied, 'The snake tempted me and I ate.'

Gen 3:14 Then Yahweh God said to the snake, 'Because you have done this, Accursed be you of all animals wild and tame! On your belly you will go and on dust you will feed as long as you live.

Gen 3:15 I shall put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; it will bruise your head and you will strike its heel.'

Gen 3:16 To the woman he said: I shall give you intense pain in childbearing, you will give birth to your children in pain. Your yearning will be for your husband, and he will dominate you.

Gen 3:17 To the man he said, 'Because you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat, Accursed be the soil because of you! Painfully will you get your food from it as long as you live.

Gen 3:18 It will yield you brambles and thistles, as you eat the produce of the land.

Gen 3:19 By the sweat of your face will you earn your food, until you return to the ground, as you were taken from it. For dust you are and to dust you shall return.'

Gen 3:20 The man named his wife 'Eve' because she was the mother of all those who live.

Gen 3:21 Yahweh God made tunics of skins for the man and his wife and clothed them.

Gen 3:22 Then Yahweh God said, 'Now that the man has become like one of us in knowing good from evil, he must not be allowed to reach out his hand and pick from the tree of life too, and eat and live for ever!'

Gen 3:23 So Yahweh God expelled him from the garden of Eden, to till the soil from which he had been taken.

Gen 3:24 He banished the man, and in front of the garden of Eden he posted the great winged creatures and the fiery flashing sword, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Gen 4:1 The man had intercourse with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. 'I have acquired a man with the help of Yahweh,' she said.

Gen 4:2 She gave birth to a second child, Abel, the brother of Cain. Now Abel became a shepherd and kept flocks, while Cain tilled the soil.

Gen 4:3 Time passed and Cain brought some of the produce of the soil as an offering for Yahweh,

Gen 4:4 while Abel for his part brought the first-born of his flock and some of their fat as well. Yahweh looked with favour on Abel and his offering.

Gen 4:5 But he did not look with favour on Cain and his offering, and Cain was very angry and downcast.

Gen 4:6 Yahweh asked Cain, 'Why are you angry and downcast?

Gen 4:7 If you are doing right, surely you ought to hold your head high! But if you are not doing right, Sin is crouching at the door hungry to get you. You can still master him.'

Gen 4:8 Cain said to his brother Abel, 'Let us go out'; and while they were in the open country, Cain set on his brother Abel and killed him.

Gen 4:9 Yahweh asked Cain, 'Where is your brother Abel?' 'I do not know,' he replied. 'Am I my brother's guardian?'

Gen 4:10 'What have you done?' Yahweh asked. 'Listen! Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.'

Gen 4:11 Now be cursed and banned from the ground that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood at your hands.

Gen 4:12 When you till the ground it will no longer yield up its strength to you. A restless wanderer you will be on earth.'

Gen 4:13 Cain then said to Yahweh, 'My punishment is greater than I can bear.'

Gen 4:14 Look, today you drive me from the surface of the earth. I must hide from you, and be a restless wanderer on earth. Why, whoever comes across me will kill me!'

Gen 4:15 'Very well, then,' Yahweh replied, 'whoever kills Cain will suffer a sevenfold vengeance.' So Yahweh put a mark on Cain, so that no one coming across him would kill him.

Gen 4:16 Cain left Yahweh's presence and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Gen 4:17 Cain had intercourse with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. He became the founder of a city and gave the city the name of his son Enoch.

Gen 4:18 Enoch fathered Irad, and Irad fathered Mehujael; Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech.

Gen 4:19 Lamech married two women: the name of the first was Adah and the name of the second was Zillah.

Gen 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal: he was the ancestor of tent-dwelling herdsmen.

Gen 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal: he was the ancestor of all who play the harp and the pipe.

Gen 4:22 As for Zillah, she gave birth to Tubal-Cain: he was the ancestor of all who work copper and iron. Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

Gen 4:23 Lamech said to his wives: Adah and Zillah, hear my voice, wives of Lamech, listen to what I say: I killed a man for wounding me, a boy for striking me.

Gen 4:24 Sevenfold vengeance for Cain, but seventy-sevenfold for Lamech.

Gen 4:25 Adam had intercourse with his wife, and she gave birth to a son whom she named Seth, 'because God has granted me other offspring', she said, 'in place of Abel, since Cain has killed him.'

Gen 4:26 A son was also born to Seth, and he named him Enosh. This man was the first to invoke the name Yahweh.

Gen 5:1 This is the roll of Adam's descendants: On the day that God created Adam he made him in the likeness of God.

Gen 5:2 Male and female he created them. He blessed them and gave them the name Man, when they were created.

Gen 5:3 When Adam was a hundred and thirty years old he fathered a son, in his likeness, after his image, and he called him Seth.

Gen 5:4 Adam lived for eight hundred years after the birth of Seth and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:5 In all, Adam lived for nine hundred and thirty years; then he died.

Gen 5:6 When Seth was a hundred and five years old he fathered Enosh.

Gen 5:7 After the birth of Enosh, Seth lived for eight hundred and seven years, and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:8 In all, Seth lived for nine hundred and twelve years; then he died.

Gen 5:9 When Enosh was ninety years old he fathered Kenan.

Gen 5:10 After the birth of Kenan, Enosh lived for eight hundred and fifteen years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:11 In all, Enosh lived for nine hundred and five years; then he died.

Gen 5:12 When Kenan was seventy years old he fathered Mahalalel.

Gen 5:13 After the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan lived for eight hundred and forty years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:14 In all, Kenan lived for nine hundred and ten years; then he died.

Gen 5:15 When Mahalalel was sixty-five years old he fathered Jared.

Gen 5:16 After the birth of Jared, Mahalalel lived for eight hundred and thirty years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:17 In all, Mahalalel lived for eight hundred and ninety-five years; then he died.

Gen 5:18 When Jared was a hundred and sixty-two years old he fathered Enoch.

Gen 5:19 After the birth of Enoch, Jared lived for eight hundred years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:20 In all, Jared lived for nine hundred and sixty-two years; then he died.

Gen 5:21 When Enoch was sixty-five years old he fathered Methuselah.

Gen 5:22 Enoch walked with God. After the birth of Methuselah, Enoch lived for three hundred years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:23 In all, Enoch lived for three hundred and sixty-five years.

Gen 5:24 Enoch walked with God, then was no more, because God took him.

Gen 5:25 When Methuselah was a hundred and eighty-seven years old he fathered Lamech.

Gen 5:26 After the birth of Lamech, Methuselah lived for seven hundred and eighty-two years and he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:27 In all, Methuselah lived for nine hundred and sixty-nine years; then he died.

Gen 5:28 When Lamech was a hundred and eighty-two years old he fathered a son.

Gen 5:29 He gave him the name Noah because, he said, 'Here is one who will give us, in the midst of our toil and the labouring of our hands, a consolation out of the very soil that Yahweh cursed.'

Gen 5:30 After the birth of Noah, Lamech lived for five hundred and ninety-five years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 5:31 In all, Lamech lived for seven hundred and seventy-seven years; then he died.

Gen 5:32 When Noah was five hundred years old he fathered Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Gen 6:1 When people began being numerous on earth, and daughters had been born to them,

Gen 6:2 the sons of God, looking at the women, saw how beautiful they were and married as many of them as they chose.

Gen 6:3 Yahweh said, 'My spirit cannot be indefinitely responsible for human beings, who are only flesh; let the time allowed each be a hundred and twenty years.'

Gen 6:4 The Nephilim were on earth in those days (and even afterwards) when the sons of God resorted to the women, and had children by them. These were the heroes of days gone by, men of renown.

Gen 6:5 Yahweh saw that human wickedness was great on earth and that human hearts contrived nothing but wicked schemes all day long.

Gen 6:6 Yahweh regretted having made human beings on earth and was grieved at heart.

Gen 6:7 And Yahweh said, 'I shall rid the surface of the earth of the human beings whom I created -- human and animal, the creeping things and the birds of heaven -- for I regret having made them.'

Gen 6:8 But Noah won Yahweh's favour.

Gen 6:9 This is the story of Noah: Noah was a good man, an upright man among his contemporaries, and he walked with God.

Gen 6:10 Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Gen 6:11 God saw that the earth was corrupt and full of lawlessness.

Gen 6:12 God looked at the earth: it was corrupt, for corrupt were the ways of all living things on earth.

Gen 6:13 God said to Noah, 'I have decided that the end has come for all living things, for the earth is full of lawlessness because of human beings. So I am now about to destroy them and the earth.'

Gen 6:14 Make yourself an ark out of resinous wood. Make it of reeds and caulk it with pitch inside and out.

Gen 6:15 This is how to make it: the length of the ark is to be three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

Gen 6:16 Make a roof to the ark, building it up to a cubit higher. Put the entrance in the side of the ark, which is to be made with lower, second and third decks.

Gen 6:17 'For my part I am going to send the flood, the waters, on earth, to destroy all living things having the breath of life under heaven; everything on earth is to perish.'

Gen 6:18 But with you I shall establish my covenant and you will go aboard the ark, yourself, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives along with you.

Gen 6:19 From all living creatures, from all living things, you must take two of each kind aboard the ark, to save their lives with yours; they must be a male and a female.

Gen 6:20 Of every species of bird, of every kind of animal and of every kind of creature that creeps along the ground, two must go with you so that their lives may be saved.

Gen 6:21 For your part, provide yourself with eatables of all kinds, and lay in a store of them, to serve as food for yourself and them.'

Gen 6:22 Noah did this; exactly as God commanded him, he did.

Gen 7:1 Yahweh said to Noah, 'Go aboard the ark, you and all your household, for you alone of your contemporaries do I see before me as an upright man.'

Gen 7:2 Of every clean animal you must take seven pairs, a male and its female; of the unclean animals you must take one pair, a male and its female

Gen 7:3 (and of the birds of heaven, seven pairs, a male and its female), to preserve their species throughout the earth.

Gen 7:4 For in seven days' time I shall make it rain on earth for forty days and forty nights, and I shall wipe every creature I have made off the face of the earth.'

Gen 7:5 Noah did exactly as Yahweh commanded him.

Gen 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came, the waters over the earth.

Gen 7:7 Noah with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives boarded the ark to escape the waters of the flood.

Gen 7:8 (Of the clean animals and the animals that are not clean, of the birds and all that creeps along the ground, Gen 7:9 one pair boarded the ark with Noah, one male and one female, as God had commanded Noah.)

Gen 7:10 Seven days later the waters of the flood appeared on earth.

Gen 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, and on the seventeenth day of the month, that very day all the springs of the great deep burst through, and the sluices of heaven opened.

Gen 7:12 And heavy rain fell on earth for forty days and forty nights.

Gen 7:13 That very day Noah and his sons Shem, Ham and Japheth boarded the ark, with Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons,

Gen 7:14 and with them every species of wild animal, every species of cattle, every species of creeping things that creep along the ground, every species of bird, everything that flies, everything with wings.

Gen 7:15 One pair of all that was alive and had the breath of life boarded the ark with Noah,

Gen 7:16 and those that went aboard were a male and female of all that was alive, as God had commanded him. Then Yahweh shut him in.

Gen 7:17 The flood lasted forty days on earth. The waters swelled, lifting the ark until it floated off the ground.

Gen 7:18 The waters rose, swelling higher above the ground, and the ark drifted away over the waters.

Gen 7:19 The waters rose higher and higher above the ground until all the highest mountains under the whole of heaven were submerged.

Gen 7:20 The waters reached their peak fifteen cubits above the submerged mountains.

Gen 7:21 And all living things that stirred on earth perished; birds, cattle, wild animals, all the creatures swarming over the earth, and all human beings.

Gen 7:22 Everything with the least breath of life in its nostrils, everything on dry land, died.

Gen 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out, people, animals, creeping things and birds; they were wiped off the earth and only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

Gen 7:24 The waters maintained their level on earth for a hundred and fifty days.

Gen 8:1 But God had Noah in mind, and all the wild animals and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. God sent a wind across the earth and the waters began to subside.

Gen 8:2 The springs of the deep and the sluices of heaven were stopped up and the heavy rain from heaven was held back.

Gen 8:3 Little by little, the waters ebbed from the earth. After a hundred and fifty days the waters fell,

Gen 8:4 and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.

Gen 8:5 The waters gradually fell until the tenth month when, on the first day of the tenth month, the mountain tops appeared.

Gen 8:6 At the end of forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark

Gen 8:7 and released a raven, which flew back and forth as it waited for the waters to dry up on earth.

Gen 8:8 He then released a dove, to see whether the waters were receding from the surface of the earth.

Gen 8:9 But the dove, finding nowhere to perch, returned to him in the ark, for there was water over the whole surface of the earth; putting out his hand he took hold of it and brought it back into the ark with him.

Gen 8:10 After waiting seven more days, he again released the dove from the ark.

Gen 8:11 In the evening, the dove came back to him and there in its beak was a freshly-picked olive leaf! So Noah realised that the waters were receding from the earth.

Gen 8:12 After waiting seven more days, he released the dove, and now it returned to him no more.

Gen 8:13 It was in the six hundred and first year of Noah's life, in the first month and on the first of the month, that the waters began drying out on earth. Noah lifted back the hatch of the ark and looked out. The surface of the ground was dry!

Gen 8:14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

Gen 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Gen 8:16 'Come out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives with you.

Gen 8:17 Bring out all the animals with you, all living things, the birds, the cattle and all the creeping things that creep along the ground, for them to swarm on earth, for them to breed and multiply on earth.'

Gen 8:18 So Noah came out with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives.

Gen 8:19 And all the wild animals, all the cattle, all the birds and all the creeping things that creep along the ground, came out of the ark, one species after another.

Gen 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh and, choosing from all the clean animals and all the clean birds he presented burnt offerings on the altar.

Gen 8:21 Yahweh smelt the pleasing smell and said to himself, 'Never again will I curse the earth because of human beings, because their heart contrives evil from their infancy. Never again will I strike down every living thing as I have done.

Gen 8:22 As long as earth endures: seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease.'

Gen 9:1 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, 'Breed, multiply and fill the earth.

Gen 9:2 Be the terror and the dread of all the animals on land and all the birds of heaven, of everything that moves on land and all the fish of the sea; they are placed in your hands.

Gen 9:3 Every living thing that moves will be yours to eat, no less than the foliage of the plants. I give you everything,

Gen 9:4 with this exception: you must not eat flesh with life, that is to say blood, in it.

Gen 9:5 And I shall demand account of your life-blood, too. I shall demand it of every animal, and of man. Of man as regards his fellow-man, I shall demand account for human life.

Gen 9:6 He who sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed, for in the image of God was man created.

Gen 9:7 Be fruitful then and multiply, teem over the earth and subdue it!

Gen 9:8 God spoke as follows to Noah and his sons,

Gen 9:9 'I am now establishing my covenant with you and with your descendants to come,

Gen 9:10 and with every living creature that was with you: birds, cattle and every wild animal with you; everything that came out of the ark, every living thing on earth.

Gen 9:11 And I shall maintain my covenant with you: that never again shall all living things be destroyed by the waters of a flood, nor shall there ever again be a flood to devastate the earth.'

Gen 9:12 'And this', God said, 'is the sign of the covenant which I now make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all ages to come:

Gen 9:13 I now set my bow in the clouds and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Gen 9:14 When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds,

Gen 9:15 I shall recall the covenant between myself and you and every living creature, in a word all living things, and never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all living things.

Gen 9:16 When the bow is in the clouds I shall see it and call to mind the eternal covenant between God and every living creature on earth, that is, all living things.'

Gen 9:17 'That', God told Noah, 'is the sign of the covenant I have established between myself and all living things on earth.'

Gen 9:18 The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth-Ham being the father of Canaan.

Gen 9:19 These three were Noah's sons, and from these the whole earth was peopled.

Gen 9:20 Noah, a tiller of the soil, was the first to plant the vine.

Gen 9:21 He drank some of the wine, and while he was drunk, he lay uncovered in his tent.

Gen 9:22 Ham, father of Canaan, saw his father naked and told his two brothers outside.

Gen 9:23 Shem and Japheth took a cloak and they both put it over their shoulders, and walking backwards, covered their father's nakedness; they kept their faces turned away, and they did not look at their father naked.

Gen 9:24 When Noah awoke from his stupor he learned what his youngest son had done to him,

Gen 9:25 and said: Accursed be Canaan, he shall be his brothers' meanest slave.

Gen 9:26 He added: Blessed be Yahweh, God of Shem, let Canaan be his slave!

Gen 9:27 May God make space for Japheth, may he live in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his slave!

Gen 9:28 After the flood Noah lived three hundred and fifty years.

Gen 9:29 In all, Noah's life lasted nine hundred and fifty years; then he died.

Gen 10:1 These are the descendants of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, to whom sons were born after the flood:

Gen 10:2 Japheth's sons: Gomer, Magog, the Medes, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, Tiras.

Gen 10:3 Gomer's sons: Ashkenaz, Riphath, Togarmah.

Gen 10:4 Javan's sons: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim, the Dananites.

Gen 10:5 From these came the dispersal to the islands of the nations. These were Japheth's sons, in their respective countries, each with its own language, by clan and nation.

Gen 10:6 Ham's sons: Cush, Mizraim, Put, Canaan.

Gen 10:7 Cush's sons: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, Sabteca. Raamah's sons: Sheba, Dedan.

Gen 10:8 Cush fathered Nimrod who was the first potentate on earth.

Gen 10:9 He was a mighty hunter in the eyes of Yahweh, hence the saying, 'Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter in the eyes of Yahweh'.

Gen 10:10 The mainstays of his empire were Babel, Erech and Accad, all of them in the land of Shinar.

Gen 10:11 From this country came Asshur, and he built Nineveh, Rehoboth-Ir, Calah, Gen 10:12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (this being the capital).

Gen 10:13 Mizraim fathered the people of Lud, of Anam, Lehab, Naphtuh,

Gen 10:14 Pathros, Casluh and Caphtor, from which the Philistines came.

Gen 10:15 Canaan fathered Sidon, his first-born, then Heth,

Gen 10:16 and the Jebusites, the Amorites, Gergashites,

Gen 10:17 Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,

Gen 10:18 Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. Later, the Canaanite clans spread out.

Gen 10:19 The Canaanite frontier stretched from Sidon all the way to Gerar near Gaza, and all the way to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim near Lesha.

Gen 10:20 These were Ham's sons, by clans and languages, by countries and nations.

Gen 10:21 Shem too fathered sons, being ancestor of all the sons of Eber and Japheth's elder brother.

Gen 10:22 Shem's sons: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, Aram.

Gen 10:23 Aram's sons: Uz, Hul, Gether and Mash.

Gen 10:24 Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber.

Gen 10:25 To Eber were born two sons: the first was called Peleg, because it was in his time that the earth was divided, and his brother was called Joktan.

Gen 10:26 Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Gen 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Gen 10:28 Obal, Abima-El, Sheba,

Gen 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, Jobab; all these were sons of Joktan.

Gen 10:30 They occupied a stretch of country from Mesha all the way to Sephar, the eastern mountain range.

Gen 10:31 These were Shem's sons, by clans and languages, by countries and nations.

Gen 10:32 Such were the clans of Noah's descendants, listed by descent and nation. From them, other nations branched out on earth after the flood.

Gen 11:1 The whole world spoke the same language, with the same vocabulary.

Gen 11:2 Now, as people moved eastwards they found a valley in the land of Shinar where they settled.

Gen 11:3 They said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks and bake them in the fire.' For stone they used bricks, and for mortar they used bitumen.

Gen 11:4 'Come,' they said, 'let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top reaching heaven. Let us make a name for ourselves, so that we do not get scattered all over the world.'

Gen 11:5 Now Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower that the people had built.

Gen 11:6 'So they are all a single people with a single language!' said Yahweh. 'This is only the start of their undertakings! Now nothing they plan to do will be beyond them.'

Gen 11:7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language there, so that they cannot understand one another.'

Gen 11:8 Yahweh scattered them thence all over the world, and they stopped building the city.

Gen 11:9 That is why it was called Babel, since there Yahweh confused the language of the whole world, and from there Yahweh scattered them all over the world.

Gen 11:10 These are Shem's descendants: When Shem was a hundred years old he fathered Arpachshad, two years after the flood.

Gen 11:11 After the birth of Arpachshad, Shem lived five hundred years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:12 When Arpachshad was thirty-five years old he fathered Shelah.

Gen 11:13 After the birth of Shelah, Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:14 When Shelah was thirty years old he fathered Eber.

Gen 11:15 After the birth of Eber, Shelah lived four hundred and three years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:16 When Eber was thirty-four years old he fathered Peleg.

Gen 11:17 After the birth of Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:18 When Peleg was thirty years old he fathered Reu.

Gen 11:19 After the birth of Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:20 When Reu was thirty-two years old he fathered Serug.

Gen 11:21 After the birth of Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:22 When Serug was thirty years old he fathered Nahor.

Gen 11:23 After the birth of Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:24 When Nahor was twenty-nine years old he fathered Terah.

Gen 11:25 After the birth of Terah, Nahor lived a hundred and nineteen years and fathered sons and daughters.

Gen 11:26 When Terah was seventy years old he fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran.

Gen 11:27 These are Terah's descendants: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran. Haran fathered Lot.

Gen 11:28 Haran died in the presence of his father Terah in his native land, Ur of the Chaldaeans.

Gen 11:29 Abram and Nahor both married: Abram's wife was called Sarai, Nahor's wife was called Milcah daughter of Haran, father of Milcah and Iscah.

Gen 11:30 Sarai was barren, having no child.

Gen 11:31 Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law the wife of Abram, and made them leave Ur of the Chaldaeans to go to the land of Canaan. But on arrival in Haran they settled there.

Gen 11:32 Terah's life lasted two hundred and five years; then he died at Haran.

Gen 12:1 Yahweh said to Abram, 'Leave your country, your kindred and your father's house for a country which I shall show you;

Gen 12:2 and I shall make you a great nation, I shall bless you and make your name famous; you are to be a blessing!

Gen 12:3 I shall bless those who bless you, and shall curse those who curse you, and all clans on earth will bless themselves by you.'

Gen 12:4 So Abram went as Yahweh told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran.

Gen 12:5 Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had amassed and the people they had acquired in Haran. They set off for the land of Canaan, and arrived there.

Gen 12:6 Abram passed through the country as far as the holy place at Shechem, the Oak of Moreh. The Canaanites were in the country at the time.

Gen 12:7 Yahweh appeared to Abram and said, 'I shall give this country to your progeny.' And there, Abram built an altar to Yahweh who had appeared to him.

Gen 12:8 From there he moved on to the mountainous district east of Bethel, where he pitched his tent, with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. There he built an altar to Yahweh and invoked the name of Yahweh.

Gen 12:9 Then Abram made his way stage by stage to the Negeb.

Gen 12:10 There was a famine in the country, and Abram went down to Egypt to stay there for a time, since the famine in the country was severe.

Gen 12:11 When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, 'Look, I know you are a beautiful woman.

Gen 12:12 When the Egyptians see you they will say, "That is his wife," and they will kill me but leave you alive.

Gen 12:13 Therefore please tell them you are my sister, so that they may treat me well because of you and spare my life out of regard for you.'

Gen 12:14 When Abram arrived in Egypt the Egyptians did indeed see that the woman was very beautiful.

Gen 12:15 When Pharaoh's officials saw her they sang her praises to Pharaoh and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's household.

Gen 12:16 And Abram was very well treated because of her and received flocks, oxen, donkeys, men and women slaves, she-donkeys and camels.

Gen 12:17 But Yahweh inflicted severe plagues on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram's wife Sarai.

Gen 12:18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, 'What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me she was your wife?

Gen 12:19 Why did you say, "She is my sister," so that I took her to be my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take her and go!'

Gen 12:20 And Pharaoh gave his people orders about him; they sent him on his way with his wife and all his possessions.

Gen 13:1 From Egypt Abram returned to the Negeb with his wife and all he possessed, and Lot with him.

Gen 13:2 Abram was very rich in livestock, silver and gold.

Gen 13:3 By stages he went from the Negeb to Bethel, where he had first pitched his tent, between Bethel and Ai,

Gen 13:4 at the place where he had formerly erected the altar. There Abram invoked the name of Yahweh.

Gen 13:5 Lot, who was travelling with Abram, had flocks and cattle of his own, and tents too.

Gen 13:6 The land was not sufficient to accommodate them both at once, for they had too many possessions to be able to live together.

Gen 13:7 Dispute broke out between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and those of Lot. (The Canaanites and Perizzites were living in the country at the time.)

Gen 13:8 Accordingly Abram said to Lot, 'We do not want discord between us or between my herdsmen and yours, for we are kinsmen.

Gen 13:9 Is not the whole land open before you? Go in the opposite direction to me: if you take the left, I shall go right; if you take the right, I shall go left.'

Gen 13:10 Looking round, Lot saw all the Jordan plain, irrigated everywhere -- this was before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah-like the garden of Yahweh or the land of Egypt, as far as Zoar.

Gen 13:11 So Lot chose all the Jordan plain for himself and moved off eastwards. Thus they parted company:

Gen 13:12 Abram settled in the land of Canaan; Lot settled among the cities of the plain, pitching his tents on the outskirts of Sodom.

Gen 13:13 Now the people of Sodom were vicious and great sinners against Yahweh.

Gen 13:14 Yahweh said to Abram after Lot had parted company from him, 'Look all round from where you are, to north and south, to east and west,

Gen 13:15 for all the land within sight I shall give to you and your descendants for ever.

Gen 13:16 I shall make your descendants like the dust on the ground; when people succeed in counting the specks of dust on the ground, then they will be able to count your descendants too!'

Gen 13:17 On your feet! Travel the length and breadth of the country, for I mean to give it to you.'

Gen 13:18 So Abram moved his tent and went to settle at the Oak of Mamre, at Hebron, and there he built an altar to Yahweh.

Gen 14:1 When Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedor-Laomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of the Goiim,

Gen 14:2 made war on Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar),

Gen 14:3 all the latter joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (now the Salt Sea).

Gen 14:4 For twelve years they had been under the yoke of Chedor-Laomer, but in the thirteenth year they revolted.

Gen 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedor-Laomer arrived and the kings who had allied themselves with him. They defeated the Rephaim at Ashteroth-Carnaim, the Zuzim at Ham, the Emim in the Plain of Kiriaoth.

Gen 14:6 the Horites in the mountainous district of Seir near El-Paran, which is on the edge of the desert.

Gen 14:7 Wheeling round, they came to the Spring of Judgement (that is, Kadesh); they conquered all the territory of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-Tamar.

Gen 14:8 Then the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim and Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and engaged them in the Valley of Siddim:

Gen 14:9 Chedor-Laomer king of Elam, Tidal king of the Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar: four kings against five.

Gen 14:10 Now there were many bitumen wells in the Valley of Siddim, and in their flight the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fell into them, while the rest fled into the hills.

Gen 14:11 The conquerors seized all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and made off.

Gen 14:12 They also took Lot (the nephew of Abram) and his possessions and made off; he had been living at Sodom.

Gen 14:13 A survivor came to tell Abram, and Aner the Hebrew, who was living at the Oak of the Amorite Mamre, the brother of Eshcol; these were allies of Abram.

Gen 14:14 When Abram heard that his kinsman had been taken captive, he mustered his retainers born in his own household, numbering three hundred and eighteen, and gave chase as far as Dan.

Gen 14:15 He and his retainers deployed against them under cover of dark, defeated them and pursued them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

Gen 14:16 He recaptured all the goods as well as his kinsman Lot and his possessions, together with the women and people.

Gen 14:17 When Abram returned from defeating Chedor-Laomer and the kings who had been on his side, the king of Sodom came to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the Valley of the King).

Gen 14:18 Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High.

Gen 14:19 He pronounced this blessing: Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth. And blessed be God Most High for putting your enemies into your clutches.

Gen 14:20 And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Gen 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, 'Give me the people and take the possessions for yourself.'

Gen 14:22 But Abram replied to the king of Sodom, 'I swear by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth:

Gen 14:23 not one thread, not one sandal strap, will I take of what is yours, for you to be able to say, "I made Abram rich."

Gen 14:24 For myself, nothing -- except what the troops have used up, and the share due to the men who came with me, Eshcol, Aner and Mamre; let them take their share.'

Gen 15:1 Some time later, the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision: Do not be afraid, Abram! I am your shield and shall give you a very great reward.

Gen 15:2 'Lord Yahweh,' Abram replied, 'what use are your gifts, as I am going on my way childless? . . .

Gen 15:3 Since you have given me no offspring,' Abram continued, 'a member of my household will be my heir.'

Gen 15:4 Then Yahweh's word came to him in reply, 'Such a one will not be your heir; no, your heir will be the issue of your own body.'

Gen 15:5 Then taking him outside, he said, 'Look up at the sky and count the stars if you can. Just so will your descendants be,' he told him.

Gen 15:6 Abram put his faith in Yahweh and this was reckoned to him as uprightness.

Gen 15:7 He then said to him, 'I am Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldaeans to give you this country as your possession.'

Gen 15:8 'Lord Yahweh,' Abram replied, 'how can I know that I shall possess it?'

Gen 15:9 He said to him, 'Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove and a young pigeon.'

Gen 15:10 He brought him all these, split the animals down the middle and placed each half opposite the other; but the birds he did not divide.

Gen 15:11 And whenever birds of prey swooped down on the carcases, Abram drove them off.

Gen 15:12 Now, as the sun was on the point of setting, a trance fell on Abram, and a deep dark dread descended on him.

Gen 15:13 Then Yahweh said to Abram, 'Know this for certain, that your descendants will be exiles in a land not their own, and be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.'

Gen 15:14 But I shall bring judgement on the nation that enslaves them and after this they will leave, with many possessions.

Gen 15:15 For your part, you will join your ancestors in peace; you will be buried at a happy old age.

Gen 15:16 In the fourth generation they will come back here, for until then the iniquity of the Amorites will not have reached its full extent.'

Gen 15:17 When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking firepot and a flaming torch passing between the animals' pieces.

Gen 15:18 That day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram in these terms: 'To your descendants I give this country, from the River of Egypt to the Great River, the River Euphrates,

Gen 15:19 the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,

Gen 15:20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Gen 15:21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Gergashites, and the Jebusites.'

Gen 16:1 Abram's wife Sarai had borne him no child, but she had an Egyptian slave-girl called Hagar.

Gen 16:2 So Sarai said to Abram, 'Listen, now! Since Yahweh has kept me from having children, go to my slave-girl. Perhaps I shall get children through her.' And Abram took Sarai's advice.

Gen 16:3 Thus, after Abram had lived in the land of Canaan for ten years, Sarai took Hagar her Egyptian slave-girl and gave her to Abram as his wife.

Gen 16:4 He went to Hagar and she conceived. And once she knew she had conceived, her mistress counted for nothing in her eyes.

Gen 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, 'This outrage done to me is your fault! It was I who put my slave-girl into your arms but, now she knows that she has conceived, I count for nothing in her eyes. Yahweh judge between me and you!'

Gen 16:6 'Very well,' Abram said to Sarai, 'your slave-girl is at your disposal. Treat her as you think fit.' Sarai accordingly treated her so badly that she ran away from her.

Gen 16:7 The angel of Yahweh found her by a spring in the desert, the spring on the road to Shur.

Gen 16:8 He said, 'Hagar, slave-girl of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?' 'I am running away from my mistress Sarai,' she replied.

Gen 16:9 The angel of Yahweh said to her, 'Go back to your mistress and submit to her.'

Gen 16:10 The angel of Yahweh further said to her, 'I shall make your descendants too numerous to be counted.'

Gen 16:11 Then the angel of Yahweh said to her: Now, you have conceived and will bear a son, and you shall name him Ishmael, for Yahweh has heard your cries of distress.

Gen 16:12 A wild donkey of a man he will be, his hand against every man, and every man's hand against him, living his life in defiance of all his kinsmen.

Gen 16:13 Hagar gave a name to Yahweh who had spoken to her, 'You are El Roi,' by which she meant, 'Did I not go on seeing here, after him who sees me?'

Gen 16:14 This is why the well is called the well of Lahai Roi; it is between Kadesh and Bered.

Gen 16:15 Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave his son borne by Hagar the name Ishmael.

Gen 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old Yahweh appeared to him and said, 'I am El Shaddai. Live in my presence, be perfect,

Gen 17:2 and I shall grant a covenant between myself and you, and make you very numerous.'

Gen 17:3 And Abram bowed to the ground. God spoke to him as follows,

Gen 17:4 'For my part, this is my covenant with you: you will become the father of many nations.

Gen 17:5 And you are no longer to be called Abram; your name is to be Abraham, for I am making you father of many nations.

Gen 17:6 I shall make you exceedingly fertile. I shall make you into nations, and your issue will be kings.

Gen 17:7 And I shall maintain my covenant between myself and you, and your descendants after you, generation after generation, as a covenant in perpetuity, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

Gen 17:8 And to you and to your descendants after you, I shall give the country where you are now immigrants, the entire land of Canaan, to own in perpetuity. And I shall be their God.'

Gen 17:9 God further said to Abraham, 'You for your part must keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you, generation after generation.

Gen 17:10 This is my covenant which you must keep between myself and you, and your descendants after you: every one of your males must be circumcised.

Gen 17:11 You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and that will be the sign of the covenant between myself and you.

Gen 17:12 As soon as he is eight days old, every one of your males, generation after generation, must be circumcised, including slaves born within the household or bought from a foreigner not of your descent.

Gen 17:13 Whether born within the household or bought, they must be circumcised. My covenant must be marked in your flesh as a covenant in perpetuity.

Gen 17:14 The uncircumcised male, whose foreskin has not been circumcised -- that person must be cut off from his people: he has broken my covenant.'

Gen 17:15 Furthermore God said to Abraham, 'As regards your wife Sarai, you must not call her Sarai, but Sarah.

Gen 17:16 I shall bless her and moreover give you a son by her. I shall bless her and she will become nations: kings of peoples will issue from her.'

Gen 17:17 Abraham bowed to the ground, and he laughed, thinking to himself, 'Is a child to be born to a man one hundred years old, and will Sarah have a child at the age of ninety?'

Gen 17:18 Abraham said to God, 'May Ishmael live in your presence! That will be enough!'

Gen 17:19 But God replied, 'Yes, your wife Sarah will bear you a son whom you must name Isaac. And I shall maintain my covenant with him, a covenant in perpetuity, to be his God and the God of his descendants after him.'

Gen 17:20 For Ishmael too I grant you your request. I hereby bless him and will make him fruitful and exceedingly numerous. He will be the father of twelve princes, and I shall make him into a great nation.

Gen 17:21 But my covenant I shall maintain with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear you at this time next year.'

Gen 17:22 When he had finished speaking to Abraham, God went up from him.

Gen 17:23 Then Abraham took his son Ishmael, all the slaves born in his household or whom he had bought, in short all the males among the people of Abraham's household, and circumcised their foreskins that same day, as God had said to him.

Gen 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when his foreskin was circumcised.

Gen 17:25 Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when his foreskin was circumcised.

Gen 17:26 Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised on the very same day,

Gen 17:27 and all the men of his household, those born in the household and those bought from foreigners, were circumcised with him.

Gen 18:1 Yahweh appeared to him at the Oak of Mamre while he was sitting by the entrance of the tent during the hottest part of the day.

Gen 18:2 He looked up, and there he saw three men standing near him. As soon as he saw them he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them, and bowed to the ground.

Gen 18:3 'My lord,' he said, 'if I find favour with you, please do not pass your servant by.'

Gen 18:4 Let me have a little water brought, and you can wash your feet and have a rest under the tree.

Gen 18:5 Let me fetch a little bread and you can refresh yourselves before going further, now that you have come in your servant's direction.' They replied, 'Do as you say.'

Gen 18:6 Abraham hurried to the tent and said to Sarah, 'Quick, knead three measures of best flour and make loaves.'

Gen 18:7 Then, running to the herd, Abraham took a fine and tender calf and gave it to the servant, who hurried to prepare it.

Gen 18:8 Then taking curds, milk and the calf which had been prepared, he laid all before them, and they ate while he remained standing near them under the tree.

Gen 18:9 'Where is your wife Sarah?' they asked him. 'She is in the tent,' he replied.

Gen 18:10 Then his guest said, 'I shall come back to you next year, and then your wife Sarah will have a son.' Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent behind him.

Gen 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well on in years, and Sarah had ceased to have her monthly periods.

Gen 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, 'Now that I am past the age of childbearing, and my husband is an old man, is pleasure to come my way again?'

Gen 18:13 But Yahweh asked Abraham, 'Why did Sarah laugh and say, "Am I really going to have a child now that I am old?"

Gen 18:14 Nothing is impossible for Yahweh. I shall come back to you at the same time next year and Sarah will have a son.'

Gen 18:15 Sarah said, 'I did not laugh,' lying because she was afraid. But he replied, 'Oh yes, you did laugh.'

Gen 18:16 From there the men set out and arrived within sight of Sodom, with Abraham accompanying them to speed them on their way.

Gen 18:17 Now Yahweh had wondered, 'Shall I conceal from Abraham what I am going to do,

Gen 18:18 as Abraham will become a great and powerful nation and all nations on earth will bless themselves by him?

Gen 18:19 For I have singled him out to command his sons and his family after him to keep the way of Yahweh by doing what is upright and just, so that Yahweh can carry out for Abraham what he has promised him.'

Gen 18:20 Then Yahweh said, 'The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin is so grave,

Gen 18:21 that I shall go down and see whether or not their actions are at all as the outcry reaching me would suggest. Then I shall know.'

Gen 18:22 While the men left there and went to Sodom, Yahweh remained in Abraham's presence.

Gen 18:23 Abraham stepped forward and said, 'Will you really destroy the upright with the guilty?

Gen 18:24 Suppose there are fifty upright people in the city. Will you really destroy it? Will you not spare the place for the sake of the fifty upright in it?

Gen 18:25 Do not think of doing such a thing: to put the upright to death with the guilty, so that upright and guilty fare alike! Is the judge of the whole world not to act justly?'

Gen 18:26 Yahweh replied, 'If I find fifty upright people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place because of them.'

Gen 18:27 Abraham spoke up and said, 'It is presumptuous of me to speak to the Lord, I who am dust and ashes.'

Gen 18:28 Suppose the fifty upright were five short? Would you destroy the whole city because of five?' 'No,' he replied, 'I shall not destroy it if I find forty-five there.'

Gen 18:29 Abraham persisted and said, 'Suppose there are forty to be found there?' 'I shall not do it,' he replied, 'for the sake of the forty.'

Gen 18:30 Abraham said, 'I hope the Lord will not be angry if I go on: Suppose there are only thirty to be found there?' 'I shall not do it,' he replied, 'if I find thirty there.'

Gen 18:31 He said, 'It is presumptuous of me to speak to the Lord: Suppose there are only twenty there?' 'I shall not destroy it,' he replied, 'for the sake of the twenty.'

Gen 18:32 He said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry if I speak once more: perhaps there will only be ten.' 'I shall not destroy it,' he replied, 'for the sake of the ten.'

Gen 18:33 When he had finished talking to Abraham Yahweh went away, and Abraham returned home.

Gen 19:1 When the two angels reached Sodom in the evening, Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. As soon as Lot saw them, he stood up to greet them, and bowed to the ground.

Gen 19:2 'My lords,' he said, 'please come down to your servant's house to stay the night and wash your feet. Then you can make an early start on your journey.' 'No,' they said, 'we shall spend the night in the square.'

Gen 19:3 But he pressed them so much that they went home with him and entered his house. He prepared a meal for them, baking unleavened bread, and they had supper.

Gen 19:4 They had not gone to bed when the house was surrounded by the townspeople, the men of Sodom both young and old, all the people without exception.

Gen 19:5 Calling out to Lot they said, 'Where are the men who came to you tonight? Send them out to us so that we can have intercourse with them.'

Gen 19:6 Lot came out to them at the door and, having shut the door behind him,

Gen 19:7 said, 'Please, brothers, do not be wicked.'

Gen 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who are virgins. I am ready to send them out to you, for you to treat as you please, but do nothing to these men since they are now under the protection of my roof.'

Gen 19:9 But they retorted, 'Stand back! This fellow came here as a foreigner, and now he wants to play the judge. Now we shall treat you worse than them.' Then they forced Lot back and moved forward to break down the door.

Gen 19:10 But the men reached out, pulled Lot back into the house with them, and shut the door.

Gen 19:11 And they dazzled those who were at the door of the house, one and all, with a blinding light, so that they could not find the doorway.

Gen 19:12 The men said to Lot, 'Have you anyone else here? Your sons, your daughters and all your people in the city, take them away,

Gen 19:13 for we are about to destroy this place, since the outcry to Yahweh against those in it has grown so loud that Yahweh has sent us to destroy it.'

Gen 19:14 So Lot went off and spoke to his future sons-in-law who were to marry his daughters. 'On your feet!' he said, 'Leave this place, for Yahweh is about to destroy the city.' But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

Gen 19:15 When dawn broke the angels urged Lot on, 'To your feet! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.'

Gen 19:16 And as he hesitated, the men seized his hand and the hands of his wife and his two daughters -- Yahweh being merciful to him -- and led him out and left him outside the city.

Gen 19:17 When they had brought him outside, he was told, 'Flee for your life. Do not look behind you or stop anywhere on the plain. Flee to the hills or you will be swept away.'

Gen 19:18 'Oh no, my lord!' Lot said to them,

Gen 19:19 'You have already been very good to your servant and shown me even greater love by saving my life, but I cannot flee to the hills, or disaster will overtake me and I shall die.'

Gen 19:20 That town over there is near enough to flee to, and is small. Let me flee there-after all it is only a small place -- and so survive.'

Gen 19:21 He replied, 'I grant you this favour too, and will not overthrow the town you speak of.'

Gen 19:22 Hurry, flee to that one, for I cannot do anything until you reach it.' That is why the town is named Zoar.

Gen 19:23 The sun rose over the horizon just as Lot was entering Zoar.

Gen 19:24 Then Yahweh rained down on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire of his own sending.

Gen 19:25 He overthrew those cities and the whole plain, with all the people living in the cities and everything that grew there.

Gen 19:26 But Lot's wife looked back, and was turned into a pillar of salt.

Gen 19:27 Next morning, Abraham hurried to the place where he had stood before Yahweh,
Gen 19:28 and looking towards Sodom and Gomorrah and the whole area of the plain, he saw the smoke rising from the ground like smoke from a furnace.

Gen 19:29 Thus it was that, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, he did not forget Abraham and he rescued Lot from the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities where Lot was living.

Gen 19:30 After leaving Zoar Lot settled in the hill country with his two daughters, for he dared not stay at Zoar.
He lived in a cave, he and his two daughters.

Gen 19:31 The elder said to the younger, 'Our father is an old man, and there is no one here to marry us in the normal way of the world.'

Gen 19:32 Come on, let us ply our father with wine and sleep with him. In this way we can preserve the race by our father.'

Gen 19:33 That night they made their father drunk, and the elder slept with her father though he was unaware of her coming to bed or of her leaving.

Gen 19:34 The next day the elder said to the younger, 'Last night, I was the one who slept with our father. Let us make him drunk again tonight, and you go and sleep with him. In this way we can preserve the race by our father.'

Gen 19:35 They made their father drunk that night too, and the younger went and slept with him, though he was unaware of her coming to bed or of her leaving.

Gen 19:36 Both Lot's daughters thus became pregnant by their father.

Gen 19:37 The elder gave birth to a son whom she named Moab; and he is the ancestor of the Moabites of our own times.

Gen 19:38 The younger also gave birth to a son whom she named Ben-Ammi; and he is the ancestor of the Bene-Ammon of our own times.

Gen 20:1 Abraham left there for the region of the Negeb, and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While staying in Gerar,

Gen 20:2 Abraham said of his wife Sarah, 'She is my sister,' and Abimelech the king of Gerar had Sarah brought to him.

Gen 20:3 But God visited Abimelech in a dream one night. 'You are to die,' he told him, 'because of the woman you have taken, for she is a married woman.'

Gen 20:4 Abimelech, however, had not gone near her; so he said, 'Lord, would you kill someone even if he is upright?'

Gen 20:5 Did he not tell me himself, "She is my sister"? And she herself said, "He is my brother." I did this with a clear conscience and clean hands.'

Gen 20:6 'Yes, I know,' God replied in the dream, 'that you did this with a clear conscience and I myself prevented you from sinning against me. That was why I did not let you touch her.'

Gen 20:7 Now send the man's wife back; for he is a prophet and can intercede on your behalf for your life. But understand that if you do not send her back, this means death for you and all yours.'

Gen 20:8 Early next morning, Abimelech summoned his full court and told them the whole story, at which the people were very much afraid.

Gen 20:9 Then summoning Abraham, Abimelech said to him, 'What have you done to us? What wrong have I done you, for you to bring such guilt on me and on my kingdom? You had no right to treat me like this.'

Gen 20:10 Abimelech then said to Abraham, 'What possessed you to do such a thing?'

Gen 20:11 'Because', Abraham replied, 'I thought there would be no fear of God here and that I should be killed for the sake of my wife.'

Gen 20:12 Anyway, she really is my sister, my father's daughter though not my mother's, besides being my wife.

Gen 20:13 So when God made me wander far from my father's home I said to her, "There is an act of love you can do me: everywhere we go, say of me that I am your brother."

Gen 20:14 Abimelech took sheep, cattle, men and women slaves, and presented them to Abraham, and gave him back his wife Sarah.

Gen 20:15 And Abimelech said, 'Look, my land is open to you. Settle wherever you please.'

Gen 20:16 To Sarah he said, 'Look, I am giving your brother a thousand pieces of silver. This will allay suspicions about you, as far as all the people round you are concerned; you have been completely vindicated.'

Gen 20:17 Abraham then interceded with God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his slave-girls, so that they could have children,

Gen 20:18 for Yahweh had made all the women of Abimelech's household barren on account of Sarah,
Abraham's wife.

Gen 21:1 Yahweh treated Sarah as he had said, and did what he had promised her.

Gen 21:2 Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time God had promised.

Gen 21:3 Abraham named the son born to him Isaac, the son to whom Sarah had given birth.

Gen 21:4 Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Gen 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Gen 21:6 Sarah said: God has given me cause to laugh! All who hear about this will laugh with me!

Gen 21:7 She added: Whoever would have told Abraham that Sarah would nurse children! Yet I have borne a son in his old age.

Gen 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham gave a great banquet on the day Isaac was weaned.

Gen 21:9 Now Sarah watched the son that Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac.

Gen 21:10 'Drive away that slave-girl and her son,' she said to Abraham, 'this slave-girl's son is not to share the inheritance with my son Isaac.'

Gen 21:11 This greatly distressed Abraham, because the slave-girl's child too was his son,

Gen 21:12 but God said to him, 'Do not distress yourself on account of the boy and your slave-girl. Do whatever Sarah says, for Isaac is the one through whom your name will be carried on.

Gen 21:13 But the slave-girl's son I shall also make into a great nation, for he too is your child.'

Gen 21:14 Early next morning, Abraham took some bread and a skin of water and, giving them to Hagar, put the child on her shoulder and sent her away. She wandered off into the desert of Beersheba.

Gen 21:15 When the skin of water was finished she abandoned the child under a bush.

Gen 21:16 Then she went and sat down at a distance, about a bowshot away, thinking, 'I cannot bear to see the child die.' Sitting at a distance, she began to sob.

Gen 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven. 'What is wrong, Hagar?' he asked. 'Do not be afraid, for God has heard the boy's cry in his plight.'

Gen 21:18 Go and pick the boy up and hold him safe, for I shall make him into a great nation.'

Gen 21:19 Then God opened Hagar's eyes and she saw a well, so she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

Gen 21:20 God was with the boy. He grew up and made his home in the desert, and he became an archer.

Gen 21:21 He made his home in the desert of Paran, and his mother got him a wife from Egypt.

Gen 21:22 About then, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, 'Since God is with you in everything you do,

Gen 21:23 swear to me by God, here and now, that you will not act treacherously towards me or my kith and kin, but behave with the same faithful love to me and the land of which you are a guest as I have behaved to you.'

Gen 21:24 'Yes,' Abraham replied, 'I swear it.'

Gen 21:25 Abraham then reproached Abimelech about a well that Abimelech's servants had seized.

Gen 21:26 'I do not know who has done this,' Abimelech said. 'You yourself have never mentioned it to me and, for myself, I heard nothing of it till today.'

Gen 21:27 Abraham then took sheep and cattle and presented them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.

Gen 21:28 Abraham put seven lambs of the flock on one side.

Gen 21:29 'Why have you put these seven lambs on one side?' Abimelech asked Abraham.

Gen 21:30 He replied, 'You must accept these seven lambs from me as evidence that I have dug this well.'

Gen 21:31 This was why the place was called Beersheba: because there the two of them swore an oath.

Gen 21:32 After they had made a covenant at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, left and went back to Philistine territory.

Gen 21:33 And Abraham planted a tamarisk at Beersheba and there he invoked the name of Yahweh.

Gen 21:34 Abraham stayed for a long while in Philistine territory.

Gen 22:1 It happened some time later that God put Abraham to the test. 'Abraham, Abraham!' he called. 'Here I am,' he replied.

Gen 22:2 God said, 'Take your son, your only son, your beloved Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, where you are to offer him as a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I shall point out to you.'

Gen 22:3 Early next morning Abraham saddled his donkey and took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. He chopped wood for the burnt offering and started on his journey to the place which God had indicated to him.

Gen 22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

Gen 22:5 Then Abraham said to his servants, 'Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I are going over there; we shall worship and then come back to you.'

Gen 22:6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering, loaded it on Isaac, and carried in his own hands the fire and the knife. Then the two of them set out together.

Gen 22:7 Isaac spoke to his father Abraham. 'Father?' he said. 'Yes, my son,' he replied. 'Look,' he said, 'here are the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?'

Gen 22:8 Abraham replied, 'My son, God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering.' And the two of them went on together.

Gen 22:9 When they arrived at the place which God had indicated to him, Abraham built an altar there, and arranged the wood. Then he bound his son and put him on the altar on top of the wood.

Gen 22:10 Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.

Gen 22:11 But the angel of Yahweh called to him from heaven. 'Abraham, Abraham!' he said. 'Here I am,' he replied.

Gen 22:12 'Do not raise your hand against the boy,' the angel said. 'Do not harm him, for now I know you fear God. You have not refused me your own beloved son.'

Gen 22:13 Then looking up, Abraham saw a ram caught by its horns in a bush. Abraham took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son.

Gen 22:14 Abraham called this place 'Yahweh provides', and hence the saying today: 'On the mountain Yahweh provides.'

Gen 22:15 The angel of Yahweh called Abraham a second time from heaven.

Gen 22:16 'I swear by my own self, Yahweh declares, that because you have done this, because you have not refused me your own beloved son,

Gen 22:17 I will shower blessings on you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars of heaven and the grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will gain possession of the gates of their enemies.

Gen 22:18 All nations on earth will bless themselves by your descendants, because you have obeyed my command.'

Gen 22:19 Abraham went back to his servants, and together they set out for Beersheba, and Abraham settled in Beersheba.

Gen 22:20 It happened some time later that Abraham received word that Milcah, too, had now borne sons to his brother Nahor:

Gen 22:21 Uz his first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel father of Aram,

Gen 22:22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, Bethuel

Gen 22:23 (and Bethuel was the father of Rebekah). These were the eight children Milcah gave Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Gen 22:24 He had a concubine named Reumah, and she too had children: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

Gen 23:1 The length of Sarah's life was a hundred and twenty-seven years.

Gen 23:2 She died at Kiriath-Arba -- now Hebron -- in the land of Canaan, and Abraham proceeded to mourn and bewail her.

Gen 23:3 Then rising from beside his dead, Abraham spoke to the Hittites,

Gen 23:4 'I am a stranger resident here,' he said. 'Let me have a burial site of my own here, so that I can remove my dead for burial.'

Gen 23:5 The Hittites replied to Abraham,

Gen 23:6 'Please listen to us, my lord, we regard you as a prince of God; bury your dead in the best of our tombs; not one of us would refuse you his tomb for you to bury your dead.'

Gen 23:7 At this, Abraham rose and bowed low to the local people, the Hittites,

Gen 23:8 and pleaded with them as follows, 'If you consent to my removing my dead for burial, you must agree to intercede for me with Ephron son of Zohar,

Gen 23:9 for him to let me have the cave he owns at Machpelah, which is on the edge of his field. Let him sell it to me in your presence at its full price, for a burial site of my own.'

Gen 23:10 Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites, and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the Hittites, of all the inhabitants of his town.

Gen 23:11 'No, my lord, listen to me,' he said. 'I give you the field and the cave in it; I make this gift in the presence of my kinsmen. Bury your dead.'

Gen 23:12 Abraham bowed low to the local people

Gen 23:13 and, in the hearing of the local people, replied to Ephron as follows, 'Be good enough to listen to me. I shall pay the price of the field; accept it from me and I shall bury my dead there.'

Gen 23:14 Ephron replied to Abraham,

Gen 23:15 'Please listen to me, my lord. What is a plot of land for four hundred shekels of silver between me and you? Bury your dead.'

Gen 23:16 Abraham agreed to Ephron's terms, and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver he had stipulated in the hearing of the Hittites, namely four hundred shekels of silver, according to the current commercial rate.

Gen 23:17 Thus Ephron's field at Machpelah, facing Mamre -- the field and the cave in it and all the trees anywhere within the boundaries of the field -- passed

Gen 23:18 into Abraham's possession in the sight of the Hittites, of all the inhabitants of his town.

Gen 23:19 And after this, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave of the field of Machpelah, facing Mamre -- now Hebron -- in the land of Canaan.

Gen 23:20 And so the field and the cave in it passed from the Hittites into Abraham's possession as a burial site of his own.

Gen 24:1 By now Abraham was an old man, well on in years, and Yahweh had blessed Abraham in every way.

Gen 24:2 Abraham said to the senior servant in his household, the steward of all his property, 'Place your hand under my thigh:

Gen 24:3 I am going to make you swear by Yahweh, God of heaven and God of earth, that you will not choose a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I live

Gen 24:4 but will go to my native land and my own kinsfolk to choose a wife for my son Isaac.'

Gen 24:5 The servant asked him, 'What if the girl does not want to follow me to this country? Should I then take your son back to the country from which you come?'

Gen 24:6 Abraham replied, 'On no account are you to take my son back there.'

Gen 24:7 Yahweh, God of heaven and God of earth, who took me from my father's home, and from the land of my kinsfolk, and who promised me on oath, "I shall give this country to your descendants"-he will now send his angel ahead of you, so that you can get a wife for my son from there.

Gen 24:8 If then the girl refuses to follow you, you will be quit of this oath to me. Only do not take my son back there.'

Gen 24:9 And the servant placed his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham, and swore to him that he would do it.

Gen 24:10 The servant took ten of his master's camels and, carrying all kinds of gifts from his master, set out for the city of Nahor in Aram Naharaim.

Gen 24:11 In the evening, at the time when women come out to draw water, he made the camels kneel outside the town near the well.

Gen 24:12 And he said, 'Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, give me success today and show faithful love to my master Abraham.

Gen 24:13 While I stand by the spring as the young women from the town come out to draw water,

Gen 24:14 I shall say to one of the girls, "Please lower your pitcher and let me drink." And if she answers, "Drink, and I shall water your camels too," let her be the one you have decreed for your servant Isaac; by this I shall know you have shown faithful love to my master.'

Gen 24:15 He had not finished speaking when out came Rebekah -- who was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor -- with a pitcher on her shoulder.

Gen 24:16 The girl was very beautiful, and a virgin; no man had touched her. She went down to the spring, filled her pitcher and came up again.

Gen 24:17 Running towards her, the servant said, 'Please give me a sip of water from your pitcher.'

Gen 24:18 She replied, 'Drink, my lord,' and quickly lowered her pitcher on her arm and gave him a drink.

Gen 24:19 When she had finished letting him drink, she said, 'I shall draw water for your camels, too, until they have had enough.'

Gen 24:20 She quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran to the well again to draw, and drew for all the camels.

Gen 24:21 All the while, the man stood watching her, not daring to speak, wondering whether Yahweh had made his journey successful or not.

Gen 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing half a shekel, and put it through her nose, and put two bracelets weighing ten gold shekels on her arms,

Gen 24:23 and said, 'Whose daughter are you? Please tell me. Is there room at your father's house for us to spend the night?'

Gen 24:24 She replied, 'I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son whom Milcah bore to Nahor.'

Gen 24:25 And she went on, 'We have plenty of straw and fodder, and room to spend the night.'

Gen 24:26 Then the man bowed down and worshipped Yahweh

Gen 24:27 saying, 'Blessed be Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, for not withholding his faithful love from my master. Yahweh has led me straight to the house of my master's brother.'

Gen 24:28 The girl ran to her mother's house to tell what had happened.

Gen 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ran out to the man at the spring.

Gen 24:30 As soon as he had seen the ring and the bracelets his sister was wearing, and had heard his sister Rebekah saying, 'This is what the man said to me,' he went to the man and found him still standing by his camels at the spring.

Gen 24:31 He said to him, 'Come in, blessed of Yahweh, why stay out here when I have cleared the house and made room for the camels?'

Gen 24:32 The man went to the house, and Laban unloaded the camels. He provided straw and fodder for the camels and water for him and his companions to wash their feet.

Gen 24:33 They offered him food, but he said, 'I will eat nothing before I have said what I have to say.' Laban said, 'Speak.'

Gen 24:34 He said, 'I am Abraham's servant.'

Gen 24:35 Yahweh has loaded my master with blessings, and Abraham is now very rich. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, men and women slaves, camels and donkeys.

Gen 24:36 Sarah, my master's wife, bore my master a son in his old age, and he has made over all his property to him.

Gen 24:37 My master made me take this oath, "You are not to choose a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose country I live."

Gen 24:38 Instead, you are to go to my father's home and to my own kinsfolk to choose a wife for my son."

Gen 24:39 I said to my master, "Suppose the girl will not agree to come with me?"

Gen 24:40 and his reply was, "Yahweh, in whose presence I have walked, will send his angel with you and make your journey successful, for you to choose a wife for my son from my own kinsfolk, from my father's house."

Gen 24:41 Then you will be quit of my curse: if you go to my family and they refuse you, you will be quit of my curse."

Gen 24:42 Arriving today at the spring I said, "Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, please grant a successful outcome to the course I propose to take."

Gen 24:43 While I stand by the spring, if a girl comes out to draw water and I say to her, 'Please give me a little water to drink from your pitcher,'

Gen 24:44 if she replies, 'Drink by all means, and I shall draw water for your camels too,' let her be the girl whom Yahweh has decreed for my master's son."

Gen 24:45 I was still saying this in my mind when Rebekah came out, her pitcher on her shoulder. She came down to the spring and drew water. I said to her, "Please give me a drink."

Gen 24:46 Quickly she lowered her pitcher saying, "Drink, and I shall water your camels too."

Gen 24:47 I asked her, "Whose daughter are you?" She replied, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, whom Milcah bore to Nahor." Then I put this ring through her nose and these bracelets on her arms.

Gen 24:48 I bowed down and worshipped Yahweh, and I blessed Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, who had led me by a direct path to choose the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

Gen 24:49 Now tell me whether you are prepared to show constant and faithful love to my master; if not, say so, and I shall know what to do.'

Gen 24:50 Laban and Bethuel replied, 'This is from Yahweh; it is not for us to say yes or no to you.'

Gen 24:51 Rebekah is there before you. Take her and go; and let her become the wife of your master's son, as Yahweh has decreed.'

Gen 24:52 On hearing this, Abraham's servant bowed to the ground before Yahweh.

Gen 24:53 He brought out silver and gold ornaments and clothes which he gave to Rebekah; he also gave rich presents to her brother and to her mother.

Gen 24:54 They ate and drank, he and his companions, and spent the night there. Next morning when they were up, he said, 'Let me go back to my master.'

Gen 24:55 Rebekah's brother and mother replied, 'Let the girl stay with us for ten days or so; then she can go.'

Gen 24:56 But he replied, 'Do not delay me, since Yahweh has made my journey successful; let me leave and go back to my master.'

Gen 24:57 They replied, 'Let us call the girl and find out what she has to say.'

Gen 24:58 They called Rebekah and asked her, 'Will you go with this man?' She replied, 'I will.'

Gen 24:59 Accordingly they let their sister Rebekah go, with her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

Gen 24:60 They blessed Rebekah and said to her: Sister of ours, from you may there spring thousands and tens of thousands! May your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!

Gen 24:61 And forthwith, Rebekah and her maids mounted the camels, and followed the man. The servant took Rebekah and departed.

Gen 24:62 Isaac meanwhile had come back from the well of Lahai Roi and was living in the Negeb.

Gen 24:63 While Isaac was out walking towards evening in the fields, he looked up and saw camels approaching.

Gen 24:64 And Rebekah looked up and saw Isaac. She jumped down from her camel,

Gen 24:65 and asked the servant, 'Who is that man walking through the fields towards us?' The servant replied, 'That is my master.' So she took her veil and covered herself up.

Gen 24:66 The servant told Isaac the whole story.

Gen 24:67 Then Isaac took her into his tent. He married Rebekah and made her his wife. And in his love for her, Isaac was consoled for the loss of his mother.

Gen 25:1 Abraham married another wife whose name was Keturah;

Gen 25:2 and she bore him Zimram, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shua.

Gen 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan, and the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushim and the Leummim.

Gen 25:4 The descendants of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eladaah. All these were sons of Keturah.

Gen 25:5 Abraham left all his possessions to Isaac.

Gen 25:6 To the sons of his concubines Abraham made grants during his lifetime, sending them away from his son Isaac eastward, to the Land of the East.

Gen 25:7 The number of years Abraham lived was a hundred and seventy-five.

Gen 25:8 When Abraham had breathed his last, dying at a happy ripe age, old and full of years, he was gathered to his people.

Gen 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah facing Mamre, in the field of Ephron the Hittite son of Zohar.

Gen 25:10 This was the field that Abraham had bought from the Hittites, and Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried there.

Gen 25:11 After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac. Isaac settled near the well of Lahai Roi.

Gen 25:12 These are the descendants of Ishmael son of Abraham by Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian slave-girl.

Gen 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael by name and line: Ishmael's first-born was Nebaioth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Gen 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Gen 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

Gen 25:16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, according to their settlements and encampments, twelve chiefs of as many tribes.

Gen 25:17 The number of years Ishmael lived was one hundred and thirty-seven. When he breathed his last and died, he was gathered to his people.

Gen 25:18 He lived in the territory stretching from Havilah-by-Shur just outside Egypt on the way to Assyria, and he held his own against all his kinsmen.

Gen 25:19 This is the story of Isaac son of Abraham. Abraham fathered Isaac.

Gen 25:20 Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel the Aramaean of Paddan-Aram, and sister of Laban the Aramaean.

Gen 25:21 Isaac prayed to Yahweh on behalf of his wife, for she was barren. Yahweh heard his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

Gen 25:22 But the children inside her struggled so much that she said, 'If this is the way of it, why go on living?' So she went to consult Yahweh,

Gen 25:23 and Yahweh said to her: There are two nations in your womb, your issue will be two rival peoples. One nation will have the mastery of the other, and the elder will serve the younger.

Gen 25:24 When the time came for her confinement, there were indeed twins in her womb.

Gen 25:25 The first to be born was red, altogether like a hairy cloak; so they named him Esau.

Gen 25:26 Then his brother was born, with his hand grasping Esau's heel; so they named him Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old at the time of their birth.

Gen 25:27 When the boys grew up Esau became a skilled hunter, a man of the open country. Jacob on the other hand was a quiet man, staying at home among the tents.

Gen 25:28 Isaac preferred Esau, for he had a taste for wild game; but Rebekah preferred Jacob.

Gen 25:29 Once, when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau returned from the countryside exhausted.

Gen 25:30 Esau said to Jacob, 'Give me a mouthful of that red stuff there; I am exhausted' -- hence the name given to him, Edom.

Gen 25:31 Jacob said, 'First, give me your birthright in exchange.'

Gen 25:32 Esau said, 'Here I am, at death's door; what use is a birthright to me?'

Gen 25:33 Then Jacob said, 'First give me your oath'; he gave him his oath and sold his birthright to Jacob.

Gen 25:34 Then Jacob gave him some bread and lentil stew; he ate, drank, got up and went away. That was all Esau cared about his birthright.

Gen 26:1 There was a famine in the country -- different from the previous famine which took place in the time of Abraham -- and Isaac went to Abimelech, the Philistine king at Gerar.

Gen 26:2 Yahweh had appeared to him and said, 'Do not go down to Egypt; stay in the country which I shall point out to you.'

Gen 26:3 Remain for the present in that country; I shall be with you and bless you, for I shall give all these countries to you and your descendants in fulfilment of the oath I swore to your father Abraham.

Gen 26:4 I shall make your descendants as numerous as the stars of heaven, and I shall give them all these countries, and all nations on earth will bless themselves by your descendants

Gen 26:5 in return for Abraham's obedience; for he kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes and my laws.'

Gen 26:6 So Isaac stayed at Gerar.

Gen 26:7 When the people of the place asked him about his wife he replied, 'She is my sister,' for he was afraid to say, 'She is my wife,' thinking, 'The people of the place will kill me because of Rebekah, since she is beautiful.'

Gen 26:8 When he had been there some time, Abimelech the Philistine king happened to look out of the window and saw Isaac fondling his wife Rebekah.

Gen 26:9 Abimelech summoned Isaac and said to him, 'Surely she must be your wife! How could you have said, "She is my sister"?' Isaac replied, 'Because I thought I might be killed on her account.'

Gen 26:10 Abimelech said, 'What a thing to do to us! One of the people might easily have slept with your wife. We should have incurred guilt, thanks to you.'

Gen 26:11 Then Abimelech issued this order to all the people: 'Whoever touches this man or his wife will be put to death.'

Gen 26:12 Isaac sowed his crops in that country, and that year he reaped a hundredfold. Yahweh blessed him

Gen 26:13 and the man became rich; he prospered more and more until he was very rich indeed.

Gen 26:14 He acquired flocks and herds and a large retinue. The Philistines began to envy him.

Gen 26:15 The Philistines had blocked up all the wells dug by his father's servants -- in the days of his father Abraham -- filling them in with earth.

Gen 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, 'You must leave us, for you have become much more powerful than we are.'

Gen 26:17 So Isaac left; he pitched camp in the Valley of Gerar and there he stayed.

Gen 26:18 Isaac reopened the wells dug by the servants of his father Abraham and blocked up by the Philistines after Abraham's death, and he gave them the same names as his father had given them.

Gen 26:19 But when Isaac's servants, digging in the valley, found a well of spring-water there,

Gen 26:20 the herdsmen of Gerar disputed it with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, 'That water is ours!' So Isaac named the well Esek, because they had disputed with him.

Gen 26:21 They dug another well, and there was a dispute over that one too; so he named it Sitnah.

Gen 26:22 Then he left there, and dug another well, and since there was no dispute over this one, he named it Rehoboth, saying, 'Now Yahweh has made room for us to thrive in the country.'

Gen 26:23 From there he went up to Beersheba.

Gen 26:24 Yahweh appeared to him the same night and said: I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I shall bless you and multiply your offspring for my servant Abraham's sake.

Gen 26:25 There he built an altar and invoked the name of Yahweh. There he pitched his tent, and there Isaac's servants sank a well.

Gen 26:26 Abimelech came from Gerar to see him, with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army.

Gen 26:27 Isaac said to them, 'Why do you come to me since you hate me, and have made me leave you?'

Gen 26:28 'It became clear to us that Yahweh was with you,' they replied, 'and so we thought, "It is time to have a treaty sworn between us, between us and you." So let us make a covenant with you:

Gen 26:29 that you will not do us any harm, since we never molested you but were unfailingly kind to you and let you go away in peace. Henceforth, Yahweh's blessing on you!'

Gen 26:30 He then made them a feast and they ate and drank.

Gen 26:31 Early next morning, they exchanged oaths. Then Isaac bade them farewell and they left him as friends.

Gen 26:32 It happened, the same day, that Isaac's servants brought him news about the well they had been digging. 'We have found water!' they said to him.

Gen 26:33 So he called the well Sheba, and hence the town is named Beersheba to this day.

Gen 26:34 When Esau was forty years old he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Gen 26:35 These were a bitter disappointment to Isaac and Rebekah.

Gen 27:1 When Isaac had grown old, and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he summoned his elder son Esau. 'Son!' he said, and Esau replied, 'Here I am.'

Gen 27:2 He then said, 'Look, I am old and do not know when I may die.'

Gen 27:3 Now take your weapons, your quiver and bow; go out into the country and hunt me some game.

Gen 27:4 Make me the kind of appetising dish I like and bring it to me to eat and I shall give you my special blessing before I die.'

Gen 27:5 Rebekah was listening while Isaac was talking to his son Esau. So when Esau went into the country to hunt game for his father,

Gen 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, 'I have just heard your father saying to your brother Esau,
Gen 27:7 "Bring me some game and make an appetising dish for me to eat and then I shall bless you in Yahweh's presence before I die."

Gen 27:8 Now, son, listen to me and do as I tell you.

Gen 27:9 Go to the flock and bring me back two good kids, so that I can make the kind of special dish your father likes.

Gen 27:10 Then take it to your father for him to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies.'

Gen 27:11 Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, 'Look, my brother Esau is hairy, while I am smooth-skinned.

Gen 27:12 If my father happens to touch me, he will see I am cheating him, and I shall bring a curse down on myself instead of a blessing.'

Gen 27:13 But his mother replied, 'On me be the curse, my son! Just listen to me; go and fetch me the kids.'

Gen 27:14 So he went to fetch them and brought them to his mother, and she made the kind of special dish his father liked.

Gen 27:15 Rebekah took her elder son Esau's best clothes, which she had at home, and dressed her younger son Jacob in them,

Gen 27:16 covering his arms and the smooth part of his neck with the skins of the kids.

Gen 27:17 She then handed the special dish and the bread she had made to her son Jacob.

Gen 27:18 He went to his father and said, 'Father!' 'Yes?' he replied. 'Which of my sons are you?'

Gen 27:19 Jacob said to his father, 'I am Esau your first-born; I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of the game I have brought and then give me your soul's blessing.'

Gen 27:20 Isaac said to his son, 'Son, how did you succeed so quickly?' He replied, 'Because Yahweh your God made things go well for me.'

Gen 27:21 Isaac said to Jacob, 'Come closer, son, so that I can feel you and be sure whether you really are my son Esau or not.'

Gen 27:22 Jacob went closer to his father Isaac, who felt him and said, 'The voice is Jacob's voice but the arms are the arms of Esau!'

Gen 27:23 He did not recognise him since his arms were hairy like his brother Esau's, and so he blessed him.

Gen 27:24 He said, 'Are you really my son Esau?' And he replied, 'I am.'

Gen 27:25 Isaac said, 'Serve it to me, so that I can eat my son's game and give you my special blessing.' He served it to him and he ate; he offered him wine, and he drank.

Gen 27:26 His father Isaac said to him, 'Come closer, and kiss me, son.'

Gen 27:27 He went closer and kissed his father, who sniffed the smell of his clothes. Then he blessed him, saying: Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a fertile field which Yahweh has blessed.

Gen 27:28 May God give you dew from heaven, and the richness of the earth, abundance of grain and wine!

Gen 27:29 Let peoples serve you and nations bow low before you! Be master of your brothers; let your mother's other sons bow low before you! Accursed be whoever curses you and blessed be whoever blesses you!

Gen 27:30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and just as Jacob was leaving his father Isaac, his brother Esau returned from hunting.

Gen 27:31 He too made an appetising dish and brought it to his father, 'Father, please eat some of your son's game and then give me your special blessing.'

Gen 27:32 His father Isaac asked, 'Who are you?' 'I am your first-born son, Esau,' he replied.

Gen 27:33 At this Isaac was seized with a violent trembling and said, 'Who was it, then, that went hunting and brought me the game? I finished eating it just before you came; I blessed him, and now blessed he will remain!'

Gen 27:34 On hearing his father's words, Esau cried out loudly and bitterly and said to his father, 'Father, bless me too!'

Gen 27:35 But he replied, 'Your brother came by fraud and took your blessing.'

Gen 27:36 Esau said, 'His name should be Jacob right enough, for he has now supplanted me twice. First he took my birthright, and look, now he has gone and taken my blessing! But', he added, 'have you not kept a blessing for me?'

Gen 27:37 Isaac replied to Esau, 'I have already made him your master; I have given him all his brothers as servants, I have given him grain and wine to sustain him. So what can I do for you, son?'

Gen 27:38 Esau said to his father, 'Can you bless only once, father? Father, bless me too.' Isaac remained silent, and Esau began to weep aloud.

Gen 27:39 Then his father Isaac spoke again and said: 'Far from the richness of the earth and the dew of heaven above, your home will be.'

Gen 27:40 By your sword you will live, and your brother will you serve. But when you win your freedom, you will shake his yoke off your neck.'

Gen 27:41 Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him, and Esau said to himself, 'The time to mourn for my father will soon be here. Then I shall kill my brother Jacob.'

Gen 27:42 When the words of Esau, her elder son, were repeated to Rebekah, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, 'Look, your brother Esau means to take revenge and kill you.'

Gen 27:43 Now, son, listen to me; go at once and take refuge with my brother Laban in Haran.

Gen 27:44 Stay with him a while, until your brother's fury cools,

Gen 27:45 until your brother's anger is diverted from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I shall send someone to bring you back. I do not want to lose you both on one day!'

Gen 27:46 Rebekah said to Isaac, 'The Hittite women sicken me to death. If Jacob were to marry a Hittite woman like these, one of the local women, what would there be left in life for me?'

Gen 28:1 So Isaac summoned Jacob and blessed him; and he gave him this order: 'You are not to marry any of the Canaanite women.'

Gen 28:2 Go off to Paddan-Aram, the home of Bethuel your mother's father, and there choose a wife for yourself from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

Gen 28:3 May El Shaddai bless you; may he make you fruitful and make you multiply so that you become a group of nations.

Gen 28:4 May he grant you the blessing of Abraham, you and your descendants after you, so that one day you may own the country where you are now living as a stranger -- which God gave to Abraham.'

Gen 28:5 Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and Jacob went to Paddan-Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramaean and brother of Rebekah the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Gen 28:6 When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-Aram to choose a wife there, and that in blessing him he had given him this order: 'You are not to choose a wife from the Canaanite women,'

Gen 28:7 and that, in obedience to his father and mother, Jacob had gone to Paddan-Aram,

Gen 28:8 Esau then realised how much his father Isaac disapproved of the Canaanite women.

Gen 28:9 So Esau went to Ishmael and chose for a wife, in addition to the wives he had, Mahalath daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Gen 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran.

Gen 28:11 When he had reached a certain place, he stopped there for the night, since the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of that place, he made it his pillow and lay down where he was.

Gen 28:12 He had a dream: there was a ladder, planted on the ground with its top reaching to heaven; and God's angels were going up and down on it.

Gen 28:13 And there was Yahweh, standing beside him and saying, 'I, Yahweh, am the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The ground on which you are lying I shall give to you and your descendants.'

Gen 28:14 Your descendants will be as plentiful as the dust on the ground; you will spread out to west and east, to north and south, and all clans on earth will bless themselves by you and your descendants.'

Gen 28:15 Be sure, I am with you; I shall keep you safe wherever you go, and bring you back to this country, for I shall never desert you until I have done what I have promised you.'

Gen 28:16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, 'Truly, Yahweh is in this place and I did not know!'

Gen 28:17 He was afraid and said, 'How awe-inspiring this place is! This is nothing less than the abode of God, and this is the gate of heaven!'

Gen 28:18 Early next morning, Jacob took the stone he had used for his pillow, and set it up as a pillar, pouring oil over the top of it.

Gen 28:19 He named the place Bethel, but before that the town had been called Luz.

Gen 28:20 Jacob then made this vow, 'If God remains with me and keeps me safe on this journey I am making, if he gives me food to eat and clothes to wear,

Gen 28:21 and if I come home safe to my father's home, then Yahweh shall be my God.'

Gen 28:22 This stone I have set up as a pillar is to be a house of God, and I shall faithfully pay you a tenth part of everything you give me.'

Gen 29:1 Continuing his journey, Jacob reached the Land of the Easterners.

Gen 29:2 And there, out in the open, he saw a well with three flocks of sheep lying beside it; this well was used for watering the flocks. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was a large one,

Gen 29:3 and only when all the flocks had collected there, did they roll the stone off the mouth of the well and water the sheep; then they would replace the stone over the mouth of the well.

Gen 29:4 Jacob said to the shepherds, 'Friends, where are you from?' They replied, 'We are from Haran.'

Gen 29:5 He asked them, 'Do you know Laban son of Nahor?' They replied, 'We do.'

Gen 29:6 Then he asked them, 'Is he well?' 'He is,' they replied, 'and here comes his daughter Rachel with the flock.'

Gen 29:7 Then he said, 'But it is still broad daylight, not the time to round up the animals. Why don't you water the sheep and take them back to graze?'

Gen 29:8 To which, they replied, 'We can't, until all the shepherds have assembled to roll the stone off the mouth of the well; then we can water the sheep.'

Gen 29:9 He was still talking to them, when Rachel arrived with her father's flock, for she was a shepherdess.

Gen 29:10 As soon as Jacob saw Rachel, his uncle Laban's daughter, with his uncle Laban's flock, he went up and, rolling the stone off the mouth of the well, watered his uncle Laban's sheep.

Gen 29:11 Jacob then kissed Rachel and burst into tears.

Gen 29:12 He told Rachel he was her father's kinsman and Rebekah's son, and she ran to tell her father.

Gen 29:13 As soon as he heard her speak of his sister's son Jacob, Laban ran to greet him, embraced him, kissed him and took him to his house. Jacob told Laban everything that had happened,

Gen 29:14 and Laban said to him, 'You are indeed my bone and flesh!' After Jacob had been staying with him for a month,

Gen 29:15 Laban said to Jacob, 'Just because you are my kinsman, why should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what wages you want.'

Gen 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder named Leah, and the younger Rachel.

Gen 29:17 Leah had lovely eyes, but Rachel was shapely and beautiful,

Gen 29:18 and Jacob had fallen in love with Rachel. So his answer was, 'I shall work for you for seven years in exchange for your younger daughter Rachel.'

Gen 29:19 Laban replied, 'It is better for me to give her to you than to a stranger; stay with me.'

Gen 29:20 So Jacob worked for seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him like a few days because he loved her so much.

Gen 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, 'Give me my wife, for my time is up and I should like to go to her.'

Gen 29:22 Laban gathered all the people of the place together, and gave a banquet.

Gen 29:23 But when night came, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob, and he slept with her.

Gen 29:24 (Laban gave his slave-girl Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her slave.)

Gen 29:25 When morning came, it was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, 'What have you done to me? Did I not work for you for Rachel? Why then have you tricked me?'

Gen 29:26 Laban replied, 'It is not the custom in our place to marry off the younger before the elder.'

Gen 29:27 Finish this marriage week and I shall give you the other one too in return for your working for me for another seven years.'

Gen 29:28 Jacob agreed and, when he had finished the week, Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

Gen 29:29 (Laban gave his slave-girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her slave.)

Gen 29:30 So Jacob slept with Rachel too, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. He worked for Laban for another seven years.

Gen 29:31 When Yahweh saw that Leah was unloved, he opened her womb, while Rachel remained barren.

Gen 29:32 Leah conceived and gave birth to a son whom she named Reuben, meaning 'Yahweh has seen my misery'; and she said, 'Now my husband will love me.'

Gen 29:33 Conceiving again, she gave birth to a son and said, 'Yahweh heard that I was unloved, and so he has given me this one too'; and she named him Simeon.

Gen 29:34 Again she conceived and gave birth to a son, and said, 'This time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.' Accordingly, she named him Levi.

Gen 29:35 Again she conceived and gave birth to a son, and said, 'Now I shall praise Yahweh!' Accordingly, she named him Judah. Then she had no more children.

Gen 30:1 Rachel, seeing that she herself gave Jacob no children, became jealous of her sister. And she said to Jacob, 'Give me children, or I shall die!'

Gen 30:2 This made Jacob angry with Rachel, and he retorted, 'Am I in the position of God, who has denied you motherhood?'

Gen 30:3 So she said, 'Here is my slave-girl, Bilhah. Sleep with her and let her give birth on my knees; through her, then, I too shall have children!'

Gen 30:4 So she gave him her slave-girl Bilhah as concubine. Jacob slept with her,

Gen 30:5 and Bilhah conceived and gave birth to a son by Jacob.

Gen 30:6 Then Rachel said, 'God has done me justice; yes, he has heard my prayer and given me a son.'

Accordingly she named him Dan.

Gen 30:7 Again Rachel's slave-girl Bilhah conceived and gave birth to a second son by Jacob.

Gen 30:8 Then Rachel said, 'I have fought a fateful battle with my sister, and I have won!' So she named him Naphtali.

Gen 30:9 Now Leah, seeing that she had ceased to bear children, took her slave-girl Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as concubine.

Gen 30:10 So Leah's slave-girl Zilpah gave birth to a son by Jacob.

Gen 30:11 Then Leah exclaimed, 'What good fortune!' So she named him Gad.

Gen 30:12 Leah's slave-girl Zilpah gave birth to a second son by Jacob.

Gen 30:13 Then Leah said, 'What blessedness! Women will call me blessed!' So she named him Asher.

Gen 30:14 One day, at the time of the wheat harvest, Reuben found some mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, 'Please give me some of your son's mandrakes.'

Gen 30:15 Leah replied, 'Is it not enough to have taken my husband, without your taking my son's mandrakes as well?' So Rachel said, 'Very well, he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes.'

Gen 30:16 When Jacob came back from the fields that night, Leah went out to meet him and said, 'You must come to me, for I have hired you at the price of my son's mandrakes.' So he slept with her that night.

Gen 30:17 God heard Leah, and she conceived and gave birth to a fifth son by Jacob.

Gen 30:18 Then Leah said, 'God has given me my reward for giving my slave-girl to my husband.' So she named him Issachar.

Gen 30:19 Again Leah conceived and gave birth to a sixth son by Jacob,

Gen 30:20 and said, 'God has given me a fine gift; now my husband will bring me presents, for I have borne him six sons.' So she named him Zebulun.

Gen 30:21 Later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

Gen 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel; he heard her and opened her womb.

Gen 30:23 She conceived and gave birth to a son, and said, 'God has taken away my disgrace!'

Gen 30:24 She named him Joseph, saying, 'May Yahweh add another son for me!'

Gen 30:25 When Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, 'Release me and let me go home to my own country.

Gen 30:26 Give me my wives for whom I have worked for you, and my children, and let me go. You are well aware how long I have worked for you.'

Gen 30:27 Laban replied, 'If I have done what pleases you . . . I have learnt by divination that Yahweh has blessed me because of you.

Gen 30:28 So name your wages,' he added, 'and I will pay.'

Gen 30:29 He replied, 'You know how hard I have worked for you, and how your stock has fared in my charge.

Gen 30:30 The little you had before I came has increased enormously, and Yahweh has blessed you wherever I have been. When am I to provide for my own household too?'

Gen 30:31 Laban said, 'How much am I to pay you?' Jacob replied, 'You need not pay me anything. I shall change my mind and go on tending your flock, if you do this one thing for me.

Gen 30:32 'Go through your entire flock today and remove every black animal among the sheep, and every speckled or spotted one among the goats. These will be my wages,

Gen 30:33 and my uprightness will answer for me later: when you come to check my wages, every goat I have that is not speckled or spotted, and every sheep that is not black will count as stolen by me.'

Gen 30:34 Laban replied, 'Good, just as you say.'

Gen 30:35 That same day he removed the striped and speckled he-goats and all the spotted and speckled sheep-goats, every one that had white on it, and all the black sheep, and entrusted these to his sons.

Gen 30:36 Then he put a three days' journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob grazed the rest of Laban's flock.

Gen 30:37 Jacob then got fresh shoots from poplar, almond and plane trees, and peeled them in white strips, laying bare the white part of the shoots.

Gen 30:38 He set up the shoots he had peeled in front of the animals, in the troughs, in the water-holes where the animals came to drink. Since they mated when they came to drink,

Gen 30:39 the goats thus mated in front of the shoots and so the goats produced striped, spotted and speckled young.

Gen 30:40 The ewes, on the other hand, Jacob kept apart and made these face whatever was striped or black in Laban's flock. Thus he built up droves of his own which he did not put with Laban's flocks.

Gen 30:41 Furthermore, whenever the sturdier animals were mating, Jacob put the shoots where the animals could see them, in the troughs, so that they would mate in front of the shoots.

Gen 30:42 But when the animals were feeble, he did not put them there; so Laban got the feeble, and Jacob the sturdy.

Gen 30:43 Thus the man grew extremely rich, and came to own large flocks, men and women slaves, camels and donkeys.

Gen 31:1 Jacob learned that Laban's sons were saying, 'Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father; it is at our father's expense that he has acquired all this wealth.'

Gen 31:2 and Jacob also saw that Laban's manner towards him was not as it had been in the past.

Gen 31:3 Yahweh said to Jacob, 'Go back to the land of your ancestors, where you were born, and I shall be with you.'

Gen 31:4 So Jacob had Rachel and Leah called to the fields where his flocks were,

Gen 31:5 and he said to them, 'I can see that your father's manner towards me is not as it was in the past, but the God of my father has been with me.

Gen 31:6 You yourselves know that I have worked for your father with all my might,
Gen 31:7 and that your father has tricked me, changing my wages ten times over, and yet God has not allowed him to harm me.
Gen 31:8 Whenever he said, "The spotted ones will be your wages," all the animals produced spotted young; whenever he said, "The striped ones will be your wages," all the animals produced striped young.
Gen 31:9 Thus God has reclaimed your father's livestock and given it to me.
Gen 31:10 Once, when the animals were on heat, I suddenly saw in a dream that the he-goats covering the females were striped or spotted or piebald.
Gen 31:11 In the dream the angel of God called to me, "Jacob!" I said, "Here I am."
Gen 31:12 He said, "Now take note: all the he-goats covering the females are striped or spotted or piebald -- for I too have noted all the things that Laban has been doing to you,
Gen 31:13 I am the God who appeared to you at Bethel, where you poured oil on a pillar and made a vow to me. On your feet, then, leave this country and return to the land of your birth." '
Gen 31:14 In answer Rachel and Leah said to him, 'Are we still likely to inherit anything from our father's estate?
Gen 31:15 Does he not think of us as outsiders now? For not only has he sold us, but he has completely swallowed up the money he got for us.
Gen 31:16 All the wealth that God has reclaimed from our father belonged to us and our children in any case. So do whatever God has told you.'
Gen 31:17 Forthwith, Jacob put his children and his wives on camels,
Gen 31:18 and drove off all his livestock -- with all the possessions he had acquired, the livestock belonging to him which he had acquired in Paddan-Aram -- to go to his father Isaac in Canaan.
Gen 31:19 Laban was away, shearing his sheep; Rachel in the meanwhile had appropriated the household idols belonging to her father,
Gen 31:20 and Jacob had outwitted Laban the Aramaean so that he would not be forewarned of his flight.
Gen 31:21 Thus he got away with all he had. He was soon across the River and heading for Mount Gilead.
Gen 31:22 Three days later Laban was told that Jacob had fled.
Gen 31:23 Taking his brothers with him, he pursued him for seven days and overtook him at Mount Gilead.
Gen 31:24 But God appeared to Laban the Aramaean in a dream that night and said to him, 'On no account say anything whatever to Jacob.'
Gen 31:25 Laban caught up with Jacob, who had pitched his tent in the hills; and Laban pitched camp on Mount Gilead.
Gen 31:26 Laban said to Jacob, 'What do you mean by outwitting me and then carrying off my daughters like prisoners of war?
Gen 31:27 Why did you flee in secret, stealing away without letting me know, so that I could send you on your way rejoicing, with songs and the music of tambourines and harps?
Gen 31:28 You did not even let me kiss my sons and daughters. You have behaved like a fool.
Gen 31:29 It is in my power to harm you, but the God of your father said to me last night, "On no account say anything whatever to Jacob."
Gen 31:30 Now it may be you really went because you had such a longing for your father's house, but why did you steal my gods?'
Gen 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, 'I was afraid, thinking you were going to snatch your daughters from me.
Gen 31:32 But whoever is found in possession of your gods shall not remain alive. In the presence of our brothers, examine for yourself what I have, and take what is yours.' Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had appropriated them.
Gen 31:33 Laban went into Jacob's tent, and then into Leah's tent and the tent of the two slave-girls, but he found nothing. He came out of Leah's tent and went into Rachel's.
Gen 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols and put them inside a camel cushion, and was sitting on them. Laban went through everything in the tent but found nothing.
Gen 31:35 Then Rachel said to her father, 'Do not look angry, my lord, because I cannot rise in your presence, for I am as women are from time to time.' Laban searched but did not find the idols.
Gen 31:36 Then Jacob lost his temper and took Laban to task. And Jacob said to Laban, 'What is my offence, what is my crime, for you to have hounded me like this?
Gen 31:37 You have gone through all my belongings; have you found anything belonging to your household? Produce it here in the presence of my brothers and yours, and let them decide between the two of us.
Gen 31:38 In all the twenty years I was under you, your ewes and your she-goats never miscarried, and I never ate rams from your flock.
Gen 31:39 Those mauled I never brought back to you, but bore the loss myself. You demanded compensation from me, whether the animal was stolen in daylight or at night.
Gen 31:40 In the daytime the heat devoured me, and frost at night; I never had a good night's sleep.

Gen 31:41 It was like this for the twenty years I spent in your household. Fourteen years I slaved for you for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, since you changed my wages ten times over.

Gen 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, the Kinsman of Isaac, had not been with me, you would have sent me away empty-handed. But God saw my plight and my labours, and last night he delivered judgement.'

Gen 31:43 Laban replied to Jacob, 'These daughters are my daughters and these children are my children, this livestock is my livestock: everything you see belongs to me. But what can I do today about my daughters here or about the children they have borne?'

Gen 31:44 So come, let us make a pact, you and me . . . , and let that serve as a witness between us.'

Gen 31:45 Jacob then took a stone and set it up as a memorial.

Gen 31:46 Jacob said to his kinsmen, 'Collect some stones,' and gathering some stones they made a cairn. They had a meal there, on the cairn, and Gen 31:47 Laban called it Jegar-Sahadutha while Jacob called it Galeed.

Gen 31:48 Laban said, 'May this cairn be a witness between us today.' That is why he named it Galeed,

Gen 31:49 and also Mizpah, because he said, 'Let Yahweh act as watchman between us when we are no longer in sight of each other.'

Gen 31:50 If you ill-treat my daughters or marry other women besides my daughters, even though no one be with us, remember: God is witness between us.'

Gen 31:51 Then Laban said to Jacob, 'Here is this cairn I have thrown up between us, and here the pillar.

Gen 31:52 This cairn is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I am not to cross to your side of this cairn and you are not to cross to my side of this cairn and pillar, with hostile intent.

Gen 31:53 May the God of Abraham and the god of Nahor judge between us.' Then Jacob swore by the Kinsman of his father Isaac.

Gen 31:54 He offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his kinsmen to the meal. They ate the meal, and passed the night on the mountain.

Gen 32:1 Early next morning, Laban kissed his grandchildren and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left to return home.

Gen 32:2 While Jacob was going on his way, angels of God encountered him,

Gen 32:3 and on seeing them he said, 'This is God's camp,' and he named the place Mahanaim.

Gen 32:4 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in Seir, the open country of Edom,

Gen 32:5 with these instructions, 'Say this to my lord Esau, "Here is the message of your servant Jacob: I have been staying with Laban and have been delayed there until now,

Gen 32:6 and I own oxen, beasts of burden and flocks, and men and women slaves. I send news of this to my lord in the hope of winning your favour."

Gen 32:7 The messengers returned to Jacob and told him, 'We went to your brother Esau, and he is already on his way to meet you; there are four hundred men with him.'

Gen 32:8 Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. He divided the people with him, and the flocks and cattle, into two camps,

Gen 32:9 thinking, 'If Esau comes to one of the camps and attacks it, the remaining camp may be able to escape.'

Gen 32:10 Jacob said, 'God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Yahweh who told me, "Go back to your native land and I will be good to you,"

Gen 32:11 I am unworthy of all the faithful love and constancy you have shown your servant. I had only my staff when I crossed this Jordan, and now I have grown into two camps.

Gen 32:12 I implore you, save me from my brother Esau's clutches, for I am afraid that he may come and attack me, mothers and children alike.

Gen 32:13 Yet it was you who said, "I shall be very good to you, and make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which is too numerous to count."

Gen 32:14 Then Jacob passed that night there. From what he had with him he chose a gift for his brother Esau:

Gen 32:15 two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Gen 32:16 thirty camels in milk with their calves, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male.

Gen 32:17 He put them in the charge of his servants, in separate droves, and told his servants, 'Go ahead of me, leaving a space between each drove and the next.'

Gen 32:18 He gave the leading man this order: 'When my brother Esau meets you and asks, "Whose man are you? Where are you going? Whose are those animals that you are driving?"

Gen 32:19 you will answer, "Your servant Jacob's. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau. And Jacob himself is just behind us."

Gen 32:20 He gave the same order to the second and the third, and to all who were following the droves. 'That is what you must say to Esau when you find him.

Gen 32:21 And you must add, "Your servant Jacob himself is just behind us." ' For he thought, 'If I conciliate him by sending a gift in advance, perhaps he will be well inclined towards me when I face him.'

Gen 32:22 The gift went ahead of him, but he himself spent that night in the camp.

Gen 32:23 That same night he got up and, taking his two wives, his two slave-girls and his eleven children, crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Gen 32:24 After he had taken them across the stream, he sent all his possessions over too.

Gen 32:25 And Jacob was left alone. Then someone wrestled with him until daybreak

Gen 32:26 who, seeing that he could not master him, struck him on the hip socket, and Jacob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with him.

Gen 32:27 He said, 'Let me go, for day is breaking.' Jacob replied, 'I will not let you go unless you bless me.'

Gen 32:28 The other said, 'What is your name?' 'Jacob,' he replied.

Gen 32:29 He said, 'No longer are you to be called Jacob, but Israel since you have shown your strength against God and men and have prevailed.'

Gen 32:30 Then Jacob asked, 'Please tell me your name.' He replied, 'Why do you ask my name?' With that, he blessed him there.

Gen 32:31 Jacob named the place Peniel, 'Because I have seen God face to face,' he said, 'and have survived.'

Gen 32:32 The sun rose as he passed Peniel, limping from his hip.

Gen 32:33 That is why to this day the Israelites do not eat the thigh sinew which is at the hip socket: because he had struck Jacob at the hip socket on the thigh sinew.

Gen 33:1 Looking up, Jacob saw Esau coming and with him four hundred men. He then divided the children between Leah, Rachel and the two slave-girls.

Gen 33:2 He put the slave-girls and their children in front, with Leah and her children following, and Rachel and Joseph behind.

Gen 33:3 He himself went ahead of them and bowed to the ground seven times, until he reached his brother.

Gen 33:4 But Esau ran to meet him, took him in his arms, threw himself on his neck and wept as he kissed him.

Gen 33:5 Then looking up he saw the women and children. 'Who are these with you?' he asked. Jacob answered, 'The children whom God has bestowed on your servant.'

Gen 33:6 The slave-girls then came up with their children, and they all bowed low.

Gen 33:7 Then Leah too came up with her children, and they all bowed low. Finally Rachel and Joseph came up and bowed low.

Gen 33:8 Esau asked, 'What was the purpose of that whole camp I just met?' 'To win my lord's favour,' he replied.

Gen 33:9 'Brother, I have plenty,' Esau answered, 'keep what is yours.'

Gen 33:10 Jacob protested, 'No, if I have won your favour, please accept the gift I offer, for in fact I have come into your presence as into the presence of God, since you have received me kindly.'

Gen 33:11 So accept the gift I have brought for you, since God has been generous to me and I have all I need.' And he urged him, and Esau accepted.

Gen 33:12 Esau said, 'Let us break camp and move off; I shall go beside you.'

Gen 33:13 But Jacob replied, 'As my lord knows, the children are weak, and the sheep and cows which have calved make it hard for me. If they are driven too hard, even for one day, the whole drove will die.'

Gen 33:14 May it please my lord to go on ahead of his servant. For my part, I shall move at a slower pace, to suit the flock I am driving and the children, until I join my lord in Seir.'

Gen 33:15 Esau then said, 'At least let me leave you some of the people who are with me.' 'What for?' Jacob asked. 'Please indulge me, my lord!'

Gen 33:16 So that day Esau turned back towards Seir,

Gen 33:17 but Jacob made his way to Succoth, where he built himself a house and made shelters for his livestock; that is why the place was given the name of Succoth.

Gen 33:18 Jacob arrived safely at the town of Shechem in Canaanite territory, on his return from Paddan-Aram. He encamped opposite the town

Gen 33:19 and for one hundred pieces of silver he bought from the sons of Hamor father of Shechem the piece of land on which he had pitched his tent.

Gen 33:20 There he erected an altar which he called 'El, God of Israel'.

Gen 34:1 Dinah, who was Jacob's daughter by Leah, went out to visit some of the women of that region.

Gen 34:2 Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, headman of the region, saw her, seized her and forced her to sleep with him.

Gen 34:3 He was captivated by Dinah daughter of Jacob; he fell in love with the girl and tried to win her heart.

Gen 34:4 Accordingly Shechem said to his father Hamor, 'Get me this girl; I want to marry her.'

Gen 34:5 Meanwhile, Jacob had heard how his daughter Dinah had been dishonoured, but since his sons were out in the countryside with his livestock, Jacob said nothing until they came back.

Gen 34:6 Hamor father of Shechem was visiting Jacob to discuss the matter with him,
Gen 34:7 when Jacob's sons returned from the countryside and heard the news; the men were outraged and infuriated that Shechem had insulted Israel by sleeping with Jacob's daughter -- a thing totally unacceptable.
Gen 34:8 Hamor reasoned with them as follows, 'My son Shechem's heart is set on your daughter. Please allow her to marry him.
Gen 34:9 Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves.
Gen 34:10 We can live together, and the country will be open to you, for you to live in, and move about in, and acquire holdings.'
Gen 34:11 Then Shechem addressed the girl's father and brothers, 'Grant me this favour, and I will give you whatever you ask.
Gen 34:12 Demand as high a bride-price from me as you please, and I will pay as much as you ask. Only let me marry the girl.'
Gen 34:13 Jacob's sons gave Shechem and his father Hamor a crafty answer, speaking as they did because he had dishonoured their sister Dinah.
Gen 34:14 'We cannot do this,' they said to them. 'To give our sister to an uncircumcised man would be a disgrace for us.
Gen 34:15 We can agree only on one condition: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.
Gen 34:16 Then we will give you our daughters, taking yours for ourselves; and we will stay with you to make one nation.
Gen 34:17 But if you will not agree to our terms about being circumcised, we shall take our daughter and go.'
Gen 34:18 Hamor and Shechem son of Hamor were pleased with what they heard.
Gen 34:19 The young man did not hesitate about doing this, for he was deeply in love with Jacob's daughter. Moreover he was the most respected member of his entire family.
Gen 34:20 Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their town and spoke to their fellow-townsmen as follows,
Gen 34:21 'These men are friendly; let them settle in the region and move about freely in it; there is plenty of room here for them; we shall marry their daughters and give our daughters to them.
Gen 34:22 But these men will agree to settle with us and become a single nation only on this condition: that all our males be circumcised like them.
Gen 34:23 Will not the livestock they own, all their animals, become ours? Then let us give our assent to this, so that they can settle with us.'
Gen 34:24 All the citizens of the town agreed to the proposal made by Hamor and his son Shechem, and all the males were circumcised.
Gen 34:25 Now on the third day, when the men were still in pain, Jacob's two sons Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and advanced unopposed against the town and slaughtered all the males.
Gen 34:26 They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword, removed Dinah from Shechem's house and came away.
Gen 34:27 When Jacob's other sons came on the slain, they pillaged the town in reprisal for the dishonouring of their sister.
Gen 34:28 They seized their flocks, cattle, donkeys, everything else in the town and in the countryside,
Gen 34:29 and all their possessions. They took all their children and wives captive and looted everything to be found in the houses.
Gen 34:30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, 'You have done me an ill turn by bringing me into bad odour with the people of the region, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I have few men, whereas they will unite against me to defeat me and destroy me and my family.'
Gen 34:31 They retorted, 'Should our sister be treated like a whore?'
Gen 35:1 God said to Jacob, 'Move on, go to Bethel and settle there. Make an altar there for the God who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau.'

Gen 35:2 Jacob said to his family and to all who were with him, 'Get rid of the foreign gods you have with you; cleanse yourselves, and change your clothes.
Gen 35:3 We must move on and go to Bethel. There I shall make an altar for the God who heard me when I was in distress, and gave me his help on the journey I made.'
Gen 35:4 They gave Jacob all the foreign gods in their possession, and the earrings that they were wearing. Jacob buried them under the oak tree near Shechem.
Gen 35:5 They broke camp; a divine terror struck the towns round about, and no one pursued the sons of Jacob.
Gen 35:6 When Jacob arrived at Luz in Canaan -- that is, Bethel-and all the people with him,
Gen 35:7 he built an altar there and named the place El-Bethel, since it was there that God had appeared to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

Gen 35:8 Deborah, who had been Rebekah's nurse, died and was buried below Bethel, under the oak tree; so they named it the Oak of Tears.

Gen 35:9 God again appeared to Jacob on his return from Paddan-Aram, and blessed him.

Gen 35:10 God said to him, 'Your name is Jacob, but from now on you will be called not Jacob but Israel.' Thus he came by the name Israel.

Gen 35:11 God said to him, 'I am El Shaddai. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation, indeed an assembly of nations, will descend from you, and kings will issue from your loins.'

Gen 35:12 The country which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I now give to you; and this country I shall give to your descendants after you.'

Gen 35:13 Then God went up from him.

Gen 35:14 Jacob raised a monument at the spot where he had spoken to him, a standing-stone, on which he made a libation and poured oil.

Gen 35:15 Jacob named the place Bethel where God had spoken to him.

Gen 35:16 They left Bethel, and while they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labour, and her pains were severe.

Gen 35:17 When her labour was at its hardest, the midwife said to her, 'Do not worry, this is going to be another boy.'

Gen 35:18 At the moment when she breathed her last, for she was dying, she named him Ben-Oni. His father, however, named him Benjamin.

Gen 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the road to Ephrath, now Bethlehem.

Gen 35:20 Jacob raised a monument on her grave, that same monument of Rachel's Tomb which is there today.

Gen 35:21 Israel left and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-Eder.

Gen 35:22 While Israel was living in that district, Reuben went and slept with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel found out. The sons of Jacob were now twelve.

Gen 35:23 The sons of Leah: Jacob's eldest son Reuben, then Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

Gen 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 35:25 The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's slave-girl: Dan and Naphtali.

Gen 35:26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's slave-girl: Gad and Asher. These were the sons born to Jacob in Paddan-Aram.

Gen 35:27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac at Mamre, at Kiriath-Arba -- now Hebron -- where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

Gen 35:28 Isaac was one hundred and eighty years old

Gen 35:29 when he breathed his last. He died and was gathered to his people, an old man who had enjoyed his full span of life. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Gen 36:1 These are the descendants of Esau, that is, Edom.

Gen 36:2 Esau chose his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah, son of Zibeon the Horite, Gen 36:3 Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Gen 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel,

Gen 36:5 Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the sons of Esau born to him in Canaan.

Gen 36:6 Esau took his wives, his sons and daughters, all the members of his household, his livestock, all his cattle and all the goods he had acquired in Canaan and left for Seir, away from his brother Jacob.

Gen 36:7 For they had acquired too much to live together. The land in which they were at that time could not support them both because of their livestock.

Gen 36:8 That is why Edom settled in the mountainous region of Seir. Esau is Edom.

Gen 36:9 These are the descendants of Esau, ancestor of Edom, in the mountainous region of Seir.

Gen 36:10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz were: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.

Gen 36:12 Eliphaz son of Esau had Timna for concubine and she bore him Amalek. These were the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

Gen 36:13 These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:14 And these were the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah, son of Zibeon: she bore him Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

Gen 36:15 These are the chieftains of Esau. The descendants of Eliphaz, Esau's eldest son: the chieftains of Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Gen 36:16 Gatam and Amalek. These are the chieftains of Eliphaz in Edom and are descended from Adah.

Gen 36:17 The descendants of Esau's son Reuel: the chieftains of Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These are the chieftains of Reuel in Edom and are descended from Esau's wife Basemath.

Gen 36:18 The descendants of Esau's wife Oholibamah: the chieftains of Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These are the chieftains of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Gen 36:19 These were the sons of Esau -- that is, Edom -- and these are their chieftains.

Gen 36:20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, natives of the country: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Gen 36:21 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan; these were the Horite chieftains descended from Seir, in Edom.

Gen 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam, and Lotan's sister was Timna.

Gen 36:23 These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

Gen 36:24 These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah, Anah -- the Anah who found the hot springs in the desert while pasturing his father Zibeon's donkeys.

Gen 36:25 These are the children of Anah: Dishon, and Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Gen 36:26 These are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran.

Gen 36:27 These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.

Gen 36:28 These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Gen 36:29 These are the Horite chieftains: the chieftains of Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Gen 36:30 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These are the chieftains of the Horites, by their clans, in Seir.

Gen 36:31 These are the kings who reigned in Edom before an Israelite king.

Gen 36:32 In Edom reigned Bela son of Beor; his city was called Dinhbabah.

Gen 36:33 Bela died and Jobab son of Zerah, from Bozrah, succeeded.

Gen 36:34 Jobab died and Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded.

Gen 36:35 Husham died and Hadad son of Bedad succeeded; he defeated the Midianites in Moab, and his city was called Avith.

Gen 36:36 Hadad died and Samlah of Masrekah succeeded.

Gen 36:37 Samlah died and Shaul of Rehoboth-ha-Nahar succeeded.

Gen 36:38 Shaul died and Baal-Hanan son of Achbor succeeded.

Gen 36:39 Baal-Hanan died and Hadad succeeded; his city was called Pau and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, from Mezahab.

Gen 36:40 These are the names of the chieftains of Esau -- according to their clans and localities: the chieftains of Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Gen 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Gen 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Gen 36:43 Magdiel and Iram. These are the chieftains of Edom, as settled in the territory which they own. Esau was Edom's ancestor.

Gen 37:1 But Jacob settled in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan.

Gen 37:2 This is the story of Joseph. Joseph was seventeen years old. As he was young, he was shepherding the flock with his brothers, with the sons of his father's wives, Bilhah and Zilpah; and Joseph brought his father bad reports about them.

Gen 37:3 Jacob loved Joseph more than all his other sons, for he was the son of his old age, and he had a decorated tunic made for him.

Gen 37:4 But his brothers, seeing how much more his father loved him than all his other sons, came to hate him so much that they could not say a civil word to him.

Gen 37:5 Now Joseph had a dream, and he repeated it to his brothers, who then hated him more than ever.

Gen 37:6 'Listen', he said, 'to the dream I had.'

Gen 37:7 We were binding sheaves in the field, when my sheaf suddenly rose and stood upright, and then your sheaves gathered round and bowed to my sheaf.'

Gen 37:8 'So you want to be king over us,' his brothers retorted, 'you want to lord it over us?' And they hated him even more, on account of his dreams and of what he said.

Gen 37:9 He had another dream which he recounted to his brothers. 'Look, I have had another dream,' he said. 'There were the sun, the moon and eleven stars, bowing down to me.'

Gen 37:10 He told his father and brothers, and his father scolded him. 'A fine dream to have!' he said to him. 'Are all of us then, myself, your mother and your brothers, to come and bow to the ground before you?'

Gen 37:11 His brothers held it against him, but his father pondered the matter.

Gen 37:12 His brothers went to pasture their father's flock at Shechem.

Gen 37:13 Then Israel said to Joseph, 'Your brothers are with the flock at Shechem, aren't they? Come, I am going to send you to them.' 'I am ready,' he replied.

Gen 37:14 He said to him, 'Go and see how your brothers and the flock are doing, and bring me word.' He sent him from the valley of Hebron, and Joseph arrived at Shechem.

Gen 37:15 A man found him wandering in the countryside and asked him, 'What are you looking for ? '

Gen 37:16 'I am looking for my brothers,' he replied. 'Please tell me where they are pasturing their flock.'

Gen 37:17 The man answered, 'They have moved on from here; indeed I heard them say, "Let us go to Dothan." ' So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

Gen 37:18 They saw him in the distance, and before he reached them they made a plot to kill him.

Gen 37:19 'Here comes that dreamer,' they said to one another.

Gen 37:20 'Come on, let us kill him now and throw him down one of the storage-wells; we can say that some wild animal has devoured him. Then we shall see what becomes of his dreams.'

Gen 37:21 But Reuben heard, and he saved him from their clutches. 'We must not take his life,' he said.

Gen 37:22 'Shed no blood,' said Reuben to them, 'throw him down that well out in the desert, but do not kill him yourselves' -- intending to save him from them and to restore him to his father.

Gen 37:23 So, when Joseph reached his brothers, they pulled off his tunic, the decorated tunic which he was wearing,

Gen 37:24 and catching hold of him, threw him into the well. The well was empty, with no water in it.

Gen 37:25 They then sat down to eat. Looking up, they saw a group of Ishmaelites who were coming from Gilead, their camels laden with gum tragacanth, balsam and resin, which they were taking to Egypt.

Gen 37:26 Then Judah said to his brothers, 'What do we gain by killing our brother and covering up his blood?

Gen 37:27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, then we shall not have laid hands on him ourselves. After all, he is our brother, and our own flesh.' His brothers agreed.

Gen 37:28 Now some Midianite merchants were passing, and they pulled Joseph out of the well. They sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver, and these men took Joseph to Egypt.

Gen 37:29 When Reuben went back to the well, there was no sign of Joseph. Tearing his clothes,

Gen 37:30 he went back to his brothers. 'The boy has gone,' he said. 'What am I going to do?'

Gen 37:31 They took Joseph's tunic and, slaughtering a goat, dipped the tunic in the blood.

Gen 37:32 Then they sent off the decorated tunic and had it taken to their father, with the message, 'This is what we have found. Do you recognise it as your son's tunic or not?'

Gen 37:33 He recognised it and cried, 'My son's tunic! A wild animal has devoured him! Joseph has been torn to pieces!'

Gen 37:34 Tearing his clothes and putting sackcloth round his waist, Jacob mourned his son for many days.

Gen 37:35 All his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. 'No,' he said, 'I will go down to Sheol in mourning and join my son.' Thus his father wept for him.

Gen 37:36 Meanwhile the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh's officials and commander of the guard.

Gen 38:1 It happened at about that time that Judah left his brothers, to go down and settle with a certain Adullamite called Hirah.

Gen 38:2 There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite called Shua. He made her his wife and slept with her.

Gen 38:3 She conceived and gave birth to a son whom she named Er.

Gen 38:4 She conceived again and gave birth to a son whom she named Onan.

Gen 38:5 Yet again she gave birth to a son whom she named Shelah. She was at Chezib when she gave birth to him.

Gen 38:6 Judah took a wife for his first-born Er, and her name was Tamar.

Gen 38:7 But Er, Judah's first-born, offended Yahweh, and Yahweh killed him.

Gen 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, 'Take your brother's wife, and do your duty as her brother-in-law, to maintain your brother's line.'

Gen 38:9 But Onan, knowing that the line would not count as his, spilt his seed on the ground every time he slept with his brother's wife, to avoid providing offspring for his brother.

Gen 38:10 What he did was offensive to Yahweh, who killed him too.

Gen 38:11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, 'Go home as a widow to your father, until my son Shelah grows up,' for he was thinking, 'He must not die like his brothers.' So Tamar went home to her father.

Gen 38:12 A long time passed, and then Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. After Judah had been comforted he went up to Timnah for the shearing of his sheep, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

Gen 38:13 When Tamar was told, 'Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah for the shearing of his sheep,'

Gen 38:14 she changed out of her widow's clothes, wrapped a veil around her to disguise herself, and sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah; for she saw that, although Shelah was grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife.

Gen 38:15 Judah, seeing her, took her for a prostitute, since her face was veiled.

Gen 38:16 Going up to her on the road, he said, 'Here, let me sleep with you.' He did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. 'What will you give me for sleeping with you?' she asked.

Gen 38:17 'I will send you a kid from the flock,' he said. 'Agreed, if you give me a pledge until you send it,' she replied.

Gen 38:18 'What pledge shall I give you?' he asked. 'Your seal and cord and the staff you are holding,' she replied. He gave them to her and slept with her, and she conceived by him.

Gen 38:19 Then she got up and left him and, taking off her veil, resumed her widow's weeds.

Gen 38:20 Judah sent the kid by his friend the Adullamite, to recover the pledge from the woman. But he did not find her.

Gen 38:21 He enquired from the men of the place, 'Where is the prostitute who was by the roadside at Enaim?' 'There has been no prostitute there,' they answered.

Gen 38:22 So returning to Judah he said, 'I did not find her. What is more, the men of the place told me there had been no prostitute there.'

Gen 38:23 'Let her keep the things,' Judah said, 'or we shall become a laughing-stock. At least I sent her this kid, even though you did not find her.'

Gen 38:24 About three months later, Judah was told, 'Your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; furthermore, she is pregnant, as a result of her misconduct.' 'Bring her out,' Judah ordered, 'and let her be burnt alive!'

Gen 38:25 But as she was being led off, she sent word to her father-in-law, 'It was the owner of these who made me pregnant. Please verify', she said, 'whose seal and cord and staff these are.'

Gen 38:26 Judah recognised them and said, 'She was right and I was wrong, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.' He had no further intercourse with her.

Gen 38:27 When the time for her confinement came, there were twins in her womb!

Gen 38:28 During the delivery, one of them put out a hand, and the midwife caught it and tied a scarlet thread to it, indicating that this was the first to arrive.

Gen 38:29 Whereupon, he drew back his hand, and out came his brother. Then she said, 'What a breach you have opened for yourself!' So he was named Perez.

Gen 38:30 Then his brother came out with the scarlet thread on his hand, so he was named Zerah.

Gen 39:1 Now Joseph had been taken down into Egypt. Potiphar the Egyptian, one of Pharaoh's officials and commander of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there.

Gen 39:2 Yahweh was with Joseph, and everything he undertook was successful. He lodged in the house of his Egyptian master,

Gen 39:3 and when his master saw how Yahweh was with him and how Yahweh made everything he undertook successful,

Gen 39:4 he was pleased with Joseph and made him his personal attendant; and his master put him in charge of his household, entrusting him with all his possessions.

Gen 39:5 And from the time he put him in charge of his household and all his possessions, Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's household out of consideration for Joseph; Yahweh's blessing extended to all his possessions, both household and estate.

Gen 39:6 So he left Joseph to handle all his possessions, and with him there, concerned himself with nothing beyond the food he ate. Now Joseph was well built and handsome,

Gen 39:7 and it happened some time later that his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, 'Sleep with me.'

Gen 39:8 But he refused. 'Look,' he said to his master's wife, 'with me here, my master does not concern himself with what happens in the house, having entrusted all his possessions to me.'

Gen 39:9 He himself wields no more authority in this house than I do. He has exempted nothing from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How could I do anything so wicked, and sin against God?'

Gen 39:10 Although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not agree to sleep with her or be with her.

Gen 39:11 But one day when Joseph came into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the household happened to be indoors,

Gen 39:12 she caught hold of him by his tunic and said, 'Sleep with me.' But he left the tunic in her hand, took to his heels and got out.

Gen 39:13 When she saw that he had left the tunic in her hands as he ran out,

Gen 39:14 she called her servants and said to them, 'Look at this! My husband brought in a Hebrew to make a fool of me! He burst in on me, but I screamed,

Gen 39:15 and when he heard me scream, he left his tunic beside me and ran out of the house.'

Gen 39:16 She kept his tunic by her until his master came home.

Gen 39:17 Then she told him the same tale, 'The Hebrew slave you brought to us burst in on me to make a fool of me.'

Gen 39:18 But when I screamed, he left his tunic beside me and ran away.'

Gen 39:19 When his master heard his wife say, 'This was how your slave treated me,' he became furious.

Gen 39:20 Joseph's master had him arrested and committed to the gaol where the king's prisoners were kept. And there in gaol he stayed.

Gen 39:21 But Yahweh was with Joseph. He showed him faithful love and made him popular with the chief gaoler.

Gen 39:22 The chief gaoler put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners in the gaol, making him responsible for everything done there.

Gen 39:23 The chief gaoler did not bother about anything put in his charge, since Yahweh was with him, and Yahweh made everything he undertook successful.

Gen 40:1 It happened some time later that the king of Egypt's cup-bearer and his baker offended their master the king of Egypt.

Gen 40:2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cup-bearer and the chief baker,

Gen 40:3 and put them in custody in the house of the commander of the guard, in the gaol where Joseph was a prisoner.

Gen 40:4 The commander of the guard assigned Joseph to them to attend to their wants, and they remained in custody for some time.

Gen 40:5 Now both of them had dreams on the same night, each with its own meaning for the cup-bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were prisoners in the gaol.

Gen 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they looked gloomy,

Gen 40:7 and he asked the two officials who were in custody with him in his master's house, 'Why these sad looks today?'

Gen 40:8 They replied, 'We have each had a dream, but there is no one to interpret it.' 'Are not interpretations God's business?' Joseph asked them. 'Tell me about them.'

Gen 40:9 So the chief cup-bearer described his dream to Joseph, telling him, 'In my dream there was a vine in front of me.

Gen 40:10 On the vine were three branches; no sooner had it budded than it blossomed, and its clusters became ripe grapes.

Gen 40:11 I had Pharaoh's cup in my hand; I picked the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and put the cup into Pharaoh's hand.'

Gen 40:12 'This is what it means,' Joseph told him. 'The three branches are three days.

Gen 40:13 In another three days Pharaoh will lift up your head by restoring you to your position. Then you will hand Pharaoh his cup, as you did before, when you were his cup-bearer.

Gen 40:14 But be sure to remember me when things go well with you, and keep faith with me by kindly reminding Pharaoh about me, to get me out of this house.

Gen 40:15 I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews in the first place, and even here I have done nothing to warrant being put in the dungeon.'

Gen 40:16 The chief baker, seeing that the interpretation had been favourable, said to Joseph, 'I too had a dream; there were three wicker trays on my head.

Gen 40:17 In the top tray there were all kinds of pastries for Pharaoh, such as a baker might make, and the birds were eating them off the tray on my head.'

Gen 40:18 Joseph replied as follows, 'This is what it means: the three trays are three days.

Gen 40:19 In another three days Pharaoh will lift up your head by hanging you on a gallows, and the birds will eat the flesh off your bones.'

Gen 40:20 And so it happened; the third day was Pharaoh's birthday and he gave a banquet for all his officials. Of his officials he lifted up the head of the chief cup-bearer and the chief baker,

Gen 40:21 the chief cup-bearer by restoring him to his cup-bearing, so that he again handed Pharaoh his cup; Gen 40:22 and by hanging the chief baker, as Joseph had explained to them.

Gen 40:23 But the chief cup-bearer did not remember Joseph; he had forgotten him.

Gen 41:1 Two years later it happened that Pharaoh had a dream: there he was, standing by the Nile,

Gen 41:2 and there, coming up from the Nile, were seven cows, sleek and fat, and they began to feed among the rushes.

Gen 41:3 And then seven other cows, wretched and lean, came up from the Nile, behind them; and these went over and stood beside the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

Gen 41:4 The wretched and lean cows ate the seven sleek and fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

Gen 41:5 He fell asleep and dreamed a second time: there, growing on one stalk, were seven ears of grain, full and ripe.

Gen 41:6 And then sprouting up, behind them, came seven ears of grain, meagre and scorched by the east wind.

Gen 41:7 The scanty ears of grain swallowed the seven full and ripe ears of grain. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream.

Gen 41:8 In the morning Pharaoh, feeling disturbed, had all the magicians and wise men of Egypt summoned to him. Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was no one to interpret it for Pharaoh.

Gen 41:9 Then the chief cup-bearer addressed Pharaoh, 'Today, I recall having been at fault.

Gen 41:10 When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, he put myself and the chief baker in custody in the house of the commander of the guard.

Gen 41:11 We had a dream on the same night, he and I, and each man's dream had a meaning for himself.

Gen 41:12 There was a young Hebrew with us, one of the slaves belonging to the commander of the guard. We told our dreams to him and he interpreted them for us, telling each of us what his dream meant.

Gen 41:13 It turned out exactly according to his interpretation: I was restored to my position, but the other man was hanged.'

Gen 41:14 Then Pharaoh had Joseph summoned, and they hurried him from the dungeon. He shaved and changed his clothes, and presented himself before Pharaoh.

Gen 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I have had a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can interpret a dream the instant you hear it.'

Gen 41:16 'Not I,' Joseph replied to Pharaoh, 'God will give Pharaoh a favourable answer.'

Gen 41:17 So Pharaoh told Joseph, 'In my dream there I was, standing on the bank of the Nile.

Gen 41:18 And there were seven cows, fat and sleek, coming up out of the Nile, and they began to feed among the rushes.

Gen 41:19 And then seven other cows came up, behind them, starved, very wretched and lean; I have never seen such poor cows in all Egypt.

Gen 41:20 The lean and wretched cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

Gen 41:21 But when they had eaten them up, it was impossible to tell they had eaten them, for they looked as wretched as ever. Then I woke up.

Gen 41:22 And then again in my dream, there, growing on one stalk, were seven ears of grain, beautifully ripe;

Gen 41:23 but then sprouting up behind them came seven ears of grain, withered, meagre and scorched by the east wind.

Gen 41:24 Then the shrivelled ears of grain swallowed the seven ripe ears of grain. I have told the magicians, but no one has given me the answer.'

Gen 41:25 Joseph said to Pharaoh, 'Pharaoh's dreams are one and the same: God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is going to do.

Gen 41:26 The seven fine cows are seven years and the seven ripe ears of grain are seven years; it is one and the same dream.

Gen 41:27 The seven gaunt and lean cows coming up behind them are seven years, as are the seven shrivelled ears of grain scorched by the east wind: there will be seven years of famine.

Gen 41:28 It is as I have told Pharaoh: God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is going to do.

Gen 41:29 Seven years are coming, bringing great plenty to the whole of Egypt,

Gen 41:30 but seven years of famine will follow them, when all the plenty in Egypt will be forgotten, and famine will exhaust the land.

Gen 41:31 The famine that is to follow will be so very severe that no one will remember what plenty the country used to enjoy.

Gen 41:32 The reason why Pharaoh had the same dream twice is that the event is already determined by God, and God will shortly bring it about.

Gen 41:33 'Pharaoh should now find someone intelligent and wise to govern Egypt.

Gen 41:34 Pharaoh should take action and appoint supervisors for the country, and impose a tax of one-fifth on Egypt during the seven years of plenty.

Gen 41:35 They will collect all the food produced during these good years that are coming, and store the grain under Pharaoh's authority, putting it in the towns and keeping it.

Gen 41:36 This food will form a reserve for the country against the seven years of famine which are coming on Egypt, so that the country will not be destroyed by the famine.'

Gen 41:37 Pharaoh and all his ministers approved of what he had said.

Gen 41:38 Then Pharaoh asked his ministers, 'Can we find anyone else endowed with the spirit of God, like him?'

Gen 41:39 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Since God has given you knowledge of all this, there can be no one as intelligent and wise as you.'

Gen 41:40 You shall be my chancellor, and all my people shall respect your orders; only this throne shall set me above you.'

Gen 41:41 Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I hereby make you governor of the whole of Egypt.'

Gen 41:42 Pharaoh took the ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain round his neck.

Gen 41:43 He made him ride in the best chariot he had after his own, and they shouted 'Abrek!' ahead of him. Thus he became governor of the whole of Egypt.

Gen 41:44 Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Although I am Pharaoh, no one is to move hand or foot without your permission throughout Egypt.'

Gen 41:45 Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-Paneah, and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph began to journey all over Egypt.

Gen 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. After leaving Pharaoh's presence, Joseph travelled throughout the length and breadth of Egypt.

Gen 41:47 During the seven years of plenty, the soil yielded generously.

Gen 41:48 He collected all the food of the seven years while there was an abundance in Egypt, and stored the food in the towns, placing in each the food from the surrounding countryside.

Gen 41:49 Joseph gathered in grain like the sand of the sea, in such quantity that he gave up keeping count, since it was past accounting.

Gen 41:50 Before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph: Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore him these.

Gen 41:51 Joseph named the first-born Manasseh, 'Because', he said, 'God has made me completely forget my hardships and my father's House.'

Gen 41:52 He named the second Ephraim, 'Because', he said, 'God has made me fruitful in the country of my misfortune.'

Gen 41:53 Then the seven years of plenty that there had been in Egypt came to an end,

Gen 41:54 and the seven years of famine set in, as Joseph had predicted. There was famine in every country, but throughout Egypt there was food.

Gen 41:55 But when all Egypt too began to feel the famine and the people appealed to Pharaoh for food, Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, 'Go to Joseph and do whatever he tells you.'

Gen 41:56 There was famine all over the world. Then Joseph opened all the granaries and rationed out grain to the Egyptians, as the famine grew even worse in Egypt.

Gen 41:57 People came to Egypt from all over the world to get supplies from Joseph, for the famine had grown severe throughout the world.

Gen 42:1 Jacob, seeing that there were supplies to be had in Egypt, said to his sons, 'Why do you keep staring at one another?

Gen 42:2 I hear', he said, 'that there are supplies in Egypt. Go down and procure some for us there, so that we may survive and not die.'

Gen 42:3 So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to procure grain in Egypt.

Gen 42:4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers. 'Nothing must happen to him,' he thought.

Gen 42:5 Thus the sons of Israel were among the other people who came to get supplies, there being famine in Canaan.

Gen 42:6 It was Joseph, as the man in authority over the country, who allocated the rations to the entire population. So Joseph's brothers went and bowed down before him, their faces touching the ground.

Gen 42:7 As soon as Joseph saw his brothers he recognised them. But he did not make himself known to them, and he spoke harshly to them. 'Where have you come from?' he asked. 'From Canaan to get food,' they replied.

Gen 42:8 Now when Joseph recognised his brothers, but they did not recognise him,

Gen 42:9 Joseph remembered the dreams he had had about them, and said to them, 'You are spies. You have come to discover the country's weak points.'

Gen 42:10 'No, my lord,' they said, 'your servants have come to get food.'

Gen 42:11 We are all sons of the same man. We are honest men, your servants are not spies.'

Gen 42:12 'Oh no,' he replied, 'you have come to discover the country's weak points.'

Gen 42:13 'Your servants were twelve brothers,' they said, 'sons of the same man in Canaan, but the youngest is at present with our father, and the other one is no more.'

Gen 42:14 To which Joseph retorted, 'It is as I said, you are spies.'

Gen 42:15 This is the test you are to undergo: as sure as Pharaoh lives you shall not leave unless your youngest brother comes here.

Gen 42:16 Send one of your number to fetch your brother; you others will remain under arrest, so that your statements can be tested to see whether or not you are honest. If not, then as sure as Pharaoh lives you are spies.'

Gen 42:17 Whereupon, he put them all into custody for three days.

Gen 42:18 On the third day Joseph said to them, 'Do this and you will live, for I am a man who fears God.

Gen 42:19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be detained where you are imprisoned; the rest of you, go and take supplies home for your starving families.

Gen 42:20 But you must bring your youngest brother back to me; in this way, what you have said will be verified, and you will not have to die! And this is what they did.

Gen 42:21 And they said to one another, 'Clearly, we are being punished for what we did to our brother. We saw his deep misery when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen, and now this misery has come home to us.'

Gen 42:22 Reuben retorted to them, 'Did I not tell you not to wrong the boy? But you would not listen. Now comes the accounting.'

Gen 42:23 They did not know that Joseph understood, because there was an interpreter between them.

Gen 42:24 He turned away from them and wept. When he was able to speak to them again, he chose Simeon out of their number and had him bound while they looked on.

Gen 42:25 Joseph gave the order to fill their panniers with grain, to put back each man's money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. This was done for them.

Gen 42:26 Then they loaded their supplies on their donkeys and went away.

Gen 42:27 But when they camped for the night, one of them opened his sack to give his donkey some fodder and saw his money -- there it was in the mouth of his sack.

Gen 42:28 He said to his brothers, 'My money has been put back; here it is, in my sack!' Their hearts sank, and they looked at one another in panic, saying, 'What is this that God has done to us?'

Gen 42:29 Returning to their father Jacob in Canaan, they gave him a full report of what had happened to them,

Gen 42:30 'The man who is lord of the country spoke harshly to us, accusing us of spying on the country.

Gen 42:31 We told him, "We are honest men, we are not spies.

Gen 42:32 We were twelve brothers, sons of the same father. One of us is no more, and the youngest is at present with our father in Canaan."

Gen 42:33 But the man who is lord of the country said to us, "This is how I shall know whether you are honest: leave one of your brothers with me. Take supplies for your starving families and be gone,

Gen 42:34 but bring me back your youngest brother and then I shall know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I shall give your brother back to you and you will be free to move about the country." '

Gen 42:35 As they emptied their sacks, each discovered his bag of money in his sack. On seeing their bags of money they were afraid, and so was their father.

Gen 42:36 Then their father Jacob said to them, 'You are robbing me of my children; Joseph is no more; Simeon is no more; and now you want to take Benjamin. I bear the brunt of all this!'

Gen 42:37 Then Reuben said to his father, 'You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my care and I will bring him back to you.'

Gen 42:38 But he replied, 'My son is not going down with you, for now his brother is dead he is the only one left. If any harm came to him on the journey you are undertaking, you would send my white head down to Sheol with grief!'

Gen 43:1 But the famine in the country grew worse,

Gen 43:2 and when they had finished eating the supplies which they had brought from Egypt their father said to them, 'Go back and get us a little food.'

Gen 43:3 'But', Judah replied, 'the man expressly warned us, "You will not be admitted to my presence unless your brother is with you."

Gen 43:4 If you are ready to send our brother with us, we will go down and get food for you.

Gen 43:5 But if you are not ready to send him, we will not go down, in view of the man's warning, "You will not be admitted to my presence unless your brother is with you."

Gen 43:6 Then Israel said, 'Why did you bring this misery on me by telling the man you had another brother?'

Gen 43:7 They replied, 'He kept questioning us about ourselves and our family, asking, "Is your father still alive?" and, "Have you another brother?" That is why we told him. How could we know he was going to say, "Bring your brother down here"?

Gen 43:8 Judah then said to his father Israel, 'Send the boy with me, and let us be off and go, if we are to survive and not die, we, you, and our dependants.

Gen 43:9 I will go surely for him, and you can hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and produce him before you, let me bear the blame all my life.

Gen 43:10 Indeed, if we had not wasted so much time we should have been there and back twice by now!'

Gen 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, 'If it must be so, then do this: take some of the country's best products in your baggage and take them to the man as a gift: some balsam, some honey, gum tragacanth, resin, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Gen 43:12 Take double the amount of money with you and return the money put back in the mouths of your sacks; it may have been a mistake.

Gen 43:13 Take your brother, and go back to the man.

Gen 43:14 May El Shaddai move the man to be kind to you, and allow you to bring back your other brother and Benjamin. As for me, if I must be bereaved, bereaved I must be.'

Gen 43:15 The men took this gift; they took double the amount of money with them, and Benjamin. They set off, went down to Egypt and presented themselves before Joseph.

Gen 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them he said to his chamberlain, 'Take these men into the house. Slaughter a beast and prepare it, for these men are to eat with me at midday.'

Gen 43:17 The man did as Joseph had ordered, and took the men to Joseph's house.

Gen 43:18 The men were afraid at being taken to Joseph's house and said, 'We are being taken there because of the money replaced in our sacks the first time. They will set on us; they will fall on us and make slaves of us, and take our donkeys too.'

Gen 43:19 So they went up to Joseph's chamberlain and spoke to him at the entrance to the house.

Gen 43:20 'By your leave, sir,' they said, 'we came down once before to get supplies,

Gen 43:21 and when we reached camp and opened our sacks, there was each man's money in the mouth of his sack, to the full. But we have brought it back with us,

Gen 43:22 and we have brought more money with us for the supplies. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.'

Gen 43:23 'Set your minds at ease,' he replied, 'do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father put treasure in your sacks for you. I received your money.' And he brought Simeon out to them.

Gen 43:24 The man then took the men into Joseph's house. He offered them water to wash their feet, and gave their donkeys fodder.

Gen 43:25 They arranged their gift while they waited for Joseph to come at midday, for they had heard they were to dine there.

Gen 43:26 When Joseph arrived at the house they offered him the gift they had with them, bowing low before him.

Gen 43:27 He greeted them pleasantly, asking, 'Is your father well, the old man you told me of? Is he still alive?'

Gen 43:28 'Your servant our father is well,' they replied, 'he is still alive,' and they bowed respectfully.

Gen 43:29 Looking about, he saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son. 'Is this your youngest brother', he asked, 'of whom you told me?' And he added, 'God be good to you, my son.'

Gen 43:30 Joseph hurried out; so strong was the affection he felt for his brother that he wanted to cry. He went into his room and there he wept.

Gen 43:31 After washing his face he returned and, controlling himself, gave the order: 'Serve the meal.'

Gen 43:32 He was served separately; so were they, and so were the Egyptians who ate in his household, for the Egyptians could not take food with Hebrews; Egyptians have a horror of doing so.

Gen 43:33 They were placed facing him in order of seniority, from the eldest to the youngest, and the men looked at one another in amazement.

Gen 43:34 He had portions carried to them from his own dish, the portion for Benjamin being five times larger than any of the others. And they feasted with him and drank freely.

Gen 44:1 Then Joseph instructed his chamberlain as follows: 'Fill these men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.'

Gen 44:2 And put my cup, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack as well as the money for his rations.' He did as Joseph had instructed.

Gen 44:3 At daybreak, the men were sent off with their donkeys.

Gen 44:4 They had gone only a little way from the city, when Joseph said to his chamberlain, 'Away now and follow those men. When you catch up with them, say to them, "Why have you repaid good with evil?"

Gen 44:5 Is this not what my lord uses for drinking and also for reading omens? What you have done is wrong.'

Gen 44:6 So when he caught up with them he repeated these words.

Gen 44:7 They asked him, 'What does my lord mean? Your servants would never think of doing such a thing.'

Gen 44:8 Look, we brought you back the money we found in the mouths of our sacks, all the way from Canaan. Are we likely to have stolen silver or gold from your master's house?

Gen 44:9 Whichever of your servants is found to have it shall die, and the rest of us shall be slaves of my lord.'

Gen 44:10 'Very well, then, it shall be as you say,' he replied, 'the one on whom it is found shall become my slave, but the rest of you can go free.'

Gen 44:11 Each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and each opened his own.

Gen 44:12 He searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest, and found the cup in Benjamin's sack.

Gen 44:13 Then they tore their clothes, and when each man had reloaded his donkey they returned to the city.

Gen 44:14 When Judah and his brothers arrived at Joseph's house he was still there, so they fell on the ground in front of him.

Gen 44:15 'What do you mean by doing this?' Joseph asked them. 'Did you not know that a man such as I am is a reader of omens?'

Gen 44:16 'What can we answer my lord?' Judah replied. 'What can we say? How can we clear ourselves? God himself has uncovered your servants' guilt. Here we are then, my lord's slaves, we no less than the one in whose possession the cup was found.'

Gen 44:17 'I could not think of doing such a thing,' he replied. 'The man in whose possession the cup was found shall be my slave, but you can go back unhindered to your father.'

Gen 44:18 At this, Judah went up to him and said, 'May it please my lord, let your servant have a word privately with my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself.'

Gen 44:19 My lord questioned his servants, "Have you father or brother?"

Gen 44:20 And we said to my lord, "We have an old father, and a younger brother born of his old age. His brother is dead, so he is the only one by that mother now left, and his father loves him."

Gen 44:21 Then you said to your servants, "Bring him down to me, so that I can set eyes on him."

Gen 44:22 We replied to my lord, "The boy cannot leave his father. If he leaves him, his father will die."

Gen 44:23 But you said to your servants, "If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you will not be admitted to my presence again."

Gen 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father, we repeated to him what my lord had said.

Gen 44:25 So when our father said, "Go back and get us a little food,"

Gen 44:26 we said, "We cannot go down. We shall go only if our youngest brother is with us for, unless our youngest brother is with us, we shall not be admitted to the man's presence."

Gen 44:27 So your servant our father said to us, "You know that my wife bore me two children.

Gen 44:28 When one of them left me, I supposed that he must have been torn to pieces, and I have never seen him since.

Gen 44:29 If you take this one from me too and any harm comes to him, you will send my white head down to Sheol with grief."

Gen 44:30 If I go to your servant my father now, and we do not have the boy with us, he will die as soon as he sees that the boy is not with us, for his heart is bound up with him;

Gen 44:31 and your servants will have sent your servant our father's white head down to Sheol with grief.

Gen 44:32 Now your servant went surely to my father for the boy. I said: "If I do not bring him back to you, let me bear the blame before my father all my life."

Gen 44:33 Let your servant stay, then, as my lord's slave in place of the boy, I implore you, and let the boy go back with his brothers.

Gen 44:34 How indeed could I go back to my father and not have the boy with me? I could not bear to see the misery that would overwhelm my father.'

Gen 45:1 Then Joseph could not control his feelings in front of all his retainers, and he exclaimed, 'Let everyone leave me.' No one therefore was present with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers,

Gen 45:2 but he wept so loudly that all the Egyptians heard, and the news reached Pharaoh's palace.

Gen 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father really still alive?' His brothers could not answer him, they were so dumbfounded at seeing him.

Gen 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' When they had come closer to him he said, 'I am your brother Joseph whom you sold into Egypt.'

Gen 45:5 But now, do not grieve, do not reproach yourselves for having sold me here, since God sent me before you to preserve your lives.

Gen 45:6 For this is the second year there has been famine in the country, and there are still five years to come without ploughing or harvest.

Gen 45:7 God sent me before you to assure the survival of your race on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Gen 45:8 So it was not you who sent me here but God, and he has set me up as a father to Pharaoh, as lord of all his household and governor of the whole of Egypt.

Gen 45:9 'Return quickly to your father and tell him, "Your son Joseph says this: 'God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay.'

Gen 45:10 You will live in the region of Goshen where you will be near me, you, your children and your grandchildren, your flocks, your cattle and all your possessions.

Gen 45:11 There I shall provide for you -- for there are five years of famine still to come -- so that you, your household and all yours are not reduced to penury.'

Gen 45:12 You can see with your own eyes, and my brother Benjamin can see too, that I am who I say I am.

Gen 45:13 Give my father a full report of all the honour I enjoy in Egypt, and of all you have seen; and quickly bring my father down here.'

Gen 45:14 Then throwing his arms round the neck of his brother Benjamin he wept; and Benjamin wept on his shoulder.

Gen 45:15 He kissed all his brothers, weeping on each one. Only then were his brothers able to talk to him.

Gen 45:16 News reached Pharaoh's palace that Joseph's brothers had come, and Pharaoh was pleased to hear it, as were his servants.

Gen 45:17 Pharaoh told Joseph, 'Say to your brothers, "Do this: load your beasts and hurry away to Canaan.

Gen 45:18 Fetch your father and your families, and come back to me. I will give you the best territory in Egypt, where you will live off the fat of the land."

Gen 45:19 And you, for your part, give them this order: "Do this: take waggons from Egypt, for your little ones and your wives. Get your father and come.

Gen 45:20 Never mind about your property, for the best of all Egypt will be yours."

Gen 45:21 Israel's sons did as they were told. Joseph gave them waggons as Pharaoh had ordered, and he gave them provisions for the journey.

Gen 45:22 To each and every one he gave new clothes, and to Benjamin three hundred shekels of silver and five changes of clothes.

Gen 45:23 And to his father he sent ten donkeys laden with the best that Egypt offered, and ten she-donkeys laden with grain, bread and food for his father's journey.

Gen 45:24 And so he sent his brothers on their way. His final words to them were, 'And let there be no upsets on the way!'

Gen 45:25 And so they left Egypt. When they reached their father Jacob in Canaan,

Gen 45:26 they gave him this report, 'Joseph is still alive. He is at this moment governor of all Egypt!' But he was as one stunned, for he did not believe them.

Gen 45:27 However, when they told him all Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the waggons that Joseph had sent to fetch him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived,

Gen 45:28 and Israel said, 'That is enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I must go and see him before I die.'

Gen 46:1 So Israel set out with all his possessions. Arriving at Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Gen 46:2 God spoke to Israel in a vision at night, 'Jacob, Jacob,' he said. 'Here I am,' he replied.

Gen 46:3 'I am El, God of your father,' he said. 'Do not be afraid of going down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.'

Gen 46:4 I shall go down to Egypt with you and I myself shall bring you back again, and Joseph's hand will close your eyes.'

Gen 46:5 So Jacob left Beersheba. Israel's sons conveyed their father Jacob, their little children and their wives in the waggons Pharaoh had sent to fetch him.

Gen 46:6 Taking their livestock and all that they had acquired in Canaan, they arrived in Egypt -- Jacob and all his offspring.

Gen 46:7 With him to Egypt, he brought his sons and grandsons, his daughters and granddaughters -- all his offspring.

Gen 46:8 These were the names of the Israelites, Jacob and his descendants, who arrived in Egypt: Reuben, Jacob's first-born,

Gen 46:9 and the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

Gen 46:10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of the Canaanite woman.

Gen 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Gen 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (Er and Onan had died in Canaan), and Hezron and Hamul sons of Perez.

Gen 46:13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Jashub and Shimron.

Gen 46:14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon and Jahleel.

Gen 46:15 These were the sons that Leah had borne to Jacob in Paddan-Aram, besides his daughter Dinah; in all, his sons and daughters numbered thirty-three.

Gen 46:16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

Gen 46:17 The sons of Asher: Jimnah, Jishvah, Jishvi, Beriah, with their sister Serah; the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

Gen 46:18 These were the sons of Zilpah whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; she bore these to Jacob -- sixteen persons.

Gen 46:19 The sons of Rachel wife of Jacob: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 46:20 Born to Joseph in Egypt were: Manasseh and Ephraim sons of Asenath, daughter of Potiphera priest of On.

Gen 46:21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.

Gen 46:22 These were the sons that Rachel bore to Jacob -- fourteen persons in all.

Gen 46:23 The sons of Dan: Hushim.

Gen 46:24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.

Gen 46:25 These were the sons of Bilhah whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel; she bore these to Jacob -- seven persons in all.

Gen 46:26 Altogether, the members of Jacob's family who arrived with him in Egypt -- his own issue, not counting the wives of Jacob's sons -- numbered sixty-six all told.

Gen 46:27 With Joseph's sons born to him in Egypt -- two persons -- the members of Jacob's family who went to Egypt totalled seventy.

Gen 46:28 Israel sent Judah ahead to Joseph, so that Judah might present himself to Joseph in Goshen. When they arrived in Goshen,

Gen 46:29 Joseph had his chariot made ready and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as he appeared he threw his arms round his neck and for a long time wept on his shoulder.

Gen 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, 'Now I can die, now that I have seen you in person and seen you still alive.'

Gen 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and his father's family, 'I shall go back and break the news to Pharaoh. I shall tell him, "My brothers and my father's family who were in Canaan have come to me."

Gen 46:32 The men are shepherds and look after livestock, and they have brought their flocks and cattle and all their possessions."

Gen 46:33 Thus, when Pharaoh summons you and asks, "What is your occupation?",

Gen 46:34 you are to say, "Ever since our boyhood your servants have looked after livestock, we and our fathers before us," so that you can stay in the Goshen region -- for the Egyptians have a horror of all shepherds.'

Gen 47:1 So Joseph went and told Pharaoh, 'My father and brothers have arrived from Canaan with their flocks and cattle and all their possessions. Here they are, in the region of Goshen.'

Gen 47:2 He had taken five of his brothers, and he now presented them to Pharaoh.

Gen 47:3 Pharaoh asked his brothers, 'What is your occupation?' and they gave Pharaoh the answer, 'Your servants are shepherds, like our fathers before us.'

Gen 47:4 They went on to tell Pharaoh, 'We have come to stay in this country for the time being, since there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, Canaan being stricken with famine. So now please allow your servants to settle in the region of Goshen.'

Gen 47:5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'They may stay in the region of Goshen, and if you know of any capable men among them, put them in charge of my own livestock.' Jacob and his sons went to Egypt where Joseph was. Pharaoh king of Egypt heard about this and said to Joseph, 'Your father and brothers have come to you.'

Gen 47:6 The country of Egypt is open to you: settle your father and brothers in the best region.'

Gen 47:7 Joseph brought his father and presented him to Pharaoh. Jacob paid his respects to Pharaoh.

Gen 47:8 Pharaoh asked Jacob, 'How many years have you lived?'

Gen 47:9 Jacob said to Pharaoh, 'The years of my stay on earth add up to one hundred and thirty years. Few and unhappy my years have been, falling short of my ancestors' years in their stay on earth.'

Gen 47:10 Jacob then took leave of Pharaoh and withdrew from his presence.

Gen 47:11 Joseph then settled his father and brothers, giving them land holdings in Egypt, in the best part of the country, the region of Rameses, as Pharaoh had ordered.

Gen 47:12 Joseph provided his father, brothers and all his father's family with food, down to the least of them.

Gen 47:13 And on all the earth around there was now no food anywhere, for the famine had grown very severe, and Egypt and Canaan were both weak with hunger.

Gen 47:14 Joseph accumulated all the money to be found in Egypt and Canaan, in exchange for the supplies being handed out, and put the money in Pharaoh's palace.

Gen 47:15 When all the money in Egypt and Canaan was exhausted, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, pleading, 'Give us food, unless you want us to die before your eyes! For our money has come to an end.'

Gen 47:16 Joseph replied, 'Hand over your livestock and I shall issue you food in exchange for your livestock, if your money has come to an end.'

Gen 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for horses and livestock, whether sheep or cattle, and for donkeys. Thus he saw them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Gen 47:18 When that year was over, they came to him the next year, and said to him, 'We cannot hide it from my lord: the truth is, our money has run out and the livestock is in my lord's possession. There is nothing left for my lord except our bodies and our land.'

Gen 47:19 If we and our land are not to perish, take us and our land in exchange for food, and we with our land will become Pharaoh's serfs; only give us seed, so that we can survive and not die and the land not revert to desert!'

Gen 47:20 Thus Joseph acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh, since one by one the Egyptians sold their fields, so hard pressed were they by the famine; and the whole country passed into Pharaoh's possession,

Gen 47:21 while the people he reduced to serfdom from one end of Egypt to the other.

Gen 47:22 The only land he did not acquire belonged to the priests, for the priests received an allowance from Pharaoh and lived on the allowance that Pharaoh gave them. Hence they had no need to sell their land.

Gen 47:23 Then Joseph said to the people, 'This is how we stand: I have bought you out, with your land, on Pharaoh's behalf. Here is seed for you to sow the land.'

Gen 47:24 But of the harvest you must give a fifth to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you can have for sowing your fields, to provide food for yourselves and your households, and food for your children.'

Gen 47:25 'You have saved our lives!' they replied. 'If it please my lord, we will become serfs to Pharaoh.'

Gen 47:26 So Joseph made a law, still in force today, as regards the soil of Egypt, that one-fifth should go to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not go to Pharaoh.

Gen 47:27 Thus Israel settled in Egypt, in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there; they were fruitful and grew very numerous.

Gen 47:28 Jacob lived seventeen years in Egypt; thus Jacob's total age came to a hundred and forty-seven years.

Gen 47:29 When Israel's time to die drew near he sent for his son Joseph and said to him, 'If you really love me, place your hand under my thigh as pledge that you will act with faithful love towards me: do not bury me in Egypt!'

Gen 47:30 When I lie down with my ancestors, carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their tomb.' 'I shall do as you say,' he replied.

Gen 47:31 'Swear to me,' he insisted. So he swore to him, and Israel sank back on the pillow.

Gen 48:1 Some time later, Joseph was informed, 'Your father has been taken ill.' So he took with him his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim.

Gen 48:2 When Jacob was told, 'Look, your son Joseph has come to you,' Israel, summoning his strength, sat up in bed.

Gen 48:3 'El Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in Canaan,' Jacob told Joseph, 'and he blessed me,

Gen 48:4 saying to me, "I shall make you fruitful and numerous, and shall make you into an assembly of peoples and give this country to your descendants after you, to own in perpetuity."

Gen 48:5 Now your two sons, born to you in Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, shall be mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be as much mine as Reuben and Simeon.

Gen 48:6 But with regard to the children you have had since them, they shall be yours, and they shall be known by their brothers' names for the purpose of their inheritance.

Gen 48:7 'When I was on my way from Paddan, to my sorrow death took your mother Rachel from me in Canaan, on the journey while only a short distance from Ephrath. I buried her there on the road to Ephrath -- now Bethlehem.'

Gen 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph's two sons, he asked, 'Who are these?'

Gen 48:9 'They are my sons, whom God has given me here,' Joseph told his father. 'Then bring them to me', he said, 'so that I may bless them.'

Gen 48:10 Now, Israel's eyes were dim with age, and he could not see. So Joseph made them come closer to him and he kissed and embraced them.

Gen 48:11 Then Israel said to Joseph, 'I did not think I should ever see you again, and now God has let me see your children as well!'

Gen 48:12 Then Joseph took them from his lap and bowed to the ground.

Gen 48:13 Then Joseph took the two of them, Ephraim with his right hand so that he should be on Israel's left, and Manasseh with his left hand, so that he should be on Israel's right, and brought them close to him.

Gen 48:14 But Israel held out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, the younger, and his left on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands -- Manasseh was, in fact, the elder.

Gen 48:15 Then he blessed Joseph saying: May the God in whose presence my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd from my birth until this day,

Gen 48:16 the Angel who has saved me from all harm, bless these boys, so that my name may live on in them, and the names of my ancestors Abraham and Isaac, and they grow into teeming multitudes on earth!

Gen 48:17 Joseph saw that his father was laying his right hand on the head of Ephraim, and this he thought was wrong, so he took his father's hand and tried to shift it from the head of Ephraim to the head of Manasseh.

Gen 48:18 Joseph protested to his father, 'Not like that, father! This one is the elder; put your right hand on his head.'

Gen 48:19 But his father refused. 'I know, my son, I know,' he said. 'He too shall become a people; he too will be great. But his younger brother will be greater, his offspring will be sufficient to constitute nations.'

Gen 48:20 So he blessed them that day, saying: By you shall Israel bless itself, saying, 'God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!' putting Ephraim before Manasseh.

Gen 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, 'Now I am about to die. But God will be with you and take you back to the land of your ancestors.'

Gen 48:22 As for me, I give you a Shechem more than your brothers, the one I took from the Amorites with my sword and bow.'

Gen 49:1 Jacob called his sons and said, 'Gather round, so that I can tell you what is in store for you in the final days.

Gen 49:2 Gather round, sons of Jacob, and listen; listen to Israel your father.

Gen 49:3 Reuben, you are my first-born, my vigour, and the first-fruit of my manhood, foremost in pride, foremost in strength,

Gen 49:4 uncontrolled as water: you will not be foremost, for you climbed into your father's bed, and so defiled my couch, to my sorrow.

Gen 49:5 Simeon and Levi are brothers in carrying out their malicious plans.

Gen 49:6 May my soul not enter their council nor my heart join their company, for in their rage they have killed men and hamstrung oxen at their whim.

Gen 49:7 Accursed be their rage for its ruthlessness, their wrath for its ferocity. I shall disperse them in Jacob, I shall scatter them through Israel.

Gen 49:8 Judah, your brothers will praise you: you grip your enemies by the neck, your father's sons will do you homage.

Gen 49:9 Judah is a lion's whelp; You stand over your prey, my son. Like a lion he crouches and lies down, a mighty lion: who dare rouse him?

Gen 49:10 The sceptre shall not pass from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until tribute be brought him and the peoples render him obedience.

Gen 49:11 He tethers his donkey to the vine, to its stock the foal of his she-donkey. He washes his clothes in wine, his robes in the blood of the grape.

Gen 49:12 His eyes are darkened with wine and his teeth are white with milk.

Gen 49:13 Zebulun will live by the seashore and be a sailor on board the ships, with Sidon on his flank.

Gen 49:14 Issachar is a strong donkey lying down among sheepfolds.

Gen 49:15 When he saw how good the resting-place and how pleasant the country, he bowed his shoulder to the load and became a slave to forced labour.

Gen 49:16 Dan will govern his people like any other of the tribes of Israel.

Gen 49:17 May Dan be a snake on the road, a viper on the path, who bites the horse on the hock so that its rider falls off backwards!

Gen 49:18 I long for your deliverance, Yahweh!

Gen 49:19 Gad will be raided by raiders, and he will raid at their heels.

Gen 49:20 Rich the food produced by Asher: he will furnish food fit for kings.

Gen 49:21 Naphtali is a swift hind bearing lovely fawns.

Gen 49:22 Joseph is a fruitful plant near a spring whose tendrils reach over the wall.

Gen 49:23 Archers in their hostility drew their bows and attacked him.

Gen 49:24 But their bows were broken by a mighty One, the sinews of their arms were snapped by the power of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the Name of the Stone of Israel,

Gen 49:25 the God of your father who assists you, El Shaddai who blesses you: blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep lying below, blessings of the breasts and womb,

Gen 49:26 blessings of the grain and flowers, blessings of the eternal mountains, bounty of the everlasting hills -- may they descend on Joseph's head, on the crown of the one dedicated from among his brothers!

Gen 49:27 Benjamin is a ravening wolf, in the morning he devours the prey, in the evening he is still sharing out the spoil.'

Gen 49:28 All these make up the tribes of Israel, twelve in number, and this is what their father said to them as he bade them farewell, giving each an appropriate blessing.

Gen 49:29 Then he gave them these instructions, 'I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my ancestors, in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

Gen 49:30 in the cave in the field at Machpelah, facing Mamre, in Canaan, which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site of his own.

Gen 49:31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried. There Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried; and there I buried Leah-

Gen 49:32 the field and the cave in it which were bought from the Hittites.'

Gen 49:33 When Jacob had finished giving his instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, and breathing his last was gathered to his people.

Gen 50:1 At this Joseph threw himself on his father's face, covering it with tears and kisses.

Gen 50:2 Then Joseph ordered the doctors in his service to embalm his father. The doctors embalmed Israel,

Gen 50:3 and it took them forty days, for embalming takes forty days to complete. The Egyptians mourned him for seventy days.

Gen 50:4 When the period of mourning for him was over, Joseph said to Pharaoh's household, 'If you have any affection for me, see that this message reaches Pharaoh's ears,

Gen 50:5 "My father put me under oath, saying: I am about to die. In the tomb which I dug for myself in Canaan, that is where you are to bury me. So may I have leave to go up and bury my father, and then come back?" '

Gen 50:6 Pharaoh replied, 'Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do.'

Gen 50:7 Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went all Pharaoh's officials, the dignitaries of his palace and all the dignitaries of Egypt,

Gen 50:8 as well as all Joseph's family, his brothers and his father's family. The only people they left behind in Goshen were those unfit to travel, and their flocks and cattle.

Gen 50:9 Chariots and horsemen went up with him too; it was a very large retinue.

Gen 50:10 On arriving at Goren-ha-Atad, which is across the Jordan, they there held a long and solemn lamentation, and Joseph observed seven days' mourning for his father.

Gen 50:11 When the Canaanites, the local inhabitants, witnessed the mourning at Goren-ha-Atad, they said, 'This is a solemn act of mourning by the Egyptians,' which is why the place was given the name Abel-Mizraim-it is across the Jordan.

Gen 50:12 His sons did what he had ordered them to do for him.

Gen 50:13 His sons carried him to Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field at Machpelah, facing Mamre, which Abraham had bought from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site of his own.

Gen 50:14 Then Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all those who had come up with him to bury his father.

Gen 50:15 Seeing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, 'What if Joseph intends to treat us as enemies and pay us back for all the wrong we did him?'

Gen 50:16 So they sent this message to Joseph: 'Before your father died, he gave us this order:

Gen 50:17 "You are to say to Joseph: Now please forgive the crime and faults of your brothers and all the wrong they did you." So now please forgive the crime of the servants of your father's God.' Joseph wept at the message they sent to him.

Gen 50:18 Then his brothers went to him themselves and, throwing themselves at his feet, said, 'Take us as your slaves!'

Gen 50:19 But Joseph replied, 'Do not be afraid; is it for me to put myself in God's place?

Gen 50:20 The evil you planned to do me has by God's design been turned to good, to bring about the present result: the survival of a numerous people.

Gen 50:21 So there is no need to be afraid; I shall provide for you and your dependants.' In this way he reassured them by speaking affectionately to them.

Gen 50:22 So Joseph stayed in Egypt with his father's family; and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

Gen 50:23 Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim's line, as also the children of Machir son of Manasseh, who were born on Joseph's lap.

Gen 50:24 At length Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am about to die; but God will be sure to remember you kindly and take you out of this country to the country which he promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.'

Gen 50:25 And Joseph put Israel's sons on oath, saying, 'When God remembers you with kindness, be sure to take my bones away from here.'

Gen 50:26 Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten; he was embalmed and laid in a coffin in Egypt.

Exo 1:1 These are the names of the Israelites who went with Jacob to Egypt, each of them went with his family:

Exo 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah,

Exo 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin,

Exo 1:4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

Exo 1:5 In all, the descendants of Jacob numbered seventy persons. Joseph was in Egypt already.

Exo 1:6 Then Joseph died, and his brothers, and all that generation.

Exo 1:7 But the Israelites were fruitful and prolific; they became so numerous and powerful that eventually the whole land was full of them.

Exo 1:8 Then there came to power in Egypt a new king who had never heard of Joseph.

Exo 1:9 'Look,' he said to his people, 'the Israelites are now more numerous and stronger than we are.

Exo 1:10 We must take precautions to stop them from increasing any further, or if war should break out, they might join the ranks of our enemies. They might take arms against us and then escape from the country.'

Exo 1:11 Accordingly they put taskmasters over the Israelites to wear them down by forced labour. In this way they built the store-cities of Pithom and Rameses for Pharaoh.

Exo 1:12 But the harder their lives were made, the more they increased and spread, until people came to fear the Israelites.

Exo 1:13 So the Egyptians gave them no mercy in the demands they made,

Exo 1:14 making their lives miserable with hard labour: with digging clay, making bricks, doing various kinds of field -- work -- all sorts of labour that they imposed on them without mercy.

Exo 1:15 The king of Egypt then spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was called Shiphrah, and the other Puah.

Exo 1:16 'When you attend Hebrew women in childbirth,' he said, 'look at the two stones. If it is a boy, kill him; if a girl, let her live.'

Exo 1:17 But the midwives were God-fearing women and did not obey the orders of the king of Egypt, but allowed the boys to live.

Exo 1:18 So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, 'What do you mean by allowing the boys to live?'

Exo 1:19 The midwives said to Pharaoh, 'Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women, they are hardy and give birth before the midwife can get to them.'

Exo 1:20 For this, God was good to the midwives, and the people went on increasing and growing more powerful;

Exo 1:21 and since the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Exo 1:22 Pharaoh then gave all his people this command: 'Throw every new-born boy into the river, but let all the girls live.'

Exo 2:1 There was a man descended from Levi who had taken a woman of Levi as his wife.

Exo 2:2 She conceived and gave birth to a son and, seeing what a fine child he was, she kept him hidden for three months.

Exo 2:3 When she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him; coating it with bitumen and pitch, she put the child inside and laid it among the reeds at the River's edge.

Exo 2:4 His sister took up position some distance away to see what would happen to him.

Exo 2:5 Now Pharaoh's daughter went down to bathe in the river, while her maids walked along the riverside. Among the reeds she noticed the basket, and she sent her maid to fetch it.

Exo 2:6 She opened it and saw the child: the baby was crying. Feeling sorry for it, she said, 'This is one of the little Hebrews.'

Exo 2:7 The child's sister then said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and find you a nurse among the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?'

Exo 2:8 'Yes,' said Pharaoh's daughter, and the girl went and called the child's own mother.

Exo 2:9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child away and nurse it for me. I shall pay you myself for doing so.' So the woman took the child away and nursed it.

Exo 2:10 When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter who treated him like a son; she named him Moses 'because', she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

Exo 2:11 It happened one day, when Moses was grown up, that he went to see his kinsmen. While he was watching their forced labour he also saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his kinsmen.

Exo 2:12 Looking this way and that and seeing no one in sight, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exo 2:13 On the following day he came back, and there were two Hebrews, fighting. He said to the man who was in the wrong, 'What do you mean by hitting your kinsman?'

Exo 2:14 'And who appointed you', the man retorted, 'to be prince over us and judge? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?' Moses was frightened. 'Clearly that business has come to light,' he thought.

Exo 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of the matter, he tried to put Moses to death, but Moses fled from Pharaoh. He went into Midianite territory and sat down beside a well.

Exo 2:16 Now there was a priest of Midian with seven daughters. They used to come to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock.

Exo 2:17 Some shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses sprang to their help and watered their flock.

Exo 2:18 When they returned to their father Reuel, he said to them, 'Why are you back so early today?'

Exo 2:19 'An Egyptian protected us from the shepherds,' they said, 'and he even drew water for us and watered the flock.'

Exo 2:20 'And where is he?' he asked his daughters. 'Why did you leave the man there? Ask him to eat with us.'

Exo 2:21 Moses agreed to stay on there with the man, who gave him his daughter Zipporah in marriage.

Exo 2:22 She gave birth to a son, whom he named Gershom 'because', he said, 'I am an alien in a foreign land.'

Exo 2:23 During this long period the king of Egypt died. The Israelites, groaning in their slavery, cried out for help and from the depths of their slavery their cry came up to God.

Exo 2:24 God heard their groaning; God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Exo 2:25 God saw the Israelites and took note.

Exo 3:1 Moses was looking after the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led it to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exo 3:2 The angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a flame blazing from the middle of a bush. Moses looked; there was the bush blazing, but the bush was not being burnt up.

Exo 3:3 Moses said, 'I must go across and see this strange sight, and why the bush is not being burnt up.'

Exo 3:4 When Yahweh saw him going across to look, God called to him from the middle of the bush. 'Moses,

Moses!' he said. 'Here I am,' he answered.

Exo 3:5 'Come no nearer,' he said. 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.'

Exo 3:6 I am the God of your ancestors,' he said, 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' At this Moses covered his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Exo 3:7 Yahweh then said, 'I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying for help on account of their taskmasters. Yes, I am well aware of their sufferings.'

Exo 3:8 And I have come down to rescue them from the clutches of the Egyptians and bring them up out of that country, to a country rich and broad, to a country flowing with milk and honey, to the home of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites.

Exo 3:9 Yes indeed, the Israelites' cry for help has reached me, and I have also seen the cruel way in which the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exo 3:10 So now I am sending you to Pharaoh, for you to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.'

Exo 3:11 Moses said to God, 'Who am I to go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?'

Exo 3:12 'I shall be with you,' God said, 'and this is the sign by which you will know that I was the one who sent you. After you have led the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.'

Exo 3:13 Moses then said to God, 'Look, if I go to the Israelites and say to them, "The God of your ancestors has sent me to you," and they say to me, "What is his name?" what am I to tell them?'

Exo 3:14 God said to Moses, 'I am he who is.' And he said, 'This is what you are to say to the Israelites, "I am has sent me to you." '

Exo 3:15 God further said to Moses, 'You are to tell the Israelites, "Yahweh, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you." This is my name for all time, and thus I am to be invoked for all generations to come.'

Exo 3:16 'Go, gather the elders of Israel together and tell them, "Yahweh, the God of your ancestors, has appeared to me -- the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob -- and has indeed visited you and seen what is being done to you in Egypt,

Exo 3:17 and has said: I shall bring you out of the misery of Egypt to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a country flowing with milk and honey."

Exo 3:18 They will listen to your words, and you and the elders of Israel are to go to the king of Egypt and say to him, "Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has encountered us. So now please allow us to make a three-days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to Yahweh our God."

Exo 3:19 I am well aware that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless he is compelled by a mighty hand;

Exo 3:20 he will not let you go until I have stretched out my arm and struck Egypt with all the wonders I intend to work there.

Exo 3:21 'I shall ensure that the Egyptians are so much impressed with this people that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.

Exo 3:22 Every woman will ask her neighbour and the woman staying in her house for silver and golden jewellery, and clothing. In these you will dress your own sons and daughters, despoiling the Egyptians of them.'

Exo 4:1 Moses replied as follows, 'But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my words, and say to me, "Yahweh has not appeared to you"?'

Exo 4:2 Yahweh then said, 'What is that in your hand?' 'A staff,' he said.

Exo 4:3 'Throw it on the ground,' said Yahweh. Moses threw it on the ground; the staff turned into a snake and Moses recoiled from it.

Exo 4:4 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Reach out your hand and catch it by the tail.' He reached out his hand, caught it, and in his hand it turned back into a staff.

Exo 4:5 'Thus they may believe that Yahweh, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.'

Exo 4:6 Next, Yahweh said to him, 'Put your hand inside your tunic.' He put his hand inside his tunic, then drew it out again: and his hand was diseased, white as snow.

Exo 4:7 Yahweh then said, 'Put your hand back inside your tunic.' He put his hand back inside his tunic and when he drew it out, there it was restored, just like the rest of his flesh.

Exo 4:8 'Even so: should they not believe you nor be convinced by the first sign, the second sign will convince them;

Exo 4:9 but should they not be convinced by either of these two signs and refuse to listen to what you say, you are to take some water from the River and pour it on the ground, and the water you have taken from the River will turn to blood on the dry land.'

Exo 4:10 Moses said to Yahweh, 'Please, my Lord, I have never been eloquent, even since you have spoken to your servant, for I am slow and hesitant of speech.'

Exo 4:11 'Who gave a person a mouth?' Yahweh said to him. 'Who makes a person dumb or deaf, gives sight or makes blind? Is it not I, Yahweh?

Exo 4:12 Now go, I shall help you speak and instruct you what to say.'

Exo 4:13 'Please, my Lord,' Moses replied, 'send anyone you decide to send!'

Exo 4:14 At this, Yahweh's anger kindled against Moses, and he said to him, 'There is your brother Aaron the Levite, is there not? I know that he is a good speaker. Here he comes to meet you. When he sees you, his heart will be full of joy.'

Exo 4:15 You will speak to him and tell him what message to give. I shall help you speak, and him too, and instruct you what to do.

Exo 4:16 He will speak to the people in your place; he will be your mouthpiece, and you will be as the god inspiring him.

Exo 4:17 And take this staff in your hand; with this you will perform the signs.'

Exo 4:18 Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, 'Give me leave to return to my kinsmen in Egypt and see if they are still alive.' And Jethro said to Moses, 'Go in peace.'

Exo 4:19 Yahweh said to Moses in Midian, 'Go, return to Egypt, for all those who wanted to kill you are dead.'

Exo 4:20 So Moses took his wife and his son and, putting them on a donkey, started back for Egypt; and Moses took the staff of God in his hand.

Exo 4:21 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Think of the wonders I have given you power to perform, once you are back in Egypt! You are to perform them before Pharaoh, but I myself shall make him obstinate, and he will not let the people go.'

Exo 4:22 You will then say to Pharaoh, "This is what Yahweh says: Israel is my first-born son.

Exo 4:23 I told you: Let my son go and worship me; but since you refuse to let him go, well then! I shall put your first-born son to death."

Exo 4:24 On the journey, when he had halted for the night, Yahweh encountered him and tried to kill him.

Exo 4:25 Then Zipporah, taking up a flint, cut off her son's foreskin and with it touched his feet and said, 'You are my blood-bridegroom!'

Exo 4:26 So he let him go. She said, 'Blood-bridegroom' then, with reference to the circumcision.

Exo 4:27 Yahweh said to Aaron, 'Go into the desert to meet Moses.' So he went, and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exo 4:28 Moses then told Aaron all that Yahweh had said when sending him and all the signs he had ordered him to perform.

Exo 4:29 Moses and Aaron then went and gathered all the elders of the Israelites together,

Exo 4:30 and Aaron repeated everything that Yahweh had said to Moses, and in the sight of the people performed the signs.

Exo 4:31 The people were convinced, and they rejoiced that Yahweh had visited the Israelites and seen their misery, and they bowed to the ground in worship.

Exo 5:1 After this, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, 'This is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says, "Let my people go, so that they can hold a feast in my honour in the desert."

Exo 5:2 'Who is Yahweh,' Pharaoh replied, 'for me to obey what he says and let Israel go? I know nothing of Yahweh, and I will not let Israel go.'

Exo 5:3 'The God of the Hebrews has encountered us,' they replied. 'Give us leave to make a three -days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to Yahweh our God, or he will strike us with a plague or with the sword.'

Exo 5:4 The king of Egypt said to them, 'Moses and Aaron, what do you mean by distracting the people from their work? Get back to your forced labour.'

Exo 5:5 And Pharaoh said, 'Now that the people have grown to such numbers in the country, what do you mean by interrupting their forced labour?'

Exo 5:6 That very day, Pharaoh gave the order to the people's taskmasters and their scribes,

Exo 5:7 'Do not go on providing the people with straw for brickmaking as before; let them go and gather straw for themselves.'

Exo 5:8 But you will exact the same quantity of bricks from them as before, not reducing it at all, since they are lazy, and that is why their cry is, "Let us go and sacrifice to our God."

Exo 5:9 Give these people more work to do, and see they do it instead of listening to lying speeches.'

Exo 5:10 The people's taskmasters and scribes went out to speak to the people and said, 'Pharaoh says this, "I shall not provide you with any more straw.'

Exo 5:11 Go and collect straw for yourselves where you can find it. But your output is not to be any less." '

Exo 5:12 So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble for their straw.

Exo 5:13 The taskmasters harassed them. 'You must complete your daily quota,' they said, 'just as when the straw was there.'

Exo 5:14 And the Israelites' foremen whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had put in charge of them, were flogged and asked, 'Why have you not fulfilled your quota of bricks made today as before?'

Exo 5:15 The Israelites' foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh. 'Why do you treat your servants like this?' they said.

Exo 5:16 'No straw is provided for your servants, yet still the cry is, "Make bricks!" And now your servants are being flogged! . . .'

Exo 5:17 'You are lazy, lazy,' he retorted. 'That is why you say, "Let us go and sacrifice to Yahweh."

Exo 5:18 Get back to your work at once. You will not be provided with straw; all the same, you will deliver the quota of bricks.'

Exo 5:19 The Israelites' foremen saw they were in a difficult position on being told, 'You will not reduce your daily production of bricks.'

Exo 5:20 As they left Pharaoh's presence, they met Moses and Aaron who were standing in their way.

Exo 5:21 'May Yahweh look down at you and judge!' they said to them. 'You have brought us into bad odour with Pharaoh and his officials; you have put a sword into their hand to kill us.'

Exo 5:22 Moses went back to Yahweh and said, 'Lord, why do you treat this people so harshly? Why did you send me?'

Exo 5:23 Ever since I came to Pharaoh and spoke to him in your name, he has ill-treated this people, and you have done nothing at all about rescuing your people.'

Exo 6:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Now you will see what I am going to do to Pharaoh. A mighty hand will force him to let them go, a mighty hand will force him to expel them from his country.'

Exo 6:2 God spoke to Moses and said to him, 'I am Yahweh.'

Exo 6:3 To Abraham, Isaac and Jacob I appeared as El Shaddai, but I did not make my name Yahweh known to them.

Exo 6:4 I also made my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the country in which they were living as aliens.

Exo 6:5 Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, enslaved by the Egyptians, and have remembered my covenant.

Exo 6:6 So say to the Israelites, "I am Yahweh. I shall free you from the forced labour of the Egyptians; I shall rescue you from their slavery and I shall redeem you with outstretched arm and mighty acts of judgement."

Exo 6:7 I shall take you as my people and I shall be your God. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God, who have freed you from the forced labour of the Egyptians.

Exo 6:8 Then I shall lead you into the country which I swore I would give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and shall give it to you as your heritage, I, Yahweh."

Exo 6:9 And Moses repeated this to the Israelites, but they would not listen to Moses, so crushed was their spirit and so cruel their slavery.

Exo 6:10 Yahweh then said to Moses,

Exo 6:11 'Go to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and tell him to let the Israelites leave his country.'

Exo 6:12 But Moses spoke out in Yahweh's presence and said, 'The Israelites have not listened to me, so why should Pharaoh take any notice of a poor speaker like me?'

Exo 6:13 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and sent them to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to lead the Israelites out of Egypt.

Exo 6:14 These were their heads of families: The sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi: these are the clans of Reuben.

Exo 6:15 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul son of the Canaanite woman: these are the clans of Simeon.

Exo 6:16 These were the names of the sons of Levi with their descendants: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived for a hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exo 6:17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, with their clans.

Exo 6:18 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived for a hundred and thirty-three years.

Exo 6:19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of Levi with their descendants.

Exo 6:20 Amram married Jochebed, his aunt, who bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived for a hundred and thirty-seven years.

Exo 6:21 The sons of Izhar were: Korah, Nepheg and Zichri.

Exo 6:22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

Exo 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exo 6:24 The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These are the clans of the Korahites.

Exo 6:25 Eleazar, son of Aaron, married one of Putiel's daughters who bore him Phinehas. These were the Levitical heads of families, according to clan.

Exo 6:26 It was to this Aaron and Moses that Yahweh said, 'Lead the Israelites out of Egypt in their armies.'

Exo 6:27 It was they who spoke to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to lead the Israelites out of Egypt -- namely Moses and Aaron.

Exo 6:28 Now the day when Yahweh spoke to Moses in Egypt,

Exo 6:29 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything that I am going to say to you.'

Exo 6:30 But Moses said to Yahweh's face, 'I am a poor speaker, so why should Pharaoh take any notice of me?'

Exo 7:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Look, I have made you as a god for Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron is to be your prophet.'

Exo 7:2 You must say whatever I command you, and your brother Aaron will repeat to Pharaoh that he is to let the Israelites leave his country.

Exo 7:3 But I myself shall make Pharaoh stubborn and shall perform many a sign and wonder in Egypt.

Exo 7:4 Since Pharaoh will not listen to you, I shall lay my hand on Egypt and with great acts of judgement lead my armies, my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.

Exo 7:5 And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I stretch out my hand against the Egyptians and lead the Israelites out of their country.'

Exo 7:6 Moses and Aaron did exactly as Yahweh had ordered.

Exo 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exo 7:8 Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,

Exo 7:9 'If Pharaoh says to you, "Display some marvel," you must say to Aaron, "Take your staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh, and let it turn into a serpent!" '

Exo 7:10 Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as Yahweh had ordered. Aaron threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it turned into a serpent.

Exo 7:11 Then Pharaoh in his turn called for the sages and sorcerers, and by their spells the magicians of Egypt did the same.

Exo 7:12 Each threw his staff down and these turned into serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up theirs.

Exo 7:13 Pharaoh, however, remained obstinate and, as Yahweh had foretold, refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

Exo 7:14 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Pharaoh is adamant. He refuses to let the people go.

Exo 7:15 Go to Pharaoh tomorrow morning as he makes his way to the water, confront him on the river bank and in your hand take the staff that turned into a snake.

Exo 7:16 Say to him, "Yahweh, God of the Hebrews, sent me to say: Let my people go and worship in the desert. Up till now, you have refused to listen.

Exo 7:17 This is what Yahweh says: You will know that I am Yahweh by this: with the staff that is in my hand I shall strike the waters of the River and they will turn to blood.

Exo 7:18 The fish in the river will die, and the River will stink, and the Egyptians will not be able to drink the river water." '

Exo 7:19 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, "Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt -- over their rivers and canals, their marshland, and all their reservoirs -- and they will turn to blood. There will be blood throughout the whole of Egypt, even in sticks and stones." '

Exo 7:20 Moses and Aaron did as Yahweh ordered. He raised his staff and struck the waters of the River, with Pharaoh and his officials looking on, and all the water in the River turned to blood.

Exo 7:21 The fish in the River died, and the River stank; and the Egyptians could no longer drink the River water. Throughout the whole of Egypt there was blood.

Exo 7:22 But by their spells the magicians of Egypt did the same; Pharaoh remained obstinate and, as Yahweh had foretold, refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

Exo 7:23 Pharaoh turned away and went back into his palace, taking no notice even of this.

Exo 7:24 And the Egyptians all dug holes along the river-bank in search of drinking water, since they could not drink the River water.

Exo 7:25 After Yahweh struck the River, seven days went by.

Exo 7:26 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh and say to him, "Yahweh says this: Let my people go and worship me.

Exo 7:27 If you refuse to let them go, I shall strike your whole territory with frogs.

Exo 7:28 The River will swarm with frogs; they will make their way into your palace, into your bedroom, onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and subjects, into your ovens, into your kneading bowls.

Exo 7:29 The frogs will actually clamber onto you, onto your subjects and onto all your officials." '

Exo 8:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, "Stretch out your hand with your staff, over the rivers, the canals and the marshland, and bring the frogs up over the land of Egypt." '

Exo 8:2 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:3 But by their spells the magicians did the same, bringing frogs over the land of Egypt.

Exo 8:4 Pharaoh then summoned Moses and Aaron and said, 'Entreat Yahweh to take the frogs away from me and my subjects, and I promise to let the people go and sacrifice to Yahweh.'

Exo 8:5 Moses said to Pharaoh, 'You are the one to gain by it: when would you like me to pray for you, your officials and your subjects, so as to rid you and your houses of the frogs so that they will be left only in the River?'

Exo 8:6 'Tomorrow,' he said. Moses said, 'It shall be as you say, so that you will know that there is no one like Yahweh our God.'

Exo 8:7 The frogs will leave you, your houses, your officials and your subjects and will be left only in the River.'

Exo 8:8 Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh's presence, and Moses pleaded with Yahweh about the frogs which he had inflicted on Pharaoh.

Exo 8:9 Yahweh did as Moses asked, and in house and courtyard and field the frogs died.

Exo 8:10 They piled them up in heaps and the country stank.

Exo 8:11 But once Pharaoh saw that there had been a respite, he became obstinate and, as Yahweh had foretold, refused to listen to them.

Exo 8:12 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, "Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, and it will turn into mosquitoes throughout the whole of Egypt." '

Exo 8:13 Aaron stretched out his hand, with his staff, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were mosquitoes on man and beast; all the dust of the earth turned into mosquitoes throughout the whole of Egypt.

Exo 8:14 By their spells the magicians tried to produce mosquitoes in the same way but failed, and there were mosquitoes on man and beast.

Exo 8:15 So the magicians said to Pharaoh, 'This is the finger of God.' But Pharaoh was obstinate and, as Yahweh had foretold, refused to listen to them.

Exo 8:16 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he makes his way to the water. Say to him, "Yahweh says this: Let my people go and worship me."

Exo 8:17 But if you will not let my people go, I shall send horseflies on you, on your officials, your subjects and your houses. The Egyptians' houses will swarm with horseflies, and so will the very ground they stand on.

Exo 8:18 But I shall exempt the region of Goshen, where my people are living, that day; there will be no horseflies there, so that you will know that I am Yahweh, here in this country.

Exo 8:19 I shall make a distinction between my people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow."

Exo 8:20 Yahweh did this, and great swarms of horseflies found their way into Pharaoh's palace, into his officials' houses and all over Egypt; the country was ruined by the horseflies.

Exo 8:21 Pharaoh then summoned Moses and Aaron and said, 'Go and sacrifice to your God, inside the country.'

Exo 8:22 'That would never do,' Moses said, 'since what we sacrifice to Yahweh our God is outrageous to the Egyptians. If the Egyptians see us offering sacrifices which outrage them, won't they stone us?'

Exo 8:23 We shall make a three-days' journey into the desert to sacrifice to Yahweh our God, as he has ordered us.'

Exo 8:24 Pharaoh said, 'I will let you go and sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the desert, provided you do not go very far. Pray for me.'

Exo 8:25 'The moment I leave you,' Moses said, 'I shall pray to Yahweh. Tomorrow morning the horseflies will leave Pharaoh, his officials and his subjects. But Pharaoh must stop trifling with us by not allowing the people to go and sacrifice to Yahweh.'

Exo 8:26 Moses then left Pharaoh's presence and prayed to Yahweh,

Exo 8:27 and Yahweh did as Moses asked; the horseflies left Pharaoh, his officials and his subjects; not one remained.

Exo 8:28 But Pharaoh became obstinate this time too and did not let the people go.

Exo 9:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh and say to him, "Yahweh, God of the Hebrews, says this: Let my people go and worship me."

Exo 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and detain them any longer,

Exo 9:3 look, the hand of Yahweh will strike your livestock in the fields, horses, donkeys, camels, oxen and flocks with a deadly plague.

Exo 9:4 Yahweh will discriminate between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt: nothing of what belongs to the Israelites will die.

Exo 9:5 Yahweh has fixed the time. Tomorrow, he has said, Yahweh will do this in the country."

Exo 9:6 Next day Yahweh did this: all the Egyptians' livestock died, but nothing of the livestock owned by the Israelites died.

Exo 9:7 Pharaoh had enquiries made, and found that of the livestock owned by the Israelites not a single beast had died. But Pharaoh was obstinate and did not let the people go.

Exo 9:8 Yahweh then said to Moses and Aaron, 'Take handfuls of soot from the kiln, and before Pharaoh's eyes let Moses throw it in the air.

Exo 9:9 It will turn into fine dust over the whole of Egypt and produce boils breaking into sores on man and beast throughout the whole of Egypt.'

Exo 9:10 So they took soot from the kiln and stood in front of Pharaoh, and Moses threw it in the air, and on man and beast it brought out boils breaking into sores.

Exo 9:11 And the magicians could not compete with Moses in the matter of the boils, for the magicians were covered with boils like all the other Egyptians.

Exo 9:12 But Yahweh made Pharaoh stubborn and, as Yahweh had foretold to Moses, he did not listen to them.

Exo 9:13 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh. Say to him, "Yahweh, God of the Hebrews, says this: Let my people go and worship me."

Exo 9:14 For this time I am going to inflict all my plagues on you, on your officials and on your subjects, so that you will know that there is no one like me in the whole world.

Exo 9:15 Had I stretched out my hand to strike you and your subjects with pestilence, you would have been swept from the earth.

Exo 9:16 But I have let you survive for this reason: to display my power to you and to have my name talked of throughout the world.

Exo 9:17 Since you take a high hand with my people, refusing to let them go,

Exo 9:18 very well, at about this time tomorrow, I shall cause so severe a hail to fall as was never known in Egypt from the day of its foundation until now.

Exo 9:19 So now send word to have your livestock and everything else you own in the fields put under cover. On man or beast, all that happen to be in the fields and are not brought indoors, the hail will fall and they will die.' '

Exo 9:20 Those of Pharaoh's officials who respected what Yahweh said, brought their slaves and livestock indoors,

Exo 9:21 but those who did not take to heart what Yahweh said left their slaves and livestock in the fields.

Exo 9:22 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand towards heaven so that it hails throughout the whole of Egypt, on man and beast and on everything growing anywhere in Egypt.'

Exo 9:23 Moses stretched out his staff towards heaven, and Yahweh thundered and rained down hail. Lightning struck the earth and Yahweh rained down hail on Egypt.

Exo 9:24 And so there was hail, and lightning accompanied the hail, very severe, such as had never been known anywhere in Egypt since it first became a nation.

Exo 9:25 All over Egypt the hail struck down everything in the fields, man and beast, and the hail beat down everything growing in the fields and shattered all the trees in the fields.

Exo 9:26 The only place where there was no hail was in the Goshen region, where the Israelites lived.

Exo 9:27 Pharaoh then sent for Moses and Aaron and said, 'This time, I have sinned. Yahweh is in the right; I and my subjects are in the wrong.'

Exo 9:28 Pray to Yahweh, for we cannot bear any more of this thunder and hail. I promise to let you go. You need stay no longer.'

Exo 9:29 Moses said to him, 'The moment I leave the city I shall stretch out my hands to Yahweh. The thunder will stop, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Yahweh.'

Exo 9:30 But as for you and your officials, I know very well that you still have no respect for Yahweh God.'

Exo 9:31 The flax and the barley were ruined, since the barley was in the ear and the flax in bud,

Exo 9:32 but the wheat and spelt were not destroyed, being late crops.

Exo 9:33 Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He stretched out his hands to Yahweh and the thunder and hail ceased and the rain stopped pouring down on the earth.

Exo 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he relapsed into sin,

Exo 9:35 and he and his officials became obstinate again. Pharaoh was stubborn and, as Yahweh had foretold through Moses, refused to let the Israelites go.

Exo 10:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh, for I have made him and his officials stubborn, to display these signs of mine among them;

Exo 10:2 so that you can tell your sons and your grandsons how I made fools of the Egyptians and what signs I performed among them, so that you would know that I am Yahweh.'

Exo 10:3 Moses and Aaron then went to Pharaoh and said to him, 'Yahweh, God of the Hebrews, says this, "How much longer will you refuse to submit to me? Let my people go and worship me."

Exo 10:4 Or, if you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I shall send locusts into your country.

Exo 10:5 They will cover the surface of the soil so that the soil cannot be seen. They will devour the remainder of what has escaped, of what you have been left after the hail; they will devour all your trees growing in the fields;

Exo 10:6 they will fill your houses, all your officials' houses and all the Egyptians' houses -- something your ancestors and your ancestors' ancestors have never seen from the day they first appeared on earth until now." ' Then he turned on his heel and left Pharaoh's presence.

Exo 10:7 At which, Pharaoh's officials said to him, 'How much longer are we to be tricked by this fellow? Let the people go and worship Yahweh their God. Do you not finally realise that Egypt is on the brink of ruin?'

Exo 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh who said to them, 'Go and worship Yahweh your God. But who are to go?'

Exo 10:9 Moses replied, 'We shall take our young men and our old men, we shall take our sons and daughters, our flocks and our herds, since we are going to hold a feast in Yahweh's honour.'

Exo 10:10 Pharaoh said, 'So I must let you go with your wives and children! May Yahweh preserve you! Plainly, you are up to no good!'

Exo 10:11 Oh no! You men may go and worship Yahweh, since that was your original request.' With that, they were driven from Pharaoh's presence.

Exo 10:12 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over Egypt for the locusts. Let them invade Egypt and devour whatever is growing in the country, whatever the hail has left!'

Exo 10:13 Moses stretched his staff over Egypt, and over the country Yahweh sent an east wind which blew all that day and night. By morning, the east wind had brought the locusts.

Exo 10:14 The locusts invaded the whole of Egypt and settled all over Egypt, in great swarms; never had there been so many locusts before, nor would there be again.

Exo 10:15 They covered the surface of the ground till the land was devastated. They devoured whatever was growing in the fields and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left. No green was left on tree or plant in the fields anywhere in Egypt.

Exo 10:16 Pharaoh sent urgently for Moses and Aaron and said, 'I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you.'

Exo 10:17 Now forgive my sin, I implore you, just this once, and entreat Yahweh your God to turn this deadly thing away from me.'

Exo 10:18 When Moses left Pharaoh's presence he prayed to Yahweh,

Exo 10:19 and Yahweh changed the wind into a west wind, very strong, which carried the locusts away and swept them into the Sea of Reeds. There was not one locust left in the whole of Egypt.

Exo 10:20 But Yahweh made Pharaoh stubborn, and he did not let the Israelites go.

Exo 10:21 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand towards heaven, and let darkness, darkness so thick that it can be felt, cover Egypt.'

Exo 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand towards heaven, and for three days there was thick darkness over the whole of Egypt.

Exo 10:23 No one could see anyone else or move about for three days, but all the Israelites did have light where they were living.

Exo 10:24 Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, 'Go and worship Yahweh, but your flocks and herds are to stay here. Your wives and children can go with you too.'

Exo 10:25 Moses said, 'But now you must give us sacrifices and burnt offerings to offer to Yahweh our God.

Exo 10:26 And our livestock will go with us too; not a hoof will be left behind; for we may need animals from these to worship Yahweh our God; for until we get there we ourselves cannot tell how we are to worship Yahweh.'

Exo 10:27 But Yahweh made Pharaoh stubborn, and he refused to let them go.

Exo 10:28 Pharaoh said to Moses, 'Out of my sight! Be sure you never see my face again, for the next time you see my face you die!'

Exo 10:29 Moses then said, 'You yourself have said it. I shall never see your face again.'

Exo 11:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'I shall inflict one more plague on Pharaoh and Egypt, after which he will let you go away. When he lets you go, he will actually drive you out!'

Exo 11:2 Now instruct the people that every man is to ask his neighbour, and every woman hers, for silver and golden jewellery.'

Exo 11:3 And Yahweh made the Egyptians impressed with the people, while Moses himself was a man of great importance in Egypt in the opinion of Pharaoh's officials and the people.

Exo 11:4 Moses then said, 'Yahweh says this, "At midnight I shall pass through Egypt,

Exo 11:5 and all the first-born in Egypt will die, from the first-born of Pharaoh, heir to his throne, to the first-born of the slave-girl at the mill, and all the first-born of the livestock."

Exo 11:6 And throughout Egypt there will be great wailing, such as never was before, nor will be again.

Exo 11:7 But against the Israelites, whether man or beast, never a dog shall bark, so that you may know that Yahweh discriminates between Egypt and Israel.

Exo 11:8 Then all these officials of yours will come down to me and, bowing low before me, say: Go away, you and all the people who follow you! After which, I shall go." ' And, hot with anger, he left Pharaoh's presence.

Exo 11:9 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that more of my wonders may be displayed in Egypt.'

Exo 11:10 Moses and Aaron worked all these wonders in Pharaoh's presence, but Yahweh made Pharaoh stubborn, and he did not let the Israelites leave his country.

Exo 12:1 Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt,

Exo 12:2 'This month must be the first of all the months for you, the first month of your year.

Exo 12:3 Speak to the whole community of Israel and say, "On the tenth day of this month each man must take an animal from the flock for his family: one animal for each household.

Exo 12:4 If the household is too small for the animal, he must join with his neighbour nearest to his house, depending on the number of persons. When you choose the animal, you will take into account what each can eat.

Exo 12:5 It must be an animal without blemish, a male one year old; you may choose it either from the sheep or from the goats.

Exo 12:6 You must keep it till the fourteenth day of the month when the whole assembly of the community of Israel will slaughter it at twilight.

Exo 12:7 Some of the blood must then be taken and put on both door-posts and the lintel of the houses where it is eaten.

Exo 12:8 That night, the flesh must be eaten, roasted over the fire; it must be eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Exo 12:9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with the head, feet and entrails.

Exo 12:10 You must not leave any of it over till the morning: whatever is left till morning you must burn.

Exo 12:11 This is how you must eat it: with a belt round your waist, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. You must eat it hurriedly: it is a Passover in Yahweh's honour.

Exo 12:12 That night, I shall go through Egypt and strike down all the first-born in Egypt, man and beast alike, and shall execute justice on all the gods of Egypt, I, Yahweh!

Exo 12:13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are. When I see the blood I shall pass over you, and you will escape the destructive plague when I strike Egypt.

Exo 12:14 This day must be commemorated by you, and you must keep it as a feast in Yahweh's honour. You must keep it as a feast-day for all generations; this is a decree for all time.

Exo 12:15 "For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the first day you must clean the leaven out of your houses, for anyone who eats leavened bread from the first to the seventh day must be outlawed from Israel.

Exo 12:16 On the first day you must hold a sacred assembly, and on the seventh day a sacred assembly. On those days no work may be done; you will prepare only what each requires to eat.

Exo 12:17 You must keep the feast of Unleavened Bread because it was on that same day that I brought your armies out of Egypt. You will keep that day, generation after generation; this is a decree for all time.

Exo 12:18 In the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day, you must eat unleavened bread.

Exo 12:19 For seven days there may be no leaven in your houses, since anyone, either stranger or citizen of the country, who eats leavened bread will be outlawed from the community of Israel.

Exo 12:20 You will eat nothing with leaven in it; wherever you live, you will eat unleavened bread."

Exo 12:21 Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, 'Go and choose a lamb or kid for your families, and kill the Passover victim.

Exo 12:22 Then take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and with the blood from the basin touch the lintel and both door-posts; then let none of you venture out of the house till morning.

Exo 12:23 Then, when Yahweh goes through Egypt to strike it, and sees the blood on the lintel and on both door-posts, he will pass over the door and not allow the Destroyer to enter your homes and strike.

Exo 12:24 You will observe this as a decree binding you and your children for all time,

Exo 12:25 and when you have entered the country which Yahweh will give you, as he has promised, you will observe this ritual.

Exo 12:26 And when your children ask you, "What does this ritual mean?"

Exo 12:27 you will tell them, "It is the Passover sacrifice in honour of Yahweh who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt, and struck Egypt but spared our houses." ' And the people bowed in worship.

Exo 12:28 The Israelites then went away and did as Yahweh had ordered Moses and Aaron.

Exo 12:29 And at midnight Yahweh struck down all the first-born in Egypt from the first-born of Pharaoh, heir to his throne, to the first-born of the prisoner in the dungeon, and the first-born of all the livestock.

Exo 12:30 Pharaoh and all his officials and all the Egyptians got up in the night, and there was great wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house without its dead.

Exo 12:31 It was still dark when Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, 'Up, leave my subjects, you and the Israelites! Go and worship Yahweh as you have asked!

Exo 12:32 And take your flocks and herds as you have asked, and go! And bless me too!

Exo 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people on and hurried them out of the country because, they said, 'Otherwise we shall all be dead.'

Exo 12:34 So the people carried off their dough still unleavened, their bowls wrapped in their cloaks, on their shoulders.

Exo 12:35 The Israelites did as Moses had told them and asked the Egyptians for silver and golden jewellery, and clothing.

Exo 12:36 Yahweh made the Egyptians so much impressed with the people that they gave them what they asked. So they despoiled the Egyptians.

Exo 12:37 The Israelites left Rameses for Succoth, about six hundred thousand on the march-men, that is, not counting their families.

Exo 12:38 A mixed crowd of people went with them, and flocks and herds, quantities of livestock.

Exo 12:39 And with the dough which they had brought from Egypt they baked unleavened cakes, because the dough had not risen, since they had been driven out of Egypt without time to linger or to prepare food for themselves.

Exo 12:40 The time that the Israelites spent in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

Exo 12:41 And on the very day the four hundred and thirty years ended, all Yahweh's armies left Egypt.

Exo 12:42 The night when Yahweh kept vigil to bring them out of Egypt must be kept as a vigil in honour of Yahweh by all Israelites, for all generations.

Exo 12:43 Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, 'This is the ritual for the Passover: no alien may eat it,

Exo 12:44 but any slave bought for money may eat it, once you have circumcised him.

Exo 12:45 No stranger and no hired servant may eat it.

Exo 12:46 It must be eaten in one house alone; you will not take any of the meat out of the house; nor may you break any of its bones.

Exo 12:47 'The whole community of Israel must keep it.

Exo 12:48 Should a stranger residing with you wish to keep the Passover in honour of Yahweh, all the males of his household must be circumcised: he will then be allowed to keep it and will count as a citizen of the country.

But no uncircumcised person may eat it.

Exo 12:49 The same law will apply to the citizen and the stranger resident among you.'

Exo 12:50 The Israelites all did as Yahweh had ordered Moses and Aaron,

Exo 12:51 and that same day Yahweh brought the Israelites out of Egypt in their armies.

Exo 13:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 13:2 'Consecrate all the first-born to me, the first birth from every womb, among the Israelites. Whether man or beast, it is mine.'

Exo 13:3 Moses said to the people, 'Remember this day, on which you came out of Egypt, from the place of slave-labour, for by the strength of his hand Yahweh brought you out of it; no leavened bread may be eaten.

Exo 13:4 On this day, in the month of Abib, you are leaving,

Exo 13:5 and when Yahweh has brought you into the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, flowing with milk and honey, which he swore to your ancestors that he would give you, then you must observe this rite in the same month.

Exo 13:6 For seven days you will eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there must be a feast in Yahweh's honour.

Exo 13:7 During these seven days unleavened bread may be eaten; no leavened bread may be seen among you, no leaven among you throughout your territory.

Exo 13:8 And on that day you will explain to your son, "This is because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out of Egypt."

Exo 13:9 This will serve as a sign on your hand would serve, or a reminder on your forehead, and in that way the law of Yahweh will be ever on your lips: for with a mighty hand Yahweh brought you out of Egypt.

Exo 13:10 You shall observe this law at its appointed time, year by year.

Exo 13:11 'When Yahweh has brought you into the Canaanites' country, as he swore to you and your ancestors that he would, and given it to you,

Exo 13:12 to Yahweh you must make over whatever first issues from the womb, and every first-born cast by animals belonging to you: these males belong to Yahweh.

Exo 13:13 But every first-born donkey you will redeem with a lamb or kid; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. All the human first-born, however, among your sons, you will redeem.

Exo 13:14 And when your son asks you in days to come, "What does this mean?" you will tell him, "By the strength of his hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt, out of the place of slave-labour.

Exo 13:15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yahweh killed all the first-born in Egypt, of man and beast alike. This is why I sacrifice every male first issuing from the womb to Yahweh and redeem every first-born of my sons."

Exo 13:16 This will serve as a sign on your hand would serve, or a headband on your forehead, for by the strength of his hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt.'

Exo 13:17 When Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not let them take the road to the Philistines' territory, although that was the shortest, 'in case', God thought, 'the prospect of fighting makes the people change their minds and turn back to Egypt.'

Exo 13:18 Instead, God led the people a roundabout way through the desert of the Sea of Reeds. The Israelites left Egypt fully armed.

Exo 13:19 Moses took with him the bones of Joseph, since Joseph had put the Israelites on solemn oath with the words, 'It is sure that God will visit you,' he had said, 'and when that day comes you must take my bones away from here with you.'

Exo 13:20 They set out from Succoth and encamped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Exo 13:21 Yahweh preceded them, by day in a pillar of cloud to show them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could march by day and by night.

Exo 13:22 The pillar of cloud never left its place ahead of the people during the day, nor the pillar of fire during the night.

Exo 14:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 14:2 'Tell the Israelites to turn back and pitch camp in front of Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, facing Baal-Zephon. You must pitch your camp opposite this place, beside the sea,

Exo 14:3 and then Pharaoh will think, "The Israelites are wandering to and fro in the countryside; the desert has closed in on them."

Exo 14:4 I shall then make Pharaoh stubborn and he will set out in pursuit of them; and I shall win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and his whole army, and then the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh.' And the Israelites did this.

Exo 14:5 When Pharaoh king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, he and his officials changed their attitude towards the people. 'What have we done,' they said, 'allowing Israel to leave our service?'

Exo 14:6 So Pharaoh had his chariot harnessed and set out with his troops,

Exo 14:7 taking six hundred of the best chariots and all the other chariots in Egypt, with officers in each.

Exo 14:8 Yahweh made Pharaoh king of Egypt stubborn, and he gave chase to the Israelites. The Israelites marched confidently away,

Exo 14:9 but the Egyptians, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, his horsemen and his army, gave chase and caught up with them where they lay encamped beside the sea near Pi-Hahiroth, facing Baal-Zephon.

Exo 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up -- and there were the Egyptians in pursuit of them! The Israelites were terrified and cried out to Yahweh for help.

Exo 14:11 To Moses they said, 'Was it for lack of graves in Egypt, that you had to lead us out to die in the desert? What was the point of bringing us out of Egypt?

Exo 14:12 Did we not tell you as much in Egypt? Leave us alone, we said, we would rather work for the Egyptians! We prefer to work for the Egyptians than to die in the desert!'

Exo 14:13 Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid! Stand firm, and you will see what Yahweh will do to rescue you today: the Egyptians you see today you will never see again.

Exo 14:14 Yahweh will do the fighting for you; all you need to do is to keep calm.'

Exo 14:15 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Why cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to march on.

Exo 14:16 Your part is to raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the Israelites can walk through the sea on dry ground,

Exo 14:17 while I, for my part, shall make the Egyptians so stubborn that they will follow them, and I shall win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, chariots and horsemen.

Exo 14:18 And when I have won glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and his chariots and horsemen, the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh.'

Exo 14:19 Then the angel of God, who preceded the army of Israel, changed station and followed behind them. The pillar of cloud moved from their front and took position behind them.

Exo 14:20 It came between the army of the Egyptians and the army of Israel. The cloud was dark, and the night passed without the one drawing any closer to the other the whole night long.

Exo 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and Yahweh drove the sea back with a strong easterly wind all night and made the sea into dry land. The waters were divided

Exo 14:22 and the Israelites went on dry ground right through the sea, with walls of water to right and left of them.

Exo 14:23 The Egyptians gave chase, and all Pharaoh's horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea after them.

Exo 14:24 In the morning watch, Yahweh looked down on the army of the Egyptians from the pillar of fire and cloud and threw the Egyptian army into confusion.

Exo 14:25 He so clogged their chariot wheels that they drove on only with difficulty, which made the Egyptians say, 'Let us flee from Israel, for Yahweh is fighting on their side against the Egyptians!'

Exo 14:26 Then Yahweh said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the sea and let the waters flow back on the Egyptians and on their chariots and their horsemen.'

Exo 14:27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and, as day broke, the sea returned to its bed. The fleeing Egyptians ran straight into it, and Yahweh overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea.

Exo 14:28 The returning waters washed right over the chariots and horsemen of Pharaoh's entire army, which had followed the Israelites into the sea; not a single one of them was left.

Exo 14:29 The Israelites, however, had marched through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water to right and left of them.

Exo 14:30 That day, Yahweh rescued Israel from the clutches of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the sea-shore.

Exo 14:31 When Israel saw the mighty deed that Yahweh had performed against the Egyptians, the people revered Yahweh and put their faith in Yahweh and in Moses, his servant.

Exo 15:1 It was then that Moses and the Israelites sang this song in Yahweh's honour: I shall sing to Yahweh, for he has covered himself in glory, horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

Exo 15:2 Yah is my strength and my song, to him I owe my deliverance. He is my God and I shall praise him, my father's God and I shall extol him.

Exo 15:3 Yahweh is a warrior; Yahweh is his name.

Exo 15:4 Pharaoh's chariots and army he has hurled into the sea the pick of his officers have been drowned in the Sea of Reeds.

Exo 15:5 The ocean has closed over them; they have sunk to the bottom like a stone.

Exo 15:6 Your right hand, Yahweh, wins glory by its strength, your right hand, Yahweh, shatters your foes, Exo 15:7 and by your great majesty you fell your assailants; you unleash your fury, it consumes them like chaff.

Exo 15:8 A blast from your nostrils and the waters piled high; the waves stood firm as a dyke; the bed of the sea became firm ground.

Exo 15:9 The enemy said, 'I shall give chase and overtake, 'I shall share out the spoil and glut myself on them, 'I shall draw my sword, my hand will destroy them.'

Exo 15:10 You blew with your breath, the sea closed over them; they sank like lead in the terrible waters.

Exo 15:11 Yahweh, who is like you, majestic in sanctity, who like you among the holy ones, fearsome of deed, worker of wonders?

Exo 15:12 You stretched your right hand out, the earth swallowed them!

Exo 15:13 In your faithful love you led out the people you had redeemed, in your strength you have guided them to your holy dwelling.

Exo 15:14 Hearing of this, the peoples tremble; pangs seize on the people of Philistia;

Exo 15:15 the chieftains of Edom are dismayed, Moab's princes -- panic has seized them, all the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.

Exo 15:16 On them fall terror and dread; through the power of your arm they are still as stone while your people are passing, Yahweh, while the people you have purchased are passing.

Exo 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain which is your heritage, the place which you, Yahweh, have made your dwelling, the sanctuary, Yahweh, prepared by your own hands.

Exo 15:18 Yahweh will be king for ever and ever.

Exo 15:19 For when Pharaoh's cavalry, with his chariots and horsemen, had gone into the sea, Yahweh brought the waters of the sea back over them, though the Israelites went on dry ground right through the sea.

Exo 15:20 The prophetess Miriam, Aaron's sister, took up a tambourine, and all the women followed her with tambourines, dancing,

Exo 15:21 while Miriam took up from them the refrain: Sing to Yahweh, for he has covered himself in glory, horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

Exo 15:22 Moses led Israel away from the Sea of Reeds, and they entered the desert of Shur. They then travelled through the desert for three days without finding water.

Exo 15:23 When they reached Marah, they could not drink the Marah water because it was bitter; this is why the place was named Marah.

Exo 15:24 The people complained to Moses saying, 'What are we to drink?'

Exo 15:25 Moses appealed to Yahweh for help, and Yahweh showed him a piece of wood. When Moses threw it into the water, the water became sweet. There he laid down a statute and law for them and there he put them to the test. Then he said,

Exo 15:26 'If you listen carefully to the voice of Yahweh your God and do what he regards as right, if you pay attention to his commandments and keep all his laws, I shall never inflict on you any of the diseases that I inflicted on the Egyptians, for I am Yahweh your Healer.'

Exo 15:27 So they came to Elim where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees; and there they pitched camp beside the water.

Exo 16:1 Setting out from Elim, the whole community of Israelites entered the desert of Sin, lying between Elim and Sinai -- on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left Egypt.

Exo 16:2 And the whole community of Israelites began complaining about Moses and Aaron in the desert

Exo 16:3 and said to them, 'Why did we not die at Yahweh's hand in Egypt, where we used to sit round the flesh pots and could eat to our heart's content! As it is, you have led us into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death!'

Exo 16:4 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Look, I shall rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people must go out and collect their ration for the day; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.'

Exo 16:5 On the sixth day, however, when they prepare what they have brought in, this must be twice as much as they collect on ordinary days.'

Exo 16:6 Moses and Aaron then said to the whole community of Israelites, 'This evening you will know that it was Yahweh who brought you out of Egypt,

Exo 16:7 and tomorrow morning you will see the glory of Yahweh, for Yahweh has heard your complaints about him. What are we, that your complaint should be against us?'

Exo 16:8 Moses then said, 'This evening Yahweh will give you meat to eat, and tomorrow morning bread to your heart's content, for Yahweh has heard your complaints about him. What do we count for? Your complaints are not against us, but against Yahweh.'

Exo 16:9 Moses then said to Aaron, 'Say to the whole community of Israelites, "Approach Yahweh's presence, for he has heard your complaints."

Exo 16:10 As Aaron was speaking to the whole community of Israelites, they turned towards the desert, and there the glory of Yahweh appeared in the cloud.

Exo 16:11 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 16:12 'I have heard the Israelites' complaints. Speak to them as follows, "At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will have bread to your heart's content, and then you will know that I am Yahweh your God."

Exo 16:13 That evening, quails flew in and covered the camp, and next morning there was a layer of dew all round the camp.

Exo 16:14 When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was something fine and granular, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground.

Exo 16:15 As soon as the Israelites saw this, they said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That', Moses told them, 'is the food which Yahweh has given you to eat.'

Exo 16:16 These are Yahweh's orders: Each of you must collect as much as he needs to eat -- a homer per head for each person in his tent.'

Exo 16:17 The Israelites did this. They collected it, some more, some less.

Exo 16:18 When they measured out what they had collected by the homer, no one who had collected more had too much, no one who had collected less had too little. Each had collected as much as he needed to eat.

Exo 16:19 Moses then said, 'No one may keep any of it for tomorrow.'

Exo 16:20 But some of them took no notice of Moses and kept part of it for the following day, and it bred maggots and smelt foul; and Moses was angry with them.

Exo 16:21 Morning by morning they collected it, each man as much as he needed to eat, and once the sun grew hot, it melted away.

Exo 16:22 Now, on the sixth day they collected twice the amount of food: two homer per person, and all the leaders of the community came and told Moses this.

Exo 16:23 Moses replied, 'This is what Yahweh said, "Tomorrow is a day of complete rest, a Sabbath sacred to Yahweh. Bake what you want to bake, boil what you want to boil; put aside what is left over, to be kept for tomorrow."

Exo 16:24 So, as Moses ordered, they put it aside for the following day, and its smell was not foul nor were there maggots in it.

Exo 16:25 'Eat it today,' Moses said, 'for today is a Sabbath for Yahweh; you will find none in the fields today.'

Exo 16:26 For six days you will collect it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.'

Exo 16:27 On the seventh day some of the people went out to collect it, but they found none.

Exo 16:28 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'How much longer will you refuse to obey my commandments and laws?

Exo 16:29 Look, Yahweh has given you the Sabbath; this is why he gives you two days' food on the sixth day; each of you must stay in his place; on the seventh day no one may leave his home.'

Exo 16:30 So on the seventh day the people rested.

Exo 16:31 The House of Israel named it 'manna'. It was like coriander seed; it was white and its taste was like that of wafers made with honey.

Exo 16:32 Moses then said, 'These are Yahweh's orders: Fill a homer with it and preserve it for your descendants, so that they can see the bread on which I fed you in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.'

Exo 16:33 Moses then said to Aaron, 'Take a jar and in it put a full homer of manna and store it in Yahweh's presence, to be kept for your descendants.'

Exo 16:34 Accordingly, Aaron stored it in front of the Testimony, to be preserved, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 16:35 The Israelites ate manna for forty years, up to the time they reached inhabited country: they ate manna up to the time they reached the frontiers of Canaan.

Exo 16:36 A homer is one-tenth of an ephah.

Exo 17:1 The whole community of Israelites left the desert of Sin, travelling by stages as Yahweh ordered. They pitched camp at Rephidim where there was no water for the people to drink.

Exo 17:2 The people took issue with Moses for this and said, 'Give us water to drink.' Moses replied, 'Why take issue with me? Why do you put Yahweh to the test?'

Exo 17:3 But tormented by thirst, the people complained to Moses. 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt,' they said, 'only to make us, our children and our livestock, die of thirst?'

Exo 17:4 Moses appealed to Yahweh for help. 'How am I to deal with this people?' he said. 'Any moment now they will stone me!'

Exo 17:5 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go on ahead of the people, taking some of the elders of Israel with you; in your hand take the staff with which you struck the River, and go.'

Exo 17:6 I shall be waiting for you there on the rock (at Horeb). Strike the rock, and water will come out for the people to drink.' This was what Moses did, with the elders of Israel looking on.

Exo 17:7 He gave the place the names Massah and Meribah because of the Israelites' contentiousness and because they put Yahweh to the test by saying, 'Is Yahweh with us, or not?'

Exo 17:8 The Amalekites then came and attacked Israel at Rephidim.

Exo 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick some men and tomorrow morning go out and engage Amalek. I, for my part, shall take my stand on the hilltop with the staff of God in my hand.'

Exo 17:10 Joshua did as Moses had told him and went out to engage Amalek, while Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exo 17:11 As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek.

Exo 17:12 But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, with Aaron and Hur supporting his arms on each side. Thus his arms remained unwavering till sunset, Exo 17:13 and Joshua defeated Amalek, putting their people to the sword.

Exo 17:14 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Write this down in a book to commemorate it, and repeat it over to Joshua, for I shall blot out all memory of Amalek under heaven.'

Exo 17:15 Moses then built an altar and named it Yahweh-Nissi

Exo 17:16 meaning, 'Lay hold of Yahweh's banner! Yahweh will be at war with Amalek generation after generation.'

Exo 18:1 Jethro, priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, had heard all about what God had done for Moses and for Israel his people: how Yahweh had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exo 18:2 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, then took back Zipporah, Moses' wife, whom Moses had sent home,

Exo 18:3 with her two sons; one of them was called Gershom because, he had said, 'I am an alien in a foreign land,'

Exo 18:4 and the other called Eliezer because 'My father's God is my help and has delivered me from Pharaoh's sword.'

Exo 18:5 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, with Moses' sons and wife, came to Moses in the desert where he was encamped, at the mountain of God.

Exo 18:6 'Here is your father-in-law Jethro approaching', Moses was told, 'with your wife and her two sons.'

Exo 18:7 So Moses went out to greet his father-in-law, bowed low to him and kissed him; and when each had asked how the other was they went into the tent.

Exo 18:8 Moses then told his father-in-law all about what Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and about all the hardships that they had encountered on the way, and how Yahweh had rescued them.

Exo 18:9 And Jethro was delighted at all Yahweh's goodness to Israel in having rescued them from the clutches of the Egyptians.

Exo 18:10 'Blessed be Yahweh', Jethro exclaimed, 'for having rescued you from the clutches of the Egyptians and the clutches of Pharaoh, for having rescued the people from the grasp of the Egyptians!'

Exo 18:11 Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all other gods. . . '

Exo 18:12 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, then offered a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God; and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came and ate with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

Exo 18:13 On the following day, Moses took his seat to administer justice for the people, and the people were standing round him from morning till evening.

Exo 18:14 Seeing all he did for the people, Moses' father-in-law said to him, 'Why do you do this for the people, why sit here alone with the people standing round you from morning till evening?'

Exo 18:15 Moses replied to his father-in-law, 'Because the people come to me to consult God.'

Exo 18:16 When they have a problem they come to me, and I give a ruling between the one and the other and make God's statutes and laws known to them.'

Exo 18:17 Moses' father-in-law then said to him, 'What you are doing is not right.'

Exo 18:18 You will only tire yourself out, and the people with you too, for the work is too heavy for you. You cannot do it all yourself.'

Exo 18:19 Now listen to the advice I am going to give you, and God be with you! Your task is to represent the people to God, to lay their cases before God, Exo 18:20 and to teach them the statutes and laws, and show them the way they ought to follow and how they ought to behave.

Exo 18:21 At the same time, from the people at large choose capable and God-fearing men, men who are trustworthy and incorruptible, and put them in charge of them as heads of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens, Exo 18:22 and make them the people's permanent judges. They will refer all important matters to you, but all minor matters they will decide themselves, so making things easier for you by sharing the burden with you.

Exo 18:23 If you do this -- and may God so command you -- you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied.'

Exo 18:24 Moses took his father-in-law's advice and did just as he said.

Exo 18:25 Moses chose capable men from all Israel and put them in charge of the people as heads of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exo 18:26 These acted as the people's permanent judges. They referred hard cases to Moses but decided minor matters themselves.

Exo 18:27 Moses then set his father-in-law on his way, and he travelled back to his own country.

Exo 19:1 Three months to the day after leaving Egypt, the Israelites reached the desert of Sinai.

Exo 19:2 Setting out from Rephidim, they reached the desert of Sinai and pitched camp in the desert; there, facing the mountain, Israel pitched camp.

Exo 19:3 Moses then went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob! Tell the Israelites, Exo 19:4 "You have seen for yourselves what I did to the Egyptians and how I carried you away on eagle's wings and brought you to me.

Exo 19:5 So now, if you are really prepared to obey me and keep my covenant, you, out of all peoples, shall be my personal possession, for the whole world is mine.

Exo 19:6 For me you shall be a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Those are the words you are to say to the Israelites.'

Exo 19:7 So Moses went and summoned the people's elders and acquainted them with everything that Yahweh had bidden him,

Exo 19:8 and the people all replied with one accord, 'Whatever Yahweh has said, we will do.' Moses then reported to Yahweh what the people had said.

Exo 19:9 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Look, I shall come to you in a dense cloud so that the people will hear when I speak to you and believe you ever after.' Moses then told Yahweh what the people had said.

Exo 19:10 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go to the people and tell them to sanctify themselves today and tomorrow. They must wash their clothes

Exo 19:11 and be ready for the day after tomorrow; for the day after tomorrow, in the sight of all the people, Yahweh will descend on Mount Sinai.

Exo 19:12 You will mark out the limits of the mountain and say, "Take care not to go up the mountain or to touch the edge of it. Anyone who touches the mountain will be put to death.

Exo 19:13 No one may lay a hand on him: he must be stoned or shot by arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live." When the ram's horn sounds a long blast, they must go up the mountain.'

Exo 19:14 So Moses came down from the mountain to the people; he made the people sanctify themselves and they washed their clothes.

Exo 19:15 He then said to the people, 'Be ready for the day after tomorrow; do not touch a woman.'

Exo 19:16 Now at daybreak two days later, there were peals of thunder and flashes of lightning, dense cloud on the mountain and a very loud trumpet blast; and, in the camp, all the people trembled.

Exo 19:17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they took their stand at the bottom of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 Mount Sinai was entirely wrapped in smoke, because Yahweh had descended on it in the form of fire. The smoke rose like smoke from a furnace and the whole mountain shook violently.

Exo 19:19 Louder and louder grew the trumpeting. Moses spoke, and God answered him in the thunder.

Exo 19:20 Yahweh descended on Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain, and Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain; and Moses went up.

Exo 19:21 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go down and warn the people not to break through to look at Yahweh, or many of them will perish.

Exo 19:22 Even the priests, who do have access to Yahweh, must sanctify themselves, or Yahweh may burst out against them.'

Exo 19:23 Moses said to Yahweh, 'The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, since you yourself warned us to mark out the limits of the mountain and declare it sacred.'

Exo 19:24 Yahweh said, 'Away with you! Go down! Then come back bringing Aaron with you. But do not allow the priests and people to break through to come up to Yahweh, or he may burst out against them.'

Exo 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Exo 20:1 Then God spoke all these words. He said,

Exo 20:2 'I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt, where you lived as slaves.

Exo 20:3 'You shall have no other gods to rival me.

Exo 20:4 'You shall not make yourself a carved image or any likeness of anything in heaven above or on earth beneath or in the waters under the earth.

Exo 20:5 'You shall not bow down to them or serve them. For I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God and I punish a parent's fault in the children, the grandchildren, and the great-grandchildren among those who hate me;

Exo 20:6 but I act with faithful love towards thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Exo 20:7 'You shall not misuse the name of Yahweh your God, for Yahweh will not leave unpunished anyone who misuses his name.

Exo 20:8 'Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

Exo 20:9 For six days you shall labour and do all your work,

Exo 20:10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath for Yahweh your God. You shall do no work that day, neither you nor your son nor your daughter nor your servants, men or women, nor your animals nor the alien living with you.

Exo 20:11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens, earth and sea and all that these contain, but on the seventh day he rested; that is why Yahweh has blessed the Sabbath day and made it sacred.

Exo 20:12 'Honour your father and your mother so that you may live long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

Exo 20:13 'You shall not kill.

Exo 20:14 'You shall not commit adultery.

Exo 20:15 'You shall not steal.

Exo 20:16 'You shall not give false evidence against your neighbour.

Exo 20:17 'You shall not set your heart on your neighbour's house. You shall not set your heart on your neighbour's spouse, or servant, man or woman, or ox, or donkey, or any of your neighbour's possessions.'

Exo 20:18 Seeing the thunder pealing, the lightning flashing, the trumpet blasting and the mountain smoking, the people were all terrified and kept their distance.

Exo 20:19 'Speak to us yourself,' they said to Moses, 'and we will obey; but do not let God speak to us, or we shall die.'

Exo 20:20 Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid; God has come to test you, so that your fear of him, being always in your mind, may keep you from sinning.'

Exo 20:21 So the people kept their distance while Moses approached the dark cloud where God was.

Exo 20:22 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Tell the Israelites this, "You have seen for yourselves how I have spoken to you from heaven."

Exo 20:23 You must not make gods of silver to rival me, nor must you make yourselves gods of gold.

Exo 20:24 "You must make me an altar of earth on which to sacrifice your burnt offerings and communion sacrifices, your sheep and cattle. Wherever I choose to have my name remembered, I shall come to you and bless you.

Exo 20:25 If you make me an altar of stone, do not build it of dressed stones; for if you use a chisel on it, you will profane it.

Exo 20:26 You must not go up to my altar by steps, in case you expose your nakedness on them."

Exo 21:1 'These are the laws you must give them:

Exo 21:2 'When you buy a Hebrew slave, his service will last for six years. In the seventh year he will leave a free man without paying compensation.

Exo 21:3 If he came single, he will depart single; if he came married, his wife will depart with him.

Exo 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children will belong to her master, and he will depart alone.

Exo 21:5 But if the slave says, "I love my master and my wife and children; I do not wish to be freed,"

Exo 21:6 then his master will bring him before God and then, leading him to the door or the doorpost, his master will pierce his ear with an awl, and the slave will be permanently his.

Exo 21:7 If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she will not leave as male slaves do.

Exo 21:8 If she does not please her master who intended her for himself, he must let her be bought back: he has not the right to sell her to foreigners, for this would be a breach of faith with her.

Exo 21:9 If he intends her for his son, he must treat her as custom requires daughters to be treated.

Exo 21:10 If he takes another wife, he must not reduce the food, clothing or conjugal rights of the first one.

Exo 21:11 Should he deprive her of these three things she will leave a free woman, without paying compensation.

Exo 21:12 'Anyone who by violence causes a death must be put to death.

Exo 21:13 If, however, he has not planned to do it but it comes from God by his hand, he can take refuge in a place which I shall appoint for you.

Exo 21:14 But should any person dare to kill another with deliberate planning, you will take that person even from my altar to be put to death.

Exo 21:15 'Anyone who strikes father or mother will be put to death.

Exo 21:16 Anyone who abducts a person -- whether that person has since been sold or is still held -- will be put to death.

Exo 21:17 Anyone who curses father or mother will be put to death.

Exo 21:18 'If people quarrel and one strikes the other a blow with stone or fist so that the injured party, though not dead, is confined to bed,

Exo 21:19 but later recovers and can go about, even with a stick, the one who struck the blow will have no liability, other than to compensate the injured party for the enforced inactivity and to take care of the injured party until the cure is complete.

Exo 21:20 'If someone beats his slave, male or female, and the slave dies at his hands, he must pay the penalty.

Exo 21:21 But should the slave survive for one or two days, he will pay no penalty because the slave is his by right of purchase.

Exo 21:22 'If people, when brawling, hurt a pregnant woman and she suffers a miscarriage but no further harm is done, the person responsible will pay compensation as fixed by the woman's master, paying as much as the judges decide.

Exo 21:23 If further harm is done, however, you will award life for life,

Exo 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exo 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, stroke for stroke.

Exo 21:26 'If anyone strikes the eye of his slave, male or female, and destroys the use of it, he will give the slave his freedom to compensate for the eye.

Exo 21:27 If he knocks out the tooth of his slave, male or female, he will give the slave his freedom to compensate for the tooth.

Exo 21:28 'If an ox gores a man or woman to death, the ox will be stoned and its meat will not be eaten, but the owner of the ox will not be liable.

Exo 21:29 But if the ox has been in the habit of goring before, and if its owner has been warned but has not kept it under control, then should this ox kill a man or woman, it will be stoned and its owner put to death.

Exo 21:30 If a ransom is imposed on the owner, he will pay whatever is imposed, to redeem his life.

Exo 21:31 If the ox gores a boy or a girl, it will be treated in accordance with this same rule.

Exo 21:32 If the ox gores a slave, male or female, its owner will pay the price -- thirty shekels -- to their master, and the ox will be stoned.

Exo 21:33 'If anyone leaves a pit uncovered, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox, or donkey falls into it,

Exo 21:34 then the owner of the pit will make good the loss by compensating its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

Exo 21:35 If anyone's ox injures anyone else's ox causing its death, the owners will sell and share the money for it; they will also share the dead animal.

Exo 21:36 But if it is common knowledge that the ox has been in the habit of goring before, and its owner has not kept it under control, the owner will repay ox for ox, and will keep the dead animal.

Exo 21:37 'If anyone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters or sells it, he will pay back five beasts from the herd for the ox, and four animals from the flock for the sheep.'

Exo 22:1 'If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck a mortal blow, his blood may not be avenged,

Exo 22:2 but if it happens after sunrise, his blood may be avenged. He will make full restitution; if he has not the means, he will be sold to pay for what he has stolen.

Exo 22:3 If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession, be it ox, donkey or animal from the flock, he will pay back double.

Exo 22:4 'If anyone puts his animals out to graze in a field or vineyard and lets them graze in someone else's field, he will make restitution for the part of the field that has been grazed on the basis of its yield. But if he has let the whole field be grazed, he will make restitution in proportion to the best crop of the field or vineyard.

Exo 22:5 'If a fire breaks out, setting light to thorn bushes and burning stacks, standing corn or the field as a result, the person who started the fire will make full restitution.

Exo 22:6 'If anyone entrusts money or goods to someone else's keeping and these are stolen from that person's house, the thief, if he can be discovered, will repay double.

Exo 22:7 Should the thief not be discovered, the owner of the house will come into the presence of God, to declare that he has not laid hands on the other person's property.

Exo 22:8 'In every case of law-breaking involving an ox, donkey, animal from the flock, clothing or lost property of any sort, the ownership of which is disputed, both parties will lay their case before God. The party whom God pronounces guilty will pay back double to the other.

Exo 22:9 'If anyone entrusts a donkey, ox, animal from the flock or any other animal to someone else's keeping, and it dies or breaks a limb or is carried off without anyone seeing,

Exo 22:10 an oath by Yahweh will decide between the two parties whether the keeper has laid hands on the other's property or not. The owner will take what remains, the keeper will not have to make good the loss.

Exo 22:11 Only if the animal has been stolen from him, will he make restitution to the owner.

Exo 22:12 If it has been savaged by a wild animal, he must bring the savaged remains of the animal as evidence, and will then not have to make restitution.

Exo 22:13 'If anyone borrows an animal from someone else, and it breaks a limb or dies in the owner's absence, he will make full restitution.

Exo 22:14 But if the animal's owner has been present, he will not have to make good the loss. If the owner has hired it out, he will get the cost of its hire.

Exo 22:15 'If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married, he will pay her bride-price and make her his wife.

Exo 22:16 If her father absolutely refuses to let him have her, he will pay a sum equivalent to the bride-price of a virgin.

Exo 22:17 'You will not allow a sorceress to live.

Exo 22:18 'Anyone who has intercourse with an animal will be put to death.

Exo 22:19 'Anyone who sacrifices to other gods will be put under the curse of destruction.

Exo 22:20 'You will not molest or oppress aliens, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt.

Exo 22:21 You will not ill-treat widows or orphans;

Exo 22:22 if you ill-treat them in any way and they make an appeal to me for help, I shall certainly hear their appeal,

Exo 22:23 my anger will be roused and I shall put you to the sword; then your own wives will be widows and your own children orphans.

Exo 22:24 'If you lend money to any of my people, to anyone poor among you, you will not play the usurer with him: you will not demand interest from him.

Exo 22:25 'If you take someone's cloak in pledge, you will return it to him at sunset.

Exo 22:26 It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else will he sleep in? If he appeals to me, I shall listen. At least with me he will find compassion!

Exo 22:27 'You will not revile God, nor curse your people's leader.

Exo 22:28 'Do not be slow about making offerings from your abundance and your surplus. You will give me the first-born of your children;

Exo 22:29 you will do the same with your flocks and herds. For the first seven days the first-born will stay with its mother; on the eighth day you will give it to me.

Exo 22:30 'You must be people consecrated to me. You will not eat the meat of anything in the countryside savaged by wild animals; you will throw it to the dogs.'

Exo 23:1 'You will not spread false rumours. You will not lend support to the wicked by giving untrue evidence.

Exo 23:2 You will not be led into wrong-doing by the majority nor, when giving evidence in a lawsuit, side with the majority to pervert the course of justice;

Exo 23:3 nor will you show partiality to the poor in a lawsuit.

Exo 23:4 'If you come on your enemy's ox or donkey straying, you will take it back to him.

Exo 23:5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen under its load, do not stand back; you must go and help him with it.

Exo 23:6 'You will not cheat the poor among you of their rights at law.

Exo 23:7 Keep clear of fraud. Do not cause the death of the innocent or upright, and do not acquit the guilty.

Exo 23:8 You will accept no bribes, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and is the ruin of the cause of the upright.

Exo 23:9 'You will not oppress the alien; you know how an alien feels, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt.

Exo 23:10 'For six years you will sow your land and gather its produce,

Exo 23:11 but in the seventh year you will let it lie fallow and forgo all produce from it, so that those of your people who are poor can take food from it and the wild animals eat what they have left. You will do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

Exo 23:12 'For six days you will do your work, and on the seventh you will rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the child of your slave-girl have a breathing space, and the alien too.

Exo 23:13 'Take notice of everything I have told you and do not mention the name of any other god: let none ever be heard from your lips.

Exo 23:14 'Three times a year you will hold a festival in my honour.

Exo 23:15 You will observe the feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you will eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt. No one will appear before me empty-handed.

Exo 23:16 You will also observe the feast of Harvest, of the first-fruits of your labours in sowing the fields, and the feast of Ingathering, at the end of the year, once you have brought the fruits of your labours in from the fields.

Exo 23:17 Three times a year all your menfolk will appear before Lord Yahweh.

Exo 23:18 'You will not offer the blood of my victim with leavened bread, nor will the fat of my feast be kept till the following day.

Exo 23:19 'You will bring the best of the first-fruits of your soil to the house of Yahweh your God. 'You will not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Exo 23:20 'Look, I am sending an angel to precede you, to guard you as you go and bring you to the place that I have prepared.

Exo 23:21 Revere him and obey what he says. Do not defy him: he will not forgive any wrong-doing on your part, for my name is in him.

Exo 23:22 If, however, you obey what he says and do whatever I order, I shall be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.

Exo 23:23 My angel will precede you and lead you to the home of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, whom I shall exterminate.

Exo 23:24 You will not bow down to their gods or worship them or observe their rites, but throw them down and smash their cultic stones.

Exo 23:25 You will worship Yahweh your God, and then I shall bless your food and water, and keep you free of sickness.

Exo 23:26 In your country no woman will miscarry, none be sterile, and I shall give you your full term of life.

Exo 23:27 'I shall send terror of myself ahead of you; I shall throw all the peoples you encounter into confusion, and make all your enemies take to their heels.

Exo 23:28 I shall send hornets ahead of you to drive Hivite, Canaanite and Hittite out before you.

Exo 23:29 I shall not drive them out ahead of you in a single year, or the land might become a desert where wild animals would multiply to your cost.

Exo 23:30 I shall drive them out little by little before you, until your numbers grow sufficient for you to take possession of the land.

Exo 23:31 And your frontiers I shall fix from the Sea of Reeds to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River, for I shall put the inhabitants of the territory at your mercy, and you will drive them out before you.

Exo 23:32 You will make no pact with them or with their gods.

Exo 23:33 They may not stay in your country or they might make you sin against me, for you would serve their gods, and that would be a snare for you!'

Exo 24:1 He then said to Moses, 'Come up to Yahweh, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel and bow down at a distance.

Exo 24:2 Moses alone will approach Yahweh; the others will not approach, nor will the people come up with him.'

Exo 24:3 Moses went and told the people all Yahweh's words and all the laws, and all the people answered with one voice, 'All the words Yahweh has spoken we will carry out!'

Exo 24:4 Moses put all Yahweh's words into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exo 24:5 Then he sent certain young Israelites to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice bullocks to Yahweh as communion sacrifices.

Exo 24:6 Moses then took half the blood and put it into basins, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar.

Exo 24:7 Then, taking the Book of the Covenant, he read it to the listening people, who then said, 'We shall do everything that Yahweh has said; we shall obey.'

Exo 24:8 Moses then took the blood and sprinkled it over the people, saying, 'This is the blood of the covenant which Yahweh has made with you, entailing all these stipulations.'

Exo 24:9 Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and seventy elders of Israel then went up,

Exo 24:10 and they saw the God of Israel beneath whose feet there was what looked like a sapphire pavement pure as the heavens themselves,

Exo 24:11 but he did no harm to the Israelite notables; they actually gazed on God and then ate and drank.

Exo 24:12 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Come up to me on the mountain. Stay there, and I will give you the stone tablets -- the law and the commandment -- which I have written for their instruction.'

Exo 24:13 Moses made ready, with Joshua his assistant, and they went up the mountain of God.

Exo 24:14 He said to the elders, 'Wait here for us until we come back to you. You have Aaron and Hur with you; if anyone has any matter to settle, let him go to them.'

Exo 24:15 Moses then went up the mountain. Cloud covered the mountain.

Exo 24:16 The glory of Yahweh rested on Mount Sinai and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day Yahweh called to Moses from inside the cloud.

Exo 24:17 To the watching Israelites, the glory of Yahweh looked like a devouring fire on the mountain top.

Exo 24:18 Moses went right into the cloud and went on up the mountain. Moses stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Exo 25:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 25:2 'Tell the Israelites to set aside a contribution for me; you will accept a contribution from everyone whose heart prompts him to give it.'

Exo 25:3 And this is what you will accept from them: gold, silver and bronze;

Exo 25:4 materials dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, fine linen, goats' hair;

Exo 25:5 rams' skins dyed red, fine leather, acacia wood;

Exo 25:6 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and fragrant incense;

Exo 25:7 cornelian and other stones to be set in the ephod and breastplate.

Exo 25:8 Make me a sanctuary so that I can reside among them.

Exo 25:9 You will make it all according to the design for the Dwelling and the design for its furnishings which I shall now show you.

Exo 25:10 'You must make me an ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide and one and a half cubits high.

Exo 25:11 You will overlay it, inside and out, with pure gold and make a gold moulding all round it.

Exo 25:12 You will cast four gold rings for it and fix them to its four supports: two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Exo 25:13 You will also make shafts of acacia wood and overlay them with gold

Exo 25:14 and pass the shafts through the rings on the sides of the ark, by which to carry it.

Exo 25:15 The shafts will stay in the rings of the ark and not be withdrawn.

Exo 25:16 Inside the ark you will put the Testimony which I am about to give you.

Exo 25:17 'You will also make a mercy-seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide,

Exo 25:18 and you will model two great winged creatures of beaten gold, you will make them at the two ends of the mercy-seat.

Exo 25:19 Model one of the winged creatures at one end and the other winged creature at the other end; you will model the winged creatures of a piece with the mercy-seat at either end.

Exo 25:20 The winged creatures must have their wings spread upwards, protecting the mercy-seat with their wings and facing each other, their faces being towards the mercy-seat.

Exo 25:21 You will put the mercy-seat on the top of the ark, and inside the ark you will put the Testimony which I am about to give you.

Exo 25:22 There I shall come to meet you; from above the mercy-seat, from between the two winged creatures which are on the ark of the Testimony, I shall give you all my orders for the Israelites.

Exo 25:23 'You must also make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide and one and a half cubits high.

Exo 25:24 You will overlay it with pure gold, and make a gold moulding all round it.

Exo 25:25 You will fit it with struts of a hand's breadth and make a gold moulding round the struts.

Exo 25:26 You will make four gold rings for it and fix the four rings at the four corners where the four legs are.

Exo 25:27 The rings must lie close to the struts to hold the shafts for carrying the table.

Exo 25:28 You must make the shafts of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. The table must be carried by these.

Exo 25:29 You must make dishes, cups, jars and libation bowls for it; you must make these of pure gold,
Exo 25:30 and on the table, in my presence, you will always put the loaves of permanent offering.

Exo 25:31 'You will also make a lamp-stand of pure gold; the lamp-stand must be of beaten gold, base and stem. Its cups, calyxes and petals, must be of a piece with it.'

Exo 25:32 Six branches must spring from its sides: three of the lamp-stand's branches from one side, three of the lamp-stand's branches from the other.

Exo 25:33 The first branch must carry three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and petals; the second branch, too, must carry three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and bud, and similarly for all six branches springing from the lamp-stand.

Exo 25:34 The lamp-stand itself must carry four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and bud:

Exo 25:35 one calyx under the first two branches springing from the lamp-stand, one calyx under the next pair of branches and one calyx under the last pair of branches -- thus for all six branches springing from the lamp-stand.

Exo 25:36 The calyxes and the branches will be of a piece with the lamp-stand, and the whole made from a single piece of pure gold, beaten out.

Exo 25:37 You will also make seven lamps for it and mount the lamps in such a way that they light up the space in front of it.

Exo 25:38 The snuffers and trays must be of pure gold.

Exo 25:39 You will use a talent of pure gold for the lamp-stand and all its accessories;

Exo 25:40 and see that you work to the design which was shown you on the mountain.'

Exo 26:1 'The Dwelling itself you will make with ten sheets of finely woven linen dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson. You will have them embroidered with great winged creatures.'

Exo 26:2 The length of a single sheet is to be twenty-eight cubits, its width four cubits, all the sheets to be of the same size.

Exo 26:3 Five of the sheets are to be joined to one another, and the other five sheets are to be joined to one another.

Exo 26:4 You will make violet loops along the edge of the first sheet, at the end of the set, and do the same along the edge of the last sheet in the other set.

Exo 26:5 You will make fifty loops on the first sheet and fifty loops along the outer edge of the sheet of the second set, the loops corresponding to one another.

Exo 26:6 You will also make fifty gold clasps, and join the sheets together with the clasps. In this way the Dwelling will be a unified whole.

Exo 26:7 'You will make sheets of goats' hair to form a tent over the Dwelling; you will make eleven of these.

Exo 26:8 The length of a single sheet must be thirty cubits and its width four cubits, the eleven sheets to be all of the same size.

Exo 26:9 You will join five sheets together into one set, and six sheets into another; the sixth you will fold double over the front of the tent.

Exo 26:10 You will make fifty loops along the edge of the first sheet, at the end of the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the sheet of the second set.

Exo 26:11 You will make fifty bronze clasps and insert the clasps into the loops, to draw the tent together and to make it a unified whole.

Exo 26:12 'Of the extra part of the sheets that overlap, half is to hang down the back of the Dwelling.

Exo 26:13 The extra cubit on either side along the length of the tent sheets must hang down the sides of the Dwelling on either side to cover it.

Exo 26:14 'And for the tent you will make a cover of rams' skins dyed red and a cover of fine leather over that.

Exo 26:15 'For the Dwelling you will make vertical frames of acacia wood.

Exo 26:16 Each frame must be ten cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.

Exo 26:17 Each frame must have twin tenons; that is how all the frames for the Dwelling must be made.

Exo 26:18 You will make frames for the Dwelling: twenty frames for the south side, to the south,

Exo 26:19 and make forty silver sockets under the twenty frames, two sockets under one frame for its two tenons, two sockets under the next frame for its two tenons;

Exo 26:20 and for the other side of the Dwelling, the north side, twenty frames

Exo 26:21 and forty silver sockets, two sockets under one frame, two sockets under the next frame.

Exo 26:22 For the back of the Dwelling, on the west, you will make six frames,

Exo 26:23 and make two frames for the corners at the back of the Dwelling;

Exo 26:24 these must be coupled together at the bottom, and right up to the top, to the level of the first ring; this for the two frames that must form the two corners.

Exo 26:25 Thus there will be eight frames with their silver sockets: sixteen sockets; two sockets under one frame and two sockets under the next frame.

Exo 26:26 'You will make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames of the first side of the Dwelling, Exo 26:27 five crossbars for the frames of the opposite side of the Dwelling, and five crossbars for the frames which form the back of the Dwelling, to the west.'

Exo 26:28 The middle bar must join the frames from one end to the other, halfway up.

Exo 26:29 You will overlay the frames with gold, make gold rings for them, through which to place the crossbars, and overlay the crossbars with gold.

Exo 26:30 This is how you must erect the Dwelling, following the design shown you on the mountain.

Exo 26:31 'You will make a curtain of finely woven linen, dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, and embroidered with great winged creatures,

Exo 26:32 and put it on four poles of acacia wood overlaid with gold, with golden hooks for them, set in four sockets of silver.

Exo 26:33 You will put the curtain below the clasps, so that inside behind the curtain, you can place the ark of the Testimony, and the curtain will mark the division for you between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies.

Exo 26:34 You will put the mercy-seat on the ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies.

Exo 26:35 You will place the table outside the curtain, and the lamp-stand on the south side of the Dwelling, opposite the table; you will put the table on the north side.

Exo 26:36 For the entrance to the tent you will make a screen of finely woven linen embroidered with violet-purple, red-purple and crimson,

Exo 26:37 and for the screen you will make five poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, with golden hooks, and for them you will cast five sockets of bronze.'

Exo 27:1 'You will make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar will be square and three cubits high.

Exo 27:2 At its four corners you will make horns, the horns must be of a piece with it, and you will overlay it with bronze.

Exo 27:3 And for it you will make pans for taking away the fatty ashes, and shovels, sprinkling basins, hooks and fire pans; you will make all the altar accessories of bronze.

Exo 27:4 You will also make a grating for it of bronze network, and on the four corners of the grating you will make four bronze rings.

Exo 27:5 You will put it below the ledge of the altar, underneath, so that it comes halfway up the altar.

Exo 27:6 You will make shafts for the altar, shafts of acacia wood and overlay them with bronze.

Exo 27:7 The shafts will be passed through the rings in such a way that the shafts are on either side of the altar, for carrying it.

Exo 27:8 You will make the altar hollow, out of boards; you will make it as you were shown on the mountain.

Exo 27:9 'Then you will make the court of the Dwelling. On the south side, the curtaining of the court must be of finely woven linen, one hundred cubits long (for the first side), Exo 27:10 its twenty poles and their twenty sockets being of bronze, and the poles' hooks and rods of silver.

Exo 27:11 So too for the north side, there must be a hundred cubits of curtaining, its twenty poles and their twenty sockets being of bronze, and the poles' hooks and rods of silver.

Exo 27:12 Across the width of the court, on the west side, there must be fifty cubits of curtaining, with its ten poles and their ten sockets.

Exo 27:13 The width of the court on the east side, facing the sunrise, must be fifty cubits,

Exo 27:14 with fifteen cubits of curtaining on one side of the entrance, with its three poles and their three sockets,

Exo 27:15 and on the other side of the entrance, fifteen cubits of curtaining, with its three poles and their three sockets;

Exo 27:16 and for the gateway to the court there must be a twenty-cubit screen of finely woven linen embroidered with violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, with its four poles and their four sockets.

Exo 27:17 All the poles round the court must be connected by silver rods; their hooks must be of silver and their sockets of bronze.

Exo 27:18 The length of the court must be one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits and its height five cubits. All the curtaining must be made of finely woven linen, and their sockets of bronze.

Exo 27:19 All the accessories for general use in the Dwelling, all its pegs and all the pegs of the court, must be of bronze.

Exo 27:20 'You will order the Israelites to bring you pure pounded olive oil for the light, and to keep a lamp burning all the time.

Exo 27:21 Aaron and his sons will tend it in the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain hanging in front of the Testimony, from dusk to dawn, before Yahweh. This is a perpetual decree for all generations of Israelites.'

Exo 28:1 'From among the Israelites, summon your brother Aaron and his sons to be priests in my service: Aaron and Aaron's sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exo 28:2 For your brother Aaron you will make sacred vestments to give dignity and magnificence.

Exo 28:3 You will instruct all the skilled men, whom I have endowed with skill, to make Aaron's vestments for his consecration to my priesthood.

Exo 28:4 These are the vestments which they must make: a pectoral, an ephod, a robe, an embroidered tunic, a turban and a belt. They must make sacred vestments for your brother Aaron and his sons, for them to be priests in my service.

Exo 28:5 They will use gold and violet material, red-purple and crimson, and finely woven linen.

Exo 28:6 'They will make the ephod of finely woven linen embroidered with gold, violet-purple, red-purple and crimson.

Exo 28:7 It will have two shoulder-straps joined to it; it will be joined to them by its two edges.

Exo 28:8 The waistband on the ephod to hold it in position must be of the same workmanship and be of a piece with it: of gold, violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and finely woven linen.

Exo 28:9 You will then take two cornelians and engrave them with the names of the sons of Israel,

Exo 28:10 six of their names on one stone, the remaining six names on the other, in the order of their birth.

Exo 28:11 By the stone-carver's art -- seal engraving -- you will engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You will have them mounted in gold settings

Exo 28:12 and will put the two stones on the shoulder-straps of the ephod, to commemorate the sons of Israel. In this way Aaron will bear their names on his two shoulders, before Yahweh, as a reminder.

Exo 28:13 You will also make golden rosettes,

Exo 28:14 and two chains of pure gold twisted like cord, and will attach the cord-like chains to the rosettes.

Exo 28:15 'You will make the breastplate of judgement of the same embroidered work as the ephod; you will make it of gold, violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and finely woven linen.

Exo 28:16 It must be square and doubled over, a span in length and a span in width.

Exo 28:17 In it you will set four rows of stones: a sard, topaz and emerald for the first row;

Exo 28:18 for the second row, a garnet, sapphire and diamond;

Exo 28:19 for the third row, a hyacinth, a ruby and an amethyst;

Exo 28:20 and for the fourth row, a beryl, a cornelian and a jasper. These must be mounted in gold settings.

Exo 28:21 The stones will correspond to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve like their names, engraved like seals, each with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exo 28:22 For the breastplate you will make chains of pure gold twisted like cords,

Exo 28:23 and on the breastplate you will make two gold rings, putting the two rings on the two outside edges of the breastplate

Exo 28:24 and fastening the two gold cords to the two rings on the outside edges of the breastplate.

Exo 28:25 The other two ends of the cords you will fasten to the two rosettes, putting these on the shoulder-straps of the ephod, on the front.

Exo 28:26 You will also make two gold rings and put them on the two edges of the breastplate, on the inner side, against the ephod;

Exo 28:27 and you will make two gold rings and put them low down on the front of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, close to the join, above the waistband of the ephod.

Exo 28:28 The breastplate will be secured by a violet-purple cord passed through its rings and those of the ephod, so that the breastplate will sit above the waistband and not come apart from the ephod.

Exo 28:29 Thus Aaron will bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgement, on his heart, when he enters the sanctuary, as a reminder, before Yahweh, always.

Exo 28:30 To the breastplate of judgement you will add the urim and the thummim, and these will be on Aaron's heart when he goes into Yahweh's presence, and Aaron will bear the Israelites' judgement on his heart, in Yahweh's presence, always.

Exo 28:31 'You will make the robe of the ephod entirely of violet-purple.

Exo 28:32 In the centre it will have an opening for the head, the opening to have round it a border woven like the neck of a coat of mail, so that it will not get torn.

Exo 28:33 On its lower hem, you will make pomegranates of violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, and finely woven linen all round the hem, with golden bells between them all round:

Exo 28:34 a golden bell and then a pomegranate, alternately, all round the lower hem of the robe.

Exo 28:35 Aaron must wear it when he officiates, and the tinkling will be heard when he goes into the sanctuary into Yahweh's presence, or leaves it, and so he will not incur death.

Exo 28:36 'You will make a flower of pure gold and on it, as you would engrave a seal, you will engrave, "Consecrated to Yahweh".

Exo 28:37 You will put it on a violet-purple cord; it will go on the turban; the front of the turban is the place where it must go.

Exo 28:38 This will go on Aaron's brow, and Aaron will thus take on himself the short-comings in the holy things consecrated by the Israelites, in all their holy offerings. It will be on his brow permanently, to make them acceptable to Yahweh.

Exo 28:39 The tunic you will weave of fine linen, and make a turban of fine linen, and an embroidered waistband.

Exo 28:40 'For the sons of Aaron you will make tunics and waistbands. You will also make them head-dresses to give dignity and magnificence.

Exo 28:41 You will dress your brother Aaron and his sons in these; you will then anoint them, invest them and consecrate them to serve me in the priesthood.

Exo 28:42 You will also make them linen breeches reaching from waist to thigh, to cover their bare flesh.

Exo 28:43 Aaron and his sons will wear these when they go into the Tent of Meeting and when they approach the altar to serve in the sanctuary, as a precaution against incurring mortal guilt. This is a perpetual decree for Aaron and for his descendants after him.'

Exo 29:1 'This is what you will do to them, to consecrate them to my priesthood. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish;

Exo 29:2 also unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, made from fine wheat flour,

Exo 29:3 and put these into a basket and present them in the basket, at the same time as the bull and the two rams.

Exo 29:4 'You will bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and bathe them.

Exo 29:5 You will then take the vestments and dress Aaron in the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and tie the waistband of the ephod round his waist.

Exo 29:6 Then you will place the turban on his head, and on it put the symbol of holy consecration.

Exo 29:7 You will then take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and so anoint him.

Exo 29:8 'Next, you will bring his sons and dress them in tunics,

Exo 29:9 and fasten waistbands round their waists and put the head-dresses on their heads. By perpetual decree the priesthood will be theirs. Then you will invest Aaron and his sons.

Exo 29:10 'You will bring the bull in front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the bull's head.

Exo 29:11 You will then slaughter the bull before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 29:12 You will then take some of the bull's blood and with your finger put it on the horns of the altar. Next, pour out the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar.

Exo 29:13 And then take all the fat covering the entrails, the fatty mass over the liver, the two kidneys with their covering fat, and burn them on the altar.

Exo 29:14 But the young bull's flesh, its skin and its offal, you will burn outside the camp, for this is a sin offering.

Exo 29:15 'Next, you will take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the ram's head.

Exo 29:16 You will then slaughter the ram, take its blood and pour it against the altar, all round.

Exo 29:17 Next, cut the ram into quarters, wash the entrails and legs and put them on the quarters and head.

Exo 29:18 Then burn the whole ram on the altar. This will be a burnt offering for Yahweh, a pleasing smell, a food offering burnt for Yahweh.

Exo 29:19 'Next, you will take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the ram's head.

Exo 29:20 You will then slaughter the ram, take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, on the lobes of his sons' right ears, the thumbs of their right hands, and the big toes of their right feet, and pour the rest of the blood against the altar, all round.

Exo 29:21 You will then take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his vestments and on his sons and on his sons' vestments: so that he and his vestments will be consecrated and his sons too, and his sons' vestments.

Exo 29:22 'You will then take the fatty parts of the ram: the tail, the fat covering the entrails, the fatty mass over the liver, the two kidneys with their covering fat and also the right thigh -- for this is a ram of investiture-

Exo 29:23 and a loaf of bread, a cake of bread made with oil, and a wafer, from the basket of unleavened bread before Yahweh,

Exo 29:24 and put it all on the palms of Aaron and his sons, and make the gesture of offering before Yahweh.

Exo 29:25 Then you will take them back and burn them on the altar, on top of the burnt offering, as a smell pleasing before Yahweh, a food offering burnt for Yahweh.

Exo 29:26 'You will then take the forequarters of the ram of Aaron's investiture and with it make the gesture of offering before Yahweh; this will be your portion.

Exo 29:27 You will consecrate the forequarters that have been thus offered, as also the thigh that is set aside -- what has been offered and what has been set aside from the ram of investiture of Aaron and his sons.

Exo 29:28 This, by perpetual decree, will be the portion that Aaron and his sons will receive from the Israelites, since it is the portion set aside, the portion set aside for Yahweh by the Israelites from their communion sacrifices: a portion set aside for Yahweh.

Exo 29:29 'Aaron's sacred vestments must pass to his sons after him, and they will wear them for their anointing and investiture.

Exo 29:30 Whichever of the sons of Aaron succeeds him in the priesthood and enters the Tent of Meeting to serve in the sanctuary, will wear them for seven days.

Exo 29:31 'You will take the ram of investiture and cook its meat in a holy place.

Exo 29:32 Aaron and his sons will eat the meat of the ram and the bread which is in the basket, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 29:33 They will eat what was used in making expiation for them at their investiture and consecration. No unauthorised person may eat these; they are holy things.

Exo 29:34 If any of the meat from the investiture sacrifice, or the bread, should be left till morning, you will burn what is left. It may not be eaten; it is a holy thing.

Exo 29:35 This is what you will do for Aaron and his sons, implementing all the orders I have given you. You will take seven days over their investiture.

Exo 29:36 'On each of the days you will also offer a young bull as a sacrifice for sin, in expiation. You will offer a sin sacrifice for the altar when you make expiation for it; then you will consecrate it by anointing it.

Exo 29:37 For seven days you will make expiation for the altar, then you will consecrate it; it will then be especially holy, and whatever touches the altar will become holy.

Exo 29:38 'This is what you must offer on the altar: two yearling male lambs each day in perpetuity.

Exo 29:39 The first lamb you will offer at dawn, and the second at twilight,

Exo 29:40 and with the first lamb, one-tenth of a measure of fine flour mixed with one-quarter of a hin of pounded olive oil and, for a libation, one-quarter of a hin of wine.

Exo 29:41 The second lamb you will offer at twilight, and do it with a similar cereal offering and libation as at dawn, as a pleasing smell, as an offering burnt for Yahweh,

Exo 29:42 a perpetual burnt offering for all your generations to come, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh, where I shall meet you and speak to you.

Exo 29:43 'There I shall meet the Israelites in the place consecrated by my glory.

Exo 29:44 I shall consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar; I shall also consecrate Aaron and his sons, to be priests in my service.

Exo 29:45 And I shall live with the Israelites and be their God,

Exo 29:46 and they will know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them out of Egypt to live among them: I, Yahweh their God.'

Exo 30:1 'You will make an altar on which to burn incense; you will make it of acacia wood,

Exo 30:2 one cubit long, and one cubit wide -- it must be square -- and two cubits high; its horns must be of a piece with it.

Exo 30:3 You will overlay its top, its sides all round and its horns with pure gold and make a gold moulding to go all round.

Exo 30:4 You will make two gold rings for it below the moulding on its two opposite sides, to take the shafts used for carrying it.

Exo 30:5 You will make the shafts of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exo 30:6 'You will put it in front of the curtain by the ark of Testimony, in front of the mercy-seat which is on the Testimony, where I shall meet you.

Exo 30:7 On it Aaron will burn fragrant incense each morning; when he trims the lamps, he will burn incense on it;

Exo 30:8 and when Aaron puts back the lamps at twilight, he will burn incense on it, incense perpetually before Yahweh for all your generations to come.

Exo 30:9 You will not offer unauthorised incense, or burnt offering, or cereal offering on it, and you will not pour any libation over it.

Exo 30:10 Once a year, Aaron will perform the rite of expiation on the horns of the altar; once a year, on the Day of Expiation, with the blood of the sacrifice for sin, he will make expiation for himself, for all your generations to come. It is especially holy for Yahweh.'

Exo 30:11 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 30:12 'When you count the Israelites by census, each one of them must pay Yahweh a ransom for his life, to avoid any incidence of plague among them while you are holding the census.

Exo 30:13 Everyone subject to the census will pay half a shekel, reckoning by the sanctuary shekel: twenty gerah to the shekel. This half-shekel will be set aside for Yahweh.

Exo 30:14 Everyone subject to the census, that is to say of twenty years and over, will pay the sum set aside for Yahweh.

Exo 30:15 The rich man must not give more, nor the poor man less, than half a shekel when he pays the sum set aside for Yahweh in ransom for your lives.

Exo 30:16 You will take the ransom money of the Israelites and apply it to the service of the Tent of Meeting, for it to be a reminder of the Israelites before Yahweh, as the ransom for your lives.'

Exo 30:17 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 30:18 'You will also make a bronze basin on its bronze stand, for washing. You will put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it,

Exo 30:19 in which Aaron and his sons will wash their hands and feet.

Exo 30:20 Whenever they are to enter the Tent of Meeting, they will wash, to avoid incurring death; and whenever they approach the altar for their service, to burn an offering for Yahweh,

Exo 30:21 they will wash their hands and feet, to avoid incurring death. This is a perpetual decree for him and his descendants for all their generations to come.'

Exo 30:22 Yahweh spoke further to Moses and said,

Exo 30:23 'Take the finest spices: five hundred shekels of fresh myrrh, half as much (two hundred and fifty shekels) of fragrant cinnamon, two hundred and fifty shekels of scented reed,

Exo 30:24 five hundred shekels (reckoning by the sanctuary shekel) of cassia, and one hin of olive oil.

Exo 30:25 You will make this into a holy anointing oil, such a blend as the perfumer might make; this will be a holy anointing oil.

Exo 30:26 With it you will anoint the Tent of Meeting and the ark of the Testimony,

Exo 30:27 the table and all its accessories, the lamp-stand and its accessories, the altar of incense,

Exo 30:28 the altar of burnt offerings and all its accessories, and the basin with its stand,

Exo 30:29 consecrating them, so that they will be especially holy and whatever touches them will become holy.

Exo 30:30 You will also anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to be priests in my service.

Exo 30:31 You will then speak to the Israelites and say, "This anointing oil will be holy for you for all your generations to come.

Exo 30:32 It must not be used for anointing the human body, nor may you make any of the same mixture. It is a holy thing; you will regard it as holy.

Exo 30:33 Anyone who makes up the same oil or uses it on an unauthorised person will be outlawed from his people."

Exo 30:34 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Take sweet spices: storax, onycha, galbanum, sweet spices and pure frankincense in equal parts,

Exo 30:35 and compound an incense, such a blend as the perfumer might make, salted, pure, and holy.

Exo 30:36 You will grind some of this up very fine and put it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I shall meet you. You will regard it as especially holy.

Exo 30:37 You may not make any incense of similar composition for your own use. You will regard it as holy, reserved for Yahweh. Anyone who makes up the same thing to use as perfume will be outlawed from his people.'

Exo 31:1 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 31:2 'Look, I have singled out Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exo 31:3 and have filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, knowledge and skill in every kind of craft:

Exo 31:4 in designing and carrying out work in gold and silver and bronze,

Exo 31:5 in cutting stones to be set, in wood carving and in executing every kind of work.

Exo 31:6 And to help him I have given him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and have endowed the hearts of all the skilled men with the skill to make everything I have ordered you:

Exo 31:7 the Tent of Meeting; the ark of the Testimony; the mercy-seat above it; and all the furniture of the tent;

Exo 31:8 the table and all its accessories; the pure lamp-stand and all its equipment; the altar of incense;

Exo 31:9 the altar of burnt offerings and all its accessories; the basin and its stand;

Exo 31:10 the liturgical vestments, the sacred vestments for Aaron the priest, and the vestments for his sons, for their priestly functions;

Exo 31:11 the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the sanctuary. They will do everything as I have ordered you.'

Exo 31:12 Yahweh then said to Moses,

Exo 31:13 'Speak to the Israelites and say, "You will keep my Sabbaths properly, for this is a sign between myself and you for all your generations to come, so that you will know that it is I, Yahweh, who sanctify you.

Exo 31:14 You will keep the Sabbath, then; you will regard it as holy. Anyone who profanes it will be put to death; anyone who does any work on that day will be outlawed from his people.

Exo 31:15 Work must be done for six days, but the seventh day will be a day of complete rest, consecrated to Yahweh. Anyone who works on the Sabbath day will be put to death.

Exo 31:16 The Israelites will keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath for all their generations to come: this is an eternal covenant.

Exo 31:17 Between myself and the Israelites, this is a sign for ever, for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day he rested and drew breath."

Exo 31:18 When he had finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

Exo 32:1 When the people saw that Moses was a long time before coming down the mountain, they gathered round Aaron and said to him, 'Get to work, make us a god to go at our head; for that Moses, the man who brought us here from Egypt -- we do not know what has become of him.'

Exo 32:2 Aaron replied, 'Strip off the gold rings in the ears of your wives and your sons and daughters, and bring them to me.'

Exo 32:3 The people all stripped off the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron.

Exo 32:4 He received what they gave him, melted it down in a mould and with it made the statue of a calf.

'Israel,' the people shouted, 'here is your God who brought you here from Egypt!'

Exo 32:5 Observing this, Aaron built an altar before the statue and made this proclamation, 'Tomorrow will be a feast in Yahweh's honour.'

Exo 32:6 Early next morning they sacrificed burnt offerings and brought communion sacrifices. The people then sat down to eat and drink, and afterwards got up to amuse themselves.

Exo 32:7 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Go down at once, for your people whom you brought here from Egypt have become corrupt.'

Exo 32:8 They have quickly left the way which I ordered them to follow. They have cast themselves a metal calf, worshipped it and offered sacrifice to it, shouting, "Israel, here is your God who brought you here from Egypt!" '

Exo 32:9 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'I know these people; I know how obstinate they are!'

Exo 32:10 So leave me now, so that my anger can blaze at them and I can put an end to them! I shall make a great nation out of you instead.'

Exo 32:11 Moses tried to pacify Yahweh his God. 'Yahweh,' he said, 'why should your anger blaze at your people, whom you have brought out of Egypt by your great power and mighty hand?'

Exo 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, "He brought them out with evil intention, to slaughter them in the mountains and wipe them off the face of the earth?" Give up your burning wrath; relent over this disaster intended for your people.

Exo 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to whom you swore by your very self and made this promise: "I shall make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and this whole country of which I have spoken, I shall give to your descendants, and it will be their heritage for ever."

Exo 32:14 Yahweh then relented over the disaster which he had intended to inflict on his people.

Exo 32:15 Moses turned and came down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, tablets inscribed on both sides, inscribed on the front and on the back.

Exo 32:16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing on them was God's writing, engraved on the tablets.

Exo 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, 'There is the sound of battle in the camp!'

Exo 32:18 But he replied: No song of victory is this sound, no lament for defeat this sound; but answering choruses I hear!

Exo 32:19 And there, as he approached the camp, he saw the calf and the groups dancing. Moses blazed with anger. He threw down the tablets he was holding, shattering them at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 32:20 He seized the calf they had made and burned it, grinding it into powder which he scattered on the water, and made the Israelites drink it.

Exo 32:21 Moses then said to Aaron, 'What have these people done to you for you to have brought so great a sin on them?'

Exo 32:22 Aaron replied, 'My lord should not be so angry. You yourself know what a bad state these people are in!'

Exo 32:23 They said to me, "Make us a god to go at our head; for that Moses, the man who brought us here from Egypt -- we do not know what has become of him."

Exo 32:24 I then said to them, "Anyone with gold, strip it off!" They gave it to me. I threw it into the fire and out came this calf!'

Exo 32:25 When Moses saw that the people were out of hand -- for Aaron had let them get out of hand to the derision of their enemies all round them-

Exo 32:26 Moses then stood at the gate of the camp and shouted, 'Who is for Yahweh? To me!' And all the Levites rallied round him.

Exo 32:27 He said to them, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "Buckle on your sword, each of you, and go up and down the camp from gate to gate, every man of you slaughtering brother, friend and neighbour."

Exo 32:28 The Levites did as Moses said, and of the people about three thousand men perished that day.

Exo 32:29 'Today', Moses said, 'you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh, one at the cost of his son, another of his brother; and so he bestows a blessing on you today.'

Exo 32:30 On the following day Moses said to the people, 'You have committed a great sin. But now I shall go up to Yahweh: perhaps I can secure expiation for your sin.'

Exo 32:31 Moses then went back to Yahweh and said, 'Oh, this people has committed a great sin by making themselves a god of gold.'

Exo 32:32 And yet, if it pleased you to forgive their sin. . .! If not, please blot me out of the book you have written!'

Exo 32:33 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Those who have sinned against me are the ones I shall blot out of my book.'

Exo 32:34 So now go and lead the people to the place I promised to you. My angel will indeed go at your head but, on the day of punishment, I shall punish them for their sin.'

Exo 32:35 And Yahweh punished the people for having made the calf, the one Aaron had made.

Exo 33:1 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Leave, move on from here, you and the people whom you have brought here from Egypt, to the country that I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that I would give to their descendants.'

Exo 33:2 I shall send an angel in front of you and drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites.

Exo 33:3 Move on towards a country flowing with milk and honey, but I myself shall not be going with you or I might annihilate you on the way, for you are an obstinate people.'

Exo 33:4 On hearing these stern words the people went into mourning and no one wore his ornaments.

Exo 33:5 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Say to the Israelites, "You are an obstinate people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I should annihilate you. So now take off your ornaments, and then I shall decide how to deal with you!"'

Exo 33:6 So, from Mount Horeb onwards, the Israelites stripped themselves of their ornaments.

Exo 33:7 Moses used to take the Tent and pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp. He called it the Tent of Meeting. Anyone who wanted to consult Yahweh would go out to the Tent of Meeting, outside the camp.

Exo 33:8 Whenever Moses went out to the Tent, the people would all stand up and every man would stand at the door of his tent and watch Moses until he went into the Tent.

Exo 33:9 And whenever Moses went into the Tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and station itself at the entrance to the Tent, while Yahweh spoke with Moses.

Exo 33:10 The people could all see the pillar of cloud stationed at the entrance to the Tent and the people would all stand up and bow low, each at the door of his tent.

Exo 33:11 Yahweh would talk to Moses face to face, as a man talks to his friend, and afterwards he would come back to the camp, but the young man who was his servant, Joshua son of Nun, never left the inside of the Tent.

Exo 33:12 Moses said to Yahweh, 'Look, you say to me, "Make the people move on," but you have not told me whom you are going to send with me, although you have said, "I know you by name and you enjoy my favour."

Exo 33:13 If indeed I enjoy your favour, please show me your ways, so that I understand you and continue to enjoy your favour; consider too that this nation is your people.'

Exo 33:14 Yahweh then said, 'I myself shall go with you and I shall give you rest.'

Exo 33:15 To which he said, 'If you do not come yourself, do not make us move on from here,

Exo 33:16 for how can it be known that I and my people enjoy your favour, if not by your coming with us? By this we shall be marked out, I and your people, from all the peoples on the face of the earth.'

Exo 33:17 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Again I shall do what you have asked, because you enjoy my favour and because I know you by name.'

Exo 33:18 He then said, 'Please show me your glory.'

Exo 33:19 Yahweh said, 'I shall make all my goodness pass before you, and before you I shall pronounce the name Yahweh; and I am gracious to those to whom I am gracious and I take pity on those on whom I take pity.

Exo 33:20 But my face', he said, 'you cannot see, for no human being can see me and survive.'

Exo 33:21 Then Yahweh said, 'Here is a place near me. You will stand on the rock,

Exo 33:22 and when my glory passes by, I shall put you in a cleft of the rock and shield you with my hand until I have gone past.

Exo 33:23 Then I shall take my hand away and you will see my back; but my face will not be seen.'

Exo 34:1 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones and come up to me on the mountain, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Exo 34:2 Be ready at dawn; at dawn come up Mount Sinai and wait for me there at the top of the mountain.

Exo 34:3 No one may come up with you, no one may be seen anywhere on the mountain; the flocks and herds may not even graze in front of this mountain.'

Exo 34:4 So he cut two tablets of stone like the first and, with the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up Mount Sinai in the early morning as Yahweh had ordered.

Exo 34:5 And Yahweh descended in a cloud and stood with him there and pronounced the name Yahweh.

Exo 34:6 Then Yahweh passed before him and called out, 'Yahweh, Yahweh, God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in faithful love and constancy,

Exo 34:7 maintaining his faithful love to thousands, forgiving fault, crime and sin, yet letting nothing go unchecked, and punishing the parent's fault in the children and in the grandchildren to the third and fourth generation!'

Exo 34:8 Moses immediately bowed to the ground in worship,

Exo 34:9 then he said, 'If indeed I do enjoy your favour, please, my Lord, come with us, although they are an obstinate people; and forgive our faults and sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Exo 34:10 He then said, 'Look, I am now making a covenant: I shall work such wonders at the head of your whole people as have never been worked in any other country or nation, and all the people round you will see what Yahweh can do, for what I shall do through you will be awe-inspiring.

Exo 34:11 Mark, then, what I command you today. I am going to drive out the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites before you.

Exo 34:12 Take care you make no pact with the inhabitants of the country which you are about to enter, or they will prove a snare in your community.

Exo 34:13 You will tear down their altars, smash their cultic stones and cut down their sacred poles,

Exo 34:14 for you will worship no other god, since Yahweh's name is the Jealous One; he is a jealous God.

Exo 34:15 Make no pact with the inhabitants of the country or, when they prostitute themselves to their own gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will partake of their sacrifice,

Exo 34:16 and then you will choose wives for your sons from among their daughters, and their daughters, prostituting themselves to their own gods, will induce your sons to prostitute themselves to their gods.

Exo 34:17 'You will not cast metal gods for yourself.

Exo 34:18 'You will observe the feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you will eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

Exo 34:19 'All that first issues from the womb belongs to me: every male, every first-born of flock or herd.

Exo 34:20 But the first-born donkey you will redeem with an animal from the flock; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. All the first-born of your sons you will redeem, and no one will appear before me empty-handed.

Exo 34:21 'For six days you will labour, but on the seventh day you will rest; you will stop work even during ploughing and harvesting.

Exo 34:22 'You will observe the feast of Weeks, of the first-fruits of the wheat harvest, and the feast of Ingathering at the close of the year.

Exo 34:23 'Three times a year all your menfolk will appear before Lord Yahweh, God of Israel,

Exo 34:24 for I shall dispossess the nations before you and extend your frontiers, and no one will set his heart on your territory when you go away to appear before Yahweh your God three times a year.

Exo 34:25 'You will not offer the blood of my sacrificial victim with leavened bread, nor is the victim offered at the feast of Passover to be left until the following day.

Exo 34:26 'You will bring the best of the first-fruits of your soil to the house of Yahweh your God. 'You will not boil a kid in its mother's milk.'

Exo 34:27 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Put these words in writing, for they are the terms of the covenant which I have made with you and with Israel.'

Exo 34:28 He stayed there with Yahweh for forty days and forty nights, eating and drinking nothing, and on the tablets he wrote the words of the covenant -- the Ten Words.

Exo 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, as he was coming down the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face was radiant because he had been talking to him.

Exo 34:30 And when Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin on his face was so radiant that they were afraid to go near him.

Exo 34:31 But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the community rejoined him, and Moses talked to them,

Exo 34:32 after which all the Israelites came closer, and he passed on to them all the orders that Yahweh had given to him on Mount Sinai.

Exo 34:33 Once Moses had finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

Exo 34:34 Whenever Moses went into Yahweh's presence to speak with him, he took the veil off until he came out. And when he came out, he would tell the Israelites what orders he had been given,

Exo 34:35 and the Israelites would see Moses' face radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak to him next time.

Exo 35:1 Moses assembled the whole community of Israelites and said, 'These are the things Yahweh has ordered to be done:

Exo 35:2 Work must be done for six days, but the seventh must be a holy day for you, a day of complete rest, in honour of Yahweh. Anyone who does any work on that day will be put to death.

Exo 35:3 You will not light a fire on the Sabbath day in any of your homes.'

Exo 35:4 Moses spoke to the whole community of Israelites. 'This', he said, 'is what Yahweh has ordered:

Exo 35:5 Set aside a contribution for Yahweh out of your possessions. Everyone whose heart prompts him to do so should bring a contribution for Yahweh: gold, silver and bronze;

Exo 35:6 materials dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, finely woven linen, goats' hair,

Exo 35:7 rams' skins dyed red, fine leather, acacia wood,

Exo 35:8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exo 35:9 cornelian and other stones to be set in the ephod and breastplate.

Exo 35:10 And all those of you who have the skill must come and make everything that Yahweh has ordered:

Exo 35:11 the Dwelling, its tent and its covering, its clasps and its frames, its crossbars, its pillars and its sockets;

Exo 35:12 the ark, its shafts and all its accessories, the mercy-seat and the screening curtain;

Exo 35:13 the table, its shafts and all its accessories, and the loaves of permanent offering;

Exo 35:14 the lamp-stand for the light, its accessories, its lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exo 35:15 the altar of incense and its shafts, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance, for the entrance of the tent;

Exo 35:16 the altar of burnt offerings and its bronze grating, its shafts, and all its accessories; the basin and its stand;

Exo 35:17 the curtaining for the court, its poles, its sockets, and the screen for the entrance to the court;

Exo 35:18 the pegs for the Dwelling and the pegs for the court, and their cords;

Exo 35:19 the liturgical vestments for service in the sanctuary -- the sacred vestments for Aaron the priest, and the vestments for his sons, for their priestly functions.'

Exo 35:20 The whole community of Israelites then withdrew from Moses' presence.

Exo 35:21 And all those whose heart stirred them and all those whose spirit prompted them brought a contribution for Yahweh, for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for its general service and for the sacred vestments.

Exo 35:22 Men and women, they came, all those whose heart prompted them, bringing brooches, rings, bracelets, necklaces, golden objects of every kind -- all those who had vowed gold to Yahweh,

Exo 35:23 while all those who happened to own violet-purple, red-purple or crimson materials, finely woven linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, or fine leather, brought that.

Exo 35:24 All those offering a contribution of silver or bronze brought their contribution for Yahweh and all who happened to own acacia wood, suitable for any of the work to be done, brought that.

Exo 35:25 All the skilled women set their hands to spinning, and brought what they had spun: violet-purple, red-purple or crimson materials, and fine linen,

Exo 35:26 while all those women whose heart stirred them by virtue of their skill, spun goats' hair.

Exo 35:27 The leaders brought cornelians and other stones to be set in the ephod and breastplate,

Exo 35:28 and the spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

Exo 35:29 All those Israelites, men and women, whose heart prompted them to contribute to the entire work that Yahweh had ordered through Moses to be done, brought a contribution to Yahweh.

Exo 35:30 Moses then said to the Israelites, 'Look, Yahweh has singled out Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exo 35:31 and has filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, knowledge and skill in every kind of craft:

Exo 35:32 in designing and carrying out work in gold and silver and bronze,

Exo 35:33 in cutting stones to be set, in wood carving and in executing every kind of work.

Exo 35:34 And on him and on Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, he has bestowed the gift of teaching,

Exo 35:35 and filled them with the skill to carry out every kind of work, that of the engraver, that of the embroiderer, that of the needleworker in violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and fine linen, that of the weaver, and indeed that of every kind of craftsman and designer.'

Exo 36:1 'Bezalel, Oholiab and all the men whom Yahweh has endowed with the skill and knowledge to know how to carry out all the work to be done on the sanctuary, will do exactly as Yahweh has ordered.'

Exo 36:2 Moses then summoned Bezalel, Oholiab and all the skilled men whose hearts Yahweh had endowed with skill, all whose heart stirred them to come forward and do the work.

Exo 36:3 From Moses they received everything that the Israelites had brought as contributions for carrying out the work of building the sanctuary, and, as they went on bringing their offerings every morning,

Exo 36:4 the skilled men who were doing all the work for the sanctuary, all left their particular work

Exo 36:5 and said to Moses, 'The people are bringing more than is needed for the work Yahweh has ordered to be done.'

Exo 36:6 Moses then gave the order and proclamation was made throughout the camp, 'No one, whether man or woman, must do anything more towards contributing for the sanctuary.' So the people were prevented from bringing any more,

Exo 36:7 for the material to hand was enough, and more than enough, to complete all the work.

Exo 36:8 All the most skilled of the men doing the work made the Dwelling. Moses made it with ten sheets of finely woven linen, dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson and embroidered with great winged creatures.

Exo 36:9 The length of a single sheet was twenty-eight cubits, its width four cubits, all the sheets being of the same size.

Exo 36:10 He joined five of the sheets to one another, and the other five sheets to one another.

Exo 36:11 He made violet loops along the edge of the first sheet, at the end of the set, and did the same along the edge of the last sheet in the other set.

Exo 36:12 He made fifty loops on the first sheet and fifty loops along the outer edge of the sheet of the second set, the loops corresponding to one another.

Exo 36:13 He made fifty gold clasps and joined the sheets together with the clasps. In this way the Dwelling was a unified whole.

Exo 36:14 Next he made sheets of goats' hair for the tent over the Dwelling; he made eleven of these.

Exo 36:15 The length of a single sheet was thirty cubits and its width four cubits; the eleven sheets were all of the same size.

Exo 36:16 He joined five sheets together into one set and six sheets into another.

Exo 36:17 He made fifty loops along the edge of the last sheet of the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the sheet of the second set.

Exo 36:18 He made fifty bronze clasps, to draw the tent together and make it a unified whole.

Exo 36:19 And for the tent he made a cover of rams' skins dyed red, and a cover of fine leather over that.

Exo 36:20 For the Dwelling he made vertical frames of acacia wood.

Exo 36:21 Each frame was ten cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.

Exo 36:22 Each frame had twin tenons; this was how he made all the frames for the Dwelling.

Exo 36:23 He made frames for the Dwelling: twenty frames for the south side, to the south,

Exo 36:24 and made forty silver sockets under the twenty frames, two sockets under one frame for its two tenons, two sockets under the next frame for its two tenons;

Exo 36:25 and for the other side of the Dwelling, the north side, twenty frames

Exo 36:26 and forty silver sockets, two sockets under one frame, two sockets under the next frame.

Exo 36:27 For the back of the Dwelling, on the west, he made six frames.

Exo 36:28 He also made two frames for the corners at the back of the Dwelling;

Exo 36:29 these were coupled together at the bottom, staying so up to the top, to the level of the first ring; this he did with the two frames forming the two corners.

Exo 36:30 Thus there were eight frames with their sixteen silver sockets; two sockets under each frame.

Exo 36:31 He made crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames of the first side of the Dwelling,

Exo 36:32 five crossbars for the frames of the other side of the Dwelling and five crossbars for the frames which formed the back of the Dwelling, to the west.

Exo 36:33 He made the middle bar, to join the frames from one end to the other, halfway up.

Exo 36:34 He overlaid the frames with gold, made gold rings for them, through which to place the crossbars, and overlaid the crossbars with gold.

Exo 36:35 He made a curtain of finely woven linen, dyed violet-purple, red-purple and crimson and embroidered with great winged creatures,

Exo 36:36 and for it he made four poles of acacia wood, overlaying them with gold, with golden hooks for them, for which he cast four sockets of silver.

Exo 36:37 For the entrance to the tent he made a screen of finely woven linen embroidered with violet-purple, red-purple and crimson,

Exo 36:38 as also the five columns for it and their hooks; he overlaid their capitals and rods with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze.

Exo 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide and one and a half cubits high.

Exo 37:2 He overlaid it, inside and out, with pure gold, and made a gold moulding all round it.

Exo 37:3 He cast four gold rings for it at its four supports: two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Exo 37:4 He also made shafts of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold,

Exo 37:5 and passed the shafts through the rings on the sides of the ark, by which to carry it.

Exo 37:6 He also made a mercy-seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide,

Exo 37:7 and modelled two great winged creatures of beaten gold, putting them at the two ends of the mercy-seat,

Exo 37:8 one winged creature at one end and the other winged creature at the other end, making the winged creatures of a piece with the mercy-seat at either end.

Exo 37:9 The winged creatures had their wings spread upwards, protecting the ark with their wings and facing each other, their faces being towards the mercy-seat.

Exo 37:10 He made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide and one and a half cubits high,
Exo 37:11 and made a gold moulding all round it.

Exo 37:12 He fitted it with struts a hand's breadth wide and made a gold moulding round the struts.

Exo 37:13 He cast four gold rings for it and fixed the rings at the four corners where the four legs were.

Exo 37:14 The rings lay close to the struts to hold the shafts for carrying the table.

Exo 37:15 He made the shafts of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold; these were for carrying the table.

Exo 37:16 He made the accessories which were to go on the table: its dishes, cups, jars and libation bowls, of pure gold.

Exo 37:17 He also made the lamp-stand of pure gold, making the lamp-stand, base and stem, of beaten gold, its cups, calyxes and bud being of a piece with it.

Exo 37:18 Six branches sprang from its sides: three of the lamp-stand's branches from one side, three of the lamp-stand's branches from the other.

Exo 37:19 The first branch carried three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and bud; the second branch, too, carried three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and bud, and similarly all six branches springing from the lamp-stand.

Exo 37:20 The lamp-stand itself carried four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyx and bud:

Exo 37:21 one calyx under the first two branches springing from the lamp-stand, one calyx under the next pair of branches and one calyx under the last pair of branches -- thus for all six branches springing from the lamp-stand.

Exo 37:22 The calyxes and the branches were of a piece with the lamp-stand, and the whole was made from a single piece of pure gold, beaten out.

Exo 37:23 He also made its seven lamps, its snuffers and trays of pure gold.

Exo 37:24 He made the lamp-stand and all its accessories from a talent of pure gold.

Exo 37:25 He made the altar of incense of acacia wood, one cubit long, and one cubit wide -- it was square -- and two cubits high, its horns were of a piece with it.

Exo 37:26 He overlaid its top, its sides all round and its horns with pure gold and made a moulding to go all round.

Exo 37:27 He made two gold rings for it below the moulding on its two opposite sides, to take the shafts used for carrying it.

Exo 37:28 He made the shafts of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exo 37:29 He also made the holy anointing oil and the fragrant incense, blending it as a perfumer would.

Exo 38:1 He made the altar of burnt offerings of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; it was square and three cubits high.

Exo 38:2 At its four corners he made horns, the horns being of a piece with it, and overlaid it with bronze.

Exo 38:3 He made all the altar accessories: the ash pans, shovels, sprinkling basins, hooks and fire pans; he made all the altar accessories of bronze.

Exo 38:4 He also made a grating for the altar of bronze network, below its ledge, underneath, coming halfway up.

Exo 38:5 He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating to take the shafts.

Exo 38:6 He made the shafts of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Exo 38:7 He passed the shafts through the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it. He made the altar hollow, out of boards.

Exo 38:8 He made the bronze basin and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 38:9 He made the court. On the south side, on the south, the curtaining of the court was of finely woven linen a hundred cubits long.

Exo 38:10 Its twenty poles and their sockets being of bronze, and their hooks and rods of silver;

Exo 38:11 and on the north side, a hundred cubits of curtaining, its twenty poles and their twenty sockets being of bronze, and their hooks and rods of silver.

Exo 38:12 On the west side there were fifty cubits of curtaining, with its ten poles and their ten sockets, the poles' hooks and rods being of silver;

Exo 38:13 and on the east side on the east, there were fifty cubits.

Exo 38:14 On the one side there were fifteen cubits of curtaining, with its three poles and their three sockets,

Exo 38:15 and on the other side -- either side of the gateway to the court -- there were fifteen cubits of curtaining with its three poles and their three sockets.

Exo 38:16 All the curtaining round the court was of finely woven linen,

Exo 38:17 the sockets for the poles were of bronze, the poles' hooks and rods of silver, their capitals were overlaid with silver and all the poles of the court had silver rods.

Exo 38:18 The screen for the gateway to the court was of finely woven linen embroidered with violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, twenty cubits long and five cubits high (all the way along) like the curtaining of the court,
Exo 38:19 its four poles and their four sockets being of bronze, their hooks of silver, their capitals overlaid with silver, and their rods of silver.

Exo 38:20 All the pegs round the Dwelling and the court were of bronze.

Exo 38:21 These are the accounts for the Dwelling -- the Dwelling of the Testimony -- drawn up by order of Moses, the work of Levites, produced by Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Exo 38:22 Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that Yahweh ordered Moses to make,

Exo 38:23 his assistant being Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, embroiderer and needleworker in violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and fine linen.

Exo 38:24 The amount of gold used for the work, for the entire work for the sanctuary (the gold consecrated for the purpose) was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, reckoned by the sanctuary shekel.

Exo 38:25 The silver from the census of the community was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, reckoned by the sanctuary shekel,

Exo 38:26 one beqa per head, half a shekel reckoned by the sanctuary shekel, for everyone of twenty years and over included in the census, for six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty persons.

Exo 38:27 A hundred talents of silver were used for casting the sockets for the sanctuary and the sockets for the curtain: a hundred sockets from a hundred talents, one talent per socket.

Exo 38:28 From the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made the hooks for the poles, overlaid their capitals and made the rods for them.

Exo 38:29 The bronze consecrated for the purpose amounted to seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels,

Exo 38:30 and from it he made the sockets for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, its bronze grating and all the altar accessories,

Exo 38:31 the sockets all round the court, the sockets for the gateway to the court, all the pegs for the Dwelling and all the pegs round the court.

Exo 39:1 From the violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials, they made the liturgical vestments for service in the sanctuary. They made the sacred vestments for Aaron, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:2 They made the ephod of gold, of violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and finely woven linen.

Exo 39:3 They beat gold into thin plates and cut these into threads to work into the violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and the fine linen by needlework.

Exo 39:4 For the ephod they made shoulder-straps which were joined to it at its two edges.

Exo 39:5 The waistband on the ephod to hold it in position, was of a piece with it and of the same workmanship: of gold, violet-purple, red-purple and finely woven linen, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:6 They worked the cornelians, mounted in gold setting, and engraved, like an engraved seal, with the names of the sons of Israel,

Exo 39:7 and put the stones on the shoulder-straps of the ephod, to commemorate the sons of Israel, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:8 They made the breastplate of the same embroidered work as the ephod: of gold, violet-purple, red-purple and crimson materials and finely woven linen.

Exo 39:9 It was square and doubled over, a span in length and a span in width.

Exo 39:10 In it they set four rows of stones: a sard, a topaz and an emerald, for the first row;

Exo 39:11 for the second row, a garnet, a sapphire and a diamond;

Exo 39:12 for the third row, a hyacinth, a ruby and an amethyst;

Exo 39:13 and for the fourth row, a beryl, a cornelian and a jasper: mounted in gold settings,

Exo 39:14 the stones corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve like their names, engraved like seals, each with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exo 39:15 For the breastplate they made chains of pure gold twisted like cords,

Exo 39:16 and they made two gold rosettes and two gold rings, putting the two rings on the two outside edges of the breastplate

Exo 39:17 and fastening the two gold cords to the two rings on the outside edges of the breastplate.

Exo 39:18 The other two ends of the cords they fastened to the two rosettes, putting these on the shoulder-straps of the ephod, on the front.

Exo 39:19 They also made two gold rings and put them on the two outside edges of the breastplate, on the inner side, against the ephod;

Exo 39:20 and they made two more gold rings and put them low down on the front of the two shoulder-straps of the ephod, close to the join, above the waistband of the ephod.

Exo 39:21 They secured the pectoral by a violet-purple cord passed through its rings and those of the ephod, so that the pectoral would sit above the waistband and not come apart from the ephod, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:22 They made the robe of the ephod woven entirely of violet-purple.

Exo 39:23 The opening in the centre of the robe was like the neck of a coat of mail; round the opening was a border, so that it would not get torn.

Exo 39:24 On the lower hem of the robe, they made pomegranates of violet-purple, red-purple and crimson and finely woven linen,

Exo 39:25 and made bells of pure gold, putting the bells between the pomegranates all round the lower hem of the robe:

Exo 39:26 alternately, a bell and then a pomegranate, all round the lower hem of the robe of office, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:27 They made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aaron and his sons,

Exo 39:28 the turban of fine linen, the head-dresses of fine linen, the breeches of finely woven linen,

Exo 39:29 the waistbands of finely woven linen embroidered with violet-purple, red-purple and crimson, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:30 They also made the flower -- the symbol of holy consecration -- of pure gold and on it, like an engraved seal, they engraved, 'Consecrated to Yahweh'.

Exo 39:31 They put it on a violet-purple cord, to fasten it high up on the turban, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:32 So all the work for the Dwelling, for the Tent of Meeting, was completed. They had done everything exactly as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:33 They then brought Moses the Dwelling, the Tent and all its accessories: its clasps, frames, crossbars, poles and sockets;

Exo 39:34 the cover of rams' skins dyed red, the cover of fine leather and the screening curtain;

Exo 39:35 the ark of the Testimony and its shafts, and the mercy-seat;

Exo 39:36 the table, all its accessories and the loaves of permanent offering;

Exo 39:37 the lamp-stand of pure gold, its lamps -- the array of lamps -- and all its accessories, and the oil for the light;

Exo 39:38 the golden altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense and the screen for the entrance to the tent;

Exo 39:39 the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its shafts and all its accessories; the basin and its stand;

Exo 39:40 the curtaining for the court, its poles, its sockets, and the screen for the gateway to the court, its cords, its pegs and all the accessories for the service of the Dwelling, for the Tent of Meeting;

Exo 39:41 the liturgical vestments for officiating in the sanctuary -- the sacred vestments for Aaron the priest, and the vestments for his sons -- for the priestly functions.

Exo 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work exactly as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 39:43 Moses inspected all the work: they had indeed done it as Yahweh had ordered; and Moses blessed them.

Exo 40:1 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Exo 40:2 'On the first day of the first month, you will erect the Dwelling, the Tent of Meeting,

Exo 40:3 and place the ark of the Testimony in it and screen the ark with the curtain.

Exo 40:4 You will then bring in the table and arrange what has to be arranged on it. You will then bring in the lamp-stand and set up its lamps.

Exo 40:5 You will place the golden altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony, and place the screen at the entrance to the Dwelling.

Exo 40:6 You will place the altar of burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the Dwelling, the Tent of Meeting,

Exo 40:7 and you will place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and fill it with water.

Exo 40:8 You will then set up the surrounding court and hang the screen at the gateway of the court.

Exo 40:9 Then, taking the anointing oil, you will anoint the Dwelling and everything inside, consecrating it and all its accessories; it will then be holy.

Exo 40:10 You will then anoint the altar of burnt offerings and all its accessories, consecrating the altar; the altar will then be especially holy.

Exo 40:11 You will then anoint the basin and its stand, and consecrate it.

Exo 40:12 You will then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, bathe them thoroughly

Exo 40:13 and then dress Aaron in the sacred vestments, and anoint and consecrate him, to serve me in the priesthood.

Exo 40:14 You will then bring his sons, dress them in tunics

Exo 40:15 and anoint them as you anointed their father, to serve me in the priesthood. Their anointing will confer an everlasting priesthood on them for all their generations to come.'

Exo 40:16 Moses did this; he did exactly as Yahweh had ordered him.

Exo 40:17 On the first day of the first month in the second year the Dwelling was erected.

Exo 40:18 Moses erected the Dwelling. He fixed its sockets, set up its frames, put its crossbars in position and set up its poles.

Exo 40:19 He spread the tent over the Dwelling and the covering for the tent over that, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:20 He took the Testimony and put it in the ark, positioned the shafts on the ark and put the mercy-seat on top of the ark.

Exo 40:21 He brought the ark into the Dwelling and put the screening curtain in place, screening the ark of the Testimony, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:22 He put the table inside the Tent of Meeting, against the side of the Dwelling, on the north, outside the curtain, Exo 40:23 and on it arranged the loaves before Yahweh, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:24 He put the lamp-stand inside the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the south side of the Dwelling, Exo 40:25 and set up the lamps before Yahweh, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:26 He put the golden altar inside the Tent of Meeting, in front of the curtain, Exo 40:27 and on it burnt fragrant incense, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:28 He then put the screen at the entrance to the Dwelling.

Exo 40:29 He put the altar of burnt offerings at the entrance to the Dwelling, to the Tent of Meeting, and on it offered the burnt offering and cereal offering, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:30 He put the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for the ablutions,

Exo 40:31 where Moses, Aaron and his sons washed their hands and feet,

Exo 40:32 whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar they washed, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Exo 40:33 He then set up the court round the Dwelling and the altar and set up the screen at the gate-way to the court. Thus Moses completed the work.

Exo 40:34 The cloud then covered the Tent of Meeting and the glory of Yahweh filled the Dwelling.

Exo 40:35 Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting, since the cloud stayed over it and the glory of Yahweh filled the Dwelling.

Exo 40:36 At every stage of their journey, whenever the cloud rose from the Dwelling, the Israelites would resume their march.

Exo 40:37 If the cloud did not rise, they would not resume their march until the day it did rise.

Exo 40:38 For Yahweh's cloud stayed over the Dwelling during the daytime and there was fire inside the cloud at night, for the whole House of Israel to see, at every stage of their journey.

Lev 1:1 Yahweh summoned Moses and, speaking to him from the Tent of Meeting, said, Lev 1:2 'Speak to the Israelites; say to them, "When any of you brings an offering to Yahweh, he can offer an animal either from the herd or from the flock.

Lev 1:3 "If his offering is to be a burnt offering from the herd, he must offer an unblemished male; he will offer it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, to make it acceptable to Yahweh.

Lev 1:4 He must lay his hand on the victim's head, and it will be accepted as effectual for his expiation.

Lev 1:5 He will then slaughter the bull before Yahweh, and the priests descended from Aaron will offer the blood. They will pour it all around the altar which stands at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 1:6 He will then skin the victim and quarter it.

Lev 1:7 The priests descended from Aaron will put a fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Lev 1:8 The priests descended from Aaron will then arrange the quarters, the head and the fat on the wood on the fire on the altar.

Lev 1:9 He will wash the entrails and shins in water, and the priest will burn it all on the altar as a burnt offering, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 1:10 "If his offering is to be of an animal from the flock, of a lamb or a goat to be offered as a burnt offering, he must offer an unblemished male.

Lev 1:11 He will slaughter it on the north side of the altar, before Yahweh, and the priests descended from Aaron will pour the blood all around the altar.

Lev 1:12 He will then quarter it, and the priest will arrange the quarters, the head and the fat on the wood on the fire on the altar.

Lev 1:13 He will wash the entrails and shins in water, and the priest will burn it all on the altar as a burnt offering, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 1:14 "If his offering to Yahweh is to be a burnt offering of a bird, he must offer a turtledove or a young pigeon.

Lev 1:15 The priest will offer it at the altar and wring off its head, which he will burn on the altar; its blood must then be squeezed out on the side of the altar.

Lev 1:16 He will then remove the crop and the feathers and throw them on the eastern side of the altar, where the fatty ashes are put.

Lev 1:17 He will then split it in half with a wing on each side, but without separating the two parts. The priest will then burn it on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire, as a burnt offering, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh."

Lev 2:1 'If anyone offers Yahweh a cereal offering, his offering must consist of wheaten flour on which he must pour wine and put incense.

Lev 2:2 He will bring it to the priests descended from Aaron; he will take a handful of the wheaten flour, some of the oil and all the incense, and this the priest will burn on the altar as a memorial, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 2:3 The remainder of the cereal offering will revert to Aaron and his sons, an especially holy portion of the food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 2:4 "When you offer a cereal offering of dough baked in the oven, the wheaten flour must be prepared either in the form of unleavened cakes mixed with oil, or in the form of unleavened wafers spread with oil.

Lev 2:5 "If your offering is a cereal offering cooked on the griddle, the wheaten flour mixed with oil must contain no leaven.

Lev 2:6 You will break it in pieces and pour oil over it. It is a cereal offering.

Lev 2:7 "If your offering is a cereal offering cooked in the pan, the wheaten flour must be prepared with oil.

Lev 2:8 "You will bring Yahweh the cereal offering thus prepared and present it to the priest; he will take it to the altar.

Lev 2:9 And from the cereal offering the priest will take the memorial and burn it on the altar, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 2:10 The remainder of the cereal offering will revert to Aaron and his descendants: it is especially holy since it is taken from the food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 2:11 "None of the cereal offerings which you offer to Yahweh must be prepared with leaven, for you must never include leaven or honey in food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 2:12 You may offer them to Yahweh as an offering of first-fruits, but they will not make a pleasing smell if they are burnt on the altar.

Lev 2:13 You will put salt in every cereal offering that you offer, and you will not fail to put the salt of the covenant of your God on your cereal offering; to every offering you will add an offering of salt to your God.

Lev 2:14 If you offer Yahweh a cereal offering of first-fruits, you will offer it in the form of roasted ears of wheat or of bread made from ground wheat.

Lev 2:15 You will add oil to it and put incense on it; it is a cereal offering;

Lev 2:16 and from it the priest will burn the memorial with some bread and oil (and all the incense) as food burnt for Yahweh."

Lev 3:1 'If his sacrifice is a communion sacrifice, and if he offers an animal from the herd, be it male or female, whatever he offers before Yahweh must be unblemished.

Lev 3:2 He will lay his hand on the victim's head and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. The priests descended from Aaron will then pour the blood all around the altar.

Lev 3:3 He will offer part of the communion sacrifice as food burnt for Yahweh: the fat covering the entrails, all the fat on the entrails,

Lev 3:4 both kidneys, the fat on them and on the loins, the mass of fat which he will remove from the liver and kidneys.

Lev 3:5 The priests descended from Aaron will then burn this on the altar, in addition to the burnt offering, on the wood of the fire, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 3:6 "If it is an animal from the flock which he offers as a communion sacrifice to Yahweh, be the animal that he offers male or female, it must be unblemished.

Lev 3:7 "If he offers a sheep, he will offer it before Yahweh,

Lev 3:8 he will lay his hand on the victim's head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting; the priests descended from Aaron will then pour its blood all around the altar.

Lev 3:9 Of the communion sacrifice he will offer the following as food burnt for Yahweh: the fat, all the tail taken off near the base of the spine, the fat covering the entrails, all the fat on the entrails,

Lev 3:10 both kidneys, the fat on them and on the loins, the mass of fat which he will remove from the liver and kidneys.

Lev 3:11 The priest will then burn this on the altar as food, as food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 3:12 "If his offering is a goat, he will offer it before Yahweh,

Lev 3:13 he will lay his hand on the victim's head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting, and the descendants of Aaron will then pour its blood all around the altar.

Lev 3:14 This is what he will then offer of it as food burnt for Yahweh: the fat covering the entrails, all the fat on the entrails,

Lev 3:15 both kidneys, the fat on them and on the loins, the mass of fat which he will remove from the liver and kidneys.

Lev 3:16 The priest will then burn these pieces on the altar as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh. "All the fat belongs to Yahweh.

Lev 3:17 This is a perpetual law for all your descendants, wherever you may live: that you will not eat either fat or blood." '

Lev 4:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 4:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "If anyone sins inadvertently against any of Yahweh's commandments and does anything prohibited by them,

Lev 4:3 if the one who sins is the anointed priest, thus making the people guilty, then for the sin which he has committed he must offer Yahweh a young bull, an unblemished animal from the herd, as a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 4:4 He will bring the bull before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, will lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before Yahweh.

Lev 4:5 The anointed priest will then take some of the bull's blood and carry it into the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:6 He will then dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in front of the sanctuary curtain, before Yahweh.

Lev 4:7 The priest will then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of incense smoking before Yahweh in the Tent of Meeting, and will pour all the rest of the bull's blood at the foot of the altar of burnt offerings at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:8 "Of the bull offered as a sacrifice for sin, he will set aside all the fat: the fat covering the entrails, all the fat on the entrails,

Lev 4:9 both kidneys, the fat on them and on the loins, the mass of fat which he will remove from the liver and kidneys-

Lev 4:10 exactly as was done with the portion set aside in the communion sacrifice -- and the priest will burn these pieces on the altar of burnt offerings.

Lev 4:11 "The bull's skin and all its meat, its head, its shins, its entrails and its offal,

Lev 4:12 the whole bull he will then have carried out of the camp to a clean place, the place where the fatty ashes are thrown, and will burn it on a wood fire; it must be burnt where the ashes are thrown.

Lev 4:13 "If the whole community of Israel has sinned inadvertently and, without being aware of it has incurred guilt by doing something forbidden by Yahweh's commandments,

Lev 4:14 once the sin of which it is guilty has been discovered, the community must offer a young bull, an unblemished animal from the herd, as a sacrifice for sin, and bring it in front of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:15 The elders of the community will then lay their hands on the bull's head before Yahweh, and the bull will be slaughtered before Yahweh.

Lev 4:16 "The anointed priest will then take some of the bull's blood into the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:17 He will then dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in front of the curtain, before Yahweh.

Lev 4:18 He will then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar standing before Yahweh inside the Tent of Meeting, and then pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar of burnt offerings at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 4:19 "He will then set aside all the fat from the animal and burn it on the altar.

Lev 4:20 He will then deal with the bull as he did with the bull in the sacrifice for sin. It will be dealt with in the same way; and once the priest has performed the rite of expiation for the people, they will be forgiven.

Lev 4:21 "He will then have the bull carried out of the camp and will burn it as he burned the first one. This is the sacrifice for the sin of the community.

Lev 4:22 "When a leader has sinned and inadvertently incurred guilt by doing something forbidden by the commandments of Yahweh his God

Lev 4:23 (or if the sin which he has committed is drawn to his attention), he must bring a he-goat as his offering, an unblemished male.

Lev 4:24 He will then lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it on the spot where the burnt offerings are slaughtered before Yahweh. This is a sacrifice for sin;

Lev 4:25 the priest will take some of the victim's blood on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offerings. He will then pour the rest of its blood at the foot of the altar of burnt offerings

Lev 4:26 and burn all the fat on the altar, as with the fat in the communion sacrifice. This is how the priest must perform the rite of expiation for him to free him from his sin, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:27 "If one of the country people sins inadvertently and incurs guilt by doing something forbidden by Yahweh's commandments

Lev 4:28 (or if the sin which he has committed is drawn to his attention), he must bring a she-goat as his offering for the sin which he has committed, an unblemished female.

Lev 4:29 He will then lay his hand on the victim's head and slaughter it on the spot where the burnt offerings are slaughtered.

Lev 4:30 The priest will take some of its blood on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offerings. He will then pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar.

Lev 4:31 He will then remove all the fat, as the fat was removed for the communion sacrifice, and the priest will burn it on the altar as a smell pleasing to Yahweh. This is how the priest must perform the rite of expiation for him, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:32 "If he wishes to bring a lamb as an offering for this kind of sacrifice, he must bring an unblemished female.

Lev 4:33 He will then lay his hand on the victim's head and slaughter it as a sacrifice for sin on the spot where the burnt offerings are slaughtered.

Lev 4:34 The priest will take some of the victim's blood on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offerings. He will then pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar.

Lev 4:35 He will then remove all the fat, as was done for the sheep in the communion sacrifice, and the priest will burn it as food burnt for Yahweh. This is how the priest must perform for him the rite of expiation for the sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven."

Lev 5:1 'If someone sins in any of these following cases: "He should have come forward to give evidence when he heard the formal adjuration, having seen the incident or known the facts; but he has not spoken out, and so bears the consequences of his guilt;

Lev 5:2 "or someone touches something unclean, whatever it may be -- the dead body of an unclean animal, wild or tame, or of one of the unclean reptiles -- and without realising it becomes unclean, he becomes answerable for it;

Lev 5:3 "or he touches some human uncleanness, whatever it may be, contact with which makes him unclean; he does not notice it, then, realising it later, he becomes answerable for it;

Lev 5:4 "or someone lets slip an oath to do something either evil or good, in any of those matters on which someone may let slip an oath; he does not notice it, then, realising it later, he becomes answerable for it;

Lev 5:5 "if he is answerable in any of those cases, he will have to confess the sin committed.

Lev 5:6 As a sacrifice of reparation for the sin committed, he will bring Yahweh a female from the flock (sheep or goat) as a sacrifice for sin; and the priest will perform the rite of expiation for him to free him from his sin.

Lev 5:7 "If he cannot afford an animal from the flock as a sacrifice of reparation for the sin he has committed, he will bring Yahweh two turtledoves or two young pigeons -- one as a sacrifice for sin and the other as a burnt offering.

Lev 5:8 He will bring them to the priest who will first offer the one intended for the sacrifice for sin. The priest will wring its neck but not remove the head.

Lev 5:9 He will sprinkle the side of the altar with the victim's blood, and then squeeze out the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar. This is a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 5:10 He will then offer the other bird as a burnt offering according to the ritual. This is how the priest must perform the rite of expiation for the person for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:11 "If he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, he will bring a tenth of an ephah of wheaten flour as an offering for the sin committed; he must not mix oil with it or put incense on it, since this is a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 5:12 He will bring it to the priest, who will take a handful of it as a memorial, and burn this on the altar in addition to the offerings of food burnt for Yahweh. This is a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 5:13 This is how the priest must perform the rite of expiation for the person for the sin he has committed in any of those cases, and he will be forgiven. In this case, the priest has the same rights as in the case of a cereal offering."

Lev 5:14 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 5:15 'If someone is unfaithful and sins inadvertently by infringing Yahweh's sacred rights, as a sacrifice of reparation he must bring Yahweh an unblemished ram from his flock, the value of which will be decided by you in silver shekels according to the rate of the sanctuary-shekel.

Lev 5:16 He will make amends for what his sin subtracted from the sacred rights, adding one-fifth to the value, and give it to the priest. The priest will then perform the rite of expiation for him with the ram for the sacrifice of reparation and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:17 'If someone sins and without realising it does one of the things forbidden by Yahweh's commandments, he will answer for it and bear the consequences of his guilt.'

Lev 5:18 As a sacrifice of reparation he must bring the priest an unblemished ram from his flock to the value which you decide, and the priest will perform the rite of expiation for him for the oversight unwittingly committed, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 5:19 This is a sacrifice of reparation; the man was certainly answerable to Yahweh.'

Lev 5:20 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 5:21 'If someone sins and is unfaithful against Yahweh by deceiving his fellow-countryman over a deposit or a security, or by withholding something due to him or by exploiting him;

Lev 5:22 'or if he finds lost property and denies it; 'or if he perjures himself about anything that a human being may do criminally in such matters;

Lev 5:23 'if he sins and so becomes answerable, he must restore what he has taken or demanded in excess: the deposit confided to him, the lost property that he has found,

Lev 5:24 or any object about which he has perjured himself. He will add one-fifth to the principal and pay the whole to the person who held the property rights on the day when he incurred the guilt.'

Lev 5:25 He will then bring Yahweh an unblemished ram from his flock to the value which you decide, to the priest as a sacrifice of reparation,

Lev 5:26 and the priest will perform the rite of expiation for him before Yahweh and he will be forgiven, whatever the act by which he incurred guilt.'

Lev 6:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 6:2 'Give these orders to Aaron and his sons: "This is the ritual for the burnt offering (that is, the burnt offering that stays on the altar brazier all night until morning and is consumed by the altar fire).

Lev 6:3 "The priest will put on his linen tunic and put his linen drawers on to cover himself. He will then remove the fatty ashes of the burnt offering consumed by the altar fire and put them at the side of the altar.

Lev 6:4 He will then take off his clothes, put on others and carry the ashes to a clean place outside the camp.

Lev 6:5 "The fire on the altar that consumes the burnt offering must not be allowed to go out. Every morning the priest will make it up with wood, arranging the burnt offering on it and burning the fat from the communion sacrifices.

Lev 6:6 The fire must always be burning on the altar; it must never go out.

Lev 6:7 'This is the ritual for the cereal offering: "One of the descendants of Aaron will bring it into Yahweh's presence in front of the altar,

Lev 6:8 will take a handful of the wheaten flour (with the oil and all the incense which have been added to it) and burn the memorial on the altar as a smell pleasing to Yahweh;

Lev 6:9 and Aaron and his sons will eat the remainder in the form of unleavened loaves. They will eat it inside the holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 6:10 The portion I give them of the food burnt for me must not be baked with leaven; it is especially holy, like the sacrifice for sin and the sacrifice of reparation.

Lev 6:11 All male descendants of Aaron are entitled to eat this portion of the food burnt for Yahweh (this is a perpetual law for all your descendants) and anyone who touches it will become holy.'

Lev 6:12 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 6:13 'This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must make to Yahweh on the day they are anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of wheaten flour as a perpetual cereal offering, half in the morning and half in the evening.

Lev 6:14 It will be prepared on the griddle and mixed with oil; you will bring the paste as a cereal offering in several pieces, offering them as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 6:15 When one of his sons is anointed priest to succeed him, he will do the same. This is a perpetual law. 'The entire cereal offering will be burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 6:16 Every cereal offering made by a priest will be a total sacrifice; none of it will be eaten.'

Lev 6:17 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Lev 6:18 'Speak to Aaron and his sons and say: "This is the ritual for the sacrifice for sin: "The victim must be slaughtered before Yahweh on the spot where the burnt offerings are slaughtered. It is especially holy.'

Lev 6:19 The priest who offers this sacrifice will eat it. It will be eaten inside the holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 6:20 Everything touching the victim's meat will become holy, and if any of the blood splashes on clothing, the stain will be washed off inside the holy place.

Lev 6:21 The earthenware vessel in which the meat is cooked must be broken; if a bronze vessel has been used for the cooking, it must be scrubbed and thoroughly rinsed with water.

Lev 6:22 Any male who is a priest may eat the sacrifice. It is especially holy.'

Lev 6:23 But no one may eat any of the victims offered for sin, the blood of which has been taken into the Tent of Meeting to make expiation inside the sanctuary. These must be burnt." '

Lev 7:1 ' "This is the ritual for the sacrifice of reparation: "It is especially holy.

Lev 7:2 The victim must be slaughtered where the burnt offerings are slaughtered, and the priest will pour the blood all around the altar.

Lev 7:3 He will then offer all the fat: the tail, the fat covering the entrails,

Lev 7:4 both kidneys, the fat on them and on the loins, the mass of fat which he will remove from the liver and kidneys.

Lev 7:5 The priest will burn these pieces on the altar as food burnt for Yahweh. This is a sacrifice of reparation.

Lev 7:6 Every male who is a priest may eat it. It will be eaten inside the holy place; it is especially holy.

Lev 7:7 "As with the sacrifice for sin, so with the sacrifice of reparation -- the ritual is the same for both. The offering with which the priest performs the rite of expiation will revert to the priest.

Lev 7:8 The hide of the victim presented by someone to the priest to be offered as a burnt offering will revert to the priest.

Lev 7:9 Every cereal offering baked in the oven, every cereal offering cooked in the pan or on the griddle will revert to the priest who offers it.

Lev 7:10 Every cereal offering, mixed with oil or dry, will revert to all the descendants of Aaron without distinction.

Lev 7:11 "This is the ritual for the communion sacrifice to be offered to Yahweh:

Lev 7:12 "If this is offered as a sacrifice with praise, to the latter must be added an offering of unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and wheaten flour in the form of cakes mixed with oil.

Lev 7:13 This offering, then, must be added to the cakes of leavened bread and to the communion sacrifice with praise.

Lev 7:14 One of the cakes of this offering must be presented as an offering to Yahweh; it will revert to the priest who pours out the blood of the communion sacrifice.

Lev 7:15 The meat of the victim will be eaten on the day the offering is made; nothing may be left until next morning.

Lev 7:16 "If the victim is offered as a votive or a voluntary sacrifice, it must be eaten on the day it is offered, and the remainder may be eaten on the following day;

Lev 7:17 but on the third day whatever is left of the meat of the victim must be burnt.

Lev 7:18 "If any of the meat of a victim offered as a communion sacrifice is eaten on the third day, the person who has offered it will not be acceptable and will receive no credit for it. It will count as rotten meat, and the person who eats it will bear the consequences of the guilt.

Lev 7:19 "Meat that has touched anything unclean cannot be eaten; it must be burnt. "Anyone clean may eat the meat,

Lev 7:20 but anyone unclean who eats the meat of a communion sacrifice offered to Yahweh will be outlawed from his people.

Lev 7:21 Furthermore, if anyone touches anything unclean, human or animal, or any foul thing, and then eats the meat of a communion sacrifice offered to Yahweh, that individual will be outlawed from his people." '

Lev 7:22 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Lev 7:23 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "You may not eat the fat of ox, sheep or goat.

Lev 7:24 The fat of an animal that has died a natural death or been savaged by beasts may be used for any other purpose, but you are not to eat it.

Lev 7:25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal offered as food burnt for Yahweh will be outlawed from his people.

Lev 7:26 "Wherever you live, you will never eat blood, whether it be of bird or of beast.

Lev 7:27 Anyone who eats any blood will be outlawed from his people." '

Lev 7:28 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Lev 7:29 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "Anyone who offers Yahweh a communion sacrifice must bring him part of his sacrifice as an offering.

Lev 7:30 He must bring the food to be burnt for Yahweh, that is to say, the fat adhering to the forequarters, with his own hands. He will bring it, and also the forequarters, with which he will make the gesture of offering before Yahweh.

Lev 7:31 The priest will then burn the fat on the altar, and the forequarters will revert to Aaron and his descendants.

Lev 7:32 You will set aside the right thigh from your communion sacrifice and give it to the priest.

Lev 7:33 The right thigh will be the portion of the descendant of Aaron who offers the blood and fat of the communion sacrifice.

Lev 7:34 For I have deprived the Israelites of the forequarter offered and the thigh presented in their communion sacrifices, and given them to the priest Aaron and his descendants; this is a perpetual law for the Israelites." '

Lev 7:35 Such was the portion of Aaron and his descendants in the food burnt for Yahweh, the day he presented them to Yahweh for them to become his priests.

Lev 7:36 This was what Yahweh ordered the Israelites to give them on the day they were anointed: a perpetual law for all their descendants.

Lev 7:37 Such was the ritual for burnt offering, cereal offering, sacrifice for sin, sacrifice of reparation, investiture sacrifice and communion sacrifice,

Lev 7:38 which Yahweh laid down for Moses on Mount Sinai, the day he ordered the Israelites to make their offerings to Yahweh in the desert of Sinai.

Lev 8:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 8:2 'Take Aaron and with him his sons, the vestments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sacrifice for sin, the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread.'

Lev 8:3 Then call the whole community together at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.'

Lev 8:4 Moses did as Yahweh ordered; the community gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Lev 8:5 and Moses said to them, 'This is what Yahweh has ordered to be done.'

Lev 8:6 He made Aaron and his sons come forward and washed them with water.

Lev 8:7 He then dressed him in the tunic, passed the waistband round his waist, vested him in the robe and put the ephod on him. He then put the waistband of the ephod round his waist, fastening it to him.

Lev 8:8 He put the breastplate on him, and placed the urim and thummim in it.

Lev 8:9 He put the turban on his head, and on the front of the turban, the golden flower; this was the symbol of holy consecration, which Yahweh had prescribed to Moses.

Lev 8:10 Moses then took the anointing oil and anointed the Dwelling and everything inside it, to consecrate them.

Lev 8:11 He sprinkled the altar seven times and anointed the altar and its accessories, the basin and its stand, to consecrate them.

Lev 8:12 He then poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him.

Lev 8:13 Moses then made Aaron's sons come forward; he dressed them in tunics, passed the waistbands round their waists and put on their head-dresses, as Yahweh had ordered him.

Lev 8:14 He then had the bull for the sacrifice for sin brought forward. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the victim's head

Lev 8:15 and Moses slaughtered it. He then took the blood and with his finger put some of it on the horns on the corners of the altar to purify the altar. He then poured the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar, which he consecrated by performing the rite of expiation over it.

Lev 8:16 He then took all the fat covering the entrails, the mass of fat over the liver, both kidneys and their fat; and he burnt this on the altar,

Lev 8:17 but the bull's skin, its meat and its offal he burnt outside the camp, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Lev 8:18 He then had the ram for the burnt offering brought forward. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the ram's head

Lev 8:19 and Moses slaughtered it. He poured its blood all around the altar.

Lev 8:20 He then quartered the ram and burned the head, the quarters and the fat.

Lev 8:21 He then washed the entrails and shins, and burnt the whole ram on the altar, as a burnt offering, offered to be a pleasing smell, as food burnt for Yahweh, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Lev 8:22 He then had the other ram brought forward, the ram for the investiture sacrifice. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head

Lev 8:23 and Moses slaughtered it. He took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 8:24 He then made Aaron's sons come forward and he put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Next, Moses poured the rest of the blood all around the altar.

Lev 8:25 He then took the fat: the tail, all the fat covering the entrails, the mass of fat over the liver, both kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh.

Lev 8:26 From the basket of unleavened bread placed before Yahweh, he took an unleavened cake, a cake of bread made with oil, and a wafer; he placed these on the fat and the right thigh,

Lev 8:27 and put it all into Aaron's hands and those of his sons, and made the gesture of offering before Yahweh.

Lev 8:28 Moses then took them away from them and burned them on the altar, with the burnt offering. This was the investiture sacrifice, offered to be a pleasing smell, as food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 8:29 Moses then took the forequarter and made the gesture of offering before Yahweh. This was the portion of the ram of investiture that reverted to Moses, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Lev 8:30 Moses then took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled

Aaron and his vestments, and his sons and their vestments, with it. In this way he consecrated Aaron and his vestments and his sons and their vestments.

Lev 8:31 Moses then said to Aaron and his sons, 'Cook the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and eat it there, as also the bread of the investiture sacrifice still in the basket of the investiture offerings, as I ordered, when I said, "Aaron and his sons must eat it."

Lev 8:32 What remains of the meat and bread you will burn.

Lev 8:33 For seven days you will not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, until the time of your investiture is complete; for your investiture will require seven days.

Lev 8:34 Yahweh has ordered us to do as we have done today to perform the rite of expiation for you;

Lev 8:35 hence, for seven days, day and night, you will remain at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting observing Yahweh's ritual; do this, and you will not incur death. For this was the order I received.'

Lev 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything that Yahweh had ordered through Moses.

Lev 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

Lev 9:2 he said to Aaron, 'Take a calf to offer a sacrifice for sin, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before Yahweh.

Lev 9:3 Then say to the Israelites, "Take a goat to be offered as a sacrifice for sin, a calf and a lamb one year old (both without blemish) for a burnt offering,

Lev 9:4 a bull and a ram for communion sacrifices to be slaughtered before Yahweh, and a cereal offering mixed with oil. For Yahweh will appear to you today." '

Lev 9:5 They brought what Moses had ordered in front of the Tent of Meeting; then the whole community approached and stood before Yahweh.

Lev 9:6 Moses then said, 'This is what Yahweh has ordered you to do, so that his glory may be visible to you.'

Lev 9:7 Moses then addressed Aaron, 'Go to the altar and offer your sacrifice for sin and your burnt offering, and so perform the rite of expiation for yourself and your family. Then present the people's offering and perform the rite of expiation for them, as Yahweh has ordered.'

Lev 9:8 Aaron went to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sacrifice for his own sin.

Lev 9:9 Aaron's sons then presented the blood to him; he dipped his finger in it and put some on the horns of the altar, and then poured the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar.

Lev 9:10 The fat of the sacrifice for sin and the kidneys and the mass of fat over the liver he burned on the altar, as Yahweh had ordered Moses,

Lev 9:11 and the meat and the skin he burned outside the camp.

Lev 9:12 He then slaughtered the burnt offering; Aaron's sons then handed him the blood, which he poured all around the altar.

Lev 9:13 They then handed him the quartered victim and the head, and he burned these on the altar.

Lev 9:14 He then washed the entrails and shins and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

Lev 9:15 He then presented the people's offering. He took the goat for the people's sacrifice for sin, slaughtered it, and made a sacrifice for sin with it in the same way as with the first.

Lev 9:16 He then had the burnt offering brought forward and proceeded according to the ritual.

Lev 9:17 He then had the cereal offering brought forward, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

Lev 9:18 Then he slaughtered the bull and the ram as a communion sacrifice for the people. Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he poured it all around the altar.

Lev 9:19 The fat of the bull and the ram, the tail, the covering fat, the kidneys, the mass of fat over the liver,

Lev 9:20 he placed on the ribs and then burned on the altar.

Lev 9:21 With the ribs and the right thigh Aaron made the gesture of offering as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Lev 9:22 Aaron then raised his hands towards the people and blessed them. Having thus performed the sacrifice for sin, the burnt offering and the communion sacrifice, he came down

Lev 9:23 and entered the Tent of Meeting with Moses. Then they came out together to bless the people and the glory of Yahweh appeared to the entire people:

Lev 9:24 a flame leapt out from Yahweh's presence and consumed the burnt offering and fat on the altar. At this sight the entire people shouted for joy and fell on their faces.

Lev 10:1 Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu each took his censer, put fire in it and incense on the fire, and presented unauthorised fire before Yahweh, which was not in accordance with his orders.

Lev 10:2 At this a flame leapt out from Yahweh's presence and swallowed them up, and they perished before Yahweh.

Lev 10:3 Moses then said to Aaron, 'That is what Yahweh meant when he said: In those who are close to me I show my holiness, and before all the people I show my glory.' Aaron remained silent.

Lev 10:4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, 'Come here and take your brothers away from the sanctuary, out of the camp.'

Lev 10:5 They came and carried them away, still in their tunics, out of the camp, as Moses had said.

Lev 10:6 Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, 'Do not disorder your hair or tear your clothes; or you may incur death and his retribution may overtake the whole community. No, it is for the entire House of Israel to lament your brothers who have been the victims of Yahweh's fire.'

Lev 10:7 To avoid incurring death, do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, for Yahweh's anointing oil is on you.' And they did as Moses said.

Lev 10:8 Yahweh spoke to Aaron and said:

Lev 10:9 'When you come to the Tent of Meeting, you and your sons with you, to avoid incurring death you may not drink wine or any other fermented liquor. This is a perpetual law for all your descendants.'

Lev 10:10 And so shall it be also when you separate the sacred from the profane, the unclean from the clean,

Lev 10:11 and when you teach the Israelites any of the decrees that Yahweh has pronounced for them through Moses.'

Lev 10:12 Moses said to Aaron and his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, 'Take the cereal offering left over from the food burnt for Yahweh. Eat the unleavened part of it beside the altar, since it is especially holy.'

Lev 10:13 Eat it in the holy place, since it is the portion of the food burnt for Yahweh that is prescribed for you and your sons; this is the order I have received.'

Lev 10:14 'You, your sons and daughters with you, will eat in a clean place the forequarter offered and the thigh presented, for these have been given to you and your children as your due from the Israelites' communion sacrifices.'

Lev 10:15 The thigh presented and the forequarter offered, once the fat has been burnt, revert to you and your sons with you, after they have been presented before Yahweh with the gesture of offering, in virtue of a perpetual law as Yahweh has ordered.'

Lev 10:16 Moses then enquired carefully about the goat offered as a sacrifice for sin, and found that they had burnt it. He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's surviving sons, and said,

Lev 10:17 'Why did you not eat this victim for sin in the holy place, since it is especially holy and was given to you to take away the community's guilt, by performing the rite of expiation for them before Yahweh?'

Lev 10:18 Since its blood was not taken inside the sanctuary, you should have eaten its meat there, as I ordered you.'

Lev 10:19 Aaron said to Moses, 'Look, today they offered their sacrifice for sin and their burnt offering before Yahweh, and these disasters have befallen me. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would this have met with Yahweh's approval?'

Lev 10:20 And when Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Lev 11:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and said to them,

Lev 11:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "Of all animals living on land these are the creatures you may eat:

Lev 11:3 "You may eat any animal that has a cloven hoof, divided into two parts, and that is a ruminant.

Lev 11:4 The following, which either chew the cud or have a cloven hoof, are the ones that you may not eat: you will regard the camel as unclean, because though it is ruminant, it does not have a cloven hoof;

Lev 11:5 you will regard the coney as unclean, because though it is ruminant, it does not have a cloven hoof;

Lev 11:6 you will regard the hare as unclean, because though it is ruminant, it does not have a cloven hoof;

Lev 11:7 you will regard the pig as unclean, because though it has a cloven hoof, divided into two parts, it is not a ruminant.

Lev 11:8 You will not eat the meat of these or touch their dead bodies; you will regard them as unclean.

Lev 11:9 "Of all that lives in water, these you may eat: "Anything that has fins and scales, and lives in the water, whether in sea or river, you may eat.

Lev 11:10 But anything in sea or river that does not have fins and scales, of all the small water-creatures and all the living things found there, you will regard as detestable.

Lev 11:11 You will regard them as detestable; you must not eat their meat and you will regard their carcases as detestable.

Lev 11:12 Anything that lives in water, but not having fins and scales, you will regard as detestable.

Lev 11:13 "Of the birds these are the ones that you will regard as detestable; they may not be eaten, they are detestable for eating: "The tawny vulture, the griffon, the osprey,

Lev 11:14 the kite, the various kinds of buzzard,

Lev 11:15 all kinds of raven,

Lev 11:16 the ostrich, the screech owl, the seagull, the various kinds of hawk,

Lev 11:17 horned owl, night owl, cormorant, barn owl,

Lev 11:18 ibis, pelican, white vulture,

Lev 11:19 stork, the various kinds of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

Lev 11:20 "All winged insects moving on four feet you will regard as detestable for eating.

Lev 11:21 Of all these winged insects you may eat only the following: those with the sort of legs above their feet which enable them to leap over the ground.

Lev 11:22 These are the ones you may eat: the various kinds of migratory locust, the various kinds of solham locust, hargol locust and hagab locust.

Lev 11:23 But all other winged insects on four feet you will regard as detestable for eating.

Lev 11:24 "By the following you will be made unclean. Anyone who touches the carcase of one will be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:25 Anyone who picks up their carcases must wash his clothing and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:26 Animals that have hoofs, but not cloven, and that are not ruminant, you will regard as unclean; anyone who touches them will be unclean.

Lev 11:27 Those four-footed animals which walk on the flat of their paws you will regard as unclean; anyone who touches their carcases will be unclean until evening,

Lev 11:28 and anyone who picks up their carcases must wash his clothing and will be unclean until evening. You will regard them as unclean.

Lev 11:29 "Of the small creatures which crawl along the ground, these are the ones which you will regard as unclean: the mole, the rat, the various kinds of lizard:

Lev 11:30 gecko, koah, letaah, chameleon and tinshamet.

Lev 11:31 "Of all the small creatures, these are the animals which you must regard as disgusting. Anyone who touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:32 "Any object on which one of these creatures falls when it is dead becomes unclean: wooden utensil, clothing, skin, sacking, any utensil whatever. It must be immersed in water and will remain unclean until evening: then it will be clean.

Lev 11:33 If the creature falls into an earthenware vessel, the vessel must be broken; whatever the vessel contains is unclean.

Lev 11:34 Any edible food will be unclean if the water touches it; any drinkable liquid will be unclean, no matter what its container.

Lev 11:35 Anything on which the carcase of such a creature may fall will be unclean: be it oven or stove, it must be destroyed; for they are unclean and you will regard them as unclean

Lev 11:36 (although springs, wells and stretches of water will remain clean); anyone who touches one of their carcases will be unclean.

Lev 11:37 If one of their carcases falls on any kind of seed, the seed will remain clean;

Lev 11:38 but if the seed has been moistened and one of their carcases falls on it, you will regard it as unclean.

Lev 11:39 "If one of the animals that you use as food dies, anyone who touches the carcase will be unclean until evening;

Lev 11:40 anyone who eats any of the carcase must wash his clothing and will remain unclean until evening; anyone who picks up the carcase must wash his clothing and will remain unclean until evening.

Lev 11:41 "Any creature that swarms on the ground is detestable for eating; it must not be eaten.

Lev 11:42 Anything that moves on its belly, anything that moves on four legs or more -- in short all the creatures that swarm on the ground -- you will not eat, since they are detestable.

Lev 11:43 Do not make yourselves detestable with all these swarming creatures; do not defile yourselves with them, do not be defiled by them.

Lev 11:44 For it is I, Yahweh, who am your God. You have been sanctified and have become holy because I am holy: do not defile yourselves with all these creatures that swarm on the ground.

Lev 11:45 Yes, it is I, Yahweh, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God: you must therefore be holy because I am holy."

Lev 11:46 Such is the law concerning animals, birds, all living creatures that move in water and all creatures that swarm on the ground.

Lev 11:47 Its purpose is to distinguish the clean from the unclean, the creatures that may be eaten from those that may not be eaten.

Lev 12:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Lev 12:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "If a woman becomes pregnant and gives birth to a boy, she will be unclean for seven days as when in a state of pollution due to menstruation.

Lev 12:3 On the eighth day the child's foreskin must be circumcised,

Lev 12:4 and she will wait another thirty-three days for her blood to be purified. She will not touch anything consecrated nor go to the sanctuary until the time of her purification is over.

Lev 12:5 "If she gives birth to a girl, she will be unclean for two weeks, as during her monthly periods; and will wait another sixty-six days for her blood to be purified.

Lev 12:6 "When the period of her purification is over, for either boy or girl, she will bring the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a lamb one year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or turtledove as a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 12:7 The priest must offer this before Yahweh, perform the rite of expiation for her, and she will be purified from her discharge of blood. "Such is the law concerning a woman who gives birth to either a boy or a girl.

Lev 12:8 If she cannot afford a lamb, she must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for the burnt offering and the other for the sacrifice for sin. The priest will perform the rite of expiation for her and she will be purified." '

Lev 13:1 Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,

Lev 13:2 'If a swelling or scab or spot appears on someone's skin, which could develop into a contagious skin-disease, that person must then be taken to the priest, either Aaron or one of his sons.

Lev 13:3 The priest will examine the disease on the skin. If the hair on the diseased part has turned white, or if the disease bites into the skin, the skin-disease is contagious, and after examination the priest will declare the person unclean.

Lev 13:4 But if there is a white spot on the skin without any visible depression of the skin or whitening of the hair, the priest will isolate the sick person for seven days.

Lev 13:5 On the seventh day he will examine the person, and if he observes that the disease persists though without spreading over the skin, he will isolate the person for a further seven days

Lev 13:6 and examine him again on the seventh. If he finds that the disease has faded and has not spread over the skin, the priest will declare the person clean. This was merely a scab. Once he has washed his clothing he will be clean.

Lev 13:7 'But if the scab spreads over the skin after the sick person has been examined by the priest and declared clean, then he will let himself be examined again by the priest.

Lev 13:8 After examining him and certifying the spread of the scab over the skin, the priest will declare him unclean: it is a contagious skin-disease.

Lev 13:9 'Someone who has a contagious skin-disease must be taken to the priest.

Lev 13:10 The priest will examine the sick person, and if he finds a whitish swelling with whitening of the hair and an ulcer forming on the skin,

Lev 13:11 this is a dormant skin-disease, and the priest will declare the person unclean. He will not isolate him; he is obviously unclean.

Lev 13:12 'But if the disease spreads all through the skin, if it covers the person entirely from head to foot so far as the priest can see,

Lev 13:13 the priest will then examine the sick person and, if he finds that the skin-disease covers his whole body, declare the sick person clean. Since it has all become white, he is clean.

Lev 13:14 But as soon as an ulcer appears on him, he will be unclean.

Lev 13:15 After examining the ulcer, the priest will declare him unclean: the ulcer is unclean, it is contagious.

Lev 13:16 But if the ulcer becomes white again, the sick person will go to the priest;

Lev 13:17 the priest will examine him and if he finds that the disease has turned white, he will declare the sick person clean: he is clean.

Lev 13:18 'When an ulcer appears on someone's skin, and then gets better,

Lev 13:19 and if then a white swelling or a reddish-white spot forms on the same place, the sick person will show himself to the priest.

Lev 13:20 The priest will examine him, and if he finds a visible depression in the skin and a whitening of the hair, he will declare the person unclean: this is a case of contagious skin-disease breaking out in an ulcer.

Lev 13:21 But if on examination the priest finds neither white hair nor depression of the skin, but a fading of the affected part, he will isolate the sick person for seven days.

Lev 13:22 If the disease has then spread over the skin, he will declare the person unclean: this is a case of contagious skin-disease.

Lev 13:23 But if the spot has stayed where it was and has not spread, it is the scar of the ulcer and the priest will declare the person clean.

Lev 13:24 'If someone has a burn on the skin and an abscess, a reddish-white or white spot, forms on the burn,

Lev 13:25 the priest will then examine it. If he finds a whitening of the hair or a visible depression of the mark on the skin, a contagious disease has broken out in the burn. The priest will declare the sick person unclean: this is a contagious skin-disease.

Lev 13:26 If on the other hand the priest on examination does not find white hair on the mark or depression of the skin, but a fading of the mark, the priest will isolate the person for seven days.

Lev 13:27 He will examine the person on the seventh day and, if the disease has spread over the skin, he will declare the sick person unclean: this is a case of contagious skin-disease.

Lev 13:28 If the mark has stayed where it was and has not spread over the skin, but has faded instead, it was only a swelling due to the burn. The priest will declare the person clean: it is merely a burn scar.

Lev 13:29 'If a man or a woman has a sore on the head or chin,

Lev 13:30 the priest will examine the sore; and if he finds a depression visible in the skin, with the hair on it yellow and thin, he will declare the sick person unclean: this is tinea, that is to say, a contagious skin-disease of the head or chin.

Lev 13:31 If on examining this case of tinea the priest finds no visible depression in the skin and no yellow hair, he will isolate the person so affected for seven days.

Lev 13:32 He will examine the infected part on the seventh day, and if he finds that the tinea has not spread, that the hair on it is not yellow, and that there is no visible depression in the skin,

Lev 13:33 the sick person will shave his hair off, all except the part affected with tinea, and the priest will again isolate him for seven days.

Lev 13:34 He will examine the infected part on the seventh day, and if he finds that it has not spread over the skin, and that there is no visible depression of the skin, the priest will declare the sick person clean. After washing his clothes the person will be clean.

Lev 13:35 But if after this purification the tinea does spread over the skin,

Lev 13:36 the priest will examine the person; if he finds that the tinea has indeed spread over the skin, the sick person is unclean, and there is no need to verify whether the hair is yellow.

Lev 13:37 Whereas if, so far as he can see, the tinea is arrested and dark hair is beginning to grow on it, the sick person is cured. He is clean, and the priest will declare him clean.

Lev 13:38 'If spots break out on the skin of a man or woman, and if these spots are white,

Lev 13:39 the priest will examine them. If he finds that the spots are of a dull white, this is a rash that has broken out on the skin: the sick person is clean.

Lev 13:40 'If someone loses the hair of the scalp, this is baldness of the scalp but the person is clean.

Lev 13:41 If he loses hair off the front of the head, this is baldness of the forehead but the person is clean.

Lev 13:42 If, however, a reddish-white sore appears on scalp or forehead, a contagious skin-disease has broken out on the scalp or forehead.

Lev 13:43 The priest will examine it, and if he finds a reddish-white swelling on scalp or forehead, looking like a contagious skin-disease,

Lev 13:44 the person has such a disease: he is unclean. The priest will declare him unclean; he has a contagious skin-disease of the head.

Lev 13:45 'Anyone with a contagious skin-disease will wear torn clothing and disordered hair; and will cover the upper lip and shout, "Unclean, unclean."

Lev 13:46 As long as the disease lasts, such a person will be unclean and, being unclean, will live alone and live outside the camp.

Lev 13:47 'When a piece of clothing is infected with mould, be it woollen or linen clothing,

Lev 13:48 linen or woollen fabric or covering, or leather or anything made of leather,

Lev 13:49 if the spot on the clothing, leather, fabric, covering or object made of leather is a greenish or reddish colour, it is a disease to be shown to the priest.

Lev 13:50 The priest will examine the infection and isolate the object for seven days.

Lev 13:51 If on the seventh day he observes that the infection has spread on the clothing, fabric, covering, leather or object made of leather, whatever it may be, this is a contagious disease and the object is unclean.

Lev 13:52 He will burn this clothing, fabric, linen or woollen covering or leather object whatever it may be, on which the infection has appeared; for this is a contagious disease which must be destroyed by fire.

Lev 13:53 'But if on examination the priest finds that the infection has not spread on the clothing, fabric, covering, or leather object whatever it may be,

Lev 13:54 he will order the infected object to be washed and will isolate it again for a period of seven days.

Lev 13:55 After the washing, he will examine the infection and if he finds that there is no change in its appearance, even though it has not spread, the article is unclean. You will burn it; it is infected through and through.

Lev 13:56 'But if on examination the priest finds that the infection has diminished after washing, he will tear it out of the clothing, leather, fabric or covering.

Lev 13:57 But if the infection reappears on the same clothing, fabric, covering or leather object whatever it may be, this means that the infection is active; you will burn whatever is infected.

Lev 13:58 The clothing, fabric, covering or leather object whatever it may be, from which the infection disappears after being washed, will be clean after it has been washed a second time.

Lev 13:59 'Such is the law governing disease in a linen or woollen garment, a fabric or covering or leather object whatever it may be, when it is a question of declaring them clean or unclean.'

Lev 14:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 14:2 'This is the law to be applied on the day of the purification of someone who has suffered from a contagious skin-disease. Such a person will be taken to the priest,

Lev 14:3 and the priest will go outside the camp. If he finds on examination that the person has recovered from the disease,

Lev 14:4 he will order the following to be brought for his purification: two live birds that are clean, some cedar wood, scarlet material and hyssop.

Lev 14:5 He will then order one of the birds to be slaughtered in an earthenware pot over running water.

Lev 14:6 He will then take the live bird, the cedar wood, the scarlet material and the hyssop and dip all this (including the live bird) into the blood of the bird slaughtered over running water.

Lev 14:7 He will then sprinkle the person to be purified of the skin-disease seven times, and having declared the person clean, will set the live bird free to fly off into the countryside.

Lev 14:8 The person who is being purified will then wash all clothing, shave off all hair, and wash, and will then be clean. After this he will return to the camp, although he will remain outside his tent for seven days.

Lev 14:9 On the seventh day he will shave off all his hair-head, beard and eyebrows; he will shave off all his hair. After washing his clothing and his body he will be clean.

Lev 14:10 'On the eighth day he will take two unblemished lambs, an unblemished ewe one year old, three-tenths of wheaten flour mixed with oil for the cereal offering, and one log of oil.

Lev 14:11 The priest who is performing the purification will place the person who is being purified, with all his offerings, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, before Yahweh.

Lev 14:12 He will then take one of the lambs and offer it as a sacrifice of reparation, as also the log of oil. With these he will make the gesture of offering before Yahweh.

Lev 14:13 He will then slaughter the lamb on that spot inside the holy place where the victims for the sacrifice for sin and for the burnt offering are slaughtered. This reparatory offering, like the sacrifice for sin, will revert to the priest: it is especially holy.

Lev 14:14 The priest will then take some blood of this sacrifice and put it on the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand, and the big toe of the right foot of the person who is being purified.

Lev 14:15 He will then take the log of oil and pour a little into the hollow of his left hand.

Lev 14:16 He will dip a finger of his right hand into the oil in the hollow of his left hand, and sprinkle the oil with his finger seven times before Yahweh.

Lev 14:17 He will then take some of the oil left in the hollow of his hand and put it on the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand, and the big toe of the right foot of the person being purified, in addition to the blood of the sacrifice of reparation.

Lev 14:18 The rest of the oil in the hollow of his hand he will put on the head of the person who is being purified. This is how the priest will perform the rite of expiation for such a person before Yahweh.

Lev 14:19 'The priest will then offer the sacrifice for sin, and perform the rite of expiation for uncleanness for the person who is being purified. After this, he will slaughter the burnt offering Lev 14:20 and offer this and the cereal offering on the altar. So, when the priest has performed the rite of expiation for him the person will be clean.

Lev 14:21 'If he is poor and cannot afford all this, he need take only one lamb, the one for the sacrifice of reparation, and this will be presented with the gesture of offering to perform the rite of expiation for him. And for the cereal offering he will only take one-tenth of wheaten flour mixed with oil, and the log of oil,

Lev 14:22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whichever he can afford, one for a sacrifice for sin and the other for the burnt offering.

Lev 14:23 He will bring these on the eighth day to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh, for his purification.

Lev 14:24 The priest will take the lamb for the sacrifice of reparation and the log of oil, and present them before Yahweh with the gesture of offering.

Lev 14:25 He will then slaughter the lamb for the sacrifice of reparation, take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand and the big toe of the right foot of the person who is being purified.

Lev 14:26 He will pour the oil into the hollow of his left hand,

Lev 14:27 and with his finger sprinkle the oil in the hollow of his left hand seven times before Yahweh.

Lev 14:28 He will then put some of the oil on the lobe of the right ear, the thumb of the right hand and the big toe of the right foot of the person who is being purified, as he did with the blood of the sacrifice of reparation.

Lev 14:29 The remainder of the oil in the hollow of his hand he will put on the head of the person who is being purified, thus performing the rite of expiation for him before Yahweh.

Lev 14:30 Of the two turtledoves or two young pigeons -- whatever he has been able to afford -- he will offer

Lev 14:31 a sacrifice for sin with one, and with the other a burnt offering with a cereal offering -- whatever he has been able to afford. This is how the priest will perform before Yahweh the rite of expiation for the person who is being purified.

Lev 14:32 'Such is the law concerning someone with a contagious skin-disease who cannot afford the means of purification.'

Lev 14:33 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and said:

Lev 14:34 'When you reach Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, if I infect a house with a disease in the country which you are to possess,

Lev 14:35 the owner will come and inform the priest and say, "I have seen something like a skin-disease in the house."

Lev 14:36 The priest will order the house to be emptied before he goes to examine the infection, or everything in the house will become unclean; after which, the priest will go inside and examine the house;

Lev 14:37 and if on examination he finds the walls of the house pitted with reddish or greenish depressions which appear to be eating away the wall,

Lev 14:38 the priest will then go out of the house, to the door, and shut it up for seven days.

Lev 14:39 On the seventh day, the priest will come back and if on examination he finds that the infection has spread over the walls of the house,

Lev 14:40 he will order the infected stones to be removed and thrown into some unclean place outside the town.

Lev 14:41 He will then have all the inside of the house scraped, and the plaster that comes off will be emptied in an unclean place outside the town.

Lev 14:42 The stones will then be replaced with new ones and the house given a new coat of plaster.

Lev 14:43 If the infection spreads again after the stones have been removed and the house scraped and replastered,

Lev 14:44 the priest will come and examine it. If he finds that the infection has spread, this means that there is a contagious disease in the house: it is unclean.

Lev 14:45 It must be pulled down and the stones, woodwork and all the plaster be taken to an unclean place outside the town.

Lev 14:46 'Anyone who enters the house while it is closed will be unclean until evening.

Lev 14:47 Anyone who sleeps there will wash his clothes. Anyone who eats there will wash his clothes.

Lev 14:48 But if the priest finds, when he comes to examine the infection, that it has not spread in the house since it was plastered, he will declare the house clean, for the infection is cured.

Lev 14:49 'As a sacrifice for the defilement of the house, he will take two birds, some cedar wood, scarlet material and hyssop.

Lev 14:50 He will slaughter one of the birds in an earthenware pot over running water.

Lev 14:51 He will then take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet material and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the slaughtered bird and into the running water and sprinkle the house seven times;

Lev 14:52 and after offering the sacrifice for the defilement of the house with the blood of the bird, the running water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet material,

Lev 14:53 he will set the live bird free to fly out of the town into the countryside. Once the rite of expiation has been performed for the house in this way it will be clean.

Lev 14:54 'Such is the law governing all kinds of skin-disease and tinea,

Lev 14:55 diseases of clothing and houses,

Lev 14:56 swellings, scabs and spots. It defines the occasions when things are unclean and when clean.

Lev 14:57 Such is the law on skin-diseases.'

Lev 15:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and said:

Lev 15:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say to them: "When a man has a discharge from his body, that discharge is unclean.

Lev 15:3 While the discharge continues, the nature of his uncleanness is as follows: "Whether his body allows the discharge to flow or whether it retains it, he is unclean.

Lev 15:4 "Any bed the man lies on and anything he sits on will be unclean.

Lev 15:5 "Anyone who touches his bed must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:6 "Anyone who sits where the man has sat must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:7 "Anyone who touches the body of the man with the discharge must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:8 "If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:9 "Any saddle the man has ridden on will be unclean.

Lev 15:10 "All those who touch any object that has been under him will be unclean until evening. "Anyone who picks up such an object must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:11 "All those whom the man with the discharge touches without having washed his hands must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:12 "The earthenware vessel he touches must be broken and any wooden utensil must be rinsed.

Lev 15:13 "Once the man with the discharge is cured, he will allow seven days for his purification. He will wash his clothes and wash his body in running water and he will be clean.

Lev 15:14 On the eighth day he will take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and come before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

Lev 15:15 The priest will offer one of them as a sacrifice for sin and the other as a burnt offering. And in this way the priest will perform the rite of expiation for him before Yahweh for his discharge.

Lev 15:16 "When a man has a seminal discharge, he must wash his whole body with water and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:17 Any clothing or leather touched by the seminal discharge must be washed and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:18 When a woman has had intercourse with a man, both of them must wash and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:19 "Whenever a woman has a discharge and the discharge from her body is of blood, she will remain in a state of menstrual pollution for seven days. "Anyone who touches her will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:20 "Anything she lies on in this polluted state will be unclean; anything she sits on will be unclean.

Lev 15:21 "Anyone who touches her bed must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:22 "Anyone who touches anything she has sat on must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:23 If there is anything on the bed or where she is sitting, anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:24 "If a man goes so far as to sleep with her, he will contract her menstrual pollution and will be unclean for seven days. Any bed he lies on will be unclean.

Lev 15:25 "If a woman has a prolonged discharge of blood outside the period, or if the period is prolonged, during the time this discharge lasts she will be in the same state of uncleanness as during her monthly periods.

Lev 15:26 Any bed she lies on during the time this discharge lasts will be polluted in the same way as the bed she lies on during her monthly periods. Anything she sits on will be unclean as during her monthly periods.

Lev 15:27 Anyone who touches it will be unclean and must wash clothing and body and will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15:28 "Once she is cured of her discharge, she will allow seven days to go by; after that she will be clean.

Lev 15:29 On the eighth day she will take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 15:30 The priest will offer one of them as a sacrifice for sin and the other as a burnt offering. And in this way the priest will perform the rite of expiation for her before Yahweh for the discharge which made her unclean.

Lev 15:31 "Hence you will warn the Israelites against contracting a state of uncleanness, rather than incurring death by defiling my Dwelling which is among them.

Lev 15:32 "Such is the law governing a man with a discharge or who is made unclean by a seminal discharge,

Lev 15:33 a woman in a state of pollution due to menstruation, a man or a woman with a discharge, or a man who sleeps with a woman when she is unclean."

Lev 16:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who died when offering unauthorised fire.

Lev 16:2 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said: 'Tell Aaron your brother that he may not enter the sanctuary inside the curtain in front of the mercy-seat on the ark whenever he chooses, in case he incurs death, for I appear in a cloud on the mercy-seat.

Lev 16:3 'This is how he must enter the sanctuary: with a young bull for a sacrifice for sin and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:4 He will put on a tunic of consecrated linen, wear linen drawers on his body, a linen waistband round his waist, and a linen turban on his head. These are the sacred vestments he will put on after washing himself.

Lev 16:5 'From the community of Israelites he will receive two he-goats for a sacrifice for sin and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:6 After offering the bull as a sacrifice for his own sin and performing the rite of expiation for himself and his family,

Lev 16:7 he will take the two he-goats and place them before Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 16:8 Aaron will then draw lots over the two goats, one lot to be for Yahweh and the other lot for Azazel.

Lev 16:9 Aaron will then take the goat on which the lot "For Yahweh" has fallen, and offer it as a sacrifice for sin.

Lev 16:10 But the goat on which the lot "For Azazel" has fallen, will be placed alive before Yahweh, for the rite of expiation to be performed with it, and for it then to be sent to Azazel in the desert.

Lev 16:11 'Having offered the bull as a sacrifice for his own sin and performed the rite of expiation for himself and for his family, and slaughtered the bull as a sacrifice for sin,

Lev 16:12 Aaron will then fill a censer with live coals from the altar before Yahweh, take two handfuls of finely ground aromatic incense and bring this inside the curtain.

Lev 16:13 He will then put the incense on the fire before Yahweh, so that the cloud of incense hides the mercy-seat which is on the Testimony and he does not incur death.

Lev 16:14 He will then take some of the bull's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the eastern side of the mercy-seat. He will sprinkle some of the blood seven times with his finger in front of the mercy-seat.

Lev 16:15 'He will then slaughter the goat for the sacrifice for the sin of the people, and take its blood inside the curtain, and with this blood do as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it on the mercy-seat and in front of it.

Lev 16:16 This is how he must perform the rite of expiation for the sanctuary for the uncleanness of the Israelites, for their acts of rebellion and all their sins. 'And this is what he must do for the Tent of Meeting which remains with them, surrounded by their uncleanness.

Lev 16:17 No one must be inside the Tent of Meeting, from the moment he enters to make expiation in the sanctuary until the time he comes out. 'When he has made expiation for himself, for his family, and for the whole community of Israel,

Lev 16:18 he must come outside, go to the altar before Yahweh and perform the rite of expiation for it. He will take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on the horns at the corners of the altar all around it,

Lev 16:19 and sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times with his finger, thus purifying it and setting it apart from the uncleanness of the Israelites.

Lev 16:20 'Once expiation for the sanctuary, the Tent of Meeting and the altar is complete, he will bring the goat which is still alive.

Lev 16:21 Aaron will then lay both his hands on its head and over it confess all the guilt of the Israelites, all their acts of rebellion and all their sins. Having thus laid them on the goat's head, he will send it out into the desert under the charge of a man waiting ready,

Lev 16:22 and the goat will bear all their guilt away into some desolate place. 'When he has sent the goat into the desert,

Lev 16:23 Aaron will go back into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen vestments which he wore to enter the sanctuary and leave them there.

Lev 16:24 He will then wash his body inside the holy place, put on his vestments and come outside to offer his own and the people's burnt offering. He will perform the rite of expiation for himself and for the people,

Lev 16:25 and burn the fat of the sacrifice for sin on the altar.

Lev 16:26 'The man who led the goat away to Azazel will wash his clothes and body before entering the camp.

Lev 16:27 The bull and the goat offered as a sacrifice for sin, the blood of which was taken into the sanctuary for the rite of expiation, must be taken outside the camp, where their skin, meat and offal are to be burnt.

Lev 16:28 The man who burns them will wash his clothes and body before entering the camp.

Lev 16:29 'This will be a perpetual law for you. 'On the tenth day of the seventh month you will fast and refrain from work, both citizen and resident alien;

Lev 16:30 for this is the day on which the rite of expiation will be performed for you to purify you, to purify you before Yahweh from all your sins.

Lev 16:31 It will be a sabbatical rest for you and you will fast. This is a perpetual law.

Lev 16:32 'The rite of expiation will be performed by the priest who has been anointed and installed to officiate in succession to his father. He will put on the linen vestments, the sacred vestments,

Lev 16:33 and perform the rite of expiation for the holy sanctuary, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and will then perform the rite of expiation for the priests and all the people of the community.

Lev 16:34 This will be a perpetual law for you; once a year the rite of expiation will be made for the Israelites for all their sins.' And as Yahweh ordered Moses, so it was done.

Lev 17:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 17:2 'Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites and say: "This is the order that Yahweh has given:

Lev 17:3 "Any man of the House of Israel who slaughters a bull, lamb or goat, whether inside the camp or outside it,

Lev 17:4 without bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to make an offering of it to Yahweh in front of his Dwelling, that man will be answerable for bloodshed; he has shed blood, and that man will be outlawed from his people.

Lev 17:5 The purpose of this is that the Israelites should instead bring their sacrifices, which they would otherwise offer in the countryside, to Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and offer them as communion sacrifices to Yahweh;

Lev 17:6 and the priest will sprinkle the blood on Yahweh's altar at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and will burn the fat as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 17:7 No longer may they offer their sacrifices to the satyrs in whose service they used to prostitute themselves. This is a perpetual law for them and for their descendants."

Lev 17:8 'You will also say to them, "Any member of the House of Israel or any resident alien who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

Lev 17:9 without bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to offer it to Yahweh, will be outlawed from his people.

Lev 17:10 "If any member of the House of Israel or any resident alien consumes blood of any kind, I shall set my face against that individual who consumes blood and shall outlaw him from his people.

Lev 17:11 For the life of the creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you for performing the rite of expiation on the altar for your lives, for blood is what expiates for a life.

Lev 17:12 That is why I told the Israelites: None of you will consume blood, nor will any resident alien consume blood.

Lev 17:13 "Anyone, whether Israelite or resident alien, who hunts and catches game, whether animal or bird, which it is lawful to eat, must pour out its blood and cover it with earth.

Lev 17:14 For the life of every creature is its blood, and I have told the Israelites: You will not consume the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood, and anyone who consumes it will be outlawed.

Lev 17:15 "Anyone, citizen or alien, who eats an animal that has died a natural death or been savaged, must wash clothing and body, and will be unclean until evening, but will then be clean.

Lev 17:16 But anyone who does not wash clothing and body will bear the consequences of his guilt."

Lev 18:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 18:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "I am Yahweh your God:

Lev 18:3 You must not behave as they do in Egypt where you used to live; you must not behave as they do in Canaan where I am taking you, nor must you follow their laws.

Lev 18:4 You must observe my customs and keep my laws, following them. "I, Yahweh, am your God:

Lev 18:5 hence you will keep my laws and my customs. Whoever complies with them will find life in them. "I am Yahweh.

Lev 18:6 "None of you will approach a woman who is closely related to him, to have intercourse with her. I am Yahweh.

Lev 18:7 "You will not have intercourse with your father or your mother. She is your mother -- you will not have intercourse with her.

Lev 18:8 "You will not have intercourse with your father's wife; it is your father's sexual prerogative.

Lev 18:9 "You will not have intercourse with your sister, whether she is your father's or your mother's daughter. Whether she was born in the same house or elsewhere, you will not have intercourse with her.

Lev 18:10 "You will not have intercourse with your son's or your daughter's daughter; for their sexual privacy is your own.

Lev 18:11 "You will not have intercourse with the daughter of your father's wife, born to your father. She is your sister; you will not have intercourse with her.

Lev 18:12 "You will not have intercourse with your father's sister; for she is your father's own flesh and blood.

Lev 18:13 "You will not have intercourse with your mother's sister; for she is your mother's own flesh and blood.

Lev 18:14 "You will not have intercourse with your father's brother; you will not approach his wife. She is your aunt.

Lev 18:15 "You will not have intercourse with your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; you will not have intercourse with her.

Lev 18:16 "You will not have intercourse with your brother's wife; it is your brother's sexual prerogative.

Lev 18:17 "You will not have intercourse with a woman and her daughter; nor will you take her son's or her daughter's daughter, to have intercourse with them. They are your own flesh and blood; it would be incest.

Lev 18:18 "You will not take a woman and her sister into your harem at the same time, to have intercourse with the latter while the former is still alive.

Lev 18:19 "You will not approach and have intercourse with a woman who is in a state of menstrual pollution.

Lev 18:20 "Furthermore, you will not have intercourse with your fellow-citizen's wife; you would become unclean by doing so.

Lev 18:21 "You will not allow any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech, thus profaning the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

Lev 18:22 "You will not have intercourse with a man as you would with a woman. This is a hateful thing.

Lev 18:23 "You will not have intercourse with any kind of animal; you would become unclean by doing so. Nor will a woman offer herself to an animal, to have intercourse with it. This would be a violation of nature.

Lev 18:24 "Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these practices, for it was by such things that the nations that I am driving out before you made themselves unclean.

Lev 18:25 The country has become unclean; hence I am about to punish it for its guilt, and the country itself will vomit out its inhabitants.

Lev 18:26 "You, however, must keep my laws and customs and not do any of these hateful things: none of your citizens, none of your resident aliens.

Lev 18:27 For all these hateful things were done by the people who lived in the country before you, and the country became unclean.

Lev 18:28 If you make it unclean, will it not vomit you out as it vomited out the nations there before you?

Lev 18:29 Yes, anyone who does any of these hateful things, whatever it may be, any person doing so, will be outlawed from his people;

Lev 18:30 so keep my rules and do not observe any of the hateful laws which were in force before you came; then you will not be made unclean by them. I am Yahweh your God."

Lev 19:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 19:2 'Speak to the whole community of Israelites and say: "Be holy, for I, Yahweh your God, am holy.

Lev 19:3 "Each of you will respect father and mother. "And you will keep my Sabbaths; I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 19:4 "Do not turn to idols and do not cast metal gods for yourselves. I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 19:5 "If you offer a communion sacrifice to Yahweh, make it in such a way as to be acceptable.

Lev 19:6 It must be eaten the same day or the day after; whatever is left on the third day must be burnt.

Lev 19:7 If eaten on the third day it would be rotten food and not be acceptable.

Lev 19:8 Anyone who eats it must bear the consequences of this guilt, having profaned Yahweh's holiness; that person will be outlawed from his people.

Lev 19:9 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you will not reap to the very edges of the field, nor will you gather the gleanings of the harvest;

Lev 19:10 nor will you strip your vineyard bare, nor pick up the fallen grapes. You will leave them for the poor and the stranger. I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 19:11 "You will not steal, nor deal deceitfully or fraudulently with your fellow-citizen.

Lev 19:12 You will not swear by my name with intent to deceive and thus profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:13 You will not exploit or rob your fellow. You will not keep back the labourer's wage until next morning.

Lev 19:14 You will not curse the dumb or put an obstacle in the way of the blind, but will fear your God. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:15 "You will not be unjust in administering justice. You will neither be partial to the poor nor overawed by the great, but will administer justice to your fellow-citizen justly.

Lev 19:16 You will not go about slandering your own family, nor will you put your neighbour's life in jeopardy. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:17 You will not harbour hatred for your brother. You will reprove your fellow-countryman firmly and thus avoid burdening yourself with a sin.

Lev 19:18 You will not exact vengeance on, or bear any sort of grudge against, the members of your race, but will love your neighbour as yourself. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:19 "You will keep my laws. "You will not mate your cattle with those of another kind; you will not sow two kinds of grain in your field; you will not wear a garment made from two kinds of fabric.

Lev 19:20 "If someone has intercourse with a woman who is the concubine slave of a man from whom she has not been redeemed and she has not been given her freedom, he will be liable for a fine, but they will not incur death, since she was not a free woman.

Lev 19:21 He will bring a sacrifice of reparation for Yahweh to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. This will be a ram of reparation,

Lev 19:22 and with the ram of reparation the priest will perform the rite of expiation for him before Yahweh for the sin committed; and the sin he has committed will be forgiven.

Lev 19:23 "Once you have entered the country and planted any kind of fruit tree, you will regard its fruit as uncircumcised. For three years you will count it as uncircumcised and it will not be eaten;

Lev 19:24 in the fourth year, all its fruit will be consecrated to Yahweh in a feast of praise;

Lev 19:25 and in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, so that it may yield you even more. I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 19:26 "You will eat nothing with blood in it. You will not practise divination or magic.

Lev 19:27 "You will not round off your hair at the edges or trim the edges of your beard.

Lev 19:28 You will not gash your bodies when someone dies, and you will not tattoo yourselves. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:29 "Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the country itself will become prostituted and filled with incest.

Lev 19:30 "You will keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:31 "Do not have recourse to the spirits of the dead or to magicians; they will defile you. I, Yahweh, am your God.

Lev 19:32 "You will stand up in the presence of grey hair, you will honour the person of the aged and fear your God. I am Yahweh.

Lev 19:33 "If you have resident aliens in your country, you will not molest them.

Lev 19:34 You will treat resident aliens as though they were native-born and love them as yourself -- for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 19:35 "You will not be unjust in administering justice as regards measures of length, weight or capacity.

Lev 19:36 You will have just scales, just weights, a just ephah and a just hin. I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt;

Lev 19:37 hence you are to keep all my laws and all my customs and put them into practice. I am Yahweh." '

Lev 20:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 20:2 'Say to the Israelites: "Anyone, be he Israelite or alien resident in Israel, who gives any of his children to Molech, will be put to death. The people of the country must stone him,

Lev 20:3 and I shall set my face against that man and outlaw him from his people; for by giving a child of his to Molech he has defiled my sanctuary and profaned my holy name.

Lev 20:4 If the people of the country choose to close their eyes to the man's action when he gives a child of his to Molech, and do not put him to death,

Lev 20:5 I myself shall turn my face against that man and his clan. I shall outlaw them from their people, both him and all those after him who prostitute themselves by following Molech.

Lev 20:6 "If anyone has recourse to the spirits of the dead or to magicians, to prostitute himself by following them, I shall set my face against him and outlaw him from his people.

Lev 20:7 "Sanctify yourselves and be holy, for I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 20:8 "You will keep my laws and put them into practice, for it is I, Yahweh, who make you holy.

Lev 20:9 Hence: "Anyone who curses father or mother will be put to death. Having cursed father or mother, the blood will be on that person's own head.

Lev 20:10 "The man who commits adultery with his neighbour's wife will be put to death, he and the woman.

Lev 20:11 "The man who has intercourse with his father's wife has infringed his father's sexual prerogative. Both of them will be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:12 "The man who has intercourse with his daughter-in-law: both of them will be put to death; they have violated nature, their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:13 "The man who has intercourse with a man in the same way as with a woman: they have done a hateful thing together; they will be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:14 "The man who marries a woman and her mother: this is incest. They will be burnt alive, he and they; you will not tolerate incest.

Lev 20:15 "The man who has intercourse with an animal will be put to death; you will kill the animal too.

Lev 20:16 "The woman who approaches any animal to have intercourse with it: you will kill the woman and the animal. They will be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Lev 20:17 "The man who marries his father's or his mother's daughter: if they have intercourse together, this is an outrage. They will be executed in public, for the man has had intercourse with his sister; he will bear the consequences of his guilt.

Lev 20:18 "The man who has intercourse with a woman during her monthly periods and exposes her nakedness: he has laid bare the source of her blood, and she has exposed the source of her blood, and both of them will be outlawed from their people.

Lev 20:19 "You will not have intercourse with your mother's sister or your father's sister. Whoever does so, has had intercourse with a close relation; they will bear the consequences of their guilt.

Lev 20:20 "The man who has intercourse with the wife of his paternal uncle has infringed his uncle's sexual prerogative; they will bear the consequences of their guilt and die childless.

Lev 20:21 "The man who marries his brother's wife: this is pollution; he has infringed his brother's sexual prerogative; they will die childless.

Lev 20:22 "You will keep all my laws, all my decisions, and put them into practice, so that the country where I am taking you to live will not vomit you out.

Lev 20:23 You will not follow the laws of the nations whom I am driving out before you; they practised all these things, which is why I detested them.

Lev 20:24 As I have already told you, you will take possession of their soil, I myself shall give you possession of it, a country flowing with milk and honey. "Since I, Yahweh your God, have set you apart from these peoples,

Lev 20:25 you for your part will make a distinction between clean animals and unclean ones and between unclean birds and clean ones, and will not make yourselves detestable with any animal or bird or reptile, which I have set apart from you as unclean.

Lev 20:26 "Be consecrated to me, for I, Yahweh, am holy, and I shall set you apart from all these peoples, for you to be mine.

Lev 20:27 "Any man or woman of yours who is a necromancer or magician will be put to death; they will be stoned to death; their blood will be on their own heads."

Lev 21:1 Yahweh said to Moses: 'Speak to the priests descended from Aaron and say: "None of them must make himself unclean by touching the corpse of one of his people,

Lev 21:2 unless it be of one of his closest relations-father, mother, son, daughter, brother,
Lev 21:3 or virgin sister, since she being unmarried is still his close relation: he can make himself unclean for her;

Lev 21:4 but for a close female relation who is married he will not make himself unclean; he would profane himself.

Lev 21:5 "They will not make tonsures on their heads, shave the edges of their beards, or gash their bodies.

Lev 21:6 They will be consecrated to their God and will not profane the name of their God. For their function is to offer the food burnt for Yahweh, the food of their God, and so they must be holy.

Lev 21:7 "They will not marry a woman profaned by prostitution, or one divorced by her husband, for the priest is consecrated to his God.

Lev 21:8 "You will treat him as holy, for he offers the food of your God. For you, he will be a holy person, for I, Yahweh, who sanctify you, am holy.

Lev 21:9 "If a priest's daughter profanes herself by prostitution, she profanes her father and will be burnt alive.

Lev 21:10 "The priest who is pre-eminent over his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured, and who, robed in the sacred vestments, has received investiture, will not disorder his hair or tear his clothes;

Lev 21:11 he will not go near any corpse or make himself unclean even for his father or mother.

Lev 21:12 He will not leave the holy place in such a way as to profane the sanctuary of his God; for he bears the consecration of the anointing oil of his God. I am Yahweh.

Lev 21:13 "He will marry a woman who is still a virgin.

Lev 21:14 He will not marry a woman who has been widowed or divorced or profaned by prostitution, but will marry a virgin from his own people:

Lev 21:15 he must not make his own children profane, for I, Yahweh, have sanctified him." '

Lev 21:16 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 21:17 'Speak to Aaron and say: "None of your descendants, for all time, may come forward to offer the food of his God if he has any infirmity,

Lev 21:18 for none may come forward if he has an infirmity, be he blind or lame, disfigured or deformed,

Lev 21:19 or with an injured foot or arm,

Lev 21:20 a hunchback, someone with rickets or ophthalmia or the scab or running sores, or a eunuch.

Lev 21:21 No descendant of the priest Aaron may come forward to offer the food burnt for Yahweh if he has any infirmity; if he has an infirmity, he will not come forward to offer the food of his God.

Lev 21:22 "He may eat the food of his God, things especially holy and things holy,

Lev 21:23 but he will not go near the curtain or approach the altar, since he has an infirmity and must not profane my holy things; for I, Yahweh, have sanctified them." '

Lev 21:24 And Moses promulgated this to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the Israelites.

Lev 22:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 22:2 'Speak to Aaron and his sons. They must be consecrated by the holy offerings of the Israelites and must not profane my holy name; for my sake they must sanctify it; I am Yahweh.

Lev 22:3 Say to them: "Any one of your descendants, for all time, who in a state of uncleanness approaches the holy offerings consecrated to Yahweh by the Israelites, will be outlawed from my presence. I am Yahweh.

Lev 22:4 "Anyone of Aaron's line who is afflicted with a contagious skin-disease or a discharge will not eat holy things until he is clean. Anyone who touches anything made unclean by a dead body, or who has a seminal discharge,

Lev 22:5 or who is made unclean by touching any kind of reptile or any one who has contaminated him with his own uncleanness, be it what it may,

Lev 22:6 in short, anyone who has had any such contact will be unclean until evening, and must not eat holy things until he has washed his body.

Lev 22:7 At sunset he will be clean and may then eat holy things, for these are his food.

Lev 22:8 "He must not eat an animal that has died a natural death or been savaged; he would contract uncleanness from it. I am Yahweh.

Lev 22:9 "They must keep my rules and not burden themselves with sin. If they profane them, they will incur death; I, Yahweh, have sanctified them.

Lev 22:10 "No lay person may eat anything holy; no guest or employee of a priest may eat anything holy.

Lev 22:11 But if the priest has acquired a slave by purchase, the slave may eat it like anyone born in his household; they will share his food.

Lev 22:12 "If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she will have no share in the holy things set aside,

Lev 22:13 but if she is widowed or divorced and, being childless, has had to return to her father's house as when she was young, she may share her father's food. No lay person may share it;

Lev 22:14 anyone who does eat a holy thing by inadvertence, will restore it to the priest with one-fifth added.

Lev 22:15 "They may not profane the holy offerings which the Israelites have set aside for Yahweh.

Lev 22:16 By eating these, they would burden them with guilt requiring a sacrifice of reparation; for I, Yahweh, have sanctified these offerings."

Lev 22:17 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 22:18 'Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the Israelites and say: "Any member of the House of Israel or any alien resident in Israel who brings an offering either in payment of a vow or as a voluntary gift, and offers it as a burnt offering to Yahweh,

Lev 22:19 must, if he is to be acceptable, offer an unblemished male, be it bull or sheep or goat.

Lev 22:20 You will not offer anything with a blemish, for it would not make you acceptable.

Lev 22:21 "If anyone offers Yahweh a communion sacrifice, either to fulfil a vow or as a voluntary offering, the animal, be it from the herd or flock, must be perfect, if he is to be acceptable; it must be unblemished.

Lev 22:22 You will not offer Yahweh any animal which is blind, lame, mutilated, ulcerous, scabby or covered in sores. No part of such an animal will be offered on the altar as food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 22:23 As a voluntary offering, you may offer a bull or a lamb that is underdeveloped or deformed; but such will not be acceptable in payment of a vow.

Lev 22:24 You will not offer Yahweh an animal if its testicles have been bruised, crushed, torn or cut off. You may not do that in your country,

Lev 22:25 and you may not accept any such from the hands of a stranger, to be offered as food for your God. Their deformity is a blemish, and they would not make you acceptable."

Lev 22:26 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 22:27 'A calf, lamb, or kid will stay with its dam for seven days after being born. From the eighth day onwards, it will be acceptable as food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 22:28 But no animal, whether cow or ewe, will be slaughtered on the same day as its young.

Lev 22:29 'If you offer Yahweh a sacrifice with praise, do it in the acceptable manner;

Lev 22:30 it must be eaten the same day; you will leave nothing over till next morning. I am Yahweh.

Lev 22:31 'You will keep my commands and put them into practice. I am Yahweh.

Lev 22:32 You will not profane my holy name -- so that I may be honoured as holy among the Israelites, I, Yahweh, who make you holy,

Lev 22:33 I who brought you out of Egypt, to be your God, I, Yahweh.'

Lev 23:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 23:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: (The solemn festivals of Yahweh to which you will summon them are my sacred assemblies.) "These are my solemn festivals:

Lev 23:3 "You will work for six days, but the seventh will be a day of complete rest, a day for the sacred assembly on which you do no work at all. Wherever you live, this is a Sabbath for Yahweh.

Lev 23:4 "These are Yahweh's solemn festivals, the sacred assemblies to which you will summon the Israelites on the appointed day:

Lev 23:5 "The fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, is the Passover of Yahweh;

Lev 23:6 and the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of Unleavened Bread for Yahweh. For seven days you will eat unleavened bread.

Lev 23:7 On the first day you will hold a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Lev 23:8 For seven days you will offer food burnt for Yahweh. On the seventh day there will be a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work."

Lev 23:9 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 23:10 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "When you enter the country which I am giving you and reap the harvest there, you will bring the priest the first sheaf of your harvest,

Lev 23:11 and he will present it to Yahweh with the gesture of offering, for you to be acceptable. The priest will make this offering on the day after the Sabbath,

Lev 23:12 and on the same day as you make this offering, you will offer Yahweh an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering.

Lev 23:13 The cereal offering for that day will be two-tenths of wheaten flour mixed with oil, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh. The libation will be a quarter of a hin of wine.

Lev 23:14 You will eat no bread, roasted ears of wheat or fresh produce before this day, before making the offering to your God. This is a perpetual law for all your descendants, wherever you live.

Lev 23:15 "From the day after the Sabbath, the day on which you bring the sheaf of offering, you will count seven full weeks.

Lev 23:16 You will count fifty days, to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then you will offer Yahweh a new cereal offering.

Lev 23:17 You will bring bread from your homes to present with the gesture of offering -- two loaves, made of two-tenths of wheaten flour baked with leaven; these are first-fruits for Yahweh.

Lev 23:18 In addition to the bread, you will offer seven unblemished lambs a year old, a young bull and two rams, as a burnt offering to Yahweh with a cereal offering and a libation, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Lev 23:19 You will also offer a goat as a sacrifice for sin, and two lambs a year old as communion sacrifice.

Lev 23:20 The priest will present them before Yahweh with the gesture of offering, in addition to the bread of the first-fruits. These, and the two lambs, are holy things for Yahweh, and will revert to the priest.

Lev 23:21 "On the same day, you will hold an assembly; for you this will be a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work. This is a perpetual law for your descendants, wherever you live.

Lev 23:22 "When you reap the harvest in your country, you will not reap to the very edges of your field, nor will you gather the gleanings of the harvest. You will leave them for the poor and the stranger. I am Yahweh your God."

Lev 23:23 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 23:24 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "The first day of the seventh month will be a day of rest for you, of remembrance and acclamation, a sacred assembly.'

Lev 23:25 You will do no heavy work and you will offer food burnt for Yahweh."

Lev 23:26 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 23:27 'But the tenth day of this seventh month will be the Day of Expiation. You will hold a sacred assembly. You will fast and offer food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 23:28 You will do no work that day, for it is the Day of Expiation, on which the rite of expiation will be performed for you before Yahweh your God.

Lev 23:29 Anyone who fails to fast that day will be outlawed from his people;

Lev 23:30 anyone who works that day I shall eliminate from his people.

Lev 23:31 No work will be done -- this is a perpetual law for your descendants wherever you live.

Lev 23:32 It must be a day of complete rest for you. You will fast; on the evening of the ninth day of the month, from this evening till the following evening, you will rest completely.'

Lev 23:33 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 23:34 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "On the fifteenth day of this seventh month there will be the feast of Shelters for Yahweh, lasting for seven days.

Lev 23:35 The first day will be a day of sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Lev 23:36 For seven days you will offer food burnt for Yahweh. On the eighth day you will hold a sacred assembly and you will offer food burnt for Yahweh. It is a day of solemn meeting; you will do no heavy work.

Lev 23:37 "These are Yahweh's solemn festivals to which you will summon the Israelites, the sacred assemblies for the purpose of offering food burnt for Yahweh, consisting of burnt offerings, cereal offerings, sacrifices and libations, each on its appropriate day,

Lev 23:38 besides Yahweh's Sabbaths, and your presents and all your votive and voluntary gifts that you make to Yahweh.

Lev 23:39 "But on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you will celebrate the feast of Yahweh for seven days. The first and eighth days will be days of rest.

Lev 23:40 On the first day you will take choice fruit, palm branches, boughs of leafy trees and flowering shrubs from the river bank, and for seven days enjoy yourselves before Yahweh your God.

Lev 23:41 You will celebrate a feast for Yahweh in this way for seven days every year. This is a perpetual law for your descendants. "You will keep this feast in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 For seven days you will live in shelters: all the citizens of Israel will live in shelters,

Lev 23:43 so that your descendants may know that I made the Israelites live in shelters when I brought them out of Egypt, I, Yahweh your God."

Lev 23:44 Moses then promulgated Yahweh's solemn festivals to the Israelites.

Lev 24:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 24:2 'Order the Israelites to bring you crushed-olive oil for the lamp-stand, and keep a flame burning there continually.

Lev 24:3 Aaron will keep it permanently in trim from evening to morning, outside the curtain of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, before Yahweh. This is a perpetual decree for your descendants:

Lev 24:4 Aaron will keep the lamps permanently trimmed on the pure lamp-stand before Yahweh.

Lev 24:5 'You will take wheaten flour and with it bake twelve loaves, each of two-tenths of an ephah.

Lev 24:6 You will then place them in two rows of six on the pure table before Yahweh

Lev 24:7 and put pure incense on each row, to make it food offered as a memorial, food burnt for Yahweh.

Lev 24:8 Every Sabbath they will be arranged before Yahweh. The Israelites will provide them as a permanent covenant.

Lev 24:9 They will belong to Aaron and his sons, who will eat them inside the holy place since, for him, they are an especially holy part of the food burnt for Yahweh. This is a permanent law.'

Lev 24:10 There was a man whose mother was an Israelite woman and whose father was an Egyptian. He came out of his house and, in the camp, surrounded by the Israelites, he began to quarrel with a man who was an Israelite.

Lev 24:11 Now the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed it. He was then taken to Moses (his mother's name was Shelomith daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan).

Lev 24:12 He was then put under guard until Yahweh's will should be made clear to them.

Lev 24:13 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 24:14 'Take the man who pronounced the curse outside the camp. All those who heard him must then lay their hands on his head, and the whole community must then stone him.'

Lev 24:15 Then say to the Israelites: "Anyone who curses his God will bear the consequences of his sin,

Lev 24:16 and anyone who blasphemers the name of Yahweh will be put to death; the whole community will stone him; be he alien or native-born, if he blasphemers the Name, he will be put to death.

Lev 24:17 "Anyone who strikes down any other human being will be put to death.

Lev 24:18 "Anyone who strikes down an animal will make restitution for it: a life for a life.

Lev 24:19 "Anyone who injures a neighbour shall receive the same in return,

Lev 24:20 broken limb for broken limb, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As the injury inflicted, so will be the injury suffered.

Lev 24:21 Whoever strikes down an animal will make restitution for it, and whoever strikes down a human being will be put to death.

Lev 24:22 The sentence you pass will be the same, whether on native-born or on alien; for I am Yahweh your God."

Lev 24:23 Moses having told the Israelites this, they took the man who had pronounced the curse out of the camp and stoned him. And so the Israelites carried out Yahweh's order to Moses.

Lev 25:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai and said:

Lev 25:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say to them: "When you enter the country which I am giving you, the land must keep a Sabbath's rest for Yahweh.

Lev 25:3 For six years you will sow your field, for six years you will prune your vineyard and gather its produce.

Lev 25:4 But in the seventh year the land will have a sabbatical rest, a Sabbath for Yahweh. You will neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard,

Lev 25:5 nor reap any grain which has grown of its own accord, nor gather the grapes from your untrimmed vine. It will be a year of rest for the land.

Lev 25:6 But what the land produces in its Sabbath will serve to feed you, your slave, male or female, your employee and your guest residing with you;

Lev 25:7 for your cattle too, and the wild animals of your country, whatever it produces will serve as food.

Lev 25:8 "You will count seven weeks of years -- seven times seven years, that is to say a period of seven weeks of years, forty-nine years.

Lev 25:9 And on the tenth day of the seventh month you will sound the trumpet; on the Day of Expiation you will sound the trumpet throughout the land.

Lev 25:10 You will declare this fiftieth year to be sacred and proclaim the liberation of all the country's inhabitants. You will keep this as a jubilee: each of you will return to his ancestral property, each to his own clan.

Lev 25:11 This fiftieth year will be a jubilee year for you; in it you will not sow, you will not harvest the grain that has come up on its own or in it gather grapes from your untrimmed vine.

Lev 25:12 The jubilee will be a holy thing for you; during it you will eat whatever the fields produce.

Lev 25:13 "In this year of jubilee, each of you will return to his ancestral property.

Lev 25:14 If you buy land from, or sell land to, your fellow-countryman, neither of you may exploit the other.

Lev 25:15 In buying from your fellow-countryman, you will take account of the number of years since the jubilee; the sale-price he fixes for you will depend on the number of productive years still to run.

Lev 25:16 The greater the number of years, the higher the price you will ask for it; the fewer the number of years, the greater the reduction; for what he is selling you is a certain number of harvests.

Lev 25:17 So you will not exploit one another, but fear your God, for I am Yahweh your God.

Lev 25:18 "Hence, you will put my laws and customs into practice; you will keep them and put them into practice, and you will live securely in the country.

Lev 25:19 The land will give its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live in security.

Lev 25:20 "In case you should ask: What shall we eat in this seventh year if we do not sow or harvest our produce?

Lev 25:21 I shall order my blessing to be on you in the sixth year, which will yield you enough produce for three years.

Lev 25:22 You will have the old produce to eat while you are sowing in the eighth year, and even in the ninth year, you will be eating the old produce, while waiting for the harvest of that year.

Lev 25:23 "Land will not be sold absolutely, for the land belongs to me, and you are only strangers and guests of mine.

Lev 25:24 You will allow a right of redemption over any ancestral property.

Lev 25:25 If your brother becomes impoverished and sells off part of his ancestral property, his nearest male relative will come and exercise his family rights over what his brother has sold.

Lev 25:26 The man who has no one to exercise this right may, once he has found the means to effect the redemption,

Lev 25:27 calculate the number of years that the alienation would have lasted, repay to the purchaser the sum due for the time still to run, and so recover his ancestral property.

Lev 25:28 If he cannot find the sum in compensation, the property sold will remain in the possession of the purchaser until the jubilee year. In the jubilee year, the latter will vacate it and return to his own ancestral property.

Lev 25:29 "If anyone sells a dwelling house inside a walled town, he will have the right of redemption until the expiry of the year following the sale. His right of redemption is limited to the year;

Lev 25:30 and if the redemption has not been effected by the end of the year, the house in the walled town will become the property of the purchaser and his descendants in perpetuity; he need not vacate it at the jubilee.

Lev 25:31 But houses in villages not enclosed by walls will be considered as situated in the open country; they carry the right of redemption, and the purchaser will vacate them at the jubilee.

Lev 25:32 "As regards the towns of the Levites, town houses forming part of their ancestral property will carry a perpetual right of redemption in their favour.

Lev 25:33 If a Levite is the one to be affected by the right of redemption, at the jubilee he will vacate the purchased property and return to his own home, to the town in which he has a title to property. The houses in the Levites' towns represent their ancestral property in Israel,

Lev 25:34 and the arable land depending on these towns cannot be sold, being their ancestral property for ever.

Lev 25:35 "If your brother becomes impoverished and cannot support himself in the community, you will assist him as you would a stranger or guest, so that he can go on living with you.

Lev 25:36 Do not charge him interest on a loan, but fear your God, and let your brother live with you.

Lev 25:37 You will not lend him money on interest or give him food to make a profit out of it.

Lev 25:38 I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and be your God.

Lev 25:39 "If your brother becomes impoverished while with you and sells himself to you, you will not make him do the work of a slave;

Lev 25:40 you will treat him like an employee or guest, and he will work for you until the jubilee year.

Lev 25:41 He will then leave you, both he and his children, and return to his clan and regain possession of his ancestral property.

Lev 25:42 For they are my servants whom I have brought out of Egypt, and they may not be bought and sold as slaves.

Lev 25:43 You will not oppress your brother-Israelites harshly but will fear your God.

Lev 25:44 "The male and female slaves you have will come from the nations round you; from these you may purchase male and female slaves.

Lev 25:45 As slaves, you may also purchase the children of aliens resident among you, and also members of their families living with you who have been born on your soil; and they will become your property,

Lev 25:46 and you may leave them as a legacy to your sons after you as their perpetual possession. These you may have for slaves; but you will not oppress your brother-Israelites.

Lev 25:47 "If a stranger or guest living with you gets rich and your brother, in the course of dealings with him, becomes impoverished and sells himself to this stranger or guest, or to the descendant of a stranger's family, Lev 25:48 he will enjoy the right of redemption after being sold, and one of his brothers may redeem him.

Lev 25:49 His paternal uncle, his uncle's son, or a member of his own family may redeem him; if he has the means, he may redeem himself.

Lev 25:50 By agreement with his purchaser, he will count the number of years between the year of sale and the jubilee year; his sale-price will be proportionate to the number of years, his time being valued as that of an employee.

Lev 25:51 If there are still many years to run, in proportion to their number he will refund part of his sale-price as payment for his redemption.

Lev 25:52 And if there are only a few years still to run before the jubilee year, he will calculate with him what should be refunded for his redemption, in proportion to their number,

Lev 25:53 as though he were hired by the year. You will see to it that he is not harshly oppressed.

Lev 25:54 "If he has not been redeemed in any of these ways, he will go free in the jubilee year, both he and his children;

Lev 25:55 for the Israelites are my servants; they are my servants whom I brought out of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God." '

Lev 26:1 ' "You will not make idols for yourselves; you will not erect statues or cultic stones, or erect carved stones in your country, for you to worship: for I, Yahweh, am your God.

Lev 26:2 You will keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

Lev 26:3 "If you live according to my laws, if you keep my commandments and put them into practice,

Lev 26:4 I shall give you the rain you need at the right time; the soil will yield its produce and the trees of the countryside their fruit;

Lev 26:5 you will thresh until vintage time and gather grapes until sowing time. You will eat your fill of bread and live secure in your land.

Lev 26:6 "I shall give peace in the land, and you will go to sleep with no one to frighten you. I shall rid the land of beasts of prey. The sword will not pass through your land.

Lev 26:7 You will pursue your enemies and they will fall before your sword;

Lev 26:8 five of you pursuing a hundred of them, one hundred pursuing ten thousand; and your enemies will fall before your sword.

Lev 26:9 "I shall turn towards you, I shall make you fertile and make your numbers grow, and I shall uphold my covenant with you.

Lev 26:10 "Having eaten all you need of last year's harvest, you will throw out the old to make room for the new.

Lev 26:11 "I shall fix my home among you and never reject you.

Lev 26:12 I shall live among you; I shall be your God and you will be my people,

Lev 26:13 I, Yahweh your God, who brought you out of Egypt so that you should be their slaves no longer, and who broke the bonds of your yoke and made you walk with head held high.

Lev 26:14 "But if you will not listen to me and do not put all these commandments into practice,

Lev 26:15 if you reject my laws and detest my customs, and you break my covenant by not putting all my commandments into practice,

Lev 26:16 this is how I shall treat you: "I shall subject you to terror, consumption and fever, making you dim of sight and short of breath. You will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it.

Lev 26:17 I shall turn against you and you will be defeated by your enemies. Your foes will have the mastery over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

Lev 26:18 "And if, in spite of this, you will not listen to me, I shall punish you seven times over for your sins.

Lev 26:19 I shall break your proud strength. I shall make the sky like iron for you, and your soil like bronze.

Lev 26:20 You will wear out your strength in vain, your land will not yield its produce, nor the trees of the country their fruit.

Lev 26:21 "And if you go against me and will not listen to me, I shall heap seven times more plagues on you for your sins.

Lev 26:22 I shall send wild animals to attack you and rob you of your children, destroy your cattle and reduce your numbers until your roads are deserted.

Lev 26:23 "And if that does not reform you, and you still go against me,

Lev 26:24 then I shall go against you and punish you another seven times over for your sins.

Lev 26:25 I shall bring the sword on you, which will avenge the covenant, and when you huddle inside your towns, I shall send pestilence among you, and you will fall into the enemy's clutches.

Lev 26:26 When I take away the bread which supports you, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven and will then dole your bread out by weight; you will eat but not be satisfied.

Lev 26:27 "And if, in spite of this, you will not listen to me but go against me,

Lev 26:28 I shall go against you in fury and punish you seven times over for your sins.

Lev 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your own sons, you will eat the flesh of your own daughters.

Lev 26:30 I shall destroy your high places and smash your incense-altars; I shall pile your corpses on the corpses of your foul idols and shall reject you.

Lev 26:31 I shall reduce your cities to ruins; I shall lay waste your sanctuary and refuse to inhale from you smells intended to please.

Lev 26:32 I shall make such a desolation of the country that your enemies who come to live there will be appalled by it.

Lev 26:33 And I shall scatter you among the nations. I shall unsheathe the sword against you, reducing your country to desert and your towns to ruins.

Lev 26:34 Then the country will indeed observe its Sabbaths, all the while it lies deserted, while you are in the country of your enemies. Then indeed the country will rest and observe its Sabbaths.

Lev 26:35 And as it lies deserted it will rest, as it never did on your Sabbaths when you were living there.

Lev 26:36 I shall strike such fear into the hearts of those of you who survive in the countries of their enemies that the sound of a falling leaf will set them fleeing; they will flee as though fleeing from the sword, and fall when no one is pursuing.

Lev 26:37 They will stumble over one another as though fleeing before the sword, when no one is pursuing. You will be powerless to stand up to your enemies;

Lev 26:38 you will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will swallow you up.

Lev 26:39 Those of you who survive will pine away in their guilt in the countries of their enemies and, bearing the guilt of their ancestors too, will pine away like them.

Lev 26:40 "Then they shall admit their guilt and that of their ancestors and their infidelities against me, and further, their setting themselves against me.

Lev 26:41 "I in my turn will go against them and bring them into the land of their enemies. Then their uncircumcised hearts will grow humble and then they will accept the punishment for their guilt.

Lev 26:42 I shall remember my covenant with Jacob, I shall remember my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham; and I shall remember the country too.

Lev 26:43 "Abandoned, the country will keep its Sabbaths, as it lies deserted in their absence, and they will have to accept the punishment for their guilt, since they detested my customs and rejected my laws.

Lev 26:44 "Yet, in spite of all this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I shall not so utterly reject or detest them as to destroy them completely and break my covenant with them; for I am Yahweh their God.

Lev 26:45 For their sake I shall remember the covenant I made with those first generations that I brought out of Egypt while other nations watched, so that I should be their God, I, Yahweh."

Lev 26:46 Such were the decrees, customs and laws which Yahweh established between himself and the Israelites on Mount Sinai through Moses.

Lev 27:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Lev 27:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "If anyone vows the value of a person to Yahweh and wishes to discharge the vow:

Lev 27:3 "a man between twenty and sixty years of age will be valued at fifty silver shekels -- the sanctuary shekel;

Lev 27:4 a woman will be valued at thirty shekels;

Lev 27:5 "between five and twenty years, a boy will be valued at twenty shekels, a girl at ten shekels;

Lev 27:6 "between one month and five years, a boy will be valued at five silver shekels, a girl at three silver shekels;

Lev 27:7 "at sixty years and over, a man will be valued at fifteen shekels and a woman at ten shekels.

Lev 27:8 "If the person who made the vow cannot meet this valuation, he will present the person concerned to the priest, and the priest will set a value proportionate to the resources of the person who made the vow.

Lev 27:9 "In the case of an animal suitable for offering to Yahweh, any such animal given to Yahweh will be holy.

Lev 27:10 It cannot be exchanged or replaced, a good one instead of a bad one, or a bad one instead of a good one. If one animal is substituted for another, both of them will become holy.

Lev 27:11 In the case of an unclean animal unsuitable for offering to Yahweh, whatever it may be, it will be presented to the priest

Lev 27:12 and he will set a value on it, in relation to its worth. His valuation will be decisive;

Lev 27:13 but if the person wishes to redeem it, he will add one-fifth to the valuation.

Lev 27:14 "If a man consecrates his house to Yahweh, the priest will set a value on it, in relation to its worth. His valuation will be decisive.

Lev 27:15 If the man who has vowed his house wishes to redeem it, he will add one-fifth to the valuation, and it will revert to him.

Lev 27:16 "If a man consecrates one of the fields of his ancestral property to Yahweh, its value will be calculated in terms of its yield, at the rate of fifty silver shekels to one homer of barley.

Lev 27:17 "If he consecrates the field during the jubilee year, he will abide by this valuation.

Lev 27:18 But if he consecrates it after the jubilee, the priest will calculate the price in terms of the number of years still to run until the next jubilee and the valuation will be reduced accordingly.

Lev 27:19 "If he wishes to redeem the field, he will add one-fifth to the valuation, and the field will revert to him.

Lev 27:20 If he does not redeem it but sells it to someone else, the right of redemption ceases;

Lev 27:21 when the purchaser has to vacate it at the jubilee year, it becomes consecrated to Yahweh, like a field vowed unconditionally; ownership of it passes to the priest.

Lev 27:22 "If he consecrates to Yahweh a field which he has bought, but which is not part of his ancestral property,

Lev 27:23 the priest will calculate the valuation in terms of the number of years still to run before the jubilee year; and the man will pay this sum the same day since it is consecrated to Yahweh.

Lev 27:24 In the jubilee year the field will revert to the vendor, the man to whose ancestral property the land belongs.

Lev 27:25 All your valuations will be made in sanctuary shekels, at the rate of twenty gerah to the shekel.

Lev 27:26 "The first-born of livestock is born to Yahweh; no one may consecrate it, whether it be cattle or sheep, for it belongs to Yahweh anyway.

Lev 27:27 But if it is an unclean animal, it may be redeemed at the valuation price with one-fifth added; if the animal is not redeemed, it will be sold at the valuation price.

Lev 27:28 "Nothing, however, that someone vows unconditionally to Yahweh may be redeemed, nothing he possesses, be it a human being or animal or field of his ancestral property. What is vowed unconditionally is especially holy and belongs to Yahweh.

Lev 27:29 A human being vowed unconditionally cannot be redeemed but will be put to death.

Lev 27:30 "All tithes on land, levied on the produce of the soil or on the fruit of trees, belong to Yahweh; they are consecrated to Yahweh.

Lev 27:31 If anyone wishes to redeem part of his tithe, he will add one-fifth to its value.

Lev 27:32 "In all tithes on herds or flocks, the tenth animal of all that pass under the herdsman's staff will be consecrated to Yahweh;

Lev 27:33 there will be no examining whether it is good or bad, and no substitution. If substitution takes place, the animal and its substitute will both become holy without possibility of redemption."

Lev 27:34 Such were the orders which Yahweh gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

Num 1:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, in the desert of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after the exodus from Egypt, and said:

Num 1:2 'Take a census of the whole community of Israelites by clans and families, taking a count of the names of all the males, head by head.

Num 1:3 You and Aaron will register all those in Israel, twenty years of age and over, fit to bear arms, company by company;

Num 1:4 you will have one man from each tribe, the head of his family, to help you.

Num 1:5 'These are the names of those who must help you: For Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur.

Num 1:6 For Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Num 1:7 For Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Num 1:8 For Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar.

Num 1:9 For Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon.

Num 1:10 Of the sons of Joseph: for Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; for Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Num 1:11 For Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni.

Num 1:12 For Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Num 1:13 For Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran.

Num 1:14 For Gad, Eliasaph son of Reuel.

Num 1:15 For Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.'

Num 1:16 These were men of repute in the community; they were the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of Israel's thousands.

Num 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men who had been named

Num 1:18 and on the first day of the second month they mustered the whole community. The Israelites established their pedigrees by clans and families, and one by one the names of all men of twenty years and over were recorded.

Num 1:19 As Yahweh had ordered, Moses registered them in the desert of Sinai.

Num 1:20 Once the pedigrees of the descendants of Reuben, Israel's first-born, had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:21 The total of these for the tribe of Reuben was forty-six thousand five hundred.

Num 1:22 Once the pedigrees of Simeon's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:23 The total of these for the tribe of Simeon was fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Num 1:24 Once the pedigrees of Gad's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:25 The total of these for the tribe of Gad was forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Num 1:26 Once the pedigrees of Judah's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:27 The total of these for the tribe of Judah was seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Num 1:28 Once the pedigrees of Issachar's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:29 The total of these for the tribe of Issachar was fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Num 1:30 Once the pedigrees of Zebulun's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:31 The total of these for the tribe of Zebulun was fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Num 1:32 As regards the descendants of Joseph: once the pedigrees of Ephraim's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:33 The total of these for the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand five hundred.

Num 1:34 Once the pedigrees of Manasseh's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:35 The total of these for the tribe of Manasseh was thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Num 1:36 Once the pedigrees of Benjamin's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:37 The total of these for the tribe of Benjamin was thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Num 1:38 Once the pedigrees of Dan's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:39 The total of these for the tribe of Dan was sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Num 1:40 Once the pedigrees of Asher's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:41 The total of these for the tribe of Asher was forty-one thousand five hundred.

Num 1:42 Once the pedigrees of Naphtali's descendants had been established by clans and families, the names of all the males of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were recorded one by one.

Num 1:43 The total of these for the tribe of Naphtali was fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Num 1:44 Such were the men registered by Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel, of whom there were twelve, each representing his family.

Num 1:45 All the Israelites of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms, were counted by families.

Num 1:46 Altogether, the total came to six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Num 1:47 But the Levites and their tribes were not included in the count.

Num 1:48 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 1:49 'Do not, however, take a census of the Levites, or register them with the other Israelites,

Num 1:50 but enrol the Levites to take charge of the Dwelling where the Testimony is and of all its furnishings and belongings. They must carry the Dwelling and all its furnishings; they must look after the Dwelling and pitch their camp round it.

Num 1:51 Whenever the Dwelling is moved, the Levites will dismantle it; whenever the Dwelling stops for the night, the Levites will erect it. Any unauthorised person coming near it will be put to death.

Num 1:52 The Israelites will pitch their tents, each in their own encampment and by their own standard, company by company,

Num 1:53 but the Levites will pitch their tents round the Dwelling where the Testimony is. In this way Retribution will be kept from falling on the whole community of Israelites, and the Levites will keep charge of the Dwelling of the Testimony.'

Num 1:54 The Israelites did exactly as Yahweh had ordered Moses. They did as he said.

Num 2:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron and said:

Num 2:2 'The Israelites must pitch their tents, each man by his own standard, under their family emblems. They must pitch their tents round the Dwelling where the Testimony is, some distance away.

Num 2:3 'Encamped on the east side: 'Furthest towards the east, the standard of the camp of Judah, unit by unit. Leader of the Judahites: Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Num 2:4 His company: seventy-four thousand six hundred men.

Num 2:5 'Next to him: 'The tribe of Issachar. Leader of the Issacharites: Nethanel son of Zuar.

Num 2:6 His company: fifty-four thousand four hundred men.

Num 2:7 'The tribe of Zebulun. Leader of the Zebulunites: Eliab son of Helon.

Num 2:8 His company: fifty-seven thousand four hundred men.

Num 2:9 'The tribal forces in the camp of Judah number in all a hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred. These will be the first to break camp.

Num 2:10 'On the south side, the standard of the camp of Reuben, unit by unit. Leader of the Reubenites: Elizur son of Shedeur.

Num 2:11 His company: forty-six thousand five hundred men.

Num 2:12 'Next to him: 'The tribe of Simeon. Leader of the Simeonites: Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Num 2:13 His company: fifty-nine thousand three hundred men.

Num 2:14 'The tribe of Gad. Leader of the Gadites: Eliasaph son of Reuel.

Num 2:15 His company: forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty men.

Num 2:16 'The tribal forces in the camp of Reuben number in all a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty. They will be second to break camp.

Num 2:17 'Next, the Tent of Meeting will move, since the camp of the Levites is situated in the middle of the other camps. The order of movement will be the order of encampment, each man under his own standard.

Num 2:18 'On the west side, the standard of the camp of Ephraim, unit by unit. Leader of the Ephraimites: Elishama son of Ammihud.

Num 2:19 His company: forty thousand five hundred men.

Num 2:20 'Next to him: 'The tribe of Manasseh. Leader of the Manassehites: Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Num 2:21 His company: thirty-two thousand two hundred men.

Num 2:22 'The tribe of Benjamin. Leader of the Benjaminites: Abidan son of Gideoni.

Num 2:23 His company: thirty-five thousand four hundred men.

Num 2:24 'The tribal forces in the camp of Ephraim number in all a hundred and eight thousand one hundred. They will be third to break camp.

Num 2:25 'On the north side, the standard of the camp of Dan, unit by unit. Leader of the Danites: Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Num 2:26 His company: sixty-two thousand seven hundred men.

Num 2:27 'Next to him: 'The tribe of Asher. Leader of the Asherites: Pagiel son of Ochran.

Num 2:28 His company: forty-one thousand five hundred men.

Num 2:29 'The tribe of Naphtali. Leader of the Naphtalites: Ahira son of Enan.

Num 2:30 His company: fifty-three thousand four hundred men.

Num 2:31 'The tribal forces in the camp of Dan number in all a hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They will be the last to break camp. 'All under their appropriate standards.'

Num 2:32 Such was the tally of the Israelites when the census was taken by families. The full count of the entire camp, unit by unit, came to six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

Num 2:33 But, as Yahweh had ordered Moses, the Levites were not included in the census of the Israelites.

Num 2:34 The Israelites did exactly as Yahweh had ordered Moses. This was how they pitched camp, grouped by standards. This was how they broke camp, each man in his own clan, each man with his own family.

Num 3:1 These were the descendants of Aaron and Moses, at the time when Yahweh spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Num 3:2 These were the names of Aaron's sons: Nadab the eldest, then Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Num 3:3 Such were the names of Aaron's sons, priests anointed and invested with the powers of the priesthood.

Num 3:4 Nadab and Abihu died in Yahweh's presence, in the desert of Sinai, when they offered unauthorised fire before Yahweh. They left no children and so it fell to Eleazar and Ithamar to exercise the priesthood under their father Aaron.

Num 3:5 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 3:6 'Muster the tribe of Levi and put it at the disposal of the priest Aaron: they must be at his service.

Num 3:7 They will undertake the duties incumbent on him and the whole community before the Tent of Meeting, in serving the Dwelling,

Num 3:8 and they will be in charge of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting and undertake the duties incumbent on the Israelites in serving the Dwelling.

Num 3:9 You will present the Levites to Aaron and his sons as men dedicated; they will be given to him by the Israelites.

Num 3:10 'You will register Aaron and his sons, who will carry out their priestly duty. But any unauthorised person who comes near must be put to death.'

Num 3:11 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 3:12 'Look, I myself have chosen the Levites from the Israelites instead of all the first-born, those who emerge first from the womb in Israel; the Levites therefore belong to me.

Num 3:13 For every first-born belongs to me. On the day when I struck down all the first-born in Egypt, I consecrated all the first-born in Israel, human and animal, to be my own. They are mine, Yahweh's.'

Num 3:14 Yahweh spoke to Moses in the desert of Sinai and said:

Num 3:15 'You must take a census of Levi's descendants by families and clans; all the males of the age of one month and over will be counted.'

Num 3:16 At Yahweh's word Moses took a census of them, as Yahweh had ordered.

Num 3:17 These were the names of Levi's sons: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Num 3:18 These were the names of Gershon's sons by their clans: Libni and Shimei;

Num 3:19 Kohath's sons by their clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel;

Num 3:20 Merari's sons by their clans: Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi, grouped by families.

Num 3:21 From Gershon were descended the Libnite and Shimeite clans; these were the Gershonite clans.

Num 3:22 Their full number, counting the males of one month and over, came to seven thousand five hundred.

Num 3:23 The Gershonite clans pitched their camp behind the Dwelling, on the west side.

Num 3:24 The leader of the House of Gershon was Eliasaph son of Lael.

Num 3:25 As regards the Tent of Meeting, the Gershonites had charge of the Dwelling, the Tent and its covering, the screen for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Num 3:26 the curtaining of the court, the screen for the entrance to the court surrounding the Dwelling and the altar, and the cords required in dealing with all this.

Num 3:27 From Kohath were descended the Amramite, Izharite, Hebronite and Uzzielite clans; these were the Kohathite clans.

Num 3:28 Their full number, counting the males of one month and over, came to eight thousand three hundred. They were in charge of the sanctuary.

Num 3:29 The Kohathite clans pitched their camp on the south side of the Dwelling.

Num 3:30 The leader of the house of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

Num 3:31 They were in charge of the ark, the table, the lamp-stand, the altars, the sacred vessels used in the liturgy, and the curtain with all its fittings.

Num 3:32 The chief of the Levite leaders was Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest. He supervised the people responsible for the sanctuary.

Num 3:33 From Merari were descended the Mahlite and Mushite clans; these were the Merarite clans.

Num 3:34 Their full number, counting the males of one month and over, came to six thousand two hundred.

Num 3:35 The leader of the House of the Merarite clans was Zuriel, son of Abihail. They pitched their camp on the north side of the Dwelling.

Num 3:36 The Merarites were in charge of the framework of the Dwelling, with its crossbars, poles, sockets and all its accessories and fittings,

Num 3:37 and also the poles round the court, with their sockets, pegs and cords.

Num 3:38 Finally, on the east side, in front of the Dwelling, in front of the Tent of Meeting, towards the east, was the camp of Moses and Aaron and his sons, who had charge of the sanctuary on behalf of the Israelites. Any unauthorised person coming near was to be put to death.

Num 3:39 The total number of male Levites of the age of one month and over, whom Moses counted by clans as Yahweh had ordered, came to twenty-two thousand.

Num 3:40 Yahweh said to Moses: 'Take a census of all the first-born of the Israelites, all the males from the age of one month and over; take a census of them by name.'

Num 3:41 You will then present the Levites to me, Yahweh, instead of Israel, and similarly the Levites' cattle instead of the first-born cattle of the Israelites.'

Num 3:42 As Yahweh ordered, Moses took a census of all the first-born of the Israelites.

Num 3:43 The total count, by name, of the first-born from the age of one month and over came to twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

Num 3:44 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said:

Num 3:45 'Take the Levites instead of all the first-born of the Israelites, and the Levites' cattle instead of their cattle; the Levites will be mine, Yahweh's.'

Num 3:46 For the ransom of the two hundred and seventy-three first-born of the Israelites in excess of the number of Levites,

Num 3:47 you will take five shekels for each, by the sanctuary shekel, at twenty gerah to the shekel;

Num 3:48 you will then give this money to Aaron and his sons as the ransom for the extra number.'

Num 3:49 Moses took the ransom money for the extra ones unransomed by the Levites;

Num 3:50 he took the money for the first-born of the Israelites: one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, by the sanctuary shekel;

Num 3:51 and Moses then handed over their ransom money to Aaron and his sons, at Yahweh's bidding, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 4:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 4:2 'Take a census by clans and families of the Levites descended from Kohath:

Num 4:3 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age and eligible for military service, who will have their duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:4 'These are the duties of the Kohathites: looking after those things that are especially holy.'

Num 4:5 'When camp is broken, Aaron and his sons must come and take down the screening curtain, and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.'

Num 4:6 Over this, they will put a covering of fine leather, over which they will spread a cloth entirely of violet-purple. They will then fix the poles to the ark.

Num 4:7 'Over the offertory table they will spread a violet cloth, and on it put the dishes, cups, bowls and libation jars; the bread of permanent offering will also be on it.'

Num 4:8 Over these they will spread a scarlet cloth and cover the whole with a covering of fine leather. They will then fix the poles to the table.

Num 4:9 'They will then take a violet cloth and cover the lamp-stand, its lamps, snuffers, trays and all the oil jars used for it,

Num 4:10 and will lay it and all its accessories in a covering of fine leather and put it on the litter.

Num 4:11 'Over the golden altar they will spread a violet cloth, and cover that with a covering of fine leather.

They will then fix the poles to it.

Num 4:12 'They will then take all the other objects used in the service of the sanctuary, put them in a violet cloth, with a covering of fine leather, and put it all on the litter.

Num 4:13 'When they have removed the ashes from the altar, they will spread a scarlet cloth over it,

Num 4:14 and on this place all the objects used in the liturgy, the fire pans, hooks, scoops, sprinkling basins and all the altar accessories. Over this they will spread a covering of fine leather. They will then fix the poles to it.

Num 4:15 'Once Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy things and all their accessories at the breaking of camp, the Kohathites will come and carry them, but without touching any of the holy things on pain of death. Such is the load for the Kohathites in the Tent of Meeting.'

Num 4:16 But Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, is responsible for looking after the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the daily cereal offering and the anointing oil, and for supervising the entire Dwelling and everything in it, the holy things and their accessories.'

Num 4:17 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 4:18 'You must not let the group of Kohathite clans be lost to the rest of the Levites.

Num 4:19 But deal with them in this way, so that they may survive and not incur death by approaching those things that are especially holy. Aaron and his sons will go in and assign to each of them his task and load,

Num 4:20 in such a way that they have no need to incur the death penalty by going in and setting eyes on the holy things, even for an instant.'

Num 4:21 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 4:22 'Take a census of the Gershonites by families and clans, too:

Num 4:23 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for military service, who will have their duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:24 'These are the duties of the Gershonite clans, their functions and their loads.

Num 4:25 They will carry the curtaining of the Dwelling, the Tent of Meeting with its covering and the covering of fine leather that goes over it, the screen for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Num 4:26 the curtaining of the court, the screen for the entrance to the court surrounding the Dwelling and the altar, the cords, all the accessories for worship, and all the necessary equipment. 'They will be responsible for these things.

Num 4:27 All the duties of the Gershonites, their functions and their loads, will be carried out under the direction of Aaron and his sons: you will see that they fulfil their charge.

Num 4:28 Such are the duties of the Gershonite clans in the Tent of Meeting. Their work will be supervised by Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

Num 4:29 'You will take a census of the Merarites by clans and families.

Num 4:30 You will take a census of all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for military service, who will have their duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:31 'The load they carry and the duties incumbent on them in the Tent of Meeting will be as follows: the framework of the Dwelling, its cross-bars, poles and sockets,

Num 4:32 the poles round the court with their sockets, pegs, cords and all their tackle. You will draw up a list of their names with the loads for which each is responsible.

Num 4:33 'Such are the duties of the Merarite clans. All their duties in the Tent of Meeting will be supervised by Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.'

Num 4:34 Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community took a census of the Kohathites by clans and families:

Num 4:35 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for military service, for duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:36 The number of men counted in their clans came to two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

Num 4:37 Such was the total number of men in the Kohathite clans who were eligible for duties in the Tent of Meeting and whom Moses and Aaron counted at Yahweh's bidding through Moses.

Num 4:38 A census was taken of the Gershonites by clans and families:

Num 4:39 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for military service, for duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:40 The number of men counted in their clans and families came to two thousand six hundred and thirty.

Num 4:41 Such was the total number of men in the Gershonite clans who were eligible for duties in the Tent of Meeting, and whom Moses and Aaron counted at Yahweh's bidding.

Num 4:42 A census was taken of the Merarite clans by clans and families:

Num 4:43 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for military service, for duties in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:44 The number of men counted in their clans came to three thousand two hundred.

Num 4:45 Such was the total number of men in the Merarite clans, whom Moses and Aaron counted at Yahweh's bidding through Moses.

Num 4:46 The total number of Levites whom Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted in their clans and families,

Num 4:47 all the men between thirty and fifty years of age, eligible for religious duties and for those of transporting the Tent of Meeting

Num 4:48 came to eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

Num 4:49 At Yahweh's bidding through Moses, a census was taken of them and each man was assigned his duty and load. And so the census was conducted by Moses as Yahweh had ordered him.

Num 5:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 5:2 'Order the Israelites to expel from the camp all those suffering from a contagious skin-disease or from a discharge, or who have become unclean by touching a corpse.'

Num 5:3 'Whether man or woman, you will expel them; you will expel them from the camp, so that they do not pollute their encampments, in the heart of which I dwell.'

Num 5:4 The Israelites did so: they expelled them from the camp. The Israelites did as Yahweh had told Moses.

Num 5:5 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 5:6 'Speak to the Israelites: "If a man or woman commits any of the sins by which people break faith with Yahweh, that person incurs guilt.'

Num 5:7 "The person must confess the sin committed and restore in full the amount owed, with one-fifth added. Payment is to be made to the person wronged.

Num 5:8 "If, however, the latter has no relation to whom restitution can be made, the restitution due to Yahweh reverts to the priest, apart from the ram of expiation with which the priest makes expiation for the guilty party.

Num 5:9 For of everything the Israelites consecrate and bring to the priest he has a right to the portion set aside.

Num 5:10 Whatever anyone consecrates is his own; whatever is given to the priest belongs to the priest."

Num 5:11 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 5:12 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "If anyone has a wife who goes astray and is unfaithful to him,

Num 5:13 if some other man sleeps with the woman without the husband's knowledge, and she secretly makes herself unclean, without any witness against her, and without anyone catching her in the act;

Num 5:14 if, then, a spirit of suspicion comes over the husband and makes him suspicious of the wife who has disgraced herself, or again if this spirit of suspicion comes over him and makes him suspicious of his wife even when she is innocent,

Num 5:15 the man will bring his wife before the priest, and on her behalf make an offering of one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal. He will not pour oil over it or put incense on it, because this is a cereal offering for a case of suspicion, a memorial offering to recall guilt to mind.

Num 5:16 "The priest will then bring the woman forward and place her before Yahweh.

Num 5:17 The priest will then take fresh water in an earthen jar, and on the water throw dust that he has taken from the floor of the Dwelling.

Num 5:18 After he has placed the woman before Yahweh, he will unbind her hair and put the commemorative cereal offering (that is, the cereal offering for a case of suspicion) into her hands. In his own hands the priest will hold the water of bitterness and cursing.

Num 5:19 "The priest will then put the woman on oath. He will say to her: If it is not true that a man has slept with you, that you have gone astray and made yourself unclean while under your husband's authority, may this water of bitterness and cursing do you no harm.

Num 5:20 But if it is true that you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, that you have made yourself unclean and that a man other than your husband has slept with you . . .

Num 5:21 Here the priest will impose an imprecatory oath on the woman. He will say to her: . . . May Yahweh make you the object of your people's execration and curses, by making your sexual organs shrivel and your belly swell!

Num 5:22 May this water of cursing entering your bowels, make your belly swell and your sexual organs shrivel! To which the woman will reply: Amen! Amen!

Num 5:23 "Having written these curses on a scroll and washed them off in the water of bitterness,

Num 5:24 the priest will make the woman drink the water of bitterness and cursing; when the water of cursing enters into her, it will become bitter.

Num 5:25 "The priest will then take the cereal offering for a case of suspicion from the woman's hands, and hold it up before Yahweh with a gesture of offering, and so carry it up to the altar.

Num 5:26 He will take a handful of it as a memorial and burn it on the altar. "After this, he will make the woman drink the water.

Num 5:27 After he has made her drink it, if it is true that she has made herself unclean and been unfaithful to her husband, the water of cursing then entering into her will indeed be bitter: her belly will swell and her sexual organs shrivel, and she will be an object of execration to her people.

Num 5:28 But if she has not made herself unclean, but is clean, then she will go unscathed and will bear children.

Num 5:29 "Such is the ritual in cases of suspicion, when a woman has gone astray and made herself unclean while under her husband's authority,

Num 5:30 or when a spirit of suspicion has come over a man and made him suspicious of his wife. When a husband brings such a woman before Yahweh, the priest will apply this ritual to her in full.

Num 5:31 The husband will be guiltless, but the woman will bear the consequences of her guilt." '

Num 6:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 6:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "If a man or a woman wishes to make a vow, the nazirite vow, to vow himself to Yahweh,

Num 6:3 he will abstain from wine and fermented liquor, he will not drink vinegar derived from one or the other, he will not drink grape-juice or eat grapes, be they fresh or dried.

Num 6:4 For the duration of his vow he will eat nothing that comes from the vine, not even juice of unripe grapes or skins of grapes.

Num 6:5 As long as he is bound by his vow, no razor will touch his head; until the time for which he has vowed himself to Yahweh is completed, he remains consecrated and will let his hair grow freely.

Num 6:6 For the entire period of his vow to Yahweh, he will not go near a corpse,

Num 6:7 he will not make himself unclean for his father or his mother, or his brother or his sister, should they die, since on his head he carries his vow to his God.

Num 6:8 Throughout the whole of his vow he is a person consecrated to Yahweh.

Num 6:9 "If anyone suddenly dies near him, making his vowed hair unclean, he will shave his head on the day he is purified, he will shave his head on the seventh day.

Num 6:10 On the eighth day, he will bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 6:11 The priest will offer one as a sacrifice for sin, and the other as a burnt offering and will then perform for the person the rite of expiation for the pollution which he has contracted from the corpse. He will consecrate his head that same day;

Num 6:12 he will vow himself to Yahweh for the period of his nazirite, and will bring a male yearling lamb as a sacrifice of reparation. The time already spent will not count, since his hair had become unclean.

Num 6:13 "This is the ritual for the nazirite on the day when the period of his vow is completed. He will be led to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting,

Num 6:14 bringing his offering to Yahweh: an unblemished male yearling lamb as a burnt offering, an unblemished yearling ewe lamb as a sacrifice for sin, an unblemished ram as a peace offering,

Num 6:15 and a basket of unleavened loaves made of fine flour mixed with oil, and of unleavened wafers spread with oil, with the cereal offerings and libations appropriate to them.

Num 6:16 The priest, having brought all this before Yahweh, will offer the nazirite's sin sacrifice and burnt offering.

Num 6:17 The latter will then offer the ram as a communion sacrifice with the basket of unleavened bread, and the priest will offer the accompanying cereal offering and libation.

Num 6:18 The nazirite will then shave off his vowed hair at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and, taking the locks of his vowed head, he will put them in the fire of the communion sacrifice.

Num 6:19 The priest will take the shoulder of the ram, as soon as it is cooked, with an unleavened cake from the basket, and an unleavened wafer, and put them into the hands of the nazirite once he has shaved off his hair.

Num 6:20 With these he will make the gesture of offering before Yahweh; as it is a holy thing, it reverts to the priest, in addition to the forequarter that has been presented and the thigh that has been set aside. After this, the nazirite may drink wine.

Num 6:21 "Such is the ritual for the nazirite. If, besides his hair, he has also vowed a personal offering to Yahweh, he will (apart from anything else that his means allow) fulfil the vow that he has made, in addition to what the ritual prescribes for his hair." '

Num 6:22 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 6:23 'Speak to Aaron and his sons and say: "This is how you must bless the Israelites. You will say:

Num 6:24 May Yahweh bless you and keep you.

Num 6:25 May Yahweh let his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

Num 6:26 May Yahweh show you his face and bring you peace."

Num 6:27 This is how they must call down my name on the Israelites, and then I shall bless them.'

Num 7:1 On the day Moses finished erecting the Dwelling, he anointed and consecrated it and all its furniture, as well as the altar and all its equipment. When he had anointed and consecrated it all,

Num 7:2 the leaders of Israel made an offering; they were the heads of their families, the tribal leaders who had presided over the census.

Num 7:3 They brought their offering before Yahweh: six covered wagons and twelve oxen, one wagon for every two leaders and one ox each. They brought them in front of the Dwelling.

Num 7:4 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 7:5 'Accept these from them, and let them be set apart for the service of the Tent of Meeting. You will give them to the Levites, to each as his duties require.'

Num 7:6 Moses took the wagons and oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

Num 7:7 To the Gershonites he gave two wagons and four oxen for the duties they had to perform.

Num 7:8 To the Merarites he gave four wagons and eight oxen for the duties they had to perform under the direction of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

Num 7:9 But to the Kohathites he gave none at all, because the sacred charge entrusted to them had to be carried on their shoulders.

Num 7:10 The leaders then made an offering for the dedication of the altar, on the day it was anointed. They brought their offering before the altar,

Num 7:11 and Yahweh said to Moses, 'Each day one of the leaders must bring his offering for the dedication of the altar.'

Num 7:12 On the first day an offering was brought by Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah.

Num 7:13 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:14 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:15 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:16 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:17 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Num 7:18 On the second day an offering was brought by Nethanel son of Zuar, leader of Issachar.

Num 7:19 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:20 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:21 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:22 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:23 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar.

Num 7:24 On the third day an offering was brought by Eliab son of Helon, leader of the Zebulunites.

Num 7:25 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:26 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:27 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:28 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:29 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

Num 7:30 On the fourth day an offering was brought by Elizur son of Shedeur, leader of the Reubenites.

Num 7:31 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:32 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:33 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:34 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:35 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

Num 7:36 On the fifth day an offering was brought by Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, leader of the Simeonites.

Num 7:37 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:38 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:39 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:40 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:41 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Num 7:42 On the sixth day an offering was brought by Eliasaph son of Reuel, leader of the Gadites.

Num 7:43 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:44 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:45 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:46 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:47 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Eliasaph son of Reuel.

Num 7:48 On the seventh day an offering was brought by Elishama son of Ammihud, leader of the Ephraimites.

Num 7:49 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:50 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:51 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:52 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:53 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

Num 7:54 On the eighth day an offering was brought by Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, leader of the Manassehites.

Num 7:55 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:56 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:57 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:58 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:59 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Num 7:60 On the ninth day an offering was brought by Abidan son of Gideoni, leader of the Benjaminites.

Num 7:61 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:62 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:63 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:64 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:65 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

Num 7:66 On the tenth day an offering was brought by Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, leader of the Danites.

Num 7:67 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:68 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:69 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:70 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:71 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Num 7:72 On the eleventh day an offering was brought by Pagiel son of Ochran, leader of the Asherites.

Num 7:73 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:74 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:75 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:76 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:77 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Pagiel son of Ochran.

Num 7:78 On the twelfth day an offering was brought by Ahira son of Enan, leader of the Naphtalites.

Num 7:79 His offering consisted of: one silver bowl weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels (sanctuary shekels), both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering,

Num 7:80 one golden bowl weighing ten shekels, full of incense,

Num 7:81 one young bull, one ram and one male yearling lamb as a burnt offering,

Num 7:82 one he-goat as a sacrifice for sin,

Num 7:83 and two bulls, five rams, five he-goats and five male yearling lambs as a communion sacrifice. Such was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

Num 7:84 Such were the offerings made by the leaders of Israel for the dedication of the altar on the day it was anointed: twelve silver bowls, twelve silver sprinkling bowls, and twelve golden bowls.

Num 7:85 Each silver bowl weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, and each sprinkling bowl seventy, the silver of these objects weighing in all two thousand four hundred sanctuary shekels.

Num 7:86 The twelve golden bowls full of incense each weighed ten shekels (sanctuary shekels), the gold of these bowls weighing in all a hundred and twenty shekels.

Num 7:87 The sum total of animals for the burnt offering: twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male yearling lambs, with their cereal offerings. For the sacrifice for sin, twelve he-goats.

Num 7:88 The sum total of animals for the communion sacrifice: twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty he-goats and sixty male yearling lambs. Such were the offerings for the dedication of the altar, after it had been anointed.

Num 7:89 When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with him, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy-seat on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two great winged creatures. He then spoke to him.

Num 8:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 8:2 'Speak to Aaron and say, "When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps must throw their light towards the front of the lamp-stand." '

Num 8:3 Aaron did this. He set up the lamps to the front of the lamp-stand, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 8:4 This lamp-stand was worked in beaten gold, including its stem and its petals, which were also of beaten gold. This lamp-stand had been made according to the pattern Yahweh had shown to Moses.

Num 8:5 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 8:6 'Separate the Levites from the Israelites and purify them.

Num 8:7 This is how you must purify them: you will sprinkle them with purifying water, and they will shave their bodies all over and wash their clothes. They will then be clean.

Num 8:8 They will then take a young bull, with the accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you will take a second young bull for a sacrifice for sin.

Num 8:9 You will then bring the Levites in front of the Tent of Meeting, and assemble the whole community of Israelites.

Num 8:10 Once you have brought the Levites before Yahweh, the Israelites will lay their hands on them.

Num 8:11 Aaron will then offer the Levites, making the gesture of offering before Yahweh on behalf of the Israelites, admitting them to Yahweh's service.

Num 8:12 'The Levites will then lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, one of which you will offer as a sacrifice for sin, and the other as a burnt offering to Yahweh, to perform the rite of expiation for the Levites.

Num 8:13 Having brought the Levites before Aaron and his sons, you will present them to Yahweh with the gesture of offering.

Num 8:14 That is how you will set the Levites apart from the Israelites, for them to be mine.

Num 8:15 The Levites will then begin their ministry in the Tent of Meeting. 'You will purify them and offer them with the gesture of offering

Num 8:16 because, of the Israelites, they have been dedicated to me in place of all those who first emerge from the womb, instead of the first-born; of all the Israelites, I have taken them for my own.

Num 8:17 For all the first-born of the Israelites, whether human or animal, do indeed belong to me: the day I struck down all the first-born in Egypt, I consecrated them to myself,

Num 8:18 and now, in place of all the first-born of the Israelites, I have taken the Levites.

Num 8:19 Of the Israelites, I give the Levites to Aaron and his sons, as dedicated men, to minister in the Tent of Meeting on behalf of the Israelites and perform the rite of expiation for them, so that no disaster befalls the Israelites when the Israelites come close to the sanctuary.'

Num 8:20 Moses, Aaron and the whole community of Israelites dealt with the Levites exactly as Yahweh had ordered Moses concerning them; this is what the Israelites did with them.

Num 8:21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes, and Aaron presented them with the gesture of offering before Yahweh. He then performed the rite of expiation for them to purify them.

Num 8:22 The Levites were then allowed to perform their ministry in the Tent of Meeting in the presence of Aaron and his sons. As Yahweh had ordered Moses concerning the Levites, so it was done with them.

Num 8:23 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 8:24 'This concerns the Levites. From the age of twenty-five onwards, the Levite will exercise his ministry and do duty in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 8:25 After the age of fifty, he is no longer bound to the ministry; he will have no further duties;

Num 8:26 but he will still help his brothers to assure the services in the Tent of Meeting, though he himself will no longer have any ministry. That is how you will act as regards the ministry of the Levites.'

Num 9:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, in the desert of Sinai, in the second year after the exodus from Egypt, in the first month, and said:

Num 9:2 'The Israelites must keep the Passover at its appointed time.

Num 9:3 The fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, is the time appointed for you to keep it. You will keep it with all the laws and customs proper to it.'

Num 9:4 Moses told the Israelites to keep the Passover.

Num 9:5 They kept it, in the desert of Sinai, in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight.

The Israelites did everything as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 9:6 It happened that some men had become unclean by touching a dead body; they could not keep the Passover that day. They came the same day to Moses and Aaron,

Num 9:7 and said, 'We have become unclean by touching a dead body. Why should we be excluded from bringing an offering to Yahweh at the proper time with the rest of the Israelites?'

Num 9:8 Moses replied, 'Wait here until I hear what order Yahweh gives about you.'

Num 9:9 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 9:10 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "Any of you or your descendants who becomes unclean by touching a dead body, or is away on a long journey, can still keep a Passover for Yahweh.

Num 9:11 Such persons will keep it in the second month, on the fourteenth day, at twilight. They will eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs;

Num 9:12 nothing of it must be left over until morning, nor will they break any of its bones. They will keep it, following the entire Passover ritual.

Num 9:13 But anyone who is clean, or who is not on a journey, but fails to keep the Passover, such a person will be outlawed from his people. For not having brought the offering to Yahweh at its appointed time, the person will bear the consequences of the sin.

Num 9:14 "A resident alien who keeps a Passover for Yahweh, will keep it in accordance with the ritual and customs of the Passover. You will have one law for alien and citizen alike."

Num 9:15 On the day the Dwelling was erected, the cloud covered the Dwelling, the Tent of the Testimony. From nightfall until morning it remained over the Dwelling looking like fire.

Num 9:16 So the cloud covered it all the time, and at night it looked like fire.

Num 9:17 Whenever the cloud rose from the Tent, the Israelites broke camp, and wherever the cloud halted, there the Israelites pitched camp.

Num 9:18 At Yahweh's order, the Israelites set out and, at Yahweh's order, the Israelites pitched camp. They remained in camp for as long as the cloud rested on the Dwelling.

Num 9:19 If the cloud stayed for many days on the Dwelling, the Israelites performed their duty to Yahweh and did not set out.

Num 9:20 But if the cloud happened to stay for only a few days on the Dwelling, just as they had pitched camp at Yahweh's order, at Yahweh's order they set out.

Num 9:21 If the cloud happened to remain only from evening to morning, they set out when it lifted the next morning. Or, if it stayed for a whole day and night, they set out only when it lifted.

Num 9:22 Sometimes it stayed there for two days, a month, or a longer time; however long the cloud rested on the Dwelling, the Israelites remained in camp, and when it lifted they set out.

Num 9:23 At Yahweh's order they pitched camp, and at Yahweh's order they set out. They performed their duty to Yahweh, as Yahweh had ordered through Moses.

Num 10:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 10:2 'Make yourself two trumpets; make them of beaten silver, so that you can use them for summoning the community, and for sounding the order to break camp.

Num 10:3 Whenever they are sounded, the whole community must gather round you, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 10:4 But if only one trumpet is sounded, then only the leaders, the heads of Israel's thousands, must gather round you.

Num 10:5 'When the trumpet blast is accompanied by a battle cry, the encampments pitched to the east will set out.

Num 10:6 At the second blast accompanied by a battle cry, the encampments pitched to the south will set out. For breaking camp, the trumpet blast will be accompanied by a battle cry,

Num 10:7 but for assembling the community the trumpets will be sounded without battle cry.

Num 10:8 The Aaronite priests will sound the trumpets; this is a perpetual decree for you and your descendants.

Num 10:9 'When in your country you go to war against an enemy who is oppressing you, you will sound trumpets with a battle cry, and Yahweh your God will remember you, and you will be delivered from your enemies.'

Num 10:10 At your festivals, solemnities and new-moon feasts, you will sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and communion sacrifices, so that they recall you to the remembrance of your God. I am Yahweh your God.'

Num 10:11 In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud rose from where the Dwelling of the Testimony was,

Num 10:12 and the Israelites set out, in marching order, from the desert of Sinai. The cloud came to rest in the desert of Paran.

Num 10:13 These were the men who set out in the vanguard, at Yahweh's order through Moses:

Num 10:14 first went the standard of the camp of the Judahites and their units, with Nahshon son of Amminadab commanding that contingent;

Num 10:15 Nethanel son of Zuar commanding the tribal contingent of the Issacharites;

Num 10:16 and Eliab son of Helon commanding the tribal contingent of the Zebulunites.

Num 10:17 The Dwelling was then dismantled and the Gershonites and Merarites set out, carrying the Dwelling.

Num 10:18 Then came the standard of the camp of the Reubenites and their units, with Elizur son of Shedeur commanding that contingent;

Num 10:19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai commanding the tribal contingent of the Simeonites;

Num 10:20 and Eliasaph son of Reuel commanding the tribal contingent of the Gadites.

Num 10:21 Then came the Kohathites carrying the sanctuary (the Dwelling was erected before they arrived).

Num 10:22 Then came the standard of the camp of the Ephraimites and their units, with Elishama son of Ammihud commanding that contingent;

Num 10:23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur commanding the tribal contingent of the Manassehites;

Num 10:24 and Abidan son of Gideoni commanding the tribal contingent of the Benjaminites.

Num 10:25 Last of all, the rearguard of all the camps, came the standard of the camp of the Danites and their units, with Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai commanding that contingent;

Num 10:26 Pagièl son of Ochran commanding the tribal contingent of the Asherites;

Num 10:27 and Ahira son of Enan commanding the tribal contingent of the Naphtalites.

Num 10:28 Such was the order of march for the Israelites, unit by unit. So they set out.

Num 10:29 Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, his father-in-law, 'We are setting out for the country of which Yahweh has said: I shall give it to you. Come with us, and we will treat you well, for Yahweh has promised good things for Israel.'

Num 10:30 'I will not come with you,' he replied, 'but shall go to my own country and kin.'

Num 10:31 'Do not leave us,' Moses said, 'for you know where we can camp in the desert, and so you will be our eyes.'

Num 10:32 If you come with us, we shall share with you whatever blessings Yahweh gives us.'

Num 10:33 They set out from Yahweh's mountain and travelled for three days, while the ark of the covenant of Yahweh preceded them on the three-day journey, searching out a place for them to halt.

Num 10:34 In the daytime, Yahweh's cloud was over them, once they had broken camp.

Num 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say: Rise, Yahweh, may your enemies be scattered and those who hate you flee at your approach!

Num 10:36 And when it halted, he would say: Come back, Yahweh, to the countless thousands of Israel!

Num 11:1 Now the people began to complain, which was offensive to Yahweh's ears. When Yahweh heard, his anger was aroused and the fire of Yahweh broke out among them; it devoured one end of the camp.

Num 11:2 The people appealed to Moses who interceded with Yahweh and the fire died down.

Num 11:3 So the place was called Taberah, because the fire of Yahweh had broken out among them.

Num 11:4 The rabble who had joined the people were feeling the pangs of hunger, and the Israelites began to weep again. 'Who will give us meat to eat?' they said.

Num 11:5 'Think of the fish we used to eat free in Egypt, the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic!'

Num 11:6 But now we are withering away; there is nothing wherever we look except this manna!'

Num 11:7 The manna was like coriander seed and had the appearance of bdellium.

Num 11:8 The people went round gathering it, and ground it in a mill or crushed it with a pestle; it was then cooked in a pot and made into pancakes. It tasted like cake made with oil.

Num 11:9 When the dew fell on the camp at night-time, the manna fell with it.

Num 11:10 Moses heard the people weeping, each family at the door of its tent. Yahweh's anger was greatly aroused; Moses too found it disgraceful, Num 11:11 and he said to Yahweh: 'Why do you treat your servant so badly? In what respect have I failed to win your favour, for you to lay the burden of all these people on me?

Num 11:12 Was it I who conceived all these people, was I their father, for you to say to me, "Carry them in your arms, like a foster-father carrying an unweaned child, to the country which I swore to give their fathers"?

Num 11:13 Where am I to find meat to give all these people, pestering me with their tears and saying, "Give us meat to eat"?

Num 11:14 I cannot carry all these people on my own; the weight is too much for me.

Num 11:15 If this is how you mean to treat me, please kill me outright! If only I could win your favour and be spared the sight of my misery!

Num 11:16 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Collect me seventy of the elders of Israel, men you know to be the people's elders and scribes. Bring them to the Tent of Meeting, and let them stand beside you there.'

Num 11:17 I shall come down and talk to you there and shall take some of the spirit which is on you and put it on them. Then they will bear the burden of the people with you, and you will no longer have to bear it on your own.

Num 11:18 'And say to the people, "Purify yourselves for tomorrow and you will have meat to eat, since you have wept in Yahweh's hearing, saying: Who will give us meat to eat? How happy we were in Egypt! Very well, Yahweh will give you meat to eat."

Num 11:19 You will eat it not for one day, or two, or five, or ten or twenty,

Num 11:20 but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and sickens you, since you have rejected Yahweh who is among you, and have wept before him saying: Why did we ever leave Egypt?"'

Num 11:21 Moses said, 'The people round me number six hundred thousand foot soldiers, and you say, "I shall give them meat to eat for a whole month"!'

Num 11:22 If all the flocks and herds were slaughtered, would that be enough for them? If all the fish in the seas were collected, would that be enough for them?'

Num 11:23 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Is the arm of Yahweh so short? You shall see whether the promise I have made to you comes true or not.'

Num 11:24 Moses went out and told the people what Yahweh had said. Then he collected seventy of the people's elders and stationed them round the Tent.

Num 11:25 Yahweh descended in the cloud. He spoke to him and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied -- but only once.

Num 11:26 Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp.

Num 11:27 A young man ran to tell Moses this. 'Look,' he said, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.'

Num 11:28 Joshua son of Nun, who had served Moses since he was a boy, spoke up and said, 'My lord Moses, stop them!'

Num 11:29 Moses replied, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only all Yahweh's people were prophets, and Yahweh had given them his spirit!'

Num 11:30 Moses then went back to the camp with the elders of Israel.

Num 11:31 A wind, sent by Yahweh, started blowing from the sea bringing quails which it deposited on the camp. They lay for a distance of a day's march either side of the camp, two cubits thick on the ground.

Num 11:32 The people were up all that day and night and all the next day collecting quails: the least gathered by anyone was ten homer; then they spread them out round the camp.

Num 11:33 The meat was still between their teeth, not even chewed, when Yahweh's anger was aroused by the people. Yahweh struck them with a very great plague.

Num 11:34 The name given to this place was Kibroth-ha-Taavah, because it was there that they buried the people who had indulged their greed.

Num 11:35 From Kibroth-ha-Taavah the people set out for Hazereth, and at Hazereth they pitched camp.

Num 12:1 Miriam, and Aaron too, criticised Moses over the Cushite woman he had married. He had indeed married a Cushite woman.

Num 12:2 They said, 'Is Moses the only one through whom Yahweh has spoken? Has he not spoken through us too?' Yahweh heard this.

Num 12:3 Now Moses was extremely humble, the humblest man on earth.

Num 12:4 Suddenly Yahweh said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, 'Come out, all three of you, to the Tent of Meeting.' They went, all three of them,

Num 12:5 and Yahweh descended in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the Tent. He called Aaron and Miriam and they both came forward.

Num 12:6 Yahweh said: Listen to my words! if there is a prophet among you, I reveal myself to him in a vision, I speak to him in a dream.

Num 12:7 Not so with my servant Moses; to him my whole household is entrusted;

Num 12:8 to him I speak face to face, plainly and not in riddles, and he sees Yahweh's form. How, then, could you dare to criticise my servant Moses?

Num 12:9 Yahweh's anger was aroused by them. He went away,

Num 12:10 and as soon as the cloud left the Tent, there was Miriam covered with a virulent skin-disease, white as snow! Aaron turned to look at her and saw that she had contracted a virulent skin-disease.

Num 12:11 Aaron said to Moses: 'Oh, my Lord, please do not punish us for the sin we have been foolish enough to commit.

Num 12:12 Do not let her be like some monster with its flesh half eaten away when it leaves its mother's womb!

Num 12:13 Moses pleaded with Yahweh. 'O God,' he said, 'I beg you, please heal her!'

Num 12:14 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'If her father had done no more than spit in her face, would she not be unclean for seven days? Have her shut out of the camp for seven days, and then have her brought in again.'

Num 12:15 Miriam was shut out of the camp for seven days. The people did not set out until she returned.

Num 12:16 Then the people moved on from Hazeroth and pitched camp in the desert of Paran.

Num 13:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 13:2 'Send out men, one from each tribe, to reconnoitre the land of Canaan which I am giving the Israelites. Each of them is to be a leading man of the tribe.'

Num 13:3 At Yahweh's order, Moses sent them from the desert of Paran. All of them were leading men of Israel.

Num 13:4 These were their names: For the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur:

Num 13:5 for the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

Num 13:6 for the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Num 13:7 for the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

Num 13:8 for the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;

Num 13:9 for the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

Num 13:10 for the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

Num 13:11 for the tribe of Joseph, for the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi son of Susi;

Num 13:12 for the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

Num 13:13 for the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

Num 13:14 for the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophs;

Num 13:15 for the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi.

Num 13:16 Such were the names of the men whom Moses sent to reconnoitre the country. Moses then gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.

Num 13:17 Moses sent them to reconnoitre the land of Canaan, 'Go up into the Negeb,' he said, 'then go up into the highlands.

Num 13:18 See what sort of country it is, and what sort of people the inhabitants are, whether they are strong or weak, few or many,

Num 13:19 what sort of land they live on, whether it is good or poor; what sort of towns they live in, whether they are open or fortified;

Num 13:20 what sort of land it is, fertile or barren, wooded or open. Be bold, and bring back some of the country's produce.' It was the season for early grapes.

Num 13:21 They went up and reconnoitred the country from the desert of Zin to Rehob, the Pass of Hamath.

Num 13:22 They went up by way of the Negeb as far as Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the Anakim, lived. (Hebron was founded seven years before Tanis in Egypt.)

Num 13:23 Reaching the Vale of Eshcol, there they lopped off a vine branch with a cluster of grapes, which two of them carried away on a pole, as well as pomegranates and figs.

Num 13:24 This place was called the Vale of Eshcol after the cluster which the Israelites cut there.

Num 13:25 After forty days they returned from reconnoitring the country.

Num 13:26 Making their way to Moses, Aaron and the whole community of Israel, in the desert of Paran, at Kadesh, they made their report to them and the whole community, and displayed the country's produce.

Num 13:27 This was the report they gave: 'We made our way into the country where you sent us. It does indeed flow with milk and honey; here is what it produces.

Num 13:28 At the same time, its inhabitants are a powerful people; the towns are fortified and very big; yes, and we saw the Anakim there.

Num 13:29 The Amalekites occupy the Negeb area, the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites the highlands, and the Canaanites the sea coast and the banks of the Jordan.'

Num 13:30 Caleb called the people round Moses to silence and then said, 'We must march in immediately and take it; we are certainly able to conquer it.'

Num 13:31 But the men who had been with him said, 'We cannot attack these people; they are stronger than we are.'

Num 13:32 And they began disparaging to the Israelites the country they had reconnoitred, saying, 'The country we have been to reconnoitre is a country that devours its inhabitants. All the people we saw there were of enormous size.'

Num 13:33 We saw giants there too (the Anakim, descended from the Giants). We felt like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them.'

Num 14:1 The whole community then cried out in dismay, and the people wept all that night.

Num 14:2 All the Israelites muttered at Moses and Aaron, and the whole community said to them, 'Would to God we had died in Egypt, or even that we had died in this desert!'

Num 14:3 Why has Yahweh brought us to this country, for us to perish by the sword and our wives and children to be seized as booty? Should we not do better to go back to Egypt?'

Num 14:4 And they said to one another, 'Let us appoint a leader and go back to Egypt.'

Num 14:5 At this, Moses and Aaron threw themselves on their faces in front of the whole assembled community of Israelites,

Num 14:6 while Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, two of the men who had reconnoitred the country, tore their clothes

Num 14:7 and addressed the whole community of Israelites as follows, 'The country we went to reconnoitre is a good country, an excellent country.'

Num 14:8 If Yahweh is pleased with us, he will lead us into this country and give it to us. It is a country flowing with milk and honey.

Num 14:9 But do not rebel against Yahweh or be afraid of the people of the country, for we shall gobble them up. Their protecting shade has deserted them, while we have Yahweh on our side. Do not be afraid of them.'

Num 14:10 The whole community was talking of stoning them, when the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the Israelites, inside the Tent of Meeting,

Num 14:11 and Yahweh said to Moses: 'How much longer will these people treat me with contempt? How much longer will they refuse to trust me, in spite of all the signs I have displayed among them?'

Num 14:12 I shall strike them with pestilence and disown them. And of you I shall make a new nation, greater and mightier than they are.'

Num 14:13 Moses said to Yahweh: 'Suppose the Egyptians hear about this -- for by your power you brought these people out of their country-

Num 14:14 and tell the people living in this country. They have heard that you, Yahweh, are with this people, and that you, Yahweh, show yourself to them face to face; that your cloud stands over them and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.'

Num 14:15 If you kill this people now as though it were one man, then the nations who have heard about you will say,

Num 14:16 "Yahweh was not able to bring this people into the country which he had sworn to give them, and so he has slaughtered them in the desert."

Num 14:17 No, my Lord! Now is the time to assert your power as you promised when you said, earlier,

Num 14:18 "Yahweh, slow to anger and rich in faithful love, forgiving faults and transgression, and yet letting nothing go unchecked, punishing the parents' guilt in the children to the third and fourth generation."

Num 14:19 In your most faithful love, please forgive this people's guilt, as you have done from Egypt until now.'

Num 14:20 Yahweh said, 'I forgive them as you ask.'

Num 14:21 But -- as I live, and as the glory of Yahweh fills the whole world-

Num 14:22 of all these people who have seen my glory and the signs that I worked in Egypt and in the desert, who have put me to the test ten times already and not obeyed my voice,

Num 14:23 not one shall see the country which I promised to give their ancestors. Not one of those who have treated me contemptuously will see it.

Num 14:24 However, since my servant Caleb is of another spirit and since he has obeyed me completely, I shall bring him into the country where he has been, and his descendants will own it

Num 14:25 (the Amalekites and Canaanites occupy the plain). Tomorrow you will turn about and go back into the desert, in the direction of the Sea of Suph.'

Num 14:26 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and Aaron and said:

Num 14:27 'How much longer am I to endure this perverse community muttering against me? I have heard what the Israelites mutter against me.'

Num 14:28 Say to them, "As I live, Yahweh declares, I shall do to you what I have heard you saying.

Num 14:29 In this desert your dead bodies will fall, all you who were counted in the census, from the age of twenty years and over who have muttered against me.'

Num 14:30 I swear none of you will enter the country where I swore most solemnly to settle you, except Caleb son of Jephunneh, and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 14:31 Your children, who you said would be seized as booty, will be the ones whom I shall bring in so that they get to know the country you disdained,

Num 14:32 but, as for you, your dead bodies will fall in this desert

Num 14:33 and your children will be nomads in the desert for forty years, bearing the consequences of your faithlessness, until the last one of you lies dead in the desert.

Num 14:34 For forty days you reconnoitred the country. Each day will count as a year: for forty years you will bear the consequences of your guilt and learn what it means to reject me."

Num 14:35 I, Yahweh, have spoken: this is how I swear to treat this entire perverse community united against me. In this desert, to the last man, they shall die.'

Num 14:36 The men whom Moses had sent to reconnoitre the country and who on their return had incited the whole community of Israel to mutter about him by disparaging it,

Num 14:37 these men who had disparaged the country were all struck dead before Yahweh.

Num 14:38 Of the men who had gone to reconnoitre the country, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were left alive.

Num 14:39 When Moses told all the Israelites what had been said, the people set up a great outcry.

Num 14:40 Early next morning they set out for the heights of the hill country saying, 'Look, we will set out for the place about which Yahweh said that we have sinned.'

Num 14:41 To which, Moses said, 'Why disobey Yahweh's order? No success will come of doing so.

Num 14:42 Do not go, for Yahweh is not among you, and you will be defeated by your enemies.

Num 14:43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are ahead of you, and you will be put to the sword, since you have turned away from Yahweh, and Yahweh is not with you.'

Num 14:44 All the same, they presumptuously set off for the heights of the hill country. Neither the ark of the covenant of Yahweh nor Moses left the camp.

Num 14:45 The Amalekites and Canaanites living in those highlands then came down, defeated them and harried them all the way to Hormah.

Num 15:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 15:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "When you have arrived in the country where you are to live and which I am giving to you,

Num 15:3 and you burn food as an offering to Yahweh either as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice, whether in payment of a vow, or as a voluntary gift, or on the occasion of one of your solemn feasts, from your herds and flocks as a smell pleasing to Yahweh:

Num 15:4 the offerer will, as his personal gift to Yahweh, bring a cereal offering of one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-quarter of a hin of oil.

Num 15:5 You will also make a libation of wine, one-quarter of a hin to each lamb, in addition to the burnt offering or sacrifice.

Num 15:6 For a ram, you will make a cereal offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil,

Num 15:7 and a libation of one-third of a hin of wine as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Num 15:8 If you offer a bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice, in payment of a vow or as a communion sacrifice for Yahweh,

Num 15:9 in addition to the animal you will offer a cereal offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil,

Num 15:10 and you will offer a libation of half a hin of wine, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Num 15:11 This will be done for every bull, every ram, every lamb or kid.

Num 15:12 Whatever the number of victims you intend to offer, you will do the same for each of them, however many there are.

Num 15:13 "Every citizen of the country will act in this way whenever he offers food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh;

Num 15:14 and if an alien residing with you or with your descendants intends to offer food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, he will do as you do.

Num 15:15 There will be one law for you, members of the community, and the resident alien alike, a law binding your descendants for ever: before Yahweh you and the resident alien are no different.'

Num 15:16 One law, one statute, will apply for you and the resident alien."

Num 15:17 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 15:18 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "When you have entered the country to which I am bringing you,

Num 15:19 you will set a portion aside for Yahweh when you eat that country's bread.

Num 15:20 You will set one cake aside as the first-fruits of your dough; you will set this offering aside like the one set aside from your threshing.

Num 15:21 For all future generations you will set a portion of your dough aside for Yahweh.

Num 15:22 "If through inadvertence you fail in any of these orders which Yahweh has given to Moses

Num 15:23 (whatever orders Yahweh has given you or your descendants through Moses, from the day when Yahweh gave his orders),

Num 15:24 this is what must be done: "If it is an inadvertence on the part of the community, the community as a whole will offer a young bull as a burnt offering, as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, with the prescribed accompanying cereal offering and libation, and a he-goat as a sacrifice for sin.

Num 15:25 The priest will perform the rite of expiation for the entire community of Israelites, and they will be forgiven, since it was an inadvertence. Once they have brought their offering as food burnt for Yahweh, and have presented their sacrifice for sin before Yahweh to make amends for their inadvertence,

Num 15:26 the whole community of Israelites will be forgiven, as also the alien residing with them, since the entire people acted by inadvertence.

Num 15:27 "If it is an individual who has sinned by inadvertence, he will offer a yearling kid as a sacrifice for sin.

Num 15:28 The priest will perform the rite of expiation before Yahweh for the person who has gone astray owing to this sin of inadvertence and, expiation having been made for him, he will be forgiven;

Num 15:29 whether he is an Israelite citizen or a resident alien, you will have one law for anyone who sins by inadvertence.

Num 15:30 "But the individual who acts deliberately, be he citizen or alien, commits an outrage against Yahweh, and such a man will be outlawed from his people.

Num 15:31 Since he has treated Yahweh's word with contempt and has disobeyed his order, such a man will be outlawed absolutely and will bear the consequences of his guilt."

Num 15:32 While the Israelites were in the desert, a man was caught gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

Num 15:33 Those who caught him gathering wood brought him before Moses, Aaron and the whole community.

Num 15:34 He was kept in custody, because the penalty he should undergo had not yet been fixed.

Num 15:35 Yahweh said to Moses, 'This man must be put to death. The whole community will stone him outside the camp.'

Num 15:36 The whole community took him outside the camp and stoned him till he was dead, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 15:37 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 15:38 'Speak to the Israelites and tell them, for all generations to come, to put tassels on the hems of their clothes and work a violet thread into the tassel at the hem.

Num 15:39 You will thus have a tassel, and the sight of it will remind you of all Yahweh's orders and how you are to put them into practice, and not follow the dictates of your own heart and eyes, which have led you to be unfaithful.

Num 15:40 'This will remind you of all my orders; put them into practice, and you will be consecrated to your God.

Num 15:41 I, Yahweh your God, have brought you out of Egypt, to be your God, I, Yahweh your God.'

Num 16:1 Now Korah son of Izhar, son of Kohath the Levite, and the Reubenites Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth were proud

Num 16:2 and rebelled against Moses with two hundred and fifty Israelites who were leaders of the community, prominent at the solemn feasts, men of repute.

Num 16:3 These banded together against Moses and Aaron and said to them, 'You take too much on yourselves! The whole community, all its members, are consecrated, and Yahweh lives among them. Why set yourselves higher than Yahweh's community?'

Num 16:4 On hearing this, Moses threw himself on his face.

Num 16:5 Then he said to Korah and all in his party, 'Tomorrow morning Yahweh will reveal who is his, who the consecrated man whom he will allow to approach him. The one he allows to approach is the one whom he has chosen.

Num 16:6 This is what you must do: take the censers of Korah and all in his party,

Num 16:7 put fire in them and put incense in them before Yahweh tomorrow, and the one whom Yahweh chooses will be the consecrated man. Levites, you take too much on yourselves!'

Num 16:8 Moses then said to Korah, 'Now listen, you Levites!

Num 16:9 Is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has singled you out of the community of Israel, and called you to be near him, to serve in Yahweh's Dwelling and to represent the community by officiating on its behalf?

Num 16:10 He has called you to be near him, you and all your brother Levites with you, and now you want to be priests as well!

Num 16:11 For which reason, you and all in your party have banded together against Yahweh himself: for what is Aaron, that you should mutter against him?'

Num 16:12 Moses then summoned Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab. They replied, 'We will not come.'

Num 16:13 Is it not enough for you to have brought us away from a country flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert, without your making yourself our absolute ruler?

Num 16:14 What is more, you have not brought us to a country flowing with milk and honey and you have not given us fields and vineyards for our heritage. Do you think you can hoodwink these people? We will not come.'

Num 16:15 Moses flew into a rage and said to Yahweh, 'Disregard their cereal offering! I have not taken so much as a donkey from them, nor have I wronged any of them.'

Num 16:16 Moses said to Korah, 'You and all your party, come before Yahweh tomorrow, you and they, and Aaron too.'

Num 16:17 Each will take his censer, put incense in it, and bring his censer before Yahweh -- two hundred and fifty censers. You and Aaron too will each bring his censer.'

Num 16:18 Each of them took his censer, put fire in it and placed incense on it, and stood at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron.

Num 16:19 Then, Korah having assembled the whole community to confront them at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the glory of Yahweh appeared to the whole community.

Num 16:20 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said,

Num 16:21 'Get away from this community. I am going to destroy them here and now.'

Num 16:22 They threw themselves on their faces and cried out, 'O God, God of the spirits that give life to every living thing, will you be angry with the whole community because one man has sinned?'

Num 16:23 Yahweh then said to Moses,

Num 16:24 'Speak to the community and say, "Stand well clear of Korah's tent."

Num 16:25 Moses stood up and went to Dathan and Abiram; the elders of Israel followed him.

Num 16:26 He spoke to the community and said, 'Stand away, I tell you, from the tents of these sinners, and touch nothing that belongs to them, for fear that with all their sins you too will be swept away.'

Num 16:27 So they moved away from Korah's tent. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing at their tent doors, with their wives, their sons and their little ones.

Num 16:28 Moses said, 'This is how you will know that Yahweh himself has sent me to perform all these tasks and that I am not doing them of my own accord.'

Num 16:29 If these people die a natural death such as people commonly die, then Yahweh has not sent me.'

Num 16:30 But if Yahweh does something utterly new, if the earth should open its mouth and swallow them and all their belongings, so that they go down alive to Sheol, then you will know that they held Yahweh in contempt.'

Num 16:31 The moment he finished saying all this, the ground split apart under their feet,

Num 16:32 the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their families, all Korah's people and all their property.

Num 16:33 They went down alive to Sheol with all their belongings. The earth closed over them and they disappeared in the middle of the community.

Num 16:34 At their cries, all the Israelites round them took to their heels, saying, 'We do not want the earth to swallow us too!'

Num 16:35 Fire then shot out from Yahweh and consumed the two hundred and fifty men offering incense.

Num 17:1 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Num 17:2 'Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to pick the censers out of the smouldering remains and scatter the fire from them away from here,

Num 17:3 for these sinful censers have become sanctified at the price of human lives. Since they were brought before Yahweh and thus became consecrated, they must be hammered into sheets to cover the altar. They will be an object-lesson to the Israelites.'

Num 17:4 The priest Eleazar took the bronze censers which had been carried by the men destroyed by the fire. They were hammered into sheets to cover the altar.

Num 17:5 They are a reminder to the Israelites that no unauthorised person, no one not of Aaron's line, may approach and offer incense before Yahweh, on pain of suffering the fate of Korah and his party, as Yahweh had said through Moses.

Num 17:6 On the following day, the whole community of Israelites were muttering against Moses and Aaron and saying, 'You are responsible for killing Yahweh's people!'

Num 17:7 Now, as the community was banding together against Moses and Aaron, they turned towards the Tent of Meeting, and there was the cloud covering it, and the glory of Yahweh appeared.

Num 17:8 Moses and Aaron then went to the front of the Tent of Meeting.

Num 17:9 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 17:10 'Get away from this community. I am going to destroy them here and now.' They threw themselves on their faces.

Num 17:11 Moses then said to Aaron, 'Take a censer, put fire in it from the altar, place incense on it and hurry to the community to perform the rite of expiation for them: for retribution has come from Yahweh, plague has broken out.'

Num 17:12 Aaron took it as Moses said and ran into the middle of the community, but plague had already broken out among the people. He put in the incense and performed the rite of expiation for the people.

Num 17:13 Then he stood between the living and the dead, and the plague stopped.

Num 17:14 There were fourteen thousand seven hundred victims of the plague, apart from those who died because of Korah.

Num 17:15 Aaron then went back to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting; the plague had been halted.

Num 17:16 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 17:17 'Tell the Israelites to give you a branch for each of their families, one for each leader of each family: twelve branches. Write the name of each on his branch;

Num 17:18 and on the branch of Levi write Aaron's name, since the head of the Levite families must have a branch too.

Num 17:19 You will then put them inside the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I make myself known to you.

Num 17:20 The man whose branch sprouts will be the one I have chosen; this is how I shall put an end to the mutterings of the Israelites about you.'

Num 17:21 Moses spoke to the Israelites, and all their leaders gave him one branch each, twelve branches in all for their families; Aaron's branch was among them.

Num 17:22 Moses placed them before Yahweh in the Tent of the Testimony.

Num 17:23 On the following day Moses went to the Tent of the Testimony and there, already sprouting, was Aaron's branch, representing the House of Levi; buds had formed, flowers had bloomed and almonds had already ripened.

Num 17:24 Moses then brought out all the branches from before Yahweh to all the Israelites; they examined them and each one took back his own branch.

Num 17:25 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Put Aaron's branch back in front of the Testimony, where it will have its ritual place as a warning to the rebellious; thus you will rid me of their muttering for good, without their incurring death.'

Num 17:26 Moses did as Yahweh had ordered. That is what he did.

Num 17:27 The Israelites then said to Moses, 'We are lost! We are dead men! We are all dead men!

Num 17:28 Anyone who approaches Yahweh's Dwelling with an offering will die. Are we to be doomed to the last man?'

Num 18:1 Yahweh then said to Aaron: 'You, your sons and your ancestor's line with you will be answerable for offences against the sanctuary. You and your sons with you will be answerable for the offences of your priesthood.

Num 18:2 You will admit your brothers of the branch of Levi, your ancestor's tribe, to join you and serve you, yourself and your sons, before the Tent of the Testimony.

Num 18:3 They must be at your service and the service of the whole Tent. Provided they do not come near the sacred vessels or the altar, they will be in no more danger of death than you.

Num 18:4 They must join you, they must take charge of the Tent of Meeting for the entire ministry of the Tent, and no unauthorised person will come near you.

Num 18:5 You will take charge of the sanctuary and charge of the altar, and retribution will never again befall the Israelites.

Num 18:6 Of the Israelites, I myself have chosen your brothers the Levites as a gift to you. As men dedicated, they will belong to Yahweh, to serve at the Tent of Meeting.

Num 18:7 You and your sons will undertake the priestly duties in all that concerns the altar and all that lies behind the curtain. You will perform the liturgy, the duties of which I entrust to your priesthood. But an unauthorised person approaching will incur death.'

Num 18:8 Yahweh said to Aaron: 'I myself have put you in charge of everything set aside for me. Everything consecrated by the Israelites I give to you and your sons as your portion by perpetual decree.

Num 18:9 Of the things especially holy, of the food offered, this is what will revert to you: every offering that the Israelites give back to me, whether it be a cereal offering, a sacrifice for sin or a sacrifice of reparation, is a thing especially holy and will revert to you and your sons.

Num 18:10 You will eat the things especially holy. Every male may eat them. You will regard them as sacred.

Num 18:11 'To you will revert also whatever is set aside from the offerings of the Israelites, whatever is held out with the gesture of offering; this I give to you and your sons and daughters, by perpetual decree. All members of your household may eat it unless they are unclean.

Num 18:12 All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and wheat, these first-fruits offered by them to Yahweh I give to you.

Num 18:13 All the first produce of the country brought by them to Yahweh will revert to you. All members of your household may eat it unless they are unclean.

Num 18:14 Everything in Israel put under the curse of destruction will revert to you.

Num 18:15 Every first-born of all creatures brought to Yahweh, human or animal, will revert to you, but you will have to redeem the first-born of man; you will also redeem the first-born of an unclean animal.

Num 18:16 You will redeem it in the month in which it is born, valuing it at five shekels, at the sanctuary shekel, which is twenty gerah.

Num 18:17 But you will not redeem the first-born of cow, sheep and goat. They are holy: you will sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn the fat as food burnt to be a smell pleasing to Yahweh;

Num 18:18 the meat will revert to you, as will the forequarter that has been presented with the gesture of offering, and the right thigh.

Num 18:19 Everything the Israelites set aside for Yahweh from the holy things, I give to you and your sons and daughters, by perpetual decree. This is a covenant of salt for ever before Yahweh, for you and your descendants too.'

Num 18:20 Yahweh said to Aaron: 'You will have no heritage in their country, you will not have a portion like them; I shall be your portion and your heritage among the Israelites.'

Num 18:21 'Look, as heritage I give the Levites all the tithes collected in Israel, in return for their services, for the ministry they render in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 18:22 The Israelites will no longer approach the Tent of Meeting, on pain of committing a deadly sin.

Num 18:23 Levi will discharge the duties of the Tent of Meeting, and the Levites will bear the consequences of their own guilt. This is a perpetual decree binding all your descendants: the Levites will have no heritage among the Israelites,

Num 18:24 for the tithe which the Israelites set aside for Yahweh is the heritage I have given the Levites. This is why I have told them that they will have no heritage among the Israelites.'

Num 18:25 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 18:26 'Speak to the Levites and say: "When from the Israelites you receive the tithe which I have given you from them as your heritage, you will set a portion of this aside for Yahweh: a tithe of the tithe."

Num 18:27 It will take the place of the portion set aside that is due from you, like the wheat from the threshing-floor and new wine from the press.

Num 18:28 Thus you too will set a portion aside for Yahweh out of all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. You will give what you have set aside for Yahweh to the priest Aaron.

Num 18:29 Out of all the gifts you receive, you will set a portion aside for Yahweh. Out of all these things, you will set aside the best, the sacred portion."

Num 18:30 'You will say to them, "After you have set the best aside, the remainder will take the place, in the Levites' case, of the produce of the threshing-floor and wine-press.

Num 18:31 You may consume this anywhere, you and the members of your households; this is your recompense for serving in the Tent of Meeting,

Num 18:32 and you will not incur sin by doing so, once you have set aside the best; you will not be profaning the things consecrated by the Israelites and will not incur death."

Num 19:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron and said:

Num 19:2 'This is a decree of the Law which Yahweh has prescribed. Tell the Israelites, they are to bring you a red heifer without fault or blemish that has never borne the yoke.

Num 19:3 You will give it to the priest Eleazar. It will then be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Num 19:4 The priest Eleazar will then take some of the victim's blood on his finger, and sprinkle this blood seven times towards the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Num 19:5 The heifer will then be burnt while he looks on; its hide, flesh, blood and offal will be burnt.

Num 19:6 The priest will then take some cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet material and throw them on the fire where the heifer is burning.

Num 19:7 He will then wash his clothes and bathe himself; after which he will go back to the camp, though he will remain unclean until evening.

Num 19:8 The man who has burnt the heifer will wash his clothes and bathe himself and will remain unclean until evening.

Num 19:9 The man who gathers up the ashes of the heifer must be ritually clean; he will deposit them outside the camp, in a clean place. They will be kept for the ritual use of the Israelite community for making water for purification; it is a sacrifice for sin.

Num 19:10 The man who has gathered up the ashes of the heifer will wash his clothes and remain unclean until evening. For the Israelites as for the resident alien, this will be a perpetual decree.

Num 19:11 'Anyone who touches the corpse of anyone whatever will be unclean for seven days.

Num 19:12 Such a person must be purified with these waters on the third and seventh day and will then be clean; otherwise he will not be clean.

Num 19:13 Anyone who touches the corpse of anyone who has died and is not purified, defiles Yahweh's Dwelling; such a person will be outlawed from Israel, since the water for purification has not been sprinkled over him; he is unclean, and his uncleanness remains in him.

Num 19:14 'This is the law when someone dies in a tent. Anyone who goes into the tent, or anyone who is already in it, will be unclean for seven days,

Num 19:15 and every open vessel with no cover tied over it will also be unclean.

Num 19:16 'Anyone in the open country who touches a murder victim, a corpse, human bones or a grave will be unclean for seven days.

Num 19:17 'For someone thus unclean, some of the ashes of the victim burnt as a sacrifice for sin will be taken and spring water must be poured over them, in a vessel.

Num 19:18 Someone who is ritually clean will then take some hyssop and dip it in the water. This person will then sprinkle the tent, all the vessels and people who were there, and similarly anyone who has touched human bones, a murder victim, a corpse or a grave.

Num 19:19 On the third and the seventh day the clean one will sprinkle the unclean, who on the seventh day will be clean. The latter will then wash his clothes and bathe in water, and in the evening he will be clean.

Num 19:20 Anyone who fails to be purified in this way will be outlawed from the community, and would defile Yahweh's sanctuary. Such a person is unclean, not having been sprinkled with the water for purification.

Num 19:21 'This will be a perpetual decree for them. The person who sprinkles the water for purification will wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water for purification will be unclean until evening.

Num 19:22 Anything that an unclean person touches will be unclean, and anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening.'

Num 20:1 The Israelites, the whole community, arrived in the first month at the desert of Zin. The people settled at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

Num 20:2 There was no water for the community, so they banded together against Moses and Aaron.

Num 20:3 The people laid the blame on Moses. 'We would rather have died', they said, 'as our brothers died before Yahweh!'

Num 20:4 Why have you brought Yahweh's community into this desert, for us and our livestock to die here?

Num 20:5 Why did you lead us out of Egypt, only to bring us to this wretched place? It is a place unfit for sowing, it has no figs, no vines, no pomegranates, and there is not even water to drink!

Num 20:6 Leaving the assembly, Moses and Aaron went to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They threw themselves on their faces, and the glory of Yahweh appeared to them.

Num 20:7 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Num 20:8 'Take the branch and call the community together, you and your brother Aaron. Then, in full view of them, order this rock to release its water. You will release water from the rock for them and provide drink for the community and their livestock.'

Num 20:9 Moses took up the branch from before Yahweh, as he had directed him.

Num 20:10 Moses and Aaron then called the assembly together in front of the rock. He then said to them, 'Listen now, you rebels. Shall we make water gush from this rock for you?'

Num 20:11 Moses then raised his hand and struck the rock twice with the branch; water gushed out in abundance, and the community and their livestock drank.

Num 20:12 Yahweh then said to Moses and Aaron, 'Because you did not believe that I could assert my holiness before the Israelites' eyes, you will not lead this assembly into the country which I am giving them.'

Num 20:13 These were the Waters of Meribah, where the Israelites laid the blame on Yahweh and where, by their means, he asserted his holiness.

Num 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh: 'To the king of Edom. Your brother Israel says this: You are aware of the great hardships we have encountered.

Num 20:15 Our ancestors went down to Egypt and there we stayed for a long time. But the Egyptians treated us badly, as they had our ancestors.

Num 20:16 When we appealed to Yahweh, he heard our cry and, sending an angel, brought us out of Egypt, and here we are, now, at Kadesh, a town on the borders of your territory.

Num 20:17 We ask permission to pass through your country. We shall not go through the fields or vineyards; we shall not drink the water from the wells; we shall keep to the king's highway without turning to right or left until we have passed through your territory.'

Num 20:18 To which, Edom replied, 'You will not pass through my country; if you do, I shall oppose you by force of arms.'

Num 20:19 To which the Israelites replied, 'We shall keep to the high road; if I and my flocks drink any of your water, I am willing to pay for it. All I am asking is to pass through on foot.'

Num 20:20 Edom replied: 'You shall not pass,' and Edom opposed them in great numbers and great force.

Num 20:21 At Edom's refusal to grant Israel passage through his territory, Israel turned away.

Num 20:22 They set out from Kadesh, and the Israelites, the whole community, came to Mount Hor.

Num 20:23 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the frontier of Edom, and said,

Num 20:24 'Aaron is to be gathered to his people; he will not enter the country which I have given to the Israelites, since you both disobeyed my order at the Waters of Meribah.'

Num 20:25 Take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up Mount Hor.

Num 20:26 Then take Aaron's robes off him and dress his son Eleazar in them. Aaron will then be gathered to his people; that is where he will die.'

Num 20:27 Moses did as Yahweh ordered. With the whole community watching, they went up Mount Hor.

Num 20:28 Moses took Aaron's robes off him and dressed his son Eleazar in them, and there Aaron died, on the mountain-top. Moses and Eleazar then came back down the mountain.

Num 20:29 The whole community saw that Aaron had died, and for thirty days the whole House of Israel mourned for Aaron.

Num 21:1 The king of Arad, the Canaanite living in the Negeb, learned that Israel was coming by way of Atharim. He attacked Israel and took some prisoners.

Num 21:2 Israel then made this vow to Yahweh, 'If you deliver this people into my power, I shall curse their towns with destruction.'

Num 21:3 Yahweh heard Israel's words and delivered the Canaanites into their power, and they destroyed them in accordance with their curse. Hence the place was given the name Hormah.

Num 21:4 They left Mount Hor by the road to the Sea of Suph, to skirt round Edom. On the way the people lost patience.

Num 21:5 They spoke against God and against Moses, 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt to die in the desert? For there is neither food nor water here; we are sick of this meagre diet.'

Num 21:6 At this, God sent fiery serpents among the people; their bite brought death to many in Israel.

Num 21:7 The people came and said to Moses, 'We have sinned by speaking against Yahweh and against you. Intercede for us with Yahweh to save us from these serpents.' Moses interceded for the people,

Num 21:8 and Yahweh replied, 'Make a fiery serpent and raise it as a standard. Anyone who is bitten and looks at it will survive.'

Num 21:9 Moses then made a serpent out of bronze and raised it as a standard, and anyone who was bitten by a serpent and looked at the bronze serpent survived.

Num 21:10 The Israelites set out and camped at Oboth.

Num 21:11 Then they left Oboth and camped at Iye-Abarim, in the desert on the eastern border of Moab.

Num 21:12 They set out from there and camped in the gorge of the Zered.

Num 21:13 They set out from there and camped on the other side of the Arnon. This gorge in the desert begins in the territory of the Amorites. For the Arnon is the frontier of Moab, between the Moabites and the Amorites.

Num 21:14 That is why it says in the Book of the Wars of Yahweh: ' . . . Waheb near Suphah and the gorges of the Arnon

Num 21:15 and the slope of the ravine running down to the site of Ar and over against the frontier of Moab.'

Num 21:16 And from there they went to Beer, that being the well in connection with which Yahweh had said to Moses, 'Call the people together and I will give them water.'

Num 21:17 Then it was that Israel sang this song: Spring up, well! Sing out for the well,

Num 21:18 sunk by the princes, dug by the people's leaders with the sceptre, with their staves! -and from the desert to Mattanah,

Num 21:19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Num 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley that opens into the country of Moab, towards the heights of Pisgah overlooking the desert.

Num 21:21 Israel sent messengers to say to Sihon king of the Amorites,

Num 21:22 'I wish to pass through your country. We shall not stray into the fields or vineyards; we shall not drink the water from the wells; we shall keep to the king's highway until we have passed through your territory.'

Num 21:23 But Sihon would not give Israel leave to pass through his country. He assembled all his people, marched into the desert to meet Israel, and reached Jahaz, where he gave battle to Israel.

Num 21:24 Israel defeated him by force of arms and conquered his country from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the Ammonites, for Jazer marked the Ammonite frontier.

Num 21:25 Israel took all these towns. Israel occupied all the Amorite towns, Heshbon and all its dependencies,

Num 21:26 Heshbon being the capital of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had made war on the first king of Moab and captured all his territory as far as the Arnon.

Num 21:27 Hence the poets say: Come to Heshbon! Let the city of Sihon be rebuilt on firm foundations!

Num 21:28 For fire has burst from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon, devouring Ar of Moab, engulfing the heights of the Arnon.

Num 21:29 Oh, unhappy Moab! People of Chemosh, you are lost! He has resigned his sons as fugitives, and his daughters as prisoners to Sihon king of the Amorites.

Num 21:30 Their posterity has been destroyed from Heshbon all the way to Dibon, and we have lit a fire all the way from Nophah to Medeba.

Num 21:31 Thus Israel occupied the Amorites' territory.

Num 21:32 Moses then sent men to reconnoitre Jazer, and Israel took it and its dependencies, evicting the Amorites who lived there.

Num 21:33 They then turned and marched on Bashan. Og king of Bashan and all his people marched to meet them and give battle at Edrei.

Num 21:34 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Do not be afraid of him, for I have put him, all his people and his country at your mercy. Treat him as you treated Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.'

Num 21:35 So they pressed their attack against him, his sons and all his people until there was no one left alive. And they took possession of his country.

Num 22:1 The Israelites then set out and pitched their camp in the Plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Num 22:2 Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites,

Num 22:3 and Moab was terrified of the people, because there were so many of them. Moab was afraid of the Israelites;

Num 22:4 he said to the elders of Midian, 'This horde will soon have cropped everything round us as closely as an ox crops grass in the countryside.' Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at the time.

Num 22:5 He sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, at Pethor on the River, in the territory of the Amawites, saying, 'Look, a people coming from Egypt has overrun the whole countryside; they have halted at my very door.

Num 22:6 I beg you come and curse this people for me, for they are stronger than I am. We may then be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country. For this I know: anyone you bless is blessed, anyone you curse is accursed.'

Num 22:7 The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian set out, taking the fee for the divination with them. They found Balaam and gave him Balak's message.

Num 22:8 He said to them, 'Stay the night here, and I will answer as Yahweh directs me.' So the chiefs of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Num 22:9 God came to Balaam and said, 'Who are these men staying with you?'

Num 22:10 Balaam said to God, 'Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent me this message,

Num 22:11 "Look, a people coming from Egypt has overrun the whole countryside. Come now and curse them for me; I may then be able to defeat them and drive them out." '

Num 22:12 God said to Balaam, 'You are not to go with them. You are not to curse the people, for they are blessed.'

Num 22:13 In the morning Balaam got up and said to the chiefs sent by Balak, 'Go back to your country, for Yahweh will not let me go with you.'

Num 22:14 So the chiefs of Moab got up, went back to Balak and said, 'Balaam refuses to come with us.'

Num 22:15 And again Balak sent chiefs, more numerous and more renowned than the first.

Num 22:16 They came to Balaam and said, 'A message from Balak son of Zippor, "Now do not refuse to come to me.'

Num 22:17 I will load you with honours and do whatever you say. I beg you come and curse this people for me."

'

Num 22:18 In reply, Balaam said to Balak's envoys, 'Even if Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go against the order of Yahweh my God in anything, great or small.'

Num 22:19 Now please stay the night here yourselves, and I will learn what else Yahweh has to tell me.'

Num 22:20 God came to Balaam during the night and said to him, 'Have not these men come to summon you? Get up, go with them, but do only what I tell you to do.'

Num 22:21 Balaam got up and saddled his donkey and set out with the chiefs of Moab.

Num 22:22 His going kindled Yahweh's anger, and the angel of Yahweh took his stand on the road to bar his way. Balaam was riding his donkey and his two servants were with him.

Num 22:23 Now the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, and she turned off the road into the open country. Balaam then struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road.

Num 22:24 The angel of Yahweh then went and stood on a narrow path among the vineyards, with a wall to the right and a wall to the left.

Num 22:25 The donkey saw the angel of Yahweh and scraped against the wall, scraping Balaam's foot against it, so he struck her again.

Num 22:26 The angel of Yahweh then moved and stood in a place so narrow that there was no room to pass either to right or left.

Num 22:27 When the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh, she lay down under Balaam. Balaam flew into a rage and struck the donkey with his stick.

Num 22:28 Yahweh then gave the donkey the power to talk, and she said to Balaam, 'What harm have I done you, for you to strike me three times like this?'

Num 22:29 Balaam answered the donkey, 'Because you have been making a fool of me! If I had been carrying a sword, I should have killed you by now.'

Num 22:30 The donkey said to Balaam, 'Am I not your donkey, and have I not been your mount all your life? Have I ever behaved like this with you before?' 'No,' he replied.

Num 22:31 Yahweh then opened Balaam's eyes and he saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed his head and threw himself on his face.

Num 22:32 And the angel of Yahweh said to him, 'Why did you strike your donkey three times like that? I myself had come to bar your way; while I am here your road is blocked.'

Num 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned aside because of me three times. You are lucky she did turn aside, or I should have killed you by now, though I would have spared her.'

Num 22:34 Balaam said to the angel of Yahweh, 'I have sinned. I did not know you were standing in the road to stop me. But if what I am doing displeases you, I will go home again.'

Num 22:35 The angel of Yahweh said to Balaam, 'Go with these men, but say only what I tell you to say.' So Balaam went on with the chiefs sent by Balak.

Num 22:36 Balak learned that Balaam was coming and went out to meet him, in the direction of Ar in Moab, at the Arnon frontier on the country's furthest boundary.

Num 22:37 Balak said to Balaam, 'Did I not send messengers to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Did you think, perhaps, I could confer no honours on you?'

Num 22:38 Balaam said to Balak, 'I have come to you after all. I suppose you know I cannot say anything on my own? The words God puts into my mouth are what I shall say.'

Num 22:39 Balaam set out with Balak. They came to Kiriath-Huzoth.

Num 22:40 Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and offered portions to Balaam and the chiefs who were with him.

Num 22:41 Next morning Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-Baal, from where he could see the edge of the camp.

Num 23:1 Balaam said to Balak, 'Build me seven altars here and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams.'

Num 23:2 Balak did as Balaam said and offered a burnt offering of one bull and one ram on each altar.

Num 23:3 Balaam then said to Balak, 'Stand beside your burnt offerings while I go away. Perhaps Yahweh will come and meet me. If he does, I shall tell you whatever he reveals to me.' And he withdrew to a bare hill.

Num 23:4 God came to meet Balaam, who said to him, 'I have prepared the seven altars and offered a burnt offering of one bull and one ram on each altar.'

Num 23:5 Yahweh then put a prophecy into his mouth and said to him, 'Go back to Balak, and that is what you must say to him.'

Num 23:6 So Balaam went back to him, and found him still standing beside his burnt offering, with all the chiefs of Moab.

Num 23:7 He then declaimed his poem as follows: Balak has brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the hills of Kedem: 'Come and curse Jacob for me, come and denounce Israel!'

Num 23:8 How shall I curse someone whom God has not cursed, how denounce someone God has not denounced?

Num 23:9 Yes, from the top of the crags I see him, from the hills I descry him: a people that dwells on its own, not to be reckoned among other nations!

Num 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob? Who can number the cloud of Israel? May I die the death of the just, and may my future be like theirs!

Num 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, 'What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, and you have heaped blessings on them!'

Num 23:12 Balaam replied, 'Am I to depart from what Yahweh puts into my mouth?'

Num 23:13 Balak then said, 'Please come somewhere else. From here you can see only the fringe of them, you cannot see them all. Curse them for me over there.'

Num 23:14 He led him to the Lookouts' Field on the top of Pisgah. There he built seven altars and offered a burnt offering of one bull and one ram on each altar.

Num 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, 'Stand here beside your burnt offerings while I wait over there.'

Num 23:16 God came to meet Balaam, he put a prophecy into his mouth and said to him, 'Go back to Balak, and that is what you must say to him.'

Num 23:17 So Balaam went to him and found him still standing beside his burnt offering and all the chiefs of Moab with him. 'What did Yahweh say?' Balak said to him.

Num 23:18 Balaam then declaimed his poem, as follows: Stand up, Balak, and listen, give ear to me, son of Zippor.

Num 23:19 God is no human being that he should lie, no child of Adam to change his mind. Is it his to say and not to do, is it his to speak and not fulfil?

Num 23:20 The charge laid on me is to bless, I shall bless, and I cannot reverse it.

Num 23:21 I have perceived no guilt in Jacob, have seen no perversity in Israel. Yahweh his God is with him, and a royal acclamation to greet him.

Num 23:22 God has brought him out of Egypt, is like the wild ox's horns to him.

Num 23:23 There is no omen whatever against Jacob, no augury at all against Israel. Well may people say of Jacob, of Israel, 'What has God achieved?'

Num 23:24 for here is a people like a lioness rising, poised like a lion to spring; nor will he lie down till he has devoured his prey and drunk the blood of his slain.

Num 23:25 Balak said to Balaam, 'Very well! Do not curse them. But at least do not bless them!'

Num 23:26 Balaam retorted to Balak, 'Did I not tell you? Whatever Yahweh says, I must do.'

Num 23:27 Balak then said to Balaam, 'Come with me now and I shall take you somewhere else. From there perhaps it will please God to curse them for me.'

Num 23:28 So Balak led Balaam to the summit of Peor, overlooking the wastelands.

Num 23:29 Balaam then said to Balak, 'Build me seven altars here and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams.'

Num 23:30 Balak did as Balaam said and offered a burnt offering of one bull and one ram on each altar.

Num 24:1 Balaam then saw that it pleased Yahweh to bless Israel. He did not go as before to seek omens but turned towards the desert.

Num 24:2 Raising his eyes Balaam saw Israel settled tribe by tribe; the spirit of God came on him

Num 24:3 and he declaimed his poem, as follows: The prophecy of Balaam son of Beor, the prophecy of the man with far-seeing eyes,

Num 24:4 the prophecy of one who hears the words of God. He sees what Shaddai makes him see, receives the divine answer, and his eyes are opened.

Num 24:5 How fair your tents are, Jacob, how fair your dwellings, Israel,

Num 24:6 like valleys that stretch afar, like gardens by the banks of a river, like aloes planted by Yahweh, like cedars beside the waters!

Num 24:7 A hero arises from their stock, he reigns over countless peoples. His king is greater than Agag, and his kingship held in honour.

Num 24:8 God has brought him out of Egypt, is like the wild ox's horns to him. He devours the corpses of his enemies, breaking their bones, piercing them with his arrows.

Num 24:9 He has crouched, he has lain down, like a lion, like a lioness; who dare rouse him? Blessed be those who bless you, and accursed be those who curse you!

Num 24:10 Balak flew into a rage with Balaam. He struck his hands together and said to Balaam, 'I brought you to curse my enemies, and you have insisted on blessing them three times over!'

Num 24:11 So now go home as fast as your legs can carry you. I promised to load you with honours. Yahweh himself has deprived you of them.'

Num 24:12 Balaam retorted to Balak, 'Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,

Num 24:13 "Even if Balak gave me his house full of gold and silver I could not go against Yahweh's order and do anything of my own accord, whether for good or ill; whatever Yahweh says is what I shall say"?

Num 24:14 Now that I am going back to my own folk, let me warn you what this people will do to your people, in days to come.'

Num 24:15 He then declaimed his poem, as follows: The prophecy of Balaam son of Beor, the prophecy of the man with far-seeing eyes,

Num 24:16 the prophecy of one who hears the words of God, of one who knows the knowledge of the Most High. He sees what Shaddai makes him see, receives the divine answer, and his eyes are opened.

Num 24:17 I see him -- but not in the present. I perceive him -- but not close at hand: a star is emerging from Jacob, a sceptre is rising from Israel, to strike the brow of Moab, the skulls of all the children of Seth.

Num 24:18 Edom too will be a conquered land, Seir too will be a conquered land, when Israel exerts his strength,

Num 24:19 when Jacob tramples on his enemies and destroys the last survivors of Ar.

Num 24:20 Balaam then looked at Amalek and declaimed his poem, as follows: Amalek, the earliest of nations! But his posterity will perish forever.

Num 24:21 He then looked at the Kenites and declaimed his poem, as follows: Your dwelling was firm, Kain, your nest perched high in the rock.

Num 24:22 But the nest belongs to Beor; how long will you be Asshur's captive?
Num 24:23 He then declaimed his poem, as follows: The Sea-people are gathering in the north,
Num 24:24 the vessels from the coasts of Kittim. They will bear down on Asshur, bear down on Eber; he too will perish forever.
Num 24:25 Balaam then got up, left and went home, and Balak too went his way.
Num 25:1 Israel settled at Shittim. The people gave themselves over to prostitution with Moabite women.
Num 25:2 These invited them to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down before their gods.
Num 25:3 With Israel thus committed to the Baal of Peor, Yahweh's anger was aroused against them.
Num 25:4 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Take all the leaders of the people. Impale them facing the sun, for Yahweh, to deflect his burning anger from Israel.'
Num 25:5 Moses said to the judges of Israel, 'Each of you will put to death those of his people who have committed themselves to the Baal of Peor.'

Num 25:6 One of the Israelites came along, bringing the Midianite woman into his family, under the very eyes of Moses and the whole community of Israelites as they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 25:7 The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, on seeing this, stood up, left the assembly, seized a lance,
Num 25:8 followed the Israelite into the alcove, and there ran them both through, the Israelite and the woman, through the stomach. Thus the plague which had struck the Israelites was arrested.
Num 25:9 In the plague twenty-four thousand of them had died.
Num 25:10 Yahweh then spoke and said,
Num 25:11 'The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron has deflected my wrath from the Israelites, he being the only one of them to have the same zeal as I have; for which reason, I did not make an end of the Israelites in my zeal.
Num 25:12 For this reason I say: To him I grant my covenant of peace.
Num 25:13 To him and his descendants after him, this covenant will assure the priesthood for ever. In reward for his zeal for his God, he will have the right to perform the ritual of expiation for the Israelites.'
Num 25:14 The Israelite who had been killed (the one who was killed with the Midianite woman) was called Zimri son of Salu, leader of one of the Simeonite families.
Num 25:15 The woman, the Midianite who was killed, was called Cozbi, daughter of Zur, chief of a clan, of a family, in Midian.
Num 25:16 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,
Num 25:17 'Harass the Midianites, strike them down,
Num 25:18 for harassing you with their guile in the Peor affair and in the affair of their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, the woman who was killed the day the plague came on account of the business of Peor.'
Num 26:1 After this plague, Yahweh spoke to Moses and to the priest Eleazar son of Aaron and said:
Num 26:2 'Take a census of the whole community of Israelites, by families: all those of twenty years and over, fit to bear arms in Israel.'
Num 26:3 So Moses and the priest Eleazar took a census of them on the Plains of Moab, near the Jordan by Jericho. They counted
Num 26:4 (as Yahweh had ordered Moses and the Israelites after leaving Egypt) men of twenty years and over:
Num 26:5 Reuben, the first-born of Israel. The sons of Reuben: for Hanoch, the Hanochite clan; for Pallu, the Palluite clan;
Num 26:6 for Hezron, the Hezronite clan; for Carmi, the Carmite clan.
Num 26:7 These were the Reubenite clans. They numbered forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty men.
Num 26:8 The sons of Pallu: Eliab.
Num 26:9 The sons of Eliab: Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. These two, Dathan and Abiram, men of repute in the community, were the ones who revolted against Moses and Aaron; they belonged to Korah's group when it revolted against Yahweh.
Num 26:10 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them (with Korah when that group perished), when fire consumed the two hundred and fifty men. They were a sign.
Num 26:11 Korah's sons, however, did not perish.
Num 26:12 The sons of Simeon by clans: for Nemuel, the Nemuelite clan; for Jamin, the Jaminites clan; for Jachin, the Jachinite clan;
Num 26:13 for Zerah, the Zerahite clan; for Shaul, the Shaulite clan.
Num 26:14 These were the Simeonite clans. They numbered twenty-two thousand two hundred men.
Num 26:15 The sons of Gad by clans: for Zephon, the Zephonite clan; for Haggi, the Haggite clan; for Shuni, the Shunite clan;
Num 26:16 for Ozni, the Oznite clan; for Eri, the Erite clan;

Num 26:17 for Arod, the Arodite clan; for Areli, the Areelite clan.

Num 26:18 These were the clans of the sons of Gad. They numbered forty thousand five hundred men.

Num 26:19 The sons of Judah: Er and Onan. Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

Num 26:20 The other sons of Judah became clans: for Shelah, the Shelahite clan; for Perez, the Perezzite clan; for Zerah, the Zerahite clan.

Num 26:21 The sons of Perez were: for Hezron, the Hezronite clan; for Hamul, the Hamulite clan.

Num 26:22 These were the clans of Judah. They numbered seventy-six thousand five hundred men.

Num 26:23 The sons of Issachar by clans: for Tola, the Tolaite clan; for Puvah, the Puvahite clan;

Num 26:24 for Jashub, the Jashubite clan; for Shimron, the Shimronite clan.

Num 26:25 These were the clans of Issachar. They numbered sixty-four thousand three hundred men.

Num 26:26 The sons of Zebulun by clans: for Sered, the Seredite clan; for Elon, the Elonite clan; for Jahleel, the Jahleelite clan.

Num 26:27 These were the clans of Zebulun. They numbered sixty thousand five hundred men.

Num 26:28 The sons of Joseph by clans: Manasseh and Ephraim.

Num 26:29 The sons of Manasseh: for Machir, the Machirite clan; Machir fathered Gilead: for Gilead, the Gileadite clan.

Num 26:30 These were the sons of Gilead: for Iezer, the Iezerite clan; for Helek, the Helekite clan;

Num 26:31 Asriel, the Asrielite clan; Shechem, the Shechemite clan;

Num 26:32 Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; Hepher, the Hepherite clan.

Num 26:33 Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons, only daughters; the names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Num 26:34 These were the clans of Manasseh. They numbered fifty-two thousand seven hundred men.

Num 26:35 These were the sons of Ephraim by clans: for Shuthelah, the Shuthelahite clan; for Becher, the Becherite clan; for Tahan, the Tahanite clan.

Num 26:36 These were the sons of Shuthelah: for Eran, the Eranite clan.

Num 26:37 These were the clans of Ephraim. They numbered thirty-two thousand five hundred men. These were the sons of Joseph by clans.

Num 26:38 The sons of Benjamin by clans: for Bela, the Belaite clan; for Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; for Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan;

Num 26:39 for Shephupham, the Shephuphamite clan; for Hupham, the Huphamite clan.

Num 26:40 Bela's sons were Ard and Naaman; for Ard, the Ardite clan; for Naaman, the Naamanite clan.

Num 26:41 These were the sons of Benjamin by clans. They numbered forty-five thousand six hundred men.

Num 26:42 These were the sons of Dan by clans: for Shuham, the Shuhamite clan. These were the sons of Dan by clans.

Num 26:43 All the Shuhamite clans numbered sixty-four thousand four hundred men.

Num 26:44 The sons of Asher by clans: for Imnah, the Imnahite clan; for Ishvi, the Ishvihite clan; for Beriah, the Beriahite clan.

Num 26:45 For the sons of Beriah: for Heber, the Heberite clan; for Malchiel, the Malchielite clan.

Num 26:46 The daughter of Asher was called Serah.

Num 26:47 These were the clans of Asher. They numbered fifty-three thousand four hundred men.

Num 26:48 The sons of Naphtali by clans: for Jahzeel, the Jahzelite clan; for Guni, the Gunite clan;

Num 26:49 for Jezer, the Jezerite clan; for Shillem, the Shillemite clan.

Num 26:50 These were the clans of Naphtali as divided into clans. The sons of Naphtali numbered forty-five thousand four hundred men.

Num 26:51 Of the Israelites thus numbered, there were six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty men.

Num 26:52 Yahweh then spoke to Moses and said,

Num 26:53 'The country must be shared out among these as a heritage, proportionately to the number of those inscribed.

Num 26:54 To the large in number you will give a large area of land, to the small in number a small area; to each the heritage will be in proportion to the number registered.

Num 26:55 The sharing out of the country must, however, be done by lot. Each will receive a heritage proportionate to the number of names in their patriarchal tribes;

Num 26:56 the heritage of each tribe will be shared out by lot, depending on its larger or smaller numbers.'

Num 26:57 These, by clans, are the Levites that were registered: for Gershon, the Gershonite clan; for Kohath, the Kohathite clan; for Merari, the Merarite clan.

Num 26:58 These are the Levite clans: the Libnite clan, the Hebronite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, the Korahite clan. Kohath fathered Amram.

Num 26:59 Amram's wife was called Jokebed daughter of Levi, born to him in Egypt. To Amram she bore

Aaron, Moses and Miriam their sister.

Num 26:60 Aaron fathered Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Num 26:61 Nadab and Abihu died when they brought unauthorised fire before Yahweh.

Num 26:62 Altogether twenty-three thousand males of one month and over were registered. They were not registered with the Israelites, since they were given no heritage with the Israelites.

Num 26:63 Such were the men registered by Moses and the priest Eleazar who took a census of the Israelites on the Plains of Moab near the Jordan by Jericho.

Num 26:64 Not one of them was among those whom Moses and the priest Aaron had registered when they counted the Israelites in the desert of Sinai;

Num 26:65 for Yahweh had told them that these were to die in the desert and that none of them would be left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 27:1 There then came forward the daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh; he belonged to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. His daughters' names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Num 27:2 They appeared before Moses, the priest Eleazar, the leaders and the whole community, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and said,

Num 27:3 'Our father died in the desert. He was not a member of the party who banded together against Yahweh, Korah's party; it was for his own sin that he died without sons.'

Num 27:4 Why should our father's name be lost to his clan? Since he had no son, give us some property like our father's kinsmen.'

Num 27:5 Moses took their case before Yahweh,

Num 27:6 and Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 27:7 'Zelophehad's daughters are right in what they say. You will indeed give them a property to be their heritage among their father's kinsmen; see that their father's heritage is passed on to them.'

Num 27:8 Then speak to the Israelites and say, "If a man dies without sons, his heritage will pass to his daughter.

Num 27:9 If he has no daughter, the heritage will go to his brothers.

Num 27:10 If he has no brothers, his heritage will go to his father's brothers.

Num 27:11 If his father has no brothers, his heritage will go to the member of his clan who is most nearly related; it will become his property. This will be a legal rule for the Israelites, as Yahweh has ordered Moses.' '

Num 27:12 Yahweh said to Moses, 'Climb this mountain of the Abarim range, and look at the country which I have given to the Israelites.

Num 27:13 After you have seen it, you will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was.

Num 27:14 For you both rebelled in the desert of Zin when the community disputed with me and when I ordered you to assert my holiness before their eyes by means of the water.' (These were the Waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the desert of Zin.)

Num 27:15 Moses then said to Yahweh,

Num 27:16 'May it please Yahweh, God of the spirits that give life to all living creatures, to appoint a leader for this community,

Num 27:17 to be at their head in all their undertakings, a man who will lead them out and bring them in, so that Yahweh's community will not be like sheep without a shepherd.'

Num 27:18 Yahweh then said to Moses, 'Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom the spirit dwells, and lay your hand on him.

Num 27:19 Bring him before the priest Eleazar and the whole community and give him your orders in their presence,

Num 27:20 conferring some of your own authority on him, so that the whole community of Israelites will obey him.

Num 27:21 He will present himself to the priest Eleazar who will consult Yahweh on his behalf by means of the rite of the urim; at his command, they will go out and, at his command, they will come in, he and all the Israelites with him, the whole community.'

Num 27:22 Moses did as Yahweh had ordered. He took Joshua, brought him before the priest Eleazar and the whole community,

Num 27:23 laid his hands on him and gave him his orders, as Yahweh had directed through Moses.

Num 28:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 28:2 'Give the Israelites this order: "Take care to bring me my offering, my sustenance in the form of food burnt as a smell pleasing to me, at the proper time."

Num 28:3 'You will then say to them: "This is the food which you will burn in offering to Yahweh: "Every day, two unblemished yearling lambs as a perpetual burnt offering.

Num 28:4 You will offer the first lamb in the morning and the second lamb at twilight,

Num 28:5 with a cereal offering of one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-quarter of a hin of crushed olive oil.

Num 28:6 Such was the perpetual burnt offering made on Mount Sinai as a pleasing smell, as food burnt for Yahweh.

Num 28:7 The accompanying libation will be of one-quarter of a hin for each lamb; the libation of fermented liquor for Yahweh will be poured inside the sanctuary.

Num 28:8 The second lamb you will offer at twilight, offering it with the same cereal offering and the same libation as in the morning, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh.

Num 28:9 "On the Sabbath day, you will offer two unblemished yearling lambs and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a cereal offering, mixed with oil, as well as the accompanying libation.

Num 28:10 The Sabbath burnt offering will be offered every Sabbath in addition to the perpetual burnt offering, and the accompanying libation similarly.

Num 28:11 "At the beginning of each of your months you will offer a burnt offering to Yahweh: two young bulls, one ram and seven yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 28:12 for each bull a cereal offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; for each ram, a cereal offering of two-tenths of fine flour mixed with oil;

Num 28:13 for each lamb, a cereal offering of one-tenth of fine flour mixed with oil: as a burnt offering, as a pleasing smell, as food burnt for Yahweh.

Num 28:14 The accompanying libations will be of half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram and one-quarter of a hin for a lamb. This will be the monthly burnt offering, month after month, every month of the year.

Num 28:15 In addition to the perpetual burnt offering, a goat will be offered to Yahweh, as a sacrifice for sin, with its accompanying libation.

Num 28:16 "The fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of Yahweh,

Num 28:17 and the fifteenth day of this month is a feast day. For seven days unleavened bread will be eaten.

Num 28:18 On the first day there will be a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Num 28:19 As food burnt as a burnt offering you will offer Yahweh two young bulls, a ram and seven yearling lambs, without blemish.

Num 28:20 The accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil will be three-tenths of an ephah for a bull, two-tenths for a ram,

Num 28:21 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs.

Num 28:22 There will also be a goat as a sacrifice for sin, for performing the rite of expiation for you.

Num 28:23 You will offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is a perpetual burnt offering.

Num 28:24 You will do this every day for seven days. It is sustenance, food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, to be offered in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its accompanying libation.

Num 28:25 On the seventh day you will hold a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Num 28:26 "On the day of the first-fruits, when you make your offering of new fruits to Yahweh at your feast of Weeks, you will hold a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Num 28:27 As a burnt offering as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, you will offer two young bulls, one ram and seven yearling lambs.

Num 28:28 The accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil will be three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for the ram,

Num 28:29 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs.

Num 28:30 There will also be a goat as a sacrifice for sin, for performing the rite of expiation for you.

Num 28:31 You will offer these in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its accompanying cereal offering and libations."

Num 29:1 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you will hold a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work. For you this will be a day of Acclamations.

Num 29:2 As a burnt offering, as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, you will offer one young bull, one ram and seven yearling lambs, without blemish.

Num 29:3 The accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil will be three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

Num 29:4 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs.

Num 29:5 There will also be a goat as a sacrifice for sin, for performing the rite of expiation for you.

Num 29:6 This is in addition to the monthly burnt offering and its cereal offering, the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and the accompanying libations enjoined by law, as a pleasing smell, as food burnt for Yahweh.

Num 29:7 "On the tenth day of this seventh month, you will hold a sacred assembly; you will fast and do no work.

Num 29:8 As a burnt offering for Yahweh, as a pleasing smell, you will offer one young bull, one ram and seven yearling lambs, which you will choose as being without blemish.

Num 29:9 The accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil will be three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

Num 29:10 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs.

Num 29:11 And a goat will be offered as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the victim for sin at the feast of Expiation, to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their accompanying libations.

Num 29:12 "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you will hold a sacred assembly; you will do no heavy work, and for seven days you will celebrate a feast for Yahweh.

Num 29:13 As a burnt offering, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, you will offer thirteen young bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish.

Num 29:14 The accompanying cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil will be three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

Num 29:15 and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;

Num 29:16 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libation.

Num 29:17 "On the second day: twelve young bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:18 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:19 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libations.

Num 29:20 "On the third day: eleven bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:21 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:22 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libations.

Num 29:23 "On the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:24 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:25 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libation.

Num 29:26 "On the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:27 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:28 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libation.

Num 29:29 "On the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:30 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:31 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libations.

Num 29:32 "On the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams and fourteen yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:33 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:34 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libation.

Num 29:35 "On the eighth day you will hold an assembly; you will do no heavy work.

Num 29:36 As a burnt offering, as food burnt as a smell pleasing to Yahweh, you will offer one bull, one ram and seven yearling lambs, without blemish;

Num 29:37 the accompanying cereal offering and libations, as prescribed, in proportion to the number of bulls, rams and lambs;

Num 29:38 also one goat as a sacrifice for sin. This is in addition to the perpetual burnt offering and its cereal offering and libation.

Num 29:39 "This is what you are to do for Yahweh at your solemn feasts, over and above your votive offerings and your voluntary offerings, your burnt offerings, cereal offerings and libations, and your peace offerings." '

Num 30:1 Moses told the Israelites exactly what Yahweh had ordered him.

Num 30:2 Moses spoke to the tribal leaders of the Israelites and said, 'This is what Yahweh has ordered:

Num 30:3 "If a man makes a vow to Yahweh or a formal pledge under oath, he must not break his word: whatever he promises by word of mouth he must do.

Num 30:4 "If a woman makes a vow to Yahweh or a formal pledge during her youth, while she is still in her father's house,

Num 30:5 and if her father hears about this vow or pledge made by her and says nothing to her, her vow, whatever it may be, will be binding, and the pledge she has taken, whatever it may be, will be binding.

Num 30:6 But if her father on the day he learns of it expresses his disapproval of it, then none of the vows or pledges she has taken will be binding. Yahweh will not hold her to it, since her father has expressed his disapproval.

Num 30:7 "If, being bound by vows or by a pledge voiced without due reflection, she then marries,

Num 30:8 and if her husband hears of it but says nothing on the day he learns of it, her vows will be binding and the pledges she has taken will be binding.

Num 30:9 But if on the day he learns of it he expresses his disapproval to her, this will annul the vow that she has made or the pledge that binds her, voiced without due reflection. Yahweh will not hold her to it.

Num 30:10 "The vow of a widow or a divorced woman and all pledges taken by her are binding on her.

Num 30:11 "If she has made a vow or taken a pledge under oath while in her husband's house,

Num 30:12 and if when the husband learns of it he says nothing to her and does not express disapproval to her, then the vow, whatever it is, will be binding, and the pledge, whatever it is, will be binding.

Num 30:13 But if the husband when he hears of it annuls it on the day he learns of it, no undertaking of hers, be it vow or pledge, will be binding. Since the husband has annulled it, Yahweh will not hold her to it.

Num 30:14 "Every vow or oath that is binding on the wife may be endorsed or annulled by the husband.

Num 30:15 "If by the following day the husband has said nothing to her, it means that he endorses her vow, whatever it may be, or her pledge, whatever it may be. He endorses them if he says nothing on the day he learns of them.

Num 30:16 But if, having learnt of them, he annuls them later, he will bear the consequences for his wife's guilt."

Num 30:17 Such were the laws which Yahweh prescribed to Moses, concerning the relationship between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter while still young and living in her father's home.

Num 31:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 31:2 'Exact the full vengeance for the Israelites on the Midianites. Afterwards you will be gathered to your people.'

Num 31:3 Moses said to the people, 'Some of you are to take up arms for Yahweh's campaign against Midian, to carry out the vengeance of Yahweh on Midian.

Num 31:4 You will put a thousand men in the field from each of the tribes of Israel.'

Num 31:5 In this way Israel's thousands provided twelve thousand men equipped for war, one thousand from each tribe:

Num 31:6 Moses put them in the field, one thousand from each tribe, with Phinehas, son of the priest Eleazar, to go with them carrying the sacred objects and the trumpets for the battle cry.

Num 31:7 They made war on Midian, as Yahweh had ordered Moses, and put every male to death.

Num 31:8 What is more, they killed the kings of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, the five Midianite kings; they also put Balaam son of Beor to the sword.

Num 31:9 The Israelites took the Midianite women and their little ones captive and carried off all their cattle, all their flocks and all their goods as booty.

Num 31:10 They set fire to the towns where they lived and to all their encampments.

Num 31:11 Then, taking all their booty, everything they had captured, human and animal,

Num 31:12 they brought the captives, spoil and booty to Moses, the priest Eleazar and the whole community of Israelites at the camp on the Plains of Moab, near the Jordan by Jericho.

Num 31:13 Moses, the priest Eleazar and all the leaders of the community went out of the camp to meet them.

Num 31:14 Moses was enraged with the officers of the army, the commanders of the thousands and commanders of the hundreds, who had come back from this military expedition.

Num 31:15 He said, 'Why have you spared the life of all the women?

Num 31:16 They were the very ones who, on Balaam's advice, caused the Israelites to be unfaithful to Yahweh in the affair at Peor: hence the plague which struck Yahweh's community.

Num 31:17 So kill all the male children and kill all the women who have ever slept with a man;

Num 31:18 but spare the lives of the young girls who have never slept with a man, and keep them for yourselves.

Num 31:19 As for you, bivouac outside the camp for seven days, everyone who has killed anyone or touched a corpse. Purify yourselves and your prisoners on the third and seventh days,

Num 31:20 and purify all clothing, everything made of skin, everything woven of goat's hair and everything made of wood.'

Num 31:21 The priest Eleazar said to the soldiers who had come back from the campaign, 'This is an article of the Law which Yahweh prescribed to Moses:

Num 31:22 although gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin and lead,

Num 31:23 everything that can withstand fire can be cleaned by being passed through fire, it must still be purified with water for purification. Whatever cannot resist fire you must pass through water.

Num 31:24 'Wash your clothes on the seventh day and you will then be clean. You may then re-enter the camp.'

Num 31:25 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 31:26 'With the priest Eleazar and the heads of families in the community, take a count of the spoils and captives, human and animal.

Num 31:27 You will then share out the spoil, half and half, between those who fought the campaign and the rest of the community.

Num 31:28 From the share of the combatants who took part in the campaign, you will set aside one out of every five hundred persons, oxen, donkeys and sheep as Yahweh's portion.

Num 31:29 You will take this from the half share coming to them and give it to the priest Eleazar as the portion set aside for Yahweh.

Num 31:30 From the half coming to the Israelites, you will take one out of every fifty persons, oxen, donkeys, sheep, and all other animals, and give them to the Levites who are responsible for Yahweh's Dwelling.'

Num 31:31 Moses and the priest Eleazar did as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 31:32 The spoils, the remainder of the booty captured by the soldiers, came to six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep and goats,

Num 31:33 seventy-two thousand head of cattle,

Num 31:34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,

Num 31:35 and in persons, women who had never slept with a man, thirty-two thousand in all.

Num 31:36 Half was assigned to those who had taken part in the war, namely three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep and goats,

Num 31:37 of which Yahweh's portion was six hundred and seventy-five,

Num 31:38 thirty-six thousand head of cattle, of which Yahweh's portion was seventy-two,

Num 31:39 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys, of which Yahweh's portion was sixty-one,

Num 31:40 and sixteen thousand persons, of which Yahweh's portion was thirty-two.

Num 31:41 Moses gave the priest Eleazar the portion set aside for Yahweh, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 31:42 As for the half coming to the Israelites which Moses had separated from that of the combatants,

Num 31:43 this half, the community's share, came to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep and goats,

Num 31:44 thirty-six thousand head of cattle,

Num 31:45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys

Num 31:46 and sixteen thousand persons.

Num 31:47 From this half, the Israelites' share, Moses took one out of every fifty, human and animal, and gave them to the Levites who were responsible for Yahweh's Dwelling, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 31:48 The officers of the thousands who had fought the campaign, the commanders of the thousands and commanders of the hundreds, came to Moses

Num 31:49 and said, 'Your servants have numbered the soldiers under their command: none of our men is missing.

Num 31:50 So, as an offering for Yahweh, we have brought what each of us has found in the way of gold ornaments, armlets and bracelets, rings, earrings and breastplates, to make expiation for ourselves before Yahweh.'

Num 31:51 Moses and the priest Eleazar accepted this gold from them, all this jewellery.

Num 31:52 This portion of gold given to Yahweh by the commanders of the thousands and commanders of the hundreds amounted to sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

Num 31:53 Each of the soldiers took his own booty.

Num 31:54 But Moses and the priest Eleazar, having accepted the gold from the commanders of the thousands and commanders of the hundreds, brought it into the Tent of Meeting, to be a reminder of the Israelites before Yahweh.

Num 32:1 Now, the Reubenites and Gadites owned very large herds of cattle. Having seen that the territories of Jazer and Gilead formed an ideal region for raising stock,

Num 32:2 the Gadites and Reubenites went to Moses, the priest Eleazar and the leaders of the community, and said to them,

Num 32:3 'The territory of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon,

Num 32:4 which Yahweh has conquered before the advancing community of Israel, is ideal land for raising stock, and your servants are cattle breeders.

Num 32:5 So', they said, 'if you approve, give your servants this land for us to own; do not make us cross the

Jordan.'

Num 32:6 Moses said to the Gadites and Reubenites, 'Do you intend your brothers to go into battle while you stay here?

Num 32:7 Why are you discouraging the Israelites from crossing to the country which Yahweh has given them?

Num 32:8 Your fathers behaved in the same way when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the country,

Num 32:9 for, having gone as far as the Valley of Eshcol and seen the country, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the country which Yahweh had given them.

Num 32:10 Hence Yahweh's anger was aroused that day and he swore this oath,

Num 32:11 "No man of twenty years and over, who left Egypt, shall set eyes on the country which I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob . . . , for they have not followed me absolutely,

Num 32:12 except for Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua son of Nun: these indeed have followed Yahweh absolutely."

Num 32:13 Yahweh's anger being aroused by Israel, he made them wander in the desert for forty years, until the generation that offended Yahweh had all disappeared.

Num 32:14 And now you rise up in your father's place, offshoot of sinful stock, to increase Yahweh's burning anger with Israel even more!

Num 32:15 If you turn away from him, he will prolong the time spent in the desert, and you will bring about this entire people's ruin.'

Num 32:16 They came to Moses and said, 'We should like to build sheepfolds here for our flocks and towns for our little ones.

Num 32:17 We ourselves will take up arms and lead the Israelites until we have brought them to the place appointed for them, while our little ones stay in the fortified towns to be safe from the local inhabitants.

Num 32:18 We will not return to our homes until every one of the Israelites has taken possession of his heritage.

Num 32:19 For we shall have no heritage with them on the other bank of the Jordan or beyond, since our heritage has fallen to us here, east of the Jordan.'

Num 32:20 Moses said to them, 'If you do as you have said, if you are prepared to fight before Yahweh,

Num 32:21 and if all those of you who bear arms cross the Jordan before Yahweh, until he has driven all his enemies out before him,

Num 32:22 then, once the country has become subject to Yahweh, you may go back, and will have discharged your obligation to Yahweh and Israel, and Yahweh will consider this territory yours.

Num 32:23 But if you do not, you will sin against Yahweh, and be sure your sin will find you out.

Num 32:24 Build towns, then, for your little ones and folds for your flocks; but do what you have promised.'

Num 32:25 The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, 'Your servants will do as my lord directs.

Num 32:26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks and all our livestock will stay in the towns of Gilead,

Num 32:27 but your servants, each armed for war, will cross in Yahweh's name and fight, as my lord says.'

Num 32:28 So Moses gave orders about them to the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of families in the Israelite tribes.

Num 32:29 Moses said to them, 'If the Gadites and Reubenites, all those under arms, cross the Jordan with you to fight in Yahweh's name, then, once the country has become subject to you, you will give them the territory of Gilead as theirs.

Num 32:30 But if they will not cross with you under arms, they will receive their domains in Canaan with the rest of you.'

Num 32:31 To this, the Gadites and Reubenites replied, 'What Yahweh has said to your servants, we shall do.

Num 32:32 Under arms, we shall cross in Yahweh's name into Canaan, so that ownership of our heritage on this side of the Jordan will be ours.'

Num 32:33 Moses then gave them -- the Gadites, the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph -- the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the country and the towns within its territory, and the country's frontier-towns.

Num 32:34 The Gadites rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Num 32:35 Atroth-Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Num 32:36 Beth-Nimrah and Beth-Haran as fortified towns with folds for the flocks.

Num 32:37 The Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim,

Num 32:38 Nebo and Baal-Meon (the names of which were altered), and Sibmah, giving new names to the towns which they rebuilt.

Num 32:39 The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead. They conquered it and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Num 32:40 Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he settled there.

Num 32:41 Jair son of Manasseh went and seized their encampments, renaming them the Encampments of Jair.

Num 32:42 Nobah went and seized Kenat with its dependent townships, and called it Nobah after himself.

Num 33:1 These were the stages of the journey made by the Israelites when they left Egypt in their companies under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Num 33:2 Moses recorded their starting-points in writing whenever they moved on at Yahweh's order. The stages, from one starting-point to another, were as follows:

Num 33:3 They left Rameses in the first month. It was the fifteenth day of the first month, the day following the Passover, when the Israelites confidently set out, under the eyes of all Egypt.

Num 33:4 The Egyptians were burying those of their own people whom Yahweh had struck down, all the first-born; Yahweh had carried out his judgement on their gods.

Num 33:5 The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Succoth.

Num 33:6 Then they left Succoth and encamped at Etham which is on the edge of the desert.

Num 33:7 They left Etham, turned back to Pi-Hahiroth, opposite Baal-Zephon, and encamped before Migdol.

Num 33:8 They left Pi-Hahiroth, crossed the sea into the desert, and after marching for three days in the desert of Etham they encamped at Marah.

Num 33:9 They left Marah and reached Elim. At Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; they encamped there.

Num 33:10 They left Elim and encamped by the Sea of Reeds.

Num 33:11 They left the Sea of Reeds and encamped in the desert of Sin.

Num 33:12 They left the desert of Sin and encamped at Dophkah.

Num 33:13 They left Dophkah and encamped at Alush.

Num 33:14 They left Alush and encamped at Rephidim; the people found no drinking water there.

Num 33:15 They left Rephidim and encamped in the desert of Sinai.

Num 33:16 They left the desert of Sinai and encamped at Kibroth-ha-Taavah.

Num 33:17 They left Kibroth-ha-Taavah and encamped at Hazereth.

Num 33:18 They left Hazereth and encamped at Rithmah.

Num 33:19 They left Rithmah and encamped at Rimmon-Perez.

Num 33:20 They left Rimmon-Perez and encamped at Libnah.

Num 33:21 They left Libnah and encamped at Rissah.

Num 33:22 They left Rissah and encamped at Kehelathah.

Num 33:23 They left Kehelathah and encamped at Mount Sheper.

Num 33:24 They left Mount Sheper and encamped at Haradah.

Num 33:25 They left Haradah and encamped at Makheloth.

Num 33:26 They left Makheloth and encamped at Tahath.

Num 33:27 They left Tahath and encamped at Terah.

Num 33:28 They left Terah and encamped at Mithkah.

Num 33:29 They left Mithkah and encamped at Hashmonah.

Num 33:30 They left Hashmonah and encamped at Moseroth.

Num 33:31 They left Moseroth and encamped at Bene-Jaakan.

Num 33:32 They left Bene-Jaakan and encamped at Hor-Gidgad.

Num 33:33 They left Hor-Gidgad and encamped at Jotbathah.

Num 33:34 They left Jotbathah and encamped at Abronah.

Num 33:35 They left Abronah and encamped at Ezion-Geber.

Num 33:36 They left Ezion-Geber and encamped in the desert of Zin, that is, at Kadesh.

Num 33:37 They left Kadesh and encamped at Mount Hor, on the borders of the land of Edom.

Num 33:38 The priest Aaron went up Mount Hor on Yahweh's orders and died there in the fortieth year of the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.

Num 33:39 Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Num 33:40 The king of Arad, the Canaanite who lived in the Negeb of Canaan, heard of the Israelites' arrival.

Num 33:41 They left Mount Hor and encamped at Zalmonah.

Num 33:42 They left Zalmonah and encamped at Punon.

Num 33:43 They left Punon and encamped at Oboth.

Num 33:44 They left Oboth and encamped in Moabite territory at Iye-Abarim.

Num 33:45 They left Iyim and encamped at Dibon-Gad.

Num 33:46 They left Dibon-Gad and encamped at Almon-Diblathaim.

Num 33:47 They left Almon-Diblathaim and encamped in the Abarim mountains facing Nebo.

Num 33:48 They left the Abarim mountains and encamped on the Plains of Moab, near the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Num 33:49 They encamped near the Jordan between Beth-ha-Jeshimoth and Abel-ha-Shittim, on the Plains of Moab.

Num 33:50 Yahweh spoke to Moses on the Plains of Moab, near the Jordan by Jericho, and said:

Num 33:51 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "When you have crossed the Jordan into Canaan,

Num 33:52 you will drive out all the local inhabitants before you. You will destroy all their painted images, you will destroy all their metal statues and you will demolish all their high places.

Num 33:53 You will take possession of the country and settle in it, for I have given you the country as your property.

Num 33:54 You will share it out by lot among your clans. To a large clan you will give a larger heritage, and to a smaller clan you will give a smaller heritage. Where the lot falls for each, that will be his. Your heritage will depend on the size of your tribe.

Num 33:55 If, however, you do not drive out the local inhabitants before you, the ones you allow to remain will be thorns in your eyes and thistles in your sides and will harass you in the country where you are living,

Num 33:56 and I shall treat you as I intended to treat them."

Num 34:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said,

Num 34:2 'Give the Israelites this order. Say: "When you enter the country (Canaan), this will be the country which forms your heritage. This is Canaan as defined by its boundaries:

Num 34:3 "The southern part of your country will start from the desert of Zin, on the borders of Edom. Your southern boundary will start on the east at the end of the Salt Sea.

Num 34:4 It will then turn south towards the Ascent of the Scorpions and go by Zin to end in the south at Kadesh-Barnea. It will then run towards Hazar-Addar and pass through Azmon.

Num 34:5 From Azmon the boundary will turn towards the Torrent of Egypt and end at the Sea.

Num 34:6 "Your seaboard will be on the Great Sea; this will be your western boundary.

Num 34:7 "Your northern boundary will be as follows: you will draw a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor,

Num 34:8 then from Mount Hor you will draw a line to the Pass of Hamath, and the boundary will end at Zedad.

Num 34:9 From there it will run on to Ziphron and end at Hazar-Enan. This will be your northern boundary.

Num 34:10 "You will then draw your eastern boundary from Hazar-Enan to Shepham.

Num 34:11 The boundary will run down from Shepham towards Riblah on the east side of Ain. Further down it will keep to the eastern shore of the Sea of Chinnereth.

Num 34:12 The frontier will then follow the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea. "Such will be your country with the boundaries surrounding it."

Num 34:13 Moses then gave the Israelites this order: 'This is the country, where your heritages will be assigned by lot, and which Yahweh has ordered to be given to the nine tribes and the half-tribe,

Num 34:14 for the tribe of the Reubenites with their families and the tribe of the Gadites with their families have already received their heritage; the half-tribe of Manasseh has also received its heritage.

Num 34:15 These two tribes and the half-tribe have received their heritage on the other side of the Jordan by Jericho, to the east, towards the sunrise.'

Num 34:16 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 34:17 'Here are the names of the men who will divide the country up for you: the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun,

Num 34:18 and you will take one leader from each tribe to divide the country up into heritages.

Num 34:19 Here are the names of these men: 'For the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Num 34:20 'for the tribe of the Simeonites, Shemuel son of Ammihud;

Num 34:21 'for the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad son of Chislon;

Num 34:22 'for the tribe of the Danites, the leader Bukki son of Jogli;

Num 34:23 'for the sons of Joseph: for the tribe of Manasseh, the leader Hanniel son of Ephod;

Num 34:24 'for the tribe of the Ephraimites, the leader Kemuel son of Shiptan;

Num 34:25 'for the tribe of the Zebulunites, the leader Elizaphan son of Parnach;

Num 34:26 'for the tribe of the Issacharites, the leader Paltiel son of Azzan;

Num 34:27 'for the tribe of the Asherites, the leader Ahihud son of Shelomi;

Num 34:28 'for the tribe of the Naphtalites, the leader Pedahel son of Ammihud.'

Num 34:29 These were the men whom Yahweh ordered to divide Canaan into heritages for the Israelites.

Num 35:1 Yahweh spoke to Moses on the Plains of Moab, near the Jordan by Jericho, and said:

Num 35:2 'Order the Israelites, from the heritage they possess, to give the Levites towns in which to live and pasture land round the towns. You will give these to the Levites.

Num 35:3 The towns must be their homes and the surrounding pasture land must be for their cattle, their possessions and all their animals.

Num 35:4 The pasture land surrounding the towns which you give to the Levites will extend, from the walls of the towns, for a thousand cubits all round.

Num 35:5 'Outside the town, measure two thousand cubits to the east, two thousand cubits to the south, two thousand cubits to the west and two thousand cubits to the north, the town lying in the centre; such will be the pasture lands of these towns.

Num 35:6 The towns you give to the Levites will be six cities of refuge, ceded by you as sanctuary for those who commit manslaughter; and you will give forty-two towns in addition.

Num 35:7 Altogether you will give the Levites forty-eight towns, with their pasture lands.

Num 35:8 Of the towns which you give from the Israelites' possessions, you will give more from those who have more, and less from those who have less. Each will give some of his towns to the Levites, in proportion to the heritage he himself has received.'

Num 35:9 Yahweh spoke to Moses and said:

Num 35:10 'Speak to the Israelites and say: "Once you have crossed the Jordan into Canaan,

Num 35:11 you will find towns, some of which you will make into cities of refuge where those who have accidentally committed manslaughter can take sanctuary.

Num 35:12 These towns will afford you refuge from the avenger of blood, so that the killer will not be put to death before standing trial before the community.

Num 35:13 Of the towns you give, six will serve you as cities of refuge:

Num 35:14 as cities of refuge, you will give three towns on the other side of the Jordan and will give three towns in Canaan.

Num 35:15 These six towns will serve as refuge for the Israelites, for the foreigner and for the resident alien, where anyone who has accidentally killed someone can take sanctuary.

Num 35:16 "But if he has struck the person with an iron object so as to cause death, he is a murderer. The murderer will be put to death.

Num 35:17 If he has struck him with a stone meant for killing, and has killed him, he is a murderer. The murderer will be put to death.

Num 35:18 Or if he has struck him with a wooden instrument meant for killing, and has killed him, he is a murderer. The murderer will be put to death.

Num 35:19 The avenger of blood will put the murderer to death. Whenever he finds him, he will put him to death.

Num 35:20 "If the killer has maliciously manhandled his victim, or thrown some lethal missile to strike him down,

Num 35:21 or out of enmity dealt him the death-blow with his fist, then he who struck the blow will be put to death; he is a murderer; the avenger of blood will put him to death whenever he finds him.

Num 35:22 If, however, he has manhandled his victim by chance, without malice, or thrown some missile at him not meaning to hit him

Num 35:23 or, without seeing him, dropped on him a stone meant for killing and so killed him, so long as he bore him no malice and wished him no harm,

Num 35:24 then the community will decide in accordance with these rules between the one who struck the blow and the avenger of blood,

Num 35:25 and will save the killer from the clutches of the avenger of blood. They will send him back to the city of refuge where he had taken sanctuary, and there he will stay until the death of the high priest who has been anointed with the holy oil.

Num 35:26 Should the killer leave the bounds of the city of refuge in which he has taken sanctuary

Num 35:27 and the avenger of blood encounter him outside the bounds of his city of refuge, the avenger of blood may kill him without fear of reprisal;

Num 35:28 since the killer should stay in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest is he free to go back to his own piece of property.

Num 35:29 Such will be the legal rule for you and your descendants, wherever you may live.

Num 35:30 "In any case of homicide, the evidence of witnesses will determine whether the killer must be put to death; but a single witness is not enough to sustain a capital charge.

Num 35:31 You will not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer condemned to death; he must die.

Num 35:32 Nor will you accept a ransom for anyone who, having taken sanctuary in his city or refuge, wishes to come back and live at home before the death of the high priest.

Num 35:33 Do not profane the country you live in. Blood profanes the country and, for the country, the only expiation for the blood shed in it is the blood of the man who shed it.

Num 35:34 So do not defile the country which you live in and where I live; for I, Yahweh, live among the Israelites."

Num 36:1 Then the heads of families of the clan descended from Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, one of the clans descended from Joseph, came forward and, addressing Moses and the leaders, the Israelite heads of families,

Num 36:2 they said: 'Yahweh has ordered my lord to apportion the Israelites' heritages in the country by lot and my lord has been ordered by Yahweh to give the heritage of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Num 36:3 Now, if they marry someone from another Israelite tribe, their heritage will be alienated from our ancestral heritage. The heritage of the tribe to which they will then belong will be increased, and the heritage allotted to us will be diminished.

Num 36:4 And when the jubilee for the Israelites comes round, these women's heritage will become part of the heritage of the tribe to which they then belong, and be alienated from the heritage of our ancestral tribe.'

Num 36:5 At Yahweh's bidding, Moses gave the Israelites this order. He said: 'What the Josephite tribe says is true.

Num 36:6 This is Yahweh's ruling for Zelophehad's daughters: "They may marry whom they please, providing they marry into a clan of their father's tribe.

Num 36:7 But the heritages of Israelites are not to be transferred from tribe to tribe; each Israelite will stick to the heritage of his own tribe.

Num 36:8 Any daughter who owns a heritage in an Israelite tribe will marry into a clan of her own paternal tribe, so that the Israelites may each preserve the heritage of his father.

Num 36:9 No heritage may be transferred from one tribe to another; each Israelite tribe will stick to its own heritage."

Num 36:10 Zelophehad's daughters did as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Num 36:11 Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah, daughters of Zelophehad, married the sons of their father's brothers.

Num 36:12 Since they married into clans descended from Manasseh son of Joseph, their heritage reverted to the tribe of their father's clan.

Num 36:13 Such were the commandments and laws that Yahweh prescribed for the Israelites through Moses on the Plains of Moab near the Jordan by Jericho.

Deu 1:1 These are the words which Moses addressed to all Israel beyond the Jordan, in the desert, in the Arabah facing Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab.

Deu 1:2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-Barnea.

Deu 1:3 It was in the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, that Moses told the Israelites everything that Yahweh had ordered him to tell them.

Deu 1:4 He had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who lived at Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Deu 1:5 There, in Moab beyond the Jordan, Moses resolved to expound this Law. He said:

Deu 1:6 'Yahweh our God said to us at Horeb, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deu 1:7 Move on, continue your journey, go to the highlands of the Amorites, to all those who live in the Arabah, in the highlands, in the lowlands, in the Negeb and in the coastland; go into Canaan and to Lebanon as far as the great River Euphrates.

Deu 1:8 Look, that is the country I have given you; go and take possession of the country that Yahweh promised on oath to give to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and to their descendants after them."

Deu 1:9 'At the same time, I told you, "I cannot be responsible for you by myself.

Deu 1:10 Yahweh your God has increased your numbers, until you are now as numerous as the stars of heaven.

Deu 1:11 And Yahweh your God is going to increase you a thousand times more, and bless you as he has promised you.

Deu 1:12 So how can I cope by myself with the bitter burden that you are, and with your bickering?

Deu 1:13 From each of your tribes pick wise, shrewd and experienced men for me to make your leaders."

Deu 1:14 You replied, "Your plan is good."

Deu 1:15 So I took your tribal leaders, wise, experienced men, and appointed them to lead you, as captains of thousands, hundreds, fifties, tens, and as scribes for your tribes.

Deu 1:16 At that same time I told your judges, "You must give your brothers a fair hearing and see justice done between one person and his brother or the foreigner living with him.

Deu 1:17 You must be impartial in judgement and give an equal hearing to small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any human person, for the verdict is God's. Should a case be too difficult, bring it for me to hear.

Deu 1:18 And on that occasion I gave you instructions about everything you were to do."

Deu 1:19 'So, as Yahweh our God had ordered, we left Horeb and made our way through that vast and terrible desert, which you saw on the way to the Amorite highlands, and arrived at Kadesh-Barnea.

Deu 1:20 I then said, "You have now reached the Amorite highlands, which Yahweh our God has given us.

Deu 1:21 Look, Yahweh your God has given you this country. March in, take possession of it as Yahweh, the God of your ancestors, has said; do not be afraid or discouraged."

Deu 1:22 Then you all came to me and said, "Let us send men ahead of us to explore the country; they shall report to us which way we ought to take and what towns we shall come to."

Deu 1:23 This seemed good advice to me and I selected twelve men from among you, one from each tribe.

Deu 1:24 These men made towards the highlands and went up into them; they reached the Valley of Eshcol and reconnoitred it.

Deu 1:25 They collected some of the produce of the country and brought it down to us; and they made us this report, "Yahweh our God has given us a fine country."

Deu 1:26 You, however, refused to go up there and rebelled against the voice of Yahweh your God.

Deu 1:27 You muttered in your tents, saying, "Yahweh hates us, and that is why he has brought us out of Egypt, to put us into the Amorites' power and so destroy us.

Deu 1:28 What kind of place are we making for? Our brothers have discouraged us by saying that the people are stronger and taller than we are, the cities immense, with walls reaching to the sky. And we have seen Anakim there too."

Deu 1:29 'And I said to you, "Do not take fright, do not be afraid of them.

Deu 1:30 Yahweh your God goes ahead of you and will be fighting on your side, just as you saw him act in Egypt.

Deu 1:31 You have seen him in the desert too: Yahweh your God continued to support you, as a man supports his son, all along the road you followed until you arrived here."

Deu 1:32 But for all this, you put no faith in Yahweh your God,

Deu 1:33 going ahead of you on the journey to find you a camping ground, by night in the fire to light your path, and in the cloud by day.

Deu 1:34 'Yahweh heard what you were saying and in his anger swore this oath,

Deu 1:35 "Not one of these people, this perverse generation, will see the fine country I swore to give your ancestors,

Deu 1:36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it. To him and to his children I shall give the land he has set foot on, for he has been perfectly obedient to Yahweh."

Deu 1:37 Yahweh was angry with me too, because of you. "You will not go in either," he said.

Deu 1:38 "Your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will be the one to enter. Encourage him, since he is to bring Israel into possession of the country.

Deu 1:39 And your little ones too, who, you said, would be seized as booty, these children of yours who do not yet know good from evil, they will go in; I shall give it to them and they will own it.

Deu 1:40 But, as regards yourselves, turn round, go back into the desert, towards the Sea of Suph."

Deu 1:41 'In reply, you then said to me, "We have sinned against Yahweh our God. We shall go up and fight just as Yahweh our God has ordered us." And each one of you buckled on his arms and equipped himself to march up into the highlands.

Deu 1:42 But Yahweh said to me, "Tell them this: Do not go up and fight. I am not with you. Do not let yourselves be defeated by your enemies."

Deu 1:43 So I told you, but you would not listen, and you rebelled against the voice of Yahweh; presumptuously you marched into the highlands.

Deu 1:44 The Amorites, who live in that country of hills, came swarming out against you like bees, pursued you and beat you from Seir to Hormah.

Deu 1:45 On your return, you wept in Yahweh's presence, but he would not listen to your cries or pay attention.

Deu 1:46 That was why you had to stay at Kadesh as long as you did.'

Deu 2:1 'We then turned round and made for the desert, in the direction of the Sea of Suph, as Yahweh had ordered me. For many days we skirted Mount Seir.

Deu 2:2 Yahweh then said to me,

Deu 2:3 "You have gone far enough round this mountain; now turn north.

Deu 2:4 And give the people this order: You are about to pass through the territory of your kinsmen, the sons of Esau who live in Seir. They are afraid of you, and you will be well protected.

Deu 2:5 Do not provoke them, for I shall give you none of their land, no, not so much as a foot's length of it. I have given the highlands of Seir to Esau as his domain.

Deu 2:6 Pay them in money for what food you eat; and pay them in money for the water you drink.

Deu 2:7 Yahweh your God has blessed you in all you do; he has watched over your journeying through this vast desert. Yahweh your God has been with you these forty years and you have never been in want."

Deu 2:8 'So we passed beyond those relatives of ours, the children of Esau who live in Seir, by the road through the Arabah, Elath and Ezion-Geber; then, changing direction, we took the road towards the Plains of Moab.

Deu 2:9 Yahweh then said to me, "Do not attack Moab, do not provoke him to fight, for I shall give you none of his land, since I have given Ar to the children of Lot as their domain."

Deu 2:10 (At one time the Emim lived there, a great and numerous people, tall as the Anakim;

Deu 2:11 and, like the Anakim, they were considered to be Rephaim, though the Moabites call them Emim.

Deu 2:12 The Horites, too, lived in Seir at one time; these, however, were dispossessed and exterminated by the children of Esau who settled there in place of them, just as Israel has done in the country given to it by Yahweh as a heritage.)

Deu 2:13 "On your way, then! Cross the Wadi Zered!" 'And so we crossed the Wadi Zered.

Deu 2:14 From Kadesh-Barnea to the crossing of the Wadi Zered our wanderings had taken thirty-eight years; as a result of which, the entire generation of those of age to bear arms had been eliminated, as Yahweh had sworn to them.

Deu 2:15 Yahweh's hand had been against them, to eliminate them completely from the camp.

Deu 2:16 'When death had carried off from the people those of age to bear arms, to the last man,

Deu 2:17 Yahweh said this to me,

Deu 2:18 "You are now crossing Ar, the country of Moab,

Deu 2:19 and soon you will encounter the children of Ammon. Do not attack them, do not provoke them, for I shall give you none of the land belonging to the children of Ammon as your domain. I have given it to the children of Lot as theirs."

Deu 2:20 (This used also to be considered as Rephaim territory; at one time the Rephaim lived there, though the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

Deu 2:21 a great and numerous people, and tall like the Anakim. Yahweh exterminated them for the Ammonites who dispossessed them and settled there in place of them,

Deu 2:22 just as he had done for the children of Esau who live in Seir, so that they dispossessed the Horites and settled there instead of them and are still there now.

Deu 2:23 It was the same with the Avvites who occupied encampments as far as Gaza: the Captorim, coming from Captor, exterminated them and settled there instead.)

Deu 2:24 "On your way! Break camp and cross the Wadi Arnon. See, I am putting Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, at your mercy, and his country too. Set about the conquest; engage him in battle.

Deu 2:25 Today and henceforth, I shall fill the peoples under all heaven with fear and terror of you; whoever hears word of your approach will tremble and writhe in anguish because of you."

Deu 2:26 'So, from the desert of Kedemoth I sent envoys to Sihon king of Heshbon with this peaceful message, Deu 2:27 "I intend to cross your country. I shall go my way, straying neither to right nor to left.

Deu 2:28 I shall eat and pay for the food you choose to sell me, and I shall drink and pay for the water you let me have. I only want to march through,

Deu 2:29 just as the children of Esau who live in Seir permitted, as well as the Moabites who live in Ar, until I cross the Jordan into the country that Yahweh our God is giving us."

Deu 2:30 'But Sihon king of Heshbon would not give us leave to pass through his territory; Yahweh our God had made his spirit obstinate and his heart stubborn, to put him at your mercy, as he still is.

Deu 2:31 Yahweh said to me, "You see, I am starting to give you Sihon and his country. Begin the conquest by seizing his country."

Deu 2:32 Sihon marched out against us, he and all his people, to give battle at Jahaz.

Deu 2:33 And Yahweh our God handed him over to us: we defeated him and his sons and all his people.

Deu 2:34 We captured all his towns and laid all these towns under the curse of destruction: men, women and children, we left no survivors

Deu 2:35 except the livestock which we took as our booty, and the spoils of the captured towns.

Deu 2:36 From Aroer on the edge of the Arnon valley and from the town down in the valley, as far as Gilead, not one town was beyond our reach; Yahweh our God delivered them all to us.

Deu 2:37 You did not, however, go near the country of the Ammonites, or the region of the River Jabbok, or the towns in the highlands, or anywhere forbidden us by Yahweh our God.'

Deu 3:1 'We then turned on Bashan and invaded that. And Og king of Bashan marched out against us, he and all his people, to give battle at Edrei.

Deu 3:2 Yahweh said to me, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have put him at your mercy, him, all his people and his country. You will treat him as you treated Sihon king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon."

Deu 3:3 So, Yahweh our God put Og king of Bashan at our mercy too, with all his people. We beat him so thoroughly that nobody was left.

Deu 3:4 That was when we captured all his towns; there was not a town of theirs we did not take: sixty towns, the whole confederation of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan,

Deu 3:5 all of them fortresses defended by high walls and fortified with gates and bars, not to mention the Perizzite towns, which were very numerous.

Deu 3:6 We laid them under the curse of destruction as we had done Sihon king of Heshbon, laying all these towns under the curse of destruction: men, women and children-

Deu 3:7 but we seized the livestock and spoils of the towns as booty for ourselves.

Deu 3:8 'Thus, by then we had taken the country of the two Amorite kings beyond the Jordan, stretching from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon

Deu 3:9 (the Sidonians call Hermon 'Sirion' and the Amorites call it 'Senir');

Deu 3:10 all the towns of the tableland, all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, the capital cities of Og in Bashan.

Deu 3:11 (Og king of Bashan was the last survivor of the Rephaim; his bed was the iron bed that can be seen at Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites, nine cubits long and four wide, according to the human cubit.)

Deu 3:12 'Then we took possession of this country, from Aroer on the Wadi Arnon. To the Reubenites and Gadites I gave half the highlands of Gilead with its towns.

Deu 3:13 To the half-tribe of Manasseh I gave the rest of Gilead and the whole of Bashan, Og's kingdom. (The whole confederation of Argob and the whole of Bashan is called the country of the Rephaim.)

Deu 3:14 Since Jair son of Manasseh occupied the whole confederation of Argob as far as the frontiers of the Geshurites and Maacathites, after him Bashan is called the Encampments of Jair even today.)

Deu 3:15 To Machir I gave Gilead.

Deu 3:16 To the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the region from Gilead to the Wadi Arnon, the middle of the ravine marking the boundary, and up as far as the Jabbock, the ravine marking the frontier of the Ammonites.

Deu 3:17 The Arabah and the Jordan serve as frontiers from Chinnereth down to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

Deu 3:18 'I then gave you this order: "Yahweh your God has given you this country to be yours. Armed, every one of you fit to fight must go ahead of your brothers the Israelites."

Deu 3:19 Only your wives, your children and your flocks (you have many flocks, I know) must stay behind in the towns which I have given you,

Deu 3:20 until Yahweh has brought your brothers to rest as he has already brought you, and they too possess the territory which Yahweh your God is giving them on the other side of the Jordan; after that, you can go home, each to the domain I have given you."

Deu 3:21 I then gave Joshua this order, "You can see for yourself everything that Yahweh our God has done to these two kings; Yahweh will do the same to all the kingdoms through which you pass.

Deu 3:22 Do not be afraid of them: Yahweh your God himself is fighting for you."

Deu 3:23 'I then pleaded with Yahweh.

Deu 3:24 "My Lord Yahweh," I said, "now that you have begun to reveal your greatness and your power to your servant with works and mighty deeds no God in heaven or on earth can rival,

Deu 3:25 may I not go across and see this fine country on the other side of the Jordan, that fine upland country and the Lebanon?"

Deu 3:26 But, because of you, Yahweh was angry with me and would not listen. "Enough!" he said, "Do not mention this subject again!

Deu 3:27 Climb to the top of Pisgah; turn your eyes to the west, the north, the south, the east. Look well, for across this Jordan you shall not go.

Deu 3:28 Give Joshua your instructions; encourage him, strengthen him; for he will be the one to cross at the head of this people; he will be the one to bring them into possession of the country which you will see."

Deu 3:29 'We then stayed in the valley, close to Beth-Peor.'

Deu 4:1 'And now, Israel, listen to the laws and customs which I am teaching you today, so that, by observing them, you may survive to enter and take possession of the country which Yahweh, God of your ancestors, is giving you.

Deu 4:2 You must add nothing to what I command you, and take nothing from it, but keep the commandments of Yahweh your God just as I lay them down for you.

Deu 4:3 You can see for yourselves what Yahweh has done about the Baal of Peor; Yahweh your God has destroyed all those of you who followed the Baal of Peor;

Deu 4:4 but those of you who stayed faithful to Yahweh your God are all alive today.

Deu 4:5 Look: as Yahweh my God commanded me, I have taught you laws and customs, for you to observe in the country of which you are going to take possession.

Deu 4:6 Keep them, put them into practice, and other peoples will admire your wisdom and prudence. Once they know what all these laws are, they will exclaim, "No other people is as wise and prudent as this great nation!"

Deu 4:7 And indeed, what great nation has its gods as near as Yahweh our God is to us whenever we call to him?

Deu 4:8 And what great nation has laws and customs as upright as the entirety of this Law which I am laying down for you today?

Deu 4:9 'But take care, as you value your lives! Do not forget the things which you yourselves have seen, or let them slip from your heart as long as you live; teach them, rather, to your children and to your children's children.

Deu 4:10 The day you stood at Horeb in the presence of Yahweh your God, Yahweh said to me, "Summon the people to me; I want them to hear me speaking, so that they will learn to fear me all the days they live on earth, and teach this to their children."

Deu 4:11 So you came and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain flamed to the very sky, a sky darkened by cloud, murky and thunderous.

Deu 4:12 Yahweh then spoke to you from the heart of the fire; you heard the sound of words but saw no shape; there was only a voice.

Deu 4:13 He revealed his covenant to you and commanded you to observe it, the Ten Words which he inscribed on two tablets of stone.

Deu 4:14 Yahweh then ordered me to teach you the laws and customs that you were to observe in the country into which you are about to cross, to take possession of it.

Deu 4:15 'Hence, be very careful what you do. Since you saw no shape that day at Horeb when Yahweh spoke to you from the heart of the fire,

Deu 4:16 see that you do not corrupt yourselves by making an image in the shape of anything whatever: be it statue of man or of woman,

Deu 4:17 or of any animal on the earth, or of any bird that flies in the heavens,

Deu 4:18 or of any reptile that crawls on the ground, or of any fish in the waters under the earth.

Deu 4:19 When you raise your eyes to heaven, when you see the sun, the moon, the stars -- the entire array of heaven -- do not be tempted to worship them and serve them. Yahweh your God has allotted these to all the other peoples under heaven,

Deu 4:20 but Yahweh has chosen you, bringing you out of the iron-foundry, Egypt, to be his own people, his own people as you still are today.

Deu 4:21 'Yahweh is angry with me because of you; he has sworn that I shall not cross the Jordan or enter the fine country which Yahweh your God is giving you as your heritage.

Deu 4:22 Yes, I am to die in this country; I shall not cross this Jordan; you will go over and take possession of that rich land.

Deu 4:23 Be careful not to forget the covenant which Yahweh your God has made with you, by sculpting an image or making a statue of anything, since Yahweh your God has forbidden this;

Deu 4:24 for Yahweh your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deu 4:25 'When you have fathered children and grandchildren and have grown old in the country, when you have grown corrupt and made some image, doing what Yahweh regards as wrong and so provoking his anger-

Deu 4:26 today I call heaven and earth to witness against you -- you will quickly vanish from the country which you are crossing the Jordan to possess. Your days will not be prolonged there, for you will be utterly destroyed.

Deu 4:27 Yahweh will scatter you among the peoples, and only a small number of you will remain among the nations where Yahweh will have driven you.

Deu 4:28 There you will serve gods made by human hand, of wood and of stone, that cannot see or hear, eat or smell.

Deu 4:29 'If, however, from there you start searching once more for Yahweh your God, and if you search for him honestly and sincerely, you will find him.

Deu 4:30 You will suffer; everything I have said will befall you, but in the final days you will return to Yahweh your God and listen to his voice.

Deu 4:31 For Yahweh your God is a merciful God and will not desert or destroy you or forget the covenant which he made on oath with your ancestors.

Deu 4:32 'Put this question, then, to the ages that are past, that have gone before you, from when God created the human race on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything like it ever heard?

Deu 4:33 Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you have heard it, and remain alive?

Deu 4:34 Has it ever been known before that any god took action himself to bring one nation out of another one, by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors -- all of which things Yahweh your God has done for you before your eyes in Egypt?

Deu 4:35 'This he showed you, so that you might know that Yahweh is the true God and that there is no other.

Deu 4:36 To instruct you, he made you hear his voice from heaven, and on earth he let you see his great fire, and from the heart of the fire you heard his words.

Deu 4:37 Because he loved your ancestors and, after them, chose their descendants, he has brought you out of Egypt, displaying his presence and mighty power,

Deu 4:38 dispossessing for you nations who were larger and stronger than you, to make way for you and to give you their country as your heritage, as it still is today.

Deu 4:39 'Hence, grasp this today and meditate on it carefully: Yahweh is the true God, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other.'

Deu 4:40 Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children after you may prosper and live long in the country that Yahweh your God is giving you for ever.'

Deu 4:41 Moses then set aside three towns in the east, beyond the Jordan,

Deu 4:42 to which any killer might flee who had accidentally, without any previous feud, killed his fellow; by taking refuge in one of these towns he could save his life.

Deu 4:43 These were, for the Reubenites, Bezer in the desert on the tableland; for the Gadites, Ramoth in Gilead; for the Manassehites, Golan in Bashan.

Deu 4:44 This is the Law which Moses presented to the Israelites.

Deu 4:45 These are the stipulations, the laws and the customs which Moses gave the Israelites after they had left Egypt,

Deu 4:46 beyond the Jordan in the valley near Beth-Peor, in the country of Sihon the Amorite king who had lived at Heshbon. Moses and the Israelites had defeated him when they left Egypt,

Deu 4:47 and had taken possession of his country, as well as that of Og king of Bashan -- two Amorite kings to the east beyond the Jordan,

Deu 4:48 from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, all the way to Mount Sion (that is, Hermon) -

Deu 4:49 and of the whole Arabah east of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

Deu 5:1 Moses called all Israel together and said to them, 'Listen, Israel, to the laws and customs that I proclaim to you today. Learn them and take care to observe them.'

Deu 5:2 'Yahweh our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

Deu 5:3 Yahweh made this covenant not with our ancestors, but with us, with all of us alive here today.

Deu 5:4 On the mountain, from the heart of the fire, Yahweh spoke to you face to face,

Deu 5:5 while I stood between you and Yahweh to let you know what Yahweh was saying, since you were afraid of the fire and had not gone up the mountain. He said:

Deu 5:6 ' "I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt, out of the place of slave-labour.

Deu 5:7 ' "You will have no gods other than me.

Deu 5:8 ' "You must not make yourselves any image or any likeness of anything in heaven above or on earth beneath or in the waters under the earth;

Deu 5:9 you must not bow down to these gods or serve them. For I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God and I punish the parents' fault in the children, the grandchildren and the great-grandchildren, among those who hate me;

Deu 5:10 but I show faithful love to thousands, to those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deu 5:11 ' "You must not misuse the name of Yahweh your God, for Yahweh will not leave unpunished anyone who uses his name for what is false.

Deu 5:12 ' "Observe the Sabbath day and keep it holy, as Yahweh your God has commanded you.

Deu 5:13 Labour for six days, doing all your work,

Deu 5:14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath for Yahweh your God. You must not do any work that day, neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your servants -- male or female -- nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your animals, nor the foreigner who has made his home with you;

Deu 5:15 so that your servants, male and female, may rest, as you do. Remember that you were once a slave in Egypt, and that Yahweh your God brought you out of there with mighty hand and outstretched arm; this is why Yahweh your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

Deu 5:16 ' "Honour your father and your mother, as Yahweh your God has commanded you, so that you may have long life and may prosper in the country which Yahweh your God is giving you.

Deu 5:17 ' "You must not kill.

Deu 5:18 ' "You must not commit adultery.

Deu 5:19 ' "You must not steal.

Deu 5:20 ' "You must not give false evidence against your fellow.

Deu 5:21 ' "You must not set your heart on your neighbour's spouse, you must not set your heart on your neighbour's house, or field, or servant-man or woman -- or ox, or donkey or any of your neighbour's possessions."

Deu 5:22 'These were the words Yahweh spoke to you when you were all assembled on the mountain.

Thunderously, he spoke to you from the heart of the fire, in cloud and thick darkness. He added nothing, but wrote them on two tablets of stone which he gave to me.

Deu 5:23 'Now, having heard this voice coming out of the darkness, while the mountain was all on fire, you came to me, all of you, heads of tribes and elders,

Deu 5:24 and said, "Yahweh our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice from the heart of the fire. Today we have seen that God can speak with a human being and that person still live.

Deu 5:25 So why should we expose ourselves to death again? For this great fire might devour us if we go on listening to the voice of Yahweh our God, and then we should die.

Deu 5:26 For what creature of flesh could possibly live after hearing, as we have heard, the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire?

Deu 5:27 Go nearer yourself and listen to everything that Yahweh our God may say, and then tell us everything that Yahweh our God has told you; we shall listen and put it into practice!"

Deu 5:28 "Yahweh heard what you were saying to me, and he then said to me, "I have heard what these people are saying. Everything they have said is well said.

Deu 5:29 If only their heart were always so, set on fearing me and on keeping my commandments, so that they and their children might prosper for ever!

Deu 5:30 Go and tell them to go back to their tents.

Deu 5:31 But you yourself stay here with me, and I shall tell you all the commandments, the laws and the customs which you are to teach them and which they are to observe in the country which I am giving them as their possession."

Deu 5:32 'Keep them and put them into practice: such is Yahweh's command to you. Stray neither to right nor to left.

Deu 5:33 Follow the whole way that Yahweh has marked for you, and you will survive to prosper and live long in the country which you are going to possess.'

Deu 6:1 'Such, then, are the commandments, the laws and the customs which Yahweh your God has instructed me to teach you, for you to observe in the country which you are on your way to possess.

Deu 6:2 And hence, if, throughout your lives, you fear Yahweh your God and keep all his laws and commandments, which I am laying down for you today, you will live long, you and your child and your grandchild.

Deu 6:3 Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosperous and numerous, as Yahweh, God of your ancestors, has promised you, in giving you a country flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 6:4 'Listen, Israel: Yahweh our God is the one, the only Yahweh.

Deu 6:5 You must love Yahweh your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength.

Deu 6:6 Let the words I enjoin on you today stay in your heart.

Deu 6:7 You shall tell them to your children, and keep on telling them, when you are sitting at home, when you are out and about, when you are lying down and when you are standing up;

Deu 6:8 you must fasten them on your hand as a sign and on your forehead as a headband;

Deu 6:9 you must write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deu 6:10 'When Yahweh has brought you into the country which he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that he would give you, with great and prosperous cities you have not built,

Deu 6:11 with houses full of good things you have not provided, with wells you have not dug, with vineyards and olive trees you have not planted, and then, when you have eaten as much as you want,

Deu 6:12 be careful you do not forget Yahweh who has brought you out of Egypt, out of the place of slave-labour.

Deu 6:13 Yahweh your God is the one you must fear, him alone you must serve, his is the name by which you must swear.

Deu 6:14 'Do not follow other gods, gods of the peoples round you,

Deu 6:15 for Yahweh your God among you is a jealous God; the wrath of Yahweh your God would blaze out against you, and he would wipe you off the face of the earth.

Deu 6:16 Do not put Yahweh your God to the test as you tested him at Massah.

Deu 6:17 Keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and his instructions and laws which he has laid down for you,

Deu 6:18 and do what Yahweh regards as right and good, so that you may prosper and take possession of the fine country which Yahweh swore to give your ancestors,

Deu 6:19 driving out your enemies before you; such was Yahweh's promise.

Deu 6:20 'In times to come, when your child asks you, "What is the meaning of these instructions, laws and customs which Yahweh our God has laid down for you?"

Deu 6:21 you are to tell your child, "Once we were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and Yahweh brought us out of Egypt by his mighty hand.

Deu 6:22 Before our eyes, Yahweh worked great and terrible signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and his entire household.

Deu 6:23 And he brought us out of there, to lead us into the country which he had sworn to our ancestors that he would give us.

Deu 6:24 And Yahweh has commanded us to observe all these laws and to fear Yahweh our God, so as to be happy for ever and to survive, as we do to this day.

Deu 6:25 For us, right living will mean this: to keep and observe all these commandments in obedience to Yahweh our God, as he has commanded us.' '

Deu 7:1 'When Yahweh your God has brought you into the country which you are going to make your own, many nations will fall before you: Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than yourselves.

Deu 7:2 Yahweh your God will put them at your mercy and you will conquer them. You must put them under the curse of destruction. You must not make any treaty with them or show them any pity.

Deu 7:3 You must not intermarry with them; you must not give a daughter of yours to a son of theirs, or take a daughter of theirs for a son of yours,

Deu 7:4 for your son would be seduced from following me into serving other gods; the wrath of Yahweh would blaze out against you and he would instantly destroy you.

Deu 7:5 Instead, treat them like this: tear down their altars, smash their standing-stones, cut down their sacred poles and burn their idols.

Deu 7:6 For you are a people consecrated to Yahweh your God; of all the peoples on earth, you have been chosen by Yahweh your God to be his own people.

Deu 7:7 'Yahweh set his heart on you and chose you not because you were the most numerous of all peoples -- for indeed you were the smallest of all-

Deu 7:8 but because he loved you and meant to keep the oath which he swore to your ancestors: that was why Yahweh brought you out with his mighty hand and redeemed you from the place of slave-labour, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deu 7:9 From this you can see that Yahweh your God is the true God, the faithful God who, though he is true to his covenant and his faithful love for a thousand generations as regards those who love him and keep his commandments,

Deu 7:10 punishes in their own persons those that hate him. He destroys anyone who hates him, without delay; and it is in their own persons that he punishes them.

Deu 7:11 Hence, you must keep and observe the commandments, laws and customs which I am laying down for you today.

Deu 7:12 'Listen to these ordinances, be true to them and observe them, and in return Yahweh your God will be true to the covenant and love which he promised on oath to your ancestors.

Deu 7:13 He will love you and bless you and increase your numbers; he will bless the fruit of your body and the produce of your soil, your corn, your new wine, your oil, the issue of your cattle, the young of your flock, in the country which he swore to your ancestors that he would give you.

Deu 7:14 You will be the most blessed of all peoples. None of you, man or woman, will be sterile, no male or female of your beasts infertile.

Deu 7:15 Yahweh will deflect all illness from you; he will not afflict you with those evil plagues of Egypt which you have known, but will inflict them on all who hate you.

Deu 7:16 'So, devour all the peoples whom Yahweh your God puts at your mercy, show them no pity, do not serve their gods: or you will be ensnared.

Deu 7:17 'You may say in your heart, "These nations outnumber me; how shall I be able to dispossess them?"

Deu 7:18 Do not be afraid of them: remember how Yahweh your God treated Pharaoh and all Egypt,

Deu 7:19 the great ordeals that you yourselves have seen, the signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm with which Yahweh your God brought you out. This is how Yahweh your God will treat all the peoples whom you fear to face.

Deu 7:20 And what is more, Yahweh your God will send hornets to destroy those who are left and who hide from you.

Deu 7:21 'Do not be afraid of them, for Yahweh your God is among you, a great and terrible God.

Deu 7:22 Little by little, Yahweh your God will clear away these nations before you; you cannot destroy them all at once, or wild animals will breed and be disastrous for you.

Deu 7:23 But Yahweh your God will put them at your mercy, and disaster after disaster will overtake them until they are finally destroyed.

Deu 7:24 He will put their kings at your mercy and you will blot out their names under heaven; no one will be able to resist you -- until you have destroyed them all.

Deu 7:25 'You must burn the statues of their gods, not coveting the gold and silver that covers them; take it and you will be caught in a snare: it is detestable to Yahweh your God.

Deu 7:26 You must not bring any detestable thing into your house: or you, like it, will come under the curse of destruction. You must regard them as unclean and loathsome, for they are under the curse of destruction.'

Deu 8:1 'You must keep and put into practice all the commandments which I enjoin on you today, so that you may survive and increase in numbers and enter the country which Yahweh promised on oath to your ancestors, and make it your own.

Deu 8:2 Remember the long road by which Yahweh your God led you for forty years in the desert, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart -- whether you would keep his commandments or not.

Deu 8:3 He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your ancestors had ever known, to make you understand that human beings live not on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of Yahweh.

Deu 8:4 The clothes on your back did not wear out and your feet were not swollen, all those forty years.

Deu 8:5 'Learn from this that Yahweh your God was training you as a man trains his child,

Deu 8:6 and keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and so follow his ways and fear him.

Deu 8:7 'But Yahweh your God is bringing you into a fine country, a land of streams and springs, of waters that well up from the deep in valleys and hills,

Deu 8:8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines, of figs, of pomegranates, a land of olives, of oil, of honey,

Deu 8:9 a land where you will eat bread without stint, where you will want nothing, a land where the stones are iron and where the hills may be quarried for copper.

Deu 8:10 You will eat and have all you want and you will bless Yahweh your God in the fine country which he has given you.

Deu 8:11 'Be careful not to forget Yahweh your God, by neglecting his commandments, customs and laws which I am laying down for you today.

Deu 8:12 When you have eaten all you want, when you have built fine houses to live in,

Deu 8:13 when you have seen your flocks and herds increase, your silver and gold abound and all your possessions grow great,

Deu 8:14 do not become proud of heart. Do not then forget Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt, out of the place of slave-labour,

Deu 8:15 who guided you through this vast and dreadful desert, a land of fiery snakes, scorpions, thirst;

Deu 8:16 who in this waterless place brought you water out of the flinty rock; who in this desert fed you with manna unknown to your ancestors, to humble you and test you and so make your future the happier.

Deu 8:17 'Beware of thinking to yourself, "My own strength and the might of my own hand have given me the power to act like this."

Deu 8:18 Remember Yahweh your God; he was the one who gave you the strength to act effectively like this, thus keeping then, as today, the covenant which he swore to your ancestors.

Deu 8:19 Be sure: if you forget Yahweh your God, if you follow other gods, if you serve them and bow down to them -- I testify to you today -- you will perish.

Deu 8:20 Like the nations Yahweh is to destroy before you, so you yourselves will perish, for not having listened to the voice of Yahweh your God.'

Deu 9:1 'Listen, Israel; today you are about to cross the Jordan, to go and dispossess nations greater and stronger than yourself, and cities immense, with walls reaching to the sky.

Deu 9:2 A people great and tall, these Anakim, as you know; you have heard the saying: Who can stand up to the sons of Anak?

Deu 9:3 Know then today that Yahweh your God himself will go ahead of you, destroying them like a devouring fire, and that he himself will subdue them before you so that you can dispossess and quickly make an end of them, as Yahweh has already said.

Deu 9:4 Do not think to yourself, once Yahweh your God has driven them before you, "Yahweh has brought me into possession of this country because I am upright," when Yahweh is dispossessing these nations for you, because they do wrong.

Deu 9:5 You are not going into their country to take possession because of any right behaviour or uprightness on your part; rather, it is because of their wickedness that Yahweh is dispossessing these nations for you, and also to keep the pact which he swore to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deu 9:6 Be clear about this: Yahweh is not giving you possession of this fine country because of any right conduct on your part, for you are an obstinate people.

Deu 9:7 'Remember; never forget how you provoked Yahweh your God in the desert. From the very day that you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebels against Yahweh.

Deu 9:8 At Horeb, you provoked Yahweh, and Yahweh was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you.

Deu 9:9 I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant that Yahweh was making with you. I stayed forty days and forty nights on the mountain, with nothing to eat or drink.

Deu 9:10 Yahweh gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God, exactly corresponding to what Yahweh had said to you on the mountain, from the heart of the fire, on the day of the Assembly.

Deu 9:11 After forty days and forty nights, having given me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant,

Deu 9:12 Yahweh said to me, "Get up, go down quickly, for your people, whom you have brought out of Egypt, are corrupting one another. They have been quick to leave the way I marked out for them; they have cast themselves a metal idol."

Deu 9:13 Yahweh then said to me, "I have seen this people, and what an obstinate people they are!

Deu 9:14 Leave me, I am going to destroy them and wipe out their name under heaven; and I shall make you into a mightier and more numerous nation than they are!"

Deu 9:15 'I went back down the mountain, which was blazing with fire, and in my hands were the two tablets of the covenant.

Deu 9:16 When I looked, I saw that you had been sinning against Yahweh your God. You had cast yourselves a metal calf; you had been quick to leave the way marked out for you by Yahweh.

Deu 9:17 I seized the two tablets and with my two hands threw them down and broke them before your eyes.

Deu 9:18 Then I fell prostrate before Yahweh; as before, I spent forty days and forty nights with nothing to eat or drink, on account of all the sins which you had committed, by doing what was displeasing to Yahweh and thus arousing his anger.

Deu 9:19 For I was afraid of this anger, of the fury which so roused Yahweh against you that he was ready to destroy you. And, once again, Yahweh heard my prayer.

Deu 9:20 Yahweh was enraged with Aaron and was ready to destroy him too; I also pleaded for Aaron on that occasion.

Deu 9:21 That work of sin, the calf you had made, I took and burned and broke to pieces; having ground it to the finest dust, I threw its dust into the stream that comes down from the mountain.

Deu 9:22 'At Taberah too and at Massah and Kibroth-ha-Taavah, you provoked Yahweh.

Deu 9:23 And when Yahweh, meaning you to leave Kadesh-Barnea, said, "Go up and take possession of the country which I have given you," you rebelled against the command of Yahweh your God and would not believe him or listen to his voice.

Deu 9:24 You have been rebels against Yahweh from the day he first knew you.

Deu 9:25 'So I fell prostrate before Yahweh and lay there those forty days and forty nights, Yahweh having said that he was going to destroy you.

Deu 9:26 And I pleaded with Yahweh. "My Lord Yahweh," I said, "do not destroy your people, your heritage whom in your greatness you have redeemed, whom you have brought out of Egypt with your mighty hand.

Deu 9:27 Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; take no notice of this people's stubbornness, their wickedness, and their sin,

Deu 9:28 so that, in the country from which you have brought us, it may not be said, "Yahweh was not able to bring them to the country which he had promised them. He hated them; that was why he brought them out -- to slaughter them in the desert."

Deu 9:29 But these are your people, your heritage, whom you yourself have brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm."

Deu 10:1 'Yahweh then said to me, "Cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and come up to me on the mountain. Make an ark of wood;

Deu 10:2 on the tablets I shall inscribe the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; put them in the ark."

Deu 10:3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two stone tablets like the first and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

Deu 10:4 And he inscribed the tablets, as he had inscribed them before, with the Ten Words which Yahweh had said to you on the mountain, from the heart of the fire, on the day of the Assembly. Yahweh then gave them to me.

Deu 10:5 I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made, and there they stayed, as Yahweh had commanded me.

Deu 10:6 'The Israelites left the wells of the Bene-Jaakan for Moserah, where Aaron died; he was buried there, and his son Eleazar succeeded him in the priesthood.

Deu 10:7 From there, they set out for Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah for Jotbathah, an area rich in streams.

Deu 10:8 Yahweh then set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of Yahweh's covenant, to stand in the presence of Yahweh, to serve him and to bless in his name, as they still do today.

Deu 10:9 This is why Levi has no share or heritage with his brothers: Yahweh is his heritage, as Yahweh your God then told him.

Deu 10:10 'And, as before, I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights. And again Yahweh heard my prayer and agreed not to destroy you.

Deu 10:11 And Yahweh said to me, "Be on your way at the head of this people, so that they can go and take possession of the country which I swore to their ancestors that I would give them."

Deu 10:12 'And now, Israel, what does Yahweh your God ask of you? Only this: to fear Yahweh your God, to follow all his ways, to love him, to serve Yahweh your God with all your heart and all your soul,

Deu 10:13 to keep the commandments and laws of Yahweh, which I am laying down for you today for your own good.

Deu 10:14 'Look, to Yahweh your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth and everything on it;

Deu 10:15 yet it was on your ancestors, for love of them, that Yahweh set his heart to love them, and he chose their descendants after them, you yourselves, out of all nations, up to the present day.

Deu 10:16 Circumcise your heart then and be obstinate no longer;

Deu 10:17 for Yahweh your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, triumphant and terrible, free of favouritism, never to be bribed.

Deu 10:18 He it is who sees justice done for the orphan and the widow, who loves the stranger and gives him food and clothing.

Deu 10:19 (Love the stranger then, for you were once strangers in Egypt.)

Deu 10:20 Yahweh your God is the one whom you must fear and serve; to him you must hold firm; in his name take your oaths.

Deu 10:21 Him you must praise, he is your God: for you he has done these great and terrible things which you have seen for yourselves;

Deu 10:22 and, although your ancestors numbered only seventy persons when they went down to Egypt, Yahweh your God has now made you as many as the stars of heaven.'

Deu 11:1 'You must love Yahweh your God and always keep his observances, his laws, his customs, his commandments.

Deu 11:2 You are the ones who have had the experience, not your children. They have not had the experience, they have not witnessed the lessons of Yahweh your God, his greatness, his mighty hand and his outstretched arm,

Deu 11:3 the signs and the deeds which he performed in the heart of Egypt, against Pharaoh king of Egypt and his entire country,

Deu 11:4 what he did to the armies of Egypt, to their horses and their chariots, by overwhelming them with the waters of the Sea of Reeds when they were pursuing you, and leaving no trace of them to this day;

Deu 11:5 what he did for you in the desert, until you arrived here;

Deu 11:6 what he did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when, with all Israel standing round, the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their families, their tents and all their supporters.

Deu 11:7 All these great deeds of Yahweh you have seen with your own eyes.

Deu 11:8 'You must keep all the commandments which I enjoin on you today, so that you may have the strength to conquer the country into which you are about to cross, to take possession of it,

Deu 11:9 and so that you may live long in the country which Yahweh promised on oath to bestow on your ancestors and their descendants, a country flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 11:10 'For the country which you are about to enter and make your own is not like the country of Egypt from which you have come, where, having done your sowing, you had to water the seed by foot, as though in a vegetable garden.

Deu 11:11 No, the country which you are about to enter and make your own, is a country of hills and valleys watered by the rain of heaven.

Deu 11:12 Yahweh your God looks after this country, the eyes of Yahweh your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end.

Deu 11:13 Depend on it: if you faithfully obey the commandments I enjoin on you today, loving Yahweh your God and serving him with all your heart and all your soul,

Deu 11:14 I shall give your country rain at the right time, rain in autumn, rain in spring, so that you can harvest your wheat, your new wine and your oil.

Deu 11:15 I shall provide grass in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat to your heart's content.

Deu 11:16 Beware of letting your heart be seduced: if you go astray, serve other gods and bow down to them,

Deu 11:17 Yahweh's anger will be kindled against you, he will shut the heavens, there will be no more rain, the soil will not yield its produce and, in the fine country given you by Yahweh, you will quickly perish.

Deu 11:18 'Let these words of mine remain in your heart and in your soul; fasten them on your hand as a sign and on your forehead as a headband.

Deu 11:19 Teach them to your children, and keep on telling them, when you are sitting at home, when you are out and about, when you are lying down and when you are standing up.

Deu 11:20 Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,

Deu 11:21 so that you and your children may live long in the country which Yahweh swore to your ancestors that he would give them for as long as there is a sky above the earth.

Deu 11:22 'For if you faithfully keep and observe all these commandments that I enjoin on you today, loving Yahweh your God, following all his ways and holding fast to him,

Deu 11:23 Yahweh will dispossess all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and more powerful than yourselves.

Deu 11:24 Wherever the sole of your foot treads will be yours; your territory will run from the desert all the way to the Lebanon; and from the River, from the River Euphrates, as far as the Western Sea, will be your territory.

Deu 11:25 No one will be able to resist you; Yahweh your God will make you feared and dreaded throughout the territory you tread, as he has promised you.

Deu 11:26 'Today, look, I am offering you a blessing and a curse:

Deu 11:27 a blessing, if you obey the commandments of Yahweh your God which I enjoin on you today;
Deu 11:28 a curse, if you disobey the commandments of Yahweh your God and leave the way which today I have marked out for you, by following other gods hitherto unknown to you.

Deu 11:29 And when Yahweh your God has brought you into the country which you are about to enter and make your own, you must set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

Deu 11:30 (These mountains, as everyone knows, are on the other side of the Jordan on the westward road, in the territory of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, near the Oak of Moreh.)

Deu 11:31 For you are about to cross the Jordan, to enter and take possession of the country given you by Yahweh your God. You will possess it, you will live in it,

Deu 11:32 and you must keep and observe all the laws and customs promulgated by me to you today.'

Deu 12:1 'Now, these are the laws and customs which you must keep in the country which Yahweh, God of your ancestors, is giving you as yours, and which you must observe every day that you live in that country.

Deu 12:2 'You must completely destroy all the places where the nations you dispossess have served their gods, on high mountains, on hills, under any spreading tree;

Deu 12:3 you must tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, burn their sacred poles, hack to bits the statues of their gods and obliterate their name from that place.

Deu 12:4 'Not so must you behave towards Yahweh your God.

Deu 12:5 You must seek Yahweh your God in the place which he will choose from all your tribes, there to set his name and give it a home: that is where you must go.

Deu 12:6 That is where you must bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and offerings held high, your votive offerings and your voluntary offerings, and the first-born of your herd and flock;

Deu 12:7 and that is where you must eat in the presence of Yahweh your God, rejoicing over your labours, you and your households, because Yahweh your God has blessed you.

Deu 12:8 'You must not behave as we are behaving here today, each of you doing what he himself sees fit,

Deu 12:9 since you have not yet come to the resting place and the heritage that Yahweh your God is going to give you.

Deu 12:10 You are about to cross the Jordan and live in the country given you by Yahweh your God as your heritage; he will grant you peace from all the enemies surrounding you, and you will live in safety.

Deu 12:11 To the place chosen by Yahweh your God as a home for his name, to that place you must bring all the things that I am laying down for you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and offerings held high, and all the best of your possessions dedicated by you to Yahweh.

Deu 12:12 That is where you will rejoice in the presence of Yahweh your God, you and your sons and daughters, your serving men and women, and the Levite living in your community since he has no share or heritage of his own among you.

Deu 12:13 'Take care you do not offer your burnt offerings in all the sacred places you see;

Deu 12:14 only in the place that Yahweh chooses in one of your tribes may you offer your burnt offerings and do all the things which I have commanded you.

Deu 12:15 'This notwithstanding, and whenever you wish, you may slaughter and eat meat wherever you live -- as much as the blessing of Yahweh affords you. Clean or unclean may eat it, as though it were gazelle or deer.

Deu 12:16 You will not, however, eat the blood, but will pour that like water on the ground.

Deu 12:17 'You must not eat the tithe of your wheat, of your new wine or of your oil, or the first-born of your herd or flock, or any of your votive offerings or voluntary offerings, or your offerings held high to Yahweh, at home.

Deu 12:18 You must eat these in the presence of Yahweh your God in the place Yahweh your God chooses and there alone, you, your son and your daughter, your serving man and serving woman, and the Levite living in your community, expressing your joy in all your labours in the presence of Yahweh your God.

Deu 12:19 As long as you live on your soil, be careful not to neglect the Levite.

Deu 12:20 'When Yahweh your God enlarges your territory as he has promised you, and you say, "I should like to eat meat," if you want to eat meat you may eat as much as you like.

Deu 12:21 If the place in which Yahweh your God chooses to set his name is too far away, you may slaughter any of your herd or flock that Yahweh has given you, as I have prescribed for you; you may eat as much of it as you please at home.

Deu 12:22 But you must eat it as you would gazelle or deer; clean and unclean may eat it together.

Deu 12:23 Take care, however, not to eat the blood, since blood is life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

Deu 12:24 You must not eat it, but must pour it like water on the ground.

Deu 12:25 You must not eat it -- so that you, and your children after you, may prosper, doing what is right in Yahweh's eyes.

Deu 12:26 But the holy things of yours and the things which you have dedicated, you must go and take to the place chosen by Yahweh.

Deu 12:27 The burnt offerings of meat and blood must be presented on the altar of Yahweh your God; whereas, in your sacrifices, the blood must be poured on the altar of Yahweh your God; the meat you yourselves may eat.

Deu 12:28 Faithfully keep and obey all these orders which I am giving you, so that you and your children after you may prosper for ever, doing what is good and right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

Deu 12:29 'When Yahweh your God has annihilated the nations confronting you, whom you are going to dispossess, and when you have dispossessed them and made your home in their country,

Deu 12:30 beware of being entrapped into copying them, after they have been destroyed to make way for you, and do not enquire about their gods, saying, "How did these nations worship their gods? I am going to do the same too."

Deu 12:31 This is not the way to treat Yahweh your God. For in honour of their gods they have done everything detestable that Yahweh hates; yes, in honour of their gods, they even burn their own sons and daughters as sacrifices!

Deu 13:1 'Whatever I am now commanding you, you must keep and observe, adding nothing to it, taking nothing away.

Deu 13:2 'If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you, offering you some sign or wonder,

Deu 13:3 and the sign or wonder comes about; and if he then says to you, "Let us follow other gods (hitherto unknown to you) and serve them,"

Deu 13:4 you must not listen to that prophet's words or to that dreamer's dreams. Yahweh your God is testing you to know if you love Yahweh your God with all your heart and all your soul.

Deu 13:5 Yahweh your God is the one whom you must follow, him you must fear, his commandments you must keep, his voice you must obey, him you must serve, to him you must hold fast.

Deu 13:6 That prophet or that dreamer of dreams must be put to death, since he has preached apostasy from Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the place of slave-labour; and he would have diverted you from the way in which Yahweh your God has commanded you to walk. You must banish this evil from among you.

Deu 13:7 'If your brother, the son of your father or of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the spouse whom you embrace, or your most intimate friend, tries secretly to seduce you, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," unknown to you or your ancestors before you,

Deu 13:8 gods of the peoples surrounding you, whether near you or far away, anywhere throughout the world,

Deu 13:9 you must not consent, you must not listen to him; you must show him no pity, you must not spare him or conceal his guilt.

Deu 13:10 No, you must kill him, your hand must strike the first blow in putting him to death and the hands of the rest of the people following.

Deu 13:11 You must stone him to death, since he has tried to divert you from Yahweh your God who brought you out of Egypt, from the place of slave-labour.

Deu 13:12 All Israel, hearing of this, will be afraid, and none of you will do such a wicked thing again.

Deu 13:13 'If you hear that in one of the towns which Yahweh your God has given you for a home,

Deu 13:14 there are men, scoundrels from your own stock, who have led their fellow-citizens astray, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," hitherto unknown to you,

Deu 13:15 it is your duty to look into the matter, examine it, and enquire most carefully. If it is proved and confirmed that such a hateful thing has taken place among you,

Deu 13:16 you must put the inhabitants of that town to the sword; you must lay it under the curse of destruction -- the town and everything in it.

Deu 13:17 You must pile up all its loot in the public square and burn the town and all its loot, offering it all to Yahweh your God. It is to be a ruin for all time, and never rebuilt.

Deu 13:18 From what is thus put under the curse of destruction you must keep nothing back, so that Yahweh may turn from the ferocity of his anger and show you mercy, and have pity on you and increase your numbers, as he swore he would to your ancestors,

Deu 13:19 on condition that you listen to the voice of Yahweh your God by keeping all his commandments which I am enjoining on you today, and by doing what is right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.'

Deu 14:1 'You are children of Yahweh your God. You must not gash yourselves or shave your foreheads for the dead.

Deu 14:2 For you are a people consecrated to Yahweh your God, and Yahweh has chosen you to be his own people from all the peoples on the earth.

Deu 14:3 'You must not eat anything disgusting.

Deu 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: ox, sheep, goat,

Deu 14:5 deer, gazelle, roebuck, ibex, antelope, oryx, mountain sheep.

Deu 14:6 You may eat any animal that has a divided and cloven hoof and that is a ruminant.

Deu 14:7 Of those, however, that are ruminants and of those that have a divided and cloven hoof you may not eat the following: the camel, the hare and the coney, which are ruminants but have no cloven hoof; you must class them as unclean.

Deu 14:8 So also the pig, which though it has a cloven hoof is not a ruminant; you must class it as unclean. You must neither eat the meat of such animals nor touch their dead bodies.

Deu 14:9 'Of whatever lives in water you may eat the following: you may eat anything that has fins and scales.

Deu 14:10 But you must not eat anything without fins and scales: you must class it as unclean.

Deu 14:11 'You may eat all clean birds,

Deu 14:12 but the following birds you must not eat: the tawny vulture, the griffon, the osprey,

Deu 14:13 the kite and the several kinds of buzzard,

Deu 14:14 all kinds of raven,

Deu 14:15 the ostrich, the screech owl, the seagull, the several kinds of hawk,

Deu 14:16 owl, barn owl, ibis,

Deu 14:17 pelican, white vulture, cormorant,

Deu 14:18 stork, the several kinds of heron, hoopoe and bat.

Deu 14:19 You are to class all winged insects as unclean and must not eat them.

Deu 14:20 You may eat any clean fowl.

Deu 14:21 'You must not eat any animal that has died a natural death. You may give it to a resident foreigner to eat, or sell it to a foreigner. For you are a people consecrated to Yahweh your God. 'You must not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Deu 14:22 'Every year, you must take a tithe of what your fields produce from what you have sown

Deu 14:23 and, in the presence of Yahweh your God, in the place where he chooses to give his name a home, you must eat the tithe of your wheat, of your new wine and of your oil, and the first-born of your herd and flock; and by so doing, you will learn always to fear Yahweh your God.

Deu 14:24 'If the road is too long for you, if you cannot bring your tithe because the place in which Yahweh chooses to make a home for his name is too far away, when Yahweh your God has blessed you,

Deu 14:25 you must convert it into money and, with the money clasped in your hand, you must go to the place chosen by Yahweh your God;

Deu 14:26 there you may spend the money on whatever you like, oxen, sheep, wine, fermented liquor, anything you please. There you must eat in the presence of Yahweh your God and rejoice, you and your household.

Deu 14:27 Do not neglect the Levite living in your community, since he has no share or heritage of his own among you.

Deu 14:28 'At the end of every three years, you must take all the tithes of your harvests for that year and collect them in your community.

Deu 14:29 Then the Levite -- since he has no share or heritage of his own among you -- the foreigner, the orphan and the widow living in your community, will come and eat all they want. And so Yahweh your God will bless you in all the labours that you undertake.'

Deu 15:1 'At the end of every seven years, you must grant remission.

Deu 15:2 The nature of the remission is as follows: any creditor holding a personal pledge obtained from his fellow must release him from it; he must not exploit his fellow or his brother once the latter has appealed to Yahweh for remission.

Deu 15:3 A foreigner you may exploit, but you must remit whatever claim you have on your brother.

Deu 15:4 There must, then, be no poor among you. For Yahweh will grant you his blessing in the country which Yahweh your God is giving you to possess as your heritage,

Deu 15:5 only if you pay careful attention to the voice of Yahweh your God, by keeping and practising all these commandments which I am enjoining on you today.

Deu 15:6 If Yahweh your God blesses you as he has promised, you will be creditors to many nations but debtors to none; you will rule over many nations, and be ruled by none.

Deu 15:7 'Is there anyone poor among you, one of your brothers, in any town of yours in the country which Yahweh your God is giving you? Do not harden your heart or close your hand against that poor brother of yours,

Deu 15:8 but be open handed with him and lend him enough for his needs.

Deu 15:9 Do not allow this mean thought in your heart, "The seventh year, the year of remission, is near," and scowl at your poor brother and give him nothing; he could appeal against you to Yahweh, and you would incur guilt!

Deu 15:10 When you give to him, you must give with an open heart; for this, Yahweh your God will bless you in all your actions and in all your undertakings.

Deu 15:11 Of course, there will never cease to be poor people in the country, and that is why I am giving you this command: Always be open handed with your brother, and with anyone in your country who is in need and poor.

Deu 15:12 'If your fellow Hebrew, man or woman, sells himself to you, he can serve you for six years. In the seventh year you must set him free,

Deu 15:13 and in setting him free you must not let him go empty handed.

Deu 15:14 By way of present, you will load his shoulders with things from your flock, from your threshing-floor and from your winepress; as Yahweh your God has blessed you, so you must give to him.

Deu 15:15 Remember that you were once a slave in Egypt and that Yahweh your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this order today.

Deu 15:16 'But if he says to you, "I do not want to leave you," because he loves you and your household and is happy with you,

Deu 15:17 you must take an awl and drive it through his ear into the door and he will be your servant for ever. You must do the same to a female slave.

Deu 15:18 'Do not think it hard on you to have to give him his freedom; he is worth twice what a paid servant would cost you, and has served you for six years. And Yahweh your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deu 15:19 'You must consecrate every first-born male from your herd and flock to Yahweh your God. You must not put the first-born of your herd to work, or shear the first-born of your flock.

Deu 15:20 You must eat it, you and your household, each year, in the presence of Yahweh your God, in the place which Yahweh chooses.

Deu 15:21 If it has any defect, if it is lame or blind -- any serious defect -- you must not sacrifice it to Yahweh your God.

Deu 15:22 You will eat it at home, unclean and clean together, as you would gazelle or deer;

Deu 15:23 only, you will not eat its blood, but pour that like water on the ground.'

Deu 16:1 'Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover for Yahweh your God, because it was in the month of Abib that Yahweh your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deu 16:2 You must sacrifice a Passover from your flock or herd for Yahweh your God in the place where Yahweh chooses to give his name a home.

Deu 16:3 You must not eat leavened bread with this; for seven days you must eat it with unleavened bread -- the bread of affliction -- since you left Egypt in great haste; this is so that, as long as you live, you will remember the day you came out of Egypt.

Deu 16:4 For seven days no leaven must be found in any house throughout your territory, nor must any of the meat that you sacrifice in the evening of the first day be kept overnight until the next day.

Deu 16:5 You must sacrifice the Passover not in any of the towns given you by Yahweh your God,

Deu 16:6 but in the place where Yahweh your God chooses to give his name a home; there you must sacrifice the Passover, in the evening at sunset, at the hour when you came out of Egypt.

Deu 16:7 You will cook it and eat it in the place chosen by Yahweh your God, and in the morning you must return and go to your tents.

Deu 16:8 For six days you will eat unleavened bread; on the seventh day there will be an assembly for Yahweh your God; and you must do no work.

Deu 16:9 'You must count seven weeks, counting these seven weeks from the time you begin to put your sickle into the standing corn.

Deu 16:10 You will then celebrate the feast of Weeks for Yahweh your God with the gift of a voluntary offering proportionate to the degree in which Yahweh your God has blessed you.

Deu 16:11 You must rejoice in the presence of Yahweh your God, in the place where Yahweh your God chooses to give his name a home, you, your son and your daughter, your serving men and women, the Levite living in your community, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow living among you.

Deu 16:12 Remember that you were once a slave in Egypt, and carefully observe these laws.

Deu 16:13 'You must celebrate the feast of Shelters for seven days, at the time when you gather in the produce of your threshing-floor and winepress.

Deu 16:14 You must rejoice at your feast, you, your son and your daughter, your serving men and women, the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow living in your community.

Deu 16:15 For seven days, you must celebrate the feast for Yahweh your God in the place chosen by Yahweh; for Yahweh your God will bless you in all your produce and in all your undertakings, so that you will have good reason to rejoice.

Deu 16:16 'Three times a year all your menfolk must appear before Yahweh your God in the place chosen by him: at the feast of Unleavened Bread, at the feast of Weeks, at the feast of Shelters. No one must appear empty-handed before Yahweh, Deu 16:17 but each must give what he can, in proportion to the blessing which Yahweh your God has bestowed on you.

Deu 16:18 'You must appoint judges and scribes in each of the towns that Yahweh your God is giving you, for all your tribes; these are to mete out proper justice to the people.

Deu 16:19 You must not pervert the law; you must be impartial; you will take no bribes, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and ruins the cause of the upright.

Deu 16:20 Strict justice must be your ideal, so that you may live long in possession of the country given you by Yahweh your God.

Deu 16:21 'You must not plant a sacred pole of any wood whatsoever beside the altar which you erect for Yahweh your God;

Deu 16:22 nor will you set up a standing-stone, a thing Yahweh your God would abhor.'

Deu 17:1 'To Yahweh your God you must sacrifice nothing from herd or flock that has any blemish or defect whatsoever, for Yahweh your God holds this detestable.

Deu 17:2 'If there is anyone, man or woman, among you in any of the towns given you by Yahweh your God, who does what is wrong in the eyes of Yahweh your God by violating his covenant,

Deu 17:3 who goes and serves other gods and worships them, or the sun or the moon or any of heaven's array -- a thing I have forbidden-

Deu 17:4 and this person is denounced to you: if after careful enquiry it is found true and confirmed that this hateful thing has been done in Israel,

Deu 17:5 you must take the man or woman guilty of this evil deed outside your city gates, and there you must stone that man or woman to death.

Deu 17:6 A death sentence may be passed only on the word of two witnesses or three; and no one must be put to death on the word of one witness alone.

Deu 17:7 The witnesses' hands must strike the first blow in putting the condemned to death, the rest of the people following. You must banish this evil from among you.

Deu 17:8 'If a case comes before you which is too difficult for you, a case of murder, conflicting claims, damage to property -- any kind of dispute -- in your towns, you must make your way to the place chosen by Yahweh your God,

Deu 17:9 and approach the levitical priests and the judge then in office. They will hold an enquiry and let you know their sentence.

Deu 17:10 You must abide by the verdict which they give you in this place chosen by Yahweh, and you will take care to carry out all their instructions.

Deu 17:11 You will abide by the decision which they give you and by the sentence which they pronounce, not deviating to right or to left from the verdict which they have given you.

Deu 17:12 If anyone presumes to disobey either the priest who is there in the service of Yahweh your God, or the judge, that person must die. You must banish this evil from Israel.

Deu 17:13 And when the people hear of this they will all be afraid and not act presumptuously any more.

Deu 17:14 'If, having reached the country given by Yahweh your God and having taken possession of it and, while living there, you think, "I should like to appoint a king to rule me -- like all the surrounding nations,"

Deu 17:15 the king whom you appoint to rule you must be chosen by Yahweh your God; the appointment of a king must be made from your own brothers; on no account must you appoint as king some foreigner who is not a brother of yours.

Deu 17:16 'He must not, however, acquire more and more horses, or send the people back to Egypt with a view to increasing his cavalry, since Yahweh has told you, "You must never go back that way again."

Deu 17:17 Nor must he keep on acquiring more and more wives, for that could lead his heart astray. Nor must he acquire vast quantities of silver and gold.

Deu 17:18 Once seated on his royal throne, and for his own use, he must write a copy of this Law on a scroll, at the dictation of the levitical priests.

Deu 17:19 It must never leave him, and he must read it every day of his life and learn to fear Yahweh his God by keeping all the words of this Law and observing these rules,

Deu 17:20 so that he will not think himself superior to his brothers, and not deviate from these commandments either to right or to left. So doing, long will he occupy his throne, he and his sons, in Israel.'

Deu 18:1 'The levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi will be without share or heritage of their own in Israel; they will live on the foods offered to Yahweh and on his heritage.

Deu 18:2 Levi will have no heritage of his own among his brothers; Yahweh will be his heritage, as he has promised him.

Deu 18:3 'This is what is due to the priests from the people, from those who offer an ox or a sheep in sacrifice: the priest must be given the shoulder, the cheeks and the stomach.

Deu 18:4 You must give him the first-fruits of your wheat, of your new wine and of your oil, as well as the first-fruits of your sheep-shearing.

Deu 18:5 For Yahweh your God has chosen him from all your tribes to stand before Yahweh your God, to do the duties of the sacred ministry, and to bless in Yahweh's name -- him and his sons for all time.

Deu 18:6 'If a Levite living in one of your towns anywhere in Israel decides to move to the place chosen by Yahweh,

Deu 18:7 he shall minister there in the name of Yahweh his God like all his fellow Levites who stand ministering there in the presence of Yahweh,

Deu 18:8 eating equal shares with them -- what he has from the sale of his patrimony notwithstanding.

Deu 18:9 'When you have entered the country given you by Yahweh your God, you must not learn to imitate the detestable practices of the nations there already.

Deu 18:10 There must never be anyone among you who makes his son or daughter pass through the fire of sacrifice, who practises divination, who is soothsayer, augur or sorcerer,

Deu 18:11 weaver of spells, consulter of ghosts or mediums, or necromancer.

Deu 18:12 For anyone who does these things is detestable to Yahweh your God; it is because of these detestable practices that Yahweh your God is driving out these nations before you.

Deu 18:13 'You must be faultless in your relationship with Yahweh your God.

Deu 18:14 For these nations whom you are going to dispossess have listened to soothsayers and mediums, but Yahweh your God does not permit you to do this. From among yourselves, from among your own brothers,

Deu 18:15 Yahweh your God will raise up a prophet like me; you will listen to him.

Deu 18:16 This is exactly what you asked Yahweh your God to do -- at Horeb, on the day of the Assembly, when you said, "Never let me hear the voice of Yahweh my God or see this great fire again, or I shall die."

Deu 18:17 Then Yahweh said to me,

Deu 18:18 "What they have said is well said. From their own brothers I shall raise up a prophet like yourself;

Deu 18:19 I shall put my words into his mouth and he will tell them everything I command him. Anyone who refuses to listen to my words, spoken by him in my name, will have to render an account to me.

Deu 18:20 But the prophet who presumes to say something in my name which I have not commanded him to say, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet must die."

Deu 18:21 'You may be privately wondering, "How are we to tell that a prophecy does not come from Yahweh?"

Deu 18:22 When a prophet speaks in the name of Yahweh and the thing does not happen and the word is not fulfilled, then it has not been said by Yahweh. The prophet has spoken presumptuously. You have nothing to fear from him.'

Deu 19:1 'When Yahweh your God has annihilated the nations whose country Yahweh your God is going to give you, and you have dispossessed them and are living in their towns and in their houses,

Deu 19:2 you must set aside three towns, centrally placed in the country which Yahweh your God is giving you for your own.

Deu 19:3 You will keep the approaches to them in good order, dividing the area of the country which Yahweh your God is giving you as your heritage, into three parts, so that any killer can flee to these towns.

Deu 19:4 Here is an example of how someone may save his life by fleeing to them. 'If anyone has struck his fellow accidentally, without any previous feud with him

Deu 19:5 (for example, he goes with his fellow into the forest to cut wood; his arm swings the axe to fell a tree; the head slips off the handle and strikes his companion dead), that man may take refuge in one of these towns and save his life.

Deu 19:6 It must not be allowed that the avenger of blood, in the heat of his anger, should pursue the killer and that the length of the road should help him to overtake and wound him fatally; for the man has not deserved to die, having had no previous feud with his victim.

Deu 19:7 'Hence I am giving you this order: You must set aside three towns,

Deu 19:8 and if Yahweh your God enlarges your territory, as he swore to your ancestors that he would, and gives you the whole country which he promised to give to your ancestors-

Deu 19:9 provided that you keep and observe all the commandments which I am enjoining on you today, loving Yahweh your God and always following his ways-then, to those three towns you will add three more.

Deu 19:10 In this way, innocent blood will not be shed in the country which Yahweh your God is going to give you as your heritage; otherwise you would incur blood-guilt.

Deu 19:11 'But if it happens that a man has a feud with his fellow and lies in wait for him and attacks him and fatally wounds him and he dies, and the man takes refuge in one of these towns,

Deu 19:12 the elders of his own town must send there and have him taken and handed over to the avenger of blood, to be put to death.

Deu 19:13 You must show him no pity. You must banish the shedding of innocent blood from Israel, and then you will prosper.

Deu 19:14 'You must not displace your neighbour's boundary mark, positioned by men of old in the heritage soon to be yours, in the country which Yahweh your God is about to give you.

Deu 19:15 'A single witness will not suffice to convict anyone of a crime or offence of any kind; whatever the misdemeanour, the evidence of two witnesses or three is required to sustain the charge.

Deu 19:16 'If someone gives false evidence against anyone, laying a charge of apostasy,

Deu 19:17 both parties to this dispute before Yahweh must appear before the priests and judges then in office.

Deu 19:18 The judges will make a careful enquiry, and if it turns out that the witness is a liar and has made a false accusation against his brother,

Deu 19:19 you must treat the witness as he would have treated his brother. You must banish this evil from among you.

Deu 19:20 The rest, hearing of this, will be afraid and never again do such an evil thing among you.

Deu 19:21 You must show no pity. 'Life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.'

Deu 20:1 'When you go to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and an army greater than your own, you must not be afraid of them; Yahweh your God is with you, he who brought you out of Egypt.

Deu 20:2 When you are about to join battle, the priest must come forward and address the people.

Deu 20:3 He must say to them, "Listen, Israel: today you are about to join battle with your enemies. Do not be faint hearted. Let there be no fear or trembling or alarm as you face them."

Deu 20:4 Yahweh your God is marching with you, to fight your enemies for you and make you victorious."

Deu 20:5 'The scribes will then address the people, as follows: "Has anyone built a new house and not yet dedicated it? Let him go home, in case he dies in battle and someone else performs the dedication.

Deu 20:6 "Has anyone planted a vineyard and not yet enjoyed its fruit? Let him go home, in case he dies in battle and someone else enjoys its fruit.

Deu 20:7 "Has anyone contracted to marry a girl and not yet married her? Let him go home, in case he dies in battle and someone else marries her."

Deu 20:8 'Finally, the scribes will say to the people: "Is anyone frightened or faint hearted? Let him go home, in case he makes his brothers faint hearted too!"

Deu 20:9 'Then, when the scribes have finished speaking to the people, commanders will be appointed to lead them.

Deu 20:10 'When you advance on a town to attack it, first offer it peace-terms.

Deu 20:11 If it accepts these and opens its gates to you, all the people inside will owe you forced labour and work for you.

Deu 20:12 But if it refuses peace and gives battle, you must besiege it.

Deu 20:13 Yahweh your God having handed it over to you, you will put the whole male population to the sword.

Deu 20:14 But the women, children, livestock and whatever the town contains by way of spoil, you may take for yourselves as booty. You will feed on the spoils of the enemies whom Yahweh your God has handed over to you.

Deu 20:15 'That is how you will treat towns far away and not belonging to the nations near you.

Deu 20:16 But as regards the towns of those peoples whom Yahweh your God is giving you as your heritage, you must not spare the life of any living thing.

Deu 20:17 Instead, you must lay them under the curse of destruction: Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, as Yahweh your God has commanded,

Deu 20:18 so that they may not teach you to do all the detestable things which they do to honour their gods: in doing these, you would sin against Yahweh your God.

Deu 20:19 'If, when attacking a town, you have to besiege it for a long time before you capture it, you must not destroy its trees by taking the axe to them: eat their fruit but do not cut them down. Is the tree in the fields human, that you should besiege it too?

Deu 20:20 Any trees, however, which you know are not fruit trees, you may destroy and cut down and use to build siege-works against the hostile town until it falls.'

Deu 21:1 'If, in the country which Yahweh your God gives you as your possession, a victim of murder is found lying in the open country and it is not known who has killed that person,

Deu 21:2 your elders and scribes must measure the distance between the victim and the surrounding towns,

Deu 21:3 and establish which town is the nearest to the victim. The elders of that town must then take a heifer that has not yet been put to work or used as a draught animal under the yoke.

Deu 21:4 The elders of that town must bring the heifer down to a permanently flowing river, to a spot that has been neither ploughed nor sown, and there by the river they must break the heifer's neck.

Deu 21:5 The priests, the sons of Levi, will then step forward, these being the men whom Yahweh your God has chosen to serve him and to bless in Yahweh's name, and it being their business to settle all cases of dispute or of violence.

Deu 21:6 All the elders of the town nearest to the victim of murder must then wash their hands in the stream, over the slaughtered heifer.

Deu 21:7 They must pronounce these words, "Our hands have not shed this blood and our eyes have seen nothing."

Deu 21:8 O Yahweh, forgive your people Israel whom you have redeemed, and let no innocent blood be shed among your people Israel. May this bloodshed be forgiven them!"

Deu 21:9 You must banish all shedding of innocent blood from among you, if you mean to do what is right in the eyes of Yahweh.

Deu 21:10 'When you go to war against your enemies and Yahweh your God delivers them into your power and you take prisoners,

Deu 21:11 and among the prisoners you see a beautiful woman, and you fall in love with her, and you take her to be your wife

Deu 21:12 and bring her home; she must shave her head and cut her nails,

Deu 21:13 and take off her prisoner's garb; she must stay inside your house and mourn her father and mother for a full month. You may then go to her and be a husband to her, and she will be your wife.

Deu 21:14 Should she cease to please you, you will let her go where she wishes, not selling her for money: you must not make any profit out of her, since you have exploited her.

Deu 21:15 'If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and the loved one and the unloved both bear him children, and if the first-born son is of the unloved wife,

Deu 21:16 when the man comes to bequeath his goods to his sons, he may not treat the son of the wife whom he loves as the first-born, at the expense of the son of the wife whom he does not love, the true first-born.

Deu 21:17 As his first-born he must acknowledge the son of the wife whom he does not love, giving him a double share of his estate; this son being the first-fruit of his vigour, the right of the first-born is his.

Deu 21:18 'If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not listen to the voice either of his father or of his mother and, even when they punish him, still will not pay attention to them,

Deu 21:19 his father and mother must take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his town at the gate of that place.

Deu 21:20 To the elders of his town, they will say, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious and will not listen to us; he is a wastrel and a drunkard."

Deu 21:21 All his fellow-citizens must then stone him to death. You must banish this evil from among you. All Israel, hearing of this, will be afraid.

Deu 21:22 'If a man guilty of a capital offence is to be put to death, and you hang him from a tree,

Deu 21:23 his body must not remain on the tree overnight; you must bury him the same day, since anyone hanged is a curse of God, and you must not bring pollution on the soil which Yahweh your God is giving you as your heritage.'

Deu 22:1 'If you see your brother's ox or one of his sheep straying, you must not disregard it: you must take it back to your brother.

Deu 22:2 And if he is not close at hand or you do not know who he is, you must take it home with you and keep it by you until your brother comes to look for it; you will then return it to him.

Deu 22:3 'You must do the same with his donkey, the same with his cloak, the same with anything that your brother loses and that you find; you must not disregard it.

Deu 22:4 'If you see your brother's donkey or ox fall over on the road, you must not disregard it, but must help your brother get it on its feet again.

Deu 22:5 'A woman must not dress like a man, nor a man like a woman; anyone who does this is detestable to Yahweh your God.

Deu 22:6 'If, when out walking, you come across a bird's nest, in a tree or on the ground, with chicks or eggs and the mother bird sitting on the chicks or the eggs, you must not take the mother as well as the chicks.

Deu 22:7 Let the mother go; the young you may take for yourself. Thus will you have prosperity and long life.

Deu 22:8 'When you build a new house, you must give your roof a parapet; then your house will not incur blood-vengeance, should anyone fall off the top.

Deu 22:9 'You must not sow any other crop in your vineyard, or the whole yield may become forfeit, both the crop you have sown and the yield of your vines.

Deu 22:10 'You must not plough with ox and donkey together.

Deu 22:11 'You must not wear clothing woven part of wool, part of linen.

Deu 22:12 'You must make tassels for the four corners of the cloak in which you wrap yourself.

Deu 22:13 'If a man marries a woman, has sexual intercourse with her and then, turning against her,

Deu 22:14 taxes her with misconduct and publicly defames her by saying, "I married this woman and when I had sexual intercourse with her I did not find evidence of her virginity,"

Deu 22:15 the girl's father and mother must take the evidence of her virginity and produce it before the elders of the town, at the gate.

Deu 22:16 To the elders, the girl's father will say, "I gave this man my daughter for a wife and he has turned against her,

Deu 22:17 and now he taxes her with misconduct, saying, I have found no evidence of virginity in your daughter. Here is the evidence of my daughter's virginity!"

Deu 22:18 They must then display the cloth to the elders of the town.

Deu 22:19 The elders of the town in question will have the man arrested and flogged, and fine him a hundred silver shekels for publicly defaming a virgin of Israel, and give this money to the girl's father. She will remain his wife; as long as he lives, he may not divorce her.

Deu 22:20 'But if the accusation that the girl cannot show evidence of virginity is substantiated,

Deu 22:21 she must be taken out, and at the door of her father's house her fellow-citizens must stone her to death for having committed an infamy in Israel by bringing disgrace on her father's family. You must banish this evil from among you.

Deu 22:22 'If a man is caught having sexual intercourse with another man's wife, both must be put to death: the man who has slept with her and the woman herself. You must banish this evil from Israel.

Deu 22:23 'If a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man encounters her in the town and has sexual intercourse with her,

Deu 22:24 you will take them both to the gate of the town in question and stone them to death: the girl, for not having called for help in the town; the man, for having exploited his fellow-citizen's wife. You must banish this evil from among you.

Deu 22:25 But if the man ran into the betrothed girl in the open country and slept with her, having taken her by force, her ravisher alone must die;

Deu 22:26 you must do nothing to the girl, she has not committed a capital offence. The case is like that of a man who attacks and kills his fellow:

Deu 22:27 since he came across her in the open country, the betrothed girl may have called out, without anyone's coming to her rescue.

Deu 22:28 'If a man meets a young virgin who is not betrothed and seizes her, sleeps with her and is caught in the act,

Deu 22:29 her ravisher must give the girl's father fifty silver shekels; since he has exploited her, she must be his wife and, as long as he lives, he may not divorce her.'

Deu 23:1 'A man must not take his father's wife; he must not withdraw the skirt of his father's cloak from her.

Deu 23:2 'A man whose testicles have been crushed or whose male member has been cut off must not be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh.

Deu 23:3 No half-breed may be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh; not even his descendants to the tenth generation may be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh.

Deu 23:4 No Ammonite or Moabite may be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh; not even his descendants to the tenth generation may be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh, and this is for all time;

Deu 23:5 since they did not come to meet you with food and drink when you were on your way out of Egypt, and even hired Balaam son of Beor to oppose you by cursing you, from Pethor in Aram Naharaim.

Deu 23:6 But Yahweh your God refused to listen to Balaam, and Yahweh your God turned the curse on you into a blessing, because Yahweh your God loved you.

Deu 23:7 Never, as long as you live, must you seek their welfare or their prosperity.

Deu 23:8 'You must not regard the Edomite as detestable, for he is your brother; you must not regard the Egyptian as detestable, since you were once a foreigner in his country.

Deu 23:9 The third generation of children born to these may be admitted to the assembly of Yahweh.

Deu 23:10 'When you are in camp, at war with your enemies, you must avoid anything bad.

Deu 23:11 If any one of you is unclean by reason of a nocturnal emission, he must leave and not come back into camp,

Deu 23:12 but towards evening wash himself, and return to camp at sunset.

Deu 23:13 'You must have a latrine outside the camp, and go out to this;

Deu 23:14 you must have a trowel in your equipment and, when you squat outside, you must scrape a hole with it, then turn round and cover up your excrement.

Deu 23:15 For Yahweh your God goes about the inside of your camp to guard you and put your enemies at your mercy. Your camp must therefore be a holy place; Yahweh must not see anything indecent there or he will desert you.

Deu 23:16 'You must not allow a master to imprison a slave who has escaped from him and come to you.

Deu 23:17 Let him make his home with you and yours, wherever he pleases in whichever of your towns he prefers; you must not molest him.

Deu 23:18 'There must be no sacred prostitute among the women of Israel, and no sacred prostitute among the men of Israel.

Deu 23:19 You must not bring the wages of a prostitute or the earnings of a 'dog' to the house of Yahweh your God, whatever vow you may have made: both are detestable to Yahweh your God.

Deu 23:20 'You must not lend on interest to your brother, whether the loan be of money, of food, or of anything else that may earn interest.

Deu 23:21 You may demand interest on a loan to a foreigner, but you must not demand interest from your brother; so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all your labours, in the country which you are about to enter and make your own.

Deu 23:22 'If you make a vow to Yahweh your God, you must not be slack about fulfilling it: Yahweh your God will certainly hold you answerable for it and you will incur guilt.'

Deu 23:23 If, however, you make no vow, you do not incur guilt.

Deu 23:24 Whatever passes your lips you must keep to, and the vow that you have made to Yahweh, your generous God, you must fulfil.

Deu 23:25 'If you go into your neighbour's vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you please, but you must not put any in your basket.'

Deu 23:26 If you go into your neighbour's standing corn, you may pick ears by hand, but you must not put a sickle into your neighbour's corn.'

Deu 24:1 'Suppose a man has taken a wife and consummated the marriage; but she has not pleased him and he has found some impropriety of which to accuse her; he has therefore made out a writ of divorce for her and handed it to her and then dismissed her from his house;

Deu 24:2 she leaves his home and goes away to become the wife of another man.

Deu 24:3 Then suppose this second man who has married her takes a dislike to her and makes out a writ of divorce for her and hands it to her and dismisses her from his house or if this other man who took her as his wife dies,

Deu 24:4 her first husband, who has repudiated her, may not take her back as his wife now that she has been made unclean in this way. For that is detestable in Yahweh's eyes and you must not bring guilt on the country which Yahweh your God is giving you as your heritage.

Deu 24:5 'If a man is newly married, he must not join the army, nor must he be pestered at home; he must be left at home, free of all obligations for one year, to make his new wife happy.'

Deu 24:6 'No one may take a mill or a millstone in pledge; that would be to take life itself in pledge.'

Deu 24:7 'If anyone is caught, having kidnapped one of his brother-Israelites, whether he makes him his slave or sells him, that thief must die. You must banish this evil from among you.'

Deu 24:8 'In a case of a virulent skin-disease, take care you faithfully observe and exactly carry out everything that the levitical priests direct you to do. You must keep and observe everything that I have commanded them.'

Deu 24:9 Remember what Yahweh your God did to Miriam when you were on your way out of Egypt.

Deu 24:10 'If you are making your brother a loan on pledge, you must not go into his house and seize the pledge, whatever it may be.'

Deu 24:11 You must stay outside, and the man to whom you are making the loan must bring the pledge out to you.

Deu 24:12 And if the man is poor, you must not go to bed with his pledge in your possession;

Deu 24:13 you must return it to him at sunset so that he can sleep in his cloak and bless you; and it will be an upright action on your part in God's view.

Deu 24:14 'You must not exploit a poor and needy wage-earner, be he one of your brothers or a foreigner resident in your community.'

Deu 24:15 You must pay him his wages each day, not allowing the sun to set before you do, since he, being poor, needs them badly; otherwise he may appeal to Yahweh against you, and you would incur guilt.'

Deu 24:16 'Parents may not be put to death for their children, nor children for parents, but each must be put to death for his own crime.'

Deu 24:17 'You must not infringe the rights of the foreigner or the orphan; you must not take a widow's clothes in pledge.'

Deu 24:18 Remember that you were once a slave in Egypt and that Yahweh your God redeemed you from that. That is why I am giving you this order.'

Deu 24:19 'If, when reaping the harvest in your field, you overlook a sheaf in that field, do not go back for it. The foreigner, the orphan and the widow shall have it, so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all your undertakings.'

Deu 24:20 'When you beat your olive tree, you must not go over the branches twice. The foreigner, the orphan and the widow shall have the rest.'

Deu 24:21 'When you harvest your vineyard, you must not pick it over a second time. The foreigner, the orphan and the widow shall have the rest.'

Deu 24:22 'Remember that you were once a slave in Egypt. That is why I am giving you this order.'

Deu 25:1 'If people fall out, they must go to court for judgement; the judges must declare the one who is right to be in the right, the one who is wrong to be in the wrong.'

Deu 25:2 If the one who is in the wrong deserves a flogging, the judge must have him laid on the ground and flogged in his presence, the number of strokes proportionate to his offence.'

Deu 25:3 He may impose forty strokes but no more; otherwise, by the infliction of more, serious injury may be caused and your brother be humiliated before you.'

Deu 25:4 'You must not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the corn.

Deu 25:5 'If brothers live together and one of them dies childless, the dead man's wife may not marry a stranger outside the family. Her husband's brother must come to her and, exercising his duty as brother, make her his wife,

Deu 25:6 and the first son she bears must assume the dead brother's name; by this means his name will not be obliterated from Israel.

Deu 25:7 But if the man declines to take his brother's wife, she must go to the elders at the gate and say, "I have no brother-in-law willing to perpetuate his brother's name in Israel; he declines to exercise his duty as brother in my favour."

Deu 25:8 The elders of the town must summon the man and talk to him. If, on appearing before them, he says, "I refuse to take her,"

Deu 25:9 then the woman to whom he owes duty as brother must go up to him in the presence of the elders, take the sandal off his foot, spit in his face, and pronounce the following words, "This is what is done to the man who refuses to restore his brother's house,"

Deu 25:10 and his family must henceforth be known in Israel as House of the Unshod.

Deu 25:11 'If, when two men are fighting, the wife of one intervenes to protect her husband from the other's blows by reaching out and seizing the other by his private parts,

Deu 25:12 you must cut off her hand and show no pity.

Deu 25:13 'You must not keep two different weights in your bag, one heavy, one light.

Deu 25:14 You must not keep two different measures in your house, one large, one small.

Deu 25:15 You must keep one weight, full and accurate, so that you may have long life in the country given you by Yahweh your God.

Deu 25:16 For anyone who does things of this kind and acts dishonestly is detestable to Yahweh your God.

Deu 25:17 'Remember how Amalek treated you when you were on your way out of Egypt.

Deu 25:18 He met you on your way and, after you had gone by, he fell on you from the rear and cut off the stragglers; when you were faint and weary, he had no fear of God.

Deu 25:19 When Yahweh your God has granted you peace from all the enemies surrounding you, in the country given you by Yahweh your God to own as your heritage, you must blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven. Do not forget.'

Deu 26:1 'When you have entered the country which Yahweh your God is giving you as heritage, when you have taken possession of it and are living in it,

Deu 26:2 you must set aside the first-fruits of all the produce of the soil raised by you in your country, given you by Yahweh your God. You must put these in a basket and go to the place where Yahweh your God chooses to give his name a home.

Deu 26:3 You will go to the priest then in office and say to him, "Today I declare to Yahweh my God that I have reached the country which Yahweh swore to our ancestors that he would give us."

Deu 26:4 'The priest will then take the basket from your hand and lay it before the altar of Yahweh your God.

Deu 26:5 In the presence of Yahweh your God, you will then pronounce these words: "My father was a wandering Aramaean, who went down to Egypt with a small group of men, and stayed there, until he there became a great, powerful and numerous nation.

Deu 26:6 The Egyptians ill-treated us, they oppressed us and inflicted harsh slavery on us.

Deu 26:7 But we called on Yahweh, God of our ancestors. Yahweh heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression;

Deu 26:8 and Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders.

Deu 26:9 He brought us here and has given us this country, a country flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 26:10 Hence, I now bring the first-fruits of the soil that you, Yahweh, have given me." You will then lay them before Yahweh your God, and prostrate yourself in the presence of Yahweh your God.

Deu 26:11 You must then rejoice in all the good things that Yahweh your God has bestowed on you and your family-you, the Levite and the foreigner living with you.

Deu 26:12 'In the third year, the tithe year, when you have finished taking the tithe of your whole income and have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow so that, in your towns, they may eat to their heart's content,

Deu 26:13 in the presence of Yahweh your God, you must say: "I have cleared my house of what was consecrated. Yes, I have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, in accordance with all the commandments you have imposed on me, neither going beyond your commandments nor neglecting them.

Deu 26:14 When in mourning, I have not eaten any of it; when unclean, I have taken none of it away; I have given none of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of Yahweh my God and I have behaved in every way as you have commanded me.

Deu 26:15 Look down from your holy dwelling, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the country which you have given us, as you swore to our ancestors, a country flowing with milk and honey." '

Deu 26:16 'Yahweh your God commands you today to observe these laws and customs; you must keep and observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 26:17 'Today you have obtained this declaration from Yahweh: that he will be your God, but only if you follow his ways, keep his statutes, his commandments, his customs, and listen to his voice.

Deu 26:18 And today Yahweh has obtained this declaration from you: that you will be his own people -- as he has said -- but only if you keep all his commandments;

Deu 26:19 then for praise and renown and honour, he will raise you higher than every other nation he has made, and you will be a people consecrated to Yahweh, as he has promised.'

Deu 27:1 Moses and the elders of Israel gave the people this command: 'Keep all the commandments which I am laying down for you today.

Deu 27:2 After you have crossed the Jordan into the country which Yahweh your God is giving you, you must set up tall stones, coat them with lime

Deu 27:3 and on them write all the words of this Law, when you have crossed and entered the country which Yahweh your God is giving you, a country flowing with milk and honey, as Yahweh, God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Deu 27:4 'When you have crossed the Jordan, you must erect these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with lime.

Deu 27:5 There, for Yahweh your God, you must build an altar of stones, on which no iron has been used.

Deu 27:6 You must build the altar of Yahweh your God of rough stones, and on this altar you will present burnt offerings to Yahweh your God,

Deu 27:7 and immolate communion sacrifices and eat them there, rejoicing in the presence of Yahweh your God.

Deu 27:8 On these stones you must write all the words of this Law; cut them carefully.'

Deu 27:9 Moses and the levitical priests then said to all Israel: 'Be silent, Israel, and listen. Today you have become a people for Yahweh your God.

Deu 27:10 You must listen to the voice of Yahweh your God and observe the commandments and laws which I am laying down for you today.'

Deu 27:11 That day Moses gave the people this order:

Deu 27:12 'When you have crossed the Jordan, the following will stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon and Levi, Judah and Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin.

Deu 27:13 And the following will stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad and Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

Deu 27:14 The Levites will then speak, proclaiming loudly to all the Israelites:

Deu 27:15 "Accursed be anyone who makes a carved or cast idol, a thing detestable to Yahweh, a workman's artefact, and sets it up in secret." And the people are all to respond by saying, Amen.

Deu 27:16 "Accursed be anyone who treats father or mother dishonourably." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:17 "Accursed be anyone who displaces a neighbour's boundary mark." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:18 "Accursed be anyone who leads the blind astray on the road." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:19 "Accursed be anyone who violates the rights of the foreigner, the orphan and the widow." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:20 "Accursed be anyone who has sexual intercourse with his father's wife and withdraws the skirt of his father's cloak from her." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:21 "Accursed be anyone who has sexual intercourse with any kind of animal." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:22 "Accursed be anyone who has sexual intercourse with his sister, the daughter of his father or of his mother." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:23 "Accursed be anyone who has sexual intercourse with his mother-in-law." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:24 "Accursed be anyone who secretly strikes down his neighbour." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:25 "Accursed be anyone who accepts a bribe to take an innocent life." And the people must all say, Amen.

Deu 27:26 "Accursed be anyone who does not make the words of this Law effective by putting them into practice." And the people must all say, Amen.'

Deu 28:1 'But if you faithfully obey the voice of Yahweh your God, by keeping and observing all his commandments, which I am laying down for you today, Yahweh your God will raise you higher than every other nation in the world,

Deu 28:2 and all these blessings will befall and overtake you, for having obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God.

Deu 28:3 'You will be blessed in the town and blessed in the countryside;

Deu 28:4 blessed, the offspring of your body, the yield of your soil, the yield of your livestock, the young of your cattle and the increase of your flocks;

Deu 28:5 blessed, your basket and your kneading trough.

Deu 28:6 You will be blessed in coming home, and blessed in going out.

Deu 28:7 The enemies who attack you, Yahweh will defeat before your eyes; they will advance on you from one direction and flee from you in seven.

Deu 28:8 Yahweh will command blessedness to be with you, on your barns and on all your undertakings, and he will bless you in the country given you by Yahweh your God.

Deu 28:9 'From you Yahweh will make a people consecrated to himself, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of Yahweh your God and follow his ways.

Deu 28:10 The peoples of the world, seeing that you bear Yahweh's name, will all be afraid of you.

Deu 28:11 Yahweh will make you abound in possessions: in the offspring of your body, in the yield of your cattle and in the yield of your soil, in the country which he swore to your ancestors that he would give you.

Deu 28:12 For you Yahweh will open his treasury of rain, the heavens, to give your country its rain at the right time, and to bless all your labours. You will make many nations your subjects, yet you will be subject to none.

Deu 28:13 Yahweh will put you at the head, not at the tail; you will always be on top and never underneath, if you listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I am laying down for you today, and then keep them and put them into practice,

Deu 28:14 not deviating to right or to left from any of the words which I am laying down for you today, by following other gods and serving them.

Deu 28:15 'But if you do not obey the voice of Yahweh your God, and do not keep and observe all his commandments and laws which I am laying down for you today then all these curses will befall and overtake you.

Deu 28:16 'You will be accursed in the town and accursed in the countryside;

Deu 28:17 accursed, your basket and your kneading trough;

Deu 28:18 accursed, the offspring of your body, the yield of your soil, the young of your cattle and the increase of your flock.

Deu 28:19 You will be accursed in coming home, and accursed in going out.

Deu 28:20 'Yahweh will send a curse on you, a spell, an imprecation on all your labours until you have been destroyed and quickly perish, because of your perverse behaviour, for having deserted me.

Deu 28:21 Yahweh will fasten the plague on you, until it has exterminated you from the country which you are about to enter and make your own.

Deu 28:22 Yahweh will strike you down with consumption, fever, inflammation, burning fever, drought, wind-blast, mildew, and these will pursue you to your ruin.

Deu 28:23 The heavens above you will be brass, the earth beneath you iron.

Deu 28:24 Your country's rain Yahweh will turn into dust and sand; it will fall on you from the heavens until you perish.

Deu 28:25 Yahweh will have you defeated by your enemies; you will advance on them from one direction and flee from them in seven; and you will be a terrifying object-lesson to all the kingdoms of the world.

Deu 28:26 Your carcase will be carrion for all wild birds and all wild animals, with no one to scare them away.

Deu 28:27 'Yahweh will strike you down with Egyptian ulcers, with swellings in the groin, with scurvy and the itch, for which you will find no cure.

Deu 28:28 Yahweh will strike you down with madness, blindness, distraction of mind,

Deu 28:29 until you grope your way at noon like a blind man groping in the dark, and your steps will lead you nowhere. 'You will never be anything but exploited and plundered, with no one to save you.

Deu 28:30 Get engaged to a woman, another man will have her; build a house, you will not live in it; plant a vineyard, you will not gather its first-fruits.

Deu 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes and you will eat none of it; your donkey will be carried off in front of you and not be returned to you; your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will come to your help.

Deu 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be handed over to another people, and every day you will wear your eyes out watching for them, while your hands are powerless.

Deu 28:33 A nation hitherto unknown to you will eat the yield of your soil and of all your hard work. You will never be anything but exploited and crushed.

Deu 28:34 You will be driven mad by the sights you will see.

Deu 28:35 Yahweh will strike you down with foul ulcers on knee and leg, for which you will find no cure -- from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

Deu 28:36 'Yahweh will send away both you and the king whom you have appointed to rule you to a nation unknown either to you or to your ancestors, and there you will serve other gods, made of wood and stone.
Deu 28:37 And you will be the astonishment, the byword, the laughing-stock of all the peoples where Yahweh is taking you.

Deu 28:38 'You will cast seed in plenty on the fields but harvest little, since the locust will devour it.

Deu 28:39 You will plant and till your vineyards but not drink the wine or gather the grapes, since the grub will eat them up.

Deu 28:40 You will grow olive trees throughout your territory but not anoint yourself with the oil, since your olive trees will be cut down.

Deu 28:41 You will father sons and daughters but they will not belong to you, since they will go into captivity.

Deu 28:42 All your trees and the whole yield of your soil will be the prey of insects.

Deu 28:43 'The foreigners living with you will rise higher and higher at your expense, while you yourself sink lower and lower.

Deu 28:44 You will be subject to them, not they to you; they will be the ones at the head, and you the one at the tail.

Deu 28:45 'All these curses will befall you, pursue you and overtake you until you have been destroyed, for not having obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God by keeping his commandments and laws which he has laid down for you.

Deu 28:46 They will be a sign and a wonder over you and your descendants for ever.

Deu 28:47 'For not having joyfully and with happy heart served Yahweh your God, despite the abundance of everything,

Deu 28:48 you will have to serve the enemy whom Yahweh will send against you, in hunger, thirst, lack of clothing and total privation. He will put an iron yoke on your neck, until he has destroyed you.

Deu 28:49 'Against you Yahweh will raise a distant nation from the ends of the earth like an eagle taking wing: a nation whose language you do not understand,

Deu 28:50 a nation grim of face, with neither respect for the old, nor pity for the young.

Deu 28:51 He will eat the yield of your cattle and the yield of your soil until you have been destroyed; he will leave you neither wheat, nor wine, nor oil, nor the young of your cattle, nor increase of your flock, until he has made an end of you.

Deu 28:52 He will besiege you inside all your towns until your loftiest and most strongly fortified walls collapse, on which, throughout your country, you have relied. He will besiege you inside all the towns throughout your country, given you by Yahweh your God.

Deu 28:53 During the siege and in the distress to which your enemy will reduce you, you will eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of the sons and daughters given you by Yahweh your God.

Deu 28:54 The gentlest and tenderest of your men will scowl at his brother, and at the wife whom he embraces, and at his remaining children,

Deu 28:55 not willing to give any of them any of his own children's flesh, which he is eating; because of the siege and the distress to which your enemy will reduce you in all your towns, he will have nothing left.

Deu 28:56 The most refined and fastidious of your women, so refined, so fastidious that she has never ventured to set the sole of her foot to the ground, will scowl at the husband whom she embraces, and at her son and daughter, and at the after-birth when it leaves her womb, and at the child to which she has given birth-

Deu 28:57 she will hide away and eat them, so complete will be the starvation resulting from the siege and the distress to which your enemy will reduce you in all your towns.

Deu 28:58 'If you do not keep and observe all the words of this Law, which are written in this book, in the fear of this glorious and awe-inspiring name: Yahweh your God,

Deu 28:59 Yahweh will strike you down with monstrous plagues, you and your descendants: with plagues grievous and lasting, diseases pernicious and enduring.

Deu 28:60 He will afflict you with all the maladies of Egypt which you used to dread, and they will fasten on you.

Deu 28:61 What is more, Yahweh will afflict you with all the plagues and all the diseases not mentioned in the book of this Law, until you have been destroyed.

Deu 28:62 There will only be a small group of you left, you who were once as numerous as the stars of heaven. 'For not having obeyed the voice of Yahweh your God,

Deu 28:63 just as Yahweh used to delight in making you happy and in making your numbers grow, so will he take delight in ruining you and destroying you. You will be torn from the country which you are about to enter and make your own.

Deu 28:64 Yahweh will scatter you throughout every people, from one end of the earth to the other; there you will serve other gods made of wood and stone, hitherto unknown either to you or to your ancestors.

Deu 28:65 Among these nations there will be no repose for you, no rest for the sole of your foot; there Yahweh will give you a quaking heart, weary eyes, halting breath.

Deu 28:66 Your life ahead of you will hang in doubt; you will be afraid day and night, uncertain of your life.

Deu 28:67 In the morning you will say, "How I wish it were evening!", and in the evening you will say, "How I wish it were morning!", such terror will grip your heart and such sights you will see!

Deu 28:68 Yahweh will send you back to Egypt, either by ship or by a road which I promised you would never see again. And there you will want to offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as serving men and women, but no one will buy you.'

Deu 28:69 These are the words of the covenant which Yahweh ordered Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the covenant which he had made with them at Horeb.

Deu 29:1 Moses called all Israel together and said to them: 'You have seen everything that Yahweh did before your eyes in Egypt, to Pharaoh, to his servants and to his whole country-

Deu 29:2 the great ordeals which you yourselves witnessed, those signs and the great wonders.

Deu 29:3 But until today Yahweh has not given you a heart to understand, eyes to see, or ears to hear.

Deu 29:4 'I have been leading you for forty years in the desert, yet the clothes which you have been wearing have not worn out, nor have the sandals on your feet.

Deu 29:5 You have had no bread to eat, you have had no wine or fermented liquor to drink, so that you would learn that I, Yahweh, am your God.

Deu 29:6 'When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to do battle against us; we defeated them.

Deu 29:7 We conquered their country and gave it as heritage to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Deu 29:8 'Keep the words of this covenant, put them into practice, and you will thrive in everything you do.

Deu 29:9 'All of you are standing here today in the presence of Yahweh your God: your tribal leaders, your elders, your scribes, all the men of Israel,

Deu 29:10 with your children and your wives (and the foreigner too who is in your camp, be he your wood-cutter or your water-carrier),

Deu 29:11 and you are about to pass into the covenant of Yahweh your God, sworn with imprecation, which he has made with you today,

Deu 29:12 and by which, today, he makes you a nation for himself and he himself becomes a God to you, as he has promised you, and as he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deu 29:13 Not only on your behalf am I today making this covenant and pronouncing this solemn curse,

Deu 29:14 not only on behalf of those standing here with us in the presence of Yahweh our God today, but also on behalf of those not here with us today.

Deu 29:15 'Yes, you know the people with whom we used to live in Egypt, and those through whose countries we have travelled -- the nations through whom we have passed.

Deu 29:16 You have seen their abominations and their idols made of wood and stone, silver and gold, which were there.

Deu 29:17 'Let there be no man or woman of you, no clan or tribe, whose heart turns away from Yahweh your God today, to go and serve the gods of these nations. Among you let there be no root which bears poison or wormwood.

Deu 29:18 If, after hearing this imprecation, anyone, blessing himself, should say in his heart, "I shall do well enough if I follow the dictates of my heart; much water drives away thirst,"

Deu 29:19 Yahweh will not pardon him. The wrath and jealousy of Yahweh will blaze against such a person; every curse written in this book will fall on him, and Yahweh will blot his name out under heaven.

Deu 29:20 Yahweh will single him out of all the tribes of Israel for misfortune, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in the book of this Law.

Deu 29:21 'The future generation, that of your children coming after you, and the foreigner arriving from some far-away land, on seeing the plagues and diseases inflicted on this country by Yahweh, will exclaim,

Deu 29:22 "Sulphur! Salt!-The whole country is burning! No one will sow, nothing grow, no vegetation spring ever again! Devastation like that of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, devastated by Yahweh in his furious wrath!"

Deu 29:23 And all the nations will exclaim, "Why has Yahweh treated this country like this? Why this great blaze of anger?"

Deu 29:24 'And people will say, "Because they deserted the covenant of Yahweh, God of their ancestors, the covenant which he made with them when he brought them out of Egypt;

Deu 29:25 because they went and served other gods and worshipped them, gods hitherto unknown to them, gods that were no part of their heritage from him:

Deu 29:26 this is why Yahweh's anger has blazed against this country, afflicting it with all the curses written in this book.

Deu 29:27 In anger, in fury, in fierce wrath, Yahweh has torn them from their own country and flung them into another country, where they are today."

Deu 29:28 Things hidden belong to Yahweh our God, but things revealed are ours and our children's for ever, so that we can put all the words of this Law into practice.'

Deu 30:1 'And when all these words have come true for you -- the blessing and the curse, which I have offered you -- if you meditate on them in your heart wherever among the nations Yahweh your God has driven you,

Deu 30:2 if you return to Yahweh your God, if with all your heart and with all your soul you obey his voice, you and your children, in everything that I am laying down for you today,

Deu 30:3 then Yahweh your God will bring back your captives, he will have pity on you and gather you back from all the peoples among whom Yahweh your God has scattered you.

Deu 30:4 Should you have been banished to the very sky's end, Yahweh your God will gather you again even from there, will come there to reclaim you

Deu 30:5 and bring you back to the country which belonged to your ancestors, so that you may possess it in your turn, and be made prosperous there and more numerous than your ancestors.

Deu 30:6 'Yahweh your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so that you will love Yahweh your God with all your heart and soul, and so will live.

Deu 30:7 Yahweh your God will make all these curses recoil on your foes and on your enemies who have persecuted you.

Deu 30:8 And once again you will obey the voice of Yahweh your God and you will put all his commandments into practice, which I am laying down for you today.

Deu 30:9 Yahweh your God will make you prosper in all your labours, in the offspring of your body, in the yield of your cattle and in the yield of your soil. For once again Yahweh will delight in your prosperity as he used to take delight in the prosperity of your ancestors,

Deu 30:10 if you obey the voice of Yahweh your God, by keeping his commandments and decrees written in the book of this Law, and if you return to Yahweh your God with all your heart and soul.

Deu 30:11 'For this Law which I am laying down for you today is neither obscure for you nor beyond your reach.

Deu 30:12 It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we can hear and practise it?"

Deu 30:13 Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we can hear and practise it?"

Deu 30:14 No, the word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to put into practice.

Deu 30:15 'Look, today I am offering you life and prosperity, death and disaster.

Deu 30:16 If you obey the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I am laying down for you today, if you love Yahweh your God and follow his ways, if you keep his commandments, his laws and his customs, you will live and grow numerous, and Yahweh your God will bless you in the country which you are about to enter and make your own.

Deu 30:17 But if your heart turns away, if you refuse to listen, if you let yourself be drawn into worshipping other gods and serving them,

Deu 30:18 I tell you today, you will most certainly perish; you will not live for long in the country which you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deu 30:19 Today, I call heaven and earth to witness against you: I am offering you life or death, blessing or curse. Choose life, then, so that you and your descendants may live,

Deu 30:20 in the love of Yahweh your God, obeying his voice, holding fast to him; for in this your life consists, and on this depends the length of time that you stay in the country which Yahweh swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that he would give them.'

Deu 31:1 Moses went and spoke to all Israel as follows,

Deu 31:2 'Today, I am one hundred and twenty years old, and can no longer act as leader. Yahweh has told me, "You shall not cross this Jordan."

Deu 31:3 Yahweh your God himself will lead you across, he himself will destroy and dispossess these nations confronting you; Joshua too will lead you across, as Yahweh has said.

Deu 31:4 Yahweh will treat them as he has treated Sihon and Og the Amorite kings and their country -- he destroyed them.

Deu 31:5 Yahweh will put them at your mercy, and you will deal with them exactly as prescribed by the commandments which I have laid down for you.

Deu 31:6 Be strong, stand firm, have no fear, do not be afraid of them, for Yahweh your God is going with you; he will not fail you or desert you.'

Deu 31:7 Moses then summoned Joshua and, in the presence of all Israel, said to him, 'Be strong, stand firm; you will be the one to go with this people into the country which Yahweh has sworn to their ancestors that he would give them; you are to be the one who puts them into possession of it.

Deu 31:8 Yahweh himself will lead you; he will be with you; he will not fail you or desert you. Have no fear, do not be alarmed.'

Deu 31:9 Moses committed this Law to writing and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of Yahweh's covenant, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deu 31:10 And Moses gave them this command, 'At the end of every seven years, at the time fixed for the year of remission, at the feast of Shelters,

Deu 31:11 when all Israel assembles in the presence of Yahweh your God in the place chosen by him, you must proclaim this Law in the hearing of all Israel.

Deu 31:12 Call the people together, men, women, children, and the foreigner residing with you, so that, hearing it, they may learn to fear Yahweh your God and keep and observe all the words of this Law.

Deu 31:13 Their children, who as yet do not know it, will hear it and learn to fear Yahweh your God, all the time you live in the country which you are crossing the Jordan to possess.'

Deu 31:14 Yahweh said to Moses, 'And now the time is near when you must die. Summon Joshua and take your places at the Tent of Meeting, so that I can give him his orders.' Moses and Joshua went and took their places at the Tent of Meeting,

Deu 31:15 and Yahweh showed himself at the Tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood at the door of the Tent.

Deu 31:16 Yahweh said to Moses, 'You will soon be sleeping with your ancestors, and this people is about to play the harlot by following the gods of the foreigners of the country, among whom they are going to live. They will desert me and break my covenant, which I have made with them.'

Deu 31:17 That very day, my anger will blaze against them; I shall desert them and hide my face from them. A host of disasters and misfortunes will overtake them to devour them, and when that day comes they will say, "If such disasters overtake me, surely Yahweh my God cannot be with me?"

Deu 31:18 Yes indeed, I shall hide my face that day, on account of all the evil which they will have done by turning to other gods.

Deu 31:19 'Now write down this song for you to use; teach it to the Israelites, put it into their mouths, for it to be a witness on my behalf against the Israelites:

Deu 31:20 against Israel, whom I am bringing into the country which I swore to his ancestors that I would give him, a country flowing with milk and honey: against Israel, who will eat to his heart's content and grow fat, and will then turn to other gods and serve them, despising me and breaking my covenant.

Deu 31:21 When a host of disasters and misfortunes overtakes him, this song, like a witness, will give evidence against him, since his descendants will not have forgotten it. Yes, even today, before I have brought him to the country which I have promised him on oath, I know what plans he has in mind.'

Deu 31:22 So, that day, Moses wrote out this song and taught it to the Israelites.

Deu 31:23 To Joshua son of Nun, Yahweh gave this order, 'Be strong and stand firm, for you are to be the one to bring the Israelites into the country which I have promised them on oath, and I myself shall be with you.'

Deu 31:24 When Moses had completely finished writing the words of this Law in a book,

Deu 31:25 he gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of Yahweh's covenant:

Deu 31:26 'Take the book of this Law and put it beside the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God. Let it lie there as evidence against you.'

Deu 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If today, while I am still alive and with you, you rebel against Yahweh, how much more will you rebel against him after my death!

Deu 31:28 'Gather all your tribal elders and scribes round me, so that I may be sure that they hear these words, as I call heaven and earth to witness against them.'

Deu 31:29 For I know that after my death you are certain to grow corrupt; you will leave the way which I have marked out for you; in the final days disaster will befall you for having done what is evil in Yahweh's eyes, for having provoked his anger by your behaviour.'

Deu 31:30 In the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel, Moses then recited the words of this song to the end:

Deu 32:1 Listen, heavens, while I speak; hear, earth, the words that I shall say!

Deu 32:2 May my teaching fall like the rain, may my word drop down like the dew, like showers on the grass, like light rain on the turf!

Deu 32:3 For I shall proclaim the name of Yahweh. Oh, tell the greatness of our God!

Deu 32:4 He is the Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are equitable. A trustworthy God who does no wrong, he is the Honest, the Upright One!

Deu 32:5 They have acted perversely, those he fathered without blemish, a deceitful and underhand brood.

Deu 32:6 Is this the return you make to Yahweh? O people brainless and unwise! Is this not your father, who gave you being, who made you, by whom you subsist?

Deu 32:7 Think back on the days of old, think over the years, down the ages. Question your father, let him explain to you, your elders, and let them tell you!

Deu 32:8 When the Most High gave the nations each their heritage, when he partitioned out the human race, he assigned the boundaries of nations according to the number of the children of God,

Deu 32:9 but Yahweh's portion was his people, Jacob was to be the measure of his inheritance.
Deu 32:10 In the desert he finds him, in the howling expanses of the wastelands. He protects him, rears him, guards him as the pupil of his eye.
Deu 32:11 Like an eagle watching its nest, hovering over its young, he spreads out his wings to hold him, he supports him on his pinions.
Deu 32:12 Yahweh alone is his guide; no alien god for him!
Deu 32:13 He gives him the heights of the land to ride, he feeds him on the yield of the mountains, he gives him honey from the rock to taste, and oil from the flinty crag;
Deu 32:14 curds from the cattle, milk from the flock, and the richness of the pasture, rams of Bashan's breed, and goats, the richness of the wheat kernel; the fermented blood of the grape for drink.
Deu 32:15 Jacob has eaten to his heart's content, Jeshurun, grown fat, has now lashed out. (You have grown fat, gross, bloated.) He has disowned the God who made him, and dishonoured the Rock, his salvation,
Deu 32:16 whose jealousy they aroused with foreigners -- with things detestable they angered him.
Deu 32:17 They sacrificed to demons who are not God, to gods hitherto unknown to them, to newcomers of yesterday whom their ancestors had never respected.
Deu 32:18 (You forget the Rock who fathered you, the God who made you, you no longer remember.)
Deu 32:19 Yahweh saw it and, in anger, he spurned his sons and daughters.
Deu 32:20 'I shall hide my face from them,' he said, 'and see what will become of them. For they are a deceitful brood, children with no loyalty in them.
Deu 32:21 They have roused me to jealousy with a non-god, they have exasperated me with their idols. In my turn I shall rouse them to jealousy with a non-people, I shall exasperate them with a stupid nation.
Deu 32:22 Yes, a fire has blazed from my anger, it will burn right down to the depths of Sheol; it will devour the earth and all its produce, it will set fire to the footings of the mountains.
Deu 32:23 I shall hurl disasters on them, on them I shall use up all my arrows.
Deu 32:24 They will be weakened by hunger, eaten away by plague and the bitter scourge. Against them I shall send the fang of wild animals and the poison of snakes that glide in the dust.
Deu 32:25 Outside, the sword bereaves, while inside terror will reign. Young man and girl alike will perish, suckling and greybeard both together.
Deu 32:26 I should crush them to dust, I said, I should wipe out all memory of them,
Deu 32:27 did I not fear the boasting of the enemy.' But do not let their foes be mistaken! Do not let them say, 'We have got the upper hand and Yahweh plays no part in this.'
Deu 32:28 What a short-sighted nation this is, how thoroughly imperceptive!
Deu 32:29 Were they wise, they would succeed, they would be able to read their destiny.
Deu 32:30 How else could one man rout a thousand, how could two put ten thousand to flight, were it not that their Rock has sold them, that Yahweh has delivered them up?
Deu 32:31 But their rock is not like our Rock; our enemies cannot pray for us!
Deu 32:32 For their vine springs from the stock of Sodom and from the groves of Gomorrah: their grapes are poisonous grapes, their clusters are bitter;
Deu 32:33 their wine is snakes' poison, the vipers' cruel venom.
Deu 32:34 But he, is he not safe with me, sealed inside my treasury?
Deu 32:35 Vengeance is mine, I will pay them back, for the time when they make a false step. For the day of their ruin is close, doom is rushing towards them, for he will see to it that their power fails. that neither serf nor free man remains.
Deu 32:36 (For Yahweh will see his people righted, he will take pity on his servants.)
Deu 32:37 'Where are their gods then?' he will ask, 'the rock where they sought refuge,
Deu 32:38 who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their libations?' Let these arise and help you, let these be the shelter above you!
Deu 32:39 See now that I, I am he, and beside me there is no other god. It is I who deal death and life; when I have struck, it is I who heal (no one can rescue anyone from me).
Deu 32:40 Yes, I raise my hand to heaven, and I say, 'As surely as I live for ever,
Deu 32:41 When I have whetted my flashing sword, I shall enforce justice, I shall return vengeance to my foes, I shall take vengeance on my foes.
Deu 32:42 I shall make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will feed on flesh: the blood of the wounded and the prisoners, the dishevelled heads of the enemy!'
Deu 32:43 Heavens, rejoice with him, let all the children of God pay him homage! Nations, rejoice with his people, let God's envoys tell of his power! For he will avenge the blood of his servants, he will return vengeance to my foes, he will repay those who hate him and purify his people's country.
Deu 32:44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and recited all the words of this song in the people's hearing.

Deu 32:45 When Moses had finished reciting these words to all Israel,
Deu 32:46 he said to them, 'Take all these words to heart; I intend them today to be evidence against you. You must order your children to keep and observe all the words of this Law.
Deu 32:47 You must not think of this as empty words, for the Law is your life, and by its means you will live long in the country which you are crossing the Jordan to possess.'
Deu 32:48 Yahweh spoke to Moses that same day and said to him,
Deu 32:49 'Climb this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, in the country of Moab, opposite Jericho, and view the Canaan which I am giving to the Israelites as their domain.
Deu 32:50 Die on the mountain you have climbed, and be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.
Deu 32:51 Because, with the other Israelites, you broke faith with me at the Waters of Meribah-Kadesh in the desert of Zin, because you did not make my holiness clear to the Israelites;
Deu 32:52 you may only see the country from outside; you cannot enter it -- the country which I am giving to the Israelites.'

Deu 33:1 This is the blessing that Moses, man of God, pronounced over the Israelites before he died.
Deu 33:2 He said: Yahweh came from Sinai, from Seir he dawned on us, from Mount Paran blazed forth, For them he came, after the mustering at Kadesh, from his zenith as far as the foothills.
Deu 33:3 You who love the ancestors! Your holy ones are all at your command. At your feet they fell, under your guidance went swiftly on.
Deu 33:4 (Moses enjoined a law on us.) The assembly of Jacob comes into its inheritance;
Deu 33:5 there was a king in Jeshurun when the heads of the people foregathered and the tribes of Israel were all assembled!
Deu 33:6 May Reuben survive and not die out, survive though his men be few!
Deu 33:7 Of Judah he said this: Listen, Yahweh, to the voice of Judah, and bring him back to his people. That his hands may defend his rights, come to his help against his foes!
Deu 33:8 Of Levi he said: To Levi, give your urim, to your faithful one, your thummim, having tested him at Massah, having striven with him at the Waters of Meribah.
Deu 33:9 Of his father and mother, he says, 'I have not seen them.' He does not acknowledge his brothers, nor does he know his own children. Yes, they have kept your word, they hold firmly to your covenant.
Deu 33:10 They will teach your customs to Jacob, and your Law to Israel. They will put incense before you and burnt offerings on your altar.
Deu 33:11 Yahweh, bless his worthiness, and accept the actions he performs. Crush the loins of those who rise against him and of his foes, so that they rise no more!
Deu 33:12 Of Benjamin he said: Beloved of Yahweh, he rests trustfully near him. The Most High protects him day after day and dwells between his hillsides.
Deu 33:13 Of Joseph he said: His land is blessed by Yahweh. For him the best of heaven's dew and of the deep that lies below,
Deu 33:14 the best of what the sun makes grow, of what springs with every month,
Deu 33:15 the first-fruits of the ancient mountains, the best from the hills of old
Deu 33:16 the best of the land and all it holds, the favour of him who dwells in the Bush. May the hair grow thick on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the consecrated one among his brothers!
Deu 33:17 First-born of the Bull, his the glory. His horns are the wild ox's horns, with which he gores the peoples to the very ends of the earth. Such are the myriads of Ephraim, such are the thousands of Manasseh.
Deu 33:18 Of Zebulun he said: Prosper, Zebulun, in your expeditions, and you, Issachar, in your tents!
Deu 33:19 On the mountain where the people come to pray they offer upright sacrifices, for they taste the riches of the seas and the treasures hidden in the sands.
Deu 33:20 Of Gad he said: Blessed be he who gives Gad space enough! He lies there like a lioness; he has savaged arm and face and head.
Deu 33:21 Then he took the first portion for himself, saw that there was stored up for him a leader's share. He has come at the head of the people, has carried out the saving justice of Yahweh and his judgements on Israel.
Deu 33:22 Of Dan he said: Dan is a lion cub leaping from Bashan.
Deu 33:23 Of Naphtali he said: Naphtali, sated with favours, filled with the blessings of Yahweh: the west and south are to be his domain.
Deu 33:24 Of Asher he said: Most blessed of the sons let Asher be! Let him be the most privileged of his brothers and let him bathe his feet in oil!
Deu 33:25 Be your bolts of iron and of bronze and your security as lasting as your days!
Deu 33:26 No one is like the God of Jeshurun: he rides the heavens to your rescue, rides the clouds in his majesty!
Deu 33:27 The God of old is your refuge, his the eternal arm which here below drives the enemy before you; he

it is who says, 'Destroy!'

Deu 33:28 Israel rests trustfully. The well-spring of Jacob is chosen out for a land of corn and wine; there heaven itself rains down dew.

Deu 33:29 Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, O victorious people? Yahweh is the shield that protects you and the sword that leads you to triumph. Your enemies will try to corrupt you, but you yourself will trample on their backs.

Deu 34:1 Then, leaving the Plains of Moab, Moses went up Mount Nebo, the peak of Pisgah opposite Jericho, and Yahweh showed him the whole country: Gilead as far as Dan,

Deu 34:2 the whole of Naphtali, the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, the whole country of Judah as far as the Western Sea,

Deu 34:3 the Negeb, and the region of the Valley of Jericho, city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

Deu 34:4 Yahweh said to him, 'This is the country which I promised on oath to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying: I shall give it to your descendants. I have allowed you to see it for yourself, but you will not cross into it.'

Deu 34:5 There in the country of Moab, Moses, servant of Yahweh, died as Yahweh decreed;

Deu 34:6 he buried him in the valley, in the country of Moab, opposite Beth-Peor; but to this day no one has ever found his grave.

Deu 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, his eye undimmed, his vigour unimpaired.

Deu 34:8 The Israelites wept for Moses on the Plains of Moab for thirty days. The days of weeping for the mourning rites of Moses came to an end.

Deu 34:9 Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him, and him the Israelites obeyed, carrying out the order which Yahweh had given to Moses.

Deu 34:10 Since then, there has never been such a prophet in Israel as Moses, the man whom Yahweh knew face to face.

Deu 34:11 What signs and wonders Yahweh caused him to perform in Egypt against Pharaoh, all his servants and his whole country!

Deu 34:12 How mighty the hand and great the fear that Moses wielded in the eyes of all Israel!

Jos 1:1 When Moses, servant of Yahweh, was dead, Yahweh spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' adjutant. He said,

Jos 1:2 'Moses my servant is dead; go now and cross this Jordan, you and this whole people, into the country which I am giving to them (the Israelites).

Jos 1:3 Every place you tread with the soles of your feet I shall give you, as I declared to Moses that I would.

Jos 1:4 From the desert and the Lebanon, to the Great River, the Euphrates (the entire country of the Hittites), and as far as the Great Sea to westward, is to be your territory.

Jos 1:5 As long as you live, no one will be able to resist you; I shall be with you as I was with Moses; I shall not fail you or desert you.

Jos 1:6 'Be strong and stand firm, for you are the man to give this people possession of the land which I swore to their ancestors that I would give them.

Jos 1:7 Only be strong and stand very firm and be careful to keep the whole Law which my servant Moses laid down for you. Do not swerve from this either to right or to left, and then you will succeed wherever you go.

Jos 1:8 Have the book of this Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may carefully keep everything that is written in it. Then your undertakings will prosper, then you will have success.

Jos 1:9 Have I not told you: Be strong and stand firm? Be fearless and undaunted, for go where you may, Yahweh your God is with you.'

Jos 1:10 Joshua then gave the people's officials this instruction:

Jos 1:11 'Go through the camp and give the people this order, "Make provisions ready, for in three days' time you will cross this Jordan and go on to take possession of the land which Yahweh your God is giving you as your own."

Jos 1:12 Joshua then said to the Reubenites and Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

Jos 1:13 'Remember the order given you by Moses, servant of Yahweh: Yahweh your God, in bringing you to rest, has given you the land where we are.

Jos 1:14 Your wives, your little ones and your cattle must stay in the country given you by Moses beyond the Jordan. But all you fighting men must cross in battle formation at the head of your brothers and help them,

Jos 1:15 until Yahweh grants rest to your brothers and you alike, when they too have taken possession of the land which Yahweh your God is giving to them. Then you may go back and take possession of the land which belongs to you and which Moses, servant of Yahweh, has given you on the eastern side of the Jordan.'

Jos 1:16 They answered Joshua, 'We will do whatever you order us, and wherever you send us we will go.

Jos 1:17 We obeyed Moses in everything, and now we will obey you. Only may Yahweh your God be with you as he was with Moses!

Jos 1:18 If anyone rebels against your orders or will not listen to your commands, let him be put to death. Only be strong and stand firm.'

Jos 2:1 From Shittim, Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two men to reconnoitre. He said, 'Go and explore the country and Jericho.' They left; they went into the house of a prostitute called Rahab, to spend the night there.

Jos 2:2 The king of Jericho was told, 'Some men have come here tonight from the Israelites, to reconnoitre the country.'

Jos 2:3 The king of Jericho then sent a message to Rahab, 'Send out the men who came to you and are lodging in your house, for they have come to reconnoitre the whole country.'

Jos 2:4 But the woman took the two men and hid them. 'It is true,' she said, 'the men did come to me, but I did not know where they came from.'

Jos 2:5 When the city gate was about to be closed at nightfall, the men went out and I cannot say where they have gone. Follow them quickly and you will overtake them.'

Jos 2:6 She had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under some stalks of flax which she had laid out there.

Jos 2:7 The men hurried in pursuit of them towards the Jordan, as far as the fords, and the gate was shut once the pursuers had gone through.

Jos 2:8 The two men had not yet settled down for the night when Rahab came up to them on the roof.

Jos 2:9 She said to them, 'I know that Yahweh has given you this country, that we are afraid of you and that everyone living in this country has been seized with terror at your approach;

Jos 2:10 for we have heard how Yahweh dried up the Sea of Reeds before you when you came out of Egypt and what you did to the two Amorite kings across the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you put under the curse of destruction.

Jos 2:11 When we heard this, our hearts failed us, and now no one has any courage left to resist you, since Yahweh your God is God both in heaven above and on earth beneath.

Jos 2:12 So, swear to me now by Yahweh, since I have been kind to you,

Jos 2:13 that you in your turn will be kind to my father's family; and give me a sure sign of this: that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters and all who belong to them, and will preserve us from death.'

Jos 2:14 The men replied, 'We pledge you our lives, provided that you say nothing about our mission. When Yahweh has given us the country, we shall treat you kindly and faithfully.'

Jos 2:15 She then let them down from the window on a rope, as her house was against the city wall and she actually lived in the wall.

Jos 2:16 'Make for the hills,' she said, 'or you may run into your pursuers. Hide there for three days, until your pursuers have come back, and then go on your way.'

Jos 2:17 The men said, 'This is how we shall fulfil the oath which you have made us swear:

Jos 2:18 when we invade the country, you must tie this scarlet cord to the window from which you let us down, and collect your father, mother, brothers and entire family inside your house.

Jos 2:19 If anyone goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head and we shall not be to blame; but the blood of all staying inside the house with you will be on our heads if a hand is laid on any of them.

Jos 2:20 But if you divulge our mission in the meanwhile, we shall be free of the oath which you have made us swear.'

Jos 2:21 She replied, 'Let it be as you say.' She let them go, and they left. She then tied the scarlet cord to the window.

Jos 2:22 They left and made for the hills. They stayed there for three days, until their pursuers had gone home, having scoured the countryside without finding them.

Jos 2:23 The two men then came down again from the hills, crossed over and, going to Joshua son of Nun, told him everything that had happened to them.

Jos 2:24 To Joshua they said, 'Yahweh has put the whole country at our mercy, and its inhabitants are all panic-stricken at our approach.'

Jos 3:1 Early in the morning, Joshua struck camp and set out from Shittim with all the Israelites. They went as far as the Jordan and there they camped before they crossed.

Jos 3:2 Three days later, the officials went through the camp

Jos 3:3 and gave the people these instructions, 'When you see the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God being carried by the levitical priests, you will leave your position and follow it, so that you may know which way to take, since you have never gone this way before.'

Jos 3:4 Between you and the ark, however, keep a distance of about two thousand cubits: do not go near it.'

Jos 3:5 Joshua said to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves, since tomorrow Yahweh will work wonders among you.'

Jos 3:6 Joshua then said to the priests, 'Take up the ark of the covenant and cross at the head of the people.'

They took up the ark of the covenant and moved to the head of the people.

Jos 3:7 Yahweh said to Joshua, 'This very day, I shall begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel so that they will know that, as I was with Moses, so I shall be with you.'

Jos 3:8 Now, give this order to the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, "When you have reached the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you must halt in the Jordan itself." '

Jos 3:9 To the Israelites, Joshua then said, 'Come closer and hear the words of Yahweh your God.'

Jos 3:10 Joshua said, 'By this, you are to know that the living God is with you and without a doubt will expel the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, Perizzites, Gergashites, Amorites and Jebusites before you.'

Jos 3:11 Look, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of the whole earth is about to move into the Jordan at your head.

Jos 3:12 Now choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe.

Jos 3:13 As soon as the priests carrying the ark of Yahweh, Lord of the whole earth, have set the soles of their feet in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off; the upper waters flowing down will stop as a single mass.'

Jos 3:14 Accordingly, when the people left their tents to cross the Jordan, the priests carried the ark of the covenant ahead of the people.

Jos 3:15 As soon as the bearers of the ark reached the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the ark touched the waters -- the Jordan is in spate throughout the harvest season-

Jos 3:16 the upper waters stood still and formed a single mass over a great distance, at Adam, the town near Zarethan, while those flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely separated. The people crossed opposite Jericho.

Jos 3:17 The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh stood firm on dry ground in mid-Jordan, while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until the whole nation had completed its crossing of the Jordan.

Jos 4:1 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, Yahweh spoke to Joshua and said,

Jos 4:2 'Choose twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, and give them this order,

Jos 4:3 "Here, from mid-Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet were standing, take twelve stones; carry them with you and set them down in the camp where you pass the night."

Jos 4:4 Joshua called the twelve men whom he had selected from the Israelites, one man from each tribe,

Jos 4:5 and Joshua said to them, 'Go on ahead of the ark of Yahweh your God into mid-Jordan, and each of

Jos 4:6 to make this a sign among you; and when, in the future, your children ask you, "What do these stones mean for you?"

Jos 4:7 you will then tell them, "The waters of the Jordan separated before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh; when it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the river separated. These stones are an everlasting reminder of this to the Israelites."

Jos 4:8 The Israelites did as Joshua ordered; they took twelve stones from mid-Jordan corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel, as Yahweh had told Joshua; they carried them over to the camp and set them down there.

Jos 4:9 Joshua then erected twelve stones in mid-Jordan, on the spot where the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are still there today.

Jos 4:10 The priests carrying the ark stood still in mid-Jordan, until everything had been done that Yahweh had ordered Joshua to tell the people (in accordance with everything that Moses had ordered Joshua); and the people hurried across.

Jos 4:11 When the people had finished crossing, the ark of Yahweh then crossed, with the priests, to the head of the people.

Jos 4:12 The sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed in battle formation at the head of the Israelites, as Moses had told them.

Jos 4:13 Some forty thousand warriors in arms, they crossed in Yahweh's presence, ready for battle, towards the plain of Jericho.

Jos 4:14 That day, Yahweh made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel, who respected him as they had respected Moses, as long as he lived.

Jos 4:15 Yahweh said to Joshua,

Jos 4:16 'Order the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan.'

Jos 4:17 And Joshua gave the order to the priests, 'Come up, out of the Jordan!'

Jos 4:18 Now, when the priests carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came up out of mid-Jordan, no sooner had the soles of the priests' feet touched solid ground, than the waters of the Jordan returned to their bed and ran on, in spate as before.

Jos 4:19 It was the tenth day of the first month when the people came up from the Jordan and made their camp at Gilgal, on the eastern border of Jericho.

Jos 4:20 As regards those twelve stones, which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set them up at Gilgal.

Jos 4:21 He then said to the Israelites, 'When, in the future, your children ask their fathers, "What are these stones?"

Jos 4:22 you will explain to your children, "Israel crossed this Jordan dry-shod."

Jos 4:23 For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan in front of you until you had crossed, just as Yahweh your God did to the Sea of Reeds, which he dried up before us until we had crossed it;

Jos 4:24 so that all the peoples of the earth may know how mighty the hand of Yahweh is, and always stand in awe of Yahweh your God.' "

Jos 5:1 When all the kings of the Amorites living to westward across the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites living on the seaboard, heard that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed, their hearts failed and they lost all courage to resist the Israelites.

Jos 5:2 At this time Yahweh said to Joshua, 'Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites again (a second time).

Jos 5:3 Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites on the Hill of Foreskins.

Jos 5:4 The reason why Joshua circumcised them was this. All the males of the people who had come out of Egypt of age to bear arms had died in the desert on their journey after leaving Egypt.

Jos 5:5 Now, all the people who came out had been circumcised; but none of those born in the desert, during the journey, after leaving Egypt, had been circumcised;

Jos 5:6 for the Israelites walked the desert for forty years, until the whole nation had died out, that is, the men who had come out of Egypt of age to bear arms; they had not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, and Yahweh had sworn to them never to let them see the land which he had sworn to their ancestors that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jos 5:7 But in place of these he set their sons, and these were the ones whom Joshua circumcised: they were uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised during the journey.

Jos 5:8 When the circumcising of the whole nation was finished, they stayed resting in the camp till they were well again.

Jos 5:9 Yahweh then said to Joshua, 'Today I have taken the shame of Egypt away from you.' Hence, the place has been called Gilgal ever since.

Jos 5:10 The Israelites pitched their camp at Gilgal and kept the Passover there on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the plain of Jericho.

Jos 5:11 On the very next day after the Passover, they ate what the land produced, unleavened bread and roasted ears of corn.

Jos 5:12 The manna stopped the day after they had eaten the produce of the land. The Israelites from that year onwards ate the produce of Canaan and had no more manna.

Jos 5:13 Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him, grasping a naked sword. Joshua walked towards him and said to him, 'Are you on our side or on that of our enemies?'

Jos 5:14 He replied, 'On neither side. I have come now as the captain of the army of Yahweh.' Joshua fell on his face to the ground, worshipping him, and said, 'What has my Lord to say to his servant?'

Jos 5:15 The captain of the army of Yahweh answered Joshua, 'Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.' And Joshua did so.

Jos 6:1 Now, Jericho had shut and barricaded its gates (against the Israelites): no one came out and no one went in.

Jos 6:2 Yahweh then said to Joshua, 'Look, I am putting Jericho, its picked troops and its king, at your mercy.'

Jos 6:3 All you warriors must march round the city (go right round the city once, doing the same on six successive days).

Jos 6:4 Seven priests must carry seven ram's-horn trumpets in front of the ark. On the seventh day, you will go seven times round the city and the priests will blow their trumpets).

Jos 6:5 When the ram's horn sounds (when you hear the sound of the trumpet), the entire people must utter a mighty war cry and the city wall will collapse then and there; the people will then go into the assault, each man straight ahead.'

Jos 6:6 Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, 'Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven ram's-horn trumpets ahead of the ark of Yahweh.'

Jos 6:7 To the people he then said, 'Forward! March round the city, and let the vanguard march ahead of the ark of Yahweh!'

Jos 6:8 (Everything was done as Joshua had given orders to the people.) Seven priests, carrying seven ram's-horn trumpets ahead of Yahweh, moved forward blowing their trumpets; the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came behind them,

Jos 6:9 the vanguard marched ahead of the priests, who blew their trumpets, the rearguard followed behind the ark; the men marched, the trumpets sounded.

Jos 6:10 Joshua had given the people the following orders, 'Do not raise a war cry, do not let your voice be heard (not a word must pass your lips), until the day when I say, "Raise the war cry." That is when you must raise the war cry.'

Jos 6:11 He made the ark go round the city (going round it once), then they went back to camp, where they spent the night.

Jos 6:12 Joshua got up early, and the priests took up the ark of Yahweh.

Jos 6:13 Carrying the seven ram's-horn trumpets, the seven priests walked ahead of the ark of Yahweh, blowing their trumpets as they went, while the vanguard marched ahead of them and the rearguard behind the ark of Yahweh, and the march went on to the sound of the trumpet.

Jos 6:14 They marched once round the city (on the second day) and went back to camp; and so on for six days.

Jos 6:15 On the seventh day, they got up at dawn and marched (in the same manner) round the city seven times. (This was the only day when they marched round the city seven times.)

Jos 6:16 At the seventh time, the priests blew their trumpets and Joshua said to the people, 'Raise the war cry, for Yahweh has given you the city!'

Jos 6:17 'The city and everyone in it must be devoted to Yahweh under the curse of destruction; the life of Rahab the prostitute alone must be spared, with all those with her in her house, since she hid the messengers we sent.'

Jos 6:18 But beware of the curse of destruction, yourselves, for fear that, moved by greed, you take something lying under the curse; that would put the camp of Israel under the same curse and bring disaster on it.

Jos 6:19 All the silver and all the gold, everything made of bronze or iron, will be consecrated to Yahweh and put in his treasury.'

Jos 6:20 The people raised the war cry, the trumpets sounded. When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, they raised a mighty war cry and the wall collapsed then and there. At once the people stormed the city, each man going straight forward; and they captured the city.

Jos 6:21 They enforced the curse of destruction on everyone in the city: men and women, young and old, including the oxen, the sheep and the donkeys, slaughtering them all.

Jos 6:22 Joshua said to the two men who had reconnoitred the country, 'Go into the prostitute's house, and bring the woman out with all who belong to her, as you swore to her that you would.'

Jos 6:23 The young men who had been spies went and brought Rahab out, with her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. They brought out all her clansmen too, and put them in a place of safety outside the camp of Israel.

Jos 6:24 They burned the city and everything inside it, except the silver, the gold and the things of bronze and iron; these they put into the treasury of Yahweh's house.

Jos 6:25 But Rahab the prostitute, her father's family and all who belonged to her, these Joshua spared. She is still living in Israel even today, for having hidden the messengers whom Joshua sent to reconnoitre Jericho.

Jos 6:26 At that time Joshua made them take this oath before Yahweh: Accursed before Yahweh be the man who rises up and rebuilds this city (Jericho)! On his first-born will he lay its foundations, on his youngest son set up its gates!

Jos 6:27 So Yahweh was with Joshua, whose fame spread throughout the country.

Jos 7:1 But the Israelites were unfaithful to the curse of destruction. Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took something that fell under the curse of destruction, and the anger of Yahweh was aroused against the Israelites.

Jos 7:2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai (which is near Beth-Aven), to the east of Bethel, having said to them, 'Go up and reconnoitre the country.' They went up and reconnoitred Ai.

Jos 7:3 Coming back to Joshua, they said, 'There is no need for the whole people to go up; let some two or three thousand go and attack Ai. Spare the whole people such an effort; there are only a few of them!'

Jos 7:4 Of the people, some three thousand marched up, but these broke before the people of Ai,

Jos 7:5 who killed some thirty-six of them and pursued them from the town gate as far as Shebarim, and on the slope cut them to pieces. The hearts of the people melted away and turned to water.

Jos 7:6 Joshua then tore his clothes and prostrated himself before the ark of Yahweh till nightfall; the elders of Israel did the same, and all poured dust on their heads.

Jos 7:7 And Joshua said, 'Alas, Lord Yahweh, why did you bother to bring this nation across the Jordan, if it was only to put us at the mercy of the Amorites and destroy us? If only we could have settled down on the other side of the Jordan!'

Jos 7:8 Forgive me, Lord, but what can I say, now that Israel has turned tail on the enemy?

Jos 7:9 The Canaanites, all the inhabitants of the land, will hear of it; they will unite against us to wipe our name from the earth. And what will you do about your great Name then?'

Jos 7:10 Yahweh said to Joshua, 'Stand up! Why are you lying prostrate like this?

Jos 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have violated the covenant which I imposed on them. They have gone so far as to take what was under the curse of destruction, they have even stolen it; they have actually hidden it; they have put it in their baggage.

Jos 7:12 That is why the Israelites cannot stand up to their foes, why they have turned tail on their enemies: because they have come under the curse of destruction themselves. Unless you get rid of the object among you which has been put under the curse of destruction, I shall be with you no longer.'

Jos 7:13 'Get up, sanctify the people and say, "Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, since Yahweh, the God of Israel, declares: The curse of destruction has now fallen on you, Israel; you will not be able to stand up to your enemies, until you have rid yourselves of that object which has been put under the curse of destruction."

Jos 7:14 Tomorrow morning, therefore, you will come forward tribe by tribe, and then the tribe which Yahweh selects by lot will come forward clan by clan, and the clan which Yahweh selects by lot will come forward family by family, and the family which Yahweh selects by lot will come forward man by man.

Jos 7:15 And the man indicated by lot as regards the object which has been put under the curse of destruction will be delivered to the flames, he and all his possessions, for having violated the covenant with Yahweh and for having committed an infamy in Israel."

Jos 7:16 Joshua got up early; he made Israel come forward tribe by tribe, and the lot indicated the tribe of Judah.

Jos 7:17 He summoned the clans of Judah, and the lot indicated the clan of Zerah. He summoned the clan of Zerah, family by family, and the lot indicated Zabdi.

Jos 7:18 Joshua then summoned the family of Zabdi, man by man, and the lot indicated Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah.

Jos 7:19 Joshua then said to Achan, 'My son, give glory to Yahweh, God of Israel, and confess; tell me what you have done and hide nothing from me.'

Jos 7:20 Achan replied to Joshua, 'Yes, I am the man who has sinned against Yahweh, God of Israel, and this is what I have done.'

Jos 7:21 In the loot, I saw a fine robe from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and an ingot of gold weighing fifty shekels, I set my heart on them and I took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.'

Jos 7:22 Joshua sent messengers; they ran to the tent, and the robe was indeed hidden in the tent, with the silver underneath.

Jos 7:23 They took the things out of the tent and, bringing them to Joshua and all the Israelites, laid them out before Yahweh.

Jos 7:24 Joshua then took Achan son of Zerah and led him up to the Vale of Achor, with the silver and the robe and the ingot of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his goats, his tent and all his belongings. All Israel went with him.

Jos 7:25 Joshua said, 'Why have you brought misfortune on us? Today may Yahweh bring misfortune on you! And all Israel stoned him to death (and they burned them and threw stones at them).

Jos 7:26 Over him, they raised a great mound of stones, which is still there today. Yahweh then relented from his fierce anger. That was why the place was called the Vale of Achor, as it still is today.

Jos 8:1 Yahweh then said to Joshua, 'Be fearless and undaunted. Take all your fighting men with you. Up! March against Ai. Look, I have put the king of Ai, his people, his town and his territory at your mercy.'

Jos 8:2 You must treat Ai and its king as you treated Jericho and its king. The only booty you will take are the spoils and the cattle. Take up a concealed position by the town, to the rear of it.'

Jos 8:3 Joshua set out to march against Ai with all the fighting men. Joshua chose thirty thousand of the bravest and sent them out under cover of dark,

Jos 8:4 having given them these orders, 'Pay attention! You must take up a concealed position by the town, at the rear, not very far from the town, and be sure you all keep alert!

Jos 8:5 I, and the whole people with me, shall advance on the town, and when the people of Ai come out to engage us as they did the first time, we shall run away from them.

Jos 8:6 They will then give chase, and we shall draw them away from the town, since they will think, "They are running away from us as they did the first time."

Jos 8:7 You will then burst out of your concealed position and seize the town; Yahweh your God will put it at your mercy.

Jos 8:8 When you have captured the town, set fire to it, in obedience to Yahweh's command. Well then, these are my orders.'

Jos 8:9 Joshua sent them off, and they made their way to the place of ambush and took up position between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. Joshua spent the night with the people,

Jos 8:10 then, getting up early next morning, reviewed the people and, with the elders of Israel, marched on Ai at their head.

Jos 8:11 All the warriors marching with him advanced on the front of the town and pitched camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the town.

Jos 8:12 Joshua took about five thousand men and concealed these between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the town.

Jos 8:13 The people pitched the main camp to the north of the town and set up its ambush to the west of the town. Joshua went that night into the middle of the plain.

Jos 8:14 The king of Ai had seen this; the people of the town got up early and hurried out, so that he and all his people could engage Israel in battle on the slope facing the Arabah; but he did not know that an ambush had been laid for him to the rear of the town.

Jos 8:15 Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten by them and took to their heels along the road to the desert.

Jos 8:16 All the people in the town joined in the pursuit and, in pursuing Joshua, were drawn away from the town.

Jos 8:17 Not a man was left in Ai (nor in Bethel), who had not gone in pursuit of Israel; and in pursuing Israel they left the town undefended.

Jos 8:18 Yahweh then said to Joshua, 'Point the sabre in your hand at Ai; for I am about to put the town at your mercy.' Joshua pointed the sabre in his hand towards the town.

Jos 8:19 No sooner had he stretched out his hand than the men in ambush burst from their position, ran forward, entered the town, captured it and quickly set it on fire.

Jos 8:20 When the men of Ai looked back, they saw smoke rising from the town into the sky. None of them had the courage to run in any direction, for the people fleeing towards the desert turned back on their pursuers.

Jos 8:21 For, once Joshua and all Israel saw that the town had been seized by the men in ambush, and that smoke was rising from the town, they turned about and attacked the men of Ai.

Jos 8:22 The others came out from the town to engage them too, and the men of Ai were thus surrounded by Israelites, some on this side and some on that. The Israelites struck them down until not one was left alive and none to flee;

Jos 8:23 but the king of Ai was taken alive, and brought to Joshua.

Jos 8:24 When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the open ground, and in the desert where they had pursued them, and when every single one had fallen to the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and slaughtered its remaining population.

Jos 8:25 The number of those who fell that day, men and women together, was twelve thousand, all people of Ai.

Jos 8:26 Joshua did not draw back the hand with which he had pointed the sabre until he had subjected all the inhabitants of Ai to the curse of destruction.

Jos 8:27 For booty, Israel took only the cattle and the spoils of this town, in accordance with the order that Yahweh had given to Joshua.

Jos 8:28 Joshua then burned Ai, making it a ruin for evermore, a desolate place even today.

Jos 8:29 He hanged the king of Ai from a tree till evening; but at sunset Joshua ordered his body to be taken down from the tree. It was then thrown down at the entrance to the town gate and on top of it was raised a great mound of stones, which is still there today.

Jos 8:30 Joshua then built an altar to Yahweh, God of Israel, on Mount Ebal,

Jos 8:31 as Moses, servant of Yahweh, had ordered the Israelites, as is written in the law of Moses: an altar of undressed stones, on which no iron has been used. On this they presented burnt offerings to Yahweh and communion sacrifices as well.

Jos 8:32 There, Joshua wrote on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which Moses had written in the presence of the Israelites.

Jos 8:33 All Israel, with their elders, their officials and their judges, stood on either side of the ark, facing the levitical priests who were carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, foreigners with the native-born, half of them on the upper slopes of Mount Gerizim, and half of them on the upper slopes of Mount Ebal, as Moses, servant of Yahweh, had originally ordered for the blessing of the people of Israel.

Jos 8:34 After this, Joshua read all the words of the Law -- the blessing and the cursing -- exactly as it stands written in the Book of the Law.

Jos 8:35 Of every word laid down by Moses, not one was left unread by Joshua in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel, including the women and children, and the foreigners living with them.

Jos 9:1 Hearing these things, all the kings on this side of the Jordan, in the highlands and in the lowlands, all along the coast of the Great Sea towards the Lebanon, Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, with one consent

Jos 9:2 formed a fighting alliance against Joshua and Israel.

Jos 9:3 When the inhabitants of Gibeon learned how Joshua had treated Jericho and Ai, for their part,

Jos 9:4 they had recourse to a ruse. They provided themselves with supplies, and loaded their donkeys with old sacks and with old wineskins which had burst and been sewn up again.

Jos 9:5 They put on patched old sandals and worn-out clothes. The only bread they took with them to eat was dried up and crumbling.

Jos 9:6 They came to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and to him and the men of Israel they said, 'We come from a distant country, so make a treaty with us.'

Jos 9:7 The Israelites answered these Hivites, 'For all we know, you may live right among us. How then could we make a treaty with you?'

Jos 9:8 They said to Joshua, 'We are your servants.' 'But who are you?' Joshua asked them, 'and where do you come from?'

Jos 9:9 They said, 'Your servants have come from a country very far away, because of the fame of Yahweh your God; for we have heard of him and of all that he did in Egypt,

Jos 9:10 and of all that he did to the two Amorite kings who used to live on the other side of the Jordan: Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who used to live at Ashtaroth.

Jos 9:11 Because of which, our elders and all the people of our country said to us, "Take provisions with you for the journey; go and meet them and say to them: We are your servants; so make a treaty with us."

Jos 9:12 Here is our bread; it was warm when we took it from home to provide for our journey the day we set out to come to you, and now, you can see, it is dried up and crumbling.

Jos 9:13 These wineskins were new when we filled them; you can see, they have burst; and these clothes and sandals of ours are worn out from travelling such a long way.'

Jos 9:14 The leaders sampled some of the food they offered, but they did not ask Yahweh's orders.

Jos 9:15 Joshua made peace with them, and struck a treaty with them guaranteeing their lives, and the leaders of the community ratified it by oath.

Jos 9:16 Now it so happened that three days after the treaty had been made, it became known that they were a neighbouring people, living in Israel's region.

Jos 9:17 The Israelites set out from camp, arriving in their towns three days later. Their towns were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath-Jearim.

Jos 9:18 The Israelites did not attack them, since the leaders of the community had sworn to them by Yahweh, God of Israel, but the whole community muttered against the leaders.

Jos 9:19 The leaders, however, all said to the whole community, 'Since we have sworn an oath to them by Yahweh, God of Israel, we cannot touch them now.'

Jos 9:20 This is what we shall do with them: let them live, rather than bring retribution down on ourselves on account of the oath which we have sworn to them.'

Jos 9:21 And the leaders went on, 'Let them live, but let them be wood-cutters and water-carriers for the whole community.' Thus spoke the leaders.

Jos 9:22 Joshua sent for the Gibeonites and asked them, 'Why did you deceive us by saying, "We live very far away," when in fact you live right among us?

Jos 9:23 From now on, you are accursed and will for ever be serfs, as wood-cutters and water-carriers in the house of my God.'

Jos 9:24 Their answer to Joshua was, 'We did it because your servants had been rightly told that Yahweh your God had ordered his servant Moses to give you the whole of this country and destroy all its inhabitants before you; also because, as you advanced on us, we feared very greatly for our lives. That was why we did this.'

Jos 9:25 Now, as you see, we are at your mercy; do to us whatever you think good and right.'

Jos 9:26 What he did with them was this: he saved them from the hand of the Israelites, who did not kill them.

Jos 9:27 But that very day Joshua made them wood-cutters and water-carriers for the community and for the altar of Yahweh, at the place which he would eventually choose; and so they are today.

Jos 10:1 Now, it happened that Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem, learned that Joshua had conquered Ai and put the town under the curse of destruction, treating Ai and its king as he had already treated Jericho and its king; and also that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were living with them.

Jos 10:2 There was consternation at this, since Gibeon was as important a town as any of the royal towns themselves (it was larger than Ai), while all its citizens were fighting men.

Jos 10:3 Consequently, Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon,

Jos 10:4 'Join me up here and help me to conquer Gibeon, since it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites.'

Jos 10:5 The five Amorite kings joined forces and went up there, that is, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish and the king of Eglon, they and all their armies; laying siege to Gibeon, they attacked it.

Jos 10:6 The men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, 'Do not desert your servants; come up here quickly to save us and help us, since all the Amorite kings living in the highlands have allied themselves against us.'

Jos 10:7 Joshua came up from Gilgal, he, all the fighting men and all the bravest of his army.

Jos 10:8 Yahweh said to Joshua, 'Do not be afraid of these people; I have put them at your mercy; not one of them will put up any resistance.'

Jos 10:9 Having marched from Gilgal throughout the night, Joshua caught them unawares.

Jos 10:10 Yahweh threw them into disorder at the sight of Israel, defeating them completely at Gibeon; furthermore, he pursued them by way of the Descent of Beth-Horon and harassed them as far as Azekah (and as far as Makkedah).

Jos 10:11 And as they fled from Israel down the Descent of Beth-Horon, Yahweh hurled huge hailstones from heaven on them all the way to Azekah, and they died. More of them died under the hailstones than under the swords of the Israelites.

Jos 10:12 Joshua then spoke to Yahweh, the day Yahweh delivered the Amorites to the Israelites. In the presence of Israel, Joshua said: Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and, moon, you too, over the Vale of Ajalon!

Jos 10:13 And the sun stood still, and the moon halted, until the people had taken vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of the Just? The sun stood still in the middle of the sky and delayed its setting for almost a whole day.

Jos 10:14 There was never a day like that before or since, when Yahweh obeyed the voice of a man -- for Yahweh was fighting for Israel.

Jos 10:15 Joshua, and all Israel with him, then went back to the camp at Gilgal.

Jos 10:16 As regards the five kings, these had fled and hidden in the cave of Makkedah,

Jos 10:17 and news of this was brought to Joshua. 'The five kings have been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah.'

Jos 10:18 Joshua said, 'Roll great stones over the mouth of the cave and post men there to keep guard.

Jos 10:19 You yourselves, do not stay there doing nothing; pursue the enemy, cut off their line of retreat and do not let them enter their towns, for Yahweh your God has put them at your mercy.'

Jos 10:20 When Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting a very great defeat on them, to the point of destroying them, those who had escaped alive took refuge in their fortresses.

Jos 10:21 The people came back to Joshua's camp at Makkedah; they were all safe and sound, and no one dared to attempt anything against the Israelites.

Jos 10:22 Joshua then said, 'Clear the mouth of the cave and bring the five kings out to me.'

Jos 10:23 They did so, and brought the five kings out of the cave to take them to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish and the king of Eglon.

Jos 10:24 When these kings had been brought out, Joshua assembled all the men of Israel and said to the chiefs of the warriors who had fought with him, 'Come forward and put your feet on the necks of these kings!' They came forward and put their feet on their necks.

Jos 10:25 'Be fearless and undaunted,' Joshua went on, 'be strong and stand firm, for this is how Yahweh will deal with all the enemies you fight.'

Jos 10:26 With this, Joshua struck and killed them and had them hanged on five trees; they hung there till evening.

Jos 10:27 At the hour of sunset, on Joshua's orders, they were taken down from the trees and thrown into the cave where they had been hiding. Great stones were laid over the mouth of the cave, and these are still there to this very day.

Jos 10:28 The same day Joshua captured Makkedah, putting it and its king to the sword; he delivered them over to the curse of destruction, with every living creature there, and let no one escape, and he treated the king of Makkedah as he had treated the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:29 Joshua, and all Israel with him, went on from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it

Jos 10:30 and Yahweh put this, too, and its king at Israel's mercy; and Israel put every living creature there to the sword, and left none alive, and treated its king like the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:31 Joshua, and all Israel with him, went on from Libnah to Lachish and besieged it and attacked it.

Jos 10:32 Yahweh put Lachish at Israel's mercy, and Israel took it on the second day and put it and every living creature in it to the sword, as they had treated Libnah.

Jos 10:33 Horam king of Gezer then marched up to help Lachish, but Joshua beat him and his people until not one was left alive.

Jos 10:34 Joshua, and all Israel with him, went on from Lachish to Eglon. They besieged it and attacked it.

Jos 10:35 The same day they took it and put it to the sword. That day he delivered over to the curse of destruction every living creature there, treating it as he had treated Lachish.

Jos 10:36 Joshua, and all Israel with him, went on up from Eglon to Hebron. They attacked it,

Jos 10:37 took it and put it to the sword, with its king, its dependencies and every living creature in it. As he had treated Eglon, so here, he left no one alive. He delivered it over to the curse of destruction, with every living creature in it.

Jos 10:38 Joshua, and all Israel with him, then turned back on Debir and attacked it.

Jos 10:39 He took it and its king and all the places belonging to it; they put them to the sword, and every living creature there they delivered over to the curse of destruction. He left no one alive. As he had treated Hebron, as he had treated Libnah and its king, so he treated Debir and its king.

Jos 10:40 Thus Joshua subjugated the whole country: the highlands, the Negeb, the lowlands and watered foothills, and all their kings. He left not one survivor and put every living thing under the curse of destruction, as Yahweh, God of Israel, had commanded.

Jos 10:41 Joshua conquered them from Kadesh-Barnea to Gaza, and the whole region of Goshen as far as Gibeon.

Jos 10:42 All these kings and their territory Joshua captured in a single campaign, because Yahweh, God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Jos 10:43 And then Joshua, and all Israel with him, went back to the camp at Gilgal.

Jos 11:1 When Jabin king of Hazor heard about this, he sent word to Jobab king of Merom, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph

Jos 11:2 and to the kings in the northern highlands, in the plain south of Chinneroth, and those in the lowlands and on the slopes of Dor to the west.

Jos 11:3 To eastward and to westward lived the Canaanites: in the highlands, the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites; the Hivites, at the foot of Hermon in the area of Mizpah.

Jos 11:4 They set out with all their troops, a people as numerous as the sands of the sea, with a huge number of horses and chariots.

Jos 11:5 These kings, having all agreed on a meeting place, came and set up camp together at the Waters of Merom, to fight Israel.

Jos 11:6 Yahweh then said to Joshua, 'Do not be afraid of them, for by this time tomorrow I shall hand them all over, cut to pieces, to Israel; you will hamstring their horses and burn their chariots.'

Jos 11:7 With all his warriors Joshua caught them unawares near the Waters of Merom and fell on them.

Jos 11:8 Yahweh put them at Israel's mercy and they defeated them and pursued them as far as Sidon the Great, and as far as Misrephoth to the west, and as far as the Vale of Mizpah to the east; they harried them until not one of them was left alive.

Jos 11:9 Joshua treated them as Yahweh had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

Jos 11:10 Joshua then turned back and captured Hazor, putting its king to the sword. Hazor in olden days was the capital of all these kingdoms.

Jos 11:11 In compliance with the curse of destruction, they put every living creature there to the sword. Not a living soul was left, and Hazor was burnt to the ground.

Jos 11:12 All these royal cities and all their kings Joshua put to the sword in compliance with the curse of destruction, as Moses, servant of Yahweh, had ordered.

Jos 11:13 Yet of all these towns standing on their mounds, Israel burned none, apart from Hazor, burnt by Joshua.

Jos 11:14 All the spoils of these towns, including the livestock, the Israelites took as booty for themselves. But they put all the human beings to the sword till they had destroyed them completely; they did not leave a living soul.

Jos 11:15 What Yahweh had ordered his servant Moses, Moses in turn had ordered Joshua, and Joshua carried it out, leaving nothing undone of what Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Jos 11:16 In consequence, Joshua captured this entire country: the highlands, the whole Negeb and the whole of Goshen, the lowlands, the Arabah, the highlands and lowlands of Israel.

Jos 11:17 From Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir, to Baal-Gad in the Vale of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon, he captured all their kings, struck them down and put them to death.

Jos 11:18 For many a day Joshua made war on all these kings;

Jos 11:19 no city had made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites who lived at Gibeon; all the rest had been captured in battle.

Jos 11:20 For Yahweh had decided to harden the hearts of these men, so that they would engage Israel in battle and thus come under the curse of destruction and so receive no quarter but be exterminated, as Yahweh had ordered Moses.

Jos 11:21 Joshua then went and wiped out the Anakim of the highlands, of Hebron, of Debir, of Anab, of all the highlands of Judah and of all the highlands of Israel; he delivered them and their towns over to the curse of destruction.

Jos 11:22 No Anakim were left in the territory of the Israelites, except at Gaza, Gath and Ashdod.

Jos 11:23 Joshua captured the entire country, just as Yahweh had told Moses, and he gave it as heritage to Israel, to be shared out between their tribes. And the country had rest from warfare.

Jos 12:1 The kings of the country, whom the Israelites conquered and whose territory they took, on the further, eastern side of the Jordan, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon, with the entire Arabah to the east, were as follows:

Jos 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, ruled from Aroer which is on the edge of the Arnon Valley, including the bottom of the valley, half Gilead and as far as the Jabbok, the river forming the frontier with the Ammonites;

Jos 12:3 the eastern Arabah up to the Sea of Chinneroth, and as far as the Sea of the Arabah, or Salt Sea, on the eastern side, in the direction of Beth-Jeshimoth, and, in the south, the watered foothills of Mount Pisgah.

Jos 12:4 Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and Edrei,

Jos 12:5 ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah, the whole of Bashan to the frontier of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and half Gilead to the frontier of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Jos 12:6 Moses, servant of Yahweh, and the Israelites conquered these, and Moses, servant of Yahweh, conferred their territory on the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 12:7 The kings of the country whom Joshua and the Israelites conquered on the nearer, western side of the Jordan, from Baal-Gad in the Vale of Lebanon to Mount Halak rising towards Seir, and whose heritage Joshua distributed to the tribes of Israel, dividing it up between them, were as follows:

Jos 12:8 In the highlands and the lowlands, in the Arabah and in the watered foothills, in the desert and in the Negeb, belonging to the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites:

Jos 12:9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai near Bethel, one;

Jos 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

Jos 12:11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

Jos 12:12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

Jos 12:13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

Jos 12:14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

Jos 12:15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

Jos 12:16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

Jos 12:17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

Jos 12:18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Sharon, one;

Jos 12:19 the king of Merom, one; the king of Hazor, one;

Jos 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

Jos 12:21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

Jos 12:22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

Jos 12:23 the king of Dor, on the Slopes of Dor, one; the king of the nations in Galilee, one;

Jos 12:24 the king of Tirzah, one; Total number of all these kings: thirty-one.

Jos 13:1 Now Joshua had grown old and advanced in years. Yahweh said to him, 'You are now old and advanced in years, yet there is still a great deal of territory left to be taken possession of.'

Jos 13:2 This is all the territory left: 'All the districts of the Philistines and the whole country of the Geshurites;

Jos 13:3 from the Shihor, facing Egypt, to the frontier of Ekron in the north, is reckoned as Canaanite territory. The five rulers of the Philistines have their seats at Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron, respectively; the Avvites are in

Jos 13:4 the south. The entire territory of the Canaanites, and Mearah which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphekah and as far as the frontier of the Amorites;

Jos 13:5 and then the country of the Gebalites with the entire Lebanon eastwards from Baal-Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to the Pass of Hamath.

Jos 13:6 'All who live in the highlands from the Lebanon to Misrephoth in the west -- all the Sidonians -- I myself shall dispossess before the Israelites. All you have to do is to distribute the territory as a heritage for the Israelites as I have ordered you.'

Jos 13:7 The time has come to divide this territory as a heritage between the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh: from the Jordan as far as the Great Sea in the west, you must give it them; the Great Sea will be their limit.'

Jos 13:8 As regards the other half-tribe of Manasseh, this and the Reubenites and Gadites had already received their heritage, given them by Moses on the further, eastern side of the Jordan, the one which Moses, servant of Yahweh, had already given them:

Jos 13:9 The country onwards from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, with the town in the bottom of the valley and the entire tableland from Medeba to Dibon;

Jos 13:10 all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had reigned in Heshbon, to the frontier of the Ammonites;

Jos 13:11 then Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites with the whole Hermon range and the whole of Bashan as far as Salecah;

Jos 13:12 and in Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, and was the last of the survivors of the Rephaim. Moses had conquered and dispossessed these two kings.

Jos 13:13 The Israelites did not, however, dispossess either the Geshurites or the Maacathites, hence Geshur and Maacah survive inside Israel even today.

Jos 13:14 To the tribe of Levi alone no heritage was given; Yahweh, God of Israel, was his heritage, as he had told him.

Jos 13:15 Moses had given the tribe of the sons of Reuben a share by clans.

Jos 13:16 Thus, their territory was the entire tableland from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, with the town in the bottom of the valley, as far as Medeba,

Jos 13:17 Heshbon with all the towns on the tableland: Dibon, Bamoth-Baal, Beth-Baal-Meon,

Jos 13:18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Jos 13:19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah and, in the highlands of the Arabah, Zereth-Shahar;

Jos 13:20 Beth-Peor, the watered foothills of Mount Pisgah, Beth-ha-Jeshimoth,

Jos 13:21 all the towns on the tableland and the entire kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had reigned in Heshbon; he had been defeated by Moses, and with him the princes of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, vassals of Sihon, formerly living in the country.

Jos 13:22 As regards Balaam son of Beor, the soothsayer, the Israelites had put him to the sword with those whom they had killed.

Jos 13:23 The boundary of the Reubenites was the Jordan and its territory. Such was the heritage of the sons of Reuben, by clans, with the towns and villages belonging to them.

Jos 13:24 Moses had given the tribe of Gad, the sons of Gad, a share by clans.

Jos 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, all the towns of Gilead, half the country of the Ammonites as far as Aroer facing Rabbah,

Jos 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramath-Mizpeh and Betonim; from Mahanaim as far as the territory of Lo-Debar,

Jos 13:27 and in the valley: Beth-Haram, Beth-Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon -- the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon -- the Jordan and the territory running to the tip of the Sea of Chinneroth, on the further, eastern side of the Jordan.

Jos 13:28 Such was the heritage of the sons of Gad, by clans, with their towns and villages belonging to them.

Jos 13:29 Moses had given the half-tribe of Manasseh a share by clans.

Jos 13:30 Their territory, starting from Mahanaim, was the whole of Bashan, the entire kingdom of Og king of Bashan, all the Encampments of Jair in Bashan: sixty towns.

Jos 13:31 Half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the royal cities of Og in Bashan, were allotted to the sons of Machir son of Manasseh, to half of the sons of Machir, by clans.

Jos 13:32 This was what Moses had conferred in heritage on the Plains of Moab on the further, eastern side of the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Jos 13:33 To the tribe of Levi, however, Moses gave no heritage; Yahweh, God of Israel, was his heritage, as he had told him.

Jos 14:1 This was what the Israelites received as their heritage in Canaan, which was given them as their heritage by the priest, Eleazar, and by Joshua son of Nun, with the heads of families of the tribes of Israel.

Jos 14:2 They received their heritage by lot, as Yahweh had ordered through Moses, as regards the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

Jos 14:3 For Moses himself had given the two-and-a-half tribes their heritage on the further side of the Jordan, although to the Levites he had given no heritage with them.

Jos 14:4 Since the sons of Joseph formed two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, no share in the country was given to the Levites, apart from some towns to live in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and their possessions.

Jos 14:5 The Israelites did as Yahweh had ordered Moses, and shared out the country.

Jos 14:6 Some sons of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, 'You know what Yahweh said to Moses, man of God, at Kadesh-Barnea concerning you and me.'

Jos 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses, servant of Yahweh, sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to reconnoitre this country, and I made him a completely honest report.

Jos 14:8 The brothers, however, who had gone up with me discouraged the people, whereas I myself scrupulously obeyed Yahweh my God.

Jos 14:9 That day Moses swore this oath, "Be sure of this, that the country your foot has trodden will be a heritage for you and your children for ever, since you have scrupulously obeyed Yahweh my God."

Jos 14:10 From then till now, Yahweh has kept me alive in observance of his promise. It is forty-five years since Yahweh said this to Moses -- Israel was then going through the desert -- and now I am eighty-five years old.

Jos 14:11 Today I am still as strong as the day when Moses sent me out on that errand; for fighting, for going and coming, I am as strong now as then.

Jos 14:12 It is time you gave me the highlands, of which Yahweh spoke to me that day. You heard that day that there were Anakim and large, fortified towns there; but if Yahweh is with me, I shall drive them out, as Yahweh has said.'

Jos 14:13 Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as heritage.

Jos 14:14 And hence Hebron down to the present day has remained the heritage of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, since he had scrupulously obeyed Yahweh, God of Israel.

Jos 14:15 Hebron in olden days was called Kiriath-Arba. Arba had been the greatest of the Anakim. And the country had rest from warfare.

Jos 15:1 The portion falling to the tribe of the sons of Judah, by clans, was near the frontier of Edom, from the desert of Zin southwards to Kadesh in the south.

Jos 15:2 Their southern frontier began at the tip of the Salt Sea, at the southerly bay;

Jos 15:3 it proceeded south of the Ascent of Scorpions, crossed Zin and came up to Kadesh-Barnea from the south; past Hezron, it went on to Addar and turned towards Karka;

Jos 15:4 the frontier then went on to Azmon, came out at the Torrent of Egypt and reached as far as the sea. This is to be your southern frontier.

Jos 15:5 The eastern frontier was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan.

Jos 15:6 The northern boundary began at the bay at the mouth of the Jordan. The boundary went up to Beth-Hoglah, passed north of Beth-ha-Arabah and went on to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jos 15:7 The boundary then went on to Debir from the Vale of Achor and turned north towards the stone circle opposite the Ascent of Adummim, which is south of the Torrent; the boundary went on to the Waters of En-Shemesh and came out at En-Rogel.

Jos 15:8 It then went back up the Valley of Hinnom, coming from the south to the flank of the Jebusite -- that is, Jerusalem -- and climbed to the crest of the mountain barring the Valley of Hinnom to the west, at the northern end of the Valley of the Rephaim.

Jos 15:9 From the mountain top, the boundary curved round to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, went on to the towns of Mount Ephron and then turned towards Baalah -- that is, Kiriath-Jearim.

Jos 15:10 From Baalah, the boundary curved westwards to the highlands of Seir, skirted the northern slope of Mount Jearim -- that is, Chesalon -- went down to Beth-Shemesh and through Timnah,

Jos 15:11 came out on the northern flank of Ekron, turned towards Shikkeron and, passing through the highlands of Baalah, came out at Jabneel, and reached as far as the sea.

Jos 15:12 The western boundary was the Great Sea itself. Such was the frontier surrounding the sons of Judah, by clans.

Jos 15:13 Caleb son of Jephunneh was given a share within that of the sons of Judah, in accordance with Yahweh's order to Joshua: Kiriath-Arba, the town of the father of Anak -- that is, Hebron.

Jos 15:14 Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmi, descended from Anak.

Jos 15:15 From there he marched on the inhabitants of Debir; Debir in olden days was called Kiriath-Sepher.

Jos 15:16 Caleb then said, 'To the man who attacks and takes Kiriath-Sepher, I shall give my daughter Achsah as wife.'

Jos 15:17 The man who captured it was Othniel son of Kenaz, brother of Caleb, who gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

Jos 15:18 When she arrived, he urged her to ask her father for arable land, but when she alighted from the donkey and Caleb asked her, 'What is the matter?'

Jos 15:19 she said to him, 'Grant me a blessing! As the land you have given me is the Negeb, give me springs of water too!' So Caleb gave her what she wanted, the upper springs and the lower springs.

Jos 15:20 Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Judah, by clans.

Jos 15:21 Towns at the extremity of the tribe of the sons of Judah, near the frontier of Edom in the Negeb:
Kabzeel, Arad, Jagur,

Jos 15:22 Kinah, Dimon, Aroer,

Jos 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor-Ithnan,

Jos 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Jos 15:25 Hazor-Hadattah, Kiriath-Hezron -- that is, Hazor-

Jos 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Jos 15:27 Hazar-Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-Pelet,

Jos 15:28 Hazar-Shual, Beersheba and its dependencies,

Jos 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Jos 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Jos 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Jos 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain and Rimmon: in all, twenty-nine towns with their villages.

Jos 15:33 In the lowlands: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
Jos 15:34 Zanoah, En-Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
Jos 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
Jos 15:36 Shaaraim, Aditaim, Ha-Gederah and Gederothaim: fourteen towns with their villages.
Jos 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-Gad,
Jos 15:38 Dilean, Ha-Mizpeh, Jokteel,
Jos 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
Jos 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Chitlish,
Jos 15:41 Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, Naamah and Makkedah: sixteen towns with their villages.
Jos 15:42 Libna, Ether, Asham,
Jos 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
Jos 15:44 Keilah, Achzib and Mareshah: nine towns with their villages.
Jos 15:45 Ekron with its dependencies and its villages.
Jos 15:46 From Ekron to the sea, everything to the side of Ashdod, with its villages.
Jos 15:47 Ashdod with its dependencies and its villages; Gaza with its dependencies and its villages as far as the Torrent of Egypt, the Great Sea forming the boundary.
Jos 15:48 In the highlands: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,
Jos 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath-Sepher, now Debir,
Jos 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
Jos 15:51 Goshen, Holon and Giloh: eleven towns with their villages.
Jos 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
Jos 15:53 Janum, Beth-Tappuah, Aphekah,
Jos 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath-Arba, now Hebron, and Zior: nine towns with their villages.
Jos 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
Jos 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
Jos 15:57 Ha-Kain, Gibeah and Timnah: ten towns with their villages.
Jos 15:58 Halhul, Beth-Zur, Gedor,
Jos 15:59 Maarath, Beth-Anoth and Eltekon: six towns with their villages. Tekoa, Ephrathah, now Bethlehem, Peor, Etam, Kulon, Tatum, Sores, Carem, Gallim, Bether and Manach: eleven towns with their villages.
Jos 15:60 Kiriath-Baal, that is Kiriath-Jearim, and Rabbah: two towns with their villages.
Jos 15:61 In the desert: Beth-Arabah, Middin, Secacah,
Jos 15:62 Nibshan, Salt Town and En-Gedi: six towns with their villages.
Jos 15:63 The Jebusites, however, who lived in Jerusalem, the sons of Judah were unable to dispossess, and the Jebusites still live in Jerusalem today, side by side with the sons of Judah.
Jos 16:1 The portion of the sons of Joseph started on the east at the Jordan opposite Jericho (the Waters of Jericho) through the desert rising from Jericho into the highlands of Bethel;
Jos 16:2 from Bethel it went to Luz, and on towards the frontier of the Archites at Ataroth;
Jos 16:3 then passed downwards and westwards to the frontier of the Japhletites as far as the border of Lower Beth-Horon and on to Gezer, and reached as far as the sea.
Jos 16:4 Such was the heritage of the sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim.
Jos 16:5 As regards the territory of the sons of Ephraim, by clans, the frontier of their heritage ran from Ataroth-Arach to Upper Beth-Horon;
Jos 16:6 the frontier then reached as far as the sea . . . the Michmethath in the north, and the frontier turned east to Tanaath-Shiloh which it crossed in an easterly direction to Janoah;
Jos 16:7 it ran down to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho and ended at the Jordan.
Jos 16:8 From Tappuah, the frontier ran westwards to the Torrent of Kanah and reached as far as the sea. Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, by clans,
Jos 16:9 apart from the towns reserved for the sons of Ephraim inside the heritage of the sons of Manasseh, all these towns and their villages.
Jos 16:10 The Canaanites living in Gezer were not driven out; they have remained in Ephraim to the present day but are obliged to do forced labour.
Jos 17:1 The portion of the tribe of Manasseh, who was in fact Joseph's first-born -- went to Machir, Manasseh's first-born, father of Gilead, for he was a warrior; he had Gilead and Bashan.
Jos 17:2 The other sons of Manasseh had theirs, by clans: for the sons of Abiezer, for the sons of Helek, for the sons of Asriel, for the sons of Shechem, for the sons of Hepher, and for the sons of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh son of Joseph, by clans.
Jos 17:3 Zelophehad son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters, whose names were these: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.
Jos 17:4 These approached the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun and the leaders, and said, 'Yahweh ordered

Moses to give us a heritage among our brothers.' In compliance with Yahweh's order, therefore, they were given a heritage among their father's brothers.

Jos 17:5 In this way ten portions fell to Manasseh, apart from Gilead and Bashan lying on the further side of the Jordan,

Jos 17:6 since Manasseh's daughters received a heritage as well as his sons. Gilead itself belonged to Manasseh's other sons.

Jos 17:7 On the side of Asher, the frontier of Manasseh was the Michmethath, which is opposite Shechem, and thence continued to the right to Jashib, which is at the spring of Tappuah.

Jos 17:8 The territory of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on Manasseh's border belonged to the sons of Ephraim.

Jos 17:9 The boundary went down to the Torrent of Kanah; south of the Torrent were the towns of Ephraim, excluding those owned by Ephraim among the towns of Manasseh; the boundary of Manasseh was north of the Torrent and reached as far as the sea.

Jos 17:10 The south belonged to Ephraim and the north to Manasseh and reached as far as the sea; they touched Asher to the north and Issachar to the east.

Jos 17:11 With Issachar and Asher, Manasseh shared Beth-Shean and its dependent towns, Ibleam and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Dor and of its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and Megiddo and of their dependent towns: the Three of the Slopes.

Jos 17:12 But because the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of these towns, the Canaanites managed to live on in that territory.

Jos 17:13 When, however, the Israelites became stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour, though they never dispossessed them.

Jos 17:14 The sons of Joseph spoke as follows to Joshua, 'Why have you given me only one share, only one portion, as heritage, when I am a numerous people, since Yahweh has so blessed me?'

Jos 17:15 Joshua replied, 'If your people are so many, go up to the wooded area and clear space for yourselves in the area belonging to the Perizzites and Rephaim, since the highlands of Ephraim are too small for you.'

Jos 17:16 The sons of Joseph replied, 'The highlands are not enough for us, and what is more, all the Canaanites living on the land of the plain have iron chariots, so do those in Beth-Shean and its dependent towns, and those in the plain of Jezreel.'

Jos 17:17 Joshua said to the House of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, 'You are a numerous people and your strength is great; you will not only have one share,

Jos 17:18 but a mountain will be yours as well; even if it is a forest, you can clear it and its territories will be yours. And you will dispossess the Canaanites, although they have iron chariots and although they are strong.'

Jos 18:1 The whole community of the Israelites assembled at Shiloh, and the Tent of Meeting was set up there; the whole country had been subdued for them.

Jos 18:2 But among the Israelites there were still seven tribes left who had not received their heritage.

Jos 18:3 Joshua then said to the Israelites, 'How much more time are you going to waste before you go and take possession of the country which Yahweh, God of your ancestors, has given to you?

Jos 18:4 Choose three men from each tribe for me to send all over the country so that they can make a survey with a view to their inheritances and then come back to me.

Jos 18:5 They will divide the country into seven portions. Judah will remain in his territory in the south, and those of the House of Joseph will remain in their territory in the north.

Jos 18:6 You must survey the country in seven sections and bring your findings to me here, so that I can cast lots for you here, in the presence of Yahweh our God.

Jos 18:7 The Levites, however, will have no portion with the rest of you; the priesthood of Yahweh will be their heritage. As regards Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh, they have received their heritage on the further, eastern side of the Jordan, the one given them by Moses, servant of Yahweh.'

Jos 18:8 The men stood up and set off. To those who were to survey the country Joshua gave this order, 'Start out, then, go all over the country, survey it, and then come back to me; and I shall cast lots for you here, in the presence of Yahweh, at Shiloh.'

Jos 18:9 The men left, went all over the country and surveyed it by towns, in seven sections, writing down their findings in a book, and then went back to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Jos 18:10 Joshua cast lots for them in Yahweh's presence at Shiloh, and there Joshua divided the country between the Israelites, share by share.

Jos 18:11 A portion fell first to the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, by clans: the territory of their portion lay between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.

Jos 18:12 Their northern frontier began at the Jordan, went up the flank of Jericho to the north, climbed westwards through the highlands and came out at the desert of Beth-Aven.

Jos 18:13 Thence, the frontier went on to Luz, on the southern flank of Luz -- now Bethel-and then down to Ataroth-Arach, on the mountain south of Lower Beth-Horon.

Jos 18:14 At this westerly point, the frontier curved round and turned south, from the mountain facing Beth-Horon from the south and came out at Kiriath-Baal, now Kiriath-Jearim, a town of the sons of Judah. That was the western side.

Jos 18:15 This was the south side: from the tip of Kiriath-Jearim, the frontier went to Gasin and came out near the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah,

Jos 18:16 it then went down to the edge of the mountain facing the Valley of Hinnom, in the Valley of the Rephaim to the north; it then went down into the Valley of Hinnom, past the southerly flank of the Jebusite, and went down to En-Rogel.

Jos 18:17 It then curved northwards, coming out at En-Shemesh, and came out at the stone circle opposite the Ascent of Adummim, then went down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Jos 18:18 It then went on to Cheteph on the flank of Beth-ha-Arabah northwards, and went down into the Arabah;

Jos 18:19 the frontier then passed round the northern flank of Beth-Hoglah, and the frontier came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. Such was the southern frontier.

Jos 18:20 The Jordan itself formed the frontier on the east. Such was the heritage of the sons of Benjamin as defined by their frontier, by clans.

Jos 18:21 The towns of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, by clans, were:

Jos 18:22 Jericho, Beth-Hoglah, Emek-Keziz;

Jos 18:23 Beth-Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel; Avvim, Parah, Ophrah;

Jos 18:24 Chephar-Ammoni, Ophni, Geba: twelve towns and their villages.

Jos 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth;

Jos 18:26 Mizpeh, Cepheirah, Mozah;

Jos 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah;

Jos 18:28 Zela-ha-Eleph, the Jebusite -- that is, Jerusalem -- Gibeah and Kiriath: fourteen towns with their villages. Such was the heritage of the sons of Benjamin, by clans.

Jos 19:1 The second lot to come out was for Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon, by clans; their heritage was within the heritage of the sons of Judah.

Jos 19:2 As heritage, they received:

Jos 19:3 Beersheba, Shema, Moladah,

Jos 19:4 Hazar-Shual, Balah, Ezem, Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Jos 19:5 Ziklag, Beth-ha-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susa,

Jos 19:6 Beth-Lebaoth and Sharuhen: thirteen towns and their villages.

Jos 19:7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan: four towns and their villages,

Jos 19:8 with all the villages situated near these towns as far as Baalath-Beer and Ramah of the Negeb. Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, by clans.

Jos 19:9 The heritage of the sons of Simeon was taken out of the portion of the sons of Judah, because the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them; hence, the sons of Simeon received their heritage within the heritage of the sons of Judah.

Jos 19:10 The third lot fell to the sons of Zebulun, by clans; the territory of their heritage stretched as far as Sadud;

Jos 19:11 their frontier climbed westwards to Maraalah, touching Dabbesheth and the torrent facing Jokneam.

Jos 19:12 From Sadud, the frontier turned east, towards the rising sun, as far as the frontier of Chisloth-Tabor; it came out at Dobrath and went up to Japhia.

Jos 19:13 Thence, it went east, towards the sunrise, to Gath-Hepher and Ittah-Kazin, came out at Rimmon and turned towards Neah.

Jos 19:14 The northern frontier turned towards Hannathon and came to an end in the Valley of Iphtah-El;

Jos 19:15 with Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Iralah and Bethlehem: twelve towns with their villages.

Jos 19:16 Such was the heritage of the sons of Zebulun, by clans: these towns with their villages.

Jos 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, for the sons of Issachar, by clans.

Jos 19:18 Their territory stretched towards Jezreel and included Chesulloth, Shunem,

Jos 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Jos 19:20 Dobrath, Kishion, Ebez,

Jos 19:21 Remeth, En-Gannim, En-Haddah and Beth-Pazzez.

Jos 19:22 Their frontier touched Tabor, Shahazimah and Beth-Shemesh, and the frontier came to an end at the Jordan: sixteen towns with their villages.

Jos 19:23 Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, by clans: the towns and their villages.

Jos 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher, by clans.

Jos 19:25 Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, Jos 19:26 Alammelech, Amad and Mishal.

Jos 19:27 On the west, it touched Carmel and the course of the Libnath. On the side of the rising sun, it went as far as Beth-Dagon, touched Zebulun, the Valley of Iphtah-El on the north side, Beth-ha-Emek and Neiel, coming out with Cabul on the left,

Jos 19:28 with Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah as far as Sidon the Great. The frontier then turned towards Ramah, as far as the fortress-town of Tyre;

Jos 19:29 the frontier then went to Hosah and reached as far as the sea at Mahalab and Achzib,

Jos 19:30 with Acco, Aphek and Rehob: twenty-two towns with their villages.

Jos 19:31 Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Asher, by clans; these towns and their villages.

Jos 19:32 To the sons of Naphtali fell the sixth portion, to the sons of Naphtali, by clans.

Jos 19:33 Their frontier went from Heleph and the Oak of Zanaannim, with Adami-ha-Negeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and ended at the Jordan.

Jos 19:34 The westward boundary ran to Aznoth-Tabor and thence came out at Hukkok, marching with Zebulun in the south, Asher in the west and the Jordan in the east.

Jos 19:35 The fortified towns were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

Jos 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Jos 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En-Hazor,

Jos 19:38 Jiron, Migdal-El, Horem, Beth-Anath and Beth-Shemesh: nineteen towns and their villages.

Jos 19:39 Such was the heritage of the sons of Naphtali, by clans: the towns and their villages.

Jos 19:40 To the tribe of the sons of Dan, by clans, fell the seventh portion.

Jos 19:41 The territory of their heritage comprised: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-Shemesh,

Jos 19:42 Shaalbim, Aijalon, Silatha,

Jos 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Jos 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon,

Jos 19:45 Baalath, Azor, Bene-Berak and Gath-Rimmon;

Jos 19:46 and, by the sea, Jerakon with the territory facing Jaffa.

Jos 19:47 The territory of the sons of Dan eluded them, however, and the sons of Dan consequently went up and attacked Leshem, captured it and put it to the sword. Having gained possession of it, they settled there and called Leshem, Dan, after Dan their ancestor.

Jos 19:48 Such was the heritage of the tribe of the sons of Dan, by clans: these towns and their villages.

Jos 19:49 Having finished dividing the country, frontier by frontier, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun a heritage among themselves;

Jos 19:50 at Yahweh's command, they gave him the town which he had asked for, Timnath-Serah in the highlands of Ephraim; he rebuilt the town and settled there.

Jos 19:51 Such are the heritages which the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of each family apportioned by lot between the tribes of Israel at Shiloh, in Yahweh's presence, at the door of the Tent of Meeting; and thus the apportioning of the country was completed.

Jos 20:1 Yahweh said to Joshua,

Jos 20:2 'Speak to the Israelites and say to them, "Choose yourselves the cities of refuge of which I spoke to you through Moses,

Jos 20:3 to which anyone who has accidentally (unintentionally) killed someone else may flee, and which will serve you as refuge from the avenger of blood.

Jos 20:4 (The killer must flee to one of these towns. He will stop at the entrance to the town gate and explain his case to the town elders. These will admit him to their town and assign him a place to live among them.

Jos 20:5 If the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not hand the killer over to him, since he has killed his fellow unintentionally and was not motivated by long-standing hatred for him.

Jos 20:6 He must stay in this town) until he is brought to trial before the community (until the death of the high priest then in office. Only then may the killer go back to his own town and to his own house in the town from which he has fled)."

Jos 20:7 For this purpose they designated Kedesh in Galilee, in the highlands of Naphtali, Shechem in the highlands of Ephraim, and Kiriath-Arba -- now Hebron -- in the highlands of Judah.

Jos 20:8 On the other, eastern, side of the Jordan opposite Jericho, in the desert of the tableland, they chose Bezer of the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan of the tribe of Manasseh.

Jos 20:9 Such were the towns designated for all the Israelites and for foreigners living among them, so that anyone who had accidentally killed someone could flee there and might escape the hand of the avenger of blood, until brought to trial before the community.

Jos 21:1 The heads of families of the Levites then came to the priest, Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of families of the tribes of Israel-

Jos 21:2 they were then at Shiloh in Canaan. They said to them, 'Through Moses, Yahweh ordered us to be given towns to live in, with their pasture lands for our livestock.'

Jos 21:3 In compliance with Yahweh's order, the Israelites consequently and from their own heritage gave the Levites the following towns with their pasture lands:

Jos 21:4 Lots were cast for the clans of the Kohathites: to those Levites who were sons of Aaron the priest, fell thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin;

Jos 21:5 to the other sons of Kohath, by clans,

Jos 21:6 fell ten towns from the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. To the sons of Gershon, by clans, fell thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Jos 21:7 To the sons of Merari, by clans, fell twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

Jos 21:8 The Israelites assigned these towns and their pasture lands to the Levites by lot, as Yahweh had ordered through Moses.

Jos 21:9 From the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon, they gave the towns named below.

Jos 21:10 The first portion was for the sons of Aaron, belonging to the clans of the Kohathites, to the sons of Levi, since the first lot was theirs.

Jos 21:11 They gave them Kiriath-Arba, Anak's father's town -- now Hebron -- in the highlands of Judah, with its surrounding pasture lands.

Jos 21:12 The fields and villages of this town, however, they gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his property.

Jos 21:13 To the sons of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, as well as Libnah with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:14 Jattir with its pasture lands, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:15 Holon with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:16 Ashan with its pasture lands, Juttah with its pasture lands, and Beth-Shemesh with its pasture lands: nine towns taken from these two tribes;

Jos 21:17 and, from the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:18 Anathoth with its pasture lands and Almon with its pasture lands: four towns.

Jos 21:19 Total number of towns for the priests, the sons of Aaron: thirteen towns with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:20 As regards the clans of the sons of Kohath, those Levites still left of the sons of Kohath, the towns of their lot were taken from the tribe of Ephraim.

Jos 21:21 They were given Shechem, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, in the highlands of Ephraim, as well as Gezer with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:22 Kibzaim with its pasture lands, and Beth-Horon with its pasture lands: four towns;

Jos 21:23 from the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:24 Aijalon with its pasture lands and Gath-Rimmon with its pasture lands: four towns;

Jos 21:25 and, from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its pasture lands and Jibleam with its pasture lands: two towns.

Jos 21:26 In all: ten towns with their pasture lands for the remaining clans of the sons of Kohath.

Jos 21:27 To the sons of Gershon, of the levitical clans, were given: from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, and Ashtaroth with its pasture lands -- two towns;

Jos 21:28 from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its pasture lands, Dabrath with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:29 Jarmuth with its pasture lands and En-Gannim with its pasture lands -- four towns;

Jos 21:30 from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:31 Helkath with its pasture lands and Rehob with its pasture lands -- four towns;

Jos 21:32 and, from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, Hammoth-Dor with its pasture lands and Kartan with its pasture lands -- three towns.

Jos 21:33 Total number of towns of the Gershonites, by clans: thirteen towns with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:34 To the clans of the sons of Merari, the remainder of the Levites, fell: from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:35 Rimmon with its pasture lands and Nahalal with its pasture lands -- four towns;

Jos 21:36 on the other side of the Jordan opposite Jericho, from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the desert, on the tableland, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, Jahaz with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands -- four towns;

Jos 21:38 and, from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead, a city of refuge for those who had killed, with its pasture lands, Mahanaim with its pasture lands,

Jos 21:39 Heshbon with its pasture lands and Jazer with its pasture lands -- four towns.

Jos 21:40 Total number of towns forming the lot of the sons of Merari by clans, of the remaining levitical clans: twelve towns.

Jos 21:41 The total number of towns for the Levites in Israelite territory was forty-eight towns with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:42 These towns consisted in each case of the town itself and the pasture land round it. This was the case with all the towns.

Jos 21:43 This was how Yahweh gave the Israelites the entire country which he had sworn to give to their ancestors. They took possession of it and settled in it.

Jos 21:44 Yahweh granted them tranquillity on all their frontiers just as he had sworn to their ancestors and, of all their enemies, not one succeeded in resisting them. Yahweh put all their enemies at their mercy.

Jos 21:45 Of all the promises that Yahweh had made to the House of Israel, not one failed; all were fulfilled.

Jos 22:1 Joshua then summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh

Jos 22:2 and said to them, 'You have observed everything that Moses, servant of Yahweh, ordered you, and whenever I have given you an order you have listened to me.'

Jos 22:3 You have not deserted your brothers, from long ago until today, keeping the observance of the commandment of Yahweh your God.

Jos 22:4 Now that Yahweh your God has granted your brothers the rest that he promised them, go back to your tents, to the country belonging to you which Moses, servant of Yahweh, gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Jos 22:5 But take great care to practise the commandments and the Law which Moses, servant of Yahweh, has given you: to love Yahweh your God, always to follow his paths, to keep his commandments, to be loyal to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.'

Jos 22:6 Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went home to their tents.

Jos 22:7 To one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given a territory in Bashan; to the other half, Joshua gave another among their brothers on the west bank of the Jordan. As Joshua sent them home to their tents, he blessed them

Jos 22:8 and said to them, 'You are going back to your tents with great wealth, with a great deal of livestock, with silver and gold, bronze and iron and great quantities of clothing; share the spoils of your enemies with your brothers.'

Jos 22:9 The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, leaving the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan, and made for Gilead, the territory which belonged to them as a result of Yahweh's order given through Moses.

Jos 22:10 When they came to the stone circle by the Jordan, in Canaanite territory, the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there beside the Jordan, a large, imposing altar.

Jos 22:11 This came to the ears of the Israelites. 'Look,' the word went round, 'the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built this altar on the Canaanite side, near the stone circle by the Jordan, on the Israelites' bank.'

Jos 22:12 At this news, the whole community of the Israelites mustered at Shiloh, to march against them and make war on them.

Jos 22:13 The Israelites sent the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in Gilead,

Jos 22:14 and with him ten leading men, one man from a leading family from each of the tribes of Israel, each of them being head of his family in the clans of Israel.

Jos 22:15 Having reached the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, they said this:

Jos 22:16 'The whole community of Israel says as follows, "What do you mean by this infidelity, which you have committed against the God of Israel by now repudiating your allegiance to Yahweh, and by building yourselves an altar with the intention now of rebelling against Yahweh?"'

Jos 22:17 "Was the crime which we committed at Peor so slight -- although we have not managed to purify ourselves from that even now, in spite of the plague which has ravaged the community of Yahweh-

Jos 22:18 that you must now repudiate your allegiance to Yahweh? For since you are in rebellion against him today, tomorrow his anger will be aroused against the whole community of Israel.

Jos 22:19 "Is the country in which you have settled unclean? Then cross over into the country where Yahweh has settled, there where Yahweh's Dwelling now stands, and settle among us. But do not rebel against Yahweh or involve us in your rebellion by building a rival altar to the altar of Yahweh our God."

Jos 22:20 When Achan son of Zerah was unfaithful to the curse of destruction, did not the retribution come down on the whole community of Israel, although he was only one man? Did he not have to die for his crime?"'

Jos 22:21 The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh spoke in their turn and answered the heads of the clans of Israel:

Jos 22:22 'The God of gods, Yahweh, the God of gods, Yahweh well knows, and let Israel know it too: if there has been rebellion or infidelity to Yahweh on our part, may he refuse to save us today!'

Jos 22:23 And if we have built ourselves an altar with the intention of repudiating our allegiance to Yahweh and of presenting burnt offering and oblation or of offering communion sacrifices on it, may Yahweh himself call us to account for it!

Jos 22:24 The truth is, we have done this as a precaution: in the future, your descendants might say to ours, "What connection do you have with Yahweh, God of Israel?

Jos 22:25 Has not Yahweh set the frontier of the Jordan between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites? You have no share in Yahweh." Thus, your descendants would be the cause of stopping ours from fearing Yahweh.

Jos 22:26 'So we said to each other, "Let us build this altar, not for burnt offerings or other sacrifices

Jos 22:27 but as a witness between us and you and between our descendants after us, attesting that we too have the right to worship Yahweh, in his presence, with our burnt offerings, our victims and our communion sacrifices. And so, in the future your descendants will not be able to say to ours: You have no share in Yahweh."

Jos 22:28 And we furthermore said, "If ever it were to happen that they did say this either to us or to our descendants in the future, we should reply: Look at this structure, Yahweh's altar, made by our ancestors not for burnt offerings or other sacrifices but as a witness between us and you."

Jos 22:29 Far be it from us to rebel against Yahweh or now to repudiate our allegiance to Yahweh by building an altar for burnt offerings or oblations or sacrifices, in rivalry with the altar of Yahweh our God that stands before his Dwelling!"

Jos 22:30 When the priest Phinehas, the leaders of the community and the heads of the clans of Israel who were with him, heard the words spoken by the Gadites, the Reubenites and the Manassehites, they approved of them.

Jos 22:31 The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar then said to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the Manassehites, 'Today, we can see that Yahweh is among us, since you have not been unfaithful to Yahweh in this matter; this means that you have spared the Israelites from Yahweh's avenging hand.'

Jos 22:32 The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar and the leaders left the Reubenites and the Gadites and went back from Gilead to Canaan and the Israelites, to whom they reported the answer.

Jos 22:33 The Israelites were pleased to hear this; the Israelites gave thanks to God and spoke no more of marching against them to make war on them and to ravage the country inhabited by the Reubenites and the Gadites.

Jos 22:34 The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar . . . , 'Because', they said, 'it will be a witness between us that Yahweh is God.'

Jos 23:1 Now long after Yahweh had given Israel rest from all the enemies surrounding them -- Joshua was old now, far advanced in years-

Jos 23:2 Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders, leaders, judges and officials, and said to them, 'I myself am old, far advanced in years;

Jos 23:3 you for your part have witnessed all that Yahweh your God has done to all these nations for your sake; Yahweh your God himself has fought for you.

Jos 23:4 Look, these nations still remaining, and all the nations which I have exterminated from the Jordan all the way to the Great Sea in the west, I have allotted to you as the heritage for your tribes.

Jos 23:5 Yahweh your God will himself drive them out before you; he will dispossess them before you and you will take possession of their country, as Yahweh your God has promised you.

Jos 23:6 'So be very firm about keeping and doing everything written in the Book of the Law of Moses, not swerving from that either to right or to left.

Jos 23:7 Never mix with the peoples who are still left beside you. Do not utter the names of their gods, do not swear by them, do not serve them and do not bow down to them.

Jos 23:8 On the contrary, you must be loyal to Yahweh your God as you have been till now.

Jos 23:9 Yahweh has dispossessed great and powerful nations before you, and no one so far has been able to resist you.

Jos 23:10 One man of you was able to rout a thousand of them, since Yahweh your God was himself fighting for you, as he had promised you.

Jos 23:11 Be very careful, as you value your life, to love Yahweh your God.

Jos 23:12 'But should you in any way relapse, if you make friends with the remnant of these nations still living beside you, if you intermarry with them, if you mix with them and they with you,

Jos 23:13 then know for certain that Yahweh your God will stop dispossessing these nations before you, and for you they will be a snare, a pitfall, thorns in your sides and thistles in your eyes, until you vanish from this fine country given you by Yahweh your God.

Jos 23:14 'Today, you see, I am going the way of all the earth. Acknowledge with all your heart and soul that of all the promises made to you by Yahweh your God, not one has failed: all have been fulfilled -- not one has failed.

Jos 23:15 'As every promise made to you by Yahweh your God has been fulfilled for you, by the same token

Yahweh will fulfil all his threats against you, even to exterminating you from this fine country given you by Yahweh your God.

Jos 23:16 'For if you violate the covenant which Yahweh your God has imposed on you, if you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then Yahweh's anger will be roused against you and you will quickly vanish from the fine country which he has given you.'

Jos 24:1 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; he then summoned all the elders of Israel, its leaders, judges and officials, and they presented themselves in God's presence.

Jos 24:2 Joshua then said to all the people: 'Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this, "From time immemorial, your ancestors, Terah, father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the River, and served other gods.

Jos 24:3 I then brought your ancestor Abraham from beyond the River and led him through the length and breadth of Canaan. I increased his descendants and I gave him Isaac.'

Jos 24:4 To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave possession of the mountainous country of Seir. Jacob and his sons went down into Egypt.

Jos 24:5 I then sent Moses and Aaron, and plagued Egypt with the wonders that I worked there; finally I brought you out.'

Jos 24:6 I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, and you came to the Sea; the Egyptians pursued your ancestors with chariots and horsemen, to the Sea of Reeds.'

Jos 24:7 They then called to Yahweh, and he spread a thick fog between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea go back on them and cover them. You saw with your own eyes what I did in Egypt. Then, for a long while, you lived in the desert.'

Jos 24:8 I then brought you into the country of the Amorites, who used to live on the further side of the Jordan; they made war on you and I put them at your mercy; after which, you took possession of their country, since I destroyed them before you.'

Jos 24:9 Next, Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose to make war on Israel, and sent for Balaam son of Beor to come and curse you.'

Jos 24:10 But I would not listen to Balaam; instead, he had to bless you, and I saved you from his power.'

Jos 24:11 "You then crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho, but the inhabitants of Jericho made war on you: Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Gergashites, Hivites and Jebusites, and I put them all at your mercy.'

Jos 24:12 I sent hornets ahead of you, which drove out the two Amorite kings before you; this was not the work of your sword or of your bow.'

Jos 24:13 And now I have given you a country for which you have not toiled, towns you have not built, although you live in them, vineyards and olive groves you have not planted, although you eat their fruit.'

Jos 24:14 'So now, fear Yahweh and serve him truly and sincerely; banish the gods whom your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve Yahweh.'

Jos 24:15 But if serving Yahweh seems a bad thing to you, today you must make up your minds whom you do mean to serve, whether the gods whom your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now living. As regards my family and me, we shall serve Yahweh.'

Jos 24:16 The people replied, 'Far be it from us to desert Yahweh and to serve other gods!'

Jos 24:17 Yahweh our God was the one who brought us and our ancestors here from Egypt, from the place of slave-labour, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and who kept us safe all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we passed.'

Jos 24:18 And Yahweh has driven all the nations out for us, including the Amorites who used to live in the country. We too shall serve Yahweh, for he is our God.'

Jos 24:19 Joshua then said to the people, 'You will not be able to serve Yahweh, since he is a holy God, he is a jealous God who will not tolerate either your misdeeds or your sins.'

Jos 24:20 If you desert Yahweh and serve the foreigners' gods, he will turn and maltreat you anew and, in spite of having been good to you in the past, will destroy you.'

Jos 24:21 The people replied to Joshua, 'No! Yahweh is the one we mean to serve.'

Jos 24:22 Joshua then said to the people, 'You are witnesses to yourselves that you have chosen Yahweh, to serve him.' They replied, 'Witnesses we are!'

Jos 24:23 'Then banish the foreign gods which you have with you and give your allegiance to Yahweh, God of Israel!'

Jos 24:24 The people replied to Joshua, 'Yahweh our God is the one whom we shall serve; his voice we shall obey!'

Jos 24:25 That day Joshua made a covenant for the people; he laid down a statute and ordinance for them at Shechem.

Jos 24:26 Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. He then took a large stone and set it up there, under the oak tree in Yahweh's sanctuary.

Jos 24:27 Joshua then said to all the people, 'Look, this stone will be a witness to us, since it has heard all the words that Yahweh has spoken to us: it will be a witness against you, in case you should deny your God.'

Jos 24:28 Joshua then dismissed the people, every one to his own heritage.

Jos 24:29 After this, Joshua son of Nun, servant of Yahweh, died; he was a hundred and ten years old.

Jos 24:30 He was buried on the estate which he had received as his heritage, at Timnath-Serah which lies in the highlands of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Jos 24:31 Israel served Yahweh throughout the lifetime of Joshua and throughout the lifetime of those elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the deeds which Yahweh had done for the sake of Israel.

Jos 24:32 As regards the bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought from Egypt, these were buried at Shechem in the plot of ground which Jacob had bought for a hundred pieces of silver from the sons of Hamor father of Shechem, and which had become the heritage of the sons of Joseph.

Jos 24:33 Eleazar son of Aaron then died and was buried at Gibeah, the town of his son Phinehas, which had been given to him in the highlands of Ephraim.

Jdg 1:1 Now after Joshua's death, the Israelites consulted Yahweh, asking, 'Which of us is to march on the Canaanites first, to make war on them?'

Jdg 1:2 And Yahweh replied, 'Judah is to march on them first; I am delivering the country into his hands.'

Jdg 1:3 Judah then said to his brother Simeon, 'March with me into the territory allotted to me; we shall make war on the Canaanites, and then I in my turn shall march into your territory with you.' And Simeon marched with him.

Jdg 1:4 So Judah marched on them, and Yahweh delivered the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands, and they defeated them at Bezek-ten thousand of them!

Jdg 1:5 At Bezek they came upon Adoni-Bezek; they joined battle with him and defeated the Canaanites and Perizzites.

Jdg 1:6 Adoni-Bezek took to flight, but they chased and captured him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Jdg 1:7 Adoni-Bezek said, 'Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up the crumbs under my table. As I did, God does to me.' He was taken to Jerusalem, and there he died.

Jdg 1:8 (The sons of Judah attacked Jerusalem and took it: they put its people to the sword and set fire to the city.)

Jdg 1:9 After this the sons of Judah went down to make war on the Canaanites who were living in the highlands, the Negeb and the lowlands.

Jdg 1:10 Judah next marched on the Canaanites living in Hebron -- the name of Hebron in olden days was Kiriath-Arba -- and beat Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.

Jdg 1:11 From there, he marched on the inhabitants of Debir -- the name of Debir in olden days was Kiriath-Sepher.

Jdg 1:12 Caleb said, 'To the man who conquers and captures Kiriath-Sepher, I shall give my daughter Achsah as wife.'

Jdg 1:13 The man who captured it was Othniel son of Kenaz, younger brother of Caleb, who gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

Jdg 1:14 When she arrived, he urged her to ask her father for arable land, but when she alighted from the donkey and Caleb asked her, 'What is the matter?'

Jdg 1:15 she said to him, 'Grant me a blessing! As the land you have given me is the Negeb, give me springs of water, too!' So Caleb gave her what she wanted: the upper springs and the lower springs.

Jdg 1:16 The sons of Hobab the Kenite, father-in-law of Moses, marched up with the sons of Judah from the City of Palm Trees into the desert of Judah lying in the Negeb of Arad, where they went and settled among the people.

Jdg 1:17 Judah then set out with his brother Simeon. They beat the Canaanites who lived in Zephath and delivered it over to the curse of destruction; hence the town was given the name of Hormah.

Jdg 1:18 Judah then captured Gaza and its territory, Ashkelon and its territory, Ekron and its territory. And Yahweh was with Judah, who made himself master of the highlands;

Jdg 1:19 he could not, however, dispossess the inhabitants of the plain, since they had iron chariots.

Jdg 1:20 As Moses had directed, Hebron was given to Caleb, and he drove the three sons of Anak out of it.

Jdg 1:21 As regards the Jebusites living in Jerusalem, the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess them, and the Jebusites have been living in Jerusalem with the sons of Benjamin ever since.

Jdg 1:22 Similarly, the House of Joseph marched on Bethel, and Yahweh was with them.

Jdg 1:23 The House of Joseph made a reconnaissance of Bethel. (In olden days, the name of the town was Luz.)

Jdg 1:24 The scouts saw a man coming out of the town and said to him, 'Show us how to get into the town and we shall show you faithful love.'

Jdg 1:25 And when he had shown them a way into the town, they put the town to the sword but let the man and his whole clan go.

Jdg 1:26 The man went off to the country of the Hittites and built a town which he called Luz; and that has been its name ever since.

Jdg 1:27 Manasseh did not dispossess Beth-Shean and its dependencies, nor Taanach and its dependencies, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its dependencies, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its dependencies, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its dependencies; in those parts the Canaanites held their ground.

Jdg 1:28 But when the Israelites became stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour, although they did not dispossess them.

Jdg 1:29 Nor did Ephraim dispossess the Canaanites living in Gezer; thus, the Canaanites went on living in Gezer with him.

Jdg 1:30 Zebulun did not dispossess the inhabitants of Kitron or of Nahalol. The Canaanites lived on with Zebulun but were subjected to forced labour.

Jdg 1:31 Asher did not dispossess the inhabitants of Acco, nor those of Sidon, of Mahalab, of Achzib, of Helbah, of Aphek or of Rehob.

Jdg 1:32 So the Asherites lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the country, not having dispossessed them.

Jdg 1:33 Naphtali did not dispossess the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh or of Beth-Anath; they settled among the Canaanite inhabitants of the country, but the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and of Beth-Anath were subjected to forced labour for them.

Jdg 1:34 The Amorites drove the Danites back into the highlands and would not let them come down into the plain.

Jdg 1:35 The Amorites held their ground at Har -- Heres and Shaalbim, but when the hand of the House of Joseph grew heavier, they were subjected to forced labour. (

Jdg 1:36 The territory of the Edomites begins at the Ascent of Scorpions, runs to the Rock and continues on upwards.)

Jdg 2:1 The Angel of Yahweh went up from Gilgal to Bethel and said, 'I have brought you out of Egypt and led you into this country, which I promised on oath to your ancestors. I said, "I shall never break my covenant with you.

Jdg 2:2 You for your part must make no covenant with the inhabitants of this country; you will destroy their altars.' But you have not listened to my voice. What is the reason for this?

Jdg 2:3 Very well, I now say this, "I am not going to drive these nations out before you. They will become your oppressors, and their gods will be a snare for you."

Jdg 2:4 When the angel of Yahweh had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people began to wail at the top of their voices.

Jdg 2:5 And they called the place Bochim, and offered sacrifices to Yahweh there.

Jdg 2:6 Joshua having dismissed the people, the Israelites then went away, each one to his own heritage, to occupy the country.

Jdg 2:7 The people served Yahweh throughout the lifetime of Joshua and throughout the lifetime of those elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the great deeds which Yahweh had done for the sake of Israel.

Jdg 2:8 Joshua son of Nun, servant of Yahweh, was a hundred and ten years old when he died.

Jdg 2:9 He was buried on the estate which he had received as his heritage at Timnath-Heres in the highlands of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Jdg 2:10 And when that whole generation had been gathered to its ancestors, another generation followed it which knew neither Yahweh nor the deeds which he had done for the sake of Israel.

Jdg 2:11 The Israelites then did what is evil in Yahweh's eyes and served the Baals.

Jdg 2:12 They deserted Yahweh, God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of Egypt, and they followed other gods, from those of the surrounding peoples. They bowed down to these; they provoked Yahweh;

Jdg 2:13 they deserted Yahweh to serve Baal and Astartes.

Jdg 2:14 Then Yahweh's anger grew hot against Israel. He handed them over to pillagers who plundered them; he delivered them to the enemies surrounding them, and they were no longer able to resist their enemies.

Jdg 2:15 Whenever they mounted an expedition, Yahweh's hand was there to foil them, as Yahweh had told them and as Yahweh had sworn to them, so that they were in dire distress.

Jdg 2:16 Yahweh then appointed them judges, who rescued them from the hands of their plunderers.

Jdg 2:17 But even to their judges they refused to listen. They prostituted themselves to other gods and bowed down before these. Very quickly they left the path which their ancestors had trodden in obedience to the orders of Yahweh; they did not follow their example.

Jdg 2:18 When Yahweh appointed judges for them, Yahweh was with the judge and rescued them from the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived, since Yahweh relented at their groans under their persecutors and oppressors.

Jdg 2:19 But once the judge was dead, they relapsed into even worse corruption than their ancestors. They followed other gods; they served them and bowed before them and would not give up the practices and stubborn ways of their ancestors at all.

Jdg 2:20 Yahweh's anger then blazed out against Israel, and he said, 'Since this people has broken the covenant which I laid down for their ancestors, since they have not listened to my voice,

Jdg 2:21 in future I shall not drive before them any one of those nations which Joshua left when he died,

Jdg 2:22 in order, by means of them, to put Israel to the test, to see whether or not they would tread the paths of Yahweh as once their ancestors had trodden them.'

Jdg 2:23 Hence, Yahweh allowed these nations to remain; he did not hurry to drive them out, and did not deliver them into the hands of Joshua.

Jdg 3:1 These are the nations which Yahweh allowed to remain, by their means to put all those Israelites to the test who had not experienced any of the Canaanite wars

Jdg 3:2 (this was only to instruct the Israelites' descendants, to teach them the art of war, those at least who had not experienced it previously):

Jdg 3:3 the five chiefs of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hittites who lived in the range of the Lebanon, from the uplands of Baal-Hermon to the Pass of Hamath.

Jdg 3:4 They were used to put Israel to the test and see if they would keep the orders which Yahweh had given their ancestors through Moses.

Jdg 3:5 The Israelites lived among the Canaanites, Hittites and Amorites, the Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites;

Jdg 3:6 they married their daughters, they gave their own sons to their daughters and they served their gods.

Jdg 3:7 The Israelites did what is evil in Yahweh's eyes. They forgot Yahweh their God and served Baals and Asherahs.

Jdg 3:8 Then Yahweh's anger blazed out against Israel: he handed them over to Cushan-Rishathaim king of Edom, and the Israelites were enslaved to Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years.

Jdg 3:9 The Israelites then cried to Yahweh and Yahweh raised for the Israelites a deliverer who rescued them, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

Jdg 3:10 The spirit of Yahweh was on him; he became judge in Israel and set out for war. Yahweh delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Edom into his hands, and he triumphed over Cushan- Rishathaim.

Jdg 3:11 The country then had peace for forty years. Othniel son of Kenaz then died.

Jdg 3:12 Again the Israelites began doing what is evil in Yahweh's eyes, and Yahweh strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, since they were doing what is evil in Yahweh's eyes.

Jdg 3:13 Eglon in conjunction with the sons of Ammon and Amalek marched on Israel, beat them and captured the City of Palm Trees.

Jdg 3:14 The Israelites were enslaved to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

Jdg 3:15 The Israelites then cried to Yahweh, and Yahweh raised a deliverer for them, Ehud son of Gera, a Benjaminite; he was left-handed. The Israelites appointed him to take their tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

Jdg 3:16 Ehud made himself a dagger -- it was double-edged and a foot long -- and strapped it under his clothes on his right thigh.

Jdg 3:17 He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. This Eglon was a very fat man.

Jdg 3:18 Having presented the tribute, Ehud sent away the men who had been carrying it;

Jdg 3:19 but he himself, on reaching the Idols which are near Gilgal, went back and said, 'I have a secret message for you, O king.' The king commanded silence, and all his attendants withdrew.

Jdg 3:20 Ehud went up to him; he was sitting in his private room upstairs, where it was cool. Ehud said to him, 'I have a message from God for you, O king.' The latter immediately rose from his seat.

Jdg 3:21 Then Ehud, reaching with his left hand, drew the dagger he was carrying on his right thigh and thrust it into the king's belly.

Jdg 3:22 The hilt too went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, since Ehud did not pull the dagger out of his belly again.

Jdg 3:23 Ehud went out through the privies, having shut and bolted the doors of the upstairs room behind him.

Jdg 3:24 When he had gone, the servants came back and looked; the doors of the upstairs room were bolted. They thought, 'He is probably covering his feet in the inner part of the cool room.'

Jdg 3:25 They waited until they became embarrassed, but still he did not open the doors of the upstairs room. Eventually, they took the key and opened the door; and there lay their master, dead, on the ground.

Jdg 3:26 Meanwhile, Ehud had got away, passed the Idols and made good his escape to safety in Seirah.

Jdg 3:27 Once there, he sounded the horn in the highlands of Ephraim, and the Israelites came down from the hills with him at their head.

Jdg 3:28 And he said to them, 'Follow me, because Yahweh has delivered your enemy Moab into your hands.' So they followed him, seized the fords of the Jordan against Moab and allowed no one to cross.

Jdg 3:29 On that occasion they beat the Moabites, some ten thousand men, all tough and seasoned fighters, and not one escaped.

Jdg 3:30 That day Moab was humbled under the hand of Israel, and the country had peace for eighty years.

Jdg 3:31 After him came Shamgar son of Anath. He routed six hundred of the Philistines with an ox-goad; he too was a deliverer of Israel.

Jdg 4:1 Once Ehud was dead, the Israelites again began doing what is evil in Yahweh's eyes, Jdg 4:2 and Yahweh handed them over to Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned at Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-Goiim.

Jdg 4:3 The Israelites then cried to Yahweh; for Jabin had nine hundred iron chariots and had cruelly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years.

Jdg 4:4 Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at the time.

Jdg 4:5 She used to sit under Deborah's Palm between Ramah and Bethel in the highlands of Ephraim, and the Israelites would come to her for justice.

Jdg 4:6 She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, 'Has not Yahweh, God of Israel, commanded, "Go! March to Mount Tabor and with you take ten thousand of the sons of Naphtali and the sons of Zebulun."

Jdg 4:7 I shall entice Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, to encounter you at the Torrent of Kishon with his chariots and troops; and I shall put him into your power?" '

Jdg 4:8 Barak replied, 'If you come with me, I shall go; if you will not come, I shall not go, for I do not know how to choose the day when the angel of Yahweh will grant me success.'

Jdg 4:9 'I shall go with you then,' she said, 'but, the way you are going about it, the glory will not be yours; for Yahweh will deliver Sisera into the hands of a woman.' Deborah then stood up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Jdg 4:10 Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men marched behind him, and Deborah went with him.

Jdg 4:11 Heber the Kenite had parted company with the tribe of Kain and with the sons of Hobab, father-in-law of Moses; he had pitched his tent near the Oak of Zaanannim, not far from Kedesh.

Jdg 4:12 Sisera was informed that Barak son of Abinoam had encamped on Mount Tabor.

Jdg 4:13 Sisera summoned all his chariots -- nine hundred iron chariots -- and all the troops he had, from Harosheth-ha-Goiim to the Torrent of Kishon.

Jdg 4:14 Deborah said to Barak, 'Up! For today is the day when Yahweh has put Sisera into your power. Is not Yahweh marching at your head?' And Barak charged down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men behind him.

Jdg 4:15 At Barak's advance, Yahweh struck terror into Sisera, all his chariots and his entire army. Sisera leapt down from his chariot and fled on foot.

Jdg 4:16 Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-ha-Goiim. Sisera's whole army fell by the edge of the sword; not one man was spared.

Jdg 4:17 Sisera meanwhile fled on foot towards the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. For there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the family of Heber the Kenite.

Jdg 4:18 Jael came out to meet Sisera and said to him, 'Stay here, my lord, with me; do not be afraid!' He stayed with her in her tent, and she covered him with a rug.

Jdg 4:19 He said to her, 'Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.' She opened the skin of milk, gave him some to drink and covered him up again.

Jdg 4:20 Then he said to her, 'Stand at the tent door, and if anyone comes and questions you -- if he asks, "Is there a man here?" say, "No." '

Jdg 4:21 But Jael the wife of Heber took a tent-peg and picked up a mallet; she crept up softly to him and drove the peg into his temple right through to the ground. He was lying fast asleep, worn out; and so he died.

Jdg 4:22 And now Barak came up in pursuit of Sisera. Jael went out to meet him and said, 'Come in, and I will show you the man you are looking for.' He went into her tent; and there was Sisera dead, with the tent-peg through his temple.

Jdg 4:23 Thus God that day humbled Jabin king of Canaan before the Israelites.

Jdg 4:24 And the Israelites bore down more and more heavily on that king of Canaan, Jabin, until he was utterly destroyed.

Jdg 5:1 They sang a song that day, Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam, and the words were:

Jdg 5:2 That the warriors in Israel unbound their hair, that the people came forward with a will, bless Yahweh!

Jdg 5:3 Listen, you kings! Give ear, you princes! From me, from me comes a song for Yahweh. I shall glorify Yahweh, God of Israel.

Jdg 5:4 Yahweh, when you set out from Seir, when you marched from the field of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens pelted, the clouds pelted down water.

Jdg 5:5 The mountains melted before Yahweh of Sinai, before Yahweh, God of Israel.

Jdg 5:6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, there were no more caravans; those who went forth on their travels took their way along by-paths.

Jdg 5:7 The villages in Israel were no more, they were no more until you arose, O Deborah, until you arose, mother of Israel!

Jdg 5:8 They were choosing new gods when war was at the gates. Was there one shield, one spear to be found among the forty thousand men in Israel?

Jdg 5:9 My heart is with the leaders of Israel, with the people who came forward with a will! Bless Yahweh!

Jdg 5:10 You who ride white donkeys and sit on saddle-blankets as you ride, and you who go on foot,

Jdg 5:11 sing -- to the sound of the shepherds at the watering places! There they extol Yahweh's blessings, his saving acts for his villages in Israel! (Then Yahweh's people marched down to the gates.)

Jdg 5:12 Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, declaim a song! Take heart, to your feet, Barak, capture your captors, son of Abinoam!

Jdg 5:13 Then Israel marched down to the gates; like champions, Yahweh's people marched down to fight for him!

Jdg 5:14 The princes of Ephraim are in the valley. Behind you, Benjamin is in your ranks. Captains have come down from Machir, those who wield the commander's staff, from Zebulun.

Jdg 5:15 The princes of Issachar are with Deborah; Naphtali, with Barak, in the valley follows in hot pursuit. In the clans of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Jdg 5:16 Why did you stay among the sheepfolds, listening for the whistle, with the flocks? (In the clans of Reuben, there was much searching of heart.)

Jdg 5:17 Gilead stayed on the other side of the Jordan, and why should Dan have stayed aboard ship? Asher remained beside the sea, peacefully living within his ports.

Jdg 5:18 Zebulun is a people who have braved death, Naphtali too, on the high ground of the country.

Jdg 5:19 The kings came and they fought, how they fought, those kings of Canaan, at Taanach, near the Waters of Megiddo, but no booty of silver did they take!

Jdg 5:20 The stars fought from heaven, from their orbits they fought against Sisera.

Jdg 5:21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away, the torrent of old, the torrent of Kishon. -March on, be strong my soul!

Jdg 5:22 The horses' hooves then hammer the ground: galloping, galloping go his steeds.

Jdg 5:23 'Curse Meroz,' said the Angel of Yahweh, 'curse, curse the people living there for not having come to Yahweh's help, to Yahweh's help as warriors!'

Jdg 5:24 Most blessed of women be Jael (the wife of Heber the Kenite); of tent-dwelling women, may she be most blessed!

Jdg 5:25 He asked for water; she gave him milk; she offered him curds in a lordly dish.

Jdg 5:26 She reached her hand out to seize the peg, her right hand to seize the workman's mallet. She hammered Sisera, she crushed his head, she pierced his temple and shattered it.

Jdg 5:27 Between her feet, he crumpled, he fell, he lay; at her feet, he crumpled, he fell. Where he crumpled, there he fell, destroyed.

Jdg 5:28 At the window, she leans and watches, Sisera's mother, through the lattice, 'Why is his chariot so long coming? Why so delayed the hoof-beats from his chariot?'

Jdg 5:29 The wisest of her ladies answers, and she to herself repeats,

Jdg 5:30 'Are they not collecting and sharing out the spoil: a girl, two girls for each warrior; a booty of coloured and embroidered stuff for Sisera, one scarf, two embroidered scarves for me!'

Jdg 5:31 So perish all your enemies, Yahweh! And let those who love you be like the sun when he emerges in all his strength! And the country had peace for forty years.

Jdg 6:1 The Israelites did what is evil in Yahweh's eyes, and for seven years Yahweh handed them over to Midian;

Jdg 6:2 and Midian bore down heavily on Israel. To escape from the Midianites the Israelites used the mountain clefts and the caves and shelters.

Jdg 6:3 Whenever Israel sowed seed the Midianites would march up with Amalek and the sons of the East. They would march on Israel.

Jdg 6:4 They would pitch camp on their territory and destroy the produce of the country as far as Gaza. They left Israel nothing to live on, not a sheep or an ox or a donkey, Jdg 6:5 for they came up as thick as locusts with their cattle and their tents; they and their camels were innumerable, they invaded the country to pillage it.

Jdg 6:6 Thus, Midian brought Israel to great distress, and the Israelites cried to Yahweh.

Jdg 6:7 When the Israelites cried to Yahweh because of Midian,

Jdg 6:8 Yahweh sent a prophet to the Israelites. He said to them, 'This is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says, "It was I who brought you out of Egypt, and led you out of the place of slave-labour.

Jdg 6:9 I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all who oppressed you. I drove them out before you and gave their country to you.'

Jdg 6:10 And I said to you: I am Yahweh your God. You are not to fear the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now living. But you have not listened to my voice." '

Jdg 6:11 The Angel of Yahweh came and sat under the terebinth at Ophrah which belonged to Joash of Abiezer. Gideon his son was threshing wheat inside the wine-press, to keep it hidden from Midian,

Jdg 6:12 and the Angel of Yahweh appeared to him and said, 'Yahweh is with you, valiant warrior!'

Jdg 6:13 Gideon replied, 'Excuse me, my lord, but if Yahweh is with us, why is all this happening to us? And where are all his miracles which our ancestors used to tell us about when they said, "Did not Yahweh bring us out of Egypt?" But now Yahweh has deserted us; he has abandoned us to Midian.'

Jdg 6:14 At this, Yahweh turned to him and said, 'Go in this strength of yours, and you will rescue Israel from the power of Midian. Am I not sending you myself?'

Jdg 6:15 Gideon replied, 'Forgive me, my lord, but how can I deliver Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh and I am the least important of my father's family.'

Jdg 6:16 Yahweh replied, 'I shall be with you and you will crush Midian as though it were one man.'

Jdg 6:17 Gideon said, 'If I have found favour in your sight, give me a sign that you are speaking to me.'

Jdg 6:18 Please do not go away from here until I come back to you, bringing you my offering and laying it before you.' And he replied, 'I shall stay until you come back.'

Jdg 6:19 Gideon went away, he prepared a young goat and from an ephah of flour he made unleavened cakes. He put the meat into a basket and the broth into a pot, then brought it all to him under the terebinth. As he approached, Jdg 6:20 the Angel of Yahweh said to him, 'Take the meat and unleavened cakes, put them on this rock and pour the broth over them.' Gideon did so.

Jdg 6:21 The Angel of Yahweh then stretched out the tip of the staff which he was carrying, and touched the meat and unleavened cakes. Fire sprang from the rock and consumed the meat and unleavened cakes, and the Angel of Yahweh vanished before his eyes.

Jdg 6:22 Gideon then knew that this was the Angel of Yahweh, and he said, 'Alas, my Lord Yahweh! Now I have seen the Angel of Yahweh face to face!'

Jdg 6:23 Yahweh answered, 'Peace be with you; have no fear; you will not die.'

Jdg 6:24 Gideon built an altar there to Yahweh and called it Yahweh-Peace. This altar stands in our own day at Ophrah of Abiezer.

Jdg 6:25 Now that night, Yahweh said to Gideon, 'Take your father's bull, the seven-year-old bull, and pull down the altar to Baal belonging to your father and cut down the sacred pole beside it.'

Jdg 6:26 Then, on top of this strong-point, build a proper altar to Yahweh your God. Then take the bull and burn it as a burnt offering on the wood of the sacred pole which you have cut down.'

Jdg 6:27 Gideon then took ten of his servants and did as Yahweh had ordered him. But, being too frightened of his family and of the townspeople to do it in daylight, he did it at night.

Jdg 6:28 Next morning, when the townspeople got up, they found that the altar to Baal had been destroyed, the sacred pole standing beside it had been cut down and the bull had been sacrificed as a burnt offering on the newly built altar.

Jdg 6:29 'Who has done this?' they asked one another. They searched, made enquiries and declared, 'Gideon son of Joash has done it.'

Jdg 6:30 The townspeople then said to Joash, 'Bring out your son; he must die for having destroyed Baal's altar and cut down the sacred pole which stood beside it.'

Jdg 6:31 To the people all crowding round him, Joash replied, 'Is it your job to plead for Baal? Is it your job to champion his cause? (Anyone who pleads for Baal must be put to death before dawn.) If he is a god, let him plead for himself, now that Gideon has destroyed his altar.'

Jdg 6:32 That day, Gideon was given the name Jerubbaal, because, they said, 'Baal must plead against him, because he has destroyed his altar!'

Jdg 6:33 All Midian and Amalek and the sons of the East joined forces and, having crossed the Jordan, pitched camp in the plain of Jezreel.

Jdg 6:34 And the spirit of Yahweh clothed Gideon around; he sounded the horn and Abiezer rallied behind him.

Jdg 6:35 He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and Manasseh too rallied behind him; he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali, and they marched out to meet him.

Jdg 6:36 Gideon said to God, 'If it is really you delivering Israel by means of me, as you have said,

Jdg 6:37 look, I am going to put a woollen fleece on the threshing-floor; if there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground stays dry, then I shall know that you will deliver Israel by means of me, as you have said.'

Jdg 6:38 And so it happened. Early next morning, Gideon got up, squeezed the fleece and wrung enough dew out of the fleece to fill a cup.

Jdg 6:39 Gideon then said to God, 'Do not be angry with me if I speak just once more. Allow me to make the fleece-test just once more: let the fleece alone be dry and there be dew all over the ground!'

Jdg 6:40 And God did so that night. The fleece alone stayed dry, and there was dew all over the ground.

Jdg 7:1 Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) got up very early, as did all the people who were with him; he pitched camp at En-Harod; the camp of Midian was north of his, under the Hill of Moreh in the valley.

Jdg 7:2 Yahweh then said to Gideon, 'There are too many people with you for me to put Midian into their power; Israel might claim the credit for themselves at my expense: they might say, "My own hand has rescued me."

Jdg 7:3 So now make this proclamation to the people, "Anyone trembling with fear is to go back and watch from Mount Gilboa." Twenty-two thousand of the people went back, and ten thousand remained.

Jdg 7:4 Yahweh said to Gideon, 'There are still too many people. Take them down to the waterside and I shall sort them out for you there. If I say of someone, "He is to go with you," that man is to go with you. And if I say of anyone, "He is not to go with you," that man is not to go.'

Jdg 7:5 So Gideon took the people down to the waterside, and Yahweh said to him, 'All those who lap the water with their tongues, as a dog laps, put these on one side. And all those who kneel down to drink, put these on the other side.'

Jdg 7:6 The number of those who lapped with their hands to their mouth was three hundred; all the rest of the people had knelt to drink.

Jdg 7:7 Yahweh then said to Gideon, 'With the three hundred who lapped the water, I shall rescue you and put Midian into your power. Let the people as a whole disperse to their homes.'

Jdg 7:8 So they took the people's provisions and their horns, and then Gideon sent all the Israelites back to their tents, keeping only the three hundred. The camp of Midian was below his in the valley.

Jdg 7:9 Now it happened, that same night, that Yahweh said to him, 'Get up and go down to the camp. I am putting it into your power.'

Jdg 7:10 If, however, you are nervous about going down, go down to the camp with your servant Purah;

Jdg 7:11 listen to what they are saying, and that will encourage you to go down to the camp.' So, with his servant Purah, he went down to the edge of the outposts of the camp.

Jdg 7:12 Midian, Amalek and all the sons of the East were deployed in the valley as thick as locusts; their camels were as innumerable as the sand on the seashore.

Jdg 7:13 Gideon got there just as a man was telling his comrade a dream; he was saying, 'This was the dream I had: a cake made of barley bread came rolling into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent, struck against it and turned it upside down.'

Jdg 7:14 His comrade replied, 'This can only be the sword of Gideon son of Joash the Israelite. God has put Midian and the whole camp into his power.'

Jdg 7:15 When Gideon heard the dream thus told and interpreted, he bowed in reverence; he then went back to the camp of Israel and said, 'On your feet, for Yahweh has put the camp of Midian into your power!'

Jdg 7:16 Gideon then divided his three hundred men into three groups. To each he gave a horn and an empty pitcher, with a torch inside each pitcher.

Jdg 7:17 He said to them, 'Watch me, and do as I do. When I reach the edge of the camp, whatever I do, you must do also.'

Jdg 7:18 I shall blow my horn, and so will all those who are with me; you too will then blow your horns all round the camp and shout, "For Yahweh and for Gideon!"

Jdg 7:19 Gideon and his hundred companions reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when the new sentries had just been posted; they blew their horns and smashed the pitchers in their hands.

Jdg 7:20 The three groups blew their horns and smashed their pitchers; with their left hands they grasped the torches, with their right hands the horns for blowing them; and they shouted, 'The sword for Yahweh and for Gideon!'

Jdg 7:21 And they stood still, spaced out round the camp. The whole camp was thrown into confusion and the Midianites fled, shouting.

Jdg 7:22 While the three hundred blew their horns, Yahweh made each man turn his sword against his comrade throughout the entire camp. They all fled as far as Beth-ha-Shittah in the direction of Zarethan, as far as the bank of Abel-Meholah opposite Tabbath.

Jdg 7:23 The men of Israel mustered from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh, and pursued Midian.

Jdg 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout the highlands of Ephraim to say, 'Come down to meet Midian, seize the water-points ahead of them as far as Beth-Barah and the Jordan.' All the men of Ephraim mustered and seized the water-points as far as Beth-Barah and the Jordan.

Jdg 7:25 They captured the two Midianite chieftains, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at Oreb's Rock and Zeeb at Zeeb's Winepress. They pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Jdg 8:1 Now the men of Ephraim said to Gideon, 'What do you mean by treating us like this, not summoning us when you went to fight Midian?' And they reproached him bitterly.

Jdg 8:2 He replied, 'What have I achieved, compared with you? Is not the gleaning of Ephraim's grapes better than the vintage of Abiezer?

Jdg 8:3 God delivered Oreb and Zeeb, the chieftains of Midian, into your power. What was I able to do, in comparison with what you have done?' At these words, their anger with him died down.

Jdg 8:4 Gideon reached the Jordan and crossed it, but he and his three hundred companions were exhausted with the pursuit.

Jdg 8:5 So he said to the men of Succoth, 'Please give my followers some loaves of bread, since they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna the kings of Midian.'

Jdg 8:6 The headmen of Succoth replied, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your grasp, that we should give bread to your army?'

Jdg 8:7 'Very well,' retorted Gideon, 'when Yahweh has put Zebah and Zalmunna into my power, I shall tear your flesh off with desert-thorn and thistles.'

Jdg 8:8 From there he went up to Penuel and asked the men of Penuel the same thing; they replied as those of Succoth had done.

Jdg 8:9 And to those of Penuel he made a similar retort, 'When I return victorious, I shall destroy this tower.'

Jdg 8:10 Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all that was left of the entire army of the sons of the East. Of men bearing arms, a hundred and twenty thousand had fallen.

Jdg 8:11 Gideon approached them by the tent-dwellers' route, east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army when it thought itself in safety.

Jdg 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled. He pursued them; he took the two kings of Midian prisoner -- Zebah and Zalmunna -- and the whole army he routed in panic.

Jdg 8:13 After the battle Gideon came back by the Ascent of Heres.

Jdg 8:14 He caught a young man, one of the people of Succoth, and questioned him, and the latter wrote down the names of the headmen and elders of Succoth for him -- seventy-seven men.

Jdg 8:15 Gideon son of Joash then went to the people of Succoth and said, 'Here you see Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me and said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your grasp, that we should give bread to your exhausted troops?"'

Jdg 8:16 He then seized the elders of the town and, taking desert-thorn and thistles, tore the men of Succoth to pieces.

Jdg 8:17 He destroyed the tower of Penuel and slaughtered the townsmen.

Jdg 8:18 He then said to Zebah and Zalmunna, 'The men you killed at Tabor -- what were they like?' They replied, 'They looked like you. Every one of them carried himself like the son of a king.'

Jdg 8:19 Gideon replied, 'They were my brothers, the sons of my own mother; as Yahweh lives, if you had spared their lives I would not kill you.'

Jdg 8:20 To Jether his eldest son he said, 'Stand up and kill them!' But the boy did not draw his sword; he dared not; he was still only a lad.

Jdg 8:21 Zebah and Zalmunna then said, 'Stand up yourself, and strike us down; for as a man is, so is his strength.' Then Gideon stood up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took the crescents from round their camels' necks.

Jdg 8:22 The men of Israel said to Gideon, 'Rule over us, you, your son and your grandson, since you have rescued us from the power of Midian.'

Jdg 8:23 But Gideon replied, 'I will not rule you, neither will my son. Yahweh shall rule you.'

Jdg 8:24 Gideon went on, however, 'Let me make you one request. Each of you give me one ring out of his booty' -- for the vanquished had had gold rings, being Ishmaelites.

Jdg 8:25 'We shall give them gladly,' they replied. So he spread out his cloak, and on it each of them threw a ring from his booty.

Jdg 8:26 The weight of the gold rings which he had asked for amounted to seventeen hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescents and the earrings and purple garments worn by the kings of Midian, and besides the collars round their camels' necks.

Jdg 8:27 From this Gideon made an ephod and set it up in his town, in Ophrah. All Israel, following his example, prostituted themselves to it, and it was a snare for Gideon and his family.

Jdg 8:28 Thus Midian was humbled before the Israelites. He did not raise his head again, and the country had peace for forty years, as long as Gideon lived.

Jdg 8:29 So Jerubbaal son of Joash went to live at home.

Jdg 8:30 Gideon had seventy sons begotten by him, for he had many wives.

Jdg 8:31 His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, to whom he gave the name Abimelech.

Jdg 8:32 Gideon son of Joash died after a happy old age and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, at Ophrah of Abiezer.

Jdg 8:33 After Gideon's death, the people of Israel again began to prostitute themselves to the Baals, taking Baal-Berith for their god.

Jdg 8:34 The Israelites no longer remembered Yahweh their God, who had rescued them from all the enemies round them.

Jdg 8:35 And to the family of Jerubbaal -- Gideon -- they showed no faithful gratitude for all the good which it had done for Israel.

Jdg 9:1 Abimelech son of Jerubbaal confronted his mother's brothers at Shechem and, to them and to the whole clan of his maternal grandfather's family, he said,

Jdg 9:2 'Please put this question to the leading men of Shechem: Which is better for you: to be ruled by seventy people -- all Jerubbaal's sons -- or to be ruled by one? Remember too that I am your own flesh and bone.'

Jdg 9:3 His mother's brothers said all this on his behalf to all the leading men of Shechem, and their feelings swayed them to follow Abimelech, since they argued, 'He is our brother.'

Jdg 9:4 So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and with this Abimelech paid violent adventurers to follow him.

Jdg 9:5 He then went to his father's house at Ophrah and put his brothers, Jerubbaal's seventy sons, to death on one and the same stone. Jotham, however, Jerubbaal's youngest son, escaped by going into hiding.

Jdg 9:6 All the leading men of Shechem and all Beth-Millo then met and proclaimed Abimelech king at the oak of the cultic stone at Shechem.

Jdg 9:7 News of this was brought to Jotham. He went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted at the top of his voice: Hear me, leaders of Shechem, so that God may also hear you!

Jdg 9:8 One day the trees went out to anoint a king to rule them. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king!'

Jdg 9:9 The olive tree replied, 'Must I forgo my oil which gives honour to gods and men, to stand and sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and be our king!'

Jdg 9:11 The fig tree replied, 'Must I forgo my sweetness, forgo my excellent fruit, to go and sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:12 Then the trees said to the vine, 'You come and be our king!'

Jdg 9:13 The vine replied, 'Must I forgo my wine which cheers gods and men, to go and sway over the trees?'

Jdg 9:14 Then the trees all said to the thorn bush, 'You come and be our king!'

Jdg 9:15 And the thorn bush replied to the trees, 'If you are anointing me in good faith to be your king, come and shelter in my shade. But, if not, fire will come out of the thorn bush and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

Jdg 9:16 'Now then, if you have acted in sincerity and good faith in making Abimelech king, if you have dealt honourably with Jerubbaal and his family, and have treated him as his actions deserved,

Jdg 9:17 my father having fought for you, risked his life and rescued you from the power of Midian,

Jdg 9:18 and you today having risen up against my father's family, murdered his sons -- seventy of them on one and the same stone -- and appointed Abimelech, his slave-girl's son, to rule the leading men of Shechem, because he is your brother!-

Jdg 9:19 if, I say, you have acted in sincerity and good faith towards Jerubbaal and his family, then may Abimelech be your joy and may you be his!

Jdg 9:20 If not, may fire come out of Abimelech and devour the leading men of Shechem and Beth-Millo, and fire come out of the leading men of Shechem and Beth-Millo to devour Abimelech!'

Jdg 9:21 Jotham then took to his heels; he fled and made his way to Beer; and there he stayed, to be out of his brother Abimelech's reach.

Jdg 9:22 Abimelech ruled Israel for three years.

Jdg 9:23 God then sent a spirit of discord between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem betrayed Abimelech.

Jdg 9:24 And this was so that the crime committed against Jerubbaal's seventy sons should be avenged, and their blood recoil on their brother Abimelech who had murdered them, and on those leaders of Shechem who had helped him to murder his brothers.

Jdg 9:25 The leaders of Shechem put men to ambush him on the mountain tops, and these robbed anyone travelling their way. Abimelech was told of this.

Jdg 9:26 Gaal son of Obed, with his brothers, happened to pass through Shechem and win the confidence of the leaders of Shechem.

Jdg 9:27 These went out into the countryside to harvest their vineyards; they trod the grapes and made merry and went into the temple of their god. They ate and drank there and cursed Abimelech.

Jdg 9:28 Gaal son of Obed said, 'Who is Abimelech, and what is Shechem, for us to be his slaves? Should not Jerubbaal's son and his lieutenant, Zebul, be serving the men of Hamor, father of Shechem? Why should we be his slaves?

Jdg 9:29 Who will put this people under my command, so that I can expel Abimelech? I should say to him, "Reinforce your army and come out!" '

Jdg 9:30 Zebul the governor of the town was told what Gaal son of Obed had said, and he was furious.

Jdg 9:31 He sent messengers secretly to Abimelech to say, 'Look! Gaal son of Obed has come to Shechem with his brothers, and they are stirring up the town against you.'

Jdg 9:32 So, move under cover of dark, you and the men you have with you, and take up concealed positions in the countryside;

Jdg 9:33 then in the morning at sunrise, break cover and rush on the town. When Gaal and his supporters come out to meet you, treat them as occasion offers.'

Jdg 9:34 So Abimelech set off under cover of dark with all his own supporters and took up concealed positions over against Shechem, in four groups.

Jdg 9:35 As Gaal son of Obed was coming out and pausing at the entrance of the town gate, Abimelech and his supporters rose from their ambush.

Jdg 9:36 Gaal saw these men and said to Zebul, 'Look, there are men coming down from the tops of the mountains!' Zebul answered, 'You mistake the shadow of the mountains for men.'

Jdg 9:37 But Gaal insisted, 'Look, there are men coming down from the Navel of the Earth and another group is coming from the direction of the Diviners' Oak.'

Jdg 9:38 Zebul then said, 'Where are your mouthings now about "Who is Abimelech, for us to be his slaves?"'

Are not these the men you made light of? Sally out, then, and fight him.'

Jdg 9:39 Gaal sallied out at the head of the leaders of Shechem and engaged Abimelech.

Jdg 9:40 Abimelech drove Gaal off, who turned tail, many of his men falling dead before they could reach the gate.

Jdg 9:41 Abimelech then stayed at Aruma, and Zebul expelled Gaal and his brothers and prevented them from living in Shechem.

Jdg 9:42 Next day, when the people went out into the countryside, Abimelech was told of this.

Jdg 9:43 He took his men, divided them into three groups and lay in wait in the fields. When he saw the people leaving the town, he bore down on them and slaughtered them.

Jdg 9:44 While Abimelech and his group rushed forward and took position at the entrance to the town gate, the two other groups fell on everyone in the fields and slaughtered them.

Jdg 9:45 All that day Abimelech attacked the town. He stormed it and slaughtered the people inside, razed the town and sowed it with salt.

Jdg 9:46 On hearing this, all the leading men inside Migdal-Shechem took refuge in the crypt of the temple of El-Berith.

Jdg 9:47 As soon as Abimelech heard that the leading men inside Migdal-Shechem had all gathered there,

Jdg 9:48 he went up Mount Zalmon with all his men. Then taking an axe in his hands, he cut off the branch of a tree, picked it up and put it on his shoulder, and said to the men with him, 'Hurry and do what you have seen me do.'

Jdg 9:49 Each of his men similarly cut off a branch; then, following Abimelech, they piled the branches over the crypt and set it on fire over those who were inside; so that all the people in Migdal-Shechem died too, about a thousand men and women.

Jdg 9:50 Abimelech then marched on Thebez, besieged it and captured it.

Jdg 9:51 In the middle of the town there was a fortified tower in which all the men and women and all the leading men of the town took refuge. They locked the door behind them and climbed up to the roof of the tower.

Jdg 9:52 Abimelech reached the tower and attacked it. As he was approaching the door of the tower to set it on fire, Jdg 9:53 a woman threw down a millstone on his head and cracked his skull.

Jdg 9:54 He instantly called his young armour-bearer and said, 'Draw your sword and kill me, so that it will not be said of me that "A woman killed him".' His armour-bearer ran him through, and he died.

Jdg 9:55 When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they dispersed to their homes.

Jdg 9:56 Thus God made to recoil on Abimelech the evil he had done his father by murdering his seventy brothers,

Jdg 9:57 and all the evil that the men of Shechem had done God made recoil on their heads too. And so the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal came true for them.

Jdg 10:1 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah, son of Dodo, rose to deliver Israel. He belonged to Issachar and lived at Shamir in the mountain country of Ephraim.

Jdg 10:2 He was judge in Israel for twenty-three years; he then died and was buried at Shamir.

Jdg 10:3 After him rose Jair of Gilead, who judged Israel for twenty-two years.

Jdg 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty young donkeys and who owned thirty towns, still known today as the Encampments of Jair, in the territory of Gilead.

Jdg 10:5 Jair then died and was buried at Kamon.

Jdg 10:6 The Israelites again began doing what is evil in Yahweh's eyes. They served Baal and Astarte, and the gods of Aram and Sidon, the gods of Moab and those of the Ammonites and Philistines. They deserted Yahweh and served him no more.

Jdg 10:7 Yahweh's anger then grew hot against Israel and he gave them over into the power of the Philistines and the power of the Ammonites,

Jdg 10:8 who from that year onwards crushed and oppressed the Israelites for eighteen years -- all those Israelites living on the other side of the Jordan in Amorite territory, in Gilead.

Jdg 10:9 Furthermore, the Ammonites would cross the Jordan and also make war on Judah, Benjamin and the House of Ephraim, so that Israel was in distress.

Jdg 10:10 The Israelites then cried to Yahweh and said, 'We have sinned against you, because we have turned from Yahweh our God to serve Baals.'

Jdg 10:11 And Yahweh said to the Israelites, 'When Egyptians and Amorites, Ammonites and Philistines,

Jdg 10:12 when the Sidonians, Amalek and Midian oppressed you and you cried to me, did I not rescue you from their power?

Jdg 10:13 But it is you who have forsaken me and served other gods; and so I shall rescue you no more.

Jdg 10:14 Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen. Let them rescue you in your time of trouble.'

Jdg 10:15 The Israelites replied to Yahweh, 'We have sinned. Treat us as you see fit, but please rescue us today.'

Jdg 10:16 They got rid of their foreign gods and served Yahweh, who could bear Israel's suffering no longer.

Jdg 10:17 The Ammonites gathered and pitched camp in Gilead. The Israelites rallied and pitched camp at Mizpah.

Jdg 10:18 The people, the chieftains of Gilead, then said to one another, 'Who will volunteer to attack the Ammonites? He shall be chief of all who live in Gilead!'

Jdg 11:1 Jephthah the Gileadite was a valiant warrior. He was a prostitute's son. Gilead was Jephthah's father,

Jdg 11:2 but Gilead's wife also bore him sons, and the sons of this wife, when they grew up, drove Jephthah away, saying, 'No share of the paternal heritage for you, since you are a son of another woman.'

Jdg 11:3 Jephthah fled far from his brothers and settled in the territory of Tob. Jephthah enlisted a group of adventurers who used to go raiding with him.

Jdg 11:4 It was some time after this that the Ammonites made war on Israel.

Jdg 11:5 And when the Ammonites had attacked Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah from the territory of Tob.

Jdg 11:6 'Come', they said, 'and be our commander, so that we can fight the Ammonites.'

Jdg 11:7 Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, 'Didn't you hate me and drive me out of my father's house? Why come to me now, when you are in trouble?'

Jdg 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, 'That is why we are turning to you now. Come with us; fight the Ammonites and be our chief, chief of all the people living in Gilead.'

Jdg 11:9 Jephthah then said to the elders of Gilead, 'If you bring me home to fight the Ammonites and Yahweh defeats them for me, I am to be your chief?'

Jdg 11:10 And the elders of Gilead then said to Jephthah, 'Yahweh be witness between us, if we do not do as you have said!'

Jdg 11:11 So Jephthah set off with the elders of Gilead. The people put him at their head as chief and commander; and Jephthah repeated all his conditions at Mizpah in Yahweh's presence.

Jdg 11:12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites to say to him, 'What do you have against us, for you to come and make war on my country?'

Jdg 11:13 The king of the Ammonites replied to Jephthah's messengers, 'The reason is that when Israel came up from Egypt, they seized my country from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; so now restore it to me peacefully.'

Jdg 11:14 Jephthah sent messengers back to the king of the Ammonites

Jdg 11:15 with this answer, 'Jephthah says this, "Israel seized neither the country of Moab nor the country of the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:16 When Israel came out of Egypt, they marched through the desert as far as the Sea of Reeds and, having reached Kadesh,

Jdg 11:17 Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom to say: Please let me pass through your country, but the king of Edom would not listen. They sent similarly to the king of Moab, but he refused, and Israel remained at Kadesh;

Jdg 11:18 later, moving on through the desert and skirting the countries of Edom and Moab until arriving to the east of Moabite territory, the people camped on the other side of the Arnon but did not enter Moabite territory, the Arnon being the Moabite frontier.

Jdg 11:19 Israel then sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, ruling in Heshbon. Israel's message was: Please let me pass through your country to my destination.

Jdg 11:20 But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory; he mustered his whole army; they encamped at Jahaz, and he then joined battle with Israel.

Jdg 11:21 Yahweh, God of Israel, delivered Sihon and his whole army into the power of Israel, who defeated them; as the result of which, Israel took possession of the entire territory of the Amorites living in that region.

Jdg 11:22 Israel took possession of all the Amorite territory from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.

Jdg 11:23 And now that Yahweh, God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites before his people Israel, do you think you can dispossess us?

Jdg 11:24 Will you not keep as your possession whatever Chemosh, your god, has given you? And, just the same, we shall keep as ours whatever Yahweh our God has given us, to inherit from those who were before us!

Jdg 11:25 Are you a better man than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he pick a quarrel with Israel? Did he make war on them?

Jdg 11:26 When Israel settled in Heshbon and its dependencies, and in Aroer and its dependencies, or in any of the towns on the banks of the Arnon (three hundred years ago), why did you not recover them then?

Jdg 11:27 I for my part have done you no harm, but you are wronging me by making war on me. Let Yahweh the Judge give judgement today between the Israelites and the king of the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:28 But the king of the Ammonites took no notice of the message that Jephthah sent him.

Jdg 11:29 The spirit of Yahweh was on Jephthah, who crossed Gilead and Manasseh, crossed by way of Mizpah in Gilead, and from Mizpah in Gilead crossed into Ammonite territory.

Jdg 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to Yahweh, 'If you deliver the Ammonites into my grasp,

Jdg 11:31 the first thing to come out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from fighting the Ammonites shall belong to Yahweh, and I shall sacrifice it as a burnt offering.'

Jdg 11:32 Jephthah crossed into Ammonite territory to attack them, and Yahweh delivered them into his grasp.

Jdg 11:33 He beat them from Aroer to the border of Minnith (twenty towns) and to Abel-Keramim. It was a very severe defeat, and the Ammonites were humbled by the Israelites.

Jdg 11:34 As Jephthah returned to his house at Mizpah, his daughter came out to meet him, dancing to the sound of tambourines. She was his only child; apart from her, he had neither son nor daughter.

Jdg 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and exclaimed, 'Oh my daughter, what misery you have brought upon me! You have joined those who bring misery into my life! I have made a promise before Yahweh which I cannot retract.'

Jdg 11:36 She replied, 'Father, you have made a promise to Yahweh; treat me as the promise that you have made requires, since Yahweh has granted you vengeance on your enemies the Ammonites.'

Jdg 11:37 She then said to her father, 'Grant me this! Let me be free for two months. I shall go and wander in the mountains, and with my companions bewail my virginity.'

Jdg 11:38 He replied, 'Go,' and let her go away for two months. So she went away with her companions and bewailed her virginity in the mountains.

Jdg 11:39 When the two months were over she went back to her father, and he treated her as the vow that he had uttered bound him. She had remained a virgin. And hence, the custom in Israel

Jdg 11:40 for the daughters of Israel to leave home year by year and lament over the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite for four days every year.

Jdg 12:1 The men of Ephraim mobilised; they crossed the Jordan near Zaphon and said to Jephthah, 'Why did you go and make war on the Ammonites without asking us to go with you? We shall burn down your house over your head!'

Jdg 12:2 Jephthah replied, 'My people and I were in serious conflict with the Ammonites. I summoned you, but you did not come to rescue me from them.'

Jdg 12:3 When I saw that no one was coming to rescue me, I took my life in my hands and marched against the Ammonites, and Yahweh handed them over to me. So why advance on me today to make war on me?'

Jdg 12:4 Jephthah then mustered all the men of Gilead and made war on Ephraim, and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim -- since the latter used to say, 'You are only fugitives from Ephraim, you Gileadites in the heart of Ephraim and Manasseh.'

Jdg 12:5 Gilead then cut Ephraim off from the fords of the Jordan, and whenever Ephraimite fugitives said, 'Let me cross,' the men of Gilead would ask, 'Are you an Ephraimite?' If he said, 'No,'

Jdg 12:6 they then said, 'Very well, say Shibolet.' If anyone said, "Sibboleth", because he could not pronounce it, then they would seize him and kill him by the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites fell on this occasion.

Jdg 12:7 Jephthah judged Israel for six years. Jephthah the Gileadite then died and was buried in his town, in Gilead.

Jdg 12:8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem was judge in Israel.

Jdg 12:9 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters in marriage outside his clan and brought in thirty brides from outside for his sons. He was judge in Israel for seven years.

Jdg 12:10 Ibzan then died and was buried in Bethlehem.

Jdg 12:11 After him, Elon of Zebulun was judge in Israel. He was judge in Israel for ten years.

Jdg 12:12 Elon of Zebulun then died and was buried at Aijalon in the territory of Zebulun.

Jdg 12:13 After him, Abdon son of Hillel of Pirathon was judge in Israel.

Jdg 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode seventy young donkeys. He was judge in Israel for eight years.

Jdg 12:15 Abdon son of Hillel of Pirathon then died and was buried at Pirathon in the territory of Ephraim, in the Amalekite highlands.

Jdg 13:1 Again the Israelites began doing what is evil in Yahweh's eyes, and Yahweh delivered them into the power of the Philistines for forty years.

Jdg 13:2 There was a man of Zorah of the tribe of Dan, called Manoah. His wife was barren; she had borne no children.

Jdg 13:3 The Angel of Yahweh appeared to this woman and said to her, 'You are barren and have had no child, but you are going to conceive and give birth to a son.'

Jdg 13:4 From now on, take great care. Drink no wine or fermented liquor, and eat nothing unclean.

Jdg 13:5 For you are going to conceive and give birth to a son. No razor is to touch his head, for the boy is to be God's nazirite from his mother's womb; and he will start rescuing Israel from the power of the Philistines.'

Jdg 13:6 The woman then went and told her husband, 'A man of God has just come to me, who looked like the Angel of God, so majestic was he. I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name.'

Jdg 13:7 But he said to me, "You are going to conceive and will give birth to a son. From now on, drink no wine or fermented liquor, and eat nothing unclean. For the boy is to be God's nazirite from his mother's womb to his dying day."

Jdg 13:8 Manoah then pleaded with Yahweh and said, 'I beg you, Lord, let the man of God that you sent come to us again and instruct us what to do about the child when he is born.'

Jdg 13:9 Yahweh heard Manoah's prayer, and the Angel of Yahweh visited the woman again while she was sitting in a field and when her husband Manoah was not with her.

Jdg 13:10 The woman quickly ran and told her husband, 'Look,' she said, 'the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me again.'

Jdg 13:11 Manoah got up, followed his wife, came to the man and said to him, 'Are you the man who spoke to this woman?' He replied, 'I am.'

Jdg 13:12 Manoah then said, 'When your words come true, what will be the boy's way of life?'

Jdg 13:13 The Angel of Yahweh replied to Manoah, 'From everything that I forbade this woman, let her abstain.

Jdg 13:14 Let her swallow nothing that comes from the vine, let her drink no wine or fermented liquor, let her eat nothing unclean and let her obey all the orders that I have given her.'

Jdg 13:15 Manoah then said to the Angel of Yahweh, 'Allow us to detain you while we prepare a kid for you' -- for Manoah did not know that this was the Angel of Yahweh.

Jdg 13:16 The Angel of Yahweh said to Manoah, 'Even if you did detain me, I should not eat your food; but if you wish to prepare a burnt offering, offer it to Yahweh.'

Jdg 13:17 Manoah then said to the Angel of Yahweh, 'What is your name, so that we may honour you when your words come true?'

Jdg 13:18 The Angel of Yahweh replied, 'Why ask my name? It is a name of wonder.'

Jdg 13:19 Manoah then took the kid and the oblation and offered it on the rock as a burnt offering to Yahweh the Wonderworker. Manoah and his wife looked on.

Jdg 13:20 Now, as the flame rose heavenwards from the altar, the Angel of Yahweh ascended in this flame before the eyes of Manoah and his wife, and they fell face downwards on the ground.

Jdg 13:21 After this, the Angel of Yahweh did not appear any more to Manoah and his wife, but Manoah understood that this had been the Angel of Yahweh.

Jdg 13:22 And Manoah said to his wife, 'We are certain to die, because we have seen God.'

Jdg 13:23 His wife replied, 'If Yahweh had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and oblation from us, he would not have let us see all this and, at the same time, have told us such things.'

Jdg 13:24 The woman gave birth to a son and called him Samson. The child grew, and Yahweh blessed him;

Jdg 13:25 and the spirit of Yahweh began to stir him in the Camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Jdg 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he noticed a woman, a Philistine girl.

Jdg 14:2 He went home again and told his father and mother this. 'At Timnah', he said, 'I noticed a woman, a Philistine girl. So now get her for me, to be my wife.'

Jdg 14:3 His father and mother said to him, 'Is there no woman among your brothers' daughters or in our entire nation, for you to go and take a wife among these uncircumcised Philistines?' But Samson said to his father, 'Get that one for me; she is the one I am fond of.'

Jdg 14:4 His father and mother did not know that all this came from Yahweh, who was seeking grounds for a quarrel with the Philistines, since at this time the Philistines dominated Israel.

Jdg 14:5 Samson went down to Timnah and, as he reached the vineyards of Timnah, he saw a young lion coming roaring towards him.

Jdg 14:6 The spirit of Yahweh seized on him and he tore the lion to pieces with his bare hands as though it were a kid; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

Jdg 14:7 He went down and talked to the woman, and he became fond of her.

Jdg 14:8 Not long after this, Samson went back to marry her. He went out of his way to look at the carcase of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees in the lion's body, and honey.

Jdg 14:9 He took up some honey in his hand and ate it as he went along. On returning to his father and mother, he gave some to them, which they ate too, but he did not tell them that he had taken it from the lion's carcase.

Jdg 14:10 His father then went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, as is the custom for young men.

Jdg 14:11 And when the Philistines saw him, they chose thirty companions to stay with him.

Jdg 14:12 Samson then said to them, 'Let me ask you a riddle. If you can give me the answer during the seven days of feasting, I shall give you thirty pieces of fine linen and thirty festal robes.'

Jdg 14:13 But if you cannot tell me the answer, then you in your turn must give me thirty pieces of fine linen and thirty festal robes.' 'Ask your riddle,' they replied, 'we are listening.'

Jdg 14:14 So he said to them: Out of the eater came what is eaten, and out of the strong came what is sweet. But three days went by and they could not solve the riddle.

Jdg 14:15 On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, 'Cajole your husband into explaining the riddle to us, or we shall burn you and your father's family to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?'

Jdg 14:16 Samson's wife then went to him in tears and said, 'You only hate me, you do not love me. You have asked my fellow countrymen a riddle and told not even me the answer.' He said to her, 'I have not told even my father or mother; why should I tell you?'

Jdg 14:17 She wept on his neck for the seven days that their feasting lasted. She was so persistent that on the seventh day he told her the answer, and she told her fellow-countrymen.

Jdg 14:18 So on the seventh day, before he went into the bedroom, the men of the town said to him: What is sweeter than honey, and what stronger than a lion? He retorted: If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would never have solved my riddle.

Jdg 14:19 Then the spirit of Yahweh seized on him. He went down to Ashkelon, killed thirty men there, took what they wore and gave the festal robes to those who had answered the riddle, then burning with rage returned to his father's house.

Jdg 14:20 Samson's wife was then given to the companion who had acted as his best man.

Jdg 15:1 Not long after this, at the time of the wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife, with a kid; he said, 'I wish to go to my wife in her room.' But her father would not let him enter.

Jdg 15:2 'I felt sure', he said, 'that you had taken a real dislike to her, so I gave her to your companion. But would not her younger sister suit you better? Have her instead.'

Jdg 15:3 But Samson answered them, 'I can get my revenge on the Philistines now only by doing them some damage.'

Jdg 15:4 So Samson went off and caught three hundred foxes, then took torches and, turning the foxes tail to tail, put a torch between each pair of tails.

Jdg 15:5 He lit the torches and set the foxes free in the Philistines' cornfields. In this way he burned both sheaves and standing corn, and the vines and olive trees as well.

Jdg 15:6 The Philistines asked, 'Who has done this?' and received the answer, 'Samson, who married the Timnite's daughter; his father-in-law took the wife back again and gave her to his companion instead.' The Philistines then went and burned the woman and her father's family to death.

Jdg 15:7 Samson said to them, 'If that is how you behave, I swear I will not rest till I have had my revenge on you.'

Jdg 15:8 And he fell on them systematically and caused great havoc. Then he went down to the cave in the Rock of Etham and lived there.

Jdg 15:9 The Philistines came up and encamped in Judah and made a foray against Lehi.

Jdg 15:10 The men of Judah said to them, 'Why are you attacking us?' They replied, 'We have come to seize Samson and to treat him as he has treated us.'

Jdg 15:11 Three thousand men of Judah then went down to the cave of the Rock of Etham and said to him, 'Don't you know that the Philistines have us in their power? Now what have you done to us?' He replied, 'I have treated them only as they treated me.'

Jdg 15:12 They then said, 'We have come down to take you, to hand you over to the Philistines.' He said, 'Swear to me not to kill me yourselves.'

Jdg 15:13 They replied, 'No; we only want to bind you and hand you over to them; we certainly do not want to kill you.' They then bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the Rock.

Jdg 15:14 As he was approaching Lehi, and the Philistines came running towards him with triumphant shouts, the spirit of Yahweh was on him; the ropes on his arms became like burnt strands of flax and the cords round his hands came untied.

Jdg 15:15 Coming across the fresh jawbone of a donkey, he reached out and snatched it up; and with it he slaughtered a thousand men.

Jdg 15:16 And Samson said: With the jawbone of a donkey I have laid them in heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey I have felled a thousand men.

Jdg 15:17 And with that he hurled the jawbone away; and that is why the place was called Ramath-Lehi.

Jdg 15:18 And as he was very thirsty, he called on Yahweh and said, 'You yourself have worked this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now must I die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?'

Jdg 15:19 Then God opened a hollow in the ground, the hollow there is at Lehi, and water gushed out of it. Samson drank; his vigour returned and he revived. And therefore this spring was called En-ha-Kore; it is still at Lehi today.

Jdg 15:20 Samson was judge in Israel in the days of the Philistines for twenty years.

Jdg 16:1 Samson then went to Gaza and, seeing a prostitute there, went in to her.

Jdg 16:2 The men of Gaza being told, 'Samson has arrived,' surrounded the place and kept watch for him the whole night at the town gate. All that night they were going to make no move, thinking, 'Let us wait until daybreak, and then kill him.'

Jdg 16:3 Till midnight, however, Samson stayed in bed, and then at midnight he got up, seized the doors of the town gate and the two posts as well; he tore them up, bar and all, hoisted them on to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill overlooking Hebron.

Jdg 16:4 After this, he fell in love with a woman in the Vale of Sorek; she was called Delilah.

Jdg 16:5 The Philistine chiefs visited her and said, 'Cajole him and find out where his great strength comes from, and how we can master him, so that we can bind him and subdue him. In return we shall each give you eleven hundred silver shekels.'

Jdg 16:6 Delilah said to Samson, 'Please tell me where your great strength comes from, and what would be needed to bind and subdue you.'

Jdg 16:7 Samson replied, 'If I were bound with seven new bowstrings which had not yet been dried, I should lose my strength and become like any other man.'

Jdg 16:8 The Philistine chiefs brought Delilah seven new bowstrings which had not yet been dried and she took them and bound him with them.

Jdg 16:9 She had men concealed in her room, and she shouted, 'The Philistines are on you, Samson!' Then he snapped the bowstrings as a strand of tow snaps at a touch of the fire. So the secret of his strength remained unknown.

Jdg 16:10 Delilah then said to Samson, 'You have been laughing at me and telling me lies. But now please tell me what would be needed to bind you.'

Jdg 16:11 He replied, 'If I were bound tightly with new ropes which have never been used, I should lose my strength and become like any other man.'

Jdg 16:12 Delilah then took new ropes and bound him with them, and she shouted, 'The Philistines are on you, Samson!' She had men concealed in her room, but he snapped the ropes round his arms like thread.

Jdg 16:13 Delilah then said to Samson, 'Up to now you have been laughing at me and telling me lies. Tell me what would be needed to bind you.' He replied, 'If you wove the seven locks of my hair into the warp of a cloth and beat them together tight with the reed, I should lose my strength and become like any other man.'

Jdg 16:14 She lulled him to sleep, then wove the seven locks of his hair into the warp, beat them together tight with the reed and shouted, 'The Philistines are on you, Samson!' He woke from his sleep and pulled out both reed and warp. So the secret of his strength remained unknown.

Jdg 16:15 Delilah said to him, 'How can you say that you love me, when your heart is not with me? Three times now you have laughed at me and have not told me where your great strength comes from.'

Jdg 16:16 And day after day she pestered him with her talk, nagging him till he grew sick to death of it.

Jdg 16:17 At last he confided everything to her; he said to her, 'A razor has never touched my head, because I have been God's nazirite from my mother's womb. If my head were shorn, then my power would leave me and I should lose my strength and become like any other man.'

Jdg 16:18 Delilah then realized that he had really confided in her; she sent for the Philistine princes with the message, 'Come just once more: he has confided everything to me.' And the Philistine chiefs came to her with the money in their hands.

Jdg 16:19 She lulled Samson to sleep in her lap, summoned a man and had him shear off the seven locks from his head. Thus for the first time she got control over him, and his strength left him.

Jdg 16:20 She cried, 'The Philistines are on you, Samson!' He awoke from sleep, thinking, 'I shall break free as I have done time after time and shake myself clear.' But he did not know that Yahweh had left him.

Jdg 16:21 The Philistines seized him, put out his eyes and took him down to Gaza. They fettered him with a double chain of bronze and he spent his time turning the mill in the prison.

Jdg 16:22 But his hair began to grow again when it had been cut off.

Jdg 16:23 The Philistine chiefs assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god. And amid their festivities they said: Into our hands our god has delivered Samson our enemy.

Jdg 16:24 And as soon as the people saw their god, they acclaimed him, shouting his praises: Into our hands our god has delivered Samson our enemy, the man who laid our country waste and killed so many of us.

Jdg 16:25 And as their hearts were full of joy, they shouted, 'Summon Samson out to amuse us.' So Samson was summoned from prison, and he performed feats in front of them; then he was put to stand between the pillars.

Jdg 16:26 Samson then said to the boy who was leading him by the hand, 'Lead me where I can touch the pillars supporting the building, so that I can lean against them.'

Jdg 16:27 Now the building was crowded with men and women. All the Philistine chiefs were there, while about three thousand men and women were watching Samson's feats from the terrace.

Jdg 16:28 Samson called on Yahweh and cried out, 'Lord Yahweh, I beg you, remember me; give me strength again this once, O God, and let me be revenged on the Philistines at one blow for my two eyes.'

Jdg 16:29 And Samson took hold of the two central pillars supporting the building, and braced himself with his right arm round one and his left round the other;

Jdg 16:30 and he shouted, 'Let me die with the Philistines!' He then heaved with all his might, and the building fell on the chiefs and on all the people there. Those whom he brought to their death by his death outnumbered those whom he had done to death during his life.

Jdg 16:31 His brothers and the whole of his father's family came down and carried him away. They took him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaoil in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

Jdg 17:1 In the highlands of Ephraim there was a man called Micayehu.

Jdg 17:2 He said to his mother, 'The eleven hundred silver shekels which were taken from you and concerning which you uttered a curse, having said in my hearing . . . Look, I have got that silver. I was the one who took it.' His mother said, 'May Yahweh bless my boy!'

Jdg 17:3 He gave the eleven hundred shekels back to his mother, who said, 'I have indeed vowed to give this silver to Yahweh for my son, to have a statue carved and an idol cast in metal, but now I should like to give it back to you.' He, however, returned the money to his mother.

Jdg 17:4 His mother then took two hundred silver shekels and gave them to the metalworker. With them, he carved a statue (and cast an idol in metal) which was put in Micayehu's house.

Jdg 17:5 This man Micah owned a shrine; he made an ephod and some domestic images, and installed one of his sons to be his priest.

Jdg 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel, and everyone did as he saw fit.

Jdg 17:7 There was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the clan of Judah, who was a Levite and resided there as a stranger.

Jdg 17:8 This man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah to settle wherever he could find a home. On his travels he came to the highlands of Ephraim and to Micah's house.

Jdg 17:9 Micah asked him, 'Where do you come from?' The other replied, 'I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I am travelling, and am going to settle wherever I can find a home.'

Jdg 17:10 Micah said to him, 'Stay here with me; be my father and priest and I shall give you ten silver shekels a year, and clothing and food.'

Jdg 17:11 The Levite agreed to remain in the man's house, and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

Jdg 17:12 Micah installed the Levite; the young man became Micah's priest and stayed in his house.

Jdg 17:13 And Micah said, 'Now I know that Yahweh will treat me well, since I have this Levite as priest.'

Jdg 18:1 In those days there was no king in Israel. Now in those days the tribe of Dan was in search of a territory to live in, for until then no territory had fallen to them among the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 18:2 From their clan the Danites sent five brave men from Zorah and Eshtaoil to reconnoitre the country and explore it. They said to them, 'Go and explore the country.' The five men came to the highlands of Ephraim, as far as Micah's house, and spent the night there.

Jdg 18:3 When they were near Micah's house, they recognised the voice of the young Levite and, going nearer, said to him, 'Who brought you here? What are you doing here? What is keeping you here?'

Jdg 18:4 He replied, 'Micah has made certain arrangements with me. He pays me a wage and I act as his priest.'

Jdg 18:5 They replied, 'Then consult God, so that we may know whether the journey we are on will lead to success.'

Jdg 18:6 The priest replied, 'Go in peace; Yahweh is watching over your journey.'

Jdg 18:7 The five men then left and, arriving at Laish, saw that the people living there had an untroubled existence, according to the customs of the Sidonians, peaceful and trusting, that there was no lack or shortage of any sort in the territory, that they were a long way away from the Sidonians and that they had no contact with the Aramaeans.

Jdg 18:8 They then went back to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol and, when the latter asked them, 'What have you to report?'

Jdg 18:9 they said, 'Up! we must go against them, since we have looked at the country and it is excellent, though you take no action! Waste no time in setting out and taking possession of the country.'

Jdg 18:10 When you get there, you will find a trusting people. The country is wide, and God has put it at your mercy. It is a place where there is no lack of anything on earth.'

Jdg 18:11 From these places, consequently, from the clan of Danites at Zorah and Eshtaol, six hundred men set out equipped for war.

Jdg 18:12 They went up and camped at Kiriath-Jearim in Judah; and for this reason the place is still called the Camp of Dan today. It lies to the west of Kiriath-Jearim.

Jdg 18:13 From there they entered the highlands of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.

Jdg 18:14 The five men who had been to reconnoitre the country then spoke to their brothers. 'Do you know', they said, 'that in these houses there is an ephod, some domestic images, a carved statue and an idol cast in metal? So now work out what you have got to do!'

Jdg 18:15 So, turning off the road, they went to the young Levite's dwelling, to Micah's house, and greeted him peacefully.

Jdg 18:16 While the six hundred men of the Danites, equipped for war, stood at the threshold of the gate,

Jdg 18:17 the five who had been to reconnoitre the country went on into the house and took the carved statue, the ephod, the domestic images and the idol cast in metal; meanwhile the priest remained at the threshold of the gate with the six hundred men equipped for war.

Jdg 18:18 These men, having entered Micah's house, took the carved statue, the ephod, the domestic images and the idol cast in metal. The priest, however, said, 'What are you doing?'

Jdg 18:19 'Be quiet,' they replied. 'Put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and become our father and priest. Are you better off as domestic priest to one man, or as priest to a tribe and clan in Israel?'

Jdg 18:20 The priest was delighted; he took the ephod, the domestic images and the carved statue, and went off among the people.

Jdg 18:21 Resuming their original line of march, they set off, having put the women, children, livestock and baggage out in front.

Jdg 18:22 They had gone some distance from Micah's house, when the people living in the houses near Micah's house raised the alarm and set off in pursuit of the Danites.

Jdg 18:23 As they shouted after the Danites, the latter, turning about, said to Micah, 'What is the matter with you, that you are shouting like this?'

Jdg 18:24 He replied, 'You have taken away my god, which I have had made, and the priest as well. You are going away, and what have I got left? And now you ask me, "What is the matter?" '

Jdg 18:25 The Danites said, 'Let us hear no more from you, or quick-tempered men may set about you, and this might cost you your life and the lives of your family!'

Jdg 18:26 So the Danites went on their way; and Micah, seeing that they were the stronger, turned and went home.

Jdg 18:27 So, having taken the god made by Micah, and the priest who had been his, the Danites marched on Laish, on a peaceful and trusting people. They put it to the sword and they burned down the town.

Jdg 18:28 There was no one to come to the rescue, since it was a long way from Sidon and had no contact with the Aramaeans. It lay in the valley running towards Beth-Rehob. They rebuilt the town and settled in it

Jdg 18:29 and called it Dan, from the name of Dan their ancestor who had been born to Israel; originally, however, the town had been called Laish.

Jdg 18:30 The Danites erected the carved statue for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons after him were priests for the tribe of Dan till the day when the inhabitants of the country were carried away into exile.

Jdg 18:31 The carved statue made by Micah they installed for their own use, and there it stayed as long as the house of God remained at Shiloh.

Jdg 19:1 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a man, a Levite, whose home was deep in the highlands of Ephraim. He took as concubine a woman from Bethlehem in Judah.

Jdg 19:2 In a fit of anger his concubine left him and went back to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and she stayed there for some time -- four months.

Jdg 19:3 Her husband then set out after her, to appeal to her affections and fetch her back; he had his servant and two donkeys with him. As he was arriving at the house of the girl's father, the father saw him and came happily to meet him.

Jdg 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl's father, kept him there; and he stayed with him for three days; they ate and drank and spent the nights there.

Jdg 19:5 On the fourth day they got up early, and the Levite was preparing to leave when the girl's father said to his son-in-law, 'Have something to eat to gather strength; you can leave later.'

Jdg 19:6 So they sat down and began eating and drinking, the two of them together; then the girl's father said to the young man, 'Please agree to spend tonight here too and enjoy yourself.'

Jdg 19:7 And when the man got up to leave, the father-in-law pressed him again, and he spent another night there.

Jdg 19:8 On the fifth day, the Levite got up early to leave, but the girl's father said to him, 'Please gather strength first!' So they stayed on until the sun began to go down, and the two men had a meal together.

Jdg 19:9 The husband was getting up to leave with his concubine and his servant when his father-in-law, the girl's father, said, 'Look, day is fading into evening. Please spend the night here. Look, the day is nearly over. Spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Then, early tomorrow, you can leave on your journey and go back home.'

Jdg 19:10 But the man, refusing to stay the night, got up and went on his way, until he arrived within sight of Jebus -- that is, Jerusalem. He had with him two donkeys saddled, his concubine and his servant.

Jdg 19:11 By the time they were near Jebus, the light was going fast. The servant said to his master, 'Come on, please, let us turn off into this Jebusite town and spend the night there.'

Jdg 19:12 His master replied, 'We shall not turn off into a town of foreigners, of people who are not Israelites; we shall go on to Gibeah.'

Jdg 19:13 He then said to his servant, 'Come on, we shall try to reach one or other of those places, either Gibeah or Ramah, and spend the night there.'

Jdg 19:14 So they kept going and went on with their journey. As they approached Gibeah in Benjamin, the sun was setting.

Jdg 19:15 So they turned that way to spend the night in Gibeah. Once inside, the Levite sat down in the town square, but no one offered to take them in for the night.

Jdg 19:16 Eventually, an old man came along at nightfall from his work in the fields. He too was from the highlands of Ephraim, although he was living in Gibeah; the people of the place, however, were Benjaminites.

Jdg 19:17 Looking up, he saw the traveller in the town square. 'Where are you going?' said the old man, 'And where have you come from?'

Jdg 19:18 'We are on our way', the other replied, 'from Bethlehem in Judah to a place deep in the highlands of Ephraim. That is where I come from. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah and now I am going home, but no one has offered to take me into his house,

Jdg 19:19 although we have straw and provender for our donkeys, and I also have bread and wine for myself, and this maidservant and the young man who is travelling with your servant; we are short of nothing.'

Jdg 19:20 'Welcome,' said the old man. 'I shall see that you have all you want. You cannot spend the night in the square.'

Jdg 19:21 So he took him into his house and gave the donkeys provender. The travellers washed their feet, then ate and drank.

Jdg 19:22 While they were enjoying themselves, some townsmen, scoundrels, came crowding round the house; they battered on the door and said to the old man, master of the house, 'Send out the man who went into your house, we should like to have intercourse with him!'

Jdg 19:23 The master of the house went out to them and said, 'No, brothers, please, do not be so wicked. Since this man is now under my roof, do not commit such an infamy.'

Jdg 19:24 Here is my daughter; she is a virgin; I shall bring her out to you. Ill-treat her, do what you please with her, but do not commit such an infamy against this man.'

Jdg 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the Levite took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them. They had intercourse with her and ill-treated her all night till morning; when dawn was breaking they let her go.

Jdg 19:26 At daybreak the girl came and fell on the threshold of her husband's host, and she stayed there until it was light.

Jdg 19:27 In the morning her husband got up and, opening the door of the house, was going out to continue his journey when he saw the woman, his concubine, lying at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

Jdg 19:28 'Get up,' he said, 'we must leave!' There was no answer. He then loaded her on his donkey and began the journey home.

Jdg 19:29 Having reached his house, he took his knife, took hold of his concubine and cut her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces; he then sent her throughout the territory of Israel.

Jdg 19:30 He gave instructions to his messengers, 'This is what you are to say to all the Israelites, "Has anything like this been done since the day when the Israelites came out of Egypt until today? Take this to heart, discuss it; then give your verdict." ' And all who saw it declared, 'Never has such a thing been done or been seen since the Israelites came out of Egypt until today.'

Jdg 20:1 The Israelites then all turned out and, as one man, the entire community from Dan to Beersheba, including Gilead, assembled in Yahweh's presence at Mizpah.

Jdg 20:2 The leaders of the entire people, of all the tribes of Israel, were present at this assembly of God's people, four hundred thousand trained infantry.

Jdg 20:3 The Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah. The Israelites then said, 'Tell us how this crime was committed.'

Jdg 20:4 The Levite, husband of the murdered woman, spoke in reply and said,

Jdg 20:5 'The men of Gibeah ganged up against me and, during the night, surrounded the house where I was lodging. They intended to murder me. They raped my concubine to death.'

Jdg 20:6 I then took my concubine, cut her up and sent her throughout the entire territory of the heritage of Israel, since these men had committed a shameful act, an infamy, in Israel.

Jdg 20:7 Now, all you Israelites, discuss the matter and give your decision here and now.'

Jdg 20:8 The whole people stood up as one man and said, 'None of us will go home, none of us will go back to his house!'

Jdg 20:9 And this is what we are now going to do to Gibeah. We shall draw lots

Jdg 20:10 and, throughout the tribes of Israel, select ten men out of a hundred, a hundred out of a thousand and a thousand out of ten thousand to collect food for the people, so that, on their arrival, the latter may treat Gibeah in Benjamin as this infamy perpetrated in Israel deserves.'

Jdg 20:11 Thus, as one man, all the men of Israel mustered against the town.

Jdg 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent messengers throughout the tribe of Benjamin to say, 'What is this crime which has been committed in your territory?

Jdg 20:13 Now, give up these men, these scoundrels, living in Gibeah, so that we can put them to death and wipe out this evil from Israel.' The Benjaminites, however, would not listen to their brother Israelites.

Jdg 20:14 The Benjaminites left their towns and mustered at Gibeah to fight the Israelites.

Jdg 20:15 At the time, a count was made of the Benjaminites from the various towns: there were twenty-six thousand swordsmen; and the count excluded the inhabitants of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:16 In this great army there were seven hundred first-rate left-handers, every man of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss it.

Jdg 20:17 A count was also held of the men of Israel, excluding Benjamin: there were four hundred thousand men, all experienced swordsmen.

Jdg 20:18 They moved off, up to Bethel, to consult God. The Israelites put the question, 'Which of us is to go first into battle against the Benjaminites?' And Yahweh replied, 'Judah is to go first.'

Jdg 20:19 In the morning, the Israelites moved off and pitched their camp over against Gibeah.

Jdg 20:20 The men of Israel advanced to do battle with Benjamin; they drew up their battle line in front of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:21 But the Benjaminites sallied out from Gibeah and that day massacred twenty-two thousand Israelites.

Jdg 20:22 The army of the men of Israel then took fresh heart and again drew up their battle line in the same place as the day before.

Jdg 20:23 The Israelites went and wept before Yahweh until evening; they then consulted Yahweh; they asked, 'Shall we join battle again with the sons of our brother Benjamin?' Yahweh replied, 'March against him!'

Jdg 20:24 This second day, the Israelites advanced against the Benjaminites,

Jdg 20:25 and, this second day, Benjamin sallied out from Gibeah to meet them and massacred another eighteen thousand Israelites, all experienced swordsmen.

Jdg 20:26 Then all the Israelites and the whole people went off to Bethel; they wept and sat in Yahweh's presence; they fasted all day till the evening and presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before Yahweh.

Jdg 20:27 The Israelites then consulted Yahweh. In those days, the ark of the covenant of God was there,

Jdg 20:28 and Phinehas son of Eleazer, son of Aaron was its minister at the time. They said, 'Ought I to go into battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin again, or should I stop?' Yahweh replied, 'March! For tomorrow I shall deliver him into your hands.'

Jdg 20:29 Israel then positioned troops in ambush all round Gibeah.

Jdg 20:30 On the third day the Israelites marched against the Benjaminites and, as before, drew up their line in front of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:31 The Benjaminites sallied out to engage the people and let themselves be drawn away from the town. As before, they began by killing those of the people who were on the roads, one of which runs up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah through open country: some thirty men of Israel.

Jdg 20:32 The Benjaminites thought, 'We have beaten them, as we did the first time,' but the Israelites had decided, 'We shall run away and draw them away from the town along the roads.'

Jdg 20:33 All the Israelites then retreated and reformed at Baal-Tamar, while the Israeli troops in ambush surged from their positions to the west of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:34 Ten thousand picked men, chosen from the whole of Israel, launched their attack on Gibeah. The battle was fierce; and the others knew nothing of the disaster impending.

Jdg 20:35 Yahweh defeated Benjamin before Israel and that day the Israelites killed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin, all of them trained swordsmen.

Jdg 20:36 The Benjaminites saw that they were beaten. The Israelites had given ground to Benjamin, since they were relying on the ambush which they had positioned close to Gibeah.

Jdg 20:37 The troops in ambush threw themselves against Gibeah at top speed; fanning out, they put the whole town to the sword.

Jdg 20:38 Now it had been agreed between the Israelites and those of the ambush that the latter should raise a smoke signal from the town,

Jdg 20:39 whereupon the Israelites in the thick of the battle would turn about. Benjamin began by killing some of the Israelites, about thirty men, and thought, 'We have certainly beaten them, as we did in the first battle.'

Jdg 20:40 But the signal, a column of smoke, began to rise from the town, and the Benjaminites looking back saw the whole town going up in flames to the sky.

Jdg 20:41 The Israelites then turned about, and the Benjaminites were seized with terror, for they saw that disaster had struck them.

Jdg 20:42 They broke before the Israelite onslaught and made for the desert, but the fighters pressed them hard, while the others coming out of the town took and slaughtered them from the rear.

Jdg 20:43 They hemmed in the Benjaminites, pursued them relentlessly, crushing them opposite Gibeah on the east.

Jdg 20:44 Of Benjamin, eighteen thousand men fell, all of them brave men.

Jdg 20:45 They then turned tail and fled into the desert, towards the Rock of Rimmon. Five thousand of them were picked off on the roads, and the rest were relentlessly pursued as far as Gideon, two thousand of them being killed.

Jdg 20:46 The total number of Benjaminites who fell that day was twenty-five thousand swordsmen, all of them brave men.

Jdg 20:47 Six hundred men, however, turned tail and escaped into the desert, to the Rock of Rimmon, and there they stayed for four months.

Jdg 20:48 The men of Israel then went back to the Benjaminites, and put them to the sword--people, livestock and everything else that came their way in the town. And they fired all the towns involved.

Jdg 21:1 The men of Israel had sworn this oath at Mizpah, 'None of us is to give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin.'

Jdg 21:2 The people went to Bethel and stayed there until evening, sitting before God and raising their voices, made a great lament,

Jdg 21:3 and exclaiming, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel that a tribe should be missing from Israel today?

Jdg 21:4 The next day the people got up early and built an altar there; they presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices.

Jdg 21:5 The Israelites then said, 'Out of all the tribes of Israel, who has not come to Yahweh, to the assembly?' -- for they had sworn a solemn oath that anyone who did not come to Yahweh at Mizpah would certainly die.

Jdg 21:6 Now the Israelites felt sorry about Benjamin their brother. 'Today', they said, 'a tribe has been amputated from Israel.'

Jdg 21:7 What shall we do to provide wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by Yahweh not to give them any of our own daughters in marriage?'

Jdg 21:8 They then asked, 'Out of the tribes of Israel, who is it that has not come to Yahweh at Mizpah?' It was discovered that no one from Jabesh in Gilead had come to the camp for the assembly;

Jdg 21:9 for, a muster having been called of the people, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead was present.

Jdg 21:10 The community then despatched twelve thousand of their bravest men there, with these orders: 'Go and slaughter all the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead, including the women and children.'

Jdg 21:11 This is what you are to do. All males and all those women who have ever slept with a man, you will put under the curse of destruction, but the lives of the virgins you will spare.' And this they did.

Jdg 21:12 Among the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead they found four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man, and brought them to the camp (to Shiloh in the territory of Canaan).

Jdg 21:13 The whole community then sent messengers to offer peace to the Benjaminites who were at the Rock of Rimmon.

Jdg 21:14 Benjamin then came home: they were given those of the women of Jabesh in Gilead whose lives had been spared, but there were not enough for all.

Jdg 21:15 The people felt sorry about Benjamin, Yahweh having made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 21:16 And the elders of the community said, 'What shall we do to provide wives for the survivors, since the women of Benjamin have been wiped out?'

Jdg 21:17 They went on, 'How can we preserve a remnant for Benjamin so that a tribe may not be lost to Israel?

Jdg 21:18 We cannot give them our own daughters in marriage' -- for the Israelites had taken an oath, 'Accursed be the man who gives a wife to Benjamin!'

Jdg 21:19 'However,' they said, 'there is the feast of Yahweh, held every year at Shiloh.' (The town lies north of Bethel, east of the highway that runs from Bethel up to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.)

Jdg 21:20 So they told the Benjaminites to do as follows, 'Put yourselves in ambush in the vineyards.

Jdg 21:21 Keep watch: when the girls of Shiloh come out in groups to dance, you then come out of the vineyards, each of you seize a wife from the girls of Shiloh and make for Benjaminite territory.

Jdg 21:22 If their fathers or brothers come and complain to us, we shall say, "Let us have them, since we could not take wives for everyone in the battle; and you could not give them to them, or you would then have been guilty."

Jdg 21:23 The Benjaminites did this and, from the dancers whom they caught, took as many wives as there were men and then, setting off, went back to their heritage, rebuilt the towns and settled down in them.

Jdg 21:24 The Israelites then dispersed, each man to rejoin his tribe and clan, each leaving that place for his own heritage.

Jdg 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel, and everyone did as he saw fit.

Rut 1:1 In the days when the Judges were governing, a famine occurred in the country and a certain man from Bethlehem of Judah went--he, his wife and his two sons -- to live in the Plains of Moab.

Rut 1:2 The man was called Elimelech, his wife Naomi and his two sons Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah. Going to the Plains of Moab, they settled there.

Rut 1:3 Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she and her two sons were left.

Rut 1:4 These married Moabite women: one was called Orpah and the other Ruth. They lived there for about ten years.

Rut 1:5 Mahlon and Chilion then both died too, and Naomi was thus bereft of her two sons and her husband.

Rut 1:6 She then decided to come back from the Plains of Moab with her daughters-in-law, having heard in the Plains of Moab that God had visited his people and given them food.

Rut 1:7 So, with her daughters-in-law, she left the place where she was living and they took the road back to Judah.

Rut 1:8 Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, 'Go back, each of you to your mother's house.

Rut 1:9 May Yahweh show you faithful love, as you have done to those who have died and to me. Yahweh grant that you may each find happiness with a husband!' She then kissed them, but they began weeping loudly,

Rut 1:10 and said, 'No, we shall go back with you to your people.'

Rut 1:11 'Go home, daughters,' Naomi replied. 'Why come with me? Have I any more sons in my womb to make husbands for you?

Rut 1:12 Go home, daughters, go, for I am now too old to marry again. Even if I said, "I still have a hope: I shall take a husband this very night and shall bear more sons,"

Rut 1:13 would you be prepared to wait for them until they were grown up? Would you refuse to marry for their sake? No, daughters, I am bitterly sorry for your sakes that the hand of Yahweh should have been raised against me.'

Rut 1:14 They started weeping loudly all over again; Orpah then kissed her mother-in-law and went back to her people. But Ruth stayed with her.

Rut 1:15 Naomi then said, 'Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her god. Go home, too; follow your sister-in-law.'

Rut 1:16 But Ruth said, 'Do not press me to leave you and to stop going with you, for wherever you go, I shall go, wherever you live, I shall live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.'

Rut 1:17 Where you die, I shall die and there I shall be buried. Let Yahweh bring unnameable ills on me and worse ills, too, if anything but death should part me from you!'

Rut 1:18 Seeing that Ruth was determined to go with her, Naomi said no more.

Rut 1:19 The two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. Their arrival set the whole town astir, and the women said, 'Can this be Naomi?'

Rut 1:20 To this she replied, 'Do not call me Naomi, call me Mara, for Shaddai has made my lot bitter.

Rut 1:21 I departed full, and Yahweh has brought me home empty. Why, then, call me Naomi, since Yahweh has pronounced against me and Shaddai has made me wretched?'

Rut 1:22 This was how Naomi came home with her daughter-in-law, Ruth the Moabitess, on returning from the Plains of Moab. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Rut 2:1 Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, well-to-do and of Elimelech's clan. His name was Boaz.

Rut 2:2 Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, 'Let me go into the fields and glean ears of corn in the footsteps of some man who will look on me with favour.' She replied, 'Go, daughter.'

Rut 2:3 So she set out and went to glean in the fields behind the reapers. Chance led her to a plot of land belonging to Boaz of Elimelech's clan.

Rut 2:4 Boaz, as it happened, had just come from Bethlehem. 'Yahweh be with you!' he said to the reapers. 'Yahweh bless you!' they replied.

Rut 2:5 Boaz said to a servant of his who was in charge of the reapers, 'To whom does this young woman belong?'

Rut 2:6 And the servant in charge of the reapers replied, 'The girl is the Moabitess, the one who came back with Naomi from the Plains of Moab.'

Rut 2:7 She said, "Please let me glean and pick up what falls from the sheaves behind the reapers." Thus she came, and here she stayed, with hardly a rest from morning until now.'

Rut 2:8 Boaz said to Ruth, 'Listen to me, daughter. You must not go gleaning in any other field. You must not go away from here. Stay close to my work-women.'

Rut 2:9 Keep your eyes on whatever part of the field they are reaping and follow behind. I have forbidden my men to molest you. And if you are thirsty, go to the pitchers and drink what the servants have drawn.'

Rut 2:10 Ruth fell on her face, prostrated herself and said, 'How have I attracted your favour, for you to notice me, who am only a foreigner?'

Rut 2:11 Boaz replied, 'I have been told all about the way you have behaved to your mother-in-law since your husband's death, and how you left your own father and mother and the land where you were born to come to a people of whom you previously knew nothing.'

Rut 2:12 May Yahweh repay you for what you have done, and may you be richly rewarded by Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!'

Rut 2:13 She said, 'My lord, I hope you will always look on me with favour! You have comforted and encouraged me, though I am not even the equal of one of your work-women.'

Rut 2:14 When it was time to eat, Boaz said to her, 'Come and eat some of this bread and dip your piece in the vinegar.' Ruth sat down beside the reapers and Boaz made a heap of roasted grain for her; she ate till her hunger was satisfied, and she had some left over.

Rut 2:15 When she had got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his work-people, 'Let her glean among the sheaves themselves. Do not molest her.'

Rut 2:16 And be sure you pull a few ears of corn out of the bundles and drop them. Let her glean them, and do not scold her.'

Rut 2:17 So she gleaned in the field till evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned and it came to about a bushel of barley.

Rut 2:18 Taking it with her, she went back to the town. Her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth also took out what she had kept after eating all she wanted, and gave that to her.

Rut 2:19 Her mother-in-law said, 'Where have you been gleaning today? Where have you been working? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!' Ruth told her mother-in-law in whose field she had been working. 'The name of the man with whom I have been working today', she said, 'is Boaz.'

Rut 2:20 Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, 'May he be blessed by Yahweh who does not withhold his faithful love from living or dead! This man', Naomi added, 'is a close relation of ours. He is one of those who have the right of redemption over us.'

Rut 2:21 Ruth the Moabitess said to her mother-in-law, 'He also said, "Stay with my work-people until they have finished my whole harvest."

Rut 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, 'It is better for you, daughter, to go with his work-women than to go to some other field where you might be ill-treated.'

Rut 2:23 So she stayed with Boaz's work-women, and gleaned until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she went on living with her mother-in-law.

Rut 3:1 Her mother-in-law Naomi then said, 'Daughter, is it not my duty to see you happily settled?'

Rut 3:2 And Boaz, the man with whose work-women you were, is he not our kinsman? Tonight he will be winnowing the barley on the threshing-floor.

Rut 3:3 So wash and perfume yourself, put on your cloak and go down to the threshing-floor. Don't let him recognise you while he is still eating and drinking.'

Rut 3:4 But when he lies down, take note where he lies, then go and turn back the covering at his feet and lie down yourself. He will tell you what to do.'

Rut 3:5 Ruth said, 'I shall do everything you tell me.'

Rut 3:6 So she went down to the threshing-floor and did everything her mother-in-law had told her.

Rut 3:7 When Boaz had finished eating and drinking, he went off happily and lay down beside the pile of barley.

Ruth then quietly went, turned back the covering at his feet and lay down.

Rut 3:8 In the middle of the night, he woke up with a shock and looked about him; and there lying at his feet was a woman.

Rut 3:9 'Who are you?' he said; and she replied, 'I am your servant Ruth. Spread the skirt of your cloak over your servant for you have the right of redemption over me.'

Rut 3:10 'May Yahweh bless you, daughter,' he said, 'for this second act of faithful love of yours is greater than the first, since you have not run after young men, poor or rich.'

Rut 3:11 Don't be afraid, daughter, I shall do everything you ask, since the people at the gate of my town all know that you are a woman of great worth.

Rut 3:12 But, though it is true that I have the right of redemption over you, you have a kinsman closer than myself.

Rut 3:13 Stay here for tonight and, in the morning, if he wishes to exercise his right over you, very well, let him redeem you. But if he does not wish to do so, then as Yahweh lives, I shall redeem you. Lie here till morning.'

Rut 3:14 So she lay at his feet till morning, but got up before the hour when one man can recognise another; and he thought, 'It must not be known that this woman came to the threshing-floor.'

Rut 3:15 He then said, 'Let me have the cloak you are wearing, hold it out!' She held it out while he put six measures of barley into it and then loaded it on to her; and off she went to the town.

Rut 3:16 When Ruth got home, her mother-in-law asked her, 'How did things go with you, daughter?' She then told her everything that the man had done for her.

Rut 3:17 'He gave me these six measures of barley and said, "You must not go home empty-handed to your mother-in-law."

Rut 3:18 Naomi said, 'Do nothing, daughter, until you see how things have gone; I am sure he will not rest until he has settled the matter this very day.'

Rut 4:1 Boaz, meanwhile, had gone up to the gate and sat down, and the relative of whom he had spoken then came by. Boaz said to him, 'Here, my friend, come and sit down'; the man came and sat down.

Rut 4:2 Boaz then picked out ten of the town's elders and said, 'Sit down here'; they sat down.

Rut 4:3 Boaz then said to the man who had the right of redemption, 'Naomi, who has come back from the Plains of Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother, Elimelech.

Rut 4:4 I thought I should tell you about this and say, "Acquire it in the presence of the men who are sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to use your right of redemption, redeem it; if you do not, tell me so that I know, for I am the only person to redeem it besides yourself, and I myself come after you."

The man said, 'I am willing to redeem it.'

Rut 4:5 Boaz then said, 'The day you acquire the field from Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the man who has died, to perpetuate the dead man's name in his inheritance.'

Rut 4:6 The man with the right of redemption then said, 'I cannot use my right of redemption without jeopardising my own inheritance. Since I cannot use my right of redemption, exercise the right yourself.'

Rut 4:7 Now, in former times, it was the custom in Israel to confirm a transaction in matters of redemption or inheritance by one of the parties taking off his sandal and giving it to the other. This was how agreements were ratified in Israel.

Rut 4:8 So, when the man with the right of redemption said to Boaz, 'Acquire it for yourself,' he took off his sandal.

Rut 4:9 Boaz then said to the elders and all the people there, 'Today you are witnesses that from Naomi I acquire everything that used to belong to Elimelech, and everything that used to belong to Mahlon and Chilion

Rut 4:10 and that I am also acquiring Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon's widow, to be my wife, to perpetuate the dead man's name in his inheritance, so that the dead man's name will not be lost among his brothers and at the gate of his town. Today you are witnesses to this.'

Rut 4:11 All the people at the gate said, 'We are witnesses'; and the elders said, 'May Yahweh make the woman about to enter your family like Rachel and Leah who together built up the House of Israel. Grow mighty in Ephrathah, be renowned in Bethlehem!'

Rut 4:12 And through the children Yahweh will give you by this young woman, may your family be like the family of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah.'

Rut 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. And when they came together, Yahweh made her conceive and she bore a son.

Rut 4:14 And the women said to Naomi, 'Blessed be Yahweh who has not left you today without anyone to redeem you. May his name be praised in Israel!

Rut 4:15 The child will be a comfort to you and the prop of your old age, for he has been born to the daughter-in-law who loves you and is more to you than seven sons.'

Rut 4:16 And Naomi, taking the child, held him to her breast; and she it was who looked after him.

Rut 4:17 And the women of the neighbourhood gave him a name. 'A son', they said, 'has been born to Naomi,' and they called him Obed. This was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Rut 4:18 These are the descendants of Perez. Perez fathered Hezron,

Rut 4:19 Hezron fathered Ram, Ram fathered Amminadab,

Rut 4:20 Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon,

Rut 4:21 Salmon fathered Boaz, Boaz fathered Obed,

Rut 4:22 Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered David.

1Sa 1:1 There was a man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the highlands of Ephraim whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1Sa 1:2 He had two wives, one called Hannah, the other Peninnah; Peninnah had children but Hannah had none.

1Sa 1:3 Every year this man used to go up from his town to worship, and to sacrifice to Yahweh Sabaoth at Shiloh. (The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there as priests of Yahweh.)

1Sa 1:4 One day Elkanah offered a sacrifice. Now he used to give portions to Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters;

1Sa 1:5 to Hannah, however, he would give only one portion: for, although he loved Hannah more, Yahweh had made her barren.

1Sa 1:6 Furthermore, her rival would taunt and provoke her, because Yahweh had made her womb barren.

1Sa 1:7 And this went on year after year; every time they went up to the temple of Yahweh she used to taunt her. On that day she wept and would not eat anything;

1Sa 1:8 so her husband Elkanah said, 'Hannah, why are you crying? Why are you not eating anything? Why are you so sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?'

1Sa 1:9 When they had finished eating in the room, Hannah got up and stood before Yahweh. Eli the priest was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the temple of Yahweh.

1Sa 1:10 In the bitterness of her soul she prayed to Yahweh with many tears,

1Sa 1:11 and she made this vow, 'Yahweh Sabaoth! Should you condescend to notice the humiliation of your servant and keep her in mind instead of disregarding your servant, and give her a boy, I will give him to Yahweh for the whole of his life and no razor shall ever touch his head.'

1Sa 1:12 While she went on praying to Yahweh, Eli was watching her mouth,

1Sa 1:13 for Hannah was speaking under her breath; her lips were moving but her voice could not be heard, and Eli thought that she was drunk.

1Sa 1:14 Eli said, 'How much longer are you going to stay drunk? Get rid of your wine.'

1Sa 1:15 'No, my lord,' Hannah replied, 'I am a woman in great trouble; I have not been drinking wine or strong drink -- I am pouring out my soul before Yahweh.'

1Sa 1:16 Do not take your servant for a worthless woman; all this time I have been speaking from the depth of my grief and my resentment.'

1Sa 1:17 Eli then replied, 'Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant what you have asked of him.'

1Sa 1:18 To which she said, 'May your servant find favour in your sight.' With that, the woman went away; she began eating and was dejected no longer.

1Sa 1:19 They got up early in the morning and, after worshipping Yahweh, set out and went home to Ramah. Elkanah lay with his wife Hannah, and Yahweh remembered her.

1Sa 1:20 Hannah conceived and, in due course, gave birth to a son, whom she named Samuel, 'since', she said, 'I asked Yahweh for him.'

1Sa 1:21 Elkanah, the husband, went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to Yahweh and to fulfil his vow.

1Sa 1:22 However, Hannah did not go up, having said to her husband, 'Not before the child has been weaned. Then I shall bring him and present him before Yahweh and he will stay there for ever.'

1Sa 1:23 Elkanah her husband then said to her, 'Do what you think fit; wait until you have weaned him. May Yahweh bring about what he has said.' So the woman stayed behind and nursed her child until she weaned him.

1Sa 1:24 When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, as well as a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour and a skin of wine, and took him into the temple of Yahweh at Shiloh; the child was very young.

1Sa 1:25 They sacrificed the bull and led the child to Eli.

1Sa 1:26 She said, 'If you please, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood beside you here, praying to Yahweh.'

1Sa 1:27 This is the child for which I was praying, and Yahweh has granted me what I asked of him.

1Sa 1:28 Now I make him over to Yahweh for the whole of his life. He is made over to Yahweh.' They then worshipped Yahweh there.

1Sa 2:1 Hannah then prayed as follows: My heart exults in Yahweh, in my God is my strength lifted up, my mouth derides my foes, for I rejoice in your deliverance.

1Sa 2:2 There is no Holy One like Yahweh, (indeed, there is none but you) no Rock like our God.

1Sa 2:3 Do not keep talking so proudly, let no arrogance come from your mouth, for Yahweh is a wise God, his to weigh up deeds.

1Sa 2:4 The bow of the mighty has been broken but those who were tottering are now braced with strength.

1Sa 2:5 The full fed are hiring themselves out for bread but the hungry need labour no more; the barren woman bears sevenfold but the mother of many is left desolate.

1Sa 2:6 Yahweh gives death and life, brings down to Sheol and draws up;

1Sa 2:7 Yahweh makes poor and rich, he humbles and also exalts.

1Sa 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust, he lifts the needy from the dunghill to give them a place with princes, to assign them a seat of honour; for to Yahweh belong the pillars of the earth, on these he has poised the world.

1Sa 2:9 He safeguards the steps of his faithful but the wicked vanish in darkness (for human strength can win no victories).

1Sa 2:10 Yahweh, his enemies are shattered, the Most High thunders in the heavens. Yahweh judges the ends of the earth, he endows his king with power, he raises up the strength of his Anointed.

1Sa 2:11 Elkanah then went home to Ramah, but the child stayed in Yahweh's service, in the presence of Eli the priest.

1Sa 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were scoundrels; they cared nothing for Yahweh

1Sa 2:13 nor for what was due to the priests from the people. Whenever anyone offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand while the meat was being cooked;

1Sa 2:14 he would thrust this into cauldron or pan, or dish or pot, and the priest claimed for his own whatever the fork brought up. That was how they behaved with all the Israelites who came there to Shiloh.

1Sa 2:15 The priest's servant would even come up before the fat had been burnt and say to the person who was making the sacrifice, 'Give the priest some meat for him to roast. He will not accept boiled meat from you, only raw.'

1Sa 2:16 Then, if the person replied, 'Let the fat be burnt first, and then take for yourself whatever you choose,' he would retort, 'No! You must give it to me now or I shall take it by force.'

1Sa 2:17 The young men's sin was very great in Yahweh's eyes, because they treated with contempt the offering made to Yahweh.

1Sa 2:18 Samuel was in Yahweh's service, a child wearing a linen loincloth.

1Sa 2:19 His mother used to make him a little coat which she brought him each year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

1Sa 2:20 Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, 'May Yahweh grant you an heir by this woman in exchange for the one which she has made over to Yahweh,' and they would go home.

1Sa 2:21 Yahweh visited Hannah; she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the child Samuel grew up in Yahweh's presence.

1Sa 2:22 Although very old, Eli heard about everything that his sons were doing to all Israel, 1Sa 2:23 and said, 'Why are you behaving as all the people say you are?

1Sa 2:24 No, my sons, what I hear reported by the people of Yahweh is not good.

1Sa 2:25 If one person sins against another, God will be the arbiter, but if he sins against Yahweh, who will intercede for him?' But they did not listen to their father's words, for Yahweh was bent on killing them.

1Sa 2:26 Meanwhile, the child Samuel went on growing in stature and in favour both with Yahweh and with people.

1Sa 2:27 A man of God came to Eli and said to him, 'This is what Yahweh says, "Did I not reveal myself to your father's family when they were in Egypt as slaves in Pharaoh's household?"

1Sa 2:28 Did I not single him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn the offering, to carry the ephod in my presence; and did I not grant all the burnt offerings made by the Israelites to your father's family?

1Sa 2:29 Why do you trample on the offering and on the sacrifice which I have ordered for my Dwelling, and honour your sons more than me, by growing fat on the best of the offerings of Israel, my people?

1Sa 2:30 Whereas -- this is what Yahweh, God of Israel, declares -- I had promised that your family and your father's family would walk in my presence for ever, now, however -- this is what Yahweh declares -- nothing of the sort! Those who honour me I honour in my turn, and those who despise me will be an object of contempt.

1Sa 2:31 Be sure, the days are coming when I shall cut off your strength and the strength of your father's family, so that no one in your family will live to old age.

1Sa 2:32 Beside the Dwelling, you will see all the benefits that I shall confer on Israel, but no one in your family will ever live to old age.

1Sa 2:33 I shall keep one of you at my altar for his eyes to go blind and his soul to wither, but the bulk of your family will die by the sword.

1Sa 2:34 'What happens to your two sons Hophni and Phinehas will be a sign for you: on the same day both will die.

1Sa 2:35 I shall raise myself a faithful priest, who will do as I intend and as I desire. I shall build him an enduring House and he will walk in the presence of my Anointed for ever.

1Sa 2:36 The members of your House who survive will come and beg him on their knees for a silver coin and a loaf of bread and say: Please give me some priestly work, so that I can have a scrap of bread to eat."

1Sa 3:1 Now, the boy Samuel was serving Yahweh in the presence of Eli; in those days it was rare for Yahweh to speak; visions were uncommon.

1Sa 3:2 One day, it happened that Eli was lying down in his room. His eyes were beginning to grow dim; he could no longer see.

1Sa 3:3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying in Yahweh's sanctuary, where the ark of God was,

1Sa 3:4 when Yahweh called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He answered, 'Here I am,'

1Sa 3:5 and, running to Eli, he said, 'Here I am, as you called me.' Eli said, 'I did not call. Go back and lie down.' So he went and lay down.

1Sa 3:6 And again Yahweh called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, as you called me.' He replied, 'I did not call, my son; go back and lie down.'

1Sa 3:7 As yet, Samuel had no knowledge of Yahweh and the word of Yahweh had not yet been revealed to him.

1Sa 3:8 Again Yahweh called, the third time. He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, as you called me.' Eli then understood that Yahweh was calling the child, 1Sa 3:9 and he said to Samuel, 'Go and lie down, and if someone calls say, "Speak, Yahweh; for your servant is listening." ' So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1Sa 3:10 Yahweh then came and stood by, calling as he had done before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel answered, 'Speak, Yahweh; for your servant is listening.'

1Sa 3:11 Yahweh then said to Samuel, 'I am going to do something in Israel which will make the ears of all who hear of it ring.

1Sa 3:12 I shall carry out that day against Eli everything that I have said about his family, from beginning to end.

1Sa 3:13 You are to tell him that I condemn his family for ever, since he is aware that his sons have been cursing God and yet has not corrected them.

1Sa 3:14 Therefore -- I swear it to the family of Eli -- no sacrifice or offering shall ever expiate the guilt of Eli's family.'

1Sa 3:15 Samuel lay where he was until morning and then opened the doors of Yahweh's temple. Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision, 1Sa 3:16 but Eli called Samuel and said, 'Samuel, my son.' 'Here I am,' he replied.

1Sa 3:17 Eli asked, 'What message did he give you? Please do not hide it from me. May God bring unnameable ills on you and worse ones, too, if you hide from me anything of what he said to you.'

1Sa 3:18 Samuel then told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Eli said, 'He is Yahweh; let him do what he thinks good.'

1Sa 3:19 Samuel grew up. Yahweh was with him and did not let a single word fall to the ground of all that he had told him.

1Sa 3:20 All Israel knew, from Dan to Beersheba, that Samuel was attested as a prophet of Yahweh.

1Sa 3:21 Yahweh continued to manifest himself at Shiloh, revealing himself to Samuel there, 1Sa 4:1 and, for all Israel, the word of Samuel was as the word of Yahweh; since Eli was very old and his sons persisted in their wicked behaviour towards Yahweh. It happened at that time that the Philistines mustered to make war on Israel and Israel went out to meet them in war, pitching camp near Ebenezer while the Philistines pitched camp at Aphek.

1Sa 4:2 The Philistines drew up their battle-line against Israel, the fighting was fierce, and Israel was beaten by the Philistines: about four thousand men in their ranks were killed on the field of battle.

1Sa 4:3 When the troops returned to camp, the elders of Israel said, 'Why has Yahweh caused us to be beaten by the Philistines today? Let us fetch the ark of our God from Shiloh so that, when it goes with us, it may save us from the clutches of our enemies.'

1Sa 4:4 So the troops sent to Shiloh and brought away the ark of Yahweh Sabaoth enthroned on the winged creatures; the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, came with the ark.

1Sa 4:5 When the ark of Yahweh arrived in the camp, all Israel raised a great war cry so that the earth resounded.

1Sa 4:6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the war cry, they said, 'What can this great war cry in the Hebrew camp mean?' And they realised that the ark of Yahweh had come into the camp.

1Sa 4:7 At this, the Philistines were afraid; for they said, 'God has come into the camp. Disaster!' they said. 'For nothing like this has ever happened before.'

1Sa 4:8 Disaster! Who will rescue us from the clutches of this mighty God? This was the God who struck down Egypt with every kind of misfortune in the desert.

1Sa 4:9 But take courage and be men, Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been slaves to you. Be men and fight.'

1Sa 4:10 So the Philistines gave battle and Israel was defeated, each man fleeing to his tent. The slaughter was very great: on the Israelite side, thirty thousand foot soldiers fell.

1Sa 4:11 The ark of God was captured too, and Hophni and Phinehas the two sons of Eli died.

1Sa 4:12 A Benjaminite ran from the battle-line and reached Shiloh the same day, his clothes torn and dust on his head.

1Sa 4:13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting on his seat beside the gate watching the road, for his heart was trembling for the ark of God. The man came into the town and told the news, whereupon cries of anguish filled the town.

1Sa 4:14 Eli heard the sound and asked, 'What does this uproar mean?' The man hurried on and told Eli.

1Sa 4:15 Eli was ninety-eight years old; his gaze was fixed; he was blind.

1Sa 4:16 The man said to Eli, 'I have come from the camp. I escaped from the battle-line today.' 'My son,' said Eli, 'what happened?'

1Sa 4:17 The messenger replied, 'Israel has fled before the Philistines; the army has been utterly routed. What is worse, your two sons are dead and the ark of God has been captured.'

1Sa 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backwards off his seat by the gate and broke his neck and died, for he was old and heavy. He had been judge of Israel for forty years.

1Sa 4:19 Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child and near her time. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and husband were dead she crouched down and gave birth, for her labour pains had come on.

1Sa 4:20 When she was at the point of death, the women at her side said, 'Do not be afraid; you have given birth to a son.' But she did not answer and took no notice.

1Sa 4:21 She named the child Ichabod, saying, 'The glory has gone from Israel,' alluding to the capture of the ark of God and to her father-in-law and husband.

1Sa 4:22 She said, 'The glory has gone from Israel, because the ark of God has been captured.'

1Sa 5:1 When the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

1Sa 5:2 Taking the ark of God, the Philistines put it in the temple of Dagon, setting it down beside Dagon.

1Sa 5:3 When the people of Ashdod got up the following morning and went to the temple of Dagon, there lay Dagon face down on the ground before the ark of Yahweh. They picked Dagon up and put him back in his place.

1Sa 5:4 But when they got up on the following morning, there lay Dagon face down on the ground before the ark of Yahweh, and Dagon's head and two hands lay severed on the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left in its place.

1Sa 5:5 This is why the priests of Dagon and the people frequenting Dagon's temple never step on Dagon's threshold in Ashdod, even today.

1Sa 5:6 Yahweh oppressed the people of Ashdod; he ravaged them and afflicted them with tumours -- Ashdod and its territory. When the people of Ashdod saw what was happening they said,

1Sa 5:7 'The ark of the God of Israel must not stay here with us, for he is oppressing us and our god Dagon.'

1Sa 5:8 So they summoned all the Philistine chiefs to them, and said, 'What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?' They decided, 'The ark of the God of Israel shall be taken away to Gath.' So they took the ark of the God of Israel to Gath.

1Sa 5:9 But after they had taken it there, Yahweh oppressed that town and a great panic broke out; afflicting the people of the town from highest to lowest, he brought them out in tumours too.

1Sa 5:10 They then sent the ark of God to Ekron, but when it came to Ekron the Ekonites shouted, 'They have brought me the ark of the God of Israel to kill me and my people!'

1Sa 5:11 They summoned all the Philistine chiefs and said, 'Send the ark of the God of Israel away; let it go back to where it belongs and not kill me and my people' -- for there was mortal panic throughout the town; God was oppressing them.

1Sa 5:12 The people who did not die were afflicted with tumours, and the wailing from the town rose to the sky.

1Sa 6:1 The ark of Yahweh was in Philistine territory for seven months.

1Sa 6:2 The Philistines then called for their priests and diviners and asked, 'What shall we do with the ark of Yahweh? Tell us how to send it back to where it belongs.'

1Sa 6:3 They replied, 'If you send the ark of the God of Israel away, you must certainly not send it away without a gift; you must pay him a guilt offering. You will then recover and will realise why he continually oppressed you.'

1Sa 6:4 They then asked, 'What guilt offering ought we to pay him?' They replied, 'Corresponding to the number of Philistine chiefs: five golden tumours and five golden rats, since the same plague afflicted your chiefs as the rest of you.'

1Sa 6:5 So make models of your tumours and models of your rats ravaging the territory, and pay honour to the God of Israel. Then perhaps he will stop oppressing you, your gods and your country.

1Sa 6:6 Why should you be as stubborn as Egypt and Pharaoh were? After he had brought disasters on them, did they not let the people leave?

1Sa 6:7 Now, then, take and fit out a new cart, and two milch cows that have never borne the yoke. Then harness the cows to the cart and take their calves back to the byre.

1Sa 6:8 Then take the ark of Yahweh, place it on the cart, and put the golden objects which you are paying him as guilt offering in a box beside it; and then send it off on its own.

1Sa 6:9 Watch it; if it goes up the road to its own territory, towards Beth-Shemesh, then he was responsible for this great harm to us; but if not, we shall know that it was not his hand that struck us, and that this has happened to us by chance.'

1Sa 6:10 The people did this. They took two milch cows and harnessed them to the cart, shutting their calves in the byre.

1Sa 6:11 They then put the ark of Yahweh on the cart, with the box and the golden rats and the models of their tumours.

1Sa 6:12 The cows made straight for Beth-Shemesh, keeping to the one road, lowing as they went and turning neither to right nor to left. The Philistine chiefs followed them as far as the boundaries of Beth-Shemesh.

1Sa 6:13 The people of Beth-Shemesh were reaping the wheat harvest in the plain when they looked up and saw the ark and went joyfully to meet it.

1Sa 6:14 When the cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-Shemesh, it stopped. There was a large stone there, and they cut up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

1Sa 6:15 The Levites had taken down the ark of Yahweh and the box with it containing the golden objects and put these on the large stone. That day the people of Beth-Shemesh presented burnt offerings and made sacrifices to Yahweh.

1Sa 6:16 The five chiefs of the Philistines, having witnessed this, went back to Ekron the same day.

1Sa 6:17 The golden tumours paid by the Philistines as a guilt offering to Yahweh were as follows: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

1Sa 6:18 and golden rats to the number of all the Philistine towns, those of the five chiefs, from fortified towns down to open villages: still to this day the large stone in the field of Joshua of Beth-Shemesh, on which they put the ark of Yahweh, is a witness.

1Sa 6:19 Of the people of Beth-Shemesh the sons of Jeconiah had not rejoiced when they saw the ark of Yahweh, and Yahweh struck down seventy of them. The people mourned because Yahweh had struck them so fiercely.

1Sa 6:20 The people of Beth-Shemesh then said, 'Who can stand his ground before Yahweh, this holy God? To whom shall he go, so that we are rid of him?'

1Sa 6:21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-Jearim, to say, 'The Philistines have sent back the ark of Yahweh; come down and take it up to your town.'

1Sa 7:1 The men of Kiriath-Jearim came and, taking up the ark of Yahweh, brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated his son Eleazar to guard the ark of Yahweh.

1Sa 7:2 From the day when the ark was installed at Kiriath-Jearim, a long time went by -- twenty years -- and the whole House of Israel longed for Yahweh.

1Sa 7:3 Samuel then spoke as follows to the whole House of Israel, 'If you are returning to Yahweh with all your heart, banish the foreign gods and Astartes which you now have, and set your heart on Yahweh and serve him alone; and he will deliver you from the power of the Philistines.'

1Sa 7:4 And the Israelites banished the Baals and Astartes and served Yahweh alone.

1Sa 7:5 Samuel then said, 'Muster all Israel at Mizpah and I shall plead with Yahweh for you.'

1Sa 7:6 So they mustered at Mizpah and drew water and poured it out before Yahweh. They fasted that day and declared, 'We have sinned against Yahweh.' And Samuel was judge over the Israelites at Mizpah.

1Sa 7:7 When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had mustered at Mizpah, the Philistine chiefs marched on Israel; and when the Israelites heard this, they were afraid of the Philistines.

1Sa 7:8 They said to Samuel, 'Do not stop calling on Yahweh our God to rescue us from the power of the Philistines.'

1Sa 7:9 Samuel took a sucking lamb and presented it as a burnt offering to Yahweh, and he called on Yahweh on behalf of Israel and Yahweh heard him.

1Sa 7:10 While Samuel was in the act of presenting burnt offering, the Philistines joined battle with Israel, but that day Yahweh thundered violently over the Philistines, threw them into panic and Israel defeated them.

1Sa 7:11 The men of Israel sallied out from Mizpah in pursuit of the Philistines and beat them all the way to below Beth-Car.

1Sa 7:12 Samuel then took a stone and erected it between Mizpah and the Tooth, and gave it the name Ebenezer, saying, 'Yahweh helped us as far as this.'

1Sa 7:13 So the Philistines were humbled and no longer came into Israeli territory; Yahweh oppressed the Philistines throughout the life of Samuel.

1Sa 7:14 The towns which the Philistines had taken from Israel were given back to Israel, from Ekron all the way to Gath, and Israel freed their territory from the power of the Philistines. There was peace, too, between Israel and the Amorites.

1Sa 7:15 Samuel was judge over Israel throughout his life.

1Sa 7:16 Each year he went on circuit through Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah and judged Israel in all these places.

1Sa 7:17 He would then return to Ramah, since his home was there; there too he judged Israel. And there he built an altar to Yahweh.

1Sa 8:1 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges of Israel.

1Sa 8:2 His eldest son was called Joel and his second one, Abijah; they were judges at Beersheba.

1Sa 8:3 His sons did not follow his example but, seduced by the love of money, took bribes and gave biased verdicts.

1Sa 8:4 The elders of Israel all assembled, went back to Samuel at Ramah, and said,

1Sa 8:5 'Look, you are old, and your sons are not following your example. So give us a king to judge us, like the other nations.'

1Sa 8:6 Samuel thought that it was wrong of them to say, 'Let us have a king to judge us,' so he prayed to Yahweh.

1Sa 8:7 But Yahweh said to Samuel, 'Obey the voice of the people in all that they say to you: it is not you they have rejected

1Sa 8:8 but me, not wishing me to reign over them any more. They are now doing to you exactly what they have done to me since the day I brought them out of Egypt until now, deserting me and serving other gods.'

1Sa 8:9 So, do what they ask; only, you must give them a solemn warning, and must tell them what the king who is to reign over them will do.'

1Sa 8:10 Everything that Yahweh had said, Samuel then repeated to the people who were asking him for a king.

1Sa 8:11 He said, 'This is what the king who is to reign over you will do. He will take your sons and direct them to his chariotry and cavalry, and they will run in front of his chariot.

1Sa 8:12 He will use them as leaders of a thousand and leaders of fifty; he will make them plough his fields and gather in his harvest and make his weapons of war and the gear for his chariots.

1Sa 8:13 He will take your daughters as perfumers, cooks and bakers.

1Sa 8:14 He will take the best of your fields, your vineyards and your olive groves and give them to his officials.

1Sa 8:15 He will tithe your crops and vineyards to provide for his courtiers and his officials.

1Sa 8:16 He will take the best of your servants, men and women, of your oxen and your donkeys, and make them work for him.

1Sa 8:17 He will tithe your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves.

1Sa 8:18 When that day comes, you will cry aloud because of the king you have chosen for yourselves, but on that day Yahweh will not hear you.'

1Sa 8:19 The people, however, refused to listen to Samuel. They said, 'No! We are determined to have a king,

1Sa 8:20 so that we can be like the other nations, with our own king to rule us and lead us and fight our battles.'

1Sa 8:21 Samuel listened to all that the people had to say and repeated it in Yahweh's ear.

1Sa 8:22 Yahweh then said to Samuel, 'Do as they ask and give them a king.' Samuel then said to the Israelites, 'Go home, each of you, to his own town.'

1Sa 9:1 Among the men of Benjamin was a man called Kish son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah; a Benjaminite and a person of rank.

1Sa 9:2 He had a son called Saul, a handsome man in the prime of life. Of all the Israelites there was no one more handsome than he; he stood head and shoulders taller than anyone else.

1Sa 9:3 Now since the donkeys belonging to Kish, Saul's father, had strayed, Kish said to his son Saul, 'My son, take one of the servants with you and be off; go and look for the donkeys.'

1Sa 9:4 They went through the highlands of Ephraim, they went through the territory of Shalishah, and did not find them; they went through the territory of Shaalim but they were not there; they went through the territory of Benjamin and did not find them.

1Sa 9:5 When they reached the territory of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, 'Come on, let us go back or my father will stop worrying over the donkeys and start being anxious about us.'

1Sa 9:6 The servant, however, replied, 'Look, there is a man of God in this town, a man who is held in honour; everything he says comes true. Let us go there, then; perhaps he will be able to show us the way that we should take.'

1Sa 9:7 Saul said to his servant, 'But if we do go, what can we take to the man? The food in our sacks is finished, and we have no present to offer the man of God. What else have we got?'

1Sa 9:8 The servant spoke up again and said to Saul, 'Look, I happen to have a quarter of a silver shekel; I shall give that to the man of God, for him to tell us which way to go.'

1Sa 9:9 In Israel, in olden days, when anyone used to go to consult God, he would say, 'Come on, let us go to the seer,' for a man who is now called a 'prophet' used to be called a 'seer' in olden days.

1Sa 9:10 Saul then said to his servant, 'Well said! Come on, let us go.' And they went off to the town where the man of God was.

1Sa 9:11 As they were going up the slope to the town they came across some girls going out to draw water, and said to them, 'Is the seer there?'

1Sa 9:12 The girls replied, 'He is. He arrived a moment or two ahead of you. You had better hurry: he has just come to town because the people are having a sacrifice today on the high place.'

1Sa 9:13 You can catch him as soon as you go into the town, before he goes up to the high place for the meal. The people will not eat until he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; after that, the guests will start eating. If you go up now, you will find him straight away.'

1Sa 9:14 So they went up to the town and, as they were going through the gate, Samuel came out towards them on his way to the high place.

1Sa 9:15 Now, Yahweh had given Samuel a revelation the day before Saul came, saying,

1Sa 9:16 'About this time tomorrow, I shall send you a man from the territory of Benjamin; you are to anoint him as prince of my people Israel, and he will save my people from the power of the Philistines; for I have seen the misery of my people and their cries of anguish have come to me.'

1Sa 9:17 When Samuel saw Saul, Yahweh told him, 'That is the man of whom I said to you, "He is to govern my people."'

1Sa 9:18 Saul accosted Samuel in the gateway and said, 'Tell me, please, where the seer's house is.'

1Sa 9:19 Samuel replied to Saul, 'I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place. You must eat with me today. Tomorrow, when I let you go, I shall tell you whatever is on your mind.'

1Sa 9:20 As regards your donkeys, however, which strayed three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And for whom is the whole wealth of Israel destined, if not for you and for all the members of your father's family?'

1Sa 9:21 To this, Saul replied, 'Am I not a Benjaminite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why are you saying a thing like this to me?'

1Sa 9:22 Samuel then took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of the guests, of whom there were about thirty.

1Sa 9:23 Samuel then said to the cook, 'Serve the portion which I gave you and told you to put on one side.'

1Sa 9:24 The cook then picked up the leg and the tail and put it in front of Saul, saying, 'This is for you. This is what was left. Make a good meal . . .' That day, Saul ate with Samuel.

1Sa 9:25 They came down from the high place into the town. A bed was made for Saul on the roof and he lay down there.

1Sa 9:26 At dawn, Samuel called to Saul on the roof, 'Get up, and I shall send you on your way.' Saul got up, and Samuel and he went outside together.

1Sa 9:27 They had walked as far as the end of the town when Samuel said to Saul, 'Tell the servant to go on ahead of us, but you stand still for a moment, so that I can make known to you the word of God.'

1Sa 10:1 Samuel took a phial of oil and poured it on Saul's head; he then kissed him and said, 'Has not Yahweh anointed you as leader of his people Israel? You are the man who is to govern Yahweh's people and save them from the power of the enemies surrounding them. The sign for you that Yahweh has anointed you as prince of his heritage is this:

1Sa 10:2 after leaving me today, you will meet two men near the tomb of Rachel, on the frontier of Benjamin . . . and they will say to you, "The donkeys which you went looking for have been found, and your father has lost interest in the matter of the donkeys and is worrying about you and wondering, What am I to do about my son?"

1Sa 10:3 Going on from there, you will come to the Oak of Tabor, where you will meet three men going up to God at Bethel; one will be carrying three kids, one three loaves of bread and the third a skin of wine.

1Sa 10:4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread which you must accept from them.

1Sa 10:5 After this, you will come to Gibeah of God (where the Philistine garrison is) and, when you are just outside the town, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place, headed by lyre, tambourine, pipe and harp; they will be in a state of ecstasy.

1Sa 10:6 The spirit of Yahweh will then seize on you, and you will go into ecstasy with them, and be changed into another man.

1Sa 10:7 When these signs have occurred, act as occasion serves, for God is with you.

1Sa 10:8 You will then go down, ahead of me, to Gilgal, and I shall join you there to make burnt offerings and to offer communion sacrifices. You must wait seven days for me to come to you, and I shall then reveal to you what you must do.'

1Sa 10:9 As soon as he had turned his back to leave Samuel, God changed his heart. And all these signs occurred that very day . . .

1Sa 10:10 From there, they came to Gibeah: and there was a group of prophets coming to meet him! The spirit of God seized on him and he fell into ecstasy with them.

1Sa 10:11 Seeing him prophesying with the prophets, all the people who had known him previously said to one another, 'What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul one of the prophets too?'

1Sa 10:12 And one of the local people retorted, 'But who is their father?' Hence the origin of the proverb: Is Saul one of the prophets too?

1Sa 10:13 When he came out of his ecstasy, he went into Gibeah.

1Sa 10:14 Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, 'Where have you been?' 'Looking for the donkeys,' he replied, 'and when we could not find them anywhere, we went to Samuel.'

1Sa 10:15 Saul's uncle said, 'Tell me please what Samuel said to you.'

1Sa 10:16 Saul said to his uncle, 'He merely told us that the donkeys were already found,' but did not mention anything that Samuel had said about the kingship.

1Sa 10:17 Samuel summoned the people to Yahweh at Mizpah

1Sa 10:18 and said to the Israelites, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I brought Israel out of Egypt and delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you."

1Sa 10:19 But today you have rejected your God, him who saves you from all your difficulties and troubles; and you have said, "No, you must set a king over us." Very well, take your positions before Yahweh, tribe by tribe and clan by clan.'

1Sa 10:20 Samuel then made all the tribes of Israel come forward, and the lot indicated the tribe of Benjamin.

1Sa 10:21 He then made the tribe of Benjamin come forward clan by clan, and the lot indicated the clan of Matri; he then made the clan of Matri come forward one by one, and the lot indicated Saul son of Kish, but when they looked for him, he was not to be found.

1Sa 10:22 Again they consulted Yahweh, 'Has the man come here?' Yahweh replied, 'There he is, hiding among the baggage.'

1Sa 10:23 So they ran and fetched him out and, as he stood among the people, he was head and shoulders taller than any of them.

1Sa 10:24 Samuel then said to all the people, 'You have seen the man whom Yahweh has chosen, and that among the whole people he has no equal.' And all the people acclaimed him, shouting, 'Long live the king!'

1Sa 10:25 Samuel then explained the king's constitutional position to the people and inscribed this in a book which he placed before Yahweh. Samuel then sent all the people away, everyone back to his home.

1Sa 10:26 Saul too went home to Gibeah and with him went those strong men whose hearts God had touched.

1Sa 10:27 But there were some scoundrels who said, 'How can this fellow save us?' These treated him with contempt and offered him no present.

1Sa 11:1 About a month later, Nahash the Ammonite marched up and laid siege to Jabesh in Gilead. All the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, 'Make a treaty with us and we will be your subjects.'

1Sa 11:2 Nahash the Ammonite replied, 'I shall make a treaty with you only on this condition, that I put out all your right eyes, and I will make it a taunt to the whole of Israel.'

1Sa 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, 'Give us seven days' grace while we send messengers throughout the territory of Israel, and if no one comes to our help, we will come out to you.'

1Sa 11:4 The messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and reported this to the people, and all the people wept aloud.

1Sa 11:5 Now Saul was just then coming in from the fields behind his oxen, and he said, 'What is wrong? Why are the people weeping?' They explained to him what the men of Jabesh had said.

1Sa 11:6 And the spirit of Yahweh seized on Saul when he heard these words, and he fell into a fury.

1Sa 11:7 He took a yoke of oxen, cut them into pieces and sent these by messengers throughout the territory of Israel with these words, 'Anyone who will not march with Saul will have the same done to his oxen!' At this, a panic from Yahweh swept on the people and they marched out as one man.

1Sa 11:8 Saul inspected them at Bezek; there were three hundred thousand of Israel and thirty thousand of Judah.

1Sa 11:9 Then he said to the messengers who had come, 'This is what you are to say to the people of Jabesh in Gilead, "Tomorrow, by the time that the sun is hot, help will reach you." ' The messengers went and reported this to the people of Jabesh who were overjoyed;

1Sa 11:10 they said to Nahash, 'Tomorrow we shall come out to you and you can do whatever you like to us.'

1Sa 11:11 The next day, Saul disposed the army in three contingents, which burst into the middle of the camp during the dawn watch and slaughtered the Ammonites until high noon. The survivors were so scattered that no two of them were left together.

1Sa 11:12 The people then said to Samuel, 'Who said, "Must we have Saul reigning over us?" Hand the men over, for us to put them to death.'

1Sa 11:13 'No one must be put to death today,' Saul said, 'for today Yahweh has intervened to rescue Israel.'

1Sa 11:14 Samuel then said to the people, 'Let us now go to Gilgal and reaffirm the monarchy there.'

1Sa 11:15 The people then all went to Gilgal. And there, at Gilgal, they proclaimed Saul king before Yahweh; they offered communion sacrifices before Yahweh, and there Saul and all the people of Israel gave themselves over to great rejoicing.

1Sa 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, 'I have faithfully done all that you asked of me, and have appointed you a king.'

1Sa 12:2 In future, the king will lead you. As for me, I am old and grey, and in any case you have my sons. I have been your leader ever since I was young until today.

1Sa 12:3 Here I am. Bear witness against me before Yahweh and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Have I wronged or oppressed anyone? Have I taken a consideration from anyone for looking the other way? If so, I will make amends.'

1Sa 12:4 They said, 'You have neither wronged nor oppressed us nor accepted anything from anyone.'

1Sa 12:5 He said to them, 'Yahweh is your witness and his anointed is witness today that you have found nothing in my hands?' They replied, 'He is witness.'

1Sa 12:6 Samuel then said to the people, 'Yahweh is witness, he who raised up Moses and Aaron and who brought your ancestors out of Egypt.'

1Sa 12:7 So now, stay where you are, while I plead with you before Yahweh and remind you of all the saving acts which he has done for you and for your ancestors.

1Sa 12:8 After Jacob had arrived in Egypt, the Egyptians oppressed them, and your ancestors cried to Yahweh. Yahweh then sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your ancestors out of Egypt and gave them a settled home here.

1Sa 12:9 They then forgot Yahweh their God and he sold them into the power of Sisera, general of the army of Hazor, and also into the power of the Philistines and of the king of Moab, who made war on them.

1Sa 12:10 They cried to Yahweh, "We have sinned," they said, "for we have deserted Yahweh and served the Baals and the Astartes. Rescue us now from the power of our enemies, and we will serve you."

1Sa 12:11 Yahweh then sent Jerubbaal, Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel. He rescued you from the power of the enemies surrounding you, and you lived in security.

1Sa 12:12 'But when you saw Nahash, king of the Ammonites, marching on you, you said to me, "No, we must have a king to rule us"-although Yahweh your God is your king.'

1Sa 12:13 So, here is the king whom you have chosen; Yahweh has appointed you a king.

1Sa 12:14 If you fear and serve Yahweh and obey his voice and do not rebel against his commands, and if both you and the king who rules you follow Yahweh your God, all will be well.

1Sa 12:15 But if you do not obey Yahweh's voice but rebel against his commands, Yahweh's hand will be against you and against your king.

1Sa 12:16 'Stay where you are and see the wonder which Yahweh will do before your eyes.'

1Sa 12:17 Is it not now the wheat harvest? I shall call on Yahweh and he will send thunder and rain, so that you may clearly understand what a very wicked thing you have done, in Yahweh's eyes, by asking for a king.'

1Sa 12:18 Samuel then called on Yahweh, and Yahweh sent thunder and rain the same day, and all the people held Yahweh and Samuel in great awe.

1Sa 12:19 They all said to Samuel, 'Pray for your servants to Yahweh your God, to save us from death; for to all our sins we have added this wrong of asking for a king.'

1Sa 12:20 Samuel said to the people, 'Do not be afraid. Although you have done all these wicked things, do not withdraw your allegiance from Yahweh. Instead, serve Yahweh with all your heart.'

1Sa 12:21 Do not transfer your allegiance to useless idols which, being useless, are futile and cannot save anybody;

1Sa 12:22 Yahweh, for the sake of his great name, will not desert his people, for it has pleased Yahweh to make you his people.

1Sa 12:23 For my part, far be it from me to sin against Yahweh by ceasing to pray for you or to instruct you in the good and right way.

1Sa 12:24 Fear none but Yahweh, and serve him faithfully with all your heart, bearing in mind the wonder which he has just performed. But, if you persist in wickedness, you and your king will perish.'

1Sa 13:1 Saul was . . . years old when he became king, and reigned over Israel for . . . years.

1Sa 13:2 Saul selected three thousand men of Israel; two thousand of them were with Saul at Michmash and in the highlands of Bethel, and one thousand with Jonathan at Geba of Benjamin; the rest of the people Saul sent home, everyone to his tent.

1Sa 13:3 Jonathan killed the Philistine governor stationed at Gibeah and the Philistines were informed that the Hebrews had risen in revolt. Saul had the trumpet sounded throughout the country, 1Sa 13:4 and all Israel heard the news, 'Saul has killed the Philistine governor, and now Israel has antagonised the Philistines.' So all the people rallied behind Saul at Gilgal.

1Sa 13:5 The Philistines mustered to make war on Israel, three thousand chariots, six thousand horse and a force as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They came up and pitched camp at Michmash, to the east of Beth-Aven.

1Sa 13:6 When the Israelites saw that their plight was desperate, being so hard pressed, the people hid in caves, in holes, in crevices, in vaults, in wells.

1Sa 13:7 Some also crossed the Jordan fords into the territory of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal and all the people who followed him were trembling.

1Sa 13:8 He waited for seven days, the period fixed by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the army, deserting Saul, began dispersing.

1Sa 13:9 Saul then said, 'Bring me the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices.' And he presented the burnt offering.

1Sa 13:10 Just as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to meet and greet him.

1Sa 13:11 Samuel said, 'What have you been doing?' Saul replied, 'I saw the army deserting me and dispersing, and you had not come at the time fixed, while the Philistines were mustering at Michmash.'

1Sa 13:12 So I thought: Now the Philistines are going to fall on me at Gilgal and I have not implored the favour of Yahweh. So I felt obliged to make the burnt offering myself.'

1Sa 13:13 Samuel said to Saul, 'You have acted like a fool. You have not obeyed the order which Yahweh your God gave you. Otherwise, Yahweh would have confirmed your sovereignty over Israel for ever.'

1Sa 13:14 But now your sovereignty will not last; Yahweh has discovered a man after his own heart and designated him as leader of his people, since you have not carried out what Yahweh ordered you.'

1Sa 13:15 Samuel then got up and left Gilgal to continue his journey. Those people remaining followed Saul as he went to join the warriors, and went from Gilgal to Geba of Benjamin. Saul reviewed the force that was with him; there were about six hundred men.

1Sa 13:16 Saul, his son Jonathan, and the force that was with them took up their quarters in Geba of Benjamin while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

1Sa 13:17 The raiding company sallied out of the Philistine camp in three groups: one group made for Ophrah in the territory of Shual;

1Sa 13:18 one group made for Beth-Horon; and one group made for the high ground overlooking the Valley of the Hyenas, in the direction of the desert.

1Sa 13:19 There was not a single blacksmith throughout the territory of Israel, the Philistines' reasoning being, 'We do not want the Hebrews making swords or spears.'

1Sa 13:20 Hence, the Israelites were all in the habit of going down individually to the Philistines to sharpen their ploughshares, axes, mattocks and scythes.

1Sa 13:21 The price was two-thirds of a shekel for ploughshares and axes, and one-third for sharpening mattocks and straightening goads.

1Sa 13:22 So it was that on the day of the battle, no one in the army with Saul and Jonathan was equipped with either sword or spear; only Saul and his son Jonathan were so equipped.

1Sa 13:23 A Philistine unit set out for the Pass of Michmash.

1Sa 14:1 One day, Jonathan son of Saul said to his armour-bearer, 'Come on, let us go across to the Philistine outpost over on the other side.' But he did not inform his father.

1Sa 14:2 Saul was on the outskirts of Geba, sitting under the pomegranate tree that stands near the threshing-floor; the force with him numbered about six hundred men.

1Sa 14:3 Ahijah son of Ahitub, brother of Ichabod, son of Phinehas, son of Eli, the priest of Yahweh at Shiloh, was carrying the ephod. The force did not know that Jonathan had left.

1Sa 14:4 In the pass that Jonathan was trying to cross to reach the Philistine outpost, there is a rocky spur on one side and a rocky spur on the other; one is called Bozez, the other Seneh.

1Sa 14:5 The first spur stands to the north facing Michmash, the other to the south facing Geba.

1Sa 14:6 Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, 'Come on, let us go across to these uncircumcised people's outpost; perhaps Yahweh will do something for us, for Yahweh is free to grant deliverance through a few men, just as much as through many.'

1Sa 14:7 His armour-bearer replied, 'Do exactly as you think. I am with you; our hearts are as one.'

1Sa 14:8 Jonathan then said, 'Look, we will go across to these people and let ourselves be seen.'

1Sa 14:9 If they say, "Do not move until we come to you," we shall stay where we are and not go up to them.

1Sa 14:10 But if they say, "Come up to us," we shall go up, for that will be the sign for us that Yahweh has given them into our power.'

1Sa 14:11 When the two of them let themselves be seen by the Philistine outpost, the Philistines said, 'Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have been hiding.'

1Sa 14:12 The men of the outpost then hailed Jonathan and his armour-bearer. 'Come up to us,' they said, 'we have something to tell you.' Jonathan then said to his armour-bearer, 'Follow me up; Yahweh has given them into the power of Israel.'

1Sa 14:13 Jonathan clambered up on hands and feet, with his armour-bearer behind him; the Philistines fell at Jonathan's onslaught, and his armour-bearer, coming behind, finished them off.

1Sa 14:14 This first killing made by Jonathan and his armour-bearer accounted for about twenty men . . .

1Sa 14:15 There was panic in the camp, in the field and throughout the army; outpost and raiding company too were panic-stricken; the earth quaked: it was a panic from Yahweh.

1Sa 14:16 Saul's look-out men in Geba of Benjamin could see the camp scattering in all directions.

1Sa 14:17 Saul then said to the force that was with him, 'Call the roll and see who has left us.' So they called the roll, and Jonathan and his armour-bearer were missing.

1Sa 14:18 Saul then said to Ahijah, 'Bring the ephod,' since he was the man who carried the ephod in Israel.

1Sa 14:19 But while Saul was speaking to the priest, the turmoil in the Philistine camp grew worse and worse; and Saul said to the priest, 'Withdraw your hand.'

1Sa 14:20 Saul and the whole force with him then formed up and advanced to where the fighting was going on: and there they all were, drawing their swords on one another in wild confusion.

1Sa 14:21 Those Hebrews who had earlier taken service with the Philistines and had accompanied them into camp, now defected to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1Sa 14:22 Similarly, all those Israelites who had been hiding in the highlands of Ephraim, hearing that the Philistines were on the run, chased after them and joined in the fight.

1Sa 14:23 That day Yahweh gave Israel the victory. The fighting reached the other side of Beth-Horon.

1Sa 14:24 As the men of Israel were hard pressed that day, Saul pronounced this imprecation over the people, 'A curse on anyone who eats food before evening, before I have taken revenge on my enemies!' So none of the people so much as tasted food.

1Sa 14:25 Now there was a honeycomb out in the open.

1Sa 14:26 The people came to the honeycomb, the honey was dripping out, but no one put a hand to his mouth, the people being in awe of the oath.

1Sa 14:27 Jonathan, however, not having heard his father bind the people with the oath, reached with the end of the stick which he was carrying, thrust it into the honeycomb and put it to his mouth; whereupon his eyes grew brighter.

1Sa 14:28 One of the people then spoke up. 'Your father', he said, 'has bound the people with this oath: "A curse on anyone who eats anything today."'

1Sa 14:29 'My father has brought trouble on the country,' Jonathan replied. 'See how much brighter my eyes are for having eaten this mouthful of honey.'

1Sa 14:30 By the same token, if the people had been allowed to eat some of the booty which they had captured from the enemy today, would not the defeat of the Philistines have been all the greater?'

1Sa 14:31 That day the Philistines were beaten from Michmash all the way to Aijalon, until the people were utterly exhausted.

1Sa 14:32 The people flung themselves on the booty and, taking sheep, bullocks and calves, slaughtered them there on the ground and ate them with the blood.

1Sa 14:33 Saul was informed, 'The people are sinning against Yahweh by eating with the blood!' He said, 'You have not kept faith! Roll me a large stone here!'

1Sa 14:34 Saul then said, 'Scatter among the people and say, "Everyone is to bring his bullock or his sheep to me here." You will slaughter them here and eat, and not sin against Yahweh by eating with the blood.' Each individual brought what he happened to have that night, and they all slaughtered in the same place.

1Sa 14:35 Saul built an altar to Yahweh; it was the first altar he had built to Yahweh.

1Sa 14:36 Saul said, 'Let us go down under cover of dark and plunder the Philistines until dawn; we shall not leave one of them alive.' 'Do whatever you think right,' they replied. But the priest said, 'Let us approach God here.'

1Sa 14:37 Saul consulted God, 'Shall I go down and pursue the Philistines? Will you hand them over to Israel?' But he gave him no reply that day.

1Sa 14:38 Saul then said, 'Come forward, all you leaders of the people; consider carefully where today's sin may lie;

1Sa 14:39 for as Yahweh lives who gives victory to Israel, even if the sin lies with Jonathan my son, he shall be put to death.' But not one out of all the people answered.

1Sa 14:40 He then said to all Israel, 'Stand on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will stand on the other.' And the people replied to Saul, 'Do as you think right.'

1Sa 14:41 Saul then said, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, why did you not answer your servant today? Yahweh, God of Israel, if the fault lies with me or with my son Jonathan, give urim: if the fault lies with your people Israel, give thummim.' Jonathan and Saul were indicated and the people went free.

1Sa 14:42 Saul said, 'Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan,' and Jonathan was indicated.

1Sa 14:43 'I only tasted a mouthful of honey off the end of the stick which I was carrying. But I am ready to die.'

1Sa 14:44 Saul said, 'May God bring unnameable ills on me, and worse ones too, if you do not die, Jonathan!'

1Sa 14:45 But the people said to Saul, 'Must Jonathan die after winning this great victory for Israel? We will never allow that! As Yahweh lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for his deeds today have been done with the help of God.' And so the people ransomed Jonathan and he was not put to death.

1Sa 14:46 Saul decided not to pursue the Philistines, and the Philistines retired to their own territory.

1Sa 14:47 Saul consolidated his rule over Israel and made war on all his enemies on all fronts: on Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the king of Zobah and the Philistines; whichever way he turned, he was victorious.

1Sa 14:48 He did great deeds of valour; he defeated the Amalekites and delivered Israel from those who used to pillage him.

1Sa 14:49 Saul's sons were: Jonathan, Ishvi and Malchishua. The names of his two daughters were: the elder, Merab, and the younger, Michal.

1Sa 14:50 The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of his army commander was Abner son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

1Sa 14:51 Kish father of Saul, and Ner father of Abner were the sons of Abiel.

1Sa 14:52 There was fierce warfare with the Philistines throughout Saul's life. Any strong or valiant man who caught Saul's eye, he recruited into his service.

1Sa 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, 'I am the man whom Yahweh sent to anoint you as king of his people Israel, so now listen to the words of Yahweh.'

1Sa 15:2 This is what Yahweh Sabaoth says, "I intend to punish what Amalek did to Israel -- laying a trap for him on the way as he was coming up from Egypt."

1Sa 15:3 Now, go and crush Amalek; put him under the curse of destruction with all that he possesses. Do not spare him, but kill man and woman, babe and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and donkey."

1Sa 15:4 Saul summoned the people and reviewed them at Telaim: two hundred thousand foot soldiers (and ten thousand men of Judah).

1Sa 15:5 Saul advanced on the town of Amalek and lay in ambush in the river bed.

1Sa 15:6 Saul said to the Kenites, 'Go away, leave your homes among the Amalekites, in case I destroy you with them -- you acted with faithful love towards all the Israelites when they were coming up from Egypt.' So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

1Sa 15:7 Saul then crushed the Amalekites, beginning at Havilah in the direction of Shur, which is to the east of Egypt.

1Sa 15:8 He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive and, executing the curse of destruction, put all the people to the sword.

1Sa 15:9 But Saul and the army spared Agag with the best of the sheep and cattle, the fatlings and lambs and all that was good. They did not want to consign these to the curse of destruction; they consigned only what was poor and worthless.

1Sa 15:10 The word of Yahweh came to Samuel,

1Sa 15:11 'I regret having made Saul king, since he has broken his allegiance to me and not carried out my orders.' Samuel was appalled and cried to Yahweh all night long.

1Sa 15:12 In the morning, Samuel set off to find Saul. Samuel was told, 'Saul has been to Carmel, to raise himself a monument there, but now has turned about, moved on and gone down to Gilgal.'

1Sa 15:13 When Samuel reached Saul, Saul said, 'May you be blessed by Yahweh! I have carried out Yahweh's orders.'

1Sa 15:14 Samuel replied, 'Then what is this bleating of sheep in my ears and the lowing of cattle that I hear?'

1Sa 15:15 Saul said, 'They have been brought from Amalek, the people having spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice them to Yahweh, your God; the rest we have consigned to the curse of destruction.'

1Sa 15:16 Samuel then said to Saul, 'Stop! Let me tell you what Yahweh said to me last night.' He said, 'Go on.'

1Sa 15:17 Samuel said, 'Small as you may be in your own eyes, are you not the leader of the tribes of Israel? Yahweh has anointed you as king of Israel.'

1Sa 15:18 When Yahweh sent you on a mission he said to you, "Go and put those sinners, the Amalekites, under the curse of destruction and make war on them until they are exterminated."

1Sa 15:19 Why then did you not obey Yahweh's voice? Why did you fall on the booty and do what is wrong in Yahweh's eyes?

1Sa 15:20 Saul replied to Samuel, 'But I did obey Yahweh's voice. I went on the mission which Yahweh gave me; I brought back Agag king of the Amalekites; I put Amalek under the curse of destruction;

1Sa 15:21 and from the booty the people have taken the best sheep and cattle of what was under the curse of destruction only to sacrifice them to Yahweh your God in Gilgal.'

1Sa 15:22 To which, Samuel said: Is Yahweh pleased by burnt offerings and sacrifices or by obedience to Yahweh's voice? Truly, obedience is better than sacrifice, submissiveness than the fat of rams.

1Sa 15:23 Rebellion is a sin of sorcery, presumption a crime of idolatry! 'Since you have rejected Yahweh's word, he has rejected you as king.'

1Sa 15:24 Saul then said to Samuel, 'I have sinned, having broken Yahweh's order and your instructions because I was afraid of the people and yielded to their demands.'

1Sa 15:25 Now, please forgive my sin and come back with me, so that I can worship Yahweh.'

1Sa 15:26 Samuel said to Saul, 'I will not come back with you, since you have rejected Yahweh's word and Yahweh has rejected you as king of Israel.'

1Sa 15:27 As Samuel turned away to leave, Saul caught at the hem of his cloak and it tore,

1Sa 15:28 and Samuel said to him, 'Today Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from you and given it to a neighbour of yours who is better than you.'

1Sa 15:29 (The Glory of Israel, however, does not lie or go back on his word, not being human and liable to go back on his word.)

1Sa 15:30 'I have sinned,' Saul said, 'but please still show me respect in front of my people's elders and in front of Israel, and come back with me, so that I can worship Yahweh your God.'

1Sa 15:31 Samuel followed Saul back and Saul worshipped Yahweh.

1Sa 15:32 Samuel then said, 'Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites!' Agag came towards him unsteadily saying, 'Truly death is bitter!'

1Sa 15:33 Samuel said: As your sword has left women childless, so will your mother be left childless among women! Samuel then butchered Agag before Yahweh at Gilgal.

1Sa 15:34 Samuel left for Ramah, and Saul went up home to Gibeath of Saul.

1Sa 15:35 Samuel did not see Saul again till his dying day. Samuel indeed mourned over Saul, but Yahweh regretted having made Saul king of Israel.

1Sa 16:1 Yahweh said to Samuel, 'How much longer do you mean to go on mourning over Saul, now that I myself have rejected him as ruler of Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have found myself a king from among his sons.'

1Sa 16:2 Samuel replied, 'How can I go? When Saul hears of it he will kill me.' Yahweh then said, 'Take a heifer with you and say, "I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh."

1Sa 16:3 Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I shall reveal to you what you must do; and you will anoint for me the one I indicate to you.'

1Sa 16:4 Samuel did what Yahweh ordered and went to Bethlehem. The elders of the town came trembling to meet him and asked, 'Seer, is your coming favourable for us?'

1Sa 16:5 'Yes,' he replied. 'I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Purify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.' He purified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

1Sa 16:6 When they arrived, he looked at Eliab and thought, 'This must be Yahweh's anointed now before him,'

1Sa 16:7 but Yahweh said to Samuel, 'Take no notice of his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him; God does not see as human beings see; they look at appearances but Yahweh looks at the heart.'

1Sa 16:8 Jesse then called Abinadab and presented him to Samuel, who said, 'Yahweh has not chosen this one either.'

1Sa 16:9 Jesse then presented Shammah, but Samuel said, 'Yahweh has not chosen this one either.'

1Sa 16:10 Jesse thus presented seven of his sons to Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, 'Yahweh has not chosen these.'

1Sa 16:11 He then asked Jesse, 'Are these all the sons you have?' Jesse replied, 'There is still one left, the youngest; he is looking after the sheep.' Samuel then said to Jesse, 'Send for him, for we shall not sit down to eat until he arrives.'

1Sa 16:12 Jesse had him sent for; he had ruddy cheeks, with fine eyes and an attractive appearance. Yahweh said, 'Get up and anoint him: he is the one!'

1Sa 16:13 At this, Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him, surrounded by his brothers; and the spirit of Yahweh seized on David from that day onwards. Samuel, for his part, set off and went to Ramah.

1Sa 16:14 Now the spirit of Yahweh had withdrawn from Saul, and an evil spirit from Yahweh afflicted him with terrors.

1Sa 16:15 Saul's servants said to him, 'An evil spirit from God is undoubtedly the cause of your terrors.
1Sa 16:16 Let our lord give the order, and your servants who wait on you will look for a skilled harpist; when the evil spirit from God comes over you, he will play and it will do you good.'
1Sa 16:17 Saul said to his attendants, 'Find me, please, a man who plays well, and bring him to me.'
1Sa 16:18 One of the servants then spoke up and said, 'I have seen one of the sons of Jesse the Bethlehemite: he is a skilled player, a brave man and a fighter, well spoken, good-looking and Yahweh is with him.'
1Sa 16:19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse with the order, 'Send me your son David (who is with the sheep).'
1Sa 16:20 Jesse took five loaves, a skin of wine and a kid, and sent them to Saul by his son David.
1Sa 16:21 David went to Saul and entered his service; Saul became very fond of him and David became his armour-bearer.
1Sa 16:22 Saul then sent a message to Jesse, 'Let David stay in my service, since he has won my favour.'
1Sa 16:23 And whenever the spirit from God came over Saul, David would take a harp and play; Saul would then be soothed; it would do him good, and the evil spirit would leave him.
1Sa 17:1 The Philistines mustered their troops for war; they assembled at Socoh in Judah and pitched camp between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-Dammim.
1Sa 17:2 Saul and the Israelites also mustered, pitching camp in the Valley of the Terebinth, and drew up their battle-line opposite the Philistines.
1Sa 17:3 The Philistines occupied the high ground on one side and the Israelites occupied the high ground on the other side, with the valley between them.
1Sa 17:4 A champion stepped out from the Philistine ranks; his name was Goliath, from Gath; he was six cubits and one span tall.
1Sa 17:5 On his head was a bronze helmet and he wore a breastplate of scale-armour; the breastplate weighed five thousand shekels of bronze.
1Sa 17:6 He had bronze greaves on his legs and a bronze scimitar slung across his shoulders.
1Sa 17:7 The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron. A shield-bearer walked in front of him.
1Sa 17:8 Taking position in front of the Israelite lines, he shouted, 'Why have you come out to range yourselves for battle? Am I not a Philistine and are you not Saul's lackeys? Choose a man and let him come down to me.
1Sa 17:9 If he can fight it out with me and kill me, we will be your servants; but if I can beat him and kill him, you become our servants and serve us.'
1Sa 17:10 The Philistine then said, 'I challenge the ranks of Israel today. Give me a man and we will fight it out!'
1Sa 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard what the Philistine said, they were dismayed and terrified.
1Sa 17:12 David was the son of an Ephrathite from Bethlehem of Judah whose name was Jesse; Jesse had eight sons and, by Saul's time, he was old and well on in years.
1Sa 17:13 Jesse's eldest three sons followed Saul to the war. The names of the three sons who went to the war were: the eldest Eliab, the second Abinadab and the third Shammah.
1Sa 17:14 David was the youngest; the eldest three followed Saul.
1Sa 17:15 David alternated between serving Saul and looking after his father's sheep at Bethlehem.
1Sa 17:16 Morning and evening, the Philistine advanced, presenting himself thus for forty days.
1Sa 17:17 Jesse said to his son David, 'Take your brothers this ephah of roasted grain and these ten loaves, and hurry to the camp, to your brothers.
1Sa 17:18 And take these ten cheeses to their commanding officer; find out how your brothers are and bring some token back from them;
1Sa 17:19 they are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of the Terebinth, fighting the Philistines.'
1Sa 17:20 David got up early in the morning and, leaving the sheep with someone to guard them, took up his load and went off as Jesse had ordered; he reached the encampment just as the troops were leaving to take up battle stations and shouting the war cry.
1Sa 17:21 Israel and the Philistines drew up their lines facing one another.
1Sa 17:22 David left his bundle in charge of the baggage guard and, running to the battle-line, went and asked his brothers how they were.
1Sa 17:23 While he was talking to them, the champion (Goliath, the Philistine from Gath) came up from the Philistine ranks and made his usual speech, which David heard.
1Sa 17:24 As soon as the Israelites saw this man, they all ran away from him and were terrified.
1Sa 17:25 The Israelites said, 'You saw that man who just came up? He comes to challenge Israel. The king will lavish riches on the man who kills him, he will give him his daughter in marriage and exempt his father's family from all taxes in Israel.'1Sa 17:26 David asked the men who were standing near him, 'What would be the reward for killing this Philistine and saving Israel from disgrace? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine, to challenge the armies of the living God?'

1Sa 17:27 The people told him what they had been saying, 'That would be the reward for killing him,' they said.

1Sa 17:28 His eldest brother Eliab heard David talking to the men and grew angry with him. 'Why have you come down here?' he said. 'Whom have you left in charge of those few sheep in the desert? I know how impudent and artful you are; you have come to watch the battle!'

1Sa 17:29 David retorted, 'What have I done? May I not even speak?'

1Sa 17:30 And he turned away from him to someone else and asked the same question, to which the people replied as before.

1Sa 17:31 David's words were noted, however, and reported to Saul, who sent for him.

1Sa 17:32 David said to Saul, 'Let no one be discouraged on his account; your servant will go and fight this Philistine.'

1Sa 17:33 Saul said to David, 'You cannot go and fight the Philistine; you are only a boy and he has been a warrior since his youth.'

1Sa 17:34 David said to Saul, 'Your servant used to look after the sheep for his father and whenever a lion or a bear came and took a sheep from the flock,

1Sa 17:35 I used to follow it up, lay into it and snatch the sheep out of its jaws. If it turned on me, I would seize it by the beard and batter it to death.

1Sa 17:36 Your servant has killed both lion and bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine will end up like one of them for having challenged the armies of the living God.'

1Sa 17:37 'Yahweh,' David went on, 'who delivered me from the claws of lion and bear, will deliver me from the clutches of this Philistine.' Then Saul said to David, 'Go, and Yahweh be with you!'

1Sa 17:38 Saul dressed David in his own armour; he put a bronze helmet on his head, dressed him in a breastplate

1Sa 17:39 and buckled his own sword over David's armour. David tried to walk but, not being used to them, said to Saul, 'I cannot walk in these; I am not used to them.' So they took them off again.

1Sa 17:40 He took his stick in his hand, selected five smooth stones from the river bed and put them in his shepherd's bag, in his pouch; then, sling in hand, he walked towards the Philistine.

1Sa 17:41 The Philistine, preceded by his shield-bearer, came nearer and nearer to David.

1Sa 17:42 When the Philistine looked David up and down, what he saw filled him with scorn, because David was only a lad, with ruddy cheeks and an attractive appearance.

1Sa 17:43 The Philistine said to David, 'Am I a dog for you to come after me with sticks?' And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1Sa 17:44 The Philistine said to David, 'Come over here and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the wild beasts!'

1Sa 17:45 David retorted to the Philistine, 'You come to me with sword, spear and scimitar, but I come to you in the name of Yahweh Sabaoth, God of the armies of Israel, whom you have challenged.'

1Sa 17:46 Today, Yahweh will deliver you into my hand; I shall kill you, I shall cut off your head; today, I shall give your corpse and the corpses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the wild beasts, so that the whole world may know that there is a God in Israel,

1Sa 17:47 and this whole assembly know that Yahweh does not give victory by means of sword and spear -- for Yahweh is lord of the battle and he will deliver you into our power.'

1Sa 17:48 No sooner had the Philistine started forward to confront David than David darted out of the lines and ran to meet the Philistine.

1Sa 17:49 Putting his hand in his bag, he took out a stone, slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead; the stone penetrated his forehead and he fell face downwards on the ground.

1Sa 17:50 Thus David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; he hit the Philistine and killed him, though he had no sword in his hand.

1Sa 17:51 David ran and stood over the Philistine, seized his sword, pulled it from the scabbard, despatched him and cut off his head. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

1Sa 17:52 The men of Israel and of Judah started forward, shouting their war cry, and pursued the Philistines as far as the approaches of Gath and the gates of Ekron. The Philistine dead lay all along the road from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.

1Sa 17:53 Turning back from their ferocious pursuit of the Philistines, the Israelites plundered their camp.

1Sa 17:54 And David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem; his weapons, however, he put in his own tent.

1Sa 17:55 When Saul saw David going to engage the Philistine he said to Abner, the army commander, 'Abner, whose son is that boy?' 'On your life, O king,' Abner replied, 'I do not know.'

1Sa 17:56 The king said, 'Find out whose son the lad is.'

1Sa 17:57 When David came back after killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand.

- 1Sa 17:58 Saul asked him, 'Whose son are you, young man?' David replied, 'The son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem.'
- 1Sa 18:1 When David had finished talking to Saul, Jonathan felt an instant affection for David; Jonathan loved him like his very self;
- 1Sa 18:2 Saul engaged him that very day and would not let him go home to his father.
- 1Sa 18:3 Jonathan made a pact with David, since he loved him like his very self;
- 1Sa 18:4 Jonathan took off the cloak which he was wearing and gave it to David, and his armour too, even including his sword, his bow and his belt.
- 1Sa 18:5 Wherever David was sent on a mission by Saul, he was successful, and Saul put him in command of the fighting men; all the people respected him and so did Saul's staff.
- 1Sa 18:6 On their return, when David was coming back from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel singing and dancing to meet King Saul, with tambourines, sistrua and cries of joy;
- 1Sa 18:7 and as they danced the women sang: Saul has killed his thousands, and David his tens of thousands.
- 1Sa 18:8 Saul was very angry; the incident displeased him. 'They have given David the tens of thousands,' he said, 'but me only the thousands; what more can he have, except the throne?'
- 1Sa 18:9 And Saul watched David jealously from that day onwards.
- 1Sa 18:10 The following day, an evil spirit from God seized on Saul and he fell into a frenzy while he was indoors. David played the harp as on other occasions; Saul had a spear in his hand.
- 1Sa 18:11 Saul brandished the spear; he said, 'I will pin David to the wall!' David evaded him twice.
- 1Sa 18:12 Saul feared David, since Yahweh was with him and had withdrawn from Saul.
- 1Sa 18:13 So Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him commander of a thousand; he led the people on campaign.
- 1Sa 18:14 In all his expeditions, David was successful and Yahweh was with him.
- 1Sa 18:15 And Saul, seeing how very successful he was, was afraid of him.
- 1Sa 18:16 All Israel and Judah loved David, however, since he was their leader on campaign.
- 1Sa 18:17 Saul said to David, 'This is my elder daughter Merab; I shall give her to you in marriage; but you must serve me bravely and fight Yahweh's wars.' Saul thought, 'Better than strike the blow myself, let the Philistines do it!'
- 1Sa 18:18 David replied to Saul, 'Who am I and what is my lineage -- and my father's family -- in Israel, for me to become the king's son-in-law?'
- 1Sa 18:19 When the time came for Merab daughter of Saul to be given to David, she was given to Adriel of Meholah instead.
- 1Sa 18:20 Now Michal daughter of Saul fell in love with David. When Saul heard this he was pleased.
- 1Sa 18:21 He thought, 'Yes, I shall give her to him; she can be the snare for him, so that the Philistines will get him.' (On two occasions, Saul told David, 'Today, you shall be my son-in-law.')
- 1Sa 18:22 Saul gave instructions to his servants, 'Have a private word with David and say, "Look, the king is fond of you and all his servants love you -- why not be the king's son-in-law?"'
- 1Sa 18:23 Saul's servants repeated these words in David's ear, to which David replied, 'Do you think that becoming the king's son-in-law is a trivial matter; I have neither wealth nor position.'
- 1Sa 18:24 Saul's servants then reported back, 'This is what David said.'
- 1Sa 18:25 Saul replied, 'Tell David this, "The king desires no bride-price except one hundred Philistine foreskins, in vengeance on the king's enemies." ' Saul was counting on getting David killed by the Philistines.
- 1Sa 18:26 When his servants repeated this to David, David thought it would be a fine thing to be the king's son-in-law. And no time was lost
- 1Sa 18:27 before David got up to go, he and his men, and killed two hundred of the Philistines. David brought their foreskins back and counted them out before the king, so that he could be the king's son-in-law. Saul then gave him his daughter Michal in marriage.
- 1Sa 18:28 Saul could not but see that Yahweh was with David, and that the whole House of Israel loved him;
- 1Sa 18:29 Saul became more afraid of David than ever, and became his inveterate enemy.
- 1Sa 18:30 The Philistine chiefs kept mounting their campaigns but, whenever they did so, David proved more successful than any of Saul's staff; consequently he gained great renown.
- 1Sa 19:1 Saul let his son Jonathan and all his servants know of his intention to kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, held David in great affection;
- 1Sa 19:2 and Jonathan warned David, 'My father Saul is looking for a way to kill you, so be on your guard tomorrow morning; go into hiding, stay out of sight.'
- 1Sa 19:3 I shall go out and keep my father company in the countryside where you will be, and shall talk to my father about you; I shall see what the situation is and then tell you.'
- 1Sa 19:4 Jonathan spoke highly of David to Saul his father and said, 'The king should not harm his servant David; far from harming you, what he has done has been greatly to your advantage.'

1Sa 19:5 He took his life in his hands, he killed the Philistine, and Yahweh brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw for yourself. How pleased you were! Why then sin against innocent blood by killing David for no reason?"

1Sa 19:6 Saul was impressed by Jonathan's words. Saul swore, 'As Yahweh lives, I will not kill him.'

1Sa 19:7 Jonathan called David and told him all this. Jonathan then brought him to Saul, and David remained in attendance as before.

1Sa 19:8 War broke out again and David sallied out to fight the Philistines; he inflicted a great defeat on them and they fled before him.

1Sa 19:9 An evil spirit from Yahweh came over Saul while he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand; David was playing the harp.

1Sa 19:10 Saul tried to pin David to the wall with his spear, but he avoided Saul's thrust and the spear stuck in the wall. David fled and made good his escape. That same night

1Sa 19:11 Saul sent agents to watch David's house, intending to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, warned him, 'If you do not escape tonight, you will be a dead man tomorrow!'

1Sa 19:12 Michal then let David down through the window, and he made off, took to flight and so escaped.

1Sa 19:13 Michal then took a domestic image, laid it on the bed, put a tress of goats' hair at the head of the bed and put a cover over it.

1Sa 19:14 When Saul sent the agents to arrest David, she said, 'He is ill.'

1Sa 19:15 Saul sent the agents back to see David, with the words, 'Bring him to me on his bed, for me to kill him!'

1Sa 19:16 So in the agents went, and there in bed was the image, with the tress of goats' hair on its head!

1Sa 19:17 Saul then said to Michal, 'Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, and so make his escape?' Michal replied to Saul, 'He said, "Let me go, or I shall kill you!"'

1Sa 19:18 David, having fled and made his escape, went to Samuel at Ramah and told him exactly how Saul had treated him; he and Samuel went and lived in the huts.

1Sa 19:19 Word was brought to Saul, 'David is in the huts at Ramah.'

1Sa 19:20 Saul accordingly sent agents to capture David; when they saw the community of prophets prophesying, and Samuel there as their leader, the spirit of God came over Saul's agents, and they too fell into frenzy.

1Sa 19:21 When Saul was told of this, he sent other agents, and they too fell into frenzy; Saul then sent a third group of agents, and they fell into frenzy too.

1Sa 19:22 He then went to Ramah himself and, arriving at the large storage-well at Seku, asked, 'Where are Samuel and David?' And someone said, 'Why, they are in the huts at Ramah!'

1Sa 19:23 Making his way from there to the huts at Ramah, the spirit of God came over him too, and he went along in a frenzy until he arrived at the huts at Ramah.

1Sa 19:24 He too stripped off his clothes and he too fell into a frenzy in Samuel's presence, then collapsed naked on the ground for the rest of that day and all night. Hence the saying: Is Saul one of the prophets too?

1Sa 20:1 Fleeing from the huts at Ramah, David went and confronted Jonathan, 'What have I done, what is my guilt, how have I wronged your father, for him to want to take my life?'

1Sa 20:2 He replied, 'You must not think that! You are not going to die. My father, you see, does nothing, important or unimportant, without confiding in me, so why should my father hide this from me? It is not true.'

1Sa 20:3 In reply, David swore, 'Your father knows very well that I enjoy your favour, and thinks, "Jonathan must not know about this or he will be upset." But, as Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, there is only a step between me and death.'

1Sa 20:4 At which, Jonathan said to David, 'Whatever you think best, I will certainly do for you.'

1Sa 20:5 David replied, 'Look, tomorrow is New Moon and I ought to sit at table with the king, but you must let me go and hide in the countryside until the evening.'

1Sa 20:6 If your father notices my absence, you must say, "David insistently asked me for permission to hurry over to Bethlehem, his home town, because they are holding the annual sacrifice there for the whole clan."

1Sa 20:7 If he says, "Very well," your servant is safe, but if he flies into a rage, you may be sure that he has some evil plan.

1Sa 20:8 Show your servant faithful love, since you have bound your servant to you by a pact in Yahweh's name. But if I am guilty, then kill me yourself -- why take me to your father?'

1Sa 20:9 Jonathan replied, 'Perish the thought! If I knew for sure that my father was determined to do you a mischief, would I not have told you?'

1Sa 20:10 David then said to Jonathan, 'Who will let me know if your father gives you a harsh answer?'

1Sa 20:11 Jonathan then said to David, 'Come on, let us go out into the country,' and the pair of them went out into the country.

1Sa 20:12 Jonathan then said to David, 'By Yahweh, God of Israel! I shall sound my father this time tomorrow; if all is well for David and I do not then send and inform you,

1Sa 20:13 may Yahweh bring unnameable ills to Jonathan and worse ones too! If my father intends to do you a mischief, I shall tell you so and let you get away, so that you can be safe. And may Yahweh be with you as he used to be with my father!

1Sa 20:14 If I am still alive, show your servant faithful love; if I die,

1Sa 20:15 never withdraw your faithful love from my family. When Yahweh has exterminated every enemy of David's from the face of the earth, 1Sa 20:16 do not let Jonathan's name be exterminated with Saul's family, or may Yahweh call David to account!

1Sa 20:17 Jonathan then renewed his oath to David, since he loved him like his very soul.

1Sa 20:18 Jonathan then said to David, 'Tomorrow is New Moon; your absence will be noticed, since your place will be empty.'

1Sa 20:19 The day after tomorrow your absence will be very marked, and you must go to the place where you hid on the day of the deed, and stay beside that mound.

1Sa 20:20 For my part, the day after tomorrow I shall shoot three arrows in that direction, as though at a target.

1Sa 20:21 I shall then send a servant to go and find the arrows. If I say to him, "The arrows are this side of you, get them," come out, since all will be well for you and nothing the matter, as sure as Yahweh lives.

1Sa 20:22 But if I say to him, "The arrows are ahead of you," then be off, for Yahweh himself will be sending you away.

1Sa 20:23 And as regards the agreement we made, you and I, why, Yahweh is witness between us for ever.'

1Sa 20:24 So David hid in the country; New Moon came and the king sat down to his meal.

1Sa 20:25 He sat in his usual place with his back to the wall, Jonathan sat facing him and Abner sat next to Saul; but David's place was empty.

1Sa 20:26 Saul said nothing that day, thinking, 'It is sheer chance; he is unclean.'

1Sa 20:27 On the day after New Moon, the second day, David's place was still empty.

1Sa 20:28 Saul said to his son Jonathan, 'Why did not the son of Jesse come to the meal either yesterday or today?'

1Sa 20:29 Jonathan answered Saul, 'David insistently asked me for permission to go to Bethlehem. "Please let me go," he said, "for we are holding the clan sacrifice in the town and my brothers have ordered me to attend. So now, if I enjoy your favour, let me get away and see my brothers." That is why he has not come to the king's table.'

1Sa 20:30 Saul flew into a rage with Jonathan and said, 'Son of a rebellious slut! Don't I know that you side with the son of Jesse to your own shame and your mother's dishonour?

1Sa 20:31 As long as the son of Jesse lives on earth, neither you nor your royal rights are secure. Now have him fetched and brought to me; he deserves to die.'

1Sa 20:32 Jonathan retorted to his father Saul, 'Why should he die? What has he done?'

1Sa 20:33 But Saul brandished his spear at him to strike him, and Jonathan realised that his father was determined that David should die.

1Sa 20:34 Hot with anger, Jonathan got up from the table and ate nothing on the second day of the month, being upset about David -- and because his father had insulted him.

1Sa 20:35 Next morning, Jonathan went out into the country at the time agreed with David, taking a young servant with him.

1Sa 20:36 He said to his servant, 'Run and find the arrows which I am going to shoot,' and the servant ran while Jonathan shot an arrow ahead of him.

1Sa 20:37 When the servant reached the spot to which Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan shouted after him, 'Is not the arrow ahead of you?'

1Sa 20:38 Again Jonathan shouted after the servant, 'Quick! Hurry, do not stand around.' Jonathan's servant picked up the arrow and brought it back to his master.

1Sa 20:39 The servant suspected nothing; only Jonathan and David knew what was meant.

1Sa 20:40 Jonathan then gave his weapons to his servant and said, 'Go and carry them to the town.'

1Sa 20:41 As soon as the servant had gone, David stood up beside the mound, threw himself to the ground, prostrating himself three times. They then embraced each other, both weeping copiously.

1Sa 20:42 Jonathan then said to David, 'Go in peace. And as regards the oath that both of us have sworn by the name of Yahweh, may Yahweh be witness between you and me, between your descendants and mine for ever.'

1Sa 21:1 David then got up and left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

1Sa 21:2 David then went to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech came out trembling to meet David and said, 'Why are you alone? Why is nobody with you?'

1Sa 21:3 David replied to Ahimelech the priest, 'The king has given me an order and said to me, "Do not let anyone know anything about the mission on which I am sending you, or about the order which I have given you." I have arranged to meet the guards at such and such a place.

1Sa 21:4 Meanwhile, if you have five loaves of bread to hand, give them to me, or whatever there is.'

1Sa 21:5 The priest replied to David, 'I have no ordinary bread to hand; there are only consecrated loaves of permanent offering -- provided that the men have kept themselves from women?'

1Sa 21:6 David replied to the priest, 'Certainly, women have been forbidden to us, as always when I set off on a campaign. The men's things are clean. Though this is a profane journey, they are certainly clean today as far as their things are concerned.'

1Sa 21:7 The priest then gave him what had been consecrated, for the only bread there was the loaves of permanent offering, which is taken out of Yahweh's presence, to be replaced by warm bread on the day when it is removed.

1Sa 21:8 Now one of Saul's servants happened to be there that day, detained in Yahweh's presence; his name was Doeg the Edomite and he was the strongest of Saul's shepherds.

1Sa 21:9 David then said to Ahimelech, 'Have you no spear or sword here to hand? I did not bring either my sword or my weapons with me, because the king's business was urgent.'

1Sa 21:10 The priest replied, 'The sword of Goliath the Philistine whom you killed in the Valley of the Terebinth is here, wrapped in a piece of clothing behind the ephod; if you care to take it, do so, for that is the only one here.' David said, 'There is nothing like that one; give it to me.'

1Sa 21:11 David journeyed on and that day fled out of Saul's reach, going to Achish king of Gath.

1Sa 21:12 Achish's servants said to him, 'Is not this David, the king of the country? Was it not of him that they sang as they danced: Saul has killed his thousands, and David his tens of thousands?'

1Sa 21:13 David pondered on these words and became very frightened of Achish king of Gath.

1Sa 21:14 When their eyes were on him, he played the madman and, when they held him, he feigned lunacy. He drummed his feet on the doors of the gate and let his spittle run down his beard.

1Sa 21:15 Achish said to his servants, 'You can see that this man is mad. Why bring him to me?

1Sa 21:16 Have I not enough madmen, without your bringing me this one to weary me with his antics? Is he to join my household?'

1Sa 22:1 David left there and took refuge in the Cave of Adullam; his brothers and his father's whole family heard this and joined him there.

1Sa 22:2 All those in distress, all those in debt, all those who had a grievance, gathered round him and he became their leader. There were about four hundred men with him.

1Sa 22:3 From there David went to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, 'Allow my father and mother to stay with you until I know what God intends to do for me.'

1Sa 22:4 He left them with the king of Moab and there they stayed all the time that David was in the stronghold.

1Sa 22:5 The prophet Gad, however, said to David, 'Do not stay in the stronghold; leave and make your way into the territory of Judah.' David then left and went to the forest of Hereth.

1Sa 22:6 When Saul heard that David and the men with him had been discovered, Saul was at Gibeah, seated under the tamarisk on the high place, spear in hand, with all his staff standing round him.

1Sa 22:7 'Listen, Benjaminites!' said Saul to them, 'Is the son of Jesse going to give you all fields and vineyards and make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds

1Sa 22:8 that you all conspire against me? No one warned me when my son made a pact with the son of Jesse; none of you felt sorry for me or warned me when my son incited my servant to become my enemy, as he is now.'

1Sa 22:9 Then, up spoke Doeg the Edomite, who was in command of Saul's staff, 'I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub.

1Sa 22:10 That man consulted Yahweh on his behalf, gave him provisions and also the sword of Goliath the Philistine.'

1Sa 22:11 The king then sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and his whole family, the priests of Nob; they all came to the king.

1Sa 22:12 Saul said, 'Now listen, son of Ahitub!' He replied, 'Here I am, my lord.'

1Sa 22:13 'Why have you conspired against me,' said Saul, 'you and the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword and consulting God on his behalf, for him to rebel against me as is now the case?'

1Sa 22:14 Ahimelech replied to the king, 'Of all those in your service, who is more loyal than David son-in-law to the king, captain of your bodyguard, honoured in your household?

1Sa 22:15 Was today the first time I ever consulted God on his behalf? Indeed it was not! The king has no grounds for bringing any charge against his servant or against his whole family, for your servant knew nothing whatever about all this.'

1Sa 22:16 The king retorted, 'You must die, Ahimelech, you and your whole family.'

1Sa 22:17 The king said to the scouts who were standing round him, 'Forward! and put the priests of Yahweh to death, for they too are on David's side, they knew that he was escaping, yet did not warn me of it.' The king's professional soldiers, however, would not lift a hand to strike the priests of Yahweh.

1Sa 22:18 The king then said to Doeg, 'Forward, you! Fall on the priests!' Doeg the Edomite stepped forward and fell on the priests, himself that day killing eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

1Sa 22:19 Nob, the town of the priests, Saul put to the sword: men and women, children and infants, cattle, donkeys and sheep.

1Sa 22:20 One son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub alone escaped. His name was Abiathar, and he fled away to join David.

1Sa 22:21 When Abiathar told David that Saul had slaughtered the priests of Yahweh,

1Sa 22:22 David said to Abiathar, 'I knew, that day when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would be sure to inform Saul. I am responsible for the death of all your kinsmen.'

1Sa 22:23 Stay with me, do not be afraid, for he who seeks your life seeks mine; you will be safe with me.'

1Sa 23:1 News was then brought to David, 'The Philistines are besieging Keilah and plundering the threshing-floors'.

1Sa 23:2 David consulted Yahweh, 'Shall I go and fight these Philistines?' Yahweh replied to David, 'Go and fight the Philistines and save Keilah.'

1Sa 23:3 But David's men said to him, 'We are already afraid here in Judah; how much more, then, if we go to Keilah to fight the Philistine troops!'

1Sa 23:4 So David consulted Yahweh again and Yahweh replied, 'Be on your way; go down to Keilah, since I shall give the Philistines into your power.'

1Sa 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought the Philistines and carried off their cattle and inflicted a great defeat on them. Thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

1Sa 23:6 When Abiathar son of Ahimelech took refuge with David, he went down to Keilah with the ephod in his hand.

1Sa 23:7 When word was brought to Saul that David had gone to Keilah he said, 'God has delivered him into my power: he has trapped himself by going into a town with gates and bars.'

1Sa 23:8 Saul called all the people to arms, to go down to Keilah and besiege David and his men.

1Sa 23:9 David, however, was aware that Saul was plotting evil against him, and said to Abiathar the priest, 'Bring the ephod.'

1Sa 23:10 David said, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, your servant has heard that Saul is preparing to come to Keilah and destroy the town because of me.'

1Sa 23:11 Will Saul come down as your servant has heard? Yahweh, God of Israel, I beg you, let your servant know.' Yahweh replied, 'He will come down.'

1Sa 23:12 David then went on to ask, 'Will the notables of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?' Yahweh replied, 'They will hand you over.'

1Sa 23:13 At this, David made off with his men, about six hundred in number; they left Keilah and went where they could. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he abandoned the expedition.

1Sa 23:14 David stayed in the desert, in the strongholds; he stayed in the mountains, in the desert of Ziph; Saul kept looking for him day after day, but God did not deliver him into his power.

1Sa 23:15 David was aware that Saul had mounted an expedition to take his life. David was then at Horesh in the desert of Ziph.

1Sa 23:16 Jonathan son of Saul set off and went to David at Horesh and encouraged him in the name of God.

1Sa 23:17 'Do not be afraid,' he said, 'for my father Saul's hand will not reach you. You are to reign over Israel, and I shall be second to you. Saul my father is himself aware of this.'

1Sa 23:18 And the two made a pact before Yahweh. David stayed at Horesh and Jonathan went home.

1Sa 23:19 Some men from Ziph then went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, 'Look, David is hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the Hill of Hachilah to the south of the wastelands.'

1Sa 23:20 Now whenever you wish to go down, my lord king, do so; we shall make it our task to hand him over to the king.'

1Sa 23:21 Saul replied, 'May you be blessed by Yahweh for sympathising with me.'

1Sa 23:22 Go and make doubly sure, find out exactly what place he frequents, for I have been told that he is very cunning.

1Sa 23:23 Take careful note of all the hiding places where he lurks, and come back to me when you are certain. I shall then come with you and, if he is in the country, I shall track him down through every clan in Judah!'

1Sa 23:24 Setting off they went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Meanwhile, David and his men were in the desert of Maon, in the plain to the south of the wastelands.

1Sa 23:25 When Saul and his men set out in search, David was told and went down to the gorge running through the desert of Maon.

1Sa 23:26 Saul and his men proceeded along one side of the mountain, David and his men along the other. David was hurrying to escape from Saul, while Saul and his men were trying to cross over to David and his men's side, to capture them,

1Sa 23:27 when a messenger came to Saul and said, 'Come at once, the Philistines have invaded the country.'

1Sa 23:28 So Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to oppose the Philistines. That is why the place is called the Gorge of Separations.

1Sa 24:1 From there David went up and installed himself in the strongholds of En-Gedi.

1Sa 24:2 Once Saul was back from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, 'David is now in the desert of En-Gedi.'

1Sa 24:3 Saul thereupon took three thousand men selected from all Israel and went in search of David and his men east of the Rocks of the Mountain Goats.

1Sa 24:4 He came to the sheepfolds along the route, where there was a cave, and went in to cover his feet.

Now David and his men were sitting in the recesses of the cave;

1Sa 24:5 David's men said to him, 'Today is the day of which Yahweh said to you, "I shall deliver your enemy into your power; do what you like with him." ' David got up and, unobserved, cut off the border of Saul's cloak.

1Sa 24:6 Afterwards David reproached himself for having cut off the border of Saul's cloak.

1Sa 24:7 He said to his men, 'Yahweh preserve me from doing such a thing to my lord as to raise my hand against him, since he is Yahweh's anointed.'

1Sa 24:8 By these words David restrained his men and would not let them attack Saul.

1Sa 24:9 Saul then left the cave and went on his way. After this, David too left the cave and called after Saul, 'My lord king!' Saul looked behind him and David, bowing to the ground, prostrated himself.

1Sa 24:10 David then said to Saul, 'Why do you listen to people who say, "David intends your ruin"?

1Sa 24:11 This very day you have seen for yourself how Yahweh put you in my power in the cave and how, refusing to kill you, I spared you saying, "I will not raise my hand against my lord, since he is Yahweh's anointed."

1Sa 24:12 Look, father, look at the border of your cloak in my hand. Since, although I cut the border off your cloak, I did not kill you, surely you realise that I intend neither mischief nor crime. I have not wronged you, and yet you hunt me down to take my life.

1Sa 24:13 May Yahweh be judge between me and you, and may Yahweh avenge me on you; but I shall never lay a hand on you!

1Sa 24:14 (As the old proverb says: Wickedness comes out of wicked people, but I shall never lay a hand on you!)

1Sa 24:15 On whose trail is the king of Israel campaigning? Whom are you pursuing? On the trail of a dead dog, of a flea!

1Sa 24:16 May Yahweh be the judge and decide between me and you; may he examine and defend my cause and give judgement for me by rescuing me from your clutches!

1Sa 24:17 When David had finished saying this to Saul, Saul said, 'Is that your voice, my son David?' And Saul began to weep aloud.

1Sa 24:18 'You are upright and I am not,' he said to David, 'since you have behaved well to me, whereas I have behaved badly to you.'

1Sa 24:19 And today you have shown how well you have behaved to me, since Yahweh had put me in your power but you did not kill me.

1Sa 24:20 When a man comes on his enemy, does he let him go unmolested? May Yahweh reward you for the good you have done me today!

1Sa 24:21 Now I know that you will indeed reign and that the sovereignty in Israel will pass into your hands.

1Sa 24:22 Now swear to me by Yahweh that you will not suppress my descendants once I am gone, or blot my name out of my family.'

1Sa 24:23 This David swore to Saul, and Saul went home while David and his men went back to the stronghold.

1Sa 25:1 Samuel died and all Israel assembled to mourn for him. They buried him at his home in Ramah. David then set off and went down to the desert of Maon.

1Sa 25:2 Now, there was a man in Maon whose business was at Carmel; the man was very rich: he owned three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was then at Carmel, having his sheep shorn.

1Sa 25:3 The man's name was Nabal and his wife's Abigail. She was a woman of intelligence and beauty, but the man was miserly and churlish. He was a Calebite.

1Sa 25:4 When David heard in the desert that Nabal was at his sheepshearing, 1Sa 25:5 he sent ten men off, having said to them, 'Go up to Carmel, visit Nabal and greet him from me.

1Sa 25:6 And this is what you are to say to my brother, "Peace to you, peace to your family, peace to all that is yours!"

1Sa 25:7 I hear that you now have the shearers; your shepherds were with us recently: we did not molest them, nor did they lose anything all the while they were at Carmel.

1Sa 25:8 Ask your young men and they will tell you. I hope that you will give the men a welcome, coming as we do on a festival. Whatever you have to hand please give to your servants and to your son David.' '

1Sa 25:9 David's men went and said all this to Nabal for David, and waited.

1Sa 25:10 Nabal retorted to the men in David's service, 'Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse?

1Sa 25:11 There are many servants nowadays who run away from their masters. Am I to take my bread and my wine and the meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers and give it to men who come from I know not where?'

1Sa 25:12 David's men turned on their heels and went back, and on their arrival told him exactly what had been said.

1Sa 25:13 David then said to his men, 'Every man buckle on his sword!' And they buckled on their swords, and David buckled on his too; about four hundred followed David while two hundred stayed with the baggage.

1Sa 25:14 Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife. He said, 'David sent messengers from the desert to greet our master, but he flared up at them.'

1Sa 25:15 Now, these men were very good to us; they did not molest us and we lost nothing all the time we had anything to do with them while we were out in the country.

1Sa 25:16 Night and day, they were like a rampart to us, all the time we were with them, minding the sheep.

1Sa 25:17 So now make up your mind what you should do, for the ruin of our master and his whole family is a certainty, and he is such a brute that no one can say a word to him.'

1Sa 25:18 Abigail hastily took two hundred loaves, two skins of wine, five sheep ready prepared, five measures of roasted grain, a hundred bunches of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs and loaded them on donkeys.

1Sa 25:19 She said to her servants, 'Go on ahead, I shall follow you' -- but she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1Sa 25:20 As she was riding her donkey down behind a fold in the mountain, David and his men happened to be coming down in her direction; and she met them.

1Sa 25:21 Now, David had decided, 'It was a waste of time my guarding all this man's property in the desert so that he lost nothing at all! He has repaid me bad for good.'

1Sa 25:22 May God bring unnameable ills on David and worse ones, too, if by morning I leave a single manjack alive of all who belong to him!'

1Sa 25:23 As soon as Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted from the donkey and, falling on her face in front of David, prostrated herself on the ground.

1Sa 25:24 She fell at his feet and said, 'Let me take the blame, my lord. Let your servant speak in your ear; listen to what your servant has to say!'

1Sa 25:25 My lord, please pay no attention to this brute Nabal for his nature is like his name; "Brute" is his name and brutal he is. But I, your servant, did not see the men whom my lord sent.

1Sa 25:26 And now, my lord, as Yahweh lives and as your soul lives, by Yahweh who kept you from the crime of bloodshed and from taking vengeance with your own hand, may your enemies and all those ill-disposed towards you become like Nabal.

1Sa 25:27 As for the present which your servant has brought my lord, I should like this to be given to the men in your service.

1Sa 25:28 Please forgive your servant for any offence I have given you, for Yahweh will certainly assure you of a lasting dynasty, since you are fighting Yahweh's battles and no fault has been found in you throughout your life.

1Sa 25:29 Should anyone set out to hunt you down and try to kill you, your life will be kept close in the wallet of life with Yahweh your God, while your enemies' lives he will fling out of the pouch of the sling.

1Sa 25:30 Once Yahweh has done for you all the good things which he has said he will do for you, and made you ruler of Israel,

1Sa 25:31 you must have no anxiety, my lord, no remorse, over having wantonly shed blood, over having taken a revenge. When Yahweh has done well by you, then remember your servant.'

1Sa 25:32 David said to Abigail, 'Blessed be Yahweh, God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today!

1Sa 25:33 Blessed be your wisdom and blessed you yourself for today having restrained me from the crime of bloodshed and from exacting revenge!

1Sa 25:34 But as Yahweh, God of Israel, lives, who prevented me from harming you, had you not hurried out to meet me, I swear Nabal would not have had a single manjack left alive by morning!'

1Sa 25:35 David then accepted what she had brought him and said, 'Go home in peace; yes, I have listened to you and have pardoned you.'

1Sa 25:36 Abigail returned to Nabal. He was holding a feast, a princely feast, in his house; Nabal was in high spirits, and as he was very drunk she told him nothing at all till it was daylight.

1Sa 25:37 In the morning, when Nabal's wine had left him and his wife told him everything that had happened, his heart died within him and he became like a stone.

1Sa 25:38 About ten days later Yahweh struck Nabal, and he died.

1Sa 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, 'Blessed be Yahweh for having defended my cause over the insult which I received from Nabal, and for having restrained his servant from doing wrong! Yahweh has made Nabal's wickedness rebound on his own head!'

1Sa 25:40 David then sent Abigail an offer of marriage. When the men in David's service came to Abigail at Carmel, they said, 'David has sent us to take you to him, to be his wife.'

1Sa 25:41 She stood up, then prostrated herself on the ground. 'Consider your servant a slave', she said, 'to wash the feet of my lord's servants.'

1Sa 25:42 Quickly Abigail stood up again and mounted a donkey; followed by five of her servant-girls, she followed David's messengers and became his wife.

1Sa 25:43 David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel and he kept them both as wives.

1Sa 25:44 Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, from Gallim.

1Sa 26:1 Some men from Ziph went to Saul at Gibeah and said, 'Look, David is hiding on the Hill of Hachilah on the edge of the wastelands!'

1Sa 26:2 So Saul set off and went down to the desert of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph.

1Sa 26:3 Saul pitched camp on the Hill of Hachilah, which is on the edge of the wastelands near the road. David was then living in the desert and saw that Saul had come after him into the desert.

1Sa 26:4 Accordingly, David sent out spies and learned that Saul had indeed arrived.

1Sa 26:5 Setting off, David went to the place where Saul had pitched camp. He saw the place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, commander of his army, had bedded down. Saul had bedded down inside the camp with the troops bivouacking round him.

1Sa 26:6 Speaking to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah and brother of Joab, David said, 'Who will come down with me to the camp, to Saul?' Abishai answered, 'I will go down with you.'

1Sa 26:7 So in the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul lying asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him.

1Sa 26:8 Abishai then said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I shall not need to strike him twice.'

1Sa 26:9 David said to Abishai, 'Do not kill him, for who could raise his hand against Yahweh's anointed and go unpunished?

1Sa 26:10 As Yahweh lives,' David said, 'Yahweh himself will strike him down: either the day will come for him to die, or he will go into battle and perish then.'

1Sa 26:11 Yahweh forbid that I should raise my hand against Yahweh's anointed! But now let us take the spear beside his head and the pitcher of water, and let us go away.'

1Sa 26:12 David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, because a torpor from Yahweh had fallen on them.

1Sa 26:13 David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them.

1Sa 26:14 David then called out to the troops and to Abner son of Ner, 'Abner, why don't you answer?' Abner replied, 'Who is that calling?'

1Sa 26:15 David said to Abner, 'Are you not a man? Who is your equal in Israel? Why, then, did you not guard the king your lord? One of the people came to kill the king your lord.'

1Sa 26:16 What you did was not well done. As Yahweh lives, you all deserve to die since you did not guard your lord, Yahweh's anointed. Look where the king's spear is now, and the pitcher of water which was beside his head!'

1Sa 26:17 Recognising David's voice, Saul said, 'Is that your voice, my son David?' David replied, 'It is my voice, my lord king.'

1Sa 26:18 Why is my lord pursuing his servant?' he said. 'What have I done? What crime have I committed?'

1Sa 26:19 May my lord king now listen to his servant's words: if Yahweh has incited you against me, may he be appeased with an offering; but if human beings have done it, may they be accursed before Yahweh, since they have as effectively banished me today from sharing in Yahweh's heritage as if they had said, "Go and serve other gods!"

1Sa 26:20 So I pray now that my blood shall not be shed on soil remote from Yahweh's presence, when the king of Israel has mounted an expedition to take my life, as one might hunt a partridge in the mountains!'

1Sa 26:21 Saul replied, 'I have done wrong! Come back, my son David; I shall never harm you again, since today you have shown respect for my life. Yes, I have behaved like a fool, I have been profoundly in the wrong.'

1Sa 26:22 In reply, David said, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the men come across and get it.'

1Sa 26:23 May Yahweh reward each as each has been upright and loyal. Today Yahweh put you in my power but I would not raise my hand against Yahweh's anointed.'

1Sa 26:24 As today I set great value by your life, so may Yahweh set great value by my life and deliver me from every tribulation!'

1Sa 26:25 Saul then said, 'May you be blessed, my son David! In what you undertake, you will certainly succeed.' David then went on his way and Saul returned home.

1Sa 27:1 'One of these days,' David thought, 'I shall perish at the hand of Saul. The best thing that I can do is to get away into the country of the Philistines; then Saul will give up tracking me through the length and breadth of Israel and I shall be safe from him.'

1Sa 27:2 So David set off and went over, he and his six hundred men, to Achish son of Maoch, king of Gath.

1Sa 27:3 He settled at Gath with Achish, he and his men, each with his family and David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1Sa 27:4 When news reached Saul that David had fled to Gath, he stopped searching for him.

1Sa 27:5 David said to Achish, 'If I have won your favour, let me be given a place in one of the outlying towns, where I can live. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?'

1Sa 27:6 That very day Achish gave him Ziklag; and this is why Ziklag has been the property of the kings of Judah to the present day.

1Sa 27:7 The time that David stayed in Philistine territory amounted to a year and four months.

1Sa 27:8 David and his men went out on raids against the Geshurites, Girzites and Amalekites, for these are the tribes inhabiting the region which, from Telam, goes in the direction of Shur, as far as Egypt.

1Sa 27:9 David laid the countryside waste and left neither man nor woman alive; he carried off the sheep and cattle, the donkeys, camels and clothing, and then came back again to Achish.

1Sa 27:10 Achish would ask, 'Where did you go raiding today?' David would reply, 'Against the Negeb of Judah,' or 'the Negeb of Jerahmeel,' or 'the Negeb of the Kenites.'

1Sa 27:11 David spared neither man nor woman to bring back alive to Gath, 'in case', as he thought, 'they inform on us and say, "David did such and such." ' This was the way David conducted his raids all the time he stayed in Philistine territory.

1Sa 27:12 Achish trusted David. 'He has made himself detested by his own people Israel,' he thought, 'and so will be my servant for ever.'

1Sa 28:1 It then happened that the Philistines mustered their forces for war, to fight Israel, and Achish said to David, 'It is understood that you and your men go into battle with me.'

1Sa 28:2 David said to Achish, 'In that case, you will soon see what your servant can do.' Achish replied to David, 'Right, I shall appoint you as my permanent bodyguard.'

1Sa 28:3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned him and buried him at Ramah, his own town. Saul had expelled the necromancers and wizards from the country.

1Sa 28:4 Meanwhile the Philistines had mustered and had come and pitched camp at Shunem. Saul mustered all Israel and they encamped at Gilboa.

1Sa 28:5 When Saul saw the Philistine camp, he was afraid and his heart trembled violently.

1Sa 28:6 Saul consulted Yahweh, but Yahweh gave him no answer, either by dream, divination or prophet.

1Sa 28:7 Saul then said to his servants, 'Find a necromancer for me, so that I can go and consult her.' His servants replied, 'There is a necromancer at En-Dor.'

1Sa 28:8 And so Saul, disguising himself and changing his clothes, set out accompanied by two men; their visit to the woman took place at night. 'Disclose the future to me', he said, 'by means of a ghost. Conjure up the one I shall name to you.'

1Sa 28:9 The woman replied, 'Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has outlawed necromancers and wizards from the country; why are you setting a trap for my life, then, to have me killed?'

1Sa 28:10 But Saul swore to her by Yahweh, 'As Yahweh lives,' he said, 'no blame shall attach to you for this business.'

1Sa 28:11 The woman asked, 'Whom shall I conjure up for you?' He replied, 'Conjure up Samuel.'

1Sa 28:12 The woman then saw Samuel and, giving a great cry, she said to Saul, 'Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!'

1Sa 28:13 The king said, 'Do not be afraid! What do you see?' The woman replied to Saul, 'I see a ghost rising from the earth.'

1Sa 28:14 'What is he like?' he asked. She replied, 'It is an old man coming up; he is wrapped in a cloak.' Saul then knew that it was Samuel and, bowing to the ground, prostrated himself.

1Sa 28:15 Samuel said to Saul, 'Why have you disturbed my rest by conjuring me up?' Saul replied, 'I am in great distress; the Philistines are waging war on me, and God has abandoned me and no longer answers me either by prophet or by dream; and so I have summoned you to tell me what I ought to do.'

1Sa 28:16 Samuel said, 'Why consult me, when Yahweh has abandoned you and has become your enemy?

1Sa 28:17 Yahweh has treated you as he foretold through me; he has snatched the sovereignty from your hand and given it to your neighbour, David,

1Sa 28:18 because you disobeyed Yahweh's voice and did not execute his fierce anger against Amalek. That is why Yahweh is treating you like this today.'

1Sa 28:19 What is more, Yahweh will deliver Israel and you too, into the power of the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me; and Yahweh will hand over the army of Israel into the power of the Philistines.'

1Sa 28:20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground. He was terrified by what Samuel had said and was also weak from having eaten nothing all that day and night.

1Sa 28:21 The woman went to Saul and, seeing his terror, said, 'Look, your servant has obeyed your order; I have taken my life in my hands and obeyed the command which you gave me.'

1Sa 28:22 Now please, you in your turn listen to what your servant has to say. Let me offer you a piece of bread. Eat something and get some strength for your journey.'

1Sa 28:23 But he refused. 'I will not eat,' he said. His servants however pressed him, and so did the woman. Allowing himself to be persuaded by them, he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.

1Sa 28:24 The woman owned a fattened calf which she quickly slaughtered, and she took some flour and kneaded it and with it baked some unleavened cakes

1Sa 28:25 which she served to Saul and his servants; they ate, and then set off and left the same night.

1Sa 29:1 The Philistines mustered all their forces at Aphek while the Israelites pitched camp near the spring in Jezreel.

1Sa 29:2 The Philistine commanders marched past with their hundreds and their thousands, and David and his men brought up the rear with Achish.

1Sa 29:3 The Philistine chiefs asked, 'What are these Hebrews doing?' Achish replied to them, 'Why, this is David the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me for the last year or two. I have had no fault to find with him from the day he gave himself up to me until the present time.'

1Sa 29:4 But the Philistine chiefs were angry with him. 'Send the man back,' they said, 'make him go back to the place which you assigned to him. He cannot go into battle with us, in case he turns on us once battle is joined. Would there be a better way for the man to regain his master's favour than with the heads of these men here?'

1Sa 29:5 Is not this the David of whom they sang as they danced: Saul has killed his thousands, and David his tens of thousands?'

1Sa 29:6 So Achish called David and said, 'As Yahweh lives, you are loyal, and I am quite content with all your doings in our campaigning together, since I have found no fault with you from the day you came to me until the present time. But you are not acceptable to the chiefs.'

1Sa 29:7 So go home, in peace, rather than antagonise them.'

1Sa 29:8 'But what have I done,' David asked Achish, 'what fault have you had to find with your servant from the day I entered your service to the present time, for me not to be allowed to go and fight the enemies of my lord the king?'

1Sa 29:9 In reply, Achish said to David, 'In my opinion, it is true, you are as good as an angel of God; but the Philistine chiefs have said, "He must not go into battle with us."

1Sa 29:10 So get up early tomorrow morning, with your master's servants who came with you, and go to the place which I assigned to you. Do not harbour resentment, since personally I have no fault to find with you. Get up early tomorrow morning and, as soon as it is light, be off.'

1Sa 29:11 So David and his men got up early to leave at dawn and go back to Philistine territory. And the Philistines marched on Jezreel.

1Sa 30:1 Now by the time David and his men reached Ziklag three days later, the Amalekites had raided the Negeb and Ziklag; they had sacked Ziklag and burnt it down.

1Sa 30:2 They had taken the women prisoner, and everyone who was there, both small and great. They had not killed anyone, but had carried them off and gone away.

1Sa 30:3 When David and his men arrived, they found the town burnt down and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

1Sa 30:4 Then David and the people with him wept aloud till they were too weak to weep any more.

1Sa 30:5 David's two wives had been captured: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1Sa 30:6 David was in great trouble, since the people were talking of stoning him; the people all felt very bitter, each man for his own sons and daughters. But David took courage from Yahweh his God.

1Sa 30:7 To the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, David said, 'Bring me the ephod.' Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

1Sa 30:8 David then consulted Yahweh, 'Shall I go in pursuit of these raiders? Will I overtake them?' The answer was, 'Go in pursuit; you will certainly overtake them and rescue the captives.'

1Sa 30:9 David accordingly set off with the six hundred men who were with him and reached the torrent of Besor.

1Sa 30:10 David then continued the pursuit with four hundred men, two hundred staying behind who were too exhausted to cross the torrent of Besor.

1Sa 30:11 Out in the country they found an Egyptian and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and some water to drink;

1Sa 30:12 they also gave him a piece of fig cake and two bunches of raisins; he ate these and his spirits revived

-- he had had nothing to eat or drink for three days and three nights.

1Sa 30:13 David then said to him, 'Whose man are you and where do you come from?' He replied, 'I am a young Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite; my master abandoned me because I fell sick three days ago.
1Sa 30:14 We raided the Negeb of the Cherethites, and the Negeb of Judah, and the Negeb of Caleb too, and we burnt Ziklag down.'

1Sa 30:15 David said, 'Will you guide me to these raiders?' He replied, 'Swear to me by God not to kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will guide you to these raiders.'

1Sa 30:16 He guided him to them, and there they were, scattered over the whole countryside, eating, drinking and celebrating, on account of the enormous booty which they had brought back from the territory of the Philistines and the territory of Judah.

1Sa 30:17 David slaughtered them from dawn until the evening of the following day. No one escaped, except four hundred young men who mounted camels and fled.

1Sa 30:18 He rescued everything that the Amalekites had taken -- David also rescued his two wives.

1Sa 30:19 Nothing of theirs was lost, whether small or great, from the booty or sons and daughters -- everything that had been taken from them; David recovered everything.

1Sa 30:20 They captured the flocks and herds as well and drove them in front of him. 'This is David's booty,' they shouted.

1Sa 30:21 When David reached the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow him and whom he had left at the torrent of Besor, they came out to meet David and the party accompanying him; David approached with his party and greeted them.

1Sa 30:22 But all the rogues and scoundrels among the men who had gone with David began saying, 'Since they did not go with us, we shall not give them any of the booty which we have rescued, except that each of them can have his wife and children. Let them take them away and be off.'

1Sa 30:23 But David said, 'Do not behave like this, brothers, with what Yahweh has given us; he has protected us and has handed over to us the raiders who attacked us.'

1Sa 30:24 Who would agree with you on this? No: As the share of the man who goes into battle, so is the share of the man who stays with the baggage. They will share alike.'

1Sa 30:25 And from that day on, he made that a rule and custom for Israel, which obtains to the present day.

1Sa 30:26 When David reached Ziklag, he sent parts of the booty to the elders of Judah, town by town, with this message, 'Here is a present for you, taken from the booty of Yahweh's enemies':

1Sa 30:27 to those in Bethel, to those in Ramoth of the Negeb,

1Sa 30:28 to those in Jattir, to those in Aroer, to those in Siphmoth, to those in Eshtemoa,

1Sa 30:29 to those in Carmel, to those in the towns of Jerahmeel, to those in the towns of the Kenites,

1Sa 30:30 to those in Hormah, to those in Borashan, to those in Athach, 1Sa 30:31 to those in Hebron and to all the places which David and his men had frequented.

1Sa 31:1 The Philistines gave battle to Israel, and the Israelites, fleeing from the Philistines, fell and were slaughtered on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:2 The Philistines bore down on Saul and his sons, and they killed Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

1Sa 31:3 The fighting grew fiercer round Saul; the archers came upon him, and he was severely wounded

1Sa 31:4 by the archers. Saul then said to his armour-bearer, 'Draw your sword and run me through with it; I do not want these uncircumcised men to come and make fun of me.' But his armour-bearer was very much afraid and would not do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1Sa 31:5 His armour-bearer, seeing that Saul was dead, fell on his sword too and died with him.

1Sa 31:6 Thus died Saul, his three sons and his armour-bearer, together on the same day.

1Sa 31:7 When the Israelites who were on the other side of the Jordan saw that the Israelites had been routed and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines then came and occupied them.

1Sa 31:8 When the Philistines came on the following day to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons lying on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:9 They cut off his head and, stripping him of his armour, had these carried round the territory of the Philistines to proclaim the good news to their idols and their people.

1Sa 31:10 They put his armour in the temple of Astarte; and his body they fastened to the walls of Beth-Shean.

1Sa 31:11 When the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Sa 31:12 the warriors all set out and, having marched all night, took the bodies of Saul and his sons off the walls of Beth-Shean; they brought them to Jabesh and burned them there.

1Sa 31:13 They then took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk of Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

2Sa 1:1 Saul was dead and David, returning after his victory over the Amalekites, had been at Ziklag for two days.

2Sa 1:2 On the third day, a man arrived from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and earth on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

2Sa 1:3 David asked him, 'Where have you come from?' 'I have escaped from the Israelite camp,' he said.

2Sa 1:4 David said, 'What has happened? Tell me.' He replied, 'The people fled from the battle, and many of them have fallen and are dead. Saul and his son Jonathan are dead too.'

2Sa 1:5 Then David asked the young man who brought the news, 'How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?'

2Sa 1:6 The young man replied, 'I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and the cavalry bearing down on him.'

2Sa 1:7 Glancing behind him and seeing me, he shouted to me. I replied, "Here I am!"

2Sa 1:8 He said, "Who are you?" I replied, "I am an Amalekite."

2Sa 1:9 He then said, "Come here and kill me. My head is swimming, although I still have all my strength."

2Sa 1:10 So I went over to him and killed him, because I knew that once he fell he could not survive. I then took the crown which he had on his head and the bracelet on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord.'

2Sa 1:11 David then took hold of his clothes and tore them, and all the men with him did the same.

2Sa 1:12 They mourned and wept and fasted until the evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, for the people of Yahweh and for the House of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2Sa 1:13 David said to the young man who had brought the news, 'Where are you from?' He replied, 'I am the son of a resident foreigner, an Amalekite.'

2Sa 1:14 David said, 'How was it that you were not afraid to lift your hand to destroy Yahweh's anointed?'

2Sa 1:15 Then David called one of the young men. 'Come here,' he said, 'strike him down.' The man struck him and he died.

2Sa 1:16 David said, 'Your blood be on your own head. You convicted yourself out of your own mouth by saying, "I killed Yahweh's anointed."'

2Sa 1:17 David sang the following lament over Saul and his son Jonathan

2Sa 1:18 (it is for teaching archery to the children of Judah; it is written in the Book of the Just):

2Sa 1:19 Does the splendour of Israel lie dead on your heights? How did the heroes fall?

2Sa 1:20 Do not speak of it in Gath, nor broadcast it in the streets of Ashkelon, for fear the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, for fear the daughters of the uncircumcised gloat.

2Sa 1:21 You mountains of Gilboa, no dew, no rain fall on you, O treacherous fields where the heroes' shield lies dishonoured! Not greased with oil, the shield of Saul, 2Sa 1:22 but with the blood of wounded men, the fat of warriors! The bow of Jonathan never turned back, the sword of Saul never came home unsated!

2Sa 1:23 Saul and Jonathan, beloved and handsome, were divided neither in life, nor in death. Swifter than eagles were they, stronger than lions.

2Sa 1:24 O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul who gave you scarlet and fine linen to wear, who pinned golden jewellery on your dresses!

2Sa 1:25 How did the heroes fall in the thick of the battle? Jonathan, by your dying I too am stricken, 2Sa 1:26 I am desolate for you, Jonathan my brother. Very dear you were to me, your love more wonderful to me than the love of a woman.

2Sa 1:27 How did the heroes fall and the weapons of war succumb!

2Sa 2:1 After this David consulted Yahweh, asking, 'Shall I go up to one of the towns of Judah?' Yahweh replied, 'Go up!' 'Which one shall I go to?' David asked. 'To Hebron,' was the reply.

2Sa 2:2 So David went up, with his two wives Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2Sa 2:3 In addition David brought up the men who were with him, each with his family, and they settled in the towns of Hebron.

2Sa 2:4 The men of Judah came, and there they anointed David as king of the House of Judah. They told David that the people of Jabesh in Gilead had given Saul burial,

2Sa 2:5 so David sent messengers to the people of Jabesh in Gilead. 'May you be blessed by Yahweh,' he said, 'for showing this faithful love to Saul your lord, and for burying him.'

2Sa 2:6 And now may Yahweh show faithful love and constancy towards you! I too shall treat you well because you have done this.

2Sa 2:7 And now take courage and be men of valour. Saul your lord is dead, but the House of Judah has anointed me to be their king.'

2Sa 2:8 Abner son of Ner, Saul's army commander, had taken Ishbaal son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:9 He had made him king of Gilead, of the Asherites, of Jezreel, of Ephraim, of Benjamin and indeed of all Israel.

2Sa 2:10 Ishbaal son of Saul was forty years old when he became king of Israel, and he reigned for two years. Only the House of Judah supported David.

2Sa 2:11 The length of David's reign over Judah in Hebron was seven years and six months.

2Sa 2:12 Abner son of Ner, with the retainers of Ishbaal son of Saul, marched out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

2Sa 2:13 Joab son of Zeruiah, with David's retainers, also took the field, encountering them at the pool of Gibeon. There they halted, one party on one side of the pool, and the other opposite.

2Sa 2:14 Abner then said to Joab, 'Let the men come forward and fight it out between us!' Joab replied, 'Let them come forward.'

2Sa 2:15 So they came forward and were numbered off, twelve from Benjamin for Ishbaal son of Saul, and twelve of David's retainers.

2Sa 2:16 Each caught his opponent by the head and drove his sword into his side; and thus they all fell together. Hence the place was called the Field of Sides; it is at Gibeon.

2Sa 2:17 That day a very fierce battle took place, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten by David's retainers.

2Sa 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel could run like a wild gazelle.

2Sa 2:19 Asahel chased Abner, not swerving to the right or left from pursuing him.

2Sa 2:20 Abner turned and said, 'Asahel, is that you?' He replied, 'It is.'

2Sa 2:21 Abner said, 'Turn to your right or your left, catch one of the men and take his spoil!' But Asahel would not break off the pursuit.

2Sa 2:22 Again Abner spoke to Asahel, 'Stop following me, unless you want me to strike you to the ground; and then how could I look your brother Joab in the face?'

2Sa 2:23 But he refused to be diverted, so Abner struck him in the belly with the butt of his spear so that the shaft came out through his back; and he fell at his feet and died on the spot. On coming to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, everyone halted.

2Sa 2:24 Joab and Abishai took up the pursuit of Abner and at sunset reached the Hill of Ammah, which is to the east of Giah on the road through the desert of Gibeon.

2Sa 2:25 The Benjaminites gathered in close formation behind Abner and halted on the top of a hill.

2Sa 2:26 Abner called out to Joab, 'Is the sword to go on devouring for ever? Surely you see that this can only end in bitterness? How long will it be before you order those people to stop pursuing their brothers?'

2Sa 2:27 Joab replied, 'As Yahweh lives, if you had not spoken, these men would not have given up the pursuit of their brothers until morning.'

2Sa 2:28 Joab then sounded the trumpet and all the troops halted; they pursued Israel no further and fought no more.

2Sa 2:29 All that night Abner and his men made their way through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan and, marching throughout the morning, came to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:30 Joab, having stopped pursuing Abner, mustered the whole contingent; David's retainers had lost nineteen men in addition to Asahel, 2Sa 2:31 but had killed three hundred and sixty of Benjamin, Abner's men.

2Sa 2:32 They took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which is at Bethlehem. Joab and his men then marched throughout the night, reaching Hebron at daybreak.

2Sa 3:1 So the war dragged on between the House of Saul and the House of David, but David grew steadily stronger and the House of Saul steadily weaker.

2Sa 3:2 The sons born to David at Hebron were: his first-born Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel;

2Sa 3:3 his second Chileab, by Abigail widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

2Sa 3:4 the fourth Adonijah son of Haggith; the fifth Shephatiah son of Abital;

2Sa 3:5 the sixth Ithream, by David's wife, Eglah. These were born to David at Hebron.

2Sa 3:6 This is what took place during the war between the House of Saul and the House of David. Abner took complete control in the House of Saul.

2Sa 3:7 Now, there was a concubine of Saul's called Rizpah daughter of Aiah, and Abner took her. Ishbaal said to Abner, 'Why have you slept with my father's concubine?'

2Sa 3:8 At these words of Ishbaal, Abner flew into a rage. 'Am I a dog's head?' he shouted. 'Here am I, full of faithful love towards the House of Saul your father, his brothers and his friends, not leaving you to the hands of David, and now you find fault with me over a woman!'

2Sa 3:9 May God bring unnameable ills on Abner, and worse ones, too, if I do not bring about what Yahweh has sworn to David:

2Sa 3:10 to take the sovereignty from the House of Saul, and establish David's throne over Israel as well as Judah, from Dan to Beersheba!'

2Sa 3:11 Ishbaal dared not say a single word to Abner in reply, as he was afraid of him.

2Sa 3:12 Abner sent messengers on his own behalf to say to David, ' . . . and furthermore, come to an agreement with me and I will give you my support to win all Israel over to you.'

2Sa 3:13 'Very well,' David said, 'I will come to an agreement with you. I impose one condition however; you will not be admitted to my presence unless you bring me Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see me.'

2Sa 3:14 David then sent messengers to say to Ishbaal son of Saul, 'Give me back my wife Michal, whom I acquired for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.'

2Sa 3:15 So Ishbaal sent for her to be taken from her husband Paltiel son of Laish.

2Sa 3:16 Her husband set off with her and followed her, weeping as he went, as far as Bahurim; but Abner said to him, 'Go back!' and he went.

2Sa 3:17 Now Abner conferred with the elders of Israel. 'For a long time now,' he said, 'you have wanted David as your king.'

2Sa 3:18 Now you must take action, since Yahweh has said of David, "By the hand of my servant David I shall deliver my people Israel from the clutches of the Philistines and all their enemies."

2Sa 3:19 Abner also spoke to the men of Benjamin and then went to Hebron to tell David everything that had been agreed by Israel and the House of Benjamin.

2Sa 3:20 Abner, accompanied by twenty men, came to David at Hebron, and David held a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

2Sa 3:21 Abner then said to David, 'I must get up and go. I am going to rally all Israel to my lord the king, so that they will make an alliance with you, and you will reign over all that you desire.' So David allowed Abner to go, and he went unmolested.

2Sa 3:22 David's retainers were just then coming back with Joab from a raid, bringing a great quantity of booty with them. Abner was no longer with David at Hebron, since David had allowed him to go, and he had gone unmolested.

2Sa 3:23 When Joab and the whole company with him had arrived, Joab was told, 'Abner son of Ner has been to the king, and the king has allowed Abner to go away unmolested.'

2Sa 3:24 Joab then went to the king and said, 'What have you done? Abner comes to you and you let him go away and now he has gone-why?

2Sa 3:25 You know Abner son of Ner! He came to trick you, to discover your every move, to find out what you are doing.'

2Sa 3:26 Joab left David's presence and sent messengers after Abner and these, unknown to David, brought him back from the storage-well at Sirah.

2Sa 3:27 When Abner reached Hebron, Joab took him aside in the town-gate, as if to have a quiet word with him, and there struck him a mortal blow in the belly to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel.

2Sa 3:28 Afterwards, when David heard of this, he said, 'I and my kingdom are for ever innocent before Yahweh of the blood of Abner son of Ner;

2Sa 3:29 may it fall on the head of Joab and on all his family! May the House of Joab never be free of men afflicted with haemorrhage or a virulent skin-disease, whose strength is in the distaff, who fall by the sword, who lack food.'

2Sa 3:30 (Joab and his brother Abishai had murdered Abner because he killed their brother Asahel at the battle of Gibeon.)

2Sa 3:31 David then said to Joab and the whole company with him, 'Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn over Abner,' and King David walked behind the bier.

2Sa 3:32 They buried Abner at Hebron, and the king wept aloud on his grave, and the people all wept too.

2Sa 3:33 The king made this lament over Abner: Should Abner have died as a brute dies?

2Sa 3:34 Your hands were not tied, your feet not chained; you fell as a man falls at the hands of criminals. And all the people wept for him louder than ever.

2Sa 3:35 The people then all tried to persuade David to have some food while it was still daylight, but David swore this oath, 'May God bring unnameable ills on me, and worse ills, too, if I taste bread or anything whatever until the sun is down!'

2Sa 3:36 All the people took note of this and it pleased them; indeed, everything the king did pleased the people.

2Sa 3:37 That day, all the people and all Israel understood that the king had had no part in the murder of Abner son of Ner.

2Sa 3:38 The king said to his retainers, 'Do you not realise that a prince, a great man, has fallen in Israel today?

2Sa 3:39 I, though anointed king, am weak at present, and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too strong for me. May Yahweh repay the criminal as his crime deserves!'

2Sa 4:1 When Saul's son heard that Abner had died at Hebron, his heart failed him, and all Israel was alarmed.

2Sa 4:2 Now, Saul's son had two freebooting chieftains; one was called Baanah, the other Rechab. They were the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, and Benjaminites -- for Beeroth is regarded as belonging to Benjamin.

2Sa 4:3 The people of Beeroth had taken refuge in Gittaim, where they have remained to this day as resident foreigners.

2Sa 4:4 Jonathan son of Saul had a son with crippled feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled but, as she hurried away, he fell and was lamed. His name was Meribbaal.

2Sa 4:5 The sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, Rechab and Baanah, set out; they came to Ishbaal's house at the hottest part of the day when he was taking his midday rest.

2Sa 4:6 The woman who kept the door had been cleaning wheat and had drowsed off to sleep.

2Sa 4:7 Rechab and his brother Baanah stole past her and entered the house, where he was lying on his bed in his bedroom. They struck him and killed him, then cut off his head and, taking the head with them, travelled all night by way of the Arabah.

2Sa 4:8 They brought Ishbaal's head to David at Hebron. 'Here', they said to the king, 'is the head of Ishbaal son of Saul, your enemy, who meant to take your life. Yahweh has avenged my lord the king today on Saul and on his offspring.'

2Sa 4:9 But David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon, by saying, 'As Yahweh lives, who has rescued me from every danger,

2Sa 4:10 when someone told me, "Saul is dead!" supposing himself to be bringing me good news, I seized and put him to death at Ziklag, and that was how I rewarded him for his news!

2Sa 4:11 How much more when bandits have killed an upright man in his house, and on his bed! Am I not to demand an account of his blood from you, and rid the earth of you?'

2Sa 4:12 David then gave an order to the men, who put them to death, cut off their hands and feet, and hung them up beside the pool of Hebron. Ishbaal's head they took and buried in Abner's grave at Hebron.

2Sa 5:1 All the tribes of Israel then came to David at Hebron and said, 'Look, we are your own flesh and bone.

2Sa 5:2 In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel on its campaigns, and to you it was that Yahweh promised, "You are to shepherd my people Israel and be leader of Israel."

2Sa 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them in Yahweh's presence at Hebron, and they anointed David as king of Israel.

2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years.

2Sa 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; then he reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

2Sa 5:6 The king and his men then marched on Jerusalem, on the Jebusites living in the territory. These said to David, 'You will not get in here. The blind and the lame will hold you off.' (That is to say: David will never get in here.)

2Sa 5:7 But David captured the citadel of Zion, that is, the City of David.

2Sa 5:8 That day, David said, 'Whoever gets up the tunnel and kills a Jebusite . . .' As for the blind and the lame, David hated them with his whole being. (Hence the saying: the blind and the lame may not enter the Temple.)

2Sa 5:9 David went to live in the citadel and called it the City of David. David then built a wall round it, from the Millo inwards.

2Sa 5:10 David grew stronger and stronger, and Yahweh, God of Sabaoth, was with him.

2Sa 5:11 Hiram king of Tyre sent envoys to David, with cedar wood, carpenters and stone-cutters, who built David a palace.

2Sa 5:12 David then knew that Yahweh had confirmed him as king of Israel and, for the sake of his people Israel, had extended his sovereignty.

2Sa 5:13 After coming from Hebron, David took other concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and sons and daughters were born to him.

2Sa 5:14 These are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2Sa 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2Sa 5:16 Elishama, Eliada, Eliphelet.

2Sa 5:17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king of Israel, they all went up to seek him out. On hearing this, David went down to the stronghold.

2Sa 5:18 When the Philistines arrived, they deployed in the Valley of the Rephaim.

2Sa 5:19 David consulted Yahweh and asked, 'Shall I attack the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my power?' Yahweh replied to David, 'Attack! I shall certainly deliver the Philistines into your power.'

2Sa 5:20 Accordingly, David went to Baal-Perazim and there David defeated them. He said, 'Yahweh has made a breach in my enemies for me, as though they had been breached by a flood.' This is why the place was given the name Baal-Perazim.

2Sa 5:21 They had left their gods behind them there, and David and his men carried them off.

2Sa 5:22 Again the Philistines invaded and deployed in the Valley of the Rephaim.

2Sa 5:23 David consulted Yahweh, who replied, 'Do not attack them from the front; go round to their rear and engage them opposite the balsam trees.'

2Sa 5:24 When you hear the sound of footsteps in the tops of the balsam trees, advance, for that will be Yahweh going out ahead of you to defeat the Philistine army.'

2Sa 5:25 David did as Yahweh had ordered and beat the Philistines from Gibeon to the Pass of Gezer.

2Sa 6:1 David again mustered all the picked troops of Israel, thirty thousand men.

2Sa 6:2 Setting off with the whole force then with him, David went to Baalah of Judah, from there to bring up the ark of God, who bears the title 'Yahweh Sabaoth, enthroned on the winged creatures'.

2Sa 6:3 They transported the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of Abinadab's house which is on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the cart, 2Sa 6:4 Uzzah walked alongside the ark of God and Ahio went in front.

2Sa 6:5 David and the whole House of Israel danced before Yahweh with all their might, singing to the accompaniment of harps, lyres, tambourines, sistruins and cymbals.

2Sa 6:6 When they came to Nacon's threshing-floor, Uzzah reached his hand out to the ark of God and steadied it, as the oxen were making it tilt.

2Sa 6:7 This roused Yahweh's anger against Uzzah, and for this crime God struck him down on the spot, and there he died beside the ark of God.

2Sa 6:8 David resented Yahweh's having broken out against Uzzah, and the place was given the name Perez-Uzzah, which it still has today.

2Sa 6:9 That day David felt afraid of Yahweh. 'How can the ark of Yahweh come to be with me?' he said.

2Sa 6:10 So David decided not to take the ark of Yahweh with him into the city of David but diverted it to the house of Obed-Edom of Gath.

2Sa 6:11 The ark of Yahweh remained in the house of Obed-Edom of Gath for three months, and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom and his whole family.

2Sa 6:12 King David was informed that Yahweh had blessed Obed-Edom's family and everything belonging to him on account of the ark of God. David accordingly went and, amid great rejoicing, brought the ark of God up from Obed-Edom's house to the City of David.

2Sa 6:13 When the bearers of the ark of Yahweh had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fat sheep.

2Sa 6:14 And David danced whirling round before Yahweh with all his might, wearing a linen loincloth.

2Sa 6:15 Thus with war cries and blasts on the horn, David and the entire House of Israel brought up the ark of Yahweh.

2Sa 6:16 Now as the ark of Yahweh entered the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul was watching from the window and when she saw King David leaping and whirling round before Yahweh, the sight of him filled her with contempt.

2Sa 6:17 They brought the ark of Yahweh in and put it in position, inside the tent which David had erected for it; and David presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices in Yahweh's presence.

2Sa 6:18 And when David had finished presenting burnt offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh Sabaoth.

2Sa 6:19 To all the people, to the whole multitude of Israelites, men and women, he then distributed to each a loaf of bread, a portion of dates and a raisin cake. Then the people all went back to their homes.

2Sa 6:20 As David was coming back to bless his household, Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him. 'Much honour the king of Israel has won today,' she said, 'making an exhibition of himself under the eyes of his servant-maids, making an exhibition of himself like a buffoon!'

2Sa 6:21 David replied to Michal, 'I was dancing for Yahweh, not for them. As Yahweh lives, who chose me in preference to your father and his whole family to make me leader of Israel, Yahweh's people, I shall dance before Yahweh and 2Sa 6:22 lower myself even further than that. In your eyes I may be base, but by the maids you speak of, by them, I shall be held in honour!'

2Sa 6:23 And to the day of her death, Michal, daughter of Saul, had no children.

2Sa 7:1 Once the king had settled into his palace and Yahweh had granted him rest from all the enemies surrounding him,

2Sa 7:2 the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'Look, I am living in a cedar-wood palace, while the ark of God is under awnings.'

2Sa 7:3 Nathan said to the king, 'Go and do whatever you have in mind, for Yahweh is with you.'

2Sa 7:4 But that very night, the word of Yahweh came to Nathan:

2Sa 7:5 'Go and tell my servant David, "Yahweh says this: Are you to build me a temple for me to live in?

2Sa 7:6 I have never lived in a house from the day when I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today, but have kept travelling with a tent for shelter.

2Sa 7:7 In all my travels with all the Israelites, did I say to any of the judges of Israel, whom I had commanded to shepherd my people Israel: Why do you not build me a cedar-wood temple?"

2Sa 7:8 This is what you must say to my servant David, "Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader of my people Israel;

2Sa 7:9 I have been with you wherever you went; I have got rid of all your enemies for you. I am going to make your fame as great as the fame of the greatest on earth.

2Sa 7:10 I am going to provide a place for my people Israel; I shall plant them there, and there they will live and never be disturbed again; nor will they be oppressed by the wicked any more, as they were in former times

2Sa 7:11 ever since the time when I instituted judges to govern my people Israel; and I shall grant you rest from all your enemies. Yahweh furthermore tells you that he will make you a dynasty.

2Sa 7:12 And when your days are over and you fall asleep with your ancestors, I shall appoint your heir, your own son to succeed you (and I shall make his sovereignty secure.

2Sa 7:13 He will build a temple for my name) and I shall make his royal throne secure for ever.

2Sa 7:14 I shall be a father to him and he a son to me; if he does wrong, I shall punish him with a rod such as men use, with blows such as mankind gives.

2Sa 7:15 But my faithful love will never be withdrawn from him as I withdrew it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

2Sa 7:16 Your dynasty and your sovereignty will ever stand firm before me and your throne be for ever secure."

2Sa 7:17 Nathan related all these words and this whole revelation to David.

2Sa 7:18 King David then went in, sat down in Yahweh's presence and said: 'Who am I, Lord Yahweh, and what is my lineage, for you to have led me as far as this?

2Sa 7:19 Yet, to you, Lord Yahweh, this seemed too little, and now you extend your promises for your servant's family into the distant future. Such is human destiny, Lord Yahweh.

2Sa 7:20 What more can David say to you, since you, Lord Yahweh, know all about your servant?

2Sa 7:21 Because of your promise and since you were so inclined, you have had the generosity to reveal this to your servant.

2Sa 7:22 That is why you are great, Lord Yahweh; there is no one like you, no God but you alone, as everything that we have heard confirms.

2Sa 7:23 Is there another people on earth like your people, like Israel, whom a god proceeded to redeem, to make them his people and to make a name for himself by performing great and terrible things on their behalf, by driving out nations and their gods before his people? -

2Sa 7:24 for you constituted your people Israel your own people for ever and you, Yahweh, became their God.

2Sa 7:25 'Now, Yahweh God, may the promise which you have made for your servant and for his family stand firm forever as you have said,

2Sa 7:26 so that your name will be exalted for ever and people will say, "Israel's God is Yahweh Sabaoth." Your servant David's dynasty will be secure before you, 2Sa 7:27 since you, Yahweh Sabaoth, the God of Israel, have disclosed to your servant, "I am going to build you a dynasty." Hence, your servant has ventured to offer this prayer to you.

2Sa 7:28 Yes, Lord Yahweh, you are God indeed, your words are true and you have made this generous promise to your servant.

2Sa 7:29 What is more, you have deigned to bless your servant's dynasty, so that it may remain for ever before you; for you, Lord Yahweh, have spoken; and may your servant's dynasty be blessed with your blessing for ever.'

2Sa 8:1 After this, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. From the grip of the Philistines he wrested

2Sa 8:2 He also defeated the Moabites and, making them lie on the ground, measured them off by the line; he measured out two lines to be put to death and one full line to have their lives spared. The Moabites became David's subjects and paid him tribute.

2Sa 8:3 David defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when the latter mounted an expedition to extend his power over the River.

2Sa 8:4 David captured one thousand seven hundred charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers from him; David hamstrung all the chariot teams, keeping only a hundred of them.

2Sa 8:5 The Aramaeans of Damascus came to the help of Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David killed twenty-two thousand of the Aramaeans.

2Sa 8:6 David then imposed governors on Aram of Damascus, and the Aramaeans became David's subjects and paid him tribute. Wherever David went, Yahweh gave him victory.

2Sa 8:7 David took the golden shields carried by Hadadezer's guards and brought them to Jerusalem.

2Sa 8:8 From Betah and Berothai, towns belonging to Hadadezer, King David captured a great quantity of bronze.

2Sa 8:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated Hadadezer's entire army,

2Sa 8:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him on having made war on Hadadezer and on having defeated him, since Hadadezer was at war with Tou. Hadoram brought with him objects made of silver, gold and bronze,

2Sa 8:11 which King David also consecrated to Yahweh, as he had already consecrated the silver and gold taken from all the nations which he had subjugated-

2Sa 8:12 from Aram, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek; and from the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

2Sa 8:13 David became famous when he came home from defeating the Edomites in the Valley of Salt -- eighteen thousand of them.

2Sa 8:14 He imposed governors on Edom and all the Edomites became David's subjects. Wherever David went, Yahweh gave him victory.

2Sa 8:15 David ruled over all Israel, administering law and justice to all his people.

2Sa 8:16 Joab son of Zeruiah was in command of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was herald;

2Sa 8:17 Zadok and Abiathar son of Ahimelech, son of Ahitub, were priests; Seraiah was secretary;

2Sa 8:18 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the Cherethites and Pelethites; David's sons were priests.

2Sa 9:1 David asked, 'Is there anyone belonging to Saul's family left, to whom I might show faithful love for Jonathan's sake?'

2Sa 9:2 Now Saul's family had a servant whose name was Ziba. When he had been summoned to David, the king said, 'Are you Ziba?' 'At your service,' he replied.

2Sa 9:3 The king said, 'Is there no one left, belonging to Saul's family, for me to treat with God's own faithful love?' Ziba said to the king, 'There is still one of Jonathan's sons. He has crippled feet.'

2Sa 9:4 The king asked 'Where is he?' Ziba replied, 'He is living in the household of Machir son of Ammiel, at Lo-Debar.'

2Sa 9:5 So King David sent for him to be fetched from the house of Machir son of Ammiel at Lo-Debar.

2Sa 9:6 On entering David's presence, Meribbaal son of Jonathan, son of Saul, fell on his face and prostrated himself. David said, 'Meribbaal!' He replied, 'Here I am, at your service.'

2Sa 9:7 David then said, 'Do not be afraid; I will indeed treat you with faithful love for your father Jonathan's sake. I shall restore all your grandfather Saul's estates to you, and you will always eat at my table.'

2Sa 9:8 Meribbaal prostrated himself and said, 'Who is your servant, for you to show favour to a dead dog like me?'

2Sa 9:9 The king then summoned Saul's servant Ziba and said, 'Everything belonging to Saul and his family, I give to your master's son.'

2Sa 9:10 You must work the land for him, you and your sons and your slaves; you must harvest the produce to provide food for your master's family to eat. But Meribbaal, your master's son, will always take his own meals at my table.' Now, Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty slaves.

2Sa 9:11 Ziba said to the king, 'Your servant will do everything my lord the king has ordered his servant.' So Meribbaal ate at David's table like one of the king's sons.

2Sa 9:12 Meribbaal had a young son whose name was Micha. All the people living in Ziba's household entered Meribbaal's service.

2Sa 9:13 Meribbaal lived in Jerusalem, since he always ate at the king's table. He was crippled in both feet.

2Sa 10:1 After this, when the king of the Ammonites died and his son Hanun succeeded him,

2Sa 10:2 David thought, 'I shall show Hanun son of Nahash the same faithful love as his father showed me.' And David sent his representatives to offer him condolences over his father. But, when David's representatives reached the Ammonites' country,

2Sa 10:3 the Ammonite princes said to Hanun their master, 'Do you really think David means to honour your father when he sends you messengers with sympathy? On the contrary, the reason why David has sent his representatives to you is to explore the city, to reconnoitre and so overthrow it.'

2Sa 10:4 Whereupon Hanun seized David's representatives, shaved off half their beards, cut their clothes off halfway up, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

2Sa 10:5 When David was told, he sent someone to meet them, since the men were overcome with shame. 'Stay in Jericho', the king said, 'until your beards have grown again, and come back then.'

2Sa 10:6 When the Ammonites realised that they had antagonised David, they sent agents to hire twenty thousand foot soldiers from the Aramaeans of Beth-Rehob and the Aramaeans of Zobah, one thousand men from the king of Maacah and twelve thousand men from the prince of Tob.

2Sa 10:7 When David heard this, he sent Joab with the whole army, the champions.

2Sa 10:8 The Ammonites marched out and drew up their line of battle at the city gate, while the Aramaeans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah kept their distance in the open country.

2Sa 10:9 Joab, seeing that he had to fight on two fronts, to his front and to his rear, chose the best of Israel's picked men and drew them up in line facing the Aramaeans.

2Sa 10:10 He entrusted the rest of the army to his brother Abishai, and drew them up in line facing the Ammonites.

2Sa 10:11 'If the Aramaeans prove too strong for me,' he said, 'you must come to my help; if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, I shall come to yours.'

2Sa 10:12 Be brave! Let us acquit ourselves like men for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God. And let Yahweh do as he thinks right!

2Sa 10:13 Joab and the force with him joined battle with the Aramaeans, who fled at his onslaught.

2Sa 10:14 When the Ammonites saw that the Aramaeans had fled, they too fled from Abishai and withdrew into the city. Hence, Joab broke off his campaign against the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 10:15 The Aramaeans, realising that Israel had got the better of them, concentrated their forces.

2Sa 10:16 Hadadezer sent messengers and mobilised the Aramaeans living on the other side of the river; and these arrived at Helam, with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army, at their head.

2Sa 10:17 David, being informed of this, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and arrived at Helam. The Aramaeans drew up in line facing David and engaged him.

2Sa 10:18 But the Aramaeans fled from Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their chariot teams and forty thousand men; he also cut down Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

2Sa 10:19 When all Hadadezer's vassal kings saw that Israel had got the better of them, they made peace with the Israelites and became their subjects. The Aramaeans were afraid to give any more help to the Ammonites.

2Sa 11:1 At the turn of the year, at the time when kings go campaigning, David sent Joab and with him his guards and all Israel. They massacred the Ammonites and laid siege to Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites. David, however, remained in Jerusalem.

2Sa 11:2 It happened towards evening when David had got up from resting and was strolling on the palace roof, that from the roof he saw a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful.

2Sa 11:3 David made enquiries about this woman and was told, 'Why, that is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite.'

2Sa 11:4 David then sent messengers to fetch her. She came to him, and he lay with her, just after she had purified herself from her period. She then went home again.

2Sa 11:5 The woman conceived and sent word to David, 'I am pregnant.'

2Sa 11:6 David then sent word to Joab, 'Send me Uriah the Hittite,' whereupon Joab sent Uriah to David.

2Sa 11:7 When Uriah reached him, David asked how Joab was and how the army was and how the war was going.

2Sa 11:8 David then said to Uriah, 'Go down to your house and wash your feet.' Uriah left the palace and was followed by a present from the king's table.

2Sa 11:9 Uriah, however, slept at the palace gate with all his master's bodyguard and did not go down to his house.

2Sa 11:10 This was reported to David; 'Uriah', they said 'has not gone down to his house.' So David asked Uriah, 'Haven't you just arrived from the journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?'

2Sa 11:11 To which Uriah replied, 'The ark, Israel and Judah are lodged in huts; my master Joab and my lord's guards are camping in the open. Am I to go to my house, then, and eat and drink and sleep with my wife? As Yahweh lives, and as you yourself live, I shall do no such thing!'

2Sa 11:12 David then said to Uriah, 'Stay on here today; tomorrow I shall send you off.' So Uriah stayed that day in Jerusalem.

2Sa 11:13 The next day, David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk. In the evening, Uriah went out and bedded down with his master's bodyguard, but did not go down to his house.

2Sa 11:14 Next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by Uriah.

2Sa 11:15 In the letter he wrote, 'Put Uriah out in front where the fighting is fiercest and then fall back, so that he gets wounded and killed.'

2Sa 11:16 Joab, then besieging the city, stationed Uriah at a point where he knew that there would be tough fighters.

2Sa 11:17 The people of the city sallied out and engaged Joab; there were casualties in the army, among David's guards, and Uriah the Hittite was killed as well.

2Sa 11:18 Joab sent David a full account of the battle.

2Sa 11:19 To the messenger he gave this order: 'When you have finished telling the king all about the battle,

2Sa 11:20 if the king's anger is aroused and he says, "Why did you go near the town to give battle? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the ramparts?"

2Sa 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbaal? Wasn't it a woman who dropped a millstone on him from the ramparts, causing his death at Thebez? Why did you go near the ramparts?" you are to say, "Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead too."

2Sa 11:22 So the messenger set off and, on his arrival, told David everything that Joab had instructed him to say. David flew into a rage with Joab and said to the messenger, 'Why did you go near the ramparts? Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbaal? Wasn't it a woman who dropped a millstone on him from the ramparts, causing his death at Thebez? Why did you go near the ramparts?'

2Sa 11:23 The messenger replied to David, 'Their men had won an initial advantage and then came out to engage us in the open. We then drove them back into the gateway,

2Sa 11:24 but the archers shot at your retainers from the ramparts; some of the king's retainers lost their lives, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead too.'

2Sa 11:25 David then said to the messenger, 'Say this to Joab, "Do not take the matter to heart; the sword devours now one and now another. Attack the town in greater force and destroy it." That will encourage him.'

2Sa 11:26 When Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

2Sa 11:27 When the period of mourning was over, David sent to have her brought to his house; she became his wife and bore him a son. But what David had done displeased Yahweh.

2Sa 12:1 Yahweh sent the prophet Nathan to David. He came to him and said: In the same town were two men, one rich, the other poor.

2Sa 12:2 The rich man had flocks and herds in great abundance;

2Sa 12:3 the poor man had nothing but a ewe lamb, only a single little one which he had bought. He fostered it and it grew up with him and his children, eating his bread, drinking from his cup, sleeping in his arms; it was like a daughter to him.

2Sa 12:4 When a traveller came to stay, the rich man would not take anything from his own flock or herd to provide for the wayfarer who had come to him. Instead, he stole the poor man's lamb and prepared that for his guest.

2Sa 12:5 David flew into a great rage with the man. 'As Yahweh lives,' he said to Nathan 'the man who did this deserves to die.'

2Sa 12:6 For doing such a thing and for having shown no pity, he shall make fourfold restitution for the lamb.'

2Sa 12:7 Nathan then said to David, 'You are the man! Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I anointed you king of Israel, I saved you from Saul's clutches,"

2Sa 12:8 I gave you your master's household and your master's wives into your arms, I gave you the House of Israel and the House of Judah; and, if this is still too little, I shall give you other things as well.'

2Sa 12:9 Why did you show contempt for Yahweh, by doing what displeases him? You put Uriah the Hittite to the sword, you took his wife to be your wife, causing his death by the sword of the Ammonites.

2Sa 12:10 For this, your household will never be free of the sword, since you showed contempt for me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite, to make her your wife.'

2Sa 12:11 'Yahweh says this, "Out of your own household I shall raise misfortune for you. Before your very eyes I shall take your wives and give them to your neighbour, who will lie with your wives in broad daylight.'

2Sa 12:12 You have worked in secret, but I shall work this for all Israel to see, in broad daylight."

2Sa 12:13 David said to Nathan, 'I have sinned against Yahweh.' Nathan then said to David, 'Yahweh, for his part, forgives your sin; you are not to die.'

2Sa 12:14 But, since you have outraged Yahweh by doing this, the child born to you will die.'

2Sa 12:15 And Nathan went home. Yahweh struck the child which Uriah's wife had borne to David and it fell gravely ill.

2Sa 12:16 David pleaded with Yahweh for the child; he kept a strict fast and went home and spent the night lying on the ground, covered with sacking.

2Sa 12:17 The officials of his household stood round him, intending to get him off the ground, but he refused, nor would he take food with them.

2Sa 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. David's retinue were afraid to tell him that the child was dead.

'Even when the child was alive', they thought, 'we reasoned with him and he would not listen to us. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He will do something desperate.'

2Sa 12:19 David, however, noticed that his retinue were whispering among themselves, and realised that the child was dead. 'Is the child dead?' he asked the officers. They replied, 'He is dead.'

2Sa 12:20 David got off the ground, bathed and anointed himself and put on fresh clothes. Then he went into Yahweh's sanctuary and prostrated himself. On returning to his house, he asked to be served with food and ate it.

2Sa 12:21 His retinue said, 'Why are you acting like this? When the child was alive, you fasted and wept; now that the child is dead, you get up and take food!'

2Sa 12:22 'When the child was alive', he replied, 'I fasted and wept because I kept thinking, "Who knows? Perhaps Yahweh will take pity on me and the child will live."

2Sa 12:23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him but he cannot come back to me.'

2Sa 12:24 David consoled his wife Bathsheba. He went to her and slept with her. She conceived and gave birth to a son, whom she called Solomon. Yahweh loved him

2Sa 12:25 and made this known by means of the prophet Nathan, who named him Jedidiah, as Yahweh had instructed.

2Sa 12:26 Joab assaulted Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites and captured the royal town.

2Sa 12:27 He then sent messengers to tell David, 'I have assaulted Rabbah and captured the water supply.

2Sa 12:28 So now muster the rest of the army, lay siege to the town and take it, or I will take it and the town will be called after me!'

2Sa 12:29 So David mustered the whole army and marched on Rabbah; he assaulted the town and captured it.

2Sa 12:30 He took the crown off Milcom's head; it weighed one talent of gold, and in it was set a precious stone which went on David's head instead. He carried off great quantities of booty from the town.'

2Sa 12:31 And he expelled its inhabitants, setting them to work with saws, iron picks and iron axes, employing them at brickmaking. He treated all the Ammonite towns in the same way. David and the whole army returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 13:1 After this, the following events took place. Absalom son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar; Amnon son of David fell in love with her.

2Sa 13:2 Amnon was so obsessed with his sister Tamar that it made him ill, since she was a virgin and Amnon thought it impossible to do anything to her.

2Sa 13:3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, and Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

2Sa 13:4 'Son of the king,' he said, 'tell me why, morning after morning, you look so worn? Won't you tell me?' Amnon replied, 'I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.'

2Sa 13:5 Then Jonadab said, 'Take to your bed, pretend to be ill and, when your father comes to visit you, say, "Please let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat; let her prepare the food where I can see. What she gives me I shall eat."

2Sa 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. The king then came to visit him and Amnon said to the king, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and make a cake or two where I can watch. What she gives me, I shall eat.'

2Sa 13:7 David then sent word to Tamar at the palace, 'Go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare some food for him.'

2Sa 13:8 Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon who was lying there in bed. She took dough and kneaded it, and she made some cakes while he watched, and baked the cakes.

2Sa 13:9 She then took the pan and dished them up in front of him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, 'Let everyone leave me!' So everyone withdrew.

2Sa 13:10 Amnon then said to Tamar, 'Bring the food to the inner room, so that I can eat what you give me.' So Tamar took the cakes which she had made and brought them to her brother Amnon in the inner room.

2Sa 13:11 And as she was offering the food to him, he caught hold of her and said, 'Come to bed with me, sister!'

2Sa 13:12 She replied, 'No, brother! Do not force me! This is no way to behave in Israel. Do not do anything so disgraceful!

2Sa 13:13 Wherever should I go? I should be marked with this shame, while you would become disgraced in Israel. Why not go and speak to the king? He will not refuse to give me to you.'

2Sa 13:14 But he would not listen to her; he overpowered her and raped her.

2Sa 13:15 Amnon was then seized with extreme hatred for her; the hatred he now felt for her was greater than his earlier love. 'Get up and go!' he said.

2Sa 13:16 She said, 'No, brother! To send me away would be worse than the other wrong you have done me! But he would not listen to her.

2Sa 13:17 He called his personal servant. 'Rid me of this woman!' he said. 'Throw her out and bolt the door behind her!'

2Sa 13:18 (She was wearing a magnificent dress, for this was what the king's unmarried daughters wore in days gone by.) So the servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

2Sa 13:19 Tamar put dust on her head, tore the magnificent dress which she was wearing, laid her hand on her head, and went away, crying aloud as she went.

2Sa 13:20 Her brother Absalom said to her, 'Has Amnon your brother been with you? Sister, be quiet; he is your brother; do not take the matter to heart!' Tamar, however, went back to her brother Absalom's house inconsolable.

2Sa 13:21 When King David heard the whole story, he was very angry; but he had no wish to harm his son

Amnon, whom he loved because he was his first-born.

2Sa 13:22 Absalom, however, would not so much as speak to Amnon, since he hated Amnon for having raped his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:23 Two years later, when Absalom had the sheep-shearers at Baal-Hazor, which is near Ephraim, he invited all the king's sons.

2Sa 13:24 Absalom went to the king and said, 'Now sir, your servant has the sheep-shearers. Will the king and his retinue be pleased to come with your servant?'

2Sa 13:25 'No, my son,' the king replied, 'we must not all come and be a burden to you.' And though Absalom was insistent, he would not go but dismissed him.

2Sa 13:26 Absalom persisted, 'Then at least let my brother Amnon come with us.' The king said, 'Why should he go with you?'

2Sa 13:27 On Absalom's insistence, however, he let Amnon and all the king's sons to go with him. Absalom prepared a royal banquet

2Sa 13:28 and then gave this order to the servants, 'Listen carefully; when Amnon's heart is merry with wine and I say, "Strike Amnon down", then kill him. Don't be afraid. Have I not myself given you the order? Use your strength and show your mettle!'

2Sa 13:29 Absalom's servants treated Amnon as Absalom had ordered. The king's sons all leapt to their feet, mounted their mules and fled.

2Sa 13:30 While they were on the road, word reached David, 'Absalom has killed all the king's sons; not one of them is left.'

2Sa 13:31 The king stood up, tore his clothes and threw himself on the ground. All his officers tore their clothes too.

2Sa 13:32 Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, then spoke up and said, 'Do not let my lord take to heart the report that all the young men, the king's sons, have been killed, since only Amnon is dead: for Absalom has been promising himself to do this since the day when Amnon raped his sister Tamar.'

2Sa 13:33 So my lord the king must not imagine that all the king's sons are dead; only Amnon is dead

2Sa 13:34 and Absalom has fled.' The man on sentry duty looked up and saw a large troop coming along the road from Bahurim. The sentry came to tell the king, 'I have seen some people coming down the Bahurim road on the mountainside.'

2Sa 13:35 Jonadab then said to the king, 'These are the king's sons arriving: what your servant said is exactly what happened.'

2Sa 13:36 He had scarcely finished speaking when the king's sons arrived and wept aloud; the king and all his retinue wept aloud too.

2Sa 13:37 Absalom had gone to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. The king mourned for his son every day.

2Sa 13:38 When Absalom had gone to Geshur, he stayed there for three years.

2Sa 13:39 Once the king was consoled over Amnon's death, his anger against Absalom subsided.

2Sa 14:1 Now, Joab son of Zeruiah observed that the king was favourably inclined to Absalom.

2Sa 14:2 Joab therefore sent to Tekoa for a wise woman. 'Pretend to be in mourning,' he said. 'Dress yourself in mourning, do not perfume yourself; act like a woman who has long been mourning for the dead.'

2Sa 14:3 Then go to the king and say this to him.' And Joab put the words into her mouth which she was to say.

2Sa 14:4 So the woman of Tekoa went to the king and, falling on her face to the ground, prostrated herself.

'Help, my lord king!' she said.

2Sa 14:5 The king said, 'What is the matter?' As you see,' she replied, 'I am a widow; my husband is dead.

2Sa 14:6 Your servant had two sons and out in the fields, where there was no one to intervene, they had a quarrel. And one of them struck the other one and killed him.

2Sa 14:7 And now the whole clan has risen against your servant. "Give up the man who killed his brother," they say, "so that we can put him to death, to atone for the life of the brother whom he has murdered; and thus we shall destroy the heir as well." By this means, they will extinguish the ember still left to me, leaving my husband neither name nor survivor on the face of the earth.'

2Sa 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, 'Go home; I myself shall give orders about your case.'

2Sa 14:9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, 'My lord king! May the guilt be on me and on my family; the king and his throne are innocent of it.'

2Sa 14:10 'Bring me the man who threatened you,' the king replied, 'and he shall never hurt you again.'

2Sa 14:11 She then said, 'Let the king be pleased to pronounce the name of Yahweh your God, so that the avenger of blood may not do greater harm and destroy my son.' 'As Yahweh lives,' he said, 'not one of your son's hairs shall fall to the ground!'

2Sa 14:12 Then the woman said, 'Permit your servant to say something else to my lord the king.' 'Go on,' he said.

2Sa 14:13 The woman said, 'Why then has the king, who by giving this verdict has condemned himself, conceived the idea, against God's people's interests, of not bringing home the son whom he has banished?

2Sa 14:14 We are all mortal; we are like water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again, nor does God raise up a corpse; let the king therefore make plans for his banished son not to remain far away from him in exile.

2Sa 14:15 'Now, the reason why I came to speak about this to my lord the king is that I was being intimidated, and your servant thought, "I shall speak to the king; perhaps the king will do what his servant asks."

2Sa 14:16 Surely the king will consent to save his servant from the clutches of the man who is trying to cut both me and my son off from God's heritage.

2Sa 14:17 Let a word from my lord the king, restore the peace!" your servant thought, "for my lord the king is like the Angel of God in understanding good and evil." May Yahweh your God be with you!

2Sa 14:18 Replying to the woman, the king said, 'Now do not evade the question which I am going to ask you.' The woman said, 'Let my lord the king ask his question.'

2Sa 14:19 'Is not Joab's hand behind you in all this?' the king asked. The woman replied, 'As you live, my lord king, I cannot escape what my lord the king says, either to right or to left. Yes, it was your servant Joab who gave me my orders; he put all these words into your servant's mouth.'

2Sa 14:20 Your servant Joab did this to approach the matter indirectly, but my lord has the wisdom of the Angel of God; he knows everything that happens on earth!'

2Sa 14:21 The king then said to Joab, 'Very well, the suit is granted. Go and bring the young man Absalom back.'

2Sa 14:22 Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself and blessed the king. 'My lord king,' Joab said, 'today your servant knows that he has won your favour, since the king has done what his servant asked.'

2Sa 14:23 Joab then set off, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

2Sa 14:24 The king, however, said, 'Let him retire to his own house; he is not to appear in my presence.' So Absalom retired to his own house and was not received by the king.

2Sa 14:25 In all Israel there was no one more praised for his beauty than Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, he could not be faulted.

2Sa 14:26 When he cut his hair -- he shaved it once a year because his hair got too heavy -- he would weigh the hair: two hundred shekels, king's weight.

2Sa 14:27 To Absalom were born three sons and one daughter called Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

2Sa 14:28 Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two years without being received by the king.

2Sa 14:29 Absalom then summoned Joab, intending to send him to the king, but Joab would not come to him. He sent for him a second time, but still he would not come.

2Sa 14:30 At this, Absalom said to his retainers, 'Look, Joab's field is next to mine and he has barley in it; go and set it on fire.' Absalom's retainers set fire to the field.

2Sa 14:31 Joab then stirred himself, went to Absalom in his house and asked, 'Why have your retainers set my field on fire?'

2Sa 14:32 Absalom replied to Joab, 'Look, I sent word to you: Come here, so that I can send you to the king to say, "Why come back from Geshur? Better for me to have been there still!" Now I want to be received by the king, and if I am guilty, let him put me to death!'

2Sa 14:33 Joab went to the king and told him this. He then summoned Absalom, who prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

2Sa 15:1 After this, Absalom procured a chariot and horses, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

2Sa 15:2 He would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city gate; and whenever a man with some lawsuit had to come before the king's tribunal, Absalom would call out to him and ask, 'Which town are you from?' If he answered, 'Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel,'

2Sa 15:3 then Absalom would say, 'Look, your case is sound and just, but not one of the king's deputies will listen to you.'

2Sa 15:4 Absalom would say, 'Oh, who will appoint me judge in the land? Then anyone with a lawsuit or a plea could come to me and I should see he had justice!'

2Sa 15:5 And whenever anyone came up to him to prostrate himself, he would stretch out his hand, draw him to him and kiss him.

2Sa 15:6 Absalom acted like this with every Israelite who appealed to the king's tribunal, and so Absalom won the Israelites' hearts.

2Sa 15:7 When four years had gone by, Absalom said to the king, 'Allow me to go to Hebron and fulfil the vow which I have made to Yahweh;

2Sa 15:8 for, when I was in Geshur, in Aram, your servant made this vow, "If Yahweh brings me back to Jerusalem, I shall pay my devotions to Yahweh in Hebron."

2Sa 15:9 The king said to him, 'Go in peace.' So he set off and went to Hebron.

2Sa 15:10 Absalom sent couriers throughout the tribes of Israel to say, 'When you hear the trumpet sound, you are to say, "Absalom is king at Hebron!" '

2Sa 15:11 With Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem; they had been invited and had gone in all innocence, unaware of what was going on.

2Sa 15:12 Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from Giloh his town, and had him with him while offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy grew in strength, since Absalom's supporters grew in number.

2Sa 15:13 A messenger came and told David, 'The men of Israel have shifted their allegiance to Absalom.'

2Sa 15:14 David said to all his retinue then with him in Jerusalem, 'Up, let us flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom! Leave as quickly as you can, in case he mounts a sudden attack, overcomes us and puts the city to the sword.'

2Sa 15:15 The king's retinue replied, 'Whatever my lord the king decides, we are at your service.'

2Sa 15:16 The king set out on foot with his whole household, leaving ten concubines to look after the palace.

2Sa 15:17 The king set out on foot with everyone following, and they halted at the last house.

2Sa 15:18 All his officers stood at his side. All the Cherethites and all the Pelethites, with Ittai and all the six hundred Gittites who had come in his retinue from Gath, marched past the king.

2Sa 15:19 The king said to Ittai the Gittite, 'You, why are you coming with us? Go back and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner, indeed an exile from your homeland.'

2Sa 15:20 You arrived only yesterday; should I take you wandering with us today, when I do not know myself where I am going? Go back, take your fellow countrymen with you, and may Yahweh show you mercy and faithful love!'

2Sa 15:21 Ittai replied to the king, 'As Yahweh lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, for death or life, your servant will be there too.'

2Sa 15:22 David then said to Ittai, 'Go ahead, march past!' And Ittai of Gath marched past with all his men and with all his children too.

2Sa 15:23 The entire population was weeping aloud as the king stood in the bed of the Kidron and everyone marched past him, making for the desert.

2Sa 15:24 Zadok was there too, and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of God. They set the ark of God down beside Abiathar until everyone had finished marching out of the town.

2Sa 15:25 The king then said to Zadok, 'Take the ark of God back into the city. Should I win Yahweh's favour, he will bring me back and allow me to see it and its tent once more.'

2Sa 15:26 But should he say, "You displease me," here I am: let him treat me as he sees fit.'

2Sa 15:27 The king said to Zadok the priest, 'Look, you and Abiathar go back quietly into the city, with your two sons, your own son Ahimaaz and Jonathan son of Abiathar.'

2Sa 15:28 You see, I shall wait in the passes of the desert plain until word comes from you bringing me news.'

2Sa 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

2Sa 15:30 David then made his way up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, his head covered and his feet bare. And all the people with him had their heads covered and made their way up, weeping as they went.

2Sa 15:31 David was then informed that Ahithophel was among the conspirators with Absalom. David said, 'I beg you, Yahweh, turn Ahithophel's advice to folly.'

2Sa 15:32 As David reached the summit, where God is worshipped, he saw Hushai the Archite, his friend, coming to meet him with his tunic torn and with earth on his head.

2Sa 15:33 David said, 'If you go along with me, you will be a burden to me.'

2Sa 15:34 But if you go back to the city and say to Absalom, "I am at your service, my lord king; once I was in your father's service, but now I shall serve you," you will be able to thwart Ahithophel's advice for me.'

2Sa 15:35 Surely the priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you? Anything you hear from the palace you must report to the priests Zadok and Abiathar.

2Sa 15:36 You see, their two sons are there with them, Zadok's son Ahimaaz, and Abiathar's son Jonathan; through these, you will send me word of everything you hear.'

2Sa 15:37 Hushai, David's friend, entered the city just as Absalom was reaching Jerusalem.

2Sa 16:1 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Meribbaal's retainer, Ziba, met him with a pair of donkeys, saddled and laden with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred of the season's fruits, and a skin of wine.

2Sa 16:2 The king said to Ziba, 'What are you going to do with that?' 'The donkeys', Ziba replied, 'are for the king's family to ride, the bread and the fruit for the soldiers to eat, the wine is for drinking by those who get exhausted in the desert.'

2Sa 16:3 The king asked 'And where is your master's son?' Ziba replied to the king, 'Why, he has stayed in Jerusalem because, he says, "Today, the House of Israel will give me back my father's kingdom." '

2Sa 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, 'Everything owned by Meribbaal is yours.' Ziba said, 'I prostrate myself! May I be worthy of your favour, my lord king!'

2Sa 16:5 As David was reaching Bahurim, out came a man of the same clan as Saul's family. His name was Shimei son of Gera and, as he came, he uttered curse after curse

2Sa 16:6 and threw stones at David and at all King David's retinue, even though the whole army and all the champions formed an escort round the king on either side.

2Sa 16:7 The words of his curse were these, 'Off with you, off with you, man of blood, scoundrel!

2Sa 16:8 Yahweh has paid you back for all the spilt blood of the House of Saul whose sovereignty you have usurped; and Yahweh has transferred the sovereign power to Absalom your son. Now your wickedness has overtaken you, man of blood that you are.'

2Sa 16:9 Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, 'Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut his head off.'

2Sa 16:10 But the king replied, 'What concern is my business to you, sons of Zeruiah? Let him curse! If Yahweh has said to him, "Curse David!" what right has anyone to say, "Why have you done so?"'

2Sa 16:11 David said to Abishai and all his retinue, 'Why, the son sprung from my own body is now seeking my life; all the more reason for this Benjaminite to do so! Let him curse on, if Yahweh has told him to!

2Sa 16:12 Perhaps Yahweh will look on my wretchedness and will repay me with good for his curses today.'

2Sa 16:13 So David and his men went on their way, and Shimei kept pace with him along the opposite mountainside, cursing as he went, throwing stones and flinging dust.

2Sa 16:14 The king and all the people who were with him arrived exhausted at and there they drew breath.

2Sa 16:15 Absalom entered Jerusalem with all the men of Israel; with him was Ahithophel.

2Sa 16:16 When Hushai the Archite, David's friend, reached Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, 'Long live the king! Long live the king!'

2Sa 16:17 Absalom said to Hushai, 'Is this your faithful love for your friend? Why didn't you go away with your friend?'

2Sa 16:18 Hushai replied to Absalom, 'No, the man whom Yahweh and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, he is the man for me, and with him will I stay!'

2Sa 16:19 Besides, whom should I serve, if not his son? As I served your father, so shall I serve you.'

2Sa 16:20 Absalom said to Ahithophel, 'Think carefully. What shall we do?'

2Sa 16:21 Ahithophel replied to Absalom, 'Go to your father's concubines whom he left to look after the palace; then all Israel will hear that you have thoroughly antagonised your father, and the resolution of all your supporters will be strengthened.'

2Sa 16:22 So a tent was pitched for Absalom on the flat roof and, with all Israel watching, Absalom went to his father's concubines.

2Sa 16:23 At the time, whatever advice Ahithophel gave was treated like a decision obtained from God; as by David, so by Absalom, was all Ahithophel's advice regarded.

2Sa 17:1 Ahithophel said to Absalom, 'Let me choose twelve thousand men and set off this very night in pursuit of David.

2Sa 17:2 I shall fall on him while he is tired and dispirited; I shall strike terror into him, and all the people who are with him will run away. I shall kill only the king,

2Sa 17:3 and I shall then bring all the people back to you, like a bride returning to her husband. You seek the life of one individual only; the people as a whole will have peace.'

2Sa 17:4 The suggestion seemed a good one to Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

2Sa 17:5 Then Absalom said, 'Now call Hushai the Archite, for us to hear what he too has to say.'

2Sa 17:6 When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom said, 'This is what Ahithophel says. Are we to do as he suggests? If not, suggest something yourself.'

2Sa 17:7 Hushai said to Absalom, 'On this occasion the advice given by Ahithophel is not good.

2Sa 17:8 You know', Hushai went on, 'that your father and his men are great fighters and that they are now as angry as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Your father is a man of war: he will not let the army rest during the night.'

2Sa 17:9 At this moment he is concealed in some hollow or other place. If at the outset there are casualties among our troops, word will go round that the army supporting Absalom has met with disaster.

2Sa 17:10 And then even the valiant, the truly lion-hearted, will be demoralised; for all Israel knows that your father is a champion and that the men with him are valiant.

2Sa 17:11 For my part, I offer this advice: Summon all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, to rally to you, as numerous as the sand on the seashore, and you take the field in person with them.

2Sa 17:12 We shall reach him wherever he is to be found; we shall fall on him as the dew falls on the ground, and not leave him or any one of the men with him.

2Sa 17:13 Should he retire into a town, all Israel will bring ropes to that town, and we shall drag it into the river-bed until not a pebble of it is to be found.'

2Sa 17:14 Then Absalom and all the people of Israel said, 'Hushai the Arkite's advice is better than Ahithophel's,' Yahweh having resolved to thwart Ahithophel's shrewd advice and so bring disaster on Absalom.
2Sa 17:15 Hushai then told the priests Zadok and Abiathar, 'Ahithophel gave such and such advice to Absalom and the elders of Israel, but I advised so and so.

2Sa 17:16 Send with all speed to David and say, "Do not camp in the desert passes tonight, but get through them as fast as you can, or the king and his whole army may be annihilated." '

2Sa 17:17 Jonathan and Ahimaaz were posted at the Fuller's Spring; a servant-girl was to go and warn them and they in turn were to warn King David, since they could not give themselves away by coming into the city themselves.

2Sa 17:18 A young man saw them nonetheless and told Absalom. The pair of them, however, made off quickly, reaching the house of a man in Bahurim. In his courtyard was a storage-well and they got down into it.

2Sa 17:19 The woman took a piece of canvas and, spreading it over the mouth of the storage-well, scattered crushed grain on it so that nothing showed.

2Sa 17:20 When Absalom's servants reached the woman at the house, they said, 'Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?' The woman said, 'They have gone further on, towards the water.' They searched but, having found nothing, went back to Jerusalem.

2Sa 17:21 When they had gone, the men climbed out of the storage-well and went to warn King David. 'Set out!' they told David. 'Cross the water quickly, for Ahithophel has given such and such advice against you!'

2Sa 17:22 So David and all the troops with him set off and crossed the Jordan. By dawn no one was left, all had crossed the Jordan.

2Sa 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set off and went home to his own town. Then, having set his house in order, he hanged himself. He was buried in his father's tomb.

2Sa 17:24 David had reached Mahanaim by the time that Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

2Sa 17:25 Absalom had put Amasa in command of the army in place of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man called Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had married Abigail, daughter of Jesse and sister of Zeruiah, mother of Joab.

2Sa 17:26 Israel and Absalom pitched their camp in the territory of Gilead.

2Sa 17:27 When David reached Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah-of-the-Ammonites, Machir son of Ammiel from Lo-Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim

2Sa 17:28 brought bedding, rugs, bowls and crockery; and wheat, barley, meal, roasted grain, beans, lentils,

2Sa 17:29 honey, curds and cows' cheese and sheep's cheese, which they presented to David and the people with him for them to eat. 'The army', they said, 'must have been hungry, tired and thirsty in the desert.'

2Sa 18:1 David reviewed the troops who were with him and appointed commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds to lead them.

2Sa 18:2 David divided the army into three groups, one under the command of Joab, another under the command of Abishai son of Zeruiah and brother of Joab, and the third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. David then said to the troops, 'I shall take the field in person with you.'

2Sa 18:3 But the troops replied, 'You are not to take the field. No one will bother about us if we run away, they will not even bother about us if half of us are killed, but you are ten thousand times more valuable. So it is better if you stay inside the town, in case we need reinforcements.'

2Sa 18:4 David said, 'I will do what you think best.' And the king stood beside the gate as the troops marched out by their hundreds and their thousands.

2Sa 18:5 The king gave orders to Joab, Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake, treat young Absalom gently!' And the troops all heard the king give all the commanders these orders about Absalom.

2Sa 18:6 So the troops marched out into the open to engage Israel, and the battle took place in the Forest of Ephraim.

2Sa 18:7 There, the army of Israel was beaten by David's retainers; it was a great defeat that day, with twenty thousand casualties.

2Sa 18:8 The fighting spread throughout the region and that day the forest claimed more victims than the sword.

2Sa 18:9 Absalom happened to run into some of David's guards. Absalom was riding his mule and the mule passed under the thick branches of a great oak. Absalom's head got caught in the oak and he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule he was riding went on.

2Sa 18:10 Someone saw this and reported to Joab, 'I have just seen Absalom hanging from an oak.'

2Sa 18:11 Joab said to the man who had informed him, 'If you saw him, why did you not strike him to the ground then and there? I would have made it my business to give you ten silver shekels and a belt!'

2Sa 18:12 The man replied to Joab, 'Even if I could feel the weight of a thousand silver shekels in my hand, I would not lift my hand against the king's son. In our own hearing, the king gave you and Abishai and Ittai these orders, "For my sake, spare young Absalom."

2Sa 18:13 Even if I had deceived myself, nothing stays hidden from the king and you would have dissociated yourself from me.'

2Sa 18:14 Joab then said, 'I cannot waste time arguing with you!' And, taking three darts in his hand, he planted them in Absalom's heart, while he was still alive, deep in the oak-tree.

2Sa 18:15 Ten soldiers, Joab's armour-bearers, then came in close, struck Absalom and killed him.

2Sa 18:16 Joab then had the trumpet sounded, and the troops left off pursuing Israel, since Joab held the troops back.

2Sa 18:17 They took Absalom, flung him into a deep pit in the forest and raised a huge cairn over him. All the Israelites had fled, dispersing to their homes.

2Sa 18:18 Now, during his lifetime, Absalom had made and erected a pillar to himself, which is in the Valley of the King. 'I have no son', he said, 'to preserve the memory of my name.' He gave his own name to the pillar, and today it is still called Absalom's Monument.

2Sa 18:19 Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, 'Let me run and tell the king the good news that Yahweh has vindicated his cause by ridding him of his enemies.'

2Sa 18:20 But Joab said, 'Today you would be no bearer of good news, some other day you may be; but today you would not be bringing good news, since the king's son is dead.'

2Sa 18:21 Joab then said to the Cushite, 'Go and tell the king what you have seen.' The Cushite prostrated himself to Joab and ran off.

2Sa 18:22 But Ahimaaz son of Zadok persisted. 'Come what may,' he said to Joab, 'please let me run after the Cushite.' 'My son,' Joab said, 'why run? You will get no reward for your news.'

2Sa 18:23 But he replied, 'Come what may, let me run!' and Joab said 'Run, then!' So Ahimaaz ran off along the road through the Plain, outrunning the Cushite.

2Sa 18:24 David was sitting between the two gates. The sentry, having gone up to the roof of the gate, looked out from the ramparts and saw a man running alone.

2Sa 18:25 The sentry called down to the king and told him. The king said, 'If he is alone, he is bringing good news.'

2Sa 18:26 As the man drew steadily nearer, the lookout man saw another man running, and the sentry above the gate shouted, 'Here comes another man, running alone!' David said, 'He too is a bearer of good news.'

2Sa 18:27 The sentry said, 'I recognise the way the first man runs; Ahimaaz son of Zadok runs like that.' 'He is a good man', said the king, 'and comes with good news.'

2Sa 18:28 Ahimaaz went up to the king. 'All hail!' he said, prostrating himself on the ground before the king.

'Blessed be Yahweh your God', he said, 'who has handed over the men who rebelled against my lord the king!'

2Sa 18:29 'Is all well with young Absalom?' the king asked. Ahimaaz replied, 'I saw a great commotion when Joab, the king's servant, sent your servant off, but I do not know what it was.'

2Sa 18:30 The king said, 'Go and stand over there.' He stood to one side and waited.

2Sa 18:31 Then the Cushite arrived. 'Good news for my lord the king!' the Cushite shouted. 'Today Yahweh has vindicated your cause, by ridding you of all who had risen up against you.'

2Sa 18:32 'Is all well with young Absalom?' the king asked the Cushite. 'May the enemies of my lord the king', the Cushite answered, 'and all who rise up to harm you, share the fate of that young man!'

2Sa 19:1 The king shuddered. He went up to the room over the gate and burst into tears; and, as he wept, he kept saying, 'Oh, my son Absalom! My son! My son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you! Oh, Absalom my son, my son!'

2Sa 19:2 Word was brought to Joab, 'The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.'

2Sa 19:3 And for the entire army that day, victory was turned to mourning, the troops having learnt that the king was grieving for his son.

2Sa 19:4 And that day the troops came furtively back into town, like troops creeping shamefacedly away when deserting in battle.

2Sa 19:5 The king had covered his face and kept crying aloud, 'My son Absalom! Oh, Absalom my son, my son!'

2Sa 19:6 Joab went inside to the king and said, 'Today you have made all your servants feel ashamed-today, when they have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines!-because you love those who hate you and hate those who love you.'

2Sa 19:7 Today you have made it plain that commanders and soldiers mean nothing to you -- for today I can see that you would be content if we were all dead, provided that Absalom was alive!

2Sa 19:8 Now get up, come out and reassure your soldiers; for if you do not come out, I swear by Yahweh, not one man will stay with you tonight; and this will be a worse misfortune for you than anything that has happened to you from your youth until now!'

2Sa 19:9 The king got up and took his seat at the gate. An announcement was made to the whole army: 'The king is sitting at the gate.' And the whole army assembled in front of the king.

2Sa 19:10 Israel had fled, dispersing to their homes. Throughout the tribes of Israel all was dissension and people began saying, 'The king, having freed us from the clutches of our enemies, having saved us from the clutches of the Philistines, has himself had to flee the country to escape from Absalom;

2Sa 19:11 and now Absalom, whom we had anointed to reign over us, has died in battle. Why does no one suggest that the king should be brought back?' What was being said throughout Israel reached the king.

2Sa 19:12 King David then sent word to the priests Zadok and Abiathar, 'Say to the elders of Judah, "Why should you be the last to bring the king home?"

2Sa 19:13 You are my brothers, you are my own flesh and bone: why should you be the last to bring the king back?"

2Sa 19:14 And say to Amasa, "Are you not my own flesh and bone? May God bring unnameable ills on me and worse ills, too, if you do not become my permanent army commander instead of Joab!"'

2Sa 19:15 Thus he rallied the hearts of the men of Judah to a man and, as a result, they sent word to the king, 'Come back, you and all who serve you.'

2Sa 19:16 So the king started home and reached the Jordan. Judah, coming to meet the king to escort him across the Jordan, had arrived at Gilgal.

2Sa 19:17 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite of Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

2Sa 19:18 With him were a thousand men from Benjamin. Ziba, servant of the House of Saul, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants, arrived at the Jordan before the king

2Sa 19:19 and worked manfully ferrying the king's family across and doing whatever he required. While the king was crossing the Jordan, Shimei son of Gera fell at the king's feet

2Sa 19:20 and said to the king, 'I hope my lord does not regard me as guilty of a crime! Forget about the wrong your servant did on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. Let my lord not hold my guilt against me.'

2Sa 19:21 For your servant is aware of having sinned, and that is why I have come today -- the first member of the whole House of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king.'

2Sa 19:22 At this, Abishai son of Zeruiah spoke up and said, 'Does Shimei not deserve death for having cursed Yahweh's anointed?'

2Sa 19:23 To which David replied, 'What concern is my business to you, sons of Zeruiah, that you should oppose my wishes today? Could anyone be put to death in Israel today? Today I know for sure that I am king of Israel!'

2Sa 19:24 'Your life is spared,' the king said. And the king gave him his oath.

2Sa 19:25 Meribbaal son of Saul also went down to meet the king. He had not cared for his feet or hands, he had not trimmed his moustache or washed his clothes from the day of the king's departure till the day of his peaceful return.

2Sa 19:26 When he arrived from Jerusalem to greet the king, the king asked him, 'Why did you not come with me, Meribbaal?'

2Sa 19:27 'My lord king,' he replied, 'my retainer deceived me. Your servant said to him, "Saddle the donkey for me to ride, so that I can go with the king," your servant being lame.'

2Sa 19:28 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. My lord the king, however, is like the Angel of God, so do as you think right.

2Sa 19:29 My father's entire family deserved no better than death from my lord the king, and yet you admitted your servant to the ranks of those who eat at your table. What right have I to make any further appeal to the king?'

2Sa 19:30 The king said, 'You need say no more. I rule that you and Ziba divide the property between you.'

2Sa 19:31 'Let him take it all,' Meribbaal said to the king, 'since my lord the king has come back home in peace!'

2Sa 19:32 Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim and accompanied the king towards the Jordan, intending to take leave of him at the Jordan.

2Sa 19:33 Barzillai was a man of great age; he was eighty years old. He had kept the king in provisions during his stay at Mahanaim, being a very wealthy man.

2Sa 19:34 'Come with me', the king said to Barzillai, 'and I will provide for you at my side in Jerusalem.'

2Sa 19:35 Barzillai replied to the king, 'How many years have I left to live, for me to go up to Jerusalem with the king?'

2Sa 19:36 I am now eighty years old; can I tell the good from the bad? Has your servant any taste for his food and drink? Can I still hear the voices of men and women singers? Why should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?

2Sa 19:37 Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king; but why should the king reward me so generously for that?

2Sa 19:38 Please allow your servant to go home again, so that I can die in my own town near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him go with my lord the king; treat him as you think right.'

2Sa 19:39 The king said, 'Let Chimham come along with me then; I shall do whatever you wish for him, and anything you request I shall do for your sake.'

2Sa 19:40 The people then all crossed the Jordan, and the king, having crossed, kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and the latter went home.

2Sa 19:41 The king went on to Gilgal and Chimham went with him. All the people of Judah accompanied the king, and also half the people of Israel.

2Sa 19:42 All the men of Israel then came to the king. 'Why', they asked the king, 'have our brothers, the men of Judah, carried you off and brought the king and his family across the Jordan, and all David's men with him?'

2Sa 19:43 All the men of Judah retorted to the men of Israel, 'Because the king is more closely related to us.

Why do you take offence at this? Have we been eating at the king's expense? Have we taken any position for ourselves?'

2Sa 19:44 The men of Israel replied to the men of Judah, 'We have ten shares in the king and, what is more, we are your elder brothers, so why have you slighted us? Were we not the first to suggest bringing back our king?'

The men of Judah's words were even more intemperate than those of the men of Israel.

2Sa 20:1 Now there happened to be a scoundrel there called Sheba son of Bichri, a Benjaminite, who sounded the trumpet and shouted: We have no share in David, we have no heritage in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, O Israel!

2Sa 20:2 At this all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bichri. But the men of Judah stuck close to their king, from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:3 David returned to his palace in Jerusalem. The king took the ten concubines, whom he had left to look after the palace, and put them under guard. He provided for their upkeep but never went near them again; they were shut away until the day they died, widows, as it were, of a living man.

2Sa 20:4 The king said to Amasa, 'Summon me the men of Judah and be here yourself within three days.'

2Sa 20:5 Amasa went off to summon Judah, but he took longer than the time fixed by David.

2Sa 20:6 David then said to Abishai, 'Sheba son of Bichri is now in a position to do us more damage even than Absalom. Take your master's retainers and be after him, before he can reach any fortified towns and elude us.'

2Sa 20:7 Joab, the Cherethites, the Pelethites and all the champions took the field under Abishai, setting off from Jerusalem in pursuit of Sheba son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:8 They were near the great stone at Gibeon when Amasa met them, coming the other way. Joab was wearing his uniform, over which he had buckled on a sword hanging from his waist in its scabbard; the sword came out and fell.

2Sa 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, 'Are you well, brother?' and, with his right hand, took Amasa by the beard to kiss him.

2Sa 20:10 Amasa paid no attention to the sword, which Joab had now picked up, and Joab struck him with it in the belly, spilling his entrails all over the ground. He did not need to strike a second blow; and Amasa died, while Joab and Abishai hurried on in pursuit of Sheba son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:11 One of Joab's men stood on guard beside Amasa, shouting, 'Whoever is on Joab's side, whoever is for David, follow Joab!'

2Sa 20:12 Amasa meanwhile lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road. Seeing that everyone was stopping, the man dragged Amasa off the road into the field and threw a cloak over him, having realised that everyone passing would stop.

2Sa 20:13 Once Amasa had been taken off the road, the men all carried on, following Joab in pursuit of Sheba son of Bichri.

2Sa 20:14 Sheba crossed all the tribes of Israel as far as Abel Beth-Maacah, and the Bichrites all . . . They formed up and followed him.

2Sa 20:15 Laying siege to him in Abel Beth-Maacah, they threw up a ramp against the outer wall of the town, 2Sa 20:16 while the whole army accompanying Joab undermined the wall to bring it down. A quick-witted woman shouted from the town, 'Listen!

2Sa 20:17 Listen! Say to Joab, "Come here, I want to speak to you." ' He came forward, and the woman said, 'Are you Joab?' 'I am', he replied. She said, 'Listen to what your servant says.' 'I am listening,' he replied.

2Sa 20:18 She then spoke as follows, 'In olden days people used to say, "Abel and Dan are where you should enquire 2Sa 20:19 whether a tradition established by the faithful of Israel has finally died out." And yet you are trying to destroy a town, a metropolis of Israel. Why do you want to devour Yahweh's heritage?'

2Sa 20:20 'The last thing I want to do', said Joab, 'is either to devour or to destroy.'

2Sa 20:21 This is not the issue; a man from the highlands of Ephraim, called Sheba son of Bichri, has revolted against the king, against David. Hand that one man over and I will raise the siege of the town.' 'Very well,' the woman said to Joab, 'his head will be thrown over the wall to you.'

2Sa 20:22 The woman went and spoke to all the people as her wisdom dictated. They cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it down to Joab. He had the trumpet sounded and they withdrew from the town and all went home, while Joab himself went back to the king in Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:23 Joab commanded the whole army; Benaiah son of Jehoiada commanded the Cherethites and Pelethites;

2Sa 20:24 Adoram was in charge of forced labour; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was herald;

2Sa 20:25 Shiya was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2Sa 20:26 also: Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

2Sa 21:1 In the days of David there was a famine which lasted for three years on end. David consulted Yahweh, and Yahweh said, 'Saul and his family have incurred blood-guilt, by putting the Gibeonites to death.'

2Sa 21:2 Then the king summoned the Gibeonites and said-now, the Gibeonites were not Israelites, but were a remnant of the Amorites, to whom the Israelites had bound themselves by oath; Saul, however, in his zeal for the Israelites and for Judah, had done his best to exterminate them -- hence David said to the Gibeonites,

2Sa 21:3 'What can I do for you? How can I make amends, so that you will call a blessing down on Yahweh's heritage?'

2Sa 21:4 The Gibeonites replied, 'Our quarrel with Saul and his family cannot be settled for silver or gold, nor by putting to death one man in Israel.' David said, 'Say what you want and I will do it for you.'

2Sa 21:5 Then they replied to the king, 'The man who dismembered us and planned to annihilate us, so that we should not exist anywhere in Israelite territory-

2Sa 21:6 we want seven of his descendants handed over to us; and we shall dismember them before Yahweh at Gibeon on Yahweh's hill.' 'I shall hand them over,' said the king.

2Sa 21:7 The king, however, spared Meribbaal son of Jonathan, son of Saul, on account of the oath by Yahweh binding them together, binding David and Jonathan son of Saul.

2Sa 21:8 The king took the two sons born to Saul by Rizpah daughter of Aiah: Armoni and Meribbaal; and the five sons borne by Merab daughter of Saul to Adriel son of Barzillai, of Meholah.

2Sa 21:9 He handed these over to the Gibeonites who dismembered them before Yahweh on the hill. The seven of them perished together; they were put to death in the first days of the harvest, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

2Sa 21:10 Rizpah daughter of Aiah, wearing sacking and spreading some out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of the barley harvest until the rain fell on them from heaven, kept the birds of the sky away from them in the daytime, and the wild animals away at night.

2Sa 21:11 David was told of what Saul's concubine, Rizpah daughter of Aiah, had done.

2Sa 21:12 David went and recovered the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the notables of Jabesh in Gilead. The latter had stolen them from the square in Beth-Shean, where the Philistines had hung them, when the Philistines had defeated Saul at Gilboa.

2Sa 21:13 David fetched the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan. The bones of the men who had been dismembered were collected 2Sa 21:14 and these, with the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan, were buried in the territory of Benjamin, at Zela, in the tomb of Saul's father, Kish. The king's orders were carried out to the letter and after that, God took pity on the country.

2Sa 21:15 Once again the Philistines made war on Israel. David went down with his retainers; they fought the Philistines and David began to tire.

2Sa 21:16 There was a champion, one of the sons of Rapha. His spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze; he was wearing a new sword and was confident of killing David.

2Sa 21:17 Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his rescue, however, attacking the Philistine and killing him. Then it was that David's men swore the following oath to him, 'You are never to go into battle with us again, in case you should extinguish the lamp of Israel!'

2Sa 21:18 After this, war with the Philistines broke out again at Gob. This was when Sibbecai of Hushah killed Saph, one of the sons of Rapha.

2Sa 21:19 Again, war with the Philistines broke out at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jair, of Bethlehem, killed Goliath of Gath, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

2Sa 21:20 There was further warfare at Gath, where there was a man of huge stature with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all. He too was a son of Rapha.

2Sa 21:21 When he defied Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, brother of David cut him down.

2Sa 21:22 These four were sons of Rapha in Gath and fell at the hands of David and his retainers.

2Sa 22:1 David addressed the words of this song to Yahweh, when Yahweh had delivered him from the clutches of all his enemies and from the clutches of Saul.

2Sa 22:2 He said: Yahweh is my rock and my fortress,

2Sa 22:3 my deliverer is my God. I take refuge in him, my rock, my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold, my place of refuge. My Saviour, you have saved me from violence;

2Sa 22:4 I call to Yahweh, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my foes.

2Sa 22:5 With Death's breakers closing in on me, Belial's torrents ready to swallow me,

2Sa 22:6 Sheol's snares on every side of me, Death's traps lying ahead of me,

2Sa 22:7 I called to Yahweh in my anguish, I cried for help to my God, from his Temple he heard my voice, my cry came to his ears!

2Sa 22:8 Then the earth quaked and rocked, the heavens' foundations shuddered, they quaked at his blazing anger.

2Sa 22:9 Smoke rose from his nostrils, from his mouth devouring fire (coals were kindled at it).

2Sa 22:10 He parted the heavens and came down, a storm-cloud underneath his feet;

2Sa 22:11 riding one of the winged creatures, he flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

2Sa 22:12 He wrapped himself in darkness, his pavilion dark waters and dense cloud.

2Sa 22:13 A brightness lit up before him, hail and blazing fire.

2Sa 22:14 Yahweh thundered from the heavens, the Most High made his voice heard.

2Sa 22:15 He shot his arrows and scattered them, his lightning flashed and routed them.

2Sa 22:16 The very springs of ocean were exposed, the world's foundations were laid bare, at the roaring of Yahweh, at the blast of breath from his nostrils!

2Sa 22:17 He reached down from on high, snatched me up, pulled me from the watery depths, 2Sa 22:18 rescued me from my mighty foe, from my enemies who were stronger than I.

2Sa 22:19 They assailed me on my day of disaster, but Yahweh was there to support me, 2Sa 22:20 he freed me, set me at large, he rescued me, because he loves me.

2Sa 22:21 Yahweh rewards me for my uprightness, as my hands are pure so he repays me,

2Sa 22:22 since I have kept the ways of Yahweh, and not fallen away from my God.

2Sa 22:23 His judgements are all before me, his statutes I have not put away from me;

2Sa 22:24 I am blameless before him, I keep myself clear of evil.

2Sa 22:25 Hence Yahweh repaid me for acting uprightly because he could see I was pure.

2Sa 22:26 Faithful you are to the faithful, blameless with the blameless,

2Sa 22:27 sincere to the sincere but cunning to the crafty,

2Sa 22:28 you save a people that is humble and humiliate those with haughty looks.

2Sa 22:29 Yahweh, you yourself are my lamp, my God lights up my darkness;

2Sa 22:30 with you I storm the rampart with my God I can scale any wall.

2Sa 22:31 This God, his way is blameless; the word of Yahweh is refined in the furnace, for he alone is the shield of all who take refuge in him.

2Sa 22:32 For who is God but Yahweh, who is a rock but our God:

2Sa 22:33 this God who girds me with strength, who makes my way free from blame,

2Sa 22:34 who makes me as swift as a deer and sets me firmly on the heights,

2Sa 22:35 who trains my hands for battle my arms to bend a bow of bronze.

2Sa 22:36 You give me your invincible shield, you never cease to listen to me,

2Sa 22:37 you give me the strides of a giant, give me ankles that never weaken-

2Sa 22:38 I pursue my enemies and exterminate them, not turning back till they are annihilated;

2Sa 22:39 I strike them down, and they cannot rise, they fall, they are under my feet.

2Sa 22:40 You have girded me with strength for the fight, bent down my assailants beneath me, 2Sa 22:41 made my enemies retreat before me; and those who hate me I destroy.

2Sa 22:42 They cry out, there is no one to save, to Yahweh, but no answer comes.

2Sa 22:43 I crumble them like the dust of the squares, trample them like the mud of the streets.

2Sa 22:44 You free me from the quarrels of my people, you place me at the head of the nations, a people I did not know are now my servants,

2Sa 22:45 foreigners come wooing my favour, no sooner do they hear than they obey me,

2Sa 22:46 foreigners grow faint of heart, they come trembling out of their fastnesses.

2Sa 22:47 Life to Yahweh! Blessed be my rock! Exalted be the God of my salvation,

2Sa 22:48 the God who gives me vengeance and crushes the peoples under me,

2Sa 22:49 who takes me away from my enemies. You lift me high above those who attack me, you deliver me from the man of violence.

2Sa 22:50 For this I will praise you, Yahweh, among the nations, and sing praise to your name.

2Sa 22:51 He saves his king, time after time, displays faithful love for his anointed, for David and his heirs for ever.

2Sa 23:1 These are the last words of David: Thus speaks David son of Jesse, thus speaks the man raised to eminence, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the singer of the songs of Israel:

2Sa 23:2 The spirit of Yahweh speaks through me, his word is on my tongue;

2Sa 23:3 the God of Jacob has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: He whose rule is upright on earth, who rules in the fear of God,

2Sa 23:4 is like the morning light at sunrise (on a cloudless morning) making the grass of the earth sparkle after rain.

2Sa 23:5 Yes, my House stands firm with God: he has made an eternal covenant with me, all in order, well assured; does he not bring to fruition my every victory and desire?

2Sa 23:6 But men of Belial he rejects like thorns, for these are never taken up in the hand:

2Sa 23:7 no one touches them except with a pitchfork or spear-shaft, and then only to burn them to nothing!

2Sa 23:8 These are the names of David's champions: Ishbaal the Hachmonite leader of the Three; it was he who brandished his spear over eight hundred men whom he had killed at one time.

2Sa 23:9 Next, there was Eleazar son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three champions. He was with David at Pas-Dammim when the Philistines mustered for battle there and the men of Israel had disbanded.

2Sa 23:10 But he stood his ground and cut down the Philistines until his hand was so stiff that he could not let go of the sword. Yahweh brought about a great victory that day, and the people rallied behind him, although only to plunder.

2Sa 23:11 Next, there was Shamma son of Elah, the Hararite. The Philistines had mustered at Lehi. There was a field full of lentils there; the people fled from the Philistines, 2Sa 23:12 but he took his stand in the middle of the field, held it, and cut down the Philistines; and Yahweh brought about a great victory.

2Sa 23:13 Three members of the Thirty went down at the beginning of the harvest and came to David at the Cave of Adullam while a company of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of the Rephaim.

2Sa 23:14 David was then in the stronghold, and there was a Philistine garrison in Bethlehem.

2Sa 23:15 Longingly David said, 'If only someone would fetch me a drink of water from the well that stands by the gate at Bethlehem!'

2Sa 23:16 At this, the three champions, forcing their way through the Philistine camp, drew water from the well that stands by the gate of Bethlehem and, taking it away, presented it to David. He, however, would not drink any of it, but poured it out as a libation to Yahweh.

2Sa 23:17 'Yahweh preserve me', he said, 'from doing such a thing! This is the blood of men who went at risk of their lives.' That was why he would not drink. Such were the deeds of these three champions.

2Sa 23:18 Abishai, brother of Joab and son of Zeruiah, was leader of the Thirty. It was he who brandished his spear over three hundred men whom he had killed, winning himself a name among the Thirty.

2Sa 23:19 He was a most illustrious member of the Thirty and became their captain, but he was not equal to the Three.

2Sa 23:20 Benaiah of Kabzeel was the son of Jehoiada and hero of many exploits. He it was who slaughtered two formidable Moabites and, one snowy day, climbed down and slaughtered the lion in the storage-well.

2Sa 23:21 He also slaughtered an Egyptian of great stature. The Egyptian was armed with a spear, but he took him on with a staff, tore the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed the man with it.

2Sa 23:22 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, winning him a name among the thirty champions.

2Sa 23:23 He was a most illustrious member of the Thirty, but he was not equal to the Three. David put him in command of his bodyguard.

2Sa 23:24 Asahel brother of Joab was one of the Thirty; Elhanan son of Dodo, of Bethlehem;

2Sa 23:25 Shammah of Harod; Elika of Harod;

2Sa 23:26 Helez of Beth-Pelet; Ira son of Ikkesh, of Tekoa;

2Sa 23:27 Abiezer of Anathoth; Sibbecai of Hushah;

2Sa 23:28 Zalmon of Ahoh; Maherai of Netophah;

2Sa 23:29 Heled son of Baanah, of Netophah; Ittai son of Ribai, of Gibeah in Benjamin;

2Sa 23:30 Benaiah of Pirathon; Hiddai of the Torrents of Gaash;

2Sa 23:31 Abibaal of Beth-ha-Arabah; Azmaveth of Bahurim;

2Sa 23:32 Eliahba of Shaalbon; Jashen of Gimzo; Jonathan

2Sa 23:33 son of Shammah, of Harar; Ahiam son of Sharar, of Harar;

2Sa 23:34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai, of Beth-Maacah; Eliam son of Ahithophel, of Gilo;

2Sa 23:35 Hezro of Carmel; Paarai of Arab;

2Sa 23:36 Igal son of Nathan, of Zobah; Bani the Gadite;

2Sa 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai of Beeroth squire to Joab, son of Zeruiah;

2Sa 23:38 Ira of Jattir; Gareb of Jattir;

2Sa 23:39 Uriah the Hittite- thirty-seven in all.

2Sa 24:1 Again, Yahweh's anger was aroused against Israel, and he incited David against them. 'Go,' he said, 'take a census of Israel and Judah.'

2Sa 24:2 The king said to Joab and the senior army officers who were with him, 'Now, go through all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, and take a census of the people; I wish to know the size of the population.'

2Sa 24:3 Joab said to the king, 'May Yahweh your God multiply the people a hundred times -- however many there are -- while my lord the king still has eyes to see it, but why should my lord the king be set on this?'

2Sa 24:4 The king nonetheless enforced his order on Joab and the senior officers, and Joab and the senior officers left the king's presence, to take a census of the people of Israel.

2Sa 24:5 They crossed the Jordan and made a start with Aroer and the town in the middle of the valley, then moved on to the Gadites and to Jazer.

2Sa 24:6 They then went to Gilead and the territory of the Hittites, to Kadesh; they then went to Dan and from Dan cut across to Sidon.

2Sa 24:7 They then went to the fortress of Tyre and to all the towns of the Hittites and Canaanites ending up in the Negeb of Judah at Beersheba.

2Sa 24:8 Having travelled throughout the country, after nine months and twenty days they returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 24:9 Joab gave the king the census results for the people; Israel had eight hundred thousand fighting men who could wield a sword, and Judah five hundred thousand.

2Sa 24:10 But afterwards David's heart misgave him for having taken a census of the people. David then said to Yahweh, 'I have committed a grave sin by doing this. But now, Yahweh, I beg you to forgive your servant for this fault, for I have acted very foolishly.'

2Sa 24:11 When, however, David got up next morning, the following message had come from Yahweh to the prophet Gad, David's seer,

2Sa 24:12 'Go and say to David, "Yahweh says this: I offer you three things; choose which one of them I am to inflict on you."

2Sa 24:13 So Gad went to David and said, 'Which do you prefer: to have three years of famine befall your country; to flee for three months before a pursuing army; or to have three days of epidemic in your country? Now think, and decide how I am to answer him who sends me.'

2Sa 24:14 David said to Gad, 'I am very apprehensive . . . Better to fall into Yahweh's hands, since his mercies are great, than to fall into the hands of men!'

2Sa 24:15 So David chose the epidemic. It was the time of the wheat harvest. So Yahweh unleashed an epidemic on Israel from that morning until the time determined; plague ravaged the people and, of the people from Dan to Beersheba, seventy thousand died.

2Sa 24:16 But when the angel stretched his hand towards Jerusalem to destroy it, Yahweh felt sorry about the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, 'Enough now! Hold your hand!' The angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2Sa 24:17 When David saw the angel who was ravaging the people, he said to Yahweh, 'I was the one who sinned. I was the one who acted wrongly. But these, the flock, what have they done? Let your hand lie heavy on me and on my family!'

2Sa 24:18 Gad went to David that day and said, 'Go up and raise an altar to Yahweh on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.'

2Sa 24:19 So, at Gad's bidding, David went up, as Yahweh had ordered.

2Sa 24:20 When Araunah looked up and saw the king and his retinue advancing towards him-Araunah was threshing the wheat -- Araunah came forward and prostrated himself on the ground at the king's feet.

2Sa 24:21 'Why has my lord the king come to his servant?' Araunah asked. David replied, 'To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to Yahweh, so that the plague may be lifted from the people.'

2Sa 24:22 Araunah said to David, 'Let my lord the king take it and make what offerings he thinks fit. Here are the oxen for the burnt offering, the threshing-sleds and the oxen's yokes for the wood.'

2Sa 24:23 My lord the king's servant will give the king everything. And', Araunah said to the king, 'may Yahweh your God accept what you offer!'

2Sa 24:24 'No,' said the king to Araunah, 'I shall give you a price for it; I will not offer Yahweh my God burnt offerings which have cost me nothing.' David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

2Sa 24:25 David built an altar to Yahweh and offered burnt offerings and communion sacrifices. Yahweh then took pity on the country and the plague was lifted from Israel.

1Ki 1:1 King David was now a very old man, and though wrapped in bedclothes he could not keep warm.

1Ki 1:2 So his servants said to him, 'Let us find a young girl for my lord the king, to wait on the king and look after him; she will lie close beside you and this will keep my lord the king warm.'

1Ki 1:3 Having searched for a beautiful girl throughout the territory of Israel, they found Abishag of Shunem and brought her to the king.

1Ki 1:4 The girl was very beautiful. She looked after the king and waited on him but the king did not have intercourse with her.

1Ki 1:5 Now Adonijah son of Haggith was growing pretentious and saying, 'I shall be king!' Accordingly, he procured a chariot and team with fifty guards to run ahead of him.

1Ki 1:6 Never once in his life had his father crossed him by saying, 'Why are you behaving like that?' He was very handsome too; his mother had given birth to him after Absalom.

1Ki 1:7 He conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with the priest Abiathar, who both rallied to Adonijah's cause;

1Ki 1:8 but neither Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah son of Jehoiada, nor the prophet Nathan, nor Shimei and Rei, nor David's champions, supported Adonijah.

1Ki 1:9 One day when Adonijah was sacrificing sheep, oxen and fattened calves at the Sliding Stone which is beside the Fuller's Spring, he invited all his brothers, the royal princes, and all the men of Judah in the king's service;

1Ki 1:10 but he did not invite the prophet Nathan, or Benaiah, or the champions, or his brother Solomon.

1Ki 1:11 Nathan then said to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, 'Have you not heard that, unknown to our lord David, Adonijah son of Haggith has become king?

1Ki 1:12 Well, this is my advice to you if you want to save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1Ki 1:13 Go straight in to King David and say, "My lord king, did you not make your servant this promise on oath: Your son Solomon is to be king after me; he is the one who is to sit on my throne? How is it, then, that Adonijah is king?"

1Ki 1:14 And while you are still there talking to the king, I shall come in after you and confirm what you say.'

1Ki 1:15 So Bathsheba went to the king in his room (he was very old and Abishag of Shunem was in attendance on him).

1Ki 1:16 She knelt, prostrated herself before the king, and the king said, 'What do you want?'

1Ki 1:17 'My lord,' she replied, 'you swore to your servant by Yahweh your God, "Your son Solomon is to be king after me; he is the one who is to sit on my throne."

1Ki 1:18 And now here is Adonijah king, and you, my lord king, knowing nothing about it!

1Ki 1:19 He has sacrificed quantities of oxen, fattened calves and sheep, and invited all the royal princes, the priest Abiathar, and Joab the army commander; but he has not invited your servant Solomon.

1Ki 1:20 Yet you are the man, my lord king, to whom all Israel looks, to tell them who is to succeed my lord the king.

1Ki 1:21 And when my lord the king falls asleep with his ancestors, Solomon and I shall be made to suffer for this.'

1Ki 1:22 She was still speaking to the king when the prophet Nathan came in.

1Ki 1:23 The king was told, 'The prophet Nathan is here'; and he came into the king's presence and prostrated himself on his face before the king.

1Ki 1:24 'My lord king,' said Nathan, 'is this, then, your decree, "Adonijah is to be king after me; he is the one who is to sit on my throne"?

1Ki 1:25 For he has gone down today and sacrificed quantities of oxen, fattened calves and sheep, and invited all the royal princes, the army commanders, and the priest Abiathar; and they are there now, eating and drinking in his presence and shouting, "Long live King Adonijah!"

1Ki 1:26 He has not, however, invited me your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, or your servant Solomon.

1Ki 1:27 Can it be that this is done with my lord the king's approval and that you have not told those loyal to you who is to succeed to the throne of my lord the king?'

1Ki 1:28 King David then spoke. 'Call Bathsheba to me,' he said. And she came into the king's presence and stood before him.

1Ki 1:29 Then the king swore this oath, 'As Yahweh lives, who has delivered me from all adversity,

1Ki 1:30 just as I swore to you by Yahweh, God of Israel, that your son Solomon should be king after me and take my place on my throne, so I shall bring it about this very day.'

1Ki 1:31 Bathsheba knelt down, prostrated herself on her face before the king and said, 'May my lord King David live for ever!'

1Ki 1:32 Then King David said, 'Summon Zadok the priest, the prophet Nathan and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.' So they came into the king's presence.

1Ki 1:33 'Take the royal guard with you,' said the king, 'mount my son Solomon on my own mule and escort him down to Gihon.

1Ki 1:34 There Zadok the priest and the prophet Nathan are to anoint him king of Israel; then sound the trumpet and shout, "Long live King Solomon!"

1Ki 1:35 Then you are to escort him back, and he is then to assume my throne and be king in place of me, for he is the man whom I have appointed as ruler of Israel and of Judah.'

1Ki 1:36 Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king. 'Amen!' he said. 'And may Yahweh, God of my lord the king, confirm it!'

1Ki 1:37 As Yahweh has been with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon and make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!'

1Ki 1:38 Zadok the priest, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and Pelethites then went down; they mounted Solomon on King David's mule and escorted him to Gihon.

1Ki 1:39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the Tent and anointed Solomon. They sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, 'Long live King Solomon!'

1Ki 1:40 The people all escorted him back, with pipes playing and loud rejoicing and shouts to split the earth.

1Ki 1:41 Adonijah and his guests, who had by then finished their meal, all heard the noise. Joab too heard the sound of the trumpet and said, 'What is that noise of uproar in the city?'

1Ki 1:42 While he was still speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. 'Come in,' Adonijah said, 'you are an honest man, so you must be bringing good news.'

1Ki 1:43 'The truth is,' Jonathan answered, 'our lord King David has made Solomon king.'

1Ki 1:44 With him, the king sent Zadok the priest, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada and the Cherethites and Pelethites; they mounted him on the king's mule, 1Ki 1:45 and Zadok the priest and the prophet Nathan have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone back again with shouts of joy and the city is now in an uproar; that was the noise you heard.

1Ki 1:46 What is more, Solomon is seated on the royal throne.

1Ki 1:47 And further, the king's officers have been to congratulate our lord King David with the words, "May your God make the name of Solomon more glorious than yours, and his throne more exalted than your own!" And the king bowed down on his bed,

1Ki 1:48 and then said, "Blessed be Yahweh, God of Israel, for setting one of my own sons on the throne while I am still alive to see it!"

1Ki 1:49 At this, all Adonijah's guests, taking fright, got up and made off in their several directions.

1Ki 1:50 Adonijah, in terror of Solomon, got up and ran off to cling to the horns of the altar.

1Ki 1:51 Solomon was told, 'You should know that Adonijah is terrified of King Solomon and is now clinging to the horns of the altar, saying, "Let King Solomon first swear to me that he will not have his servant executed."

1Ki 1:52 'Should he bear himself honourably,' Solomon answered, 'not one hair of his shall fall to the ground; but if he proves difficult, he shall die.'

1Ki 1:53 King Solomon then sent for him to be brought down from the altar; he came and threw himself prostrate before King Solomon; Solomon said to him, 'Go to your house.'

1Ki 2:1 As David's life drew to its close he laid this charge on his son Solomon, 1Ki 2:2 'I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong and show yourself a man.

1Ki 2:3 Observe the injunctions of Yahweh your God, following his ways and keeping his laws, his commandments, his ordinances and his decrees, as stands written in the Law of Moses, so that you may be successful in everything you do and undertake,

1Ki 2:4 and that Yahweh may fulfil the promise which he made me, "If your sons are careful how they behave, and walk loyally before me with all their heart and soul, you will never want for a man on the throne of Israel."

1Ki 2:5 'You know too what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the army of Israel, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether; how he murdered them, shedding the blood of war in time of peace and staining the belt round my waist and the sandals on my feet with the blood of war.

1Ki 2:6 You will be wise not to let his grey head go down to Sheol in peace.

1Ki 2:7 As regards the sons of Barzillai of Gilead, treat them with faithful love, let them be among those who eat at your table, for they were as kind to me when I was fleeing from your brother Absalom.

1Ki 2:8 You also have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim. He called down a terrible curse on me the day I left for Mahanaim, but he came down to meet me at the Jordan and I swore to him by Yahweh that I would not put him to death.

1Ki 2:9 But you, you must not let him go unpunished; you are a wise man and will know how to deal with him, to bring his grey head down to Sheol in blood.'

1Ki 2:10 So David fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David.

1Ki 2:11 David was king of Israel for a period of forty years: he reigned at Hebron for seven years, and in Jerusalem for thirty-three.

1Ki 2:12 Solomon then sat on the throne of David, and his sovereignty was securely established.

1Ki 2:13 Adonijah son of Haggith went to Bathsheba mother of Solomon. 'Do you bring peace?' she asked. He replied, 'Yes, peace.'

1Ki 2:14 Then he said, 'I have something to say to you.' 'Say on,' she replied.

1Ki 2:15 'You know', he said, 'that the kingdom should have come to me, and that all Israel expected me to be king; but the crown eluded me and fell to my brother, since it came to him from Yahweh.'

1Ki 2:16 Now I have one request to make you; do not refuse me.' 'Go on,' she said.

1Ki 2:17 He went on, 'Please ask King Solomon -- for he will not refuse you -- to give me Abishag of Shunem in marriage.'

1Ki 2:18 'Very well,' Bathsheba replied, 'I shall speak to the king about you.'

1Ki 2:19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him about Adonijah; the king got up to meet her and bowed before her; he then sat down on his throne; a seat was brought for the king's mother, and she sat down on his right.

1Ki 2:20 She said, 'I have one small request to make you; do not refuse me.' 'Mother,' the king replied, 'make your request, for I shall not refuse you.'

1Ki 2:21 'Let Abishag of Shunem', she said, 'be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah.'

1Ki 2:22 King Solomon replied to his mother, 'And why do you request Abishag of Shunem for Adonijah? You might as well request the kingdom for him, since he is my elder brother and Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah are on his side.'

1Ki 2:23 And King Solomon swore by Yahweh: 'May God bring unnameable ills on me, and worse ills, too,' he said, 'if Adonijah does not pay for these words of his with his life!'

1Ki 2:24 As Yahweh lives who has set me securely on the throne of my father David, and who, as he promised, has given him a dynasty, Adonijah shall be put to death this very day.'

1Ki 2:25 And King Solomon commissioned Benaiah son of Jehoiada to strike him down, and that was how he died.

1Ki 2:26 As for Abiathar the priest, the king said to him, 'Go to Anathoth to your estate. You deserve to die, but I am not going to put you to death now, since you carried the ark of Yahweh in the presence of my father David and shared all my father's hardships.'

1Ki 2:27 Solomon deprived Abiathar of the priesthood of Yahweh, thus fulfilling the prophecy which Yahweh had uttered against the House of Eli at Shiloh.

1Ki 2:28 When the news reached Joab -- for Joab had lent his support to Adonijah, though he had not supported Absalom -- he fled to the Tent of Yahweh and clung to the horns of the altar.

1Ki 2:29 King Solomon was told, 'Joab has fled to the Tent of Yahweh; he is there beside the altar.' On this, Solomon sent word to Joab, 'What reason did you have for fleeing to the altar?' Joab replied, 'I was afraid of you and fled to Yahweh.' Solomon then sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada. 'Go', he said, 'and strike him down.'

1Ki 2:30 Accordingly Benaiah went to the Tent of Yahweh. 'By order of the king,' he said, 'come out!' 'No,' he said, 'I will die here.' So Benaiah brought word back to the king, 'This is what Joab said, and the answer he gave me.'

1Ki 2:31 'Do as he says,' the king replied. 'Strike him down and bury him, and so rid me and my family today of the innocent blood which Joab has shed.'

1Ki 2:32 Yahweh will bring his blood down on his own head, because he struck down two more upright and better men than he, and, without my father David's knowledge, put to the sword Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

1Ki 2:33 May their blood come down on the head of Joab and his descendants for ever, but may David, his descendants, his dynasty, his throne, have peace for ever from Yahweh.'

1Ki 2:34 Whereupon Benaiah son of Jehoiada went out, struck Joab down and put him to death; he was buried at his home in the desert.

1Ki 2:35 In his place as head of the army the king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada and, in place of Abiathar, the priest Zadok.

1Ki 2:36 The king had Shimei summoned to him. 'Build yourself a house in Jerusalem,' he told him. 'You are to live there; do not leave it to go anywhere at all.'

1Ki 2:37 The day you go out and cross the ravine of the Kidron, be sure you will certainly die. Your blood will be on your own head.'

1Ki 2:38 'That is a fair demand,' Shimei replied to the king, 'your servant will do as my lord the king orders.' And for a long time Shimei lived in Jerusalem.

1Ki 2:39 But when three years had gone by, it happened that two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath; Shimei was told, 'Your slaves are in Gath.'

1Ki 2:40 On this, Shimei got up and saddled his donkey and went to Akish at Gath to find his slaves. He went off and brought his slaves back from Gath.

1Ki 2:41 Solomon was informed that Shimei had left Jerusalem for Gath and come back again.

1Ki 2:42 The king had Shimei summoned to him. 'Did I not make you swear by Yahweh,' he said, 'and did I not warn you, "The day you leave to go anywhere at all, be sure you will certainly die"? To which you replied, "That is a fair demand."

1Ki 2:43 Why did you not keep the oath to Yahweh and the order which I imposed on you?'

1Ki 2:44 The king then said to Shimei, 'You know well all the evil you did to my father David. Yahweh is about to bring your wickedness down on your own head.'

1Ki 2:45 But may King Solomon be blessed, and may the throne of David be kept secure before Yahweh for ever!'

1Ki 2:46 The king gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he went out and struck Shimei down; and that was how he died. And now the kingdom was securely in Solomon's hands.

1Ki 3:1 Solomon became the son-in-law of Pharaoh king of Egypt; he married Pharaoh's daughter, and took her to the City of David until he could complete the building of his palace, the Temple of Yahweh and the ramparts of Jerusalem.

1Ki 3:2 The people, however, were still sacrificing on the high places, because at that time a dwelling-place for the name of Yahweh had not yet been built.

1Ki 3:3 Solomon loved Yahweh: he followed the precepts of his father David, except that he offered sacrifice and incense on the high places.

1Ki 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, since that was the principal high place -- Solomon presented a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1Ki 3:5 At Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream during the night. God said, 'Ask what you would like me to give you.'

1Ki 3:6 Solomon replied, 'You showed most faithful love to your servant David, my father, when he lived his life before you in faithfulness and uprightness and integrity of heart; you have continued this most faithful love to him by allowing a son of his to sit on his throne today.'

1Ki 3:7 Now, Yahweh my God, you have made your servant king in succession to David my father. But I am a very young man, unskilled in leadership.

1Ki 3:8 And here is your servant, surrounded with your people whom you have chosen, a people so numerous that its number cannot be counted or reckoned.

1Ki 3:9 So give your servant a heart to understand how to govern your people, how to discern between good and evil, for how could one otherwise govern such a great people as yours?'

1Ki 3:10 It pleased Yahweh that Solomon should have asked for this.

1Ki 3:11 'Since you have asked for this,' God said, 'and not asked for long life for yourself or riches or the lives of your enemies but have asked for a discerning judgement for yourself,

1Ki 3:12 here and now I do what you ask. I give you a heart wise and shrewd as no one has had before and no one will have after you.'

1Ki 3:13 What you have not asked I shall give you too: such riches and glory as no other king can match.

1Ki 3:14 And I shall give you a long life, if you follow my ways, keeping my laws and commandments, as your father David followed them.'

1Ki 3:15 Then Solomon woke up; it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh; he presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices and held a banquet for all those in his service.

1Ki 3:16 Later two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

1Ki 3:17 'If it please you, my lord,' one of the women said, 'this woman and I live in the same house, and while she was in the house I gave birth to a child.'

1Ki 3:18 Now it happened on the third day after my delivery that this woman also gave birth to a child. We were alone together; there was no one else in the house with us; just the two of us in the house.

1Ki 3:19 Now one night this woman's son died; she overlaid him.

1Ki 3:20 And in the middle of the night she got up and took my son from beside me while your servant was asleep; she took him in her arms and put her own dead son in mine.'

1Ki 3:21 When I got up to suckle my child, there he was, dead. But in the morning I looked at him carefully, and he was not the child I had borne at all.'

1Ki 3:22 Then the other woman spoke. 'That is not true! My son is the live one, yours is the dead one'; and the first retorted, 'That is not true! Your son is the dead one, mine is the live one.' And so they wrangled before the king.

1Ki 3:23 'This one says,' the king observed, ' "My son is the one who is alive; your son is dead," while the other says, "That is not true! Your son is the dead one, mine is the live one."

1Ki 3:24 Bring me a sword,' said the king; and a sword was brought into the king's presence.

1Ki 3:25 'Cut the living child in two,' the king said, 'and give half to one, half to the other.'

1Ki 3:26 At this the woman who was the mother of the living child addressed the king, for she felt acutely for her son. 'I beg you, my lord,' she said, 'let them give her the live child; on no account let them kill him!' But the other said, 'He shall belong to neither of us. Cut him in half!'

1Ki 3:27 Then the king gave his decision. 'Give the live child to the first woman,' he said, 'and do not kill him. She is his mother.'

1Ki 3:28 All Israel came to hear of the judgement which the king had pronounced and held the king in awe, recognising that he possessed divine wisdom for dispensing justice.

1Ki 4:1 King Solomon was king of all Israel,

1Ki 4:2 and these were his high officials: Azariah son of Zadok, priest;

1Ki 4:3 Eliaph and Ahijah sons of Shisha, secretaries; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, herald.
1Ki 4:4 (Benaiah son of Jehoiada, commander of the army. Zadok and Abiathar, priests);
1Ki 4:5 Azariah son of Nathan, chief administrator; Zabud son of Nathan, Friend of the King;
1Ki 4:6 Ahishar, master of the palace; Eliab son of Joab, commander of the army; Adoram son of Abda, in charge of forced labour.
1Ki 4:7 Solomon had twelve administrators for all Israel who saw to the provisioning of the king and his household; each had to provide for one month in the year.
1Ki 4:8 These are their names: Son of Hur, in the mountain country of Ephraim.
1Ki 4:9 Son of Deker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, Beth-Hanan.
1Ki 4:10 Son of Hesed, in Arubboth; his district was Socoh and the whole territory of Hepher.
1Ki 4:11 Son of Abinadab, all the Slopes of Dor. Tabaath Solomon's daughter was his wife.
1Ki 4:12 Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo as far as the other side of Jokmeam, and all Beth-Shean below Jezreel, from Beth-Shean as far as Abel-Meholah by Zarethan.
1Ki 4:13 Son of Geber, in Ramoth-Gilead: his district was the Encampments of Jair son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan: sixty fortified towns, walled and with bolts of bronze.
1Ki 4:14 Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim.
1Ki 4:15 Ahimaaz in Naphtali; he too married a daughter of Solomon, Basemath.
1Ki 4:16 Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and in the highlands.
1Ki 4:17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar.
1Ki 4:18 Shimei son of Ela, in Benjamin.
1Ki 4:19 Geber son of Uri, in the territory of Gad, the territory of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan. In addition, there was one administrator in the country.
1Ki 4:20 Judah and Israel were numerous, as numerous as the sand on the sea-shore; they ate and drank and were happy.
1Ki 5:1 Solomon was overlord of all the kingdoms from the River to the territory of the Philistines and the Egyptian border. They brought tribute and served him all his life long.
1Ki 5:2 The daily provisions for Solomon were: thirty measures of fine flour and sixty measures of meal,
1Ki 5:3 ten fattened oxen, twenty free-grazing oxen, one hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles, roebucks and fattened poultry.
1Ki 5:4 For he was master of all Transeuphrates -- of all the kings of Transeuphrates from Tiphsah to Gaza -- and he enjoyed peace on all his frontiers.
1Ki 5:5 Judah and Israel lived in security, everyone under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan to Beersheba, throughout the lifetime of Solomon.
1Ki 5:6 And Solomon had four thousand stalls of horses for his chariots and twelve thousand cavalrymen.
1Ki 5:7 These administrators provided the food for Solomon and for all those who were admitted by him to the royal table, each for the period of a month; they ensured that nothing was wanting.
1Ki 5:8 They also provided the barley and straw for the horses and draught animals, where required, each according to the quota demanded of him.
1Ki 5:9 God gave Solomon immense wisdom and understanding, and a heart as vast as the sand on the sea-shore.
1Ki 5:10 The wisdom of Solomon surpassed the wisdom of all the sons of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.
1Ki 5:11 He was wiser than anyone else, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, than the sons of Mahol, Heman, Calcol and Darda; his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.
1Ki 5:12 He composed three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five.
1Ki 5:13 He could discourse on plants from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop growing on the wall; and he could discourse on animals and birds and reptiles and fish.
1Ki 5:14 Men from all nations came to hear Solomon's wisdom, and he received gifts from all the kings in the world, who had heard of his wisdom.
1Ki 5:15 Hiram king of Tyre sent an embassy to Solomon, having learnt that he had been anointed king in succession to his father and because Hiram had always been a friend of David.
1Ki 5:16 And Solomon sent this message to Hiram,
1Ki 5:17 'You are aware that my father David was unable to build a temple for the name of Yahweh his God, on account of the wars waged on him from every side, until Yahweh put his enemies under the soles of his feet.
1Ki 5:18 But now Yahweh my God has given me peace on every side: not one enemy, no calamities.
1Ki 5:19 I propose, then, to build a temple for the name of Yahweh my God, in accordance with what Yahweh told my father David, "Your son whom I shall place on your throne to succeed you will be the man to build a temple for my name."
1Ki 5:20 So now have cedars of Lebanon cut down for me; my servants will work with your servants, and I shall pay for the hire of your servants at whatever rate you fix. As you know, we have no one as skilled in felling trees as the Sidonians.'

1Ki 5:21 When Hiram heard what Solomon had said, he was delighted. 'Now blessed be Yahweh,' he said, 'who has given David a wise son to rule over this great people!'

1Ki 5:22 And Hiram sent word to Solomon, 'I have received your message. For my part, I shall supply you with all you require in the way of cedar wood and juniper.'

1Ki 5:23 Your servants will bring these down from Lebanon to the sea, and I shall have them towed by sea to any place you name; I shall discharge them there, and you will take them over. For your part, you will see to the provisioning of my household as I desire.'

1Ki 5:24 So Hiram provided Solomon with all the cedar wood and juniper he wanted

1Ki 5:25 while Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand kor of wheat to feed his household, and twenty thousand kor of pure oil. Solomon gave Hiram this every year.

1Ki 5:26 Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom as he had promised him; good relations persisted between Solomon and Hiram, and the two of them concluded a treaty.

1Ki 5:27 King Solomon raised a levy throughout Israel for forced labour: the levy numbered thirty thousand men.

1Ki 5:28 He sent these to Lebanon in relays, ten thousand a month; they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoram was in charge of the forced labour.

1Ki 5:29 Solomon also had seventy thousand porters and eighty thousand quarrymen in the mountains,

1Ki 5:30 as well as the administrators, officials who supervised the work, three thousand three hundred of them in charge of the men employed in the work.

1Ki 5:31 At the king's orders they quarried huge stones, special stones for the laying of the temple foundations, dressed stones.

1Ki 5:32 Solomon's workmen and Hiram's workmen and the Giblites cut and assembled the wood and stone for the building of the Temple.

1Ki 6:1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites came out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began building the Temple of Yahweh.

1Ki 6:2 The temple which King Solomon built for Yahweh was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and twenty-five high.

1Ki 6:3 The portico in front of the Hekal of the Temple was twenty cubits long across the width of the Temple and ten cubits wide along the length of the Temple.

1Ki 6:4 He made windows for the Temple with frames and latticework.

1Ki 6:5 He also built an annex against the Temple wall, right round the Hekal and Debir. He built lateral storeys all round;

1Ki 6:6 the lowest lateral storey was five cubits wide, the middle one six cubits, and the third seven cubits, for he had made the outside of the Temple wall correspondingly stepped back all round, so that the annex was not attached to the Temple walls.

1Ki 6:7 (The building of the Temple was done with quarry -- dressed stone; no sound of hammer or pick or any iron tool was to be heard in the Temple while it was being built.)

1Ki 6:8 The entrance to the lowest storey was at the right-hand corner of the Temple; access to the middle storey was by a spiral staircase, and so from the middle storey to the third.

1Ki 6:9 Having finished building the Temple, he roofed the Temple with a coffered ceiling of cedar wood.

1Ki 6:10 Round the outside of the Temple he then built the annex which was five cubits high and was joined to the Temple by cedar-wood beams.

1Ki 6:11 And the word of Yahweh came to Solomon,

1Ki 6:12 'With regard to this temple which you are now building, if you follow my statutes and obey my ordinances and faithfully follow my commandments, I shall fulfil the promise which I made about you to your father David.'

1Ki 6:13 And I shall make my home among the Israelites and never forsake Israel my people.'

1Ki 6:14 Solomon finished building the Temple.

1Ki 6:15 He lined the inside of the Temple walls with panels of cedar wood-panelling them on the inside from the floor of the Temple to the beams of the ceiling -- and laid the floor of the Temple with juniper planks.

1Ki 6:16 The twenty cubits measured from the end of the Temple he built of cedar planks from the floor to the beams, and this part was reserved as the Debir, the Holy of Holies.

1Ki 6:17 The Temple measured forty cubits -- the Hekal -- in front of the Debir.

1Ki 6:18 There was cedar wood round the inside of the Temple, ornamenteally carved with gourds and rosettes; all was cedar wood, with no stone showing.

1Ki 6:19 In the inner part of the Temple he designed a Debir, to contain the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

1Ki 6:20 The Debir was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty high, and he overlaid it on the inside with pure gold. He made an altar of cedar wood 1Ki 6:21 in front of the Debir and overlaid it with gold.

1Ki 6:22 He overlaid the whole Temple with gold, the whole Temple entirely.

1Ki 6:23 In the Debir he made two great winged creatures of wild-olive wood. . .It was ten cubits high.

1Ki 6:24 One winged creature's wing was five cubits long and the other wing five cubits: ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip.

1Ki 6:25 The other winged creature also measured ten cubits; both had the same measurements and the same shape.

1Ki 6:26 The height of one was the same as the other's.

1Ki 6:27 He placed them in the middle of the inner chamber; their wings were spread out so that the wing of one touched one of the walls and the wing of the other touched the other wall, while their wings met in the middle of the chamber wing to wing.

1Ki 6:28 And he overlaid them with gold.

1Ki 6:29 All round the Temple walls he carved figures of winged creatures, palm trees and rosettes, both inside and outside.

1Ki 6:30 He overlaid the floor of the Temple with gold, both inside and outside.

1Ki 6:31 He made the door of the Debir with uprights of wild-olive wood, and door jambs with five indented sections, 1Ki 6:32 and the two leaves of wild-olive wood. He carved figures of great winged creatures, palm trees and rosettes which he overlaid with gold, and he gilded winged creatures and palm trees.

1Ki 6:33 Similarly, he made uprights of wild-olive wood for the door of the Hekal, and door jambs with four indented sections, 1Ki 6:34 and the two leaves of juniper: one leaf had two ribs binding it, and the other had two ribs binding it.

1Ki 6:35 He carved winged creatures, palm trees and rosettes, which he overlaid with gold laid evenly over the carvings.

1Ki 6:36 He built the wall of the inner court in three courses of dressed stone and one course of cedar beams.

1Ki 6:37 In the fourth year, in the month of Ziv, the foundations of the Temple were laid;

1Ki 6:38 in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul -- that is, the eighth month -- the Temple was completed exactly as it had been planned and designed. Solomon took seven years to build it.

1Ki 7:1 As regards his palace, Solomon spent thirteen years on it before the building was completed.

1Ki 7:2 He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon, a hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high, on four rows of cedar-wood pillars, 1Ki 7:3 with lengths of cedar wood laid horizontally on the pillars. The upper part was panelled with cedar right down to the tie-beams on forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.

1Ki 7:4 There were three rows of window-frames, with the windows corresponding to one another at three levels.

1Ki 7:5 All the doorways and windows were rectangular, with the windows corresponding to one another at three levels.

1Ki 7:6 He also made the Colonnade, fifty cubits long and thirty cubits broad, with a cornice in front.

1Ki 7:7 He also made the Hall of the Throne where he used to dispense justice, that is, the Hall of Justice; it was panelled in cedar from floor to beams.

1Ki 7:8 His own living quarters, in the other court and inwards from the Hall, were of the same construction. And there was a house similar to this Hall for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken in marriage.

1Ki 7:9 All these buildings were of special stones cut to measure, trimmed on the inner and outer sides with the saw, from the foundations to the coping-

1Ki 7:10 the foundations were of special stones, huge stones, of ten and eight cubits,

1Ki 7:11 and, above these, special stones, cut to measure, and cedar wood-

1Ki 7:12 and, on the outside, the great court had three courses of dressed stone round it and one course of cedar beams; so also had the inner court of the Temple of Yahweh and the vestibule of the Temple.

1Ki 7:13 King Solomon sent for Hiram of Tyre;

1Ki 7:14 he was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, but his father had been a Tyrian, a bronzeworker. He was a highly intelligent craftsman, skilled in all types of bronzework. He came to King Solomon and did all this work for him.

1Ki 7:15 He cast the two bronze pillars; the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a cord twelve cubits long gave the measurement of its girth; so also was the second pillar.

1Ki 7:16 He made two capitals of cast bronze for the tops of the pillars; the height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other five cubits.

1Ki 7:17 He made two sets of filigree to cover the moulding of the two capitals surmounting the pillars, one filigree for one capital and one filigree for the other.

1Ki 7:18 He also made pomegranates: two rows of them round each filigree,four hundred in all,

1Ki 7:19 The capitals surrounding the pillars were lily-shaped.

1Ki 7:20 applied on the raised moulding behind the filigree; there were two hundred pomegranates round one capital and the same round the other capital.

1Ki 7:21 He erected the pillars in front of the portico of the Temple, he erected the right-hand pillar and named it Jachin; he erected the left-hand pillar and named it Boaz.

1Ki 7:22 Thus, the work on the pillars was completed.

1Ki 7:23 He made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from rim to rim, circular in shape and five cubits high; a cord thirty cubits long gave the measurement of its girth.

1Ki 7:24 Under its rim and completely encircling it were gourds surrounding the Sea; over a length of thirty cubits the gourds were in two rows, of one and the same casting with the rest.

1Ki 7:25 It rested on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, three facing east; on these, their hindquarters all turned inwards, stood the Sea.

1Ki 7:26 It was a hand's breadth in thickness, and its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup, lily-shaped. It could hold two thousand measures.

1Ki 7:27 He made the ten bronze stands; each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three high.

1Ki 7:28 They were designed as follows; they had an undercarriage and crosspieces to the undercarriage.

1Ki 7:29 On the crosspieces of the undercarriage were lions and bulls and winged creatures, and on top of the undercarriage was a support; under the lions and oxen there were scrolls in the style of . . .

1Ki 7:30 Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles; its four feet had shoulderings under the basin, and the shoulderings were cast. . . .

1Ki 7:31 Its mouth measured one and a half cubits from where the shoulderings met to the top; its mouth was round like a stand for a vessel, and on the mouth there were engravings too; the crosspieces, however, were rectangular and not round.

1Ki 7:32 The four wheels were under the crosspieces. The axles of the wheels were inside the stands; the height of the wheels was one and a half cubits.

1Ki 7:33 The wheels were designed like chariot wheels: their axles, felloes, spokes and naves had all been cast.

1Ki 7:34 There were four shoulderings at the four corners of each stand: the stand and the shoulderings were all of a piece.

1Ki 7:35 At the top of the stand there was a support, circular in shape and half a cubit high; and on top of the stand there were lugs. The crosspieces were of a piece with the stand.

1Ki 7:36 On the bands he engraved winged creatures and lions and palm leaves. . . . and scrolls right round.

1Ki 7:37 He made the ten stands like this: the same casting and the same measurements for all.

1Ki 7:38 He made ten bronze basins; each basin held forty measures and each basin measured four cubits, one basin to each of the ten stands.

1Ki 7:39 He arranged the stands, five on the right-hand side of the Temple, five on the left-hand side of the Temple; the Sea he placed on the right-hand side of the Temple, to the south east.

1Ki 7:40 Hiram made the ash containers, the scoops and the sprinkling bowls. He finished all the work that he did for King Solomon on the Temple of Yahweh:

1Ki 7:41 Two pillars; the two mouldings of the capitals surrounding the pillars; the two sets of filigree to cover the two mouldings of the capitals surmounting the pillars;

1Ki 7:42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of filigree -- two rows of pomegranates for each set of filigree;

1Ki 7:43 the ten stands and the ten basins on the stands;

1Ki 7:44 the one Sea and the twelve oxen beneath the Sea;

1Ki 7:45 the ash containers, the scoops, and sprinkling bowls. All these objects made by Hiram for King Solomon for the Temple of Yahweh were of burnished bronze.

1Ki 7:46 He made them by the process of sand casting, in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

1Ki 7:47 There were so many of them, that the weight of the bronze was never calculated.

1Ki 7:48 Solomon made all the objects designed for the Temple of Yahweh: the golden altar and the gold table for the loaves of permanent offering;

1Ki 7:49 the lamp-stands, five on the right and five on the left in front of the Debir, of pure gold; the floral work, the lamps, the tongs, of gold;

1Ki 7:50 the basins, the snuffers, the sprinkling bowls, the incense ladles and the pans, of real gold; the door panels -- for the inner shrine -- that is, the Holy of Holies -- and for the Hekal, of gold.

1Ki 7:51 Thus all the work done by King Solomon for the Temple of Yahweh was completed, and Solomon brought in the gifts which his father David had consecrated; and he had the silver, the gold and the utensils put into the treasuries of the Temple of Yahweh.

1Ki 8:1 Solomon then summoned the elders of Israel to Jerusalem to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh up from the City of David, that is, Zion.

1Ki 8:2 All the men of Israel assembled round King Solomon in the month of Ethanim, at the time of the feast (that is, the seventh month).

1Ki 8:3 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark

1Ki 8:4 and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred utensils which were in the Tent.

1Ki 8:5 King Solomon and all Israel, present with him before the ark, sacrificed countless, innumerable sheep and oxen.

1Ki 8:6 The priests brought the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, in the Debir of the Temple, that is, in the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the winged creatures

1Ki 8:7 for the winged creatures spread their wings over the place where the ark stood, forming a canopy over the ark and its shafts.

1Ki 8:8 These were so long, however, that the ends of the shafts could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the Debir, though they could not be seen from outside. They are still there today.

1Ki 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets which Moses had placed in it at Horeb, the tablets of the covenant which Yahweh made with the Israelites when they came out of Egypt.

1Ki 8:10 Now when the priests came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the Temple of Yahweh, 1Ki 8:11 and because of the cloud the priests could not stay and perform their duties. For the glory of Yahweh filled the Temple of Yahweh.

1Ki 8:12 Then Solomon said: Yahweh has chosen to dwell in thick cloud.

1Ki 8:13 I have built you a princely dwelling, a residence for you for ever.

1Ki 8:14 The king then turned round and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while the whole assembly of Israel stood.

1Ki 8:15 He said, 'Blessed be Yahweh, God of Israel, who has carried out by his hand what he promised with his mouth to my father David, when he said,

1Ki 8:16 "From the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt I chose no city, in any of the tribes of Israel, to have a temple built where my name should be; but I did choose David to rule my people Israel."

1Ki 8:17 My father David had set his heart on building a temple for the name of Yahweh, God of Israel,

1Ki 8:18 but Yahweh said to my father David, "You have set your heart on building a temple for my name, and in this you have done well;

1Ki 8:19 and yet, you are not the man to build the temple; but your son, yet to be born to you, will be the one to build the temple for my name."

1Ki 8:20 Yahweh has kept the promise which he made: I have succeeded my father David and am seated on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised; I have built the temple for the name of Yahweh, God of Israel,

1Ki 8:21 and in it I have made a place for the ark containing the covenant of Yahweh which he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of Egypt.'

1Ki 8:22 Then, in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel, Solomon stood facing the altar of Yahweh and, stretching out his hands towards heaven,

1Ki 8:23 said, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, as loyal to the covenant and faithful in love to your servants as long as they walk wholeheartedly in your way.

1Ki 8:24 You have kept the promise you made to your servant, my father David, as you promised him you would. Today you have carried it out by your power.

1Ki 8:25 And now, Yahweh, God of Israel, keep the promise which you made to your servant David when you said, "You will never lack for a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, provided that your sons are careful how they behave, walking before me as you yourself have done."

1Ki 8:26 So now, God of Israel, let the words come true which you spoke to your servant, my father David.

1Ki 8:27 Yet will God really live with human beings on earth? Why, the heavens, the highest of the heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple built by me!

1Ki 8:28 Even so, listen favourably to the prayer and entreaty of your servant, Yahweh my God; listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant makes to you today:

1Ki 8:29 day and night may your eyes watch over this temple, over this place of which you have said, "My name will be there." Listen to the prayer which your servant offers in this place.

1Ki 8:30 'Listen to the entreaty of your servant and of your people Israel; whenever they pray in this place, listen from the place where you reside in heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

1Ki 8:31 'If someone has wronged his neighbour and a curse is laid on him to make him swear an oath here before your altar in this Temple, 1Ki 8:32 then listen from the place where you reside in heaven and do justice between your servants: condemning the guilty one by making him suffer for his conduct, and acquitting the upright by rewarding him as his uprightness deserves.

1Ki 8:33 'When your people Israel are defeated by the enemy because they have sinned against you, but then return to you and acknowledge your name, and pray and seek your favours in this Temple, 1Ki 8:34 then listen from the place where you reside in heaven; forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the country which you gave to their ancestors.

1Ki 8:35 'When the heavens are shut and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, if they pray in this place and praise your name and, having been humbled by you, desist from their sin,
1Ki 8:36 then listen from the place where you reside in heaven and forgive the sin of your servant and your people Israel -- for you are constantly showing them the good way which they must follow -- and send rain on your country, which you have given to your people as their heritage.
1Ki 8:37 'Should there be famine in the country, or pestilence, wind-blast or mildew, locust or caterpillar; should their enemy lay siege to one of their gates; should there be any plague or any disease:
1Ki 8:38 whatever be the prayer or entreaty of any individual aware of a particular affliction: when that person stretches out the hands towards this Temple,
1Ki 8:39 then listen from heaven where you reside; forgive and, since you know what is in the heart, deal with each as their conduct deserves -- for you alone know what is in every human heart.
1Ki 8:40 so that they may reverence you throughout their lives in the country which you gave to our ancestors.
1Ki 8:41 'Even the foreigner, not belonging to your people Israel but coming from a distant country, attracted by your name--
1Ki 8:42 for they too will hear of your name, of your mighty hand and outstretched arm -- if a foreigner comes and prays in this Temple,
1Ki 8:43 listen from heaven where you reside, and grant all that the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may acknowledge your name and, like your people Israel, revere you and know that this Temple, which I have built, bears your name.
1Ki 8:44 'If your people go out to war against the enemy, on whatever missions you send them, and they pray to Yahweh, turning towards the city which you have chosen and towards the Temple which I have built for your name, 1Ki 8:45 then listen from heaven to their prayer and their entreaty, and uphold their cause.
1Ki 8:46 'When they sin against you -- for there is no one who does not sin -- and you are angry with them and abandon them to the enemy, and their captors carry them off to a hostile country, be it far away or near,
1Ki 8:47 if they come to their senses in the country to which they have been taken as captives and repent and entreat you in the country of their captors, saying, "We have sinned, we have acted perversely and wickedly," 1Ki 8:48 and turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the country of the enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to you, turning towards the country which you gave to their ancestors, towards the city which you have chosen and towards the Temple which I have built for your name,
1Ki 8:49 listen to their prayer and their entreaty from the place where you reside in heaven, uphold their case,
1Ki 8:50 forgive your people for having sinned against you and for all the crimes against you of which they have been guilty, and allow them to arouse the pity of their captors so that these may have pity on them:
1Ki 8:51 for they are your people and your heritage whom you brought out of Egypt, that iron foundry!
1Ki 8:52 'May your eyes be open to the entreaty of your servant and the entreaty of your people Israel, to listen to them, whatever they ask of you.
1Ki 8:53 For you it was who set them apart from all the peoples of the earth to be your heritage, as you declared through your servant Moses when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, Lord Yahweh.'
1Ki 8:54 When Solomon had finished offering to Yahweh this whole prayer and entreaty, he rose from where he was kneeling with hands stretched out towards heaven before the altar of Yahweh, 1Ki 8:55 and stood upright. And in a loud voice he blessed the whole assembly of Israel.
1Ki 8:56 'Blessed be Yahweh,' he said, 'who has granted rest to his people Israel, keeping all his promises. Of all the promises of good that he made through his servant Moses, not one has failed.
1Ki 8:57 May Yahweh our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors; may he never desert us or cast us off.
1Ki 8:58 May he turn our hearts towards him so that we may follow all his ways and keep the commandments and laws and ordinances which he gave to our ancestors.
1Ki 8:59 May these words of mine, of my entreaty before Yahweh, be present with Yahweh our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of Israel his people, as each day requires,
1Ki 8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may come to know that Yahweh is God indeed and that there is no other.
1Ki 8:61 May your hearts be wholly with Yahweh our God, following his laws and keeping his commandments as at this present day.'
1Ki 8:62 The king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before Yahweh.
1Ki 8:63 Solomon offered a communion sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep to Yahweh; and thus the king and all the Israelites dedicated the Temple of Yahweh.
1Ki 8:64 On the same day the king consecrated the middle part of the court in front of the Temple of Yahweh; for that was where he presented the burnt offerings, oblations and fatty parts of the communion sacrifices, since the bronze altar which stood before Yahweh was too small to hold the burnt offering, oblation and the fatty parts of the communion sacrifice.

1Ki 8:65 And then Solomon and with him all Israel from the Pass of Hamath to the Torrent of Egypt -- a great assembly -- celebrated the feast before Yahweh our God for seven days.

1Ki 8:66 On the eighth day he dismissed the people, who bade farewell to the king and went home joyful and happy of heart over all the goodness which Yahweh had shown to his servant and his people Israel.

1Ki 9:1 When Solomon had finished building the Temple of Yahweh, the royal palace and everything else which Solomon had wanted to do, 1Ki 9:2 Yahweh appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1Ki 9:3 Yahweh said to him, 'I have heard your prayer and the entreaty which you have before me. I consecrate this temple which you have built: I place my name there for ever; my eyes and my heart will be there always.'

1Ki 9:4 For your part, if you walk before me in innocence of heart and in honesty, like your father David, if you do everything that I command and keep my laws and my ordinances,

1Ki 9:5 I shall make your royal throne secure over Israel for ever, as I promised your father David when I said, "You will never lack for a man on the throne of Israel."

1Ki 9:6 But if you turn away from me, either you or your descendants, and instead of keeping my commandments and laws which I have laid down for you, you go and serve other gods and worship them, 1Ki 9:7 then I shall banish Israel from the country which I have given them, and shall disown this Temple which I have consecrated for my name, and Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

1Ki 9:8 As for this once-exalted Temple, everyone who passes by will be appalled, and they will whistle and say, "Why has Yahweh treated this country and this Temple like this?"

1Ki 9:9 And the answer will be, "Because they deserted Yahweh their God who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshipped and served them; that is why Yahweh has brought all these disasters on them."

1Ki 9:10 At the end of the twenty years that it took Solomon to erect the two buildings, the Temple of Yahweh and the royal palace

1Ki 9:11 (Hiram king of Tyre had provided Solomon with all the cedar wood, juniper wood and gold that he wanted), King Solomon gave Hiram twenty towns in the territory of Galilee.

1Ki 9:12 But when Hiram came from Tyre to view the towns that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

1Ki 9:13 He said, 'What kind of towns are these you have given me, brother?' And to this day they are known as 'cabul-land'.

1Ki 9:14 Hiram sent the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

1Ki 9:15 This is an account of the forced labour levied by King Solomon for building the Temple of Yahweh, his own palace, the Millo and the fortifications of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, Gezer

1Ki 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt mounted an expedition, captured Gezer, burnt it down and massacred the Canaanites living there; he then gave the town as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife, 1Ki 9:17 and Solomon rebuilt Gezer), Lower Beth-Horon,

1Ki 9:18 Baalath, Tamar in the desert, inside the country,

1Ki 9:19 all Solomon's storage towns owned by Solomon, all the towns for his chariots and horses, and whatever Solomon was pleased to build in Jerusalem, in the Lebanon and in all the countries under his rule.

1Ki 9:20 All those who survived of the Amorite, Hittite, Perizzite, Hivite and Jebusite peoples, who were not Israelites-

1Ki 9:21 their descendants still remaining in the country on whom the Israelites had not been able to enforce the curse of destruction -- these Solomon levied as forced labourers, as is still the case today.

1Ki 9:22 Solomon did not, however, impose forced labour on the Israelites; for they were soldiers, his officials, his administrators, his officers and his chariot and cavalry commanders.

1Ki 9:23 There were five hundred and fifty officials in charge of the foremen over Solomon's work, who supervised the people employed on the work.

1Ki 9:24 After Pharaoh's daughter had moved from the City of David up to the palace which he had built for her, he then built the Millo.

1Ki 9:25 Three times a year Solomon presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices on the altar which he had built for Yahweh and set his burnt offerings smoking before Yahweh. Thus he completed the Temple.

1Ki 9:26 King Solomon equipped a fleet at Ezion-Geber, which is near Elath on the shores of the Red Sea, in Edom.

1Ki 9:27 For this fleet Hiram sent men of his, experienced sailors, to serve with those in Solomon's service.

1Ki 9:28 They went to Ophir and took on four hundred and twenty talents of gold, which they brought back to Solomon.

1Ki 10:1 The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame and came to test him with difficult questions.

1Ki 10:2 She arrived in Jerusalem with a very large retinue, with camels laden with spices and an immense quantity of gold and precious stones. Having reached Solomon, she discussed with him everything that she had in mind, 1Ki 10:3 and Solomon had an answer for all her questions; not one of them was too obscure for the king to answer for her.

1Ki 10:4 When the queen of Sheba saw how very wise Solomon was, the palace which he had built,

1Ki 10:5 the food at his table, the accommodation for his officials, the organisation of his staff and the way they were dressed, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings which he presented in the Temple of Yahweh, it left her breathless,

1Ki 10:6 and she said to the king, 'The report I heard in my own country about your wisdom in handling your affairs was true then!

1Ki 10:7 Until I came and saw for myself, I did not believe the reports, but clearly I was told less than half: for wisdom and prosperity, you surpass what was reported to me.

1Ki 10:8 How fortunate your wives are! How fortunate these courtiers of yours, continually in attendance on you and listening to your wisdom!

1Ki 10:9 Blessed be Yahweh your God who has shown you his favour by setting you on the throne of Israel! Because of Yahweh's everlasting love for Israel, he has made you king to administer law and justice.'

1Ki 10:10 And she presented the king with a hundred and twenty talents of gold and great quantities of spices and precious stones; no such wealth of spices ever came again as those which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

1Ki 10:11 Similarly, Hiram's fleet, which brought the gold from Ophir, also brought back great cargoes of almug timber and precious stones.

1Ki 10:12 Of the almug timber the king made supports for the Temple of Yahweh and for the royal palace, and harps and lyres for the musicians; no more of this almug timber has since come or been seen to this day.

1Ki 10:13 And King Solomon, in his turn, presented the queen of Sheba with everything that she expressed a wish for, besides those presents which he gave her with a munificence worthy of King Solomon. After which, she went home to her own country, she and her servants.

1Ki 10:14 The weight of gold received annually by Solomon amounted to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 1Ki 10:15 besides what tolls and foreign trade, as well as everything the Arab kings and the provincial governors brought in.

1Ki 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred great shields of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of gold going into one shield;

1Ki 10:17 also three hundred small shields of beaten gold, three mina of gold going into one shield; and the king put these into the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

1Ki 10:18 The king also made a great ivory throne which he overlaid with refined gold.

1Ki 10:19 The throne had six steps, a back with a rounded top, and arms on each side of the seat; two lions stood beside the arms,

1Ki 10:20 and twelve lions stood on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it has ever been made in any other kingdom.

1Ki 10:21 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the plate in the House of the Forest of Lebanon was of pure gold; silver was little thought of in Solomon's days, 1Ki 10:22 since the king had a fleet of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet, and once every three years the fleet of Tarshish would come back laden with gold and silver, ivory, apes and baboons.

1Ki 10:23 For riches and for wisdom, King Solomon surpassed all kings on earth,

1Ki 10:24 and the whole world consulted Solomon to hear the wisdom which God had implanted in his heart;

1Ki 10:25 and everyone would bring a present with him: things made of silver, things made of gold, robes, armour, spices, horses and mules; and this went on year after year.

1Ki 10:26 Solomon then built up a force of chariots and cavalry; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, these he stationed in the chariot towns and near the king in Jerusalem.

1Ki 10:27 In Jerusalem the king made silver as common as stones, and cedar wood as plentiful as sycamore in the lowlands.

1Ki 10:28 Solomon's horses were imported from Muzur and Cilicia. The king's dealers acquired them from Cilicia at the prevailing price.

1Ki 10:29 A chariot was imported from Egypt for six hundred silver shekels and a horse from Cilicia for a hundred and fifty. They also supplied the Hittite and Aramaean kings, who all used them as middlemen.

1Ki 11:1 King Solomon loved many foreign women: not only Pharaoh's daughter but Moabites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites, 1Ki 11:2 from those peoples of whom Yahweh had said to the Israelites, 'You are not to go among them nor they among you, or they will be sure to sway your hearts to their own gods.' But Solomon was deeply attached to them.

1Ki 11:3 He had seven hundred wives of royal rank and three hundred concubines.

1Ki 11:4 When Solomon grew old his wives swayed his heart to other gods; and his heart was not wholly with Yahweh his God as his father David's had been.

1Ki 11:5 Solomon became a follower of Astarte, the goddess of the Sidonians, and of Milcom, the Ammonite abomination.

1Ki 11:6 He did what was displeasing to Yahweh, and was not a wholehearted follower of Yahweh, as his father David had been.

1Ki 11:7 Then it was that Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, on the mountain to the east of Jerusalem, and to Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites.

1Ki 11:8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who offered incense and sacrifice to their gods.

1Ki 11:9 Yahweh was angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from Yahweh, God of Israel, who had twice appeared to him

1Ki 11:10 and had forbidden him to follow other gods; but he did not carry out Yahweh's order.

1Ki 11:11 Yahweh therefore said to Solomon, 'Since you have behaved like this and have not kept my covenant or the laws which I laid down for you, I shall tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your servants.'

1Ki 11:12 For your father David's sake, however, I shall not do this during your lifetime, but shall tear it out of your son's hands.

1Ki 11:13 Even so, I shall not tear the whole kingdom from him. For the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen, I shall leave your son one tribe.'

1Ki 11:14 Yahweh raised an enemy against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite, of the kingly stock of Edom.

1Ki 11:15 After David had crushed Edom, Joab the army commander had gone to bury the dead and had slaughtered the entire male population of Edom

1Ki 11:16 (Joab stayed there with all Israel for six months until he had exterminated the entire male population of Edom), 1Ki 11:17 but Hadad with a number of Edomites in his father's service had fled to Egypt. Hadad had been only a boy at the time.

1Ki 11:18 They set out from Midian, and on reaching Paran, took a number of men from Paran with them and went on to Egypt, to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, who provided him with a house, undertook to maintain him, and assigned him an estate.

1Ki 11:19 Hadad became a great favourite of Pharaoh who gave him his own wife's sister in marriage, the sister of the Great Lady Tahpenes.

1Ki 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him his son Genubath whom Tahpenes brought up in Pharaoh's palace, Genubath living in Pharaoh's palace with Pharaoh's own children.

1Ki 11:21 But when news reached Hadad in Egypt that David had fallen asleep with his ancestors and that Joab the army commander was dead, he said to Pharaoh, 'Give me leave to go that I may return to my own country.'

1Ki 11:22 'What do you lack here with me,' Pharaoh said, 'for you to want to go back to your country?' 'Nothing,' he replied, 'but please let me go.' Hence the harm which Hadad caused: he loathed Israel and ruled Edom.

1Ki 11:23 God raised a second enemy against Solomon, Rezon son of Eliada. He had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1Ki 11:24 A number of men having rallied to him, he became leader of a marauding band (which was then massacred by David). Rezon captured Damascus and settled there and became king of Damascus.

1Ki 11:25 He was hostile to Israel as long as Solomon lived.

1Ki 11:26 Jeroboam was the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zeredah; the name of his mother, a widow, was Zeruah; he was in Solomon's service but revolted against the king.

1Ki 11:27 This is the account of his revolt. Solomon was building the Millo and closing the breach in the City of David his father.

1Ki 11:28 Now this Jeroboam was a man of great energy; Solomon, noticing how the young man set about his work, put him in charge of all the forced labour of the House of Joseph.

1Ki 11:29 One day when Jeroboam had gone out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah of Shiloh accosted him on the road. Ahijah was wearing a new cloak; the two of them were in the open country by themselves.

1Ki 11:30 Ahijah took the new cloak which he was wearing and tore it into twelve strips,

1Ki 11:31 saying to Jeroboam: 'Take ten strips for yourself, for Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I am going to tear the kingdom from Solomon's hand and give ten tribes to you."

1Ki 11:32 He will keep one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel;

1Ki 11:33 for he has forsaken me to worship Astarte the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab,

Milcom the god of the Ammonites; he has not followed my ways by doing what I regard as right, or by keeping my laws and ordinances as his father David did.

1Ki 11:34 But it is not from his hands that I will take the kingdom, since I have made him a prince for as long as he lives, for the sake of my servant David who kept my commandments and laws.

1Ki 11:35 I shall, however, take the kingdom from the hand of his son, and I shall give it to you, that is, the ten tribes.

1Ki 11:36 I shall give one tribe to his son, so that my servant David may always have a lamp in my presence in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen as a dwelling-place for my name.

1Ki 11:37 You nonetheless I shall appoint to rule over as much as you wish, and you will be king of Israel.

1Ki 11:38 If you listen to all my orders and follow my ways, by doing what I regard as right and by keeping my laws and commandments as my servant David did, then I shall be with you and shall build you as enduring a dynasty as the one which I built for David. I shall give Israel to you,

1Ki 11:39 and I shall humble the descendants of David, but not for ever." '

1Ki 11:40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam but he made off and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and he remained in Egypt until Solomon's death.

1Ki 11:41 The rest of the history of Solomon, his entire career, his wisdom, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of Solomon?

1Ki 11:42 Solomon's reign in Jerusalem over all Israel lasted forty years.

1Ki 11:43 When Solomon fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of David his father; his son Rehoboam succeeded him.

1Ki 12:1 Rehoboam then went to Shechem, all Israel having come to Shechem to proclaim him king.

1Ki 12:2 (As soon as Jeroboam son of Nebat heard the news -- he was still in Egypt, where he had taken refuge from King Solomon -- he returned from Egypt.

1Ki 12:3 They now sent for him, and Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came.) And they spoke as follows to Rehoboam,

1Ki 12:4 'Your father laid a cruel yoke on us; if you will lighten your father's cruel slavery, that heavy yoke which he imposed on us, we are willing to serve you.'

1Ki 12:5 He said to them, 'Go away for three days and then come back to me.' And the people went away.

1Ki 12:6 King Rehoboam then consulted the elders who had been in attendance on his father Solomon while he was alive, and said, 'How do you advise me to answer this people?'

1Ki 12:7 They replied, 'If you become the servant of this people today, and submit to them and give them a fair reply, then they will remain your servants for ever.'

1Ki 12:8 But he rejected the advice given him by the elders and consulted the young men in attendance on him, who had grown up with him.

1Ki 12:9 He said, 'How do you advise us to answer these people who have been saying, "Lighten the yoke which your father imposed on us!"? '

1Ki 12:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, 'This is the way to answer these people who have been saying, "Your father made our yoke heavy, you must lighten it for us!" This is the right thing to say to them, "My little finger is thicker than my father's loins."

1Ki 12:11 Although my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I shall make it heavier still. My father controlled you with the whip, but I shall apply a spiked lash!" '

1Ki 12:12 On the third day Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam in obedience to the king's instruction: 'Come back to me in three days' time.'

1Ki 12:13 And the king gave the people a harsh answer, rejecting the advice given him by the elders

1Ki 12:14 and speaking to them as the young men had recommended, 'My father made your yoke heavy, I shall make it heavier still! My father controlled you with the whip, but I shall apply a spiked lash!'

1Ki 12:15 Thus the king refused to listen to the people, and this was brought about by Yahweh to fulfil the promise which he had made through Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1Ki 12:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, the people answered the king thus: What share have we in David? -No heritage in the son of Jesse! Away to your tents, Israel! Now look after your own House, David! So Israel went home again.

1Ki 12:17 Rehoboam, however, reigned over those Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

1Ki 12:18 When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labour, all Israel stoned him to death, while King Rehoboam managed to mount his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

1Ki 12:19 And Israel has remained in rebellion against the House of David from that day to this.

1Ki 12:20 When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king of all Israel; no one remained loyal to the House of David, except the tribe of Judah.

1Ki 12:21 When Rehoboam reached Jerusalem he mustered the whole House of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand picked warriors, to fight the House of Israel and win back the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

1Ki 12:22 But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, man of God,

1Ki 12:23 'Say this to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to the whole House of Judah, to Benjamin and to the rest of the people,

1Ki 12:24 "Yahweh says this: Do not go and make war on your brothers, the Israelites; let everyone go home, for this is my doing." ' They obeyed the command of Yahweh and turned back in accordance with his word.

1Ki 12:25 Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the mountain country of Ephraim and made that his residence. Then, leaving there, he fortified Penuel.

1Ki 12:26 Jeroboam thought to himself, 'As things are, the kingdom will revert to the House of David.

1Ki 12:27 If this people continues to go up to the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem to offer sacrifices, the people's heart will turn back again to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will put me to death.'

1Ki 12:28 So the king thought this over and then made two golden calves; he said to the people, 'You have been going up to Jerusalem long enough. Here is your God, Israel, who brought you out of Egypt!'

1Ki 12:29 He set one up at Bethel,

1Ki 12:30 and the people went in procession in front of the other one all the way to Dan. In Israel this gave rise to sin, for the people went to Bethel to worship the one, and all the way to Dan to worship the other.

1Ki 12:31 He set up shrines on the high places and appointed priests from ordinary families, who were not of levitical descent.

1Ki 12:32 Jeroboam also instituted a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth of the month, like the feast kept in Judah, when he offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did at Bethel, offering sacrifices to the calves which he had made and, at Bethel, installing the priests of the high places which he had set up.

1Ki 12:33 On the fifteenth of the eighth month, the month which he had chosen deliberately, he offered sacrifices on the altar which he had made at Bethel; he instituted a feast for the Israelites and himself went up to the altar to burn the sacrifice.

1Ki 13:1 There came to Bethel at Yahweh's command a man of God from Judah, just as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to offer the sacrifice,

1Ki 13:2 and at Yahweh's command this man denounced the altar. 'Altar, altar,' he said, 'Yahweh says this, "A son is to be born to the House of David, Josiah by name, and on you he will slaughter the priests of the high places who have offered sacrifice on you, and on you he will burn human bones." '

1Ki 13:3 At the same time he gave a sign. 'This is the sign', he said, 'that Yahweh has spoken, "This altar will burst apart and the ashes which are on it will be spilt."

1Ki 13:4 When the king heard how the man of God denounced the altar of Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, 'Seize him!' But the hand he stretched out against the man withered, and he could not draw it back, 1Ki 13:5 and the altar burst apart and the ashes from the altar were spilt, in accordance with the sign given by the man of God at Yahweh's command.

1Ki 13:6 The king said to the man of God, 'I beg you to placate Yahweh your God, and so restore me the use of my hand.' The man of God placated Yahweh; the king's hand was restored as it had been before.

1Ki 13:7 The king then said to the man of God, 'Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I shall give you a present,'

1Ki 13:8 but the man of God replied to the king, 'Were you to give me half your palace, I would not go with you. I will eat and drink nothing here,

1Ki 13:9 for I have had Yahweh's order, "You are to eat or drink nothing, nor to return by the way you came." '

1Ki 13:10 And he left by another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

1Ki 13:11 Now there was an old prophet living in Bethel, and his sons came to tell him all that the man of God had done in Bethel that day; and the words which he had said to the king, they told these to their father too.

1Ki 13:12 'Which road did he take?' their father asked. His sons showed him the road which the man of God who came from Judah had taken.

1Ki 13:13 'Saddle the donkey for me,' he said to his sons; they saddled the donkey for him and he mounted.

1Ki 13:14 He followed the man of God and found him sitting under a terebinth. 'Are you the man of God', he said, 'who came from Judah?' 'I am,' he replied.

1Ki 13:15 'Come home with me,' he said, 'and take some food.'

1Ki 13:16 'I cannot go back with you,' he answered, 'or eat or drink anything here,

1Ki 13:17 for I have received Yahweh's order, "You are to eat or drink nothing there, nor to return by the way you came." '

1Ki 13:18 'I too am a prophet like you,' the other replied, 'and an angel told me this by Yahweh's command, "Bring him back with you to your house to eat and drink." ' He was lying to him.

1Ki 13:19 The man of God went back with him; he ate and drank at his house.

1Ki 13:20 As they were sitting at table a word of Yahweh came to the prophet who had brought him back,

1Ki 13:21 and he addressed the man of God who came from Judah. 'Yahweh says this,' he said. ' "Since you have defied Yahweh's command and not obeyed the orders which Yahweh your God gave you,

1Ki 13:22 but have come back and eaten and drunk where he forbade you to eat and drink, your corpse will never reach the tomb of your ancestors."

1Ki 13:23 After he had eaten and drunk, the prophet saddled the donkey for him, and he turned about and went away.

1Ki 13:24 A lion met him on the road and killed him; his corpse lay stretched out on the road; the donkey stood there beside it; the lion stood by the corpse too.

1Ki 13:25 People going by saw the corpse lying on the road and the lion standing by the corpse, and went and spoke about it in the town where the old prophet lived.

1Ki 13:26 When the prophet who had made the man turn back heard about it, he said, 'That is the man of God who defied Yahweh's command! Yahweh has handed him over to the lion, which has mauled and killed him, just as Yahweh had foretold it would.'

1Ki 13:27 He said to his sons, 'Saddle the donkey for me,' and they saddled it.

1Ki 13:28 He set off and found the man's corpse lying on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse; the lion had neither eaten the corpse nor mauled the donkey.

1Ki 13:29 The prophet lifted the corpse of the man of God and put it on the donkey and brought it back to the town where he lived to hold mourning for him and bury him.

1Ki 13:30 He laid the corpse in his own tomb, and they raised the mourning cry for him, 'Alas, my brother!'

1Ki 13:31 After burying him, the prophet said to his sons, 'When I die, bury me in the same tomb as the man of God, lay my bones beside his.'

1Ki 13:32 For the word he uttered at Yahweh's command against the altar of Bethel and against all the shrines of the high places in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true.'

1Ki 13:33 Jeroboam did not give up his wicked ways after this incident, but went on appointing priests for the high places from the common people. He consecrated as priests of the high places any who wished to be.

1Ki 13:34 Such conduct made the House of Jeroboam a sinful House, and caused its ruin and extinction from the face of the earth.

1Ki 14:1 At that time Abijah, Jeroboam's son, fell sick,

1Ki 14:2 and Jeroboam said to his wife, 'Come, please disguise yourself so that no one will recognise you as Jeroboam's wife, and go to Shiloh; the prophet Ahijah is there, the man who said I was to be king of this people.

1Ki 14:3 Go to him, and take ten loaves and some savoury food and a jar of honey; he will tell you what will happen to the child.'

1Ki 14:4 Jeroboam's wife did this: she set out, went to Shiloh and came to Ahijah's house.

1Ki 14:5 Now Ahijah could not see, his eyes were fixed with age, but Yahweh had told him, 'Jeroboam's wife is now on her way to ask you for a prophecy about her son, as he is sick. You will tell her such and such. When she comes, she will pretend to be some other woman.'

1Ki 14:6 So when Ahijah heard her footsteps at the door, he called, 'Come in, wife of Jeroboam; why pretend to be someone else? I have bad news for you.'

1Ki 14:7 Go and tell Jeroboam, "Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: I raised you from the people and made you leader of my people Israel;

1Ki 14:8 I tore the kingdom from the House of David and gave it to you. But you have not been like my servant David who kept my commandments and followed me with all his heart, doing only what I regard as right;

1Ki 14:9 you have done more evil than all your predecessors, you have gone and made yourself other gods, idols of cast metal, provoking my anger, and you have turned your back on me.

1Ki 14:10 For this I shall bring disaster on the House of Jeroboam, I shall wipe out every manjack of the family of Jeroboam, fettered or free in Israel, I shall sweep away the House of Jeroboam as a man sweeps dung away till none is left.

1Ki 14:11 Those of Jeroboam's family who die in the city, the dogs will eat; and those who die in the open country, the birds of the air will eat, for Yahweh has spoken."

1Ki 14:12 Now get up and go home; at the moment your feet enter the town, the child will die.

1Ki 14:13 All Israel will mourn for him, and bury him; and he alone of Jeroboam's family will have a proper burial, for in him alone of the House of Jeroboam can Yahweh, God of Israel, find anything good.

1Ki 14:14 Yahweh will set a king over Israel, who will put an end to the House of Jeroboam.

1Ki 14:15 Yahweh will make Israel shake, till it quivers like a reed in the water; he will uproot Israel from this prosperous land which he gave to their ancestors and scatter them beyond the River for provoking Yahweh to anger by making their sacred poles.

1Ki 14:16 He will abandon Israel for the sins which Jeroboam has committed and made Israel commit.'

1Ki 14:17 Jeroboam's wife rose and left. She arrived at Tirzah, and when she crossed the threshold of the palace, the child was already dead.

1Ki 14:18 They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, just as Yahweh had foretold through his servant Ahijah the prophet.

1Ki 14:19 The rest of the history of Jeroboam, what wars he waged, how he governed, this is recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 14:20 Jeroboam's reign lasted twenty-two years. Then he fell asleep with his ancestors; his son Nadab succeeded him.

1Ki 14:21 In Judah, Rehoboam son of Solomon became king; he was forty-one years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to give his name a home there. His mother's name was Naamah, the Ammonite.

1Ki 14:22 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, arousing his resentment more than his ancestors by all the sins which they had committed;

1Ki 14:23 they had built themselves high places, and had set up pillars and sacred poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

1Ki 14:24 There were even male sacred prostitutes in the country. He copied all the shameful practices of the nations whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.

1Ki 14:25 And so it happened that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt advanced on Jerusalem

1Ki 14:26 and carried off all the treasures of the Temple of Yahweh and the treasures of the royal palace; he took everything away, including all the golden shields which Solomon had made.

1Ki 14:27 To replace those King Rehoboam made bronze shields, entrusting them to the commanders of the guard who guarded the king's palace gate.

1Ki 14:28 Whenever the king went to the Temple of Yahweh, the guards would carry them, returning them to the guardroom afterwards.

1Ki 14:29 The rest of the history of Rehoboam, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

1Ki 14:30 Warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam went on throughout the period.

1Ki 14:31 When Rehoboam fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of David; his son Abijam succeeded him.

1Ki 15:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam became king of Judah

1Ki 15:2 and reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah descendant of Absalom.

1Ki 15:3 In everything he followed the sinful example of his father before him; his heart was not wholly with Yahweh his God, as the heart of David his ancestor had been.

1Ki 15:4 However, for David's sake, Yahweh his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, with a son to succeed him, so keeping Jerusalem secure;

1Ki 15:5 for David had done what Yahweh regarded as right and had never in all his life disobeyed whatever he commanded him (except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite).

1Ki 15:6

1Ki 15:7 The rest of the history of Abijam, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? Abijam and Jeroboam made war on each other.

1Ki 15:8 When Abijam fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of David; his son Asa succeeded him.

1Ki 15:9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah

1Ki 15:10 and reigned for forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah descendant of Absalom.

1Ki 15:11 Asa did what Yahweh regards as right, as his ancestor David had done.

1Ki 15:12 He drove the male prostitutes out of the country and got rid of all the idols which his ancestors had made.

1Ki 15:13 He even deprived his grandmother Maacah of the dignity of Great Lady for having made an obscenity for Asherah; Asa cut down her obscenity and burnt it in the ravine of the Kidron.

1Ki 15:14 Though the high places were not abolished, Asa's heart was loyal to Yahweh throughout his life.

1Ki 15:15 He deposited his father's and his own dedicated gifts of silver, gold and sacred vessels in the Temple of Yahweh.

1Ki 15:16 Asa and Baasha king of Israel were at war with each other throughout their reigns.

1Ki 15:17 Baasha king of Israel marched on Judah and fortified Ramah to blockade Asa king of Judah.

1Ki 15:18 Asa then took all the remaining silver and gold left in the treasures of the Temple of Yahweh and the royal palace. Entrusting this to his servants, King Asa sent them with the following message to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimon, son of Hezion, the king of Aram who lived in Damascus,

1Ki 15:19 'Let us make an alliance between myself and yourself, between my father and your father! Look, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Come, break off your alliance with Baasha king of Israel, which will make him withdraw from me.'

1Ki 15:20 Ben-Hadad listened favourably to King Asa, and sent the generals of his armies to attack the towns of Israel; he ravaged Ijon, Dan, Abel-Beth-Maacah, all Chinneroth, and the whole territory of Naphtali.

1Ki 15:21 When Baasha heard this he gave up fortifying Ramah and retired to Tirzah.

1Ki 15:22 King Asa then summoned all Judah, no one was exempt; they took away the stones and timber with which Baasha had been fortifying Ramah, and King Asa used them to fortify Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

1Ki 15:23 The rest of the history of Asa, all his valour, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? In his old age, however, he contracted a disease of his feet.

1Ki 15:24 When Asa fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of his ancestor David; his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him.

1Ki 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

1Ki 15:26 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh; he copied his father's example and the sin into which he had led Israel.

1Ki 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah, of the House of Issachar, plotted against him and murdered him at Gibbethon, a Philistine town which Nadab and all Israel were besieging.

1Ki 15:28 Baasha killed Nadab and succeeded him in the third year of Asa king of Judah.

1Ki 15:29 No sooner was he king than he butchered the entire House of Jeroboam, not sparing a soul, and put an end to it, just as Yahweh had foretold through his servant Ahijah of Shiloh, 1Ki 15:30 because of the sins which he had committed and into which he had led Israel, and because he had provoked the anger of Yahweh, God of Israel.

1Ki 15:31 The rest of the history of Nadab, his entire career, is this not recorded in 1Ki 15:32 the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 15:33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of Israel at Tirzah for twenty-four years.

1Ki 15:34 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh; he copied the example of Jeroboam and the sin into which he had led Israel.

1Ki 16:1 The word of Yahweh came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha:

1Ki 16:2 'I raised you from the dust and made you leader of my people Israel, but you have followed Jeroboam's example and led my people Israel into sins which provoke my anger.

1Ki 16:3 Now I shall sweep away Baasha and his House; I shall make your House like the House of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1Ki 16:4 Those of Baasha's family who die in the city, the dogs will eat; and those who die in the open country, the birds of the air will eat.'

1Ki 16:5 The rest of the history of Baasha, his career, his valour, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:6 When Baasha fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in Tirzah; his son Elah succeeded him.

1Ki 16:7 Furthermore, the word of Yahweh was delivered through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha and his House, first because of the many ways in which he had displeased Yahweh, provoking him to anger by his actions and becoming like the House of Jeroboam; secondly because he had destroyed that House.

1Ki 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel at Tirzah, for two years.

1Ki 16:9 Zimri, one of his officers, captain of half his chariotry, plotted against him. While he was at Tirzah, drinking himself senseless in the house of Arza who was master of the palace in Tirzah, 1Ki 16:10 Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and succeeded him.

1Ki 16:11 On his accession, as soon as he was seated on the throne, he butchered Baasha's entire family, not leaving him one manjack of them alive, neither relative nor friend.

1Ki 16:12 Zimri destroyed the whole House of Baasha, in accordance with the word which Yahweh had spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu, 1Ki 16:13 because of all the sins of Baasha and his son Elah into which they had led Israel, provoking the anger of Yahweh, God of Israel, with their worthless idols.

1Ki 16:14 The history of Elah, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri became king for seven days, at Tirzah. The people were then encamped in front of Gibbethon, a Philistine town.

1Ki 16:16 When news reached the camp of how Zimri had not only plotted against but actually killed the king, all Israel proclaimed the army commander Omri as king of Israel in the camp that very day.

1Ki 16:17 Omri, and all Israel with him, raised the siege of Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah.

1Ki 16:18 When Zimri saw that the town had been captured, he went into the keep of the royal palace, burned the palace over his own head, and died.

1Ki 16:19 This was because of the sin which he had committed in doing what is displeasing to Yahweh, by copying the example of Jeroboam and the sin into which he had led Israel.

1Ki 16:20 The rest of the history of Zimri and of his conspiracy, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:21 The people of Israel then split into two factions: one half following Tibni son of Ginath to make him king, the other half following Omri.

1Ki 16:22 But the faction of Omri proved stronger than that of Tibni son of Ginath; thus Tibni lost his life and Omri became king.

1Ki 16:23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel and reigned for twelve years. He reigned for six years at Tirzah.

1Ki 16:24 Then for two talents of silver he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer and on it built a town which he named Samaria after Shemer who had owned the hill.

1Ki 16:25 Omri did what is displeasing to Yahweh, and was worse than all his predecessors.

1Ki 16:26 In every way he copied the example of Jeroboam son of Nebat and the sins into which he had led Israel, provoking the anger of Yahweh, God of Israel, with their worthless idols.

1Ki 16:27 The rest of the history of Omri, his career, his valour, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 16:28 When Omri fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in Samaria; his son Ahab succeeded him.

1Ki 16:29 Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel for twenty-two years in Samaria.

1Ki 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did what is displeasing to Yahweh, and was worse than all his predecessors.

1Ki 16:31 The least that he did was to follow the sinful example of Jeroboam son of Nebat: he married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians, and then proceeded to serve Baal and worship him.

1Ki 16:32 He erected an altar to him in the temple of Baal which he built in Samaria.

1Ki 16:33 Ahab also put up a sacred pole and committed other crimes as well, provoking the anger of Yahweh, God of Israel, more than all the kings of Israel his predecessors.

1Ki 16:34 It was in his time that Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. Laying its foundations cost him his eldest son Abiram and erecting its gates cost him his youngest son Segub, just as Yahweh had foretold through Joshua son of Nun.

1Ki 17:1 Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, 'By the life of Yahweh, God of Israel, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain these coming years unless I give the word.'

1Ki 17:2 The word of Yahweh came to him,

1Ki 17:3 'Go away from here, go east and hide by the torrent of Cherith, east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:4 You can drink from the stream, and I have ordered the ravens to bring you food there.'

1Ki 17:5 So he set out and did as Yahweh had said; he went and stayed by the torrent of Cherith, east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:6 The ravens brought him bread in the morning and meat in the evening, and he quenched his thirst at the stream.

1Ki 17:7 But after a while the stream dried up, for the country had had no rain.

1Ki 17:8 And then the word of Yahweh came to him,

1Ki 17:9 'Up and go to Zarephath in Sidonia, and stay there. I have ordered a widow there to give you food.'

1Ki 17:10 So he went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks. Addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a pitcher for me to drink.'

1Ki 17:11 She was on her way to fetch it when he called after her. 'Please', he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.'

1Ki 17:12 'As Yahweh your God lives,' she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.'

1Ki 17:13 But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son.'

1Ki 17:14 For Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when Yahweh sends rain on the face of the earth.'

1Ki 17:15 The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son.

1Ki 17:16 The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as Yahweh had foretold through Elijah.

1Ki 17:17 It happened after this that the son of the mistress of the house fell sick; his illness was so severe that in the end he expired.

1Ki 17:18 And the woman said to Elijah, 'What quarrel have you with me, man of God? Have you come here to bring my sins home to me and to kill my son?'

1Ki 17:19 'Give me your son,' he said and, taking him from her lap, he carried him to the upper room where he was staying and laid him on his bed.

1Ki 17:20 He cried out to Yahweh, 'Yahweh my God, by killing her son do you mean to bring grief even to the widow who is looking after me?'

1Ki 17:21 He stretched himself on the child three times and cried out to Yahweh, 'Yahweh my God, may the soul of this child, I beg you, come into him again!'

1Ki 17:22 Yahweh heard Elijah's prayer and the child's soul came back into his body and he revived.

1Ki 17:23 Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. 'Look,' Elijah said, 'your son is alive.'

1Ki 17:24 And the woman replied, 'Now I know you are a man of God and the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth itself.'

1Ki 18:1 A long time went by, and the word of Yahweh came to Elijah in the third year, 'Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the country.'

1Ki 18:2 So Elijah set off to present himself to Ahab. As the famine was particularly severe in Samaria,

1Ki 18:3 Ahab summoned Obadiah, the master of the palace -- Obadiah held Yahweh in great reverence:

1Ki 18:4 when Jezebel was butchering the prophets of Yahweh, Obadiah took a hundred of them and hid them, fifty at a time, in a cave, and kept them provided with food and water-

1Ki 18:5 and Ahab said to Obadiah, 'Come along, we must scour the country, all the springs and all the ravines in the hope of finding grass to keep horses and mules alive, or we shall have to slaughter some of our stock.'

1Ki 18:6 They divided the country for the purpose of their survey; Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way by himself.

1Ki 18:7 While Obadiah was on his way, whom should he meet but Elijah. Recognising him he fell on his face and said, 'So it is you, my lord Elijah!'

1Ki 18:8 'Yes,' he replied, 'go and tell your master, "Elijah is here." '

1Ki 18:9 But Obadiah said, 'What sin I have committed, for you to put your servant into Ahab's power and cause my death?

1Ki 18:10 As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent in search of you; and when they said, "He is not there," he made the kingdom or nation swear an oath that they did not know where you were.

1Ki 18:11 And now you say to me, "Go and tell your master: Elijah is here."

1Ki 18:12 But as soon as I leave you, the spirit of Yahweh will carry you away and I shall not know where; I shall go and tell Ahab; he will not be able to find you, and then he will kill me. Yet from his youth your servant has revered Yahweh.

1Ki 18:13 Has no one told my lord what I did when Jezebel butchered the prophets of Yahweh, how I hid a hundred of them in a cave, fifty at a time, and kept them provided with food and water?

1Ki 18:14 And now you say to me, "Go and tell your master: Elijah is here." Why, he will kill me!'

1Ki 18:15 Elijah replied, 'As Yahweh Sabaoth lives, whom I serve, I shall present myself to him today!'

1Ki 18:16 Obadiah went to find Ahab and tell him the news, and Ahab then went to find Elijah.

1Ki 18:17 When he saw Elijah, Ahab said, 'So there you are, you scourge of Israel!'

1Ki 18:18 'Not I,' he replied, 'I am not the scourge of Israel, you and your family are; because you have deserted Yahweh and followed Baal.'

1Ki 18:19 Now give orders for all Israel to gather round me on Mount Carmel, and also the four hundred prophets of Baal who eat at Jezebel's table.'

1Ki 18:20 Ahab called all Israel together and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.

1Ki 18:21 Elijah stepped out in front of all the people. 'How long,' he said, 'do you mean to hobble first on one leg then on the other? If Yahweh is God, follow him; if Baal, follow him.' But the people had nothing to say.

1Ki 18:22 Elijah then said to them, 'I, I alone, am left as a prophet of Yahweh, while the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty.'

1Ki 18:23 Let two bulls be given us; let them choose one for themselves, dismember it but not set fire to it. I in my turn shall prepare the other bull, but not set fire to it.

1Ki 18:24 You must call on the name of your god, and I shall call on the name of Yahweh; the god who answers with fire, is God indeed.' The people all answered, 'Agreed!'

1Ki 18:25 Elijah then said to the prophets of Baal, 'Choose one bull and begin, for there are more of you. Call on the name of your god but light no fire.'

1Ki 18:26 They took the bull and prepared it, and from morning to midday they called on the name of Baal. 'O Baal, answer us!' they cried, but there was no voice, no answer, as they performed their hobbling dance round the altar which they had made.

1Ki 18:27 Midday came, and Elijah mocked them. 'Call louder,' he said, 'for he is a god: he is preoccupied or he is busy, or he has gone on a journey; perhaps he is asleep and needs to be woken up!'

1Ki 18:28 So they shouted louder and gashed themselves, as their custom was, with swords and spears until the blood flowed down them.

1Ki 18:29 Midday passed, and they ranted on until the time when the offering is presented; but there was no voice, no answer, no sign of attention.

1Ki 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, 'Come over to me,' and all the people came over to him. He repaired Yahweh's altar which had been torn down.

1Ki 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, corresponding to the number of tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yahweh had come, 'Israel is to be your name.'

1Ki 18:32 and built an altar in the name of Yahweh. Round the altar he dug a trench of a size to hold two measures of seed.

1Ki 18:33 He then arranged the wood, dismembered the bull, and laid it on the wood.

1Ki 18:34 Then he said, 'Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.' They did this. He said, 'Do it a second time;' they did it a second time. He said, 'Do it a third time;' they did it a third time.

1Ki 18:35 The water flowed round the altar until even the trench itself was full of water.

1Ki 18:36 At the time when the offering is presented, Elijah the prophet stepped forward. 'Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel,' he said, 'let them know today that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, that I have done all these things at your command.'

1Ki 18:37 Answer me, Yahweh, answer me, so that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God and are winning back their hearts.'

1Ki 18:38 Then Yahweh's fire fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and licked up the water in the trench.

1Ki 18:39 When all the people saw this they fell on their faces. 'Yahweh is God,' they cried, 'Yahweh is God!'

1Ki 18:40 Elijah said, 'Seize the prophets of Baal: do not let one of them escape.' They seized them, and Elijah took them down to the Kishon, and there he slaughtered them.

1Ki 18:41 Elijah said to Ahab, 'Go back now, eat and drink; for I hear the approaching sound of rain.'

1Ki 18:42 While Ahab went back to eat and drink, Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel and bowed down to the ground, putting his face between his knees.

1Ki 18:43 'Now go up', he told his servant, 'and look out to sea.' He went up and looked. 'There is nothing at all,' he said. Seven times Elijah told him to go back.

1Ki 18:44 The seventh time, the servant said, 'Now there is a cloud, small as a man's hand, rising from the sea.' Elijah said, 'Go and say to Ahab, "Harness the chariot and go down before the rain stops you." '

1Ki 18:45 And with that the sky grew dark with cloud and storm, and rain fell in torrents. Ahab mounted his chariot and made for Jezreel.

1Ki 18:46 But the hand of Yahweh had come on Elijah and, hitching up his clothes, he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1Ki 19:1 When Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done, and how he had put all the prophets to the sword,

1Ki 19:2 Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, 'May the gods bring unnameable ills on me and worse ills too, if by this time tomorrow I have not made your life like one of theirs!'

1Ki 19:3 He was afraid and fled for his life. He came to Beersheba, a town of Judah, where he left his servant.

1Ki 19:4 He himself went on into the desert, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Yahweh,' he said, 'I have had enough. Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.'

1Ki 19:5 Then he lay down and went to sleep. Then all of a sudden an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.'

1Ki 19:6 He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

1Ki 19:7 But the angel of Yahweh came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.'

1Ki 19:8 So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, God's mountain.

1Ki 19:9 There he went into a cave and spent the night there. Then the word of Yahweh came to him saying, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?'

1Ki 19:10 He replied, 'I am full of jealous zeal for Yahweh Sabaoth, because the Israelites have abandoned your covenant, have torn down your altars and put your prophets to the sword. I am the only one left, and now they want to kill me.'

1Ki 19:11 Then he was told, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before Yahweh.' For at that moment Yahweh was going by. A mighty hurricane split the mountains and shattered the rocks before Yahweh. But Yahweh was not in the hurricane. And after the hurricane, an earthquake. But Yahweh was not in the earthquake.

1Ki 19:12 And after the earthquake, fire. But Yahweh was not in the fire. And after the fire, a light murmuring sound.

1Ki 19:13 And when Elijah heard this, he covered his face with his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then a voice came to him, which said, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?'

1Ki 19:14 He replied, 'I am full of jealous zeal for Yahweh, God Sabaoth, because the Israelites have abandoned your covenant, have torn down your altars and put your prophets to the sword. I am the only one left and now they want to kill me.'

1Ki 19:15 'Go,' Yahweh said, 'go back by the same way to the desert of Damascus. You must go and anoint Hazael as king of Aram.'

1Ki 19:16 You must anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king of Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel-Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.

1Ki 19:17 Anyone who escapes the sword of Hazael will be put to death by Jehu; and anyone who escapes the sword of Jehu will be put to death by Elisha.

1Ki 19:18 But I shall spare seven thousand in Israel; all the knees that have not bent before Baal, all the mouths that have not kissed him.'

1Ki 19:19 Leaving there, he came on Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him.

1Ki 19:20 Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you,' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?'

1Ki 19:21 Elisha turned away, took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the oxen's tackle for cooking the meat, which he gave the people to eat. He then rose and, following Elijah, became his servant.

1Ki 20:1 Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his whole army -- thirty-two kings were with him, and horses and chariots -- and marched on Samaria, to besiege it and take it by assault.

1Ki 20:2 He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel to tell him, 'Ben-Hadad says this,

1Ki 20:3 "Your silver and gold are mine. Your wives and children remain yours."

1Ki 20:4 The king of Israel replied, 'As you command, my lord king. Myself and all I have are yours.'

1Ki 20:5 The messengers came again, this time they said, 'Ben-Hadad says this, "I have already sent you an order to hand over your silver and your gold, your wives and your children;

1Ki 20:6 but I swear, this time tomorrow, I shall send my servants to ransack your house and your servants' houses and lay hands on everything that they value and take it away."

1Ki 20:7 The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the country and said, 'You can see clearly how this man intends to ruin us. He has already demanded my wives and my children, although I have not refused him my silver and gold.'

1Ki 20:8 All the elders and all the people said, 'Take no notice. Do not consent.'

1Ki 20:9 So he gave this answer to Ben-Hadad's messengers, 'Say to my lord the king, "All you first required of your servant I will do, but this I cannot do." ' And the messengers went back with the answer.

1Ki 20:10 Ben-Hadad then sent him the following message, 'May the gods bring unnameable ills on me and worse ills too, if there is enough dust in Samaria for each of my followers to have a handful!'

1Ki 20:11 But the king of Israel returned this answer, 'Say: the man who puts on his armour is not the one to boast, but the man who takes it off.'

1Ki 20:12 When Ben-Hadad heard this message -- he was under the awnings drinking with the kings -- he gave orders to his servants, 'Take up position!' And they took up their positions against the city.

1Ki 20:13 A prophet then arrived, looking for Ahab king of Israel. 'Yahweh says this,' he said. ' "You have seen this huge army? This very day I shall deliver it into your hands, and you will know that I am Yahweh." '

1Ki 20:14 'By whose means?' Ahab asked. The prophet replied, 'Yahweh says this, "By means of the guards of the district governors." ' 'Who will co-ordinate the attack?' Ahab asked. 'You will,' the prophet replied.

1Ki 20:15 So Ahab inspected the guards of the district governors: there were two hundred and thirty-two. After these he reviewed the army, all the Israelites: there were seven thousand.

1Ki 20:16 They made a sortie at midday, when Ben-Hadad was drinking himself senseless under the awnings, he and the thirty-two kings who were allies.

1Ki 20:17 The guards of the district governors led the sortie. A report was made to Ben-Hadad: 'Some men have come out of Samaria.'

1Ki 20:18 He said, 'If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive too.'

1Ki 20:19 So they made a sortie from the city, the district governors' guards and behind them the army,

1Ki 20:20 and each struck down his man. Aram took to flight and Israel pursued; Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback.

1Ki 20:21 The king of Israel then advanced, capturing horses and chariots and inflicting a great defeat on Aram.

1Ki 20:22 The prophet then went to the king of Israel and said, 'Now is the time to be resolute and think carefully about what you should do, for at the turn of the year the king of Aram will march against you.'

1Ki 20:23 The servants of the king of Aram said to him, 'Their gods are gods of the mountains; that is why they have proved stronger than we are. But if we fight them on level ground, we shall certainly beat them.'

1Ki 20:24 This is what you must do: remove all these kings from their commands and appoint professional soldiers in their place.

1Ki 20:25 You, for your part, must recruit an army as large as the one which deserted you, with as many horses and as many chariots; then if we fight them on level ground, we shall certainly beat them.' He listened to their advice and acted accordingly.

1Ki 20:26 At the turn of the year, Ben-Hadad mustered the Aramaeans and marched on Aphek to fight Israel.

1Ki 20:27 The Israelites were already mobilised and provisioned, and marched out to meet them. Encamped opposite them, the Israelites looked like two herds of goats, whereas the Aramaeans filled the countryside.

1Ki 20:28 The man of God then went to the king of Israel and said, 'Yahweh says this, "Since Aram has said that Yahweh is a god of the mountains and not a god of the plains, I shall put the whole of this huge army into your power, and you will know that I am Yahweh."

1Ki 20:29 For seven days they were encamped opposite each other. On the seventh day battle was joined and the Israelites slaughtered the Aramaeans, a hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day.

1Ki 20:30 The rest fled to Aphek, into the citadel, but the city walls collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of the survivors. Now Ben-Hadad had fled and taken refuge in an inner room inside the citadel.

1Ki 20:31 'Look,' his servants said to him, 'we have heard that the kings of Israel are faithful and kind kings. Let us put sackcloth round our waists and cords round our heads and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life.'

1Ki 20:32 So they wrapped sackcloth round their waists and put cords round their heads and went to the king of Israel, and said, 'Your servant Ben-Hadad says, "Spare my life."

1Ki 20:33 'So he is still alive?' he replied. 'He is my brother.' The men took this for a good omen and quickly seized on his words. 'Yes,' they said, 'Ben-Hadad is your brother.' Ahab said, 'Go and fetch him.' Then Ben-Hadad came out to him and Ahab made him get up into his chariot.

1Ki 20:34 Ben-Hadad said, 'I shall restore the towns which my father took from your father and you may set up a trading quarter for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria.' 'With a treaty,' Ahab said, 'I shall set you free.' Granting him a treaty, Ahab let him go.

1Ki 20:35 At Yahweh's command a member of the brotherhood of prophets said to a companion of his, 'Strike me,' but the man refused to strike him.

1Ki 20:36 So he said to him, 'Since you have disobeyed Yahweh's order, the very moment you leave me a lion will kill you.' And no sooner had he left him than he met a lion, which killed him.

1Ki 20:37 The prophet then went to find another man and said, 'Strike me,' and the man struck him and wounded him.

1Ki 20:38 The prophet then went and stood waiting for the king on the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.

1Ki 20:39 As the king passed, he called out to him, 'Your servant was making his way to where the fight was thickest when someone left the fighting to bring a man to me, and said, "Guard this man; if he is found missing, your life will pay for his, or else you will have to pay one talent of silver."

1Ki 20:40 But your servant was busy with one thing and another, the man disappeared.' The king of Israel said, 'That is your sentence then. You have pronounced it yourself.'

1Ki 20:41 At this the man quickly pulled off the bandage over his eyes, and the king of Israel recognised him as one of the prophets.

1Ki 20:42 He said to the king, 'Yahweh says this, "Since you have let the man escape who was under my curse of destruction, your life will pay for his, your people for his people."

1Ki 20:43 And the king of Israel went home, gloomy and out of temper, back to Samaria.

1Ki 21:1 This is what happened next: Naboth of Jezreel had a vineyard close by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria,

1Ki 21:2 and Ahab said to Naboth, 'Give me your vineyard to be my vegetable garden, since it adjoins my palace; I will give you a better vineyard for it or, if you prefer, I will give you its value in money.'

1Ki 21:3 Naboth, however, said to Ahab, 'Yahweh forbid that I should give you my ancestral heritage!'

1Ki 21:4 Ahab went home gloomy and out of temper at the words of Naboth of Jezreel, 'I will not give you my heritage from my ancestors.' He lay down on his bed and turned his face away and refused to eat.

1Ki 21:5 His wife Jezebel came to him. 'Why are you so dispirited,' she said, 'that you refuse to eat?'

1Ki 21:6 He said, 'I have been talking to Naboth of Jezreel. I said, "Give me your vineyard either for money or, if you prefer, for another vineyard in exchange." But he said, "I will not give you my vineyard."

1Ki 21:7 Then his wife Jezebel said, 'Some king of Israel you make! Get up, eat and take heart; I myself shall get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.'

1Ki 21:8 So she wrote a letter in Ahab's name and sealed it with his seal, sending the letter to the elders and notables of the city where Naboth lived.

1Ki 21:9 In the letter, she wrote, 'Proclaim a fast, and put Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1Ki 21:10 There confront him with a couple of scoundrels who will accuse him as follows, "You have cursed God and the king." Then take him outside and stone him to death.'

1Ki 21:11 The men of Naboth's city, the elders and notables living in his city, did what Jezebel ordered, as was written in the letter which she had sent him.

1Ki 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and put Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1Ki 21:13 The two scoundrels then came and confronted him, and the scoundrels then publicly accused Naboth as follows, 'Naboth has cursed God and the king.' He was then taken outside the city and stoned to death.

1Ki 21:14 They then sent word to Jezebel, 'Naboth has been stoned to death.'

1Ki 21:15 When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, 'Get up! Take possession of the vineyard which Naboth of Jezreel refused to sell you, for Naboth is no longer alive, he is dead.'

1Ki 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth of Jezreel and take possession of it.

1Ki 21:17 Then the word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite,

1Ki 21:18 'Up! Go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, in Samaria. You will find him in Naboth's vineyard; he has gone down to take possession of it.

1Ki 21:19 You are to say this to him, "Yahweh says this: You have committed murder and now you usurp as well. For this -- and Yahweh says this -- in the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick your blood too."

1Ki 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, 'So you have caught me, O my enemy!' Elijah answered, 'I have caught you! For your double dealing, and since you have done what is displeasing to Yahweh, 1Ki 21:21 I shall now bring disaster down on you; I shall sweep away your descendants and wipe out every manjack of the House of Ahab, fettered or free in Israel.

1Ki 21:22 I shall treat your House as I treated the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and of Baasha son of Ahijah, for provoking my anger and leading Israel into sin.

1Ki 21:23 (Against Jezebel too Yahweh spoke these words, "The dogs will eat Jezebel in the Field of Jezreel.")

1Ki 21:24 Those of Ahab's family who die in the city, the dogs will eat; and those who die in the open country, the birds of the air will eat.'

1Ki 21:25 And indeed there never was anyone like Ahab for double dealing and for doing what is displeasing to Yahweh, urged on by Jezebel his wife.

1Ki 21:26 He behaved in the most abominable way, adhering to idols, just as the Amorites had, whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.

1Ki 21:27 When Ahab heard these words, he tore his garments and put sackcloth next to his skin and fasted; he slept in the sackcloth; he walked with slow steps.

1Ki 21:28 Then the word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite,

1Ki 21:29 'Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Since he has humbled himself before me, I shall not bring the disaster in his days; I shall bring the disaster down on his House in his son's days.'

1Ki 22:1 There was a lull of three years, with no fighting between Aram and Israel.

1Ki 22:2 Then, in the third year, Jehoshaphat king of Judah paid a visit to the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:3 The king of Israel said to his officers, 'You are aware that Ramoth in Gilead belongs to us? And yet we do nothing to wrest it away from the king of Aram.'

1Ki 22:4 He said to Jehoshaphat, 'Will you come with me to attack Ramoth in Gilead?' Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, 'I will be as you, my men as yours, my horses as yours.'

1Ki 22:5 Jehoshaphat, however, said to the king of Israel, 'First, please enquire what the word of Yahweh is.'

1Ki 22:6 The king of Israel then called the prophets together, about four hundred of them. 'Should I go and attack Ramoth in Gilead,' he asked, 'or should I hold back?' 'Go ahead,' they replied, 'for Yahweh has already given it to the king.'

1Ki 22:7 Jehoshaphat, however, said, 'Is there no other prophet of Yahweh here, so that we can enquire through him?'

1Ki 22:8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'There is one more man through whom we can consult Yahweh, but I hate him because he never has a favourable prophecy for me, only unfavourable ones; he is Micaiah son of Imlah.' 'I hope the king's words are unjustified,' said Jehoshaphat.

1Ki 22:9 The king of Israel then summoned a court official and said, 'Bring Micaiah son of Imlah immediately.'

1Ki 22:10 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, wearing their robes, in an open space just outside the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets in a state of ecstasy before them.

1Ki 22:11 Zedekiah son of Kenaanah, who had made himself some iron horns, said, 'Yahweh says, "With horns like these you will gore the Aramaeans till you make an end of them."

1Ki 22:12 And all the prophets cried ecstatically in the same vein, saying, 'March on Ramoth in Gilead! Success is sure, for Yahweh has already given it to the king!'

1Ki 22:13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, 'Look here, what the prophets are saying is uniformly favourable to the king. I hope you will say the same as they do and speak favourably.'

1Ki 22:14 Micaiah said, 'As Yahweh lives, I shall speak as Yahweh tells me!'

1Ki 22:15 When he came to the king, the king said, 'Micaiah, should we go and attack Ramoth in Gilead, or should we hold back?' He replied, 'Go ahead! Success is sure, for Yahweh has already given it to the king!'

1Ki 22:16 The king then said, 'How often must I put you on oath to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh?'

1Ki 22:17 Then he spoke out: I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep without a shepherd. And Yahweh said, 'These have no master, let them all go safely home!'

1Ki 22:18 At this the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'Did I not tell you that he never gives me favourable prophecies, but only unfavourable ones?'

1Ki 22:19 Micaiah went on, 'Now listen to the word of Yahweh. I saw Yahweh seated on his throne with the whole array of heaven standing by him, on his right and on his left.'

1Ki 22:20 Yahweh said, "Who will entice Ahab into marching to his death at Ramoth in Gilead?" At which some answered one way, and some another.

1Ki 22:21 A spirit then came forward and stood before Yahweh and said, "I will entice him."

1Ki 22:22 "How?" Yahweh asked. He replied, "I shall go and be a deceptive spirit in the mouths of all his prophets." Yahweh said, "You will succeed in enticing him. Go and do it."

1Ki 22:23 And now, you see, Yahweh has put a deceptive spirit into the mouths of all your prophets here, for in fact Yahweh has pronounced disaster on you.'

1Ki 22:24 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah then came up, struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, 'Which way did Yahweh's spirit leave me, to speak to you?'

1Ki 22:25 'That is what you will find out,' Micaiah retorted, 'the day you go from room to room, trying to hide.'

1Ki 22:26 The king of Israel said, 'Seize Micaiah and hand him over to Amon, governor of the city, and Joash, the king's son,

1Ki 22:27 and say, "These are the king's orders: Put this man in prison and feed him on nothing but bread and water until I am safely home."

1Ki 22:28 Micaiah said, 'If you ever do get home safely, Yahweh has not spoken through me.'

1Ki 22:29 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah marched on Ramoth in Gilead.

1Ki 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'I shall disguise myself to go into battle, but you put on your robes.' So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1Ki 22:31 Now, the king of Aram had given his chariot commanders the following order, 'Do not attack anyone of whatever rank, except the king of Israel.'

1Ki 22:32 So, when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, 'That is obviously the king of Israel,' and surrounded him to attack. But when Jehoshaphat shouted his war cry

1Ki 22:33 the chariot commanders, realising that he was not the king of Israel, broke off their pursuit.

1Ki 22:34 Someone, however, drawing his bow without any special aim, shot the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. 'Turn about!' said the king to his charioteer. 'Get me out of the fighting; I am collapsing.'

1Ki 22:35 But the battle grew fiercer as the day went on and the king had to be held upright in his chariot facing the Aramaeans, the blood from the wound running into the bottom of the chariot, until in the evening he died.

1Ki 22:36 At sundown a shout ran through the ranks, 'Every man back to his town, every man back to his country!'

1Ki 22:37 The king is dead.' He was taken to Samaria and in Samaria the king was buried.

1Ki 22:38 They washed the chariot at the Pool of Samaria; the dogs licked up the blood, and the prostitutes washed in it, in accordance with the word which Yahweh had spoken.

1Ki 22:39 The rest of the history of Ahab, his entire career, the ivory house he erected, all the towns he built, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

1Ki 22:40 When Ahab fell asleep with his ancestors, his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

1Ki 22:41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1Ki 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

1Ki 22:43 In every way he followed the example of his father Asa undeviatingly, doing what is pleasing to Yahweh.

1Ki 22:44 The high places, however, were not abolished; the people still offered sacrifice and incense on the high places.

1Ki 22:45 Jehoshaphat was at peace with the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:46 The rest of the history of Jehoshaphat, the valour he showed, the wars he waged, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

1Ki 22:47 The few male sacred prostitutes left over from the days of his father Asa, he expelled from the country.

1Ki 22:48 At the time, Edom had no king, and King

1Ki 22:49 Jehoshaphat built ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they never made the voyage since the ships were wrecked at Ezion-Geber.

1Ki 22:50 Ahaziah son of Ahab then proposed to Jehoshaphat, 'Let my men go to sea with yours.' But Jehoshaphat would not agree.

1Ki 22:51 When Jehoshaphat fell asleep with his ancestors he was buried in the City of his ancestor, David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.

1Ki 22:52 Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned over Israel for two years.

1Ki 22:53 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, by following the example of his father and mother, and of Jeroboam son of Nebat who had led Israel into sin.

1Ki 22:54 He served Baal and worshipped him, and provoked the anger of Yahweh God of Israel just as his father had done.

2Ki 1:1 After Ahab's death Moab rebelled against Israel.

2Ki 1:2 Ahaziah had fallen from the balcony of his upper room in Samaria, and was lying ill; so he sent messengers, saying to them, 'Go and consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron and ask whether I shall recover from my illness.'

2Ki 1:3 But the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, 'Up! Go and intercept the king of Samaria's messengers. Say to them, "Is there no God in Israel, for you to go and consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron?"

2Ki 1:4 Yahweh says this: You will never leave the bed you have got into; you are certainly going to die.' And Elijah set out.

2Ki 1:5 The messengers returned to the king, who said, 'Why have you come back?'

2Ki 1:6 'A man came to meet us,' they answered. 'He said, "Go back to the king who sent you and tell him: Yahweh says this: Is there no God in Israel, for you to go and consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron? For this, you will never leave the bed you have got into; you are certainly going to die."'

2Ki 1:7 He said, 'This man who met you and said all this, what was he like?'

2Ki 1:8 'A man wearing a hair cloak', they answered, 'and a leather loincloth.' 'It was Elijah the Tishbite,' he said.

2Ki 1:9 He then sent a captain of fifty soldiers with his fifty men to Elijah, whom they found sitting on top of a hill; the captain went up to him and said, 'Man of God, the king says, "Come down."'

2Ki 1:10 Elijah answered the captain, 'If I am a man of God, may fire fall from heaven and destroy both you and your fifty men.' And fire fell from heaven and destroyed him and his fifty men.

2Ki 1:11 The king sent a second captain of fifty to him, again with fifty men, and he too went up and said, 'Man of God, this is the king's order, "Come down at once."'

2Ki 1:12 Elijah answered them, 'If I am a man of God, may fire fall from heaven and destroy both you and your fifty men.' And lightning fell from heaven and destroyed him and his fifty men.

2Ki 1:13 The king then sent a third captain of fifty to him, with another fifty men. The third captain of fifty came up to Elijah, fell on his knees before him and pleaded with him. 'Man of God,' he said, 'may my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours count for something in your eyes.'

2Ki 1:14 Fire has fallen from heaven and destroyed two captains of fifties and their companies, but this time may my life count for something in your eyes!'

2Ki 1:15 The angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, 'Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.' He rose and accompanied him down to the king,

2Ki 1:16 and said to him, 'Yahweh says this, "Since you sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron, you will never leave the bed you have got into; you are certainly going to die."'

2Ki 1:17 And, in accordance with the word of Yahweh which Elijah had uttered, he died. Since he had no son, his brother Jehoram succeeded him, in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

2Ki 1:18 The rest of the history of Ahaziah, and his career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 2:1 This is what happened when Yahweh took Elijah up to heaven in the whirlwind: Elijah and Elisha set out from Gilgal, 2Ki 2:2 and Elijah said to Elisha, 'You stay here, for Yahweh is only sending me to Bethel.' But Elisha replied, 'As Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you!' and they went down to Bethel.

2Ki 2:3 The brotherhood of prophets living at Bethel came out to meet Elisha and said, 'Do you know that Yahweh will carry your lord and master away today?' 'Yes, I know,' he said, 'be quiet.'

2Ki 2:4 Elijah said, 'Elisha, you stay here, Yahweh is only sending me to Jericho.' But he replied, 'As Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you!' and they went on to Jericho.

2Ki 2:5 The brotherhood of prophets living at Jericho went up to Elisha and said, 'Do you know that Yahweh will carry your lord and master away today?' 'Yes, I know,' he said, 'be quiet.'

2Ki 2:6 Elijah said, 'Elisha, you stay here, Yahweh is only sending me to the Jordan.' But he replied, 'As Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you!' And they went on together.

2Ki 2:7 Fifty of the brotherhood of prophets followed them, halting some distance away as the two of them stood beside the Jordan.

2Ki 2:8 Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water; and the water divided to left and right, and the two of them crossed over dry-shod.

2Ki 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, 'Make your request. What can I do for you before I am snatched away from you?' Elisha answered, 'Let me inherit a double share of your spirit.'

2Ki 2:10 'Your request is difficult,' Elijah said. 'If you see me while I am being snatched away from you, it will be as you ask; if not, it will not be so.'

2Ki 2:11 Now as they walked on, talking as they went, a chariot of fire appeared and horses of fire coming between the two of them; and Elijah went up to heaven in the whirlwind.

2Ki 2:12 Elisha saw it, and shouted, 'My father! My father! Chariot of Israel and its chargers!' Then he lost sight of him, and taking hold of his own clothes he tore them in half.

2Ki 2:13 He picked up Elijah's cloak which had fallen, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2Ki 2:14 He took Elijah's cloak and struck the water. 'Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah?' he cried. As he struck the water it divided to right and left, and Elisha crossed over.

2Ki 2:15 The brotherhood of prophets saw him in the distance, and said, 'The spirit of Elijah has come to rest on Elisha'; they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

2Ki 2:16 'Look,' they said, 'your servants have fifty strong men with them, let them go and look for your master; the Spirit of Yahweh may have taken him up and thrown him down on a mountain or into a valley.' 'Send no one,' he replied.

2Ki 2:17 But they so shamed him with their insistence that he consented. So they sent fifty men who searched for three days without finding him.

2Ki 2:18 They then came back to Elisha who had stayed in Jericho; he said, 'Didn't I tell you not to go?'

2Ki 2:19 The people of the city said to Elisha, 'The city is pleasant to live in, as my lord indeed can see, but the water is foul and the country suffers from miscarriages.'

2Ki 2:20 'Bring me a new bowl,' he said, 'and put some salt in it.' They brought it to him.

2Ki 2:21 Then he went to the source of the water, threw salt into it and said, 'Yahweh says this, "I make this water wholesome: neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it any more."'

2Ki 2:22 And the water became wholesome, as it is today, exactly as Elisha had said it would.

2Ki 2:23 From there he went up to Bethel, and while he was on the road, some small boys came out of the town and jeered at him. 'Hurry up, baldy!' they shouted. 'Come on up, baldy!'

2Ki 2:24 He turned round and looked at them; and he cursed them in the name of Yahweh. And two bears came out of the forest and savaged forty-two of the boys.

2Ki 2:25 From there he went on to Mount Carmel and then returned to Samaria.

2Ki 3:1 Jehoram son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned for twelve years.

2Ki 3:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, though not like his father and mother, for he did away with the pillar to Baal which his father had made.

2Ki 3:3 Nonetheless, he continued to practise the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel and did not give them up.

2Ki 3:4 Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-breeder and used to pay the king of Israel in tribute a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand rams with their wool.

2Ki 3:5 But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2Ki 3:6 At once King Jehoram left Samaria and mustered all Israel.

2Ki 3:7 After this he sent word to the king of Judah, 'The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go to war with me against Moab?' 'I will,' he replied. 'I will be as you, my men as yours, my horses as yours,' 2Ki 3:8 and added, 'Which way are we to attack?' 'Through the desert of Edom,' the other answered.

2Ki 3:9 So they set out, the king of Israel, the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They carried out a flanking movement for seven days, until there was no water left for the troops or for the beasts of their baggage train.

2Ki 3:10 'Alas!' the king of Israel exclaimed, 'Yahweh has summoned us three kings, only to put us into the power of Moab.'

2Ki 3:11 But the king of Judah said, 'Is there no prophet of Yahweh here for us to consult Yahweh through him?' One of the king of Israel's servants answered, 'Elisha son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.'

2Ki 3:12 'The word of Yahweh is with him,' the king of Judah said. So the king of Israel, the king of Judah and the king of Edom went to consult him.

2Ki 3:13 But Elisha said to the king of Israel, 'What business have you with me? Go to your father's and your mother's prophets.' 'No,' the king of Israel answered, 'Yahweh is the one who has summoned us three kings, only to put us into the power of Moab.' Elisha replied,

2Ki 3:14 'By the life of Yahweh Sabaoth whom I serve, if I did not respect the king of Judah, I would take no notice of you, nor so much as look at you.'

2Ki 3:15 Now bring me someone who can play the lyre.' And as the musician played, the hand of Yahweh came on him

2Ki 3:16 and he said, 'Yahweh says this, "Dig in this valley ditch after ditch,"'

2Ki 3:17 for Yahweh says, "You will see no wind, you will see no rain, but this valley will become full of water, and you and your troops and your baggage animals will drink."

2Ki 3:18 But this is only a trifle in Yahweh's eyes, for he will put Moab itself into your power.

2Ki 3:19 You will storm every fortified town, fell every productive tree, block every water-hole, ruin all the best fields with stones.'

2Ki 3:20 Next morning at the time when the oblation was being offered, water came from the direction of Edom, and the whole terrain was flooded.

2Ki 3:21 When the Moabites learned that the kings were advancing to fight them, all those of an age to bear arms were mobilised; they took up position on the frontier.

2Ki 3:22 In the morning when they got up, the sun was shining on the water; and in the distance the Moabites saw the water as red as blood.

2Ki 3:23 'This is blood!' they said. 'The kings must have fought among themselves and killed one another. So now for the booty, Moab!'

2Ki 3:24 But when they reached the Israelite camp, the Israelites launched their attack and the Moabites fled before them, and as they advanced they cut the Moabites to pieces.

2Ki 3:25 They laid the towns in ruins, and each man threw a stone into all the best fields to fill them up, and they blocked every water-hole and felled every productive tree. In the end, there was only Kir-Hareseth left, which the slingers surrounded and bombarded.

2Ki 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle had turned against him, he mustered seven hundred swordsmen in the hope of breaking a way out and going to the king of Aram, but he failed.

2Ki 3:27 Then he took his eldest son who was to succeed him and offered him as a sacrifice on the city wall. Alarmed at this, the Israelites withdrew and retired to their own territory.

2Ki 4:1 The wife of a member of the prophetic brotherhood appealed to Elisha. 'Your servant my husband is dead,' she said, 'and you know how your servant revered Yahweh. A creditor has now come to take my two children and make them his slaves.'

2Ki 4:2 Elisha said, 'What can I do for you? Tell me, what have you got in the house?' 'Your servant has nothing in the house,' she replied, 'except a flask of oil.'

2Ki 4:3 Then he said, 'Go outside and borrow jars from all your neighbours, empty jars and not too few.

2Ki 4:4 When you come back, shut the door on yourself and your sons, and pour the oil into all these jars, putting each aside when it is full.'

2Ki 4:5 So she left him; and she shut the door on herself and her sons; they passed her the jars and she went on pouring.

2Ki 4:6 When the jars were full, she said to her son, 'Pass me another jar.' 'There are no more,' he replied. Then the oil stopped flowing.

2Ki 4:7 She went and told the man of God, who said, 'Go and sell the oil and redeem your pledge; you and your children can live on the remainder.'

2Ki 4:8 One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way.

2Ki 4:9 She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God.

2Ki 4:10 Let us build him a small walled room, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.'

2Ki 4:11 One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down.

2Ki 4:12 He said to his servant Gehazi, 'Call our Shunammite.' He called her and when she appeared, Elisha said,

2Ki 4:13 'Tell her this: "Look, you have gone to all this trouble for us, what can we do for you? Is there anything you would like said for you to the king or to the commander of the army?"' But she replied, 'I live with my own people about me.'

2Ki 4:14 'What can I do for you then?' he asked. Gehazi replied, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.'

2Ki 4:15 Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door.

2Ki 4:16 'This time next year', he said, 'you will hold a son in your arms.' But she said, 'No, my lord, do not deceive your servant.'

2Ki 4:17 But the woman did conceive, and she gave birth to a son at the time that Elisha had said she would.

2Ki 4:18 The child grew up; one day he went to his father who was with the reapers, 2Ki 4:19 and exclaimed to his father, 'Oh, my head! My head!' The father told a servant to carry him to his mother.

2Ki 4:20 He lifted him up and took him to his mother, and the boy lay on her lap until midday, when he died.

2Ki 4:21 She went upstairs, laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door on him and went out.

2Ki 4:22 She called her husband and said, 'Send me one of the servants with a donkey. I must hurry to the man of God and back.'

2Ki 4:23 'Why go to him today?' he asked. 'It is not New Moon or Sabbath.' But she replied, 'Never mind.'

2Ki 4:24 She had the donkey saddled and said to her servant, 'Lead on, go! Do not draw rein until I give the order.'

2Ki 4:25 She set off and made her way to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her in the distance, he said to his servant Gehazi, 'Look, here comes our Shunammite!

2Ki 4:26 Now run and meet her and ask her, "Are you well? Is your husband well? Your child well?" 'Yes,' she replied.

2Ki 4:27 When she came to the man of God there on the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi stepped forward to push her away, but the man of God said, 'Leave her; there is bitterness in her soul and Yahweh has hidden it from me, he has not told me.'

2Ki 4:28 She said, 'Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say: Don't deceive me?'

2Ki 4:29 Elisha said to Gehazi, 'Hitch up your clothes, take my staff in your hand and go. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; if anyone greets you, do not answer him. You are to stretch out my staff over the child.'

2Ki 4:30 But the child's mother said, 'As Yahweh lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' Then he stood up and followed her.

2Ki 4:31 Gehazi had gone ahead of them and had stretched out the staff over the child, but there was no sound or response. He went back to meet Elisha and told him. 'The child has not woken up,' he said.

2Ki 4:32 Elisha then went to the house, and there on his bed lay the child, dead.

2Ki 4:33 He went in and shut the door on the two of them and prayed to Yahweh.

2Ki 4:34 Then he climbed on to the bed and stretched himself on top of the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes to his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and as he lowered himself on to him, the child's flesh grew warm.

2Ki 4:35 Then he got up and walked to and fro inside the house, and then climbed on to the bed again and lowered himself on to the child seven times in all; then the child sneezed and opened his eyes.

2Ki 4:36 He then summoned Gehazi. 'Call our Shunammite,' he said. He called her. When she came to him, he said, 'Pick up your son.'

2Ki 4:37 She went in and, falling at his feet, prostrated herself on the floor and then picked up her son and went out.

2Ki 4:38 Elisha went back to Gilgal while there was famine in the country. As the brotherhood of prophets were sitting with him, he said to his servant, 'Put the large pot on the fire and cook some soup for the brotherhood.'

2Ki 4:39 One of them went into the fields to gather herbs and came on some wild vine, off which he gathered enough gourds to fill his lap. On his return, he cut them up into the pot of soup; they did not know what they were.

2Ki 4:40 They then poured the soup out for the men to eat, but they had no sooner tasted the soup than they cried, 'Man of God, there is death in the pot!' And they could not eat it.

2Ki 4:41 'Bring some meal then,' Elisha said. This he threw into the pot, and said, 'Pour out, for the company to eat!' And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

2Ki 4:42 A man came from Baal-Shalishah, bringing the man of God bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain still in the husk. 'Give it to the company to eat,' Elisha said.

2Ki 4:43 But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the company to eat,' he insisted, 'for Yahweh says this, "They will eat and have some left over."'

2Ki 4:44 He served them; they ate and had some left over, as Yahweh had said.

2Ki 5:1 Naaman, army commander to the king of Aram, was a man who enjoyed his master's respect and favour, since through him Yahweh had granted victory to the Aramaeans.

2Ki 5:2 But the man suffered from a virulent skin-disease. Now, on one of their raids into Israelite territory, the Aramaeans had carried off a little girl, who became a servant of Naaman's wife.

2Ki 5:3 She said to her mistress, 'If only my master would approach the prophet of Samaria! He would cure him of his skin-disease.'

2Ki 5:4 Naaman went and told his master. 'This and this', he reported, 'is what the girl from Israel has said.'

2Ki 5:5 'Go by all means,' said the king of Aram, 'I shall send a letter to the king of Israel.' So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten festal robes.

2Ki 5:6 He presented the letter to the king of Israel. It read, 'With this letter, I am sending my servant Naaman to you for you to cure him of his skin-disease.'

2Ki 5:7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes. 'Am I a god to give death and life,' he said, 'for him to send a man to me and ask me to cure him of his skin-disease? Listen to this and take note of it and see how he intends to pick a quarrel with me.'

2Ki 5:8 When Elisha heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, and he will find there is a prophet in Israel.'

2Ki 5:9 So Naaman came with his team and chariot and drew up at the door of Elisha's house.

2Ki 5:10 And Elisha sent him a messenger to say, 'Go and bathe seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will become clean once more.'

2Ki 5:11 But Naaman was indignant and went off, saying, 'Here was I, thinking he would be sure to come out to me, and stand there, and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the spot and cure the part that was diseased.'

2Ki 5:12 Surely, Abana and Parpar, the rivers of Damascus, are better than any water in Israel? Could I not bathe in them and become clean?' And he turned round and went off in a rage.

2Ki 5:13 But his servants approached him and said, 'Father, if the prophet had asked you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? All the more reason, then, when he says to you, "Bathe, and you will become clean."

2Ki 5:14 So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

2Ki 5:15 Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and, presenting himself, said, 'Now I know that there is no God anywhere on earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.'

2Ki 5:16 But Elisha replied, 'As Yahweh lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused.

2Ki 5:17 Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, since your servant will no longer make burnt offerings or sacrifice to any god except Yahweh.'

2Ki 5:18 Only -- and may Yahweh forgive your servant for this -- when my master goes to the temple of Rimmon to worship there, he leans on my arm, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon when he does; may Yahweh forgive your servant for doing this!'

2Ki 5:19 'Go in peace,' Elisha replied.

2Ki 5:20 Naaman had gone a small distance, when Gehazi, Elisha's servant, said to himself, 'My master has let this Aramaean Naaman off lightly, by not accepting what he offered. As Yahweh lives, I will run after him and get something out of him.'

2Ki 5:21 So Gehazi set off in pursuit of Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he jumped down from his chariot to meet him. 'Is all well?' he asked.

2Ki 5:22 'All is well,' he said. 'My master has sent me to say, "This very moment two young men of the prophetic brotherhood have arrived from the highlands of Ephraim. Be kind enough to give them a talent of silver and two festal robes."

2Ki 5:23 'Please accept two talents,' Naaman replied, and pressed him, tying up the two talents of silver in two bags with the two festal robes and consigning them to two of his servants who carried them ahead of Gehazi.

2Ki 5:24 When he reached Ophel, he took these from them and put them away in the house. He then dismissed the men, who went away.

2Ki 5:25 He, for his part, went and presented himself to his master. Elisha said, 'Gehazi, where have you been? 'Your servant has not been anywhere,' he replied.

2Ki 5:26 But Elisha said to him, 'Was not my heart present there when someone left his chariot to meet you? Now you have taken the money, you can buy gardens with it, and olive groves, sheep and oxen, male and female slaves.'

2Ki 5:27 But Naaman's disease of the skin will cling to you and your descendants for ever.' And Gehazi left his presence white as snow from skin-disease.

2Ki 6:1 The brotherhood of prophets said to Elisha, 'Look, the place where we are living with you is too small for us.'

2Ki 6:2 Let us go to the Jordan, then, and each of us cut a beam there, and we will make our living quarters there.' He replied, 'Go.'

2Ki 6:3 'Be good enough to go with your servants,' one of them said. 'I will go,' he replied, 2Ki 6:4 and went with them. On reaching the Jordan they began cutting down timber.

2Ki 6:5 But, as one of them was felling his beam, the iron axehead fell into the water. 'Alas, my lord,' he exclaimed, 'and it was a borrowed one too!'

2Ki 6:6 'Where did it fall?' the man of God asked; and he showed him the spot. Then, cutting a stick, Elisha threw it in at that point and made the iron axehead float.

2Ki 6:7 'Lift it out,' he said; and the man stretched out his hand and took it.

2Ki 6:8 The king of Aram was at war with Israel. He conferred with his officers and said, 'You must attack at such and such a place.'

2Ki 6:9 Elisha, however, sent word to the king of Israel, 'Be on your guard about such and such a place, because the Aramaeans are going to attack it.'

2Ki 6:10 The king of Israel accordingly sent men to the place which Elisha had named. And he kept warning the king, and the king stayed on the alert; and this happened more than once or twice.

2Ki 6:11 The king of Aram grew very much disturbed over this. He summoned his officers, and said, 'Tell me which of you is betraying us to the king of Israel.'

2Ki 6:12 'No one, my lord king,' one of his officers replied. 'It is Elisha, the prophet in Israel. The words you utter in your bedchamber, he reveals to the king of Israel.'

2Ki 6:13 'Go and find out where he is,' the king said, 'so that I can send people to capture him.' Word was brought to him, 'He is now in Dothan.'

2Ki 6:14 So he sent horses and chariots there, and a large force; and these, arriving during the night, surrounded the town.

2Ki 6:15 Next day, Elisha got up early and went out; and there surrounding the town was an armed force with horses and chariots. 'Oh, my lord,' his servant said, 'what are we to do?'

2Ki 6:16 'Do not be afraid,' he replied, 'for there are more on our side than on theirs.'

2Ki 6:17 And Elisha prayed. 'Yahweh,' he said, 'open his eyes and make him see.' Yahweh opened the servant's eyes, and he saw the mountain covered in fiery horses and chariots surrounding Elisha.

2Ki 6:18 As the Aramaeans came down towards him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, 'I beg you to strike these people sun-blind.' And, at Elisha's word, he struck them sun-blind.

2Ki 6:19 Then Elisha said to them, 'This is not the road, nor is this the town. Follow me; I shall lead you to the man you are looking for.' But he led them to Samaria.

2Ki 6:20 As they entered Samaria, Elisha said, 'Yahweh, open these people's eyes, and let them see.' Yahweh opened their eyes and they saw; they were inside Samaria.

2Ki 6:21 When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, 'Shall I kill them, father?'

2Ki 6:22 'Do not kill them,' he replied. 'Do you kill your own prisoners with sword and bow? Offer them food and water, so that they can eat and drink, and then let them go back to their master.'

2Ki 6:23 So the king provided a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them off and they went back to their master. Aramaean raiding parties never invaded the territory of Israel again.

2Ki 6:24 It happened after this that Ben-Hadad king of Aram, mustering his whole army, marched on and laid siege to Samaria.

2Ki 6:25 In Samaria there was great famine, and so strict was the siege that the head of a donkey sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one quarter-kab of wild onions for five shekels of silver.

2Ki 6:26 Now as the king was passing along the city wall, a woman shouted, 'Help, my lord king!'

2Ki 6:27 'If Yahweh does not help you,' he retorted, 'where can I find help for you? From the threshing-floor? From the winepress?'

2Ki 6:28 Then the king asked, 'What is the matter?' 'This woman here', she answered, 'said to me, "Give up your son; we will eat him today, and eat my son tomorrow."

2Ki 6:29 So we cooked my son and ate him. Next day, I said to her, "Give up your son for us to eat." But she has hidden her son.'

2Ki 6:30 On hearing the woman's words, the king tore his clothes; the king was walking on the wall, and the people saw that underneath he was wearing sackcloth next his body.

2Ki 6:31 'May God bring unnameable ills on me, and worse ills, too,' he said, 'if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!'

2Ki 6:32 Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead but, before the man arrived, Elisha had said to the elders, 'Do you see how this son of a murderer has given orders to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door; hold the door against him. Isn't that the sound of his master's step behind him?'

2Ki 6:33 He was still actually speaking, when the king arrived and said, 'This misery plainly comes from Yahweh. Why should I still trust in Yahweh?'

2Ki 7:1 'Listen to the word of Yahweh,' Elisha said. 'Yahweh says this, "By this time tomorrow a measure of finest flour will sell for one shekel, and two measures of barley for one shekel, at the gate of Samaria."

2Ki 7:2 The equerry on whose arm the king was leaning retorted to Elisha, 'Even if Yahweh made windows in the sky, could this word come true?' 'You will see it with your own eyes,' Elisha replied, 'though you will eat none of it.'

2Ki 7:3 Now at the entrance to the gate -- for they were afflicted with virulent skin-disease -- there were four men and they debated among themselves, 'Why sit here waiting for death?

2Ki 7:4 If we decide to go into the city, what with the famine in it, we shall die there; if we stay where we are, we shall die just the same. Come on, let us go over to the Aramaean camp; if they spare our lives, we live; if they kill us, well, then we die.'

2Ki 7:5 So at dusk they set out and made for the Aramaean camp, but when they reached the confines of the camp there was not a soul there.

2Ki 7:6 For Yahweh had caused the Aramaeans in their camp to hear a noise of chariots and horses, the noise of a great army; and they had said to one another, 'Listen! The king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings against us, to attack us.'

2Ki 7:7 So in the dusk they had made off and fled, abandoning their tents, their horses and their donkeys; leaving the camp just as it was, they had fled for their lives.

2Ki 7:8 The men with skin-disease, then, reached the confines of the camp. They went into one of the tents and ate and drank, and from it carried off silver and gold and clothing; these they took and hid. Then they came back and, entering another tent, looted it too, and took and hid their booty.

2Ki 7:9 Then they said to one another, 'We are doing wrong. This is a day of good news, yet we are holding our tongues! If we wait till morning, we shall certainly be punished. Come on, let us go and take the news to the palace.'

2Ki 7:10 Off they went and shouted out to the guards on the city gate, 'We have been to the Aramaean camp. There was not a soul there, no sound of anyone, only tethered horses and tethered donkeys, and their tents just as they were.'

2Ki 7:11 The gatekeepers shouted the news, which was reported inside the palace.

2Ki 7:12 The king got up while it was still dark and said to his officers, 'I can tell you what the Aramaeans have done to us. They know we are starving, so they have left the camp to hide in the open country. "They will come out of the city," they think, "we shall catch them alive and get into the city."'

2Ki 7:13 One of his officers replied, 'Five of the surviving horses still left us had better be taken -- they would die in any case like all the rest. Let us send them and see.'

2Ki 7:14 So they took two chariot teams and the king sent them after the Aramaean army, saying, 'Go and see.'

2Ki 7:15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, finding the whole way strewn with clothes and gear which the Aramaeans had thrown away in their panic. The scouts returned and informed the king.

2Ki 7:16 Then the people went out and plundered the Aramaean camp: a measure of finest flour sold for one shekel, and two measures of barley for one shekel, as Yahweh had promised they would.

2Ki 7:17 The king had detailed the equerry, on whose arm he leaned, as commander of the guard on the gate, but the people trampled on him in the gateway and he died, as the man of God had foretold when the king had come down to him.

2Ki 7:18 (What Elisha had said to the king came true, 'Two measures of barley will sell for one shekel, and a measure of finest flour for one shekel, by this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria.'

2Ki 7:19 And the equerry in question had replied to the man of God, 'Even if Yahweh made windows in the sky, could this word come true?' 'You will see it with your own eyes,' Elisha had answered, 'though you will eat none of it.'

2Ki 7:20 And that was what happened to him: for the people trampled on him in the gateway and he died.)

2Ki 8:1 Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had raised to life, 'Move away with your family, and live where you can in some foreign country, for Yahweh has called up a famine -- it is already coming on the country -- for seven years.'

2Ki 8:2 The woman hurried to do what the man of God had told her: she set out, she and her family, and for seven years she lived in Philistine territory.

2Ki 8:3 When the seven years were over, the woman returned from Philistine territory and went to lodge a claim with the king for her house and land.

2Ki 8:4 Now the king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God. 'Tell me', he was saying, 'all about the marvels which Elisha did.'

2Ki 8:5 Gehazi was just telling the king how Elisha had raised the dead child to life, when the woman whose son Elisha had raised lodged her claim with the king for her house and land. 'My lord king,' Gehazi said, 'this is the very woman, and that is her son whom Elisha raised to life.'

2Ki 8:6 The king questioned the woman, who told him the story. The king then delegated one of the officials to her with this order, 'See that all her property is restored to her, and all the revenue from her land from the day she left the country until now.'

2Ki 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus. Ben-Hadad king of Aram was ill, and was told, 'The man of God has come all the way to us.'

2Ki 8:8 Then the king said to Hazael, 'Take a present with you and go and meet the man of God; consult

Yahweh through him, and find out if I shall recover from my illness.'

2Ki 8:9 So Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a present the best that Damascus could offer, a load for forty camels. He arrived and, presenting himself, said, 'Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask you, "Shall I recover from my illness?"'

2Ki 8:10 Elisha replied, 'Go and tell him, "You might recover," though Yahweh has shown me that he will certainly die.'

2Ki 8:11 Then the face of the man of God went rigid, and his look grew strangely fixed, and he wept.

2Ki 8:12 'Why', Hazael asked, 'does my lord weep?' 'Because I know', Elisha replied, 'what harm you will do to the Israelites: you will burn down their fortresses, put their picked warriors to the sword, dash their little children to pieces, disembowel their pregnant women.'

2Ki 8:13 'But what is your servant?' Hazael said. 'How could this dog achieve anything so great?' 'In a vision from Yahweh,' Elisha replied, 'I have seen you king of Aram.'

2Ki 8:14 Leaving Elisha, Hazael went back to his master who asked, 'What did Elisha say to you?' He replied, 'He told me that you might recover.'

2Ki 8:15 Next day he took a blanket, soaked it in water, and spread it over his face. So died Ben-Hadad, and Hazael succeeded him.

2Ki 8:16 In the fifth year of Jehoram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah.

2Ki 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

2Ki 8:18 He followed the example of the kings of Israel as the House of Ahab were doing; he had married one of Ahab's daughters; and he did what is displeasing to Yahweh.

2Ki 8:19 But Yahweh was unwilling to destroy Judah, because of his servant David, and was faithful to the promise which he had made him to leave him a lamp for ever in his presence.

2Ki 8:20 In his time Edom threw off the domination of Judah and set up a king for itself.

2Ki 8:21 Jehoram crossed to Zair, and with him all the chariots . . . Under cover of dark, he and his chariot commanders broke through the Edomites surrounding him; the people fled to their tents.

2Ki 8:22 Even so, Edom threw off the domination of Judah, remaining free to the present day. Libnah also revolted at that time.

2Ki 8:23 The rest of the history of Jehoram, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 8:24 Then Jehoram fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried with them in the City of David; his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

2Ki 8:25 In the twelfth year of Jehoram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, became king.

2Ki 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

2Ki 8:27 He followed the example of the House of Ahab and did what is displeasing to Yahweh, as the House of Ahab were doing, to whom he was related by marriage.

2Ki 8:28 He went with Jehoram son of Ahab to make war on Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth in Gilead, but the Aramaeans wounded Jehoram.

2Ki 8:29 King Jehoram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, fighting against Hazael king of Aram. Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to visit Jehoram son of Ahab because he was ailing.

2Ki 9:1 The prophet Elisha summoned a member of the prophetic brotherhood to him, 'Hitch up your clothes, take this flask of oil, and go to Ramoth in Gilead.

2Ki 9:2 When you arrive there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. Then, when you find him, tell him to get up and leave his companions, and take him into an inner room.

2Ki 9:3 Take the flask of oil then and pour it over his head, and say, "Yahweh says this: I have anointed you king of Israel." Then open the door and flee as fast as you can.'

2Ki 9:4 The young man left for Ramoth in Gilead

2Ki 9:5 and when he arrived, found the senior officers of the army sitting together. 'I have a message for you, commander,' he said. 'For which of us?' asked Jehu. 'For you, commander,' he answered.

2Ki 9:6 Jehu then got up and went into the house. And the young man poured the oil on his head, saying, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I have anointed you king of Yahweh's people, of Israel.'

2Ki 9:7 You will strike down the family of Ahab your master, and I shall avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and all of Yahweh's servants, on Jezebel

2Ki 9:8 and on the whole family of Ahab. I shall destroy every manjack of Ahab's family, fettered or free in Israel.

2Ki 9:9 I shall make the House of Ahab like the House of Jeroboam son of Nebat and of Baasha son of Ahijah.

2Ki 9:10 As for Jezebel, the dogs will eat her in the field of Jezreel; no one will bury her.' 'With this, he opened the door and made his escape.

2Ki 9:11 Jehu came out to his master's officers. 'Is all well?' they asked him. 'Why did this madman come to you?' 'You know the fellow and how he talks,' he answered.

2Ki 9:12 'Evasion!' they cried, 'Come on, tell us.' He replied, 'He said this and that to me. He said, "Yahweh says this: I have anointed you king of Israel."'

2Ki 9:13 Whereupon they all took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps; they sounded the trumpet and shouted, 'Jehu is king!'

2Ki 9:14 Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi plotted against Jehoram. (At the time, Jehoram, with all Israel, was holding Ramoth in Gilead against an attack by Hazael king of Aram, 2Ki 9:15 but King Jehoram had gone back to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received from the Aramaeans while he was fighting against Hazael king of Aram.) 'If you agree,' Jehu said, 'let no one leave the town to go and take the news to Jezreel.'

2Ki 9:16 Jehu then mounted his chariot and left for Jezreel; Jehoram had taken to his bed there, and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to visit him.

2Ki 9:17 The lookout posted on the tower of Jezreel saw Jehu's troop approaching. 'I can see a body of men,' he shouted. Jehoram gave the order: 'Have a horseman sent to meet them and ask, "Is all well?"'

2Ki 9:18 The horseman went to meet Jehu and said, 'The king says, "Is all well?"' 'What has it to do with you whether all is well?' Jehu replied. 'Fall in behind me.' The lookout reported, 'The messenger has reached them and is not coming back.'

2Ki 9:19 The king sent a second horseman who reached them and said, 'The king says, "Is all well?"' 'What has it to do with you whether all is well?' Jehu replied. 'Fall in behind me.'

2Ki 9:20 The lookout reported, 'He has reached them and is not coming back. The manner of driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi: he drives like a madman.'

2Ki 9:21 'Harness!' Jehoram cried; and they harnessed his chariot. Then Jehoram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his chariot, set out to meet Jehu. They reached him in the field of Naboth of Jezreel.

2Ki 9:22 As soon as Jehoram saw Jehu he asked, 'Is all well, Jehu?' 'What a question!' he replied, 'when all the while the prostitutions and countless sorceries of your mother Jezebel go on.'

2Ki 9:23 At this, Jehoram wheeled and fled, saying to Ahaziah, 'Treason, Ahaziah!'

2Ki 9:24 But Jehu had drawn his bow; he struck Jehoram between the shoulder-blades, the arrow went through the king's heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

2Ki 9:25 'Pick him up,' Jehu said to Bidkar, his equerry, 'and throw him into the field of Naboth of Jezreel.

Remember how, when you and I manned a chariot together behind Ahab his father, Yahweh pronounced this sentence against him,

2Ki 9:26 "This I swear. Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons -- Yahweh says this. And in this same field I shall requite you -- Yahweh says this." So pick him up, and throw him into the field, as Yahweh declared should happen!"

2Ki 9:27 When Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled along the Beth-ha-Gan road, but Jehu went in pursuit of him. 'Strike him down too,' he said. And they wounded him in his chariot at the slope of Gur, which is near Ibleam, and he took refuge in Megiddo, where he died.

2Ki 9:28 His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb in the City of David.

2Ki 9:29 Ahaziah had become king of Judah in the eleventh year of Jehoram son of Ahab.

2Ki 9:30 When Jehu went back to Jezreel, Jezebel was told. She made up her eyes with mascara, adorned her head and appeared at the window.

2Ki 9:31 As Jehu came through the gateway she said, 'How did Zimri get on after killing his master?'

2Ki 9:32 Jehu looked up to the window and said, 'Who is on my side? Who?' And two or three officials looked down at him.

2Ki 9:33 'Throw her down,' he said. They threw her down and her blood spattered the walls and the horses; and Jehu rode over her.

2Ki 9:34 He went in and ate and drank, then said, 'See to this accursed woman, and give her burial; after all, she was a king's daughter.'

2Ki 9:35 But when they went to bury her, they found nothing but her skull, feet and hands.

2Ki 9:36 They came back and told Jehu, who said, 'This is the word of Yahweh which he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite, "The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel in the field of Jezreel;

2Ki 9:37 the corpse of Jezebel will be like dung spread on the fields, so that no one will be able to say: This was Jezebel."

2Ki 10:1 There were seventy of Ahab's sons in Samaria. Jehu sent to Samaria, to the authorities of the city, to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab's children. He said, 2Ki 10:2 'Now, when this letter reaches you, you have your master's sons with you; you also have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons.

2Ki 10:3 See which of your master's sons is the best and worthiest, put him on his father's throne and fight for your master's dynasty!'

2Ki 10:4 They were utterly terrified. 'We have seen how the two kings could not stand up to him,' they said, 'so how could we?'

2Ki 10:5 Consequently the master of the palace, the governor of the city, the elders and the guardians sent word to Jehu, 'We are your servants. We shall do whatever you order us. We shall not proclaim a king; act as you think best.'

2Ki 10:6 Jehu then wrote them a second letter. He said, 'If you are for me and if you are prepared to accept orders from me, take the heads of the men of your master's family and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow.' (There were seventy of Ahab's sons being educated there by the leading men of the city.)

2Ki 10:7 When this letter reached them, they took the king's sons and butchered all seventy of them, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

2Ki 10:8 The messenger came and told Jehu, 'They have brought the heads of the king's sons.' 'Leave them in two heaps at the entrance to the gate until morning,' he replied.

2Ki 10:9 When morning came, he went out and, standing, said to all the people, 'No guilt attaches to you! I did indeed plot against my master and have killed him; but what about all these? Who struck them?'

2Ki 10:10 Know, then, that nothing will fail to be fulfilled of the prophecy uttered by Yahweh against the House of Ahab; Yahweh has done what he said through his servant Elijah.'

2Ki 10:11 Jehu then killed every member of the House of Ahab surviving in Jezreel, all his leading men, his close friends, his priests; he did not leave a single one alive.

2Ki 10:12 Jehu then set out for Samaria. As he was on his way, at Beth-Eked of the Shepherds,

2Ki 10:13 he met the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah. 'Who are you?' he asked. 'We are Ahaziah's brothers,' they replied, 'and we are on our way to pay our respects to the king's sons and the queen mother's sons.'

2Ki 10:14 'Take them alive,' he said. They took them alive, and he slaughtered them at the storage-well of Beth-Eked, forty-two of them; he did not spare a single one.

2Ki 10:15 Leaving there, he came on Jehonadab son of Rechab who was on his way to meet him. He greeted him and said, 'Is your heart true to mine, as my heart is to yours?' Jehonadab replied, 'Yes.' 'If so,' Jehu said, 'give me your hand.' Jehonadab gave him his hand, and Jehu took him up beside him in his chariot.

2Ki 10:16 'Come with me,' he said, 'and witness my zeal for Yahweh,' and took him along in his chariot.

2Ki 10:17 When he entered Samaria, he killed all the survivors of Ahab's family there; he destroyed it, as Yahweh had told Elijah it would happen.

2Ki 10:18 Then Jehu assembled all the people. 'Ahab did Baal some small service,' he said, 'but Jehu will do him a great one.'

2Ki 10:19 Now call me all the prophets of Baal and all his priests. Not one is to be absent: I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. If anyone is absent, he will forfeit his life.' This was a trick on Jehu's part to destroy the devotees of Baal.

2Ki 10:20 'Summon a sacred assembly for Baal,' he commanded; and they summoned it.

2Ki 10:21 Jehu sent messengers throughout Israel, and all the devotees of Baal arrived, not a man was left who did not attend. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from wall to wall.

2Ki 10:22 Jehu then said to the keeper of the wardrobe, 'Bring out vestments for all the devotees of Baal'; he brought out the vestments for them.

2Ki 10:23 Jehu then went into the temple of Baal with Jehonadab son of Rechab and said to Baal's devotees, 'Make quite sure that there are no devotees of Yahweh in here with you, but only devotees of Baal.'

2Ki 10:24 He then proceeded to present sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty of his men outside, having said, 'Whoever lets one of the people go whom I am now putting within your clutches, will pay for it with his life.'

2Ki 10:25 When he had finished making the burnt offering, he gave the order to the guards and equerries, 'Go in, strike them down! Let no one out!' The guards and equerries went in, putting everyone to the sword all the way to the sanctuary of Baal's temple.

2Ki 10:26 They took the sacred pole out of Baal's temple and burned it.

2Ki 10:27 They demolished Baal's image and demolished Baal's temple too, making it into a latrine, which it still is today.

2Ki 10:28 Thus Jehu rid Israel of Baal.

2Ki 10:29 Even so, Jehu did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel, the golden calves of Bethel and Dan.

2Ki 10:30 Yahweh said to Jehu, 'Since you have done well in carrying out what pleases me, and have done everything I required to be done to the House of Ahab, your sons will occupy the throne of Israel down to the fourth generation.'

2Ki 10:31 Jehu, however, did not faithfully and wholeheartedly follow the law of Yahweh, God of Israel; he did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel.

2Ki 10:32 At that time Yahweh began to whittle Israel down, and Hazael defeated the Israelites throughout the territory east of the Jordan:

2Ki 10:33 the whole territory of Gilead -- of the Gadites, the Reubenites and the Manassehites -- from Aroer on the River Arnon: Gilead and Bashan.

2Ki 10:34 The rest of the history of Jehu, his entire career, all his prowess, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 10:35 Then he fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria; his son Jehoahaz succeeded him.

2Ki 10:36 Jehu's reign over Israel in Samaria lasted twenty-eight years.

2Ki 11:1 When Athaliah mother of Ahaziah learned that her son was dead, she promptly murdered all those of royal stock.

2Ki 11:2 But Jehosheba, daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, surreptitiously rescued Jehoash son of Ahaziah from among the princes who were to be murdered, and put him with his nurse in the sleeping quarters; in this way she hid him from Athaliah, and he was not killed.

2Ki 11:3 He stayed, hidden with her in the Temple of Yahweh for six years, while Athaliah governed the country.

2Ki 11:4 In the seventh year, Jehoiada sent for the regimental commanders of the Carians and the guards, and had them brought to him in the Temple of Yahweh. He made a pact with them, put them on oath, then showed them the king's son. He gave them this order,

2Ki 11:5 'This is what you must do: a third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath must mount guard at the royal palace,

2Ki 11:6

2Ki 11:7 and your two other sections who come off duty on the Sabbath and mount guard at the Temple of Yahweh

2Ki 11:8 must surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; anyone forcing his way through the ranks is to be killed. And you will escort the king as he leaves and as he comes in.'

2Ki 11:9 The regimental commanders did everything as Jehoiada the priest had ordered, and each one brought his men, those coming on duty on the Sabbath and those going off duty on the Sabbath, and reported to Jehoiada the priest.

2Ki 11:10 The priest then issued the regimental commanders with King David's spears and shields, which were kept in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 11:11 The guards then took position, each man with his weapons in his hand, from the south corner of the Temple to the north corner of the Temple, all round the altar and the Temple.

2Ki 11:12 Then Jehoiada brought the king's son out -- crowned him and gave him a copy of the covenant; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and shouted, 'Long live the king!'

2Ki 11:13 On hearing the people shouting, Athaliah joined the people in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 11:14 When she looked, there stood the king on a dais, as the custom was, with the officers and trumpeters at the king's side, and all the people of the country rejoicing and blowing the trumpets; then Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, 'Treason, treason!'

2Ki 11:15 Jehoiada the priest then gave the orders to the commanders in charge of the troops, 'Take her out under guard and put to death anyone who follows her.' 'For', the priest had already said, 'she must not be killed inside the Temple of Yahweh.'

2Ki 11:16 They seized her, and when she reached the horses' entry to the palace, she was killed there.

2Ki 11:17 Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh, the king and the people that they would remain Yahweh's people; and another one between the king and the people.

2Ki 11:18 All the people of the country then went to the temple of Baal and demolished it; they smashed its altars and its images and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars. The priest made arrangements for the security of the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 11:19 He then took the regimental commanders, the Carians, the guards and all the people of the country, and they escorted the king down from the Temple of Yahweh, entering the palace through the Gate of the Guards. Jehoash took his seat on the throne of the kings.

2Ki 11:20 All the people of the country were delighted; the city, however, made no move. And Athaliah was put to death inside the palace.

2Ki 12:1 Jehoash was seven years old when he came to the throne.

2Ki 12:2 Jehoash became king in the seventh year of Jehu, and reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2Ki 12:3 All his life Jehoash did what Yahweh regards as right, having been instructed by Jehoiada the priest.

2Ki 12:4 The high places, however, were not abolished, and the people still offered sacrifices and incense on the high places.

2Ki 12:5 Jehoash said to the priests, 'All the money from the sacred revenues brought to the Temple of

Yahweh, the money from personal taxes, and all the money voluntarily offered to the Temple-
2Ki 12:6 the priests are to receive this individually from people of their acquaintance and will carry out all the repairs to the Temple which need to be made.'

2Ki 12:7 Now in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had done no repairs to the Temple;
2Ki 12:8 so King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests. 'Why are you not repairing the Temple?' he asked. 'You are no longer to accept money from people of your acquaintance but are to hand it over for the Temple repairs.'

2Ki 12:9 The priests agreed to accept no money from the people and no longer to be responsible for repairs to the Temple.

2Ki 12:10 Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in the lid and placed it beside the pillar, to the right of the entry to the Temple of Yahweh; in it the priests who guarded the threshold put all the money which was given for the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 12:11 Whenever they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the king's secretary would come, and they would empty it out and reckon the money then in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 12:12 Once checked, they paid this money over to the masters of works attached to the Temple of Yahweh, and these in turn spent it on carpenters and builders working on the Temple of Yahweh, 2Ki 12:13 on masons and stonecutters, and on buying timber and dressed stone to be used for repairs to the Temple of Yahweh; in short, for all the costs of the Temple repairs.

2Ki 12:14 But no silver basins, knives, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or gold or silver objects were made for the Temple of Yahweh out of the money presented, 2Ki 12:15 which was all given to the masters of works for repairing the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 12:16 No accounts were kept with the men to whom the money was paid over to be spent on the workmen, since they were honest in their work.

2Ki 12:17 Money offered in expiation of an offence or of a sin was not given to the Temple of Yahweh; that was for the priests.

2Ki 12:18 At that time Hazael king of Aram went to war against Gath, and captured it; he then prepared to attack Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:19 Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred offerings dedicated by his ancestors, the kings of Judah, Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, with those which he himself had dedicated, and all the gold which was to be found in the treasuries of the Temple of Yahweh and of the palace; he sent it all to Hazael king of Aram, who retired from Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:20 The rest of the history of Joash, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 12:21 His own retainers rebelled and hatched a plot; they murdered Joash in the palace of the Millo . . .

2Ki 12:22 Jozacar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer were the retainers who struck the blows from which he died. He was buried with his ancestors in the City of David; his son Amaziah succeeded him.

2Ki 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria. He reigned for seventeen years.

2Ki 13:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh and copied the sin into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel; he did not give it up.

2Ki 13:3 This aroused Yahweh's anger against the Israelites, and he delivered them without respite into the power of Hazael king of Aram and of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael.

2Ki 13:4 Jehoahaz, however, tried to placate Yahweh, and Yahweh heard him, for he had seen the oppression which the king of Aram was inflicting on Israel.

2Ki 13:5 Yahweh gave Israel a saviour who freed them from the grip of Aram, and the Israelites lived in their tents as in the past.

2Ki 13:6 But they did not give up the sin into which Jeroboam had led Israel; they persisted in it, and even the sacred pole stayed standing in Samaria.

2Ki 13:7 Of Jehoahaz's army Yahweh left only fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers. The king of Aram had destroyed them, making them like dust trampled under foot.

2Ki 13:8 The rest of the history of Jehoahaz, his entire career, his prowess, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:9 Then Jehoahaz fell asleep with his ancestors, and was buried in Samaria; his son Joash succeeded him.

2Ki 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, became king of Israel in Samaria. He reigned for sixteen years.

2Ki 13:11 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, he did not give up the sin into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel; he persisted in it.

2Ki 13:12 The rest of the history of Joash, his entire career, his prowess, how he waged war on Amaziah king of Judah, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 13:13 Then Joash fell asleep with his ancestors, and Jeroboam ascended his throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:14 When Elisha had fallen ill of the illness of which he was to die, Joash king of Israel went down to him and shedding tears over him said, 'Father! Father! Chariot of Israel and its chargers!'

2Ki 13:15 Elisha said to him, 'Bring bow and arrows,' and he sent for a bow and arrows.

2Ki 13:16 Then Elisha said to the king, 'Draw the bow,' and he drew it. Elisha put his hands over the hands of the king,

2Ki 13:17 then he said, 'Open the window towards the east,' and he opened it. Then Elisha said, 'Shoot!' And he shot. Elisha said, 'Arrow of victory over Aram! You will defeat Aram at Aphek-completely.'

2Ki 13:18 Elisha said, 'Take the arrows,' and he took them. Then he said to the king, 'Strike the ground,' and he struck it three times, then stopped.

2Ki 13:19 At this the man of God grew angry with him. 'You should have struck half a dozen times,' he said, 'and you would have beaten Aram completely; now you will beat Aram only three times.'

2Ki 13:20 Elisha died and was buried. Bands of Moabites were making incursions into the country every year.

2Ki 13:21 Some people happened to be carrying a man out for burial; at the sight of one of these bands, they flung the man into the tomb of Elisha and made off. The man had no sooner touched the bones of Elisha than he came to life and stood up on his feet.

2Ki 13:22 Hazael king of Aram had oppressed the Israelites throughout the lifetime of Jehoahaz, 2Ki 13:23 but Yahweh was kind and took pity on them. Because of the covenant which he had made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, he relented towards them; he had no wish to destroy them, he did not cast them out of his presence.

2Ki 13:24 Hazael king of Aram died, and his son Ben-Hadad succeeded him.

2Ki 13:25 From Ben-Hadad son of Hazael, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured the towns which Hazael had seized from his father Jehoahaz by force of arms. Joash defeated him three times and recovered the Israelite towns.

2Ki 14:1 In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah.

2Ki 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

2Ki 14:3 He did what Yahweh regards as right, though not like his ancestor David; he imitated his father Joash in all respects.

2Ki 14:4 The high places, however, were not abolished, and the people still offered sacrifices and incense on the high places.

2Ki 14:5 Once the kingdom was firmly under his control, he killed those of his retainers who had murdered the king his father.

2Ki 14:6 But he did not put the murderers' sons to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of Moses, where Yahweh has commanded: 'Parents may not be put to death for their children, nor children for parents, but each must be put to death for his own crime.'

2Ki 14:7 It was he who slaughtered the Edomites in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand of them, and captured the Rock; he gave it the name Joktheel, which it bears to the present day.

2Ki 14:8 Amaziah then sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, saying, 'Come and make a trial of strength!'

2Ki 14:9 Jehoash king of Israel sent back word to Amaziah king of Judah, 'The thistle of Lebanon sent a message to the cedar of Lebanon, saying, "Give my son your daughter in marriage"; but a wild animal of the Lebanon ran over the thistle and squashed it.'

2Ki 14:10 You have conquered Edom and now aspire to even greater glory. Stay where you belong! Why provoke disaster, to your own and Judah's ruin?'

2Ki 14:11 But Amaziah would not listen, so Jehoash king of Israel marched to the attack. And at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah, he and Amaziah king of Judah made their trial of strength.

2Ki 14:12 Judah was defeated by Israel, and everyone fled to his tent.

2Ki 14:13 The king of Judah, Amaziah son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, was taken prisoner at Beth-Shemesh by Jehoash king of Israel who led him off to Jerusalem, where he demolished four hundred cubits of the city wall between the Ephraim Gate and the Corner Gate;

2Ki 14:14 all the gold and silver, and all the vessels to be found in the Temple of Yahweh and in the palace treasury, and hostages besides, he then took back with him to Samaria.

2Ki 14:15 The rest of the history of Jehoash, his entire career, his prowess, how he waged war on Amaziah king of Judah, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:16 Then Joash fell asleep with his ancestors, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; his son

Jeroboam succeeded him.

2Ki 14:17 Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ki 14:18 The rest of the history of Amaziah, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 14:19 A plot having been hatched against him in Jerusalem, he fled to Lachish; but he was followed to Lachish where he was murdered.

2Ki 14:20 He was then transported by horse and buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the City of David.

2Ki 14:21 All the people of Judah then chose Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in succession to his father Amaziah.

2Ki 14:22 It was he who rebuilt Elath, recovering it for Judah, after the king had fallen asleep with his ancestors.

2Ki 14:23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joash became king of Israel in Samaria. He reigned for forty-one years.

2Ki 14:24 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh and did not give up any of the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel.

2Ki 14:25 It was he who recovered the territory of Israel from the Pass of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, in accordance with the word which Yahweh, God of Israel, had spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amitai, the prophet from Gath-Hepher.

2Ki 14:26 For Yahweh had seen how very bitter the affliction of Israel was, with no one, either fettered or free, to come to Israel's help.

2Ki 14:27 But Yahweh had resolved not to blot out the name of Israel under heaven; he rescued them by means of Jeroboam son of Joash.

2Ki 14:28 The rest of the history of Jeroboam, his entire career, his prowess, what wars he waged, how he brought Damascus and Hamath back to their allegiance to Judah and Israel, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2Ki 14:29 Then Jeroboam fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; his son Zechariah succeeded him.

2Ki 15:1 In the seventeenth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Uzziah son of Amaziah became king of Judah.

2Ki 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2Ki 15:3 He did what Yahweh regards as right, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2Ki 15:4 The high places, however, were not abolished, and the people still offered sacrifices and incense on the high places.

2Ki 15:5 But Yahweh struck the king, and he was afflicted with a virulent skin-disease till his dying day. He lived confined to his room, while Jotham the king's son, who was master of the palace, governed the country.

2Ki 15:6 The rest of the history of Uzziah, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 15:7 Then Uzziah fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David; his son Jotham then succeeded him.

2Ki 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of Uzziah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria for six months.

2Ki 15:9 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, as his fathers had done; he did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel. Shallum son of Jabesh plotted against him, murdered him at Ibleam, 2Ki 15:10 and succeeded him.

2Ki 15:11 The rest of the history of Zechariah is recorded in the Book of Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:12 This was the word which Yahweh had spoken to Jehu, 'Your sons will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.' And so it turned out.

2Ki 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah and reigned for one month in Samaria.

2Ki 15:14 Then Menahem son of Gadi marched from Tirzah, entered Samaria, murdered Shallum son of Jabesh there and succeeded him.

2Ki 15:15 The rest of the history of Shallum, and the plot he hatched, is recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:16 Menahem then sacked Tappuah -- killing all who were in it -- and its territory from Tirzah onwards, because it had not opened its gates to him; he sacked the town and disembowelled all the pregnant women.

2Ki 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel. He reigned for ten years in Samaria.

2Ki 15:18 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, he did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel. In his days

- 2Ki 15:19 Pul king of Assyria invaded the country. Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver in return for his support in strengthening his hold on the royal power.
- 2Ki 15:20 Menahem levied this sum from Israel, from all the men of rank, at the rate of fifty shekels a head, to be given to the king of Assyria, who then withdrew and did not stay in the country.
- 2Ki 15:21 The rest of the history of Menahem, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?
- 2Ki 15:22 Then Menahem fell asleep with his ancestors; his son Pekahiah succeeded him.
- 2Ki 15:23 In the fiftieth year of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria. He reigned for two years.
- 2Ki 15:24 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh; he did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel.
- 2Ki 15:25 Pekah son of Remaliah, his equerry, plotted against him and assassinated him in the palace keep . . . He had fifty Gileadites with him. He killed the king and succeeded him.
- 2Ki 15:26 The rest of the history of Pekahiah, his entire career, is recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.
- 2Ki 15:27 In the fifty-second year of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria. He reigned for twenty years.
- 2Ki 15:28 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh; he did not give up the sins into which Jeroboam son of Nebat had led Israel.
- 2Ki 15:29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-Beth-Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead and Galilee -- the whole territory of Naphtali and deported the population to Assyria.
- 2Ki 15:30 Hoshea son of Elah hatched a plot against Pekah son of Remaliah; he murdered the king and succeeded him.
- 2Ki 15:31 The rest of the history of Pekah, his entire career, is recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.
- 2Ki 15:32 In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah.
- 2Ki 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.
- 2Ki 15:34 He did what Yahweh regards as right, just as his father Uzziah had done.
- 2Ki 15:35 The high places, however, were not abolished, and the people still offered sacrifices and incense on the high places. It was he who built the Upper Gate of the Temple of Yahweh.
- 2Ki 15:36 The rest of the history of Jotham, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?
- 2Ki 15:37 At that time Yahweh began sending Razon king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.
- 2Ki 15:38 Then Jotham fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David, his ancestor; his son Ahaz succeeded him.
- 2Ki 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah.
- 2Ki 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what Yahweh his God regards as right, as his ancestor David had done.
- 2Ki 16:3 He followed the example of the kings of Israel, even causing his son to pass through the fire of sacrifice, also copying the disgusting practices of the nations whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.
- 2Ki 16:4 He offered sacrifices and incense on the high places, on the hills and under every luxuriant tree.
- 2Ki 16:5 Then it was that Razon king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, launched their campaign against Jerusalem. They besieged it but could not reduce it.
- 2Ki 16:6 (At that time, the king of Edom recovered Elath for Edom; he drove the Judaeans out of Elath, and the Edomites occupied it and have been there ever since.)
- 2Ki 16:7 Ahaz then sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria to say, 'I am your servant and your son. Come and rescue me from the king of Aram and the king of Israel who are making war on me.'
- 2Ki 16:8 And Ahaz took what silver and gold was to be found in the Temple of Yahweh and in the palace treasury, and sent this as a present to the king of Assyria.
- 2Ki 16:9 The king of Assyria granted his request and, marching on Damascus, captured it; he deported its population to Kir and put Razon to death.
- 2Ki 16:10 When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, he saw the altar which was in Damascus. King Ahaz then sent a picture and model of the altar, with details of its construction, to Uriah the priest.
- 2Ki 16:11 Uriah the priest constructed the altar; all the instructions sent by King Ahaz from Damascus were carried out by Uriah the priest before King Ahaz returned from Damascus.

2Ki 16:12 When the king arrived from Damascus, he inspected the altar, he approached it and ascended it.
2Ki 16:13 And on the altar he made his burnt offering and his oblation; he poured out his libation and sprinkled the blood of his communion sacrifices.

2Ki 16:14 The altar which used to stand before Yahweh he removed from the front of the Temple, where it had stood between the new altar and the Temple of Yahweh, and placed it at the north side of the new altar.
2Ki 16:15 King Ahaz gave this order to Uriah the priest, 'In future you will present the morning burnt offering, the evening oblation, the king's burnt offering and oblation, the burnt offering, the oblation and the libations of all the people of the country on the large altar; on it you will pour out all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. As regards the bronze altar, I shall see to that.'

2Ki 16:16 Uriah the priest did everything that King Ahaz had ordered.

2Ki 16:17 King Ahaz broke up the wheeled stands; removed the crosspieces and the basins from them, and took the bronze Sea off the oxen supporting it, and rested it on the stone pavement.

2Ki 16:18 And from the Temple of Yahweh, in deference to the king of Assyria, he removed the dais for the throne which had been built inside, and the royal entrance on the outside.

2Ki 16:19 The rest of the history of Ahaz, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 16:20 Then Ahaz fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David; his son Hezekiah succeeded him.

2Ki 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and reigned for nine years.

2Ki 17:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, though not like the preceding kings of Israel.

2Ki 17:3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria made war on Hoshea who submitted to him and paid him tribute.

2Ki 17:4 But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was playing a double game with him; he had sent messengers to Sais, to the king of Egypt, and had not, as in previous years, handed over the tribute to the king of Assyria. For this the king of Assyria imprisoned him in chains.

2Ki 17:5 The king of Assyria invaded the whole country and, coming to Samaria, laid siege to it for three years.

2Ki 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah on the Habor, a river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2Ki 17:7 This happened because the Israelites had sinned against Yahweh their God who had brought them out of Egypt, out of the grip of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshipped other gods, 2Ki 17:8 they followed the practices of the nations which Yahweh had dispossessed for them.

2Ki 17:9 The Israelites spoke slightly of Yahweh their God. They built themselves high places wherever they lived, from watchtower to fortified town.

2Ki 17:10 They set up pillars and sacred poles for themselves on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree.

2Ki 17:11 They sacrificed on all the high places like the nations which Yahweh had expelled for them, and did wicked things there, provoking Yahweh's anger.

2Ki 17:12 They served idols, although Yahweh had told them, 'This you must not do.'

2Ki 17:13 And yet through all the prophets and the seers, Yahweh had given Israel and Judah this warning, 'Turn from your wicked ways and keep my commandments and my laws in accordance with the entire Law which I laid down for your fathers and delivered to them through my servants the prophets.'

2Ki 17:14 But they would not listen, they were as stubborn as their ancestors, who had no faith in Yahweh their God.

2Ki 17:15 They despised his laws and the covenant which he had made with their ancestors and the warnings which he had given them. Pursuing futility, they themselves became futile through copying the nations round them, although Yahweh had ordered them not to act as they did.

2Ki 17:16 They rejected all the commandments of Yahweh their God and cast themselves metal idols, two calves; they made themselves sacred poles, they worshipped the whole array of heaven, and they served Baal.

2Ki 17:17 They caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire of sacrifice, also they practised divination and sorcery, they sold themselves to doing what displeases Yahweh, provoking his anger.

2Ki 17:18 Because of which, Yahweh became enraged with Israel and thrust them away from him. The tribe of Judah was the only one left.

2Ki 17:19 Judah did not keep the commandments of Yahweh their God either but copied the practices which Israel had introduced.

2Ki 17:20 Yahweh rejected the whole race of Israel; he brought them low, delivering them into the hands of marauders, until at length he thrust them away from him.

2Ki 17:21 And indeed he had torn Israel away from the House of David, and they had made Jeroboam son of Nebat king; Jeroboam had drawn Israel away from Yahweh and led them into a great sin.

2Ki 17:22 The Israelites copied the sin which Jeroboam had committed; they did not give it up,

2Ki 17:23 until at length Yahweh thrust Israel away from him, as he had foretold through all his servants the prophets; he deported the Israelites from their own country to Assyria, where they have been ever since.

2Ki 17:24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites; these took possession of Samaria and lived in its towns.

2Ki 17:25 When they first came to live there, they did not worship Yahweh; hence, Yahweh set lions on them, which killed a number of them.

2Ki 17:26 Consequently, the king of Assyria was informed as follows, 'The nations whom you deported and settled in the towns of Samaria do not know how to worship the local god, and he has set lions on them; and now these are killing them because they do not know how to worship the local god.'

2Ki 17:27 So the king of Assyria gave this order, 'Send back one of the priests whom I deported from there; let him go and live there and teach them how to worship the local god.'

2Ki 17:28 Accordingly, one of the priests who had been deported from Samaria came to live in Bethel; he taught them how to worship Yahweh.

2Ki 17:29 Each nationality made gods of its own and put them in the shrines on the high places built by the Samaritans; each nationality did this in the towns where it lived.

2Ki 17:30 The people from Babylon had made a Succoth-Benoth, the people from Cuthah a Nergal, the people from Hamath an Ashima, 2Ki 17:31 the Avvites a Nibhaz and a Tartak; while the Sepharvites caused their children to pass through the fire of sacrifice to Adrammelech and Anammelech, gods of Sepharvaim.

2Ki 17:32 They worshipped Yahweh as well, and they appointed priests out of their own number for the high places, and these officiated in the shrines on the high places.

2Ki 17:33 They worshipped Yahweh and served their own gods at the same time, with the rites of the countries from which they had been deported.

2Ki 17:34 They still follow their old rites even now. They did not worship Yahweh and did not conform to his statutes or ritual, or the law or the commandments, which Yahweh had laid down for the sons of Jacob to whom he gave the name Israel.

2Ki 17:35 Yahweh had made a covenant with them and had given them this command, 'You are not to worship alien gods, you are not to bow down to them or serve them or offer them sacrifices.'

2Ki 17:36 You are to bow down and offer sacrifice only to Yahweh who brought you out of Egypt with great power and outstretched arm.

2Ki 17:37 You are to observe the statutes and ritual, the law and the commandments which he has given you in writing and to which you are always to conform; you are not to worship alien gods.

2Ki 17:38 Do not forget the covenant which I have made with you, and do not venerate alien gods.

2Ki 17:39 But venerate Yahweh your God, and he will deliver you from the clutches of all your enemies.'

2Ki 17:40 But they would not listen and still followed their old rites.

2Ki 17:41 These nationalities, then, worshipped Yahweh and served their idols as well, as did their children; and their children's children still behave today as their ancestors behaved in the past.

2Ki 18:1 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz became king of Judah.

2Ki 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2Ki 18:3 He did what Yahweh regards as right, just as his ancestor David had done.

2Ki 18:4 He abolished the high places, broke the pillars, cut down the sacred poles and smashed the bronze serpent which Moses had made; for up to that time the Israelites had offered sacrifices to it; it was called Nehushtan.

2Ki 18:5 He put his trust in Yahweh, God of Israel. No king of Judah after him could be compared with him -- nor any of those before him.

2Ki 18:6 He was devoted to Yahweh, never turning from him, but keeping the commandments which Yahweh had laid down for Moses.

2Ki 18:7 And so Yahweh was with him, and he was successful in all that he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and refused to serve him.

2Ki 18:8 He beat the Philistines back to Gaza, laying their territory waste from watchtower to fortified town.

2Ki 18:9 In the fourth year of Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched on Samaria and laid siege to it.

2Ki 18:10 He captured it after three years. Samaria fell in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel.

2Ki 18:11 The king of Assyria deported the Israelites to Assyria and settled them in Halah on the Habor, a river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2Ki 18:12 This happened because they had not obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God and had broken his covenant, everything that Moses servant of Yahweh had laid down. They neither listened to it nor put it into practice.

2Ki 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria advanced on all the fortified towns of Judah and captured them.

2Ki 18:14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish, 'I have been at fault. Call off the attack, and I will submit to whatever you impose on me.' The king of Assyria exacted three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold from Hezekiah king of Judah, 2Ki 18:15 and Hezekiah gave him all the silver in the Temple of Yahweh and in the palace treasury.

2Ki 18:16 At which time, Hezekiah stripped the facing from the leaves and jambs of the doors of the Temple of Yahweh, which an earlier king of Judah had put on, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2Ki 18:17 From Lachish the king of Assyria sent the cupbearer-in-chief with a large force to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. He marched on Jerusalem and, on his arrival, took up position near the conduit of the upper pool which is on the road to the Fuller's Field.

2Ki 18:18 He summoned the king. The master of the palace, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebnah the secretary and the herald Joah son of Asaph went out to him.

2Ki 18:19 The cupbearer-in-chief said to them, 'Say to Hezekiah, "The great king, the king of Assyria, says this: What makes you so confident?"

2Ki 18:20 Do you think empty words are as good as strategy and military strength? Who are you relying on, to dare to rebel against me?

2Ki 18:21 There you are, relying on that broken reed Egypt, which pricks and pierces the hand of whoever leans on it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like to all who rely on him.

2Ki 18:22 You may say to me: We rely on Yahweh our God. But have his high places and altars not been suppressed by Hezekiah who told Judah and Jerusalem: Here, in Jerusalem, is the altar before which you must worship?

2Ki 18:23 Very well, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find horsemen to ride them.

2Ki 18:24 How could you repel a single one of the least of my master's soldiers? And yet you have relied on Egypt for chariots and horsemen.

2Ki 18:25 And lastly, have I marched on this place to lay it waste without warrant from Yahweh? Yahweh himself said to me: March on this country and lay it waste."

2Ki 18:26 Eliakim, Shebnah and Joah said to the cupbearer-in-chief, 'Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the Judaean language within earshot of the people on the ramparts.'

2Ki 18:27 But the cupbearer-in-chief said, 'Do you think my lord sent me here to say these things to your master or to you? On the contrary, it was to the people sitting on the ramparts who, like you, are doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine.'

2Ki 18:28 The cupbearer-in-chief then drew himself up and shouted loudly in the Judaean language, 'Listen to the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.'

2Ki 18:29 The king says this, "Do not let Hezekiah delude you. He will be powerless to save you from my clutches.

2Ki 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to rely on Yahweh by saying: Yahweh is sure to save us; this city will not fall into the king of Assyria's clutches.

2Ki 18:31 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for the king of Assyria says this: Make peace with me, surrender to me, and every one of you will be free to eat the fruit of his own vine and of his own fig tree and to drink the water of his own storage-well

2Ki 18:32 until I come and take you away to a country like your own, a land of corn and good wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil and honey: and so you will survive and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah; he is deluding you when he says: Yahweh will save us.

2Ki 18:33 Has any god of any nation been able to save his country from the king of Assyria's clutches?

2Ki 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and Ivvah? Where are the local gods of Samaria? Did they save Samaria from my clutches?

2Ki 18:35 Of all the local gods, which ones have saved their countries from my clutches, for Yahweh to be able to save Jerusalem from my clutches?"'

2Ki 18:36 The people, however, kept quiet and said nothing in reply, since the king had given the order, 'You are not to answer him.'

2Ki 18:37 The master of the palace, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebnah the secretary and the herald Joah son of Asaph, with their clothes torn, went to Hezekiah and reported what the cupbearer-in-chief had said.

2Ki 19:1 On hearing this, King Hezekiah tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and went to the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 19:2 He sent Eliakim master of the palace, Shebnah the secretary and the elders of the priests, wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Ki 19:3 They said to him, 'This is what Hezekiah says, "Today is a day of suffering, of punishment, of disgrace.

Children come to birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

2Ki 19:4 May Yahweh your God hear the words of the cupbearer-in-chief whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to insult the living God, and may Yahweh your God punish the words he has heard. Offer your prayer for the remnant still remaining."

2Ki 19:5 King Hezekiah's ministers went to Isaiah,

2Ki 19:6 and Isaiah said to them, 'Say to your master, "Yahweh says this: Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard or the blasphemies which the king of Assyria's minions have uttered against me.

2Ki 19:7 Look, I am going to put a spirit in him and, on the strength of a rumour, he will go back to his own country, and in that country I shall make him fall by the sword."

2Ki 19:8 The cupbearer turned about and rejoined the king of Assyria, who was then attacking Libnah, as the cupbearer had learnt that the king had already left Lachish

2Ki 19:9 on hearing that Tirhakah king of Cush was on his way to attack him.

2Ki 19:10 Sennacherib again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 'Tell Hezekiah king of Judah this, "Do not let your God on whom you are relying deceive you with the promise: Jerusalem will not fall into the king of Assyria's clutches.

2Ki 19:11 You have learnt by now what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries, devoting them to destruction. Are you likely to be saved?

2Ki 19:12 Did the gods of the nations whom my ancestors devastated save them-Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the Edenites who were in Tel Basar?

2Ki 19:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of Lair, of Sepharvaim, of Hena, of Ivvah?" '

2Ki 19:14 Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers' hands and read it; he then went up to the Temple of Yahweh and spread it out before Yahweh.

2Ki 19:15 Hezekiah said this prayer in the presence of Yahweh, 'Yahweh Sabaoth, God of Israel, enthroned on the winged creatures, you alone are God of all the kingdoms of the world, you made heaven and earth.

2Ki 19:16 Give ear, Yahweh, and listen; open your eyes, Yahweh, and see! Hear the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to insult the living God.

2Ki 19:17 It is true, Yahweh, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations, 2Ki 19:18 they have thrown their gods on the fire, for these were not gods but human artefacts -- wood and stone -- and hence they have destroyed them.

2Ki 19:19 But now, Yahweh our God, save us from his clutches, I beg you, and let all the kingdoms of the world know that you alone are God, Yahweh.'

2Ki 19:20 Isaiah son of Amoz then sent the following message to Hezekiah, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "I have heard the prayer which you have addressed to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria."

2Ki 19:21 Here is the pronouncement which Yahweh has made about him: "She despises you, she scorns you, the virgin daughter of Zion; she tosses her head at you, the daughter of Jerusalem!

2Ki 19:22 Whom have you insulted, whom have you blasphemed? Against whom raised your voice and lifted your haughty eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2Ki 19:23 Through your envoys you have insulted the Lord, thinking: With my many chariots I have climbed the mountain-tops, the utmost peaks of Lebanon. I have felled its mighty cedars, its finest cypresses, have reached its furthest recesses, its forest garden.

2Ki 19:24 Yes, I have dug and drunk of foreign waters; under the soles of my feet I have dried up all Egypt's rivers.

2Ki 19:25 "Do you hear? Long ago I prepared this, from days of old I actually planned it, now I carry it out. You were to lay walled cities in heaps of ruins;

2Ki 19:26 that was why their inhabitants, feeble of hand, were dismayed and discomfited, were weak as grass, were frail as plants, were like grass of housetop and meadow under the east wind.

2Ki 19:27 But whether you stand up or you sit down, whether you go out or you come in, I know it.

2Ki 19:28 Because you have raved against me, and your arrogance has reached my ears, I shall put a hook through your nostrils and a muzzle on your lips, and make you return by the road by which you came.

2Ki 19:29 "And this will be the sign for you: this year will be eaten the self-sown grain, next year what sprouts in the fallow; but in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

2Ki 19:30 The surviving remnant of the House of Judah will bring forth new roots below and fruits above;

2Ki 19:31 for a remnant will issue from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion. Yahweh Sabaoth's jealous love will accomplish this.

2Ki 19:32 "This, then, is what Yahweh says about the king of Assyria: "He will not enter this city, will shoot no arrow at it, confront it with no shield, throw up no earthwork against it.

2Ki 19:33 By the road by which he came, by that he will return; he will not enter this city, declares Yahweh.

2Ki 19:34 I shall protect this city and save it for my sake and my servant David's sake."

2Ki 19:35 That same night the angel of Yahweh went out and struck down a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. In the early morning when it was time to get up, there they lay, so many corpses.

2Ki 19:36 Sennacherib struck camp and left; he returned home and stayed in Nineveh.

2Ki 19:37 One day when he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped into the territory of Ararat. His son Esarhaddon succeeded him.

2Ki 20:1 About then Hezekiah fell ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, 'Yahweh says this, "Put your affairs in order, for you are going to die, you will not live." '

2Ki 20:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and addressed this prayer to Yahweh, 2Ki 20:3 'Ah, Yahweh, remember, I beg you, that I have behaved faithfully and with sincerity of heart in your presence and done what you regard as right.' And Hezekiah shed many tears.

2Ki 20:4 Isaiah had not left the middle court, before the word of Yahweh came to him,

2Ki 20:5 'Go back and say to Hezekiah, prince of my people, "Yahweh, the God of your ancestor David, says this: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I shall cure you: in three days' time you will go up to the Temple of Yahweh."

2Ki 20:6 I shall add fifteen years to your life. I shall save you and this city from the king of Assyria's clutches and defend this city for my sake and my servant David's sake."

2Ki 20:7 'Bring a fig poultice,' Isaiah said; they brought one, applied it to the ulcer, and the king recovered.

2Ki 20:8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, 'What is the sign to tell me that Yahweh will cure me and that I shall be going up to the Temple of Yahweh in three days' time?'

2Ki 20:9 'Here', Isaiah replied, 'is the sign from Yahweh that he will do what he has said; would you like the shadow to go forward ten steps, or to go back ten steps?'

2Ki 20:10 'It is easy for the shadow to lengthen ten steps,' Hezekiah replied. 'No, I would rather the shadow went back ten steps.'

2Ki 20:11 The prophet Isaiah then called on Yahweh, who made the shadow cast by the declining sun on the steps -- the steps to Ahaz's roof-room -- go back ten steps.

2Ki 20:12 At that time the king of Babylon, Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard of his illness and his recovery.

2Ki 20:13 Hezekiah was delighted at this and showed the ambassadors his entire treasury, the silver, gold, spices, precious oil, his armoury too, and everything to be seen in his storehouses. There was nothing in his palace or in his whole domain that Hezekiah did not show them.

2Ki 20:14 The prophet Isaiah then came to King Hezekiah and asked him, 'What have these men said, and where have they come from?' Hezekiah answered, 'They have come from a distant country, from Babylon.'

2Ki 20:15 Isaiah said, 'What have they seen in your palace?' 'They have seen everything in my palace,' Hezekiah answered. 'There is nothing in my storehouses that I have not shown them.'

2Ki 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, 'Listen to the word of Yahweh, 2Ki 20:17 "The days are coming when everything in your palace, everything that your ancestors have amassed until now, will be carried off to Babylon. Not a thing will be left," Yahweh says.

2Ki 20:18 "Sons sprung from you, sons fathered by you, will be abducted to be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

2Ki 20:19 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, 'This word of Yahweh that you announce is reassuring,' for he was thinking, 'And why not? So long as there is peace and security during my lifetime.'

2Ki 20:20 The rest of the history of Hezekiah, all his prowess, how he constructed the pool and the conduit to bring water into the city, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 20:21 Then Hezekiah fell asleep with his ancestors; his son Manasseh succeeded him.

2Ki 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

2Ki 21:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, copying the disgusting practices of the nations whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.

2Ki 21:3 He rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had destroyed, he set up altars to Baal and made a sacred pole as Ahab king of Israel had done, he worshipped the whole array of heaven and served it.

2Ki 21:4 He built altars in the Temple of Yahweh of which Yahweh had said, 'Jerusalem is where I shall put my name.'

2Ki 21:5 He built altars to the whole array of heaven in the two courts of the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 21:6 He caused his son to pass through the fire of sacrifice, he also practised soothsaying and divination and set up mediums and spirit guides. He did very many more things displeasing to Yahweh, thus provoking his anger.

2Ki 21:7 He had an image of Asherah carved and placed it inside the Temple of which Yahweh had said to David and his son Solomon, 'In this Temple and in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my Name for ever.'

2Ki 21:8 Nor shall I ever again set Israel's footsteps wandering outside the country which I gave to their ancestors, provided they are careful to observe all I have commanded them as laid down in the whole Law which my servant Moses prescribed for them.'

2Ki 21:9 But they would not listen, and Manasseh misled them into doing worse things than the nations whom Yahweh had destroyed for the Israelites.

2Ki 21:10 Then Yahweh spoke through his servants the prophets as follows,

2Ki 21:11 'Since Manasseh king of Judah has done these shameful deeds, doing more wicked deeds than anything which the Amorites did before him, and has led Judah too into sin with his idols, 2Ki 21:12 Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "Look, I shall bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah as will make the ears of all who hear of it tingle.

2Ki 21:13 Over Jerusalem I shall stretch the same measuring line as over Samaria, the same plumb-rule as for the House of Ahab; I shall scour Jerusalem as someone scours a dish and, having scoured it, turns it upside down.

2Ki 21:14 I shall cast away the remnant of my heritage, delivering them into the clutches of their enemies and making them the prey and booty of all their enemies,

2Ki 21:15 because they have done what is displeasing to me and have provoked my anger from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt until now."

2Ki 21:16 Manasseh shed innocent blood, too, in such great quantity that he flooded Jerusalem from one end to the other, besides the sins into which he led Judah by doing what is displeasing to Yahweh.

2Ki 21:17 The rest of the history of Manasseh, his entire career, the sins he committed, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:18 Then Manasseh fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his palace, the Garden of Uzza; his son Amon succeeded him.

2Ki 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz, of Jotbah.

2Ki 21:20 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had done.

2Ki 21:21 In every respect he followed the example of his father, serving the idols which his father had served, and worshipping them.

2Ki 21:22 He abandoned Yahweh, God of his ancestors; he did not follow the way of Yahweh.

2Ki 21:23 Amon's retinue plotted against the king and killed him in his own palace.

2Ki 21:24 The people of the country, however, slaughtered all those who had plotted against King Amon and proclaimed his son Josiah as his successor.

2Ki 21:25 The rest of the history of Amon, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 21:26 He was buried in his father's tomb in the Garden of Uzza; his son Josiah succeeded him.

2Ki 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechilah daughter of Adaiah, of Bozkath.

2Ki 22:2 He did what Yahweh regards as right, and in every respect followed the example of his ancestor David, not deviating from it to right or left.

2Ki 22:3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent the secretary Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam to the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 22:4 'Go to Hilkiah the high priest,' he told him, 'and tell him to melt down the silver contributed to the Temple of Yahweh and collected by the guardians of the threshold from the people.'

2Ki 22:5 He is to hand it over to the masters of works attached to the Temple of Yahweh, for them to pay it over to men working on the Temple of Yahweh, to repair the damaged parts of the Temple:

2Ki 22:6 to the carpenters, builders and masons, and for buying timber and dressed stone for the Temple repairs.'

2Ki 22:7 The latter were not required to render account of the money handed over to them, since they were conscientious in their work.

2Ki 22:8 The high priest Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, 'I have found the Book of the Law in the Temple of Yahweh.' And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, who read it.

2Ki 22:9 Shaphan the secretary went to the king, reporting furthermore to him as follows, 'Your servants have melted down the silver which was in the Temple and have handed it over to the masters of works attached to the Temple of Yahweh.'

2Ki 22:10 Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, 'The priest Hilkiah has given me a book'; and Shaphan read it aloud in the king's presence.

2Ki 22:11 On hearing the words of the Book of the Law he tore his clothes.

2Ki 22:12 Then the king gave the following order to the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's minister:

2Ki 22:13 'Go and consult Yahweh on behalf of me and the people about the words of the book that has been discovered; for Yahweh's furious wrath has been kindled against us because our ancestors disobeyed the word of Yahweh by not doing what this book says they ought to have done.'

2Ki 22:14 The priest Hilkiah, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to the prophetess Huldah wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas the keeper of the wardrobe; she lived in Jerusalem in the new town. They put the matter to her,

2Ki 22:15 and she replied, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "To the man who sent you to me say this:

2Ki 22:16 Yahweh says this: I am going to bring disaster on this place and the people who live in it -- all the words of the book read by the king of Judah.

2Ki 22:17 Because they have abandoned me and sacrificed to other gods, so as to provoke my anger by their every action, my wrath is kindled against this place, and nothing can stop it.

2Ki 22:18 As for the king of Judah who sent you to consult Yahweh, say this to him: As regards the words you have heard . . .

2Ki 22:19 But since your heart has been touched and you have humbled yourself before Yahweh on hearing what I have decreed against this place and the people who live in it, how they will become an object of horror and cursing, and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I too have heard -- Yahweh says this.

2Ki 22:20 So look, when I gather you to your ancestors, you will be gathered into your grave in peace; you will not live to see the great disaster that I am going to bring on this place." ' They took this answer to the king.

2Ki 23:1 The king then had all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem summoned to him,

2Ki 23:2 and the king went up to the Temple of Yahweh with all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, priests, prophets and the whole populace, high and low. In their hearing he read out the entire contents of the Book of the Covenant discovered in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 23:3 The king then, standing on the dais, bound himself by the covenant before Yahweh, to follow Yahweh, to keep his commandments, decrees and laws with all his heart and soul, and to carry out the terms of the covenant as written in this book. All the people pledged their allegiance to the covenant.

2Ki 23:4 The king ordered Hilkiah with the priest next in rank and the guardians of the threshold to remove all the cult objects which had been made for Baal, Asherah and the whole array of heaven; he burnt them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron and had the ashes taken to Bethel.

2Ki 23:5 He exterminated the spurious priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed and who offered sacrifice on the high places, in the towns of Judah and the neighbourhood of Jerusalem; also those who offered sacrifice to Baal, to the sun, the moon, the constellations and the whole array of heaven.

2Ki 23:6 And from the Temple of Yahweh he took the sacred pole outside Jerusalem to the Kidron valley and in the Kidron valley he burnt it, reducing it to ashes and throwing its ashes on the common burial-ground.

2Ki 23:7 He pulled down the house of the sacred male prostitutes which was in the Temple of Yahweh and where the women wove veils for Asherah.

2Ki 23:8 He brought all the priests in from the towns of Judah, and from Geba to Beersheba he rendered unsanctified the high places where these priests had offered sacrifice. He pulled down the High Place of the Gates, which stood at the gate of Joshua, the governor of the city, to the left of the entry to the city.

2Ki 23:9 The priests of the high places, however, did not officiate at the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, although they did share the unleavened bread of their brother-priests.

2Ki 23:10 He rendered unsanctified Tophet in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, so that no one could pass his son or daughter through the fire of sacrifice to Molech.

2Ki 23:11 He destroyed the horses which the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun at the entrance to the Temple of Yahweh, near the apartment of Nathan-Melech the official, in the precincts, and he burned the solar chariot.

2Ki 23:12 The king pulled down altars which the kings of Judah had built on the roof and those which Manasseh had built in the two courts of the Temple of Yahweh, and broke them to pieces on the spot, throwing their rubble into the Kidron valley.

2Ki 23:13 The king rendered unsanctified the high places facing Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Olives, which Solomon king of Israel had built for Astarte the Sidonian abomination, for Chemosh the Moabite abomination, and for Milcom the Ammonite abomination.

2Ki 23:14 He also smashed the sacred pillars, cut down the sacred poles, and covered with human bones the places where they had stood.

2Ki 23:15 As for the altar which was at Bethel, the high place built by Jeroboam son of Nebat who had led Israel into sin, he demolished this altar and this high place as well, in the same way, breaking up its stones and reducing them to powder. The sacred pole he burned.

2Ki 23:16 On looking round, Josiah saw the tombs there on the hillside; he had the bones fetched from the tombs and burned them on the altar. This he rendered unsanctified, in accordance with the word of Yahweh which the man of God had proclaimed when Jeroboam was standing by the altar at the time of the feast. On looking round, Josiah caught sight of the tomb of the man of God who had foretold these things.

2Ki 23:17 'What is that monument I see?' he asked. The townspeople replied, 'It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and foretold what you have done to the altar.'

2Ki 23:18 'Let him rest,' the king said, 'and let no one disturb his bones.' So they left his bones untouched, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

2Ki 23:19 Josiah also destroyed all the shrines on the high places which were in the towns of Samaria and which the kings of Israel had built to provoke Yahweh's anger; he treated these places exactly as he had treated the one at Bethel.

2Ki 23:20 All the priests of the high places who were there he slaughtered on the altars, and on those altars burned human bones. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:21 The king gave this order to the whole people: 'Celebrate a Passover to Yahweh your God, as prescribed in this Book of the Covenant.'

2Ki 23:22 No Passover like this had ever been celebrated since the days when the judges ruled Israel, nor throughout the entire period of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.

2Ki 23:23 The eighteenth year of King Josiah was the only time when such a Passover was celebrated in Yahweh's honour in Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:24 What is more, the spirit-guides and mediums, the household gods and idols, and all the abominations to be seen in the country of Judah and in Jerusalem, were swept away by Josiah to give effect to the words of the Law written in the book found by the priest Hilkiah in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ki 23:25 No king before him turned to Yahweh as he did, with all his heart, all his soul, all his strength, in perfect loyalty to the Law of Moses; nor did any king like him arise again.

2Ki 23:26 Yet Yahweh did not renounce the heat of his great anger which had been aroused against Judah by all the provocations which Manasseh had caused him.

2Ki 23:27 Yahweh said, 'I shall thrust Judah away from me too, as I have already thrust Israel; I shall cast off Jerusalem, this city which I have chosen, and the Temple of which I have said: My Name shall be there.'

2Ki 23:28 The rest of the history of Josiah, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 23:29 In his times, Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt was advancing to meet the king of Assyria at the River Euphrates, and King Josiah went to intercept him; but Necho killed him at Megiddo in the first encounter.

2Ki 23:30 His retainers carried his body from Megiddo by chariot; they brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the country then took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him, proclaiming him king in succession to his father.

2Ki 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah, of Libnah.

2Ki 23:32 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, just as his ancestors had done.

2Ki 23:33 Pharaoh Necho put him in chains at Riblah in Hamath, to prevent his reigning any longer in Jerusalem, and imposed a levy of a hundred talents of silver and ten talents of gold on the country.

2Ki 23:34 Pharaoh Necho then made Eliakim son of Josiah king in succession to Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Carrying off Jehoahaz, he took him to Egypt, where he died.

2Ki 23:35 Jehoiakim paid over the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but first had to tax the people of the country before he could raise the sum which Pharaoh demanded: he levied the silver and gold to be paid over to Pharaoh Necho from each according to his means.

2Ki 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

2Ki 23:37 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, just as his ancestors had done.

2Ki 24:1 In his times, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years, but then rebelled against him a second time.

2Ki 24:2 So he sent armed bands of Chaldaeans, Aramaeans, Moabites and Ammonites against him; he sent these against Judah to destroy it, in accordance with the word which Yahweh had spoken through his servants the prophets.

2Ki 24:3 It was entirely due to Yahweh's anger that this happened to Judah; he had resolved to thrust them away from him because of Manasseh's sins and all that he had done, 2Ki 24:4 and also because of the innocent blood which he had shed, flooding Jerusalem with innocent blood. Yahweh would not forgive.

2Ki 24:5 The rest of the history of Jehoiakim, his entire career, is this not recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

2Ki 24:6 Then Jehoiakim fell asleep with his ancestors; his son Jehoiachin succeeded him.

2Ki 24:7 The king of Egypt did not leave his own country again, because the king of Babylon had conquered everywhere belonging to the king of Egypt, from the Torrent of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

2Ki 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

2Ki 24:9 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, just as his father had done.

2Ki 24:10 At that time the troops of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

2Ki 24:11 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on the city and his generals laid siege to it.

2Ki 24:12 Jehoiachin king of Judah-he, his mother, his retinue, his nobles and his officials -- then surrendered to the king of Babylon, and the king of Babylon took them prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

2Ki 24:13 The latter carried off all the treasures of the Temple of Yahweh and the treasures of the palace and broke up all the golden furnishings which Solomon king of Israel had made for the sanctuary of Yahweh, as Yahweh had foretold.

2Ki 24:14 He carried all Jerusalem off into exile, all the nobles and all the notables, ten thousand of these were exiled, with all the blacksmiths and metalworkers; only the poorest people in the country were left behind.

2Ki 24:15 He deported Jehoiachin to Babylon, as also the king's mother, his officials and the nobility of the country; he made them all leave Jerusalem for exile in Babylon.

2Ki 24:16 All the men of distinction, seven thousand of them, the blacksmiths and metalworkers, one thousand of them, all the men capable of bearing arms, were led off into exile in Babylon by the king of Babylon.

2Ki 24:17 The king of Babylon deposed Jehoiachin in favour of his paternal uncle Mattaniah, whose name he changed to Zedekiah.

2Ki 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamital daughter of Jeremiah, of Libnah.

2Ki 24:19 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, just as Jehoiakim had done.

2Ki 24:20 It was entirely due to Yahweh's anger that this happened to Jerusalem and Judah. It resulted in his casting them from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2Ki 25:1 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem with his entire army; he pitched camp in front of the city and threw up earthworks round it.

2Ki 25:2 The city lay under siege till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2Ki 25:3 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, when famine was raging in the city and there was no food for the populace,

2Ki 25:4 a breach was made in the city wall. The king then made his escape under cover of dark, with all the fighting men, by way of the gate between the two walls, which is near the king's garden -- the Chaldaeans had surrounded the city -- and made his way towards the Arabah.

2Ki 25:5 The Chaldaean troops pursued the king and caught up with him in the Plains of Jericho, where all his troops deserted.

2Ki 25:6 The Chaldaeans captured the king and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence on him.

2Ki 25:7 He had Zedekiah's sons slaughtered before his eyes, then put out Zedekiah's eyes and, loading him with chains, carried him off to Babylon.

2Ki 25:8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month -- it was in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon -- Nebuzaradan commander of the guard, a member of the king of Babylon's staff, entered Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:9 He burned down the Temple of Yahweh, the royal palace and all the houses in Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:10 The Chaldaean troops who accompanied the commander of the guard demolished the walls surrounding Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:11 Nebuzaradan commander of the guard deported the remainder of the population left in the city, the deserters who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the common people.

2Ki 25:12 But the commander of the guard left some of the poor country people behind as vineyard workers and ploughmen.

2Ki 25:13 The Chaldaeans broke up the bronze pillars from the Temple of Yahweh, the wheeled stands and the bronze Sea, which were in the Temple of Yahweh, and took the bronze away to Babylon.

2Ki 25:14 They also took the ash containers, the scoops, the knives, the incense boats, and all the bronze furnishings used in worship.

2Ki 25:15 The commander of the guard also took the censers and the sprinkling bowls, everything made of gold and everything made of silver.

2Ki 25:16 As regards the two pillars, the one Sea and the wheeled stands, which Solomon of bronze in all these objects.

2Ki 25:17 The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and on it stood a capital of bronze, the height of the capital being five cubits; round the capital were filigree and pomegranates, all in bronze. So also for the second pillar.

2Ki 25:18 The commander of the guard took prisoner Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three guardians of the threshold.

2Ki 25:19 In the city he took prisoner an official who was in command of the fighting men, five of the king's personal friends who were discovered in the city, the secretary to the army commander, responsible for military conscription, and sixty men of distinction discovered in the city.

2Ki 25:20 Nebuzaradan commander of the guard took these men and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah, 2Ki 25:21 and at Riblah in the territory of Hamath the king of Babylon had them put to death. Thus Judah was deported from its country.

2Ki 25:22 For the people remaining in the country of Judah whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left behind, he appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan as governor.

2Ki 25:23 When the military leaders and their men all heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they went to him at Mizpah: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the Maacathite, they and their men.

2Ki 25:24 To them and to their men Gedaliah swore an oath. 'Do not be afraid of the Chaldaeans,' he said, 'stay in the country, serve the king of Babylon, and all will go well with you.'

2Ki 25:25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, who was of royal descent, and ten men with him, came and murdered Gedaliah, as well as the Judaeans and Chaldaeans who were with him at Mizpah.

2Ki 25:26 Then all the people, high and low, with the military leaders, set off and went to Egypt, being afraid of the Chaldaeans.

2Ki 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year he came to the throne, pardoned Jehoiachin king of Judah and released him from prison.

2Ki 25:28 He treated him with kindness and allotted him a seat above those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

2Ki 25:29 So Jehoiachin laid aside his prisoner's garb, and for the rest of his life always ate at the king's table.

2Ki 25:30 And his upkeep was permanently ensured by the king, day after day, for the rest of his life.

1Ch 1:1 Adam, Seth, Enosh,

1Ch 1:2 Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared,

1Ch 1:3 Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech,

1Ch 1:4 Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

1Ch 1:5 Sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, the Medes, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, Tiras.

1Ch 1:6 Sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, Togarmah.

1Ch 1:7 Sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim, the Dananites.

1Ch 1:8 Sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put, Canaan.

1Ch 1:9 Sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, Sabeteca. Sons of Raamah: Sheba, Dedan.

1Ch 1:10 Cush fathered Nimrod, the first mighty warrior on earth.

1Ch 1:11 Mizraim fathered the people of Lud, of Anam, of Lehab, of Naphtuh, 1Ch 1:12 of Pathros, Casluh and Captor, from which the Philistines came.

1Ch 1:13 Canaan fathered Sidon, his first-born, then Heth,

1Ch 1:14 and the Jebusites, the Amorites, Gergashites,

1Ch 1:15 Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,

1Ch 1:16 Arvadites, Zemarites, Hamathites.

1Ch 1:17 Sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, Aram. Sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech.

1Ch 1:18 Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber.

1Ch 1:19 To Eber were born two sons; the first was called Peleg, because it was in his time that the earth was divided into districts, and his brother was called Joktan.

1Ch 1:20 Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

1Ch 1:21 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

1Ch 1:22 Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,

1Ch 1:23 Ophir, Havilah, Jobab; all these are sons of Joktan.

1Ch 1:24 Arpachshad, Shelah,

1Ch 1:25 Eber, Peleg, Reu,

1Ch 1:26 Serug, Nahor, Terah,

1Ch 1:27 Abram, that is, Abraham.

1Ch 1:28 Sons of Abraham: Isaac and Ishmael.

1Ch 1:29 These are their descendants: The first-born of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

1Ch 1:30 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hada, Tema,
1Ch 1:31 Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.
1Ch 1:32 Sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shua. Sons of Jokshan: Sheba and Dedan.
1Ch 1:33 Sons of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, Eldaah. All these are sons of Keturah.
1Ch 1:34 Abraham fathered Isaac. Sons of Isaac: Esau and Israel.
1Ch 1:35 Sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.
1Ch 1:36 Sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, Amalek.
1Ch 1:37 Sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, Mizzah.
1Ch 1:38 Sons of Seir: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, Dishan.
1Ch 1:39 Sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. Sister of Lotan: Timma.
1Ch 1:40 Sons of Shobal: Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, Onam. Sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah.
1Ch 1:41 Son of Anah: Dishon. Sons of Dishon: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, Cheran.
1Ch 1:42 Sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, Jaakan. Sons of Dishon: Uz and Aran.
1Ch 1:43 These are the kings who ruled in Edom before an Israeli king ruled: Bela son of Beor; his city was called Dinhabah.
1Ch 1:44 Bela died and Jobab son of Zerah, from Bozrah, succeeded.
1Ch 1:45 Jobab died and Husham from the territory of the Temanites succeeded.
1Ch 1:46 Husham died and Hada son of Bedad succeeded; he defeated the Midianites in Moab, and his city was called Avith.
1Ch 1:47 Hadad died and Samlah of Masrekah succeeded.
1Ch 1:48 Samlah died and Shaul of Rehoboth-ha-Nahar succeeded.
1Ch 1:49 Shaul died and Baal-Hanan son of Achbor succeeded.
1Ch 1:50 Baal-Hanan died and Hadad succeeded. His city was called Pai; his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, daughter of Mezahab.
1Ch 1:51 Hadad died, and then there were chiefs in Edom: Chief Timna, Chief Aliah, Chief Jetheth,
1Ch 1:52 Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,
1Ch 1:53 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,
1Ch 1:54 Chief Magdiel, Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.
1Ch 2:1 These are the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.
1Ch 2:2 Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
1Ch 2:3 Sons of Judah: Er, Onan and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanite woman. Er, Judah's first-born, displeased Yahweh who put him to death.
1Ch 2:4 Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.
1Ch 2:5 Sons of Perez: Hezron and Hamul.
1Ch 2:6 Sons of Zerah: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara, five in all.
1Ch 2:7 Sons of Carmi: Achar, who brought trouble on Israel by being unfaithful to the curse of destruction.
1Ch 2:8 Sons of Ethan: Azariah.
1Ch 2:9 Sons of Hezron: there were born to him Jerahmeel, Ram, Chelubai.
1Ch 2:10 Ram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon chief of the sons of Judah, 1Ch 2:11 Nahshon fathered Salma, Salma fathered Boaz.
1Ch 2:12 Boaz fathered Obed, Obed fathered Jesse.
1Ch 2:13 Jesse fathered Eliab, his first-born, Abinadab second, Shimea third,
1Ch 2:14 Nethanel fourth, Raddai fifth,
1Ch 2:15 Ozem sixth, David seventh.
1Ch 2:16 Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. Sons of Zeruiah: Abishai, Joab and Asahel: three.
1Ch 2:17 Abigail gave birth to Amasa; father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.
1Ch 2:18 Caleb son of Hezron fathered Jerioth by Azubah his wife; these are her sons: Jesher, Shobab and Ardon.
1Ch 2:19 Azubah died, and Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur.
1Ch 2:20 Hur fathered Uri, Uri fathered Bezalel.
1Ch 2:21 Afterwards, Hezron married the daughter of Machir, father of Gilead; he married her when he was sixty years old and she bore him Segub.
1Ch 2:22 Segub fathered Jair who held twenty-three towns in the territory of Gilead.
1Ch 2:23 From them, however, Geshur and Aram took the Encampments of Jair and Kenath with its dependencies: sixty towns. All these used to belong to the sons of Machir father of Gilead.
1Ch 2:24 After Hezron's death, Caleb married Ephrathah, wife of Hezron his father, who bore him Ashhur father of Tekoa.
1Ch 2:25 Jerahmeel, Hezron's eldest son, fathered Hezron, his first-born, Ram, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, Ahijah.

1Ch 2:26 Jerahmeel had another wife called Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.
1Ch 2:27 Sons of Ram, Jerahmeel's first-born: Maaz, Jamin and Eker.
1Ch 2:28 Sons of Onam: Shammai and Jada. Sons of Shammai: Nadab and Abishur.
1Ch 2:29 Abishur's wife was called Abihail; she bore him Ahban and Molid.
1Ch 2:30 Sons of Nadab: Seled and Ephraim. Seled died leaving no son.
1Ch 2:31 Son of Ephraim: Ishi; son of Ishi: Sheshan; son of Sheshan: Ahlai.
1Ch 2:32 Sons of Jada, Shammai's brother: Jether and Jonathan. Jether died leaving no sons.
1Ch 2:33 Sons of Jonathan: Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.
1Ch 2:34 Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. He had an Egyptian slave Jarha 1Ch 2:35 to whom Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage. She bore him Attai.
1Ch 2:36 Attai fathered Nathan, Nathan fathered Zabad,
1Ch 2:37 Zabad fathered Ephlal, Ephlal fathered Obed,
1Ch 2:38 Obed fathered Jehu, Jehu fathered Azariah,
1Ch 2:39 Azariah fathered Helez, Helez fathered Eleasah,
1Ch 2:40 Eleasah fathered Sismai, Sismai fathered Shallum,
1Ch 2:41 Shallum fathered Jekamiah, Jekamiah fathered Elishama.
1Ch 2:42 Sons of Caleb, Jerahmeel's brother: Mesha, his first-born, who fathered Ziph. His son was Mareshah, father of Hebron.
1Ch 2:43 Sons of Hebron: Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema.
1Ch 2:44 Shema fathered Raham, father of Jorkeam. Rekem fathered Shammai.
1Ch 2:45 Shammai's son was Maon, and Maon fathered Beth-Zur.
1Ch 2:46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, gave birth to Haran, Moza and Gazez. Haran fathered Gazez.
1Ch 2:47 Sons of Jahdai: Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.
1Ch 2:48 Maacah, Caleb's concubine, gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah.
1Ch 2:49 She gave birth to Shaaph, who fathered Madmannah, and Sheva, who fathered Machbenah and Gibea. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah.
1Ch 2:50 These were the sons of Caleb. Sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah: Shobal fathered Kiriath-Jearim; 1Ch 2:51 Salma fathered Bethlehem; Hareph fathered Beth-Gader.
1Ch 2:52 Shobal, father of Kiriath-Jearim, had sons: Haroeh, that is, half of the Manahathites,
1Ch 2:53 and the clans of Kiriath-Jearim: the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and Mishraites. Their descendants are the people of Zorah and Eshtao.
1Ch 2:54 Sons of Salma: Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth-Joab, half of the Manahathites, the Zorathites, 1Ch 2:55 the Sophrite clans living at Jabez, the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, the Sucathites. They were the Kenites descended from Hammath, father of the House of Rechab.
1Ch 3:1 These are the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the first-born Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel; second, Daniel, by Abigail of Carmel;
1Ch 3:2 third, Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; fourth, Adonijah son of Haggith;
1Ch 3:3 fifth, Shephatiah by Abital, sixth, Ithream by his wife Eglah.
1Ch 3:4 Six, therefore, were born to him in Hebron, where he reigned for three years and six months. He reigned for thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
1Ch 3:5 These are the sons who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, the four of them children of Bath-Shua daughter of Ammiel;
1Ch 3:6 Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet,
1Ch 3:7 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
1Ch 3:8 Elishama, Eliada, Eliphelet: nine.
1Ch 3:9 All these were sons of David, not counting the sons of the concubines. Tamar was their sister.
1Ch 3:10 Sons of Solomon: Rehoboam; Abijah his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son,
1Ch 3:11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son,
1Ch 3:12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son,
1Ch 3:13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son,
1Ch 3:14 Amon his son, Josiah his son.
1Ch 3:15 Sons of Josiah: Johanan, the first-born, Jehoiakim second, Zedekiah third, Shallum fourth.
1Ch 3:16 The sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.
1Ch 3:17 Sons of Jeconiah the captive: Shealtiel his son,
1Ch 3:18 then Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jechamiah, Hoshama, Nedabiah.
1Ch 3:19 Sons of Pedaiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei. Sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam and Hananiah; Shelomith was their sister.

1Ch 3:20 Sons of Meshullam: Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, Jushab-Hesed: five.
1Ch 3:21 Sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah; Jeshaiah his son, Rephaiah his son, Arnan his son, Obadiah his son, Shecaniah his son.
1Ch 3:22 Sons of Shecaniah: Shemaiah, Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, Shaphat: six.
1Ch 3:23 Sons of Neariah: Elioenai, Hizkiah, Azrikam: three.
1Ch 3:24 Sons of Elioenai: Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, Anani: seven.
1Ch 4:1 Sons of Judah: Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, Shobal.
1Ch 4:2 Reaiah son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These are the Zoreathite clans.
1Ch 4:3 These are Abi-Etam, Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash, whose sister was called Hazzelelponi.
1Ch 4:4 Penuel fathered Gedor, and Ezer fathered Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, first-born of Ephrathah and father of Bethlehem.
1Ch 4:5 Ashhur, father of Tekoa, had two wives: Helah and Naarah.
1Ch 4:6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, the Timnites, and the Ahashtarites -- these were the sons of Naarah.
1Ch 4:7 Sons of Helah: Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan.
1Ch 4:8 Koz fathered Anub, Hazzobebah and the clans of Aharhel son of Harum.
1Ch 4:9 Jabez was better known than his brothers. His mother gave him the name Jabez, 'because', she said, 'in distress I gave birth to him.'

1Ch 4:10 Jabez called on the God of Israel. 'If you truly bless me,' he said, 'you will extend my lands, your hand will be with me, you will keep harm away and my distress will cease.' God granted him what he had asked.

1Ch 4:11 Chelub, Shuhah's brother, fathered Mehir, who fathered Eshton.

1Ch 4:12 Eshton fathered Bethrapha, Paseah and Tehinnah father of Irnash. These were the men of Recab.

1Ch 4:13 Sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. Sons of Othniel: Hathath and Meonothai; 1Ch 4:14 Meonothai fathered Ophrah. Seraiah fathered Joab, father of Gehrashim -- for they were craftsmen.

1Ch 4:15 Sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah and Naam. Sons of Elah: Kenaz.

1Ch 4:16 Sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, Zipah, Tiria, Asarel.

1Ch 4:17 Sons of Ezrah: Jether, Mered, Epher, Jalon. She conceived Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa, 1Ch 4:18 whose Judaean wife gave birth to Jered father of Gedor, Heber father of Soco, and Jekuthiel, father of Zanoah. These were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh whom Mered had married.

1Ch 4:19 The sons of Hodiah's wife, sister of Naham father of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maacathite . . .

1Ch 4:20 Sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, Tilon. Sons of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

1Ch 4:21 Sons of Shelah son of Judah: Er father of Lecah, Laadah father of Mareshah, and the clans of linenworkers at Beth-Ashbea,

1Ch 4:22 Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash and Sarah where Moab found wives and then returned to Bethlehem. (These are old traditions.)

1Ch 4:23 These were potters and lived at Netaim and Gederah; they resided there, working for the king.

1Ch 4:24 Sons of Simeon: Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Saul;

1Ch 4:25 Shallum was his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son.

1Ch 4:26 The sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son.

1Ch 4:27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children, and the sum of their clans did not multiply as the sons of Judah did.

1Ch 4:28 They lived in Beersheba, Moladah and Hazar-Shual,

1Ch 4:29 Bilhah, Ezem and Tolad,

1Ch 4:30 Bethuel, Hormah and Ziklag,

1Ch 4:31 Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susim, Beth-Biri, Shaaraim.

1Ch 4:32 These were their towns until the reign of David. Their settlements were: Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan, five towns, 1Ch 4:33 and all the dependencies surrounding these towns as far as Baalath. That was where they lived and they had an official genealogy.

1Ch 4:34 Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah,

1Ch 4:35 Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel,

1Ch 4:36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah,

1Ch 4:37 Ziza, Ben-Shiphi, Ben-Allon, Ben-Jedaiah, Ben-Shimri, Ben-Shemaiah-

1Ch 4:38 these above named were princes in their clans in their ancestral home. Their numbers increased enormously.

1Ch 4:39 In search of pasture for their flocks, they spread from the Pass of Gerar to the eastern end of the valley,

1Ch 4:40 where they found good, fat pasture; the land was broad, untroubled, peaceful. Hamites had been living there before them.

1Ch 4:41 These Simeonites, recorded by name, arrived there in the time of Hezekiah king of Judah; they overran their tents and the dwellings which they found there. They put them under a curse of destruction still in force today and settled in their place, since there was pasturage for their flocks.

1Ch 4:42 Five hundred of them, of the Simeonites, went to Mount Seir, their leaders being Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

1Ch 4:43 They defeated the surviving fugitives of Amalek and still live there today.

1Ch 5:1 Sons of Reuben, first-born of Israel. He was indeed the first-born but, when he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel, and he was no longer reckoned as the eldest son.

1Ch 5:2 Although Judah grew greater than his brothers and a leader came from him, the birthright was Joseph's.

1Ch 5:3 Sons of Reuben, first-born of Israel: Henoch, Pallu, Hezron, Carmi.

1Ch 5:4 Sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, 1Ch 5:5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son.

1Ch 5:6 Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria carried off into exile, was the chief of the Reubenites.

1Ch 5:7 His brothers, by families, were grouped according to relationship. Jeiel was first, then Zechariah

1Ch 5:8 and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel. It was Reuben who lived in Aroer and his territory extended as far as Nebo and Baal-Meon.

1Ch 5:9 To eastward, what he occupied extended to the edge of the desert and the River Euphrates, for they had many herds in Gilead.

1Ch 5:10 In the time of Saul, they made war on the Hagrites, whom they defeated and who were then living in their tents throughout the eastern front of Gilead.

1Ch 5:11 Next to them, in Bashan as far as Salecah, lived the sons of Gad.

1Ch 5:12 Joel was the first, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

1Ch 5:13 Their brothers, by families, were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, Eber: seven.

1Ch 5:14 These were the sons of Abihail: Ben-Huri, Ben-Jaroah, Ben-Gilead, Ben-Michael, Ben-Jeshishai, Ben-Jahdo, Ben-Buz.

1Ch 5:15 Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni, was the head of their families.

1Ch 5:16 They inhabited Gilead, Bashan and its dependencies, as well as all the pasture lands of Sharon on their extremities.

1Ch 5:17 In the time of Jotham king of Judah and in the time of Jeroboam king of Israel, all of them were included in the official genealogy.

1Ch 5:18 The sons of Reuben, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had warriors, men armed with shield and sword who could handle the bow and were trained for war, to the number of forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty fit for service.

1Ch 5:19 They made war on the Hagrites, on Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

1Ch 5:20 God came to their help, and the Hagrites and all their allies fell into their hands, for they called on God as they fought, and because they put their trust in him he heard their prayer.

1Ch 5:21 Of their livestock they carried off fifty thousand camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, two thousand donkeys and a hundred thousand people.

1Ch 5:22 Because the war was of God, the slaughter was great. They continued to live in their territory until the exile.

1Ch 5:23 The sons of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the territory between Bashan and Baal-Hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon. They were numerous.

1Ch 5:24 These were the heads of their families: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, Jahdiel -- stout fighting men, men of renown, heads of their families.

1Ch 5:25 But since they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the country whom God had destroyed before them,

1Ch 5:26 the God of Israel roused the hostility of Pul, king of Assyria, that is the wrath of Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria who deported them -- the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh -- taking them off to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan. They are still there today.

1Ch 5:27 Sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

1Ch 5:28 Sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, Uzziel.

1Ch 5:29 Children of Amram: Aaron, Moses and Miriam. Sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

1Ch 5:30 Eleazar fathered Phinehas, Phinehas fathered Abishua,

1Ch 5:31 Abishua fathered Bukki, Bukki fathered Uzzi.
1Ch 5:32 Uzzi fathered Zerahiah, Zerahiah fathered Meraioth.
1Ch 5:33 Meraioth fathered Amariah, Amariah fathered Ahitub,
1Ch 5:34 Ahitub fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Ahimaaz.
1Ch 5:35 Ahimaaz fathered Azariah, Azariah fathered Johanan.
1Ch 5:36 Johanan fathered Azariah. He it was who officiated as priest in the Temple which Solomon built in Jerusalem.
1Ch 5:37 Azariah fathered Amariah, Amariah fathered Ahitub,
1Ch 5:38 Ahitub fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Shallum,
1Ch 5:39 Shallum fathered Hilkiah, Hilkiah fathered Azariah,
1Ch 5:40 Azariah fathered Seraiah, Seraiah fathered Jehozadak,
1Ch 5:41 and Jehozadak went into exile when, at the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, Yahweh exiled Judah and Jerusalem.

1Ch 6:1 Sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
1Ch 6:2 These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei.
1Ch 6:3 Sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, Uzziel.
1Ch 6:4 Sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the levitical clans according to their father.
1Ch 6:5 Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 1Ch 6:6 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeatherai his son.
1Ch 6:7 Sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, 1Ch 6:8 Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son.
1Ch 6:9 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, Shaul his son.
1Ch 6:10 Sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth.
1Ch 6:11 Elkanah his son, Zophai his son, Nahath his son,
1Ch 6:12 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.
1Ch 6:13 Sons of Elkanah: Samuel his first-born, the second Abijah.
1Ch 6:14 Sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son,
1Ch 6:15 Shimei his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.
1Ch 6:16 These are the men whom David nominated to lead the singing in the Temple of Yahweh after the ark had come to rest there.
1Ch 6:17 They were responsible for the singing before the Dwelling, the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem and then continued their customary duties.
1Ch 6:18 These were the persons in office, with their sons: Of the sons of Kohath: Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel,
1Ch 6:19 son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah,
1Ch 6:20 son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai,
1Ch 6:21 son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah,
1Ch 6:22 son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, 1Ch 6:23 son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.
1Ch 6:24 His brother Asaph stood on his right: Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea,
1Ch 6:25 son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah,
1Ch 6:26 son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah,
1Ch 6:27 son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei,
1Ch 6:28 son of Jahath, son of Gershon, son of Levi.
1Ch 6:29 On the left, the sons of Merari: Ethan son of Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch,
1Ch 6:30 son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah,
1Ch 6:31 son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer,
1Ch 6:32 son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.
1Ch 6:33 Their brother Levites were dedicated for all the other duties of the Dwelling, the Temple of God,
1Ch 6:34 but Aaron and his sons burned the offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense; they were entirely responsible for the most holy things and for the ritual of expiation for Israel, in accordance with all that Moses, servant of God, had commanded.
1Ch 6:35 These were the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,
1Ch 6:36 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,
1Ch 6:37 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,
1Ch 6:38 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.
1Ch 6:39 These were their places of settlement within their prescribed territory: The sons of Aaron of the Kohathite clan – for to these the first lot fell–
1Ch 6:40 were given Hebron in the territory of Judah with its surrounding pasture lands.

1Ch 6:41 But the open country of the town and its dependencies were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh.

1Ch 6:42 The sons of Aaron were also given the cities of refuge, Hebron, Libnah with its pasture lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands.

1Ch 6:43 Hilen with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

1Ch 6:44 Ashan with its pasture lands and Beth-Shemesh with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:45 and, from the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its pasture lands, Alemeth with its pasture lands and Anathoth with its pasture lands. In all, the towns distributed among their clans numbered thirteen.

1Ch 6:46 The remaining sons of Kohath were allotted ten towns from the clans of the tribe, that is, from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

1Ch 6:47 The sons of Gershon and their clans were allotted thirteen towns from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

1Ch 6:48 The sons of Merari and their clans were allotted twelve towns from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun.

1Ch 6:49 The Israelites gave these towns with their pasture lands to the Levites.

1Ch 6:50 From the tribe of the sons of Judah, from the tribe of the sons of Simeon and from the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, they also allotted them those towns to which they gave their names.

1Ch 6:51 Towns from the tribe of Ephraim were also assigned to the territory of some clans of the sons of Kohath.

1Ch 6:52 They were given the cities of refuge: Shechem in the highlands of Ephraim with its pasture lands, Gezer and its pasture lands,

1Ch 6:53 Jokmeam with its pasture lands, Beth-Horon with its pasture lands,

1Ch 6:54 Aijalon with its pasture lands and Gath-Rimmon with its pasture lands

1Ch 6:55 and from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its pasture lands and Bileam with its pasture lands. So much was given to the remaining families of the sons of Kohath.

1Ch 6:56 From the half-tribe of Manasseh, the sons of Gershon according to family were given Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands and Ashtaroth with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:57 from the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

1Ch 6:58 Ramoth with its pasture lands and Anem with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:59 from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands.

1Ch 6:60 Hukok with its pasture lands and Rehob with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:61 from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, Hammon with its pasture lands and Kiriataim with its pasture lands.

1Ch 6:62 To the remainder of the sons of Merari: from the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with its pasture lands and Tabor with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:63 in Transjordan, near Jericho, east of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the desert with its pasture lands, Jahzah with its pasture lands,

1Ch 6:64 Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands;

1Ch 6:65 from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, Mahanaim with its pasture lands, 1Ch 6:66 Heshbon with its pasture lands and Jazer with its pasture lands.

1Ch 7:1 For the sons of Issachar: Tola, Puah, Jashub, Shimron: four.

1Ch 7:2 Sons of Tola: Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, Shemuel, heads of their families of Tola. In the time of David, these numbered twenty-two thousand six hundred stout fighting men, grouped according to their kinship.

1Ch 7:3 Sons of Uzzi: Izrahiah. Sons of Izrahiah: Michael, Obadiah, Joel, Isshiah. In all five chiefs, 1Ch 7:4 responsible for fighting companies amounting to thirty-six thousand troops, according to relationship and family, for they had many women and children.

1Ch 7:5 They had kinsmen belonging to all the clans of Issachar, eighty-seven thousand stout fighting men, all belonging to one related group.

1Ch 7:6 Sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Jediael: three.

1Ch 7:7 Sons of Bela: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri: five, chiefs of families and warriors. Their official genealogy included twenty-two thousand and thirty-four members.

1Ch 7:8 Sons of Becher: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezar, Elionai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, Alemeth, all these were the sons of Becher.

1Ch 7:9 The official genealogy of the descendants of the chiefs of their families included twenty thousand two hundred warriors.

1Ch 7:10 Sons of Jediael: Bilhan. Sons of Bilhan: Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, Ahishahar.

1Ch 7:11 All these sons of Jediael, became heads of families, stout fighting men, numbering seventeen thousand two hundred men fit for active service.

- 1Ch 7:12 Shuppim and Huppim. Son of Ir: Hushim; his son: Aher.
- 1Ch 7:13 Sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, Shallum. These were the sons of Bilhah.
- 1Ch 7:14 Sons of Manasseh: Asriel, born of his Aramaean concubine. She gave birth to Machir, father of Gilead.
- 1Ch 7:15 Machir took a wife for Huppim and Shuppim. His sister's name was Maacah. The name of the second son was Zelophehad. Zelophehad had daughters.
- 1Ch 7:16 Maacah the wife of Machir gave birth to a son whom she called Peresh. His brother was called Sheresh and his sons Ulam and Rakem.
- 1Ch 7:17 Sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead son of Machir, son of Manasseh.
- 1Ch 7:18 His sister Hammoleketh gave birth to Ishod, Abiezer and Mahlah.
- 1Ch 7:19 Shemida had sons: Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.
- 1Ch 7:20 Sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son,
- 1Ch 7:21 Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son and Ezer and Eleazar whom the men of Gath, natives of the country, killed when they came down to raid their cattle.
- 1Ch 7:22 Their father Ephraim mourned for a long time and his brothers came to comfort him.
- 1Ch 7:23 He had intercourse with his wife, who conceived and gave birth to a son whom he called Beriah because his house was in misfortune.
- 1Ch 7:24 He had a daughter, Sheerah, who built Upper and Lower Beth-Horon and Uzzen-Sheerah.
- 1Ch 7:25 Rephah was his son, Shuthelah his son, Tahan his son,
- 1Ch 7:26 Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son,
- 1Ch 7:27 Nun his son, Joshua his son.
- 1Ch 7:28 They had lands and settlements in Bethel and its dependencies from Naaran on the east to Gezer and its dependencies on the west, as well as Shechem and its dependencies as far as Ayyah and its dependencies.
- 1Ch 7:29 Beth-Shean with its dependencies, Taanach and its dependencies, Megiddo and its dependencies and Dor with its dependencies were in the hands of the sons of Manasseh. There lived the sons of Joseph son of Israel.
- 1Ch 7:30 Sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah; their sister Serah.
- 1Ch 7:31 Sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel. He fathered Birzaith.
- 1Ch 7:32 Heber fathered Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham and their sister Shua.
- 1Ch 7:33 Sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal and Ashvath. These were the sons of Japhlet.
- 1Ch 7:34 Sons of Shomer his brother: Rohgah, Hubbah and Aram.
- 1Ch 7:35 Sons of Helem his brother: Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal.
- 1Ch 7:36 Sons of Zophah: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri and Imrah.
- 1Ch 7:37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran and Beerah.
- 1Ch 7:38 Sons of Ithran: Jephunneh, Pispa, Ara.
- 1Ch 7:39 Sons of Ulla: Arah, Hanniel, Rizia.
- 1Ch 7:40 All these were the sons of Asher, heads of families, picked men, warriors and senior princes. They were registered in fighting companies to the number of twenty-six thousand men.
- 1Ch 8:1 Benjamin was father of Bela, his first-born, Ashbel second, Ahiram third,
- 1Ch 8:2 Nohah fourth, Rapha fifth.
- 1Ch 8:3 Bela had sons: Addar, Gera father of Ehud,
- 1Ch 8:4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,
- 1Ch 8:5 Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.
- 1Ch 8:6 These are the sons of Ehud. They were heads of families of the inhabitants of Geba and led them into exile at Manahath:
- 1Ch 8:7 Naaman, Ahijah and Gera. It was he who led them into exile; he became the father of Uzza and Ahihud.
- 1Ch 8:8 Shaharaim had children in the Plains of Moab after he had dismissed his wives, Hushim and Baara.
- 1Ch 8:9 By his new wife he had sons: Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam,
- 1Ch 8:10 Jeuz, Sachia, Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of families.
- 1Ch 8:11 By Hushim he had sons: Abitub and Elpaal.
- 1Ch 8:12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham and Shemed, who built Ono and Lud and its dependencies.
- 1Ch 8:13 Beriah and Shema were the chiefs of the families who lived at Ajalon; they routed the inhabitants of Gath.
- 1Ch 8:14 His brother was Shashak. Jeremoth,
- 1Ch 8:15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder,
- 1Ch 8:16 Michael, Ishpah, Joha were the sons of Beriah.
- 1Ch 8:17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Haber,
- 1Ch 8:18 Ishmerai, Izliah, Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

1Ch 8:19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,
1Ch 8:20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel,
1Ch 8:21 Adaiah, Beraiah, Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.
1Ch 8:22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,
1Ch 8:23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,
1Ch 8:24 Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah,
1Ch 8:25 Iphdeiah, Penuel were the sons of Shashak.
1Ch 8:26 Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,
1Ch 8:27 Jaareashaiah, Elijah, Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.
1Ch 8:28 These were chiefs of families according to their relationship. They lived in Jerusalem.
1Ch 8:29 At Gibeon lived Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife was called Maacah.
1Ch 8:30 His first-born son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,
1Ch 8:31 Gedor, Ahio, Zecher
1Ch 8:32 and Mikloth. Mikloth fathered Shimeah. But they, unlike their brothers, lived at Jerusalem with their brothers.
1Ch 8:33 Ner fathered Kish, Kish fathered Saul, Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.
1Ch 8:34 Son of Jonathan: Meribbaal. Meribbaal fathered Micah.
1Ch 8:35 Sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea, Ahaz.
1Ch 8:36 Ahaz fathered Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri fathered Moza, 1Ch 8:37 Moza fathered Binea, Raphah his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.
1Ch 8:38 Azel had six sons, whose names were these: Azrikam, his first-born, then Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, Hanan. All these were sons of Azel.
1Ch 8:39 Sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam, his first-born, Jeush second, Eliphelet third.
1Ch 8:40 The sons of Ulam were warriors-archers. They had as many as a hundred and fifty sons and grandsons. All these belonged to the sons of Benjamin.
1Ch 9:1 Thus, all Israel's official genealogies had been entered in the records of the kings of Israel and Judah before they were deported to Babylon for their infidelity.
1Ch 9:2 Now the first citizens to return to their property in their cities were the Israelites, the priests, the Levites and the temple slaves.
1Ch 9:3 In Jerusalem, there settled Judaeans, Benjaminites, Ephraimites and Manassehites.
1Ch 9:4 Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, one of the sons of Perez son of Judah.
1Ch 9:5 Of the descendants of Shelah: Asaiah, the first-born, and his sons.
1Ch 9:6 Of the sons of Zerah: Jueel. And six hundred and ninety of their kinsmen.
1Ch 9:7 And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah;
1Ch 9:8 Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah.
1Ch 9:9 Their kinsmen, according to their relationship, numbered nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chiefs of their families.
1Ch 9:10 Of the priests there were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin,
1Ch 9:11 Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief of the Temple of God;
1Ch 9:12 Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah; and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer.
1Ch 9:13 Their kinsmen, heads of families, numbered one thousand seven hundred and sixty-men expert in the ministerial service of the Temple of God.
1Ch 9:14 Of the Levites there were Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of the sons of Merari, 1Ch 9:15 Bakbakar, Heresh, Galai, Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph.
1Ch 9:16 Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the dependencies of the Netophathites.
1Ch 9:17 The gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their kinsmen. Shallum was the chief 1Ch 9:18 and is still gatekeeper of the King's Gate to the east. They were the gatekeepers of the camps of the sons of Levi.
1Ch 9:19 Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his brothers belonging to his family, the Korahites, were also in charge of the ministerial service as doorkeepers of the Tent, as their ancestors had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of Yahweh.
1Ch 9:20 Formerly, Phinehas son of Eleazar had been in charge of them -- Yahweh be with him!
1Ch 9:21 Zechariah son of Meshellemiah was gatekeeper at the door of the Tent of Meeting.
1Ch 9:22 All the keepers of the gate at the thresholds were picked men; there were two hundred and twelve of them. They were grouped by relationship in their various villages. These were confirmed in office by David and Samuel the seer because of their dependability.

1Ch 9:23 They and their sons continued in charge as guards of the gates of the Temple of Yahweh, the house of the Tent.

1Ch 9:24 The gatekeepers were assigned to the four sides, east, west, north and south,

1Ch 9:25 and their brothers in their villages were required to assist them from time to time for a week,

1Ch 9:26 since the four head gatekeepers were permanently on duty. They were Levites and were in charge of the accommodation and supplies of the Temple of God.

1Ch 9:27 They spent the night in the precincts of the Temple of God, their duties being to guard it and open it every morning.

1Ch 9:28 Some of them were in charge of the implements of worship, having to count them when they took them out and when they put them away.

1Ch 9:29 Others of them were put in charge of the implements, of all the objects in the sanctuary and of the flour, the wine, the oil, the incense and the perfume.

1Ch 9:30 Members of the priestly caste, however, mixed the ointment for the perfume.

1Ch 9:31 One of the Levites, Mattithiah -- he was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite -- had regular charge of baking operations.

1Ch 9:32 Some of their kinsmen the Kohathites were responsible for the loaves to be set out in rows Sabbath by Sabbath.

1Ch 9:33 In addition, there were the singers, the heads of the levitical families, who were accommodated in the Temple, free of other responsibilities because they were on duty day and night.

1Ch 9:34 Such were the chiefs of the levitical families, according to their relationship; these lived in Jerusalem.

1Ch 9:35 Jeiel father of Gibeon lived at Gibeon and his wife was called Maacah.

1Ch 9:36 His first-born son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 1Ch 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

1Ch 9:38 Mikloth fathered Shimeam. But they, unlike their brothers, lived at Jerusalem with their brothers.

1Ch 9:39 Ner fathered Kish, Kish fathered Saul, Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

1Ch 9:40 Son of Jonathan: Meribbaal. Meribbaal fathered Micah.

1Ch 9:41 Sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea.

1Ch 9:42 Ahaz fathered Jarah, Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; Zimri fathered Moza, 1Ch 9:43 Moza fathered Binea, Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

1Ch 9:44 Azel had six sons; their names were these: Azrikam his first-born, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1Ch 10:1 The Philistines gave battle to Israel and the Israelites, fleeing from the Philistines, fell and were slaughtered on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:2 The Philistines bore down on Saul and his sons, and they killed Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

1Ch 10:3 The fighting grew fiercer round Saul; the archers came upon him, and he was wounded by the archers.

1Ch 10:4 Saul then said to his armour-bearer, 'Draw your sword and run me through with it. I do not want these uncircumcised men to come and make fun of me.' But his armour-bearer was very much afraid and would not do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1Ch 10:5 His armour-bearer, seeing that Saul was dead, fell on his sword too and died with him.

1Ch 10:6 Thus died Saul, his three sons and his entire household together.

1Ch 10:7 When all the Israelites who were in the valley saw that the Israelites had been routed and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines then came and occupied them.

1Ch 10:8 When the Philistines came on the following day to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons lying on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:9 They stripped him and, taking his head and his armour, had these carried round the territory of the Philistines to proclaim the good news to their idols and their people.

1Ch 10:10 They placed his armour in the temple of their gods and nailed his head up in the temple of Dagon.

1Ch 10:11 When all the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead heard everything that the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Ch 10:12 the warriors all set out and took the bodies of Saul and his sons away; they brought them to Jabesh and buried their bones under the tamarisk of Jabesh and fasted for seven days.

1Ch 10:13 Thus died Saul in the infidelity of which he had been guilty towards Yahweh, in that he had not obeyed the word of Yahweh and because he had consulted a necromancer for guidance.

1Ch 10:14 He had not consulted Yahweh, who therefore caused his death and transferred the monarchy to David son of Jesse.

1Ch 11:1 All Israel then rallied to David at Hebron and said, 'Look, we are your own flesh and bone.'

1Ch 11:2 In days past when Saul was king, it was you who led Israel on its campaigns, and Yahweh your God promised you, "You are to shepherd my people Israel and be leader of my people Israel." '

1Ch 11:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a pact with them in Yahweh's presence at Hebron, and they anointed David as king of Israel, in accordance with the word of Yahweh through Samuel.

1Ch 11:4 David and all Israel then marched on Jerusalem (that is to say, Jebus); the inhabitants of the territory were the Jebusites.

1Ch 11:5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, 'You will not get in here.' But David captured the citadel of Zion, that is, the City of David.

1Ch 11:6 David said, 'The first man to kill a Jebusite will be made army commander and chief.' Joab son of Zeruiah was the first man to go up, and was made commander of the army.

1Ch 11:7 David went to live in the citadel, and that is how it came to be called the City of David.

1Ch 11:8 He then built a wall round the city, all round, beginning from the Millo, and Joab restored the rest of the city.

1Ch 11:9 Thus David grew stronger and stronger, for Yahweh Sabaoth was with him.

1Ch 11:10 These are David's principal champions who joined forces with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king in accordance with the word of Yahweh concerning Israel.

1Ch 11:11 This is the roll of David's champions: Jashobeam son of Hachmoni, head of the Three; he it was who brandished his spear over three hundred men whom he had killed at one time.

1Ch 11:12 Next, there was Eleazar son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three champions.

1Ch 11:13 He was with David at Pas-Dammim when the Philistines mustered for battle there. There was a field full of barley there; and the people fled from the Philistines.

1Ch 11:14 And they took their stand in the middle of the field, held it and cut down the Philistines; and Yahweh brought about a great victory.

1Ch 11:15 Three members of the Thirty went down to David at the rock near the Cave of Adullam while a company of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of the Rephaim.

1Ch 11:16 David was then in the stronghold and there was a Philistine garrison in Bethlehem.

1Ch 11:17 Longingly, David said, 'If only someone would fetch me a drink of water from the well that stands by the gate at Bethlehem!'

1Ch 11:18 At this the three champions, forcing their way through the Philistine camp, drew water from the well that stands by the gate of Bethlehem and, bringing it away, presented it to David. David, however, would not drink any of it, but poured it out as a libation to Yahweh.

1Ch 11:19 'God preserve me', he said, 'from doing such a thing! Am I to drink these men's blood? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.' And so he would not drink. Such were the deeds of the three champions.

1Ch 11:20 Abishai, brother of Joab, was leader of the Thirty. He it was who brandished his spear over three hundred men whom he had killed, winning himself a name among the Thirty.

1Ch 11:21 He was a most illustrious member of the Thirty and became their captain, but he was not equal to the Three.

1Ch 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel was the hero of many exploits; he it was who slaughtered two formidable Moabites and, one snowy day, climbed down and slaughtered the lion in the storage-well.

1Ch 11:23 He also slaughtered an Egyptian, a man who was seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian was armed with a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam, but he took him on with a staff, tore the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed the man with it.

1Ch 11:24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, winning him a name among the thirty champions.

1Ch 11:25 He was a most illustrious member of the Thirty, but he was not equal to the Three. David put him in command of his bodyguard.

1Ch 11:26 The military champions were: Asahel brother of Joab; Elhanan son of Dodo, of Bethlehem;

1Ch 11:27 Shammoth of Haror; Helez the Pelonite;

1Ch 11:28 Ira son of Ikkeesh, of Tekoa; Abiezer of Anathoth;

1Ch 11:29 Sibbecai of Hushah; Ilai of Ahoh;

1Ch 11:30 Maharai of Netophah; Heled son of Baanah, of Netophah.

1Ch 11:31 Ithai son of Ribai, of Gibeah in Benjamin. Benaiah of Pirathon;

1Ch 11:32 Hurai of the Torrents of Gaash; Abiel of Beth-ha-Arabah;

1Ch 11:33 Azmaveth of Bahurim; Eliahba of Shaalbon;

1Ch 11:34 the sons of Hashem of Gizon; Jonathan son of Shagee, of Harar;

1Ch 11:35 Ahiam son of Sachar, of Harar; Elipelet son of Ur;

1Ch 11:36 Hepher of Mecherah; Ahijah the Pelonite;

1Ch 11:37 Hezro of Carmel; Naarai son of Ezbai;

1Ch 11:38 Joel brother of Nathan; Mibhar son of Hagri;
1Ch 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai of Beeroth, armour-bearer to Joab son of Zeruiah;
1Ch 11:40 Ira of Jattir; Gareb of Jattir;
1Ch 11:41 Uriah the Hittite; Zabad son of Ahlai;
1Ch 11:42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, chief of the Reubenites and commander of the Thirty;
1Ch 11:43 Hanan son of Maacah; Joshaphat the Mithnite;
1Ch 11:44 Uzzia of Ashteroth; Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham of Aroer;
1Ch 11:45 Jediael son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite;
1Ch 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite; Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam; Ithmah the Moabite;
1Ch 11:47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel of Zobah.
1Ch 12:1 These are the men who rallied to David at Ziklag while he was still being kept away from Saul son of Kish; they were among the champions, the warriors.
1Ch 12:2 They were equipped with bows and could sling stones or shoot arrows from the bow with either right hand or left. Of Saul's fellow-tribesmen from Benjamin:
1Ch 12:3 Ahiezer the leader, and Joash, sons of Hassemar of Gibeah, Jeziel and Peleth, sons of Azmaveth, Berachah and Jehu of Anathoth,
1Ch 12:4 Ishmaiah of Gibeon, one of the champions in the Thirty and commander of the Thirty,
1Ch 12:5 Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan and Jozabed of Gedereth,
1Ch 12:6 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah of Hariph,
1Ch 12:7 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites,
1Ch 12:8 Joelah, Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham of Gedor.
1Ch 12:9 From the Gadites, some good, capable fighting men defected and came to David at the stronghold in the desert -- all skilled with shield and spear, fierce as lions and nimble as mountain gazelles.
1Ch 12:10 Ezer was the leader, Obadiah second, Eliab third,
1Ch 12:11 Mishmannah fourth, Jeremiah fifth,
1Ch 12:12 Attai sixth, Eiel seventh,
1Ch 12:13 Johanan eighth, Elzabad ninth,
1Ch 12:14 Jeremiah tenth, Machbannai eleventh.
1Ch 12:15 These Gadites were the leaders of the troops, the least of them a match for a hundred men and the greatest a match for a thousand.
1Ch 12:16 These were the men who once crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed its banks and had driven out all the lowlanders to east and west.
1Ch 12:17 Some of the Benjaminites and Judahites also joined David at the stronghold.
1Ch 12:18 When David came forward to meet them, he responded to them by saying, 'If you have come to me with peaceful intent to help me, you will find me a good friend. But if it is to betray me to my enemies, seeing that I have done nothing wrong, may the God of our ancestors take note and condemn you.'

1Ch 12:19 Then the Spirit invested Amasai the leader of the Thirty: 'We are your men, David; with you, son of Jesse! Peace be with you, peace be with you; peace be with those who help you! For your God has helped you!' And David accepted them, including them among his more senior officers.

1Ch 12:20 Some Manassehites also defected to David as he was setting out with the Philistines to fight Saul. But he did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their chiefs sent him away, saying, 'He will defect to his master Saul and it will cost us our heads!'

1Ch 12:21 He was on his way to Ziklag when these Manassehites deserted to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, Zillethai, chiefs of thousands in Manasseh.

1Ch 12:22 They helped David and his band, since they were all men of standing and became officers in the army.

1Ch 12:23 Indeed reinforcements reached David day after day, so that his camp grew into a camp of prodigious size.

1Ch 12:24 These are the numbers of fully armed men who joined David at Hebron to transfer Saul's kingdom to him in accordance with the order of Yahweh:

1Ch 12:25 Judahites carrying shield and spear: six thousand eight hundred fully armed warriors;
1Ch 12:26 Simeonites; seven thousand one hundred champions valiant in war;
1Ch 12:27 Levites: four thousand six hundred,
1Ch 12:28 in addition to Jehoiada, in command of the Aaronites, with three thousand seven hundred of these,
1Ch 12:29 Zadok, a young and valiant champion, and twenty-two commanders of his family;
1Ch 12:30 Benjaminites: three thousand kinsmen of Saul, most of them hitherto in the service of the House of Saul;
1Ch 12:31 Ephraimites: twenty thousand eight hundred valiant champions, men famous in their families;
1Ch 12:32 of the half-tribe of Manasseh: eighteen thousand men assigned by name to go and proclaim David king;

1Ch 12:33 Issacharites, sound judges of the times when Israel should take action, and the way to do it: two hundred chiefs and all their kinsmen under their command;

1Ch 12:34 Zebulunites: fifty thousand men fit for service, marshalled for battle, with warlike weapons of every kind, staunch-hearted auxiliaries;

1Ch 12:35 Naphtalites: a thousand commanders, and with them thirty-seven thousand men armed with shield and spear;

1Ch 12:36 Danites: twenty-eight thousand six hundred men marshalled for battle;

1Ch 12:37 Asherites: forty thousand men fit for service, marshalled for battle;

1Ch 12:38 from Transjordan: a hundred and twenty thousand men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with warlike weapons of every kind.

1Ch 12:39 All these warriors in battle array came to David at Hebron with the firm determination of making David king of all Israel; and the rest of Israel, too, was of one mind in wanting to make David king.

1Ch 12:40 For three days they stayed there with David, eating and drinking, their fellow-tribesmen having made preparations for them;

1Ch 12:41 their neighbours too, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen-supplies of flour, fig cakes, bunches of raisins, wine, oil, quantities of oxen and sheep -- for there was joy in Israel.

1Ch 13:1 David conferred with the commanders of the thousands and the hundreds, in fact with all the leaders.

1Ch 13:2 Then, to the whole assembly of Israel, David said, 'If this has your approval, and if Yahweh our God wills it so, we shall send messengers to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites in their towns and pasture lands, bidding them join us.'

1Ch 13:3 And then we will go and recover the ark of our God, for in the days of Saul we neglected to do it.'

1Ch 13:4 The whole assembly agreed to this, because all the people thought that this was the right thing to do.

1Ch 13:5 So David summoned all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to the Pass of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-Jearim.

1Ch 13:6 David and all Israel then went up to Baalah, to Kiriath-Jearim in Judah, from there to bring up the ark of God, which bears the title 'Yahweh enthroned on the winged creatures'.

1Ch 13:7 They transported the ark of God out of Abinadab's house on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio drove the cart.

1Ch 13:8 David and all Israel danced before God with all their might, singing to the accompaniment of harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

1Ch 13:9 When they came to the threshing-floor of the Javelin, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, as the oxen were making it tilt.

1Ch 13:10 This roused Yahweh's anger against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had laid his hand on the Ark, and there he died before God.

1Ch 13:11 David resented Yahweh's having broken out against Uzzah, and the place was given the name Perez-Uzzah, which it still has today.

1Ch 13:12 That day David felt afraid of God. 'How can I bring the ark of God to be with me?' he said.

1Ch 13:13 So David did not take the ark with him into the City of David but had it put in the house of Obed-Edom of Gath.

1Ch 13:14 The ark of God remained with Obed-Edom, in his house, for three months, and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom's family and everything that belonged to him.

1Ch 14:1 Hiram king of Tyre sent envoys to David, with cedar wood, stone-cutters and carpenters, to build him a palace.

1Ch 14:2 David then knew that Yahweh had confirmed him as king of Israel and, for the sake of his people, had extended his sovereignty.

1Ch 14:3 David took more wives in Jerusalem and fathered more sons and daughters.

1Ch 14:4 These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, Eliphelet.

1Ch 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king of all Israel, they all invaded to seek him out. On hearing this, David marched out towards them.

1Ch 14:9 When the Philistines arrived, they deployed in the Valley of the Rephaim.

1Ch 14:10 David consulted God and asked, 'Shall I attack the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my power?' Yahweh replied to him, 'Attack! I shall deliver them into your power.'

1Ch 14:11 Accordingly, they went up to Baal-Perazim and there David defeated them. David said, 'Through me God has made a breach in my enemies, as though they had been breached by a flood.' This is why the place was given the name Baal-Perazim.

1Ch 14:12 They had left their gods behind there, and David ordered them to be burnt.

1Ch 14:13 Again the Philistines deployed in the valley.

1Ch 14:14 David again consulted God, and God replied, 'Do not attack them from the front; go round and engage them opposite the balsam trees.'

1Ch 14:15 When you hear the sound of footsteps in the tops of the balsam trees, launch your attack, for that will be God going out ahead of you to defeat the Philistine army.'

1Ch 14:16 David did as God had ordered, and they beat the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

1Ch 14:17 David's fame then spread to every country, and Yahweh made him feared by every nation.

1Ch 15:1 After he had put up buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

1Ch 15:2 David then said, 'No one but the Levites should carry the ark of God, since Yahweh has chosen them to carry the ark of Yahweh and to minister to him for ever.'

1Ch 15:3 David then summoned all Israel to Jerusalem, to move the ark of Yahweh to the place which he had prepared for it.

1Ch 15:4 David also called the sons of Aaron and the Levites together:

1Ch 15:5 of the sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief and his hundred and twenty kinsmen;

1Ch 15:6 of the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief and his two hundred and twenty kinsmen;

1Ch 15:7 of the sons of Gershom: Joel the chief and his hundred and thirty kinsmen;

1Ch 15:8 of the sons of Elizaphan: Shemaiah the chief and his two hundred kinsmen;

1Ch 15:9 of the sons of Hebron: Eliel the chief and eighty kinsmen;

1Ch 15:10 of the sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief and his hundred and twelve kinsmen.

1Ch 15:11 David then sent for the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab.

1Ch 15:12 To them he said, 'You are the heads of the levitical families. Sanctify yourselves, you and your kinsmen, so that you can move the ark of Yahweh, God of Israel, to the place which I have prepared for it.'

1Ch 15:13 Because you were not there the first time, Yahweh our God broke out at us because we did not handle it properly.'

1Ch 15:14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves, to move the ark of Yahweh, God of Israel,

1Ch 15:15 and the Levites carried the ark of God with the shafts on their shoulders, as Moses had ordered in accordance with the word of Yahweh.

1Ch 15:16 David also told the heads of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen as singers with the accompaniment of musical instruments, lyres, harps, and cymbals to play joyfully.

1Ch 15:17 The Levites then appointed Heman son of Joel, Asaph son of Berechiah, one of his brothers, Ethan son of Kushaiah, one of their Merarite kinsmen;

1Ch 15:18 and with them their kinsmen of the second rank: Zechariah, Uzziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom and Jehiel the gatekeepers.

1Ch 15:19 The singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan, were to play the bronze cymbals.

1Ch 15:20 Zechariah, Uzziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyre.

1Ch 15:21 Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jehiel and Azaziah, giving the beat, were to play the harp.

1Ch 15:22 Chenaniah, the levitical director of transport was in charge of the transport, being skilful at it.

1Ch 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark.

1Ch 15:24 The priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer blew trumpets before the ark of God, while Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also gatekeepers for the ark.

1Ch 15:25 David, the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands accordingly went, amid great rejoicing, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh up from Obed-Edom's house, 1Ch 15:26 and since God was helping the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

1Ch 15:27 David, all the Levites who carried the ark, the singers and Chenaniah, director of transport, wore cloaks of fine linen. David also wore a linen ephod.

1Ch 15:28 Thus, with war-cries and the sounding of the horn, the trumpets and the cymbals, and the music of lyres and harps, all Israel transported the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

1Ch 15:29 Now, as the ark of the covenant of Yahweh entered the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul was watching from the window and, when she saw King David dancing and playing, the sight of him filled her with contempt.

1Ch 16:1 They brought the ark of God in and put it inside the tent which David had erected for it, and brought burnt offerings and made communion sacrifices in God's presence.

1Ch 16:2 And when David had finished making burnt offerings and communion sacrifices, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh.

1Ch 16:3 To all the Israelites, both men and women, to each, he then distributed a loaf of bread, a portion of meat and a raisin cake.

1Ch 16:4 He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of Yahweh, to extol, glorify and praise Yahweh, God of Israel;

1Ch 16:5 first Asaph, second Zechariah, then Uzziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, who played the lyre and harp, while Asaph played the cymbals.

1Ch 16:6 The priests Benaiah and Jahaziel continually blew the trumpet before the ark of the covenant of God.

1Ch 16:7 On that day, David was the first to assign to Asaph and his kinsmen the giving of thanks to Yahweh:

1Ch 16:8 Give thanks to Yahweh, call his name aloud, proclaim his deeds to the peoples.

1Ch 16:9 Chant to him, play to him, sing about all his wonders!

1Ch 16:10 Take pride in his holy name, let your heart rejoice, you seekers of Yahweh!

1Ch 16:11 Seek out Yahweh, seek his strength, continually seek out his presence!

1Ch 16:12 Remember what wonders he has done, what miracles, what rulings he has given, 1Ch 16:13 you offspring of Israel his servant, you children of Jacob his chosen one!

1Ch 16:14 For he is Yahweh our God, his authority extends throughout the world.

1Ch 16:15 For ever remember his covenant, the pact imposed for a thousand generations,

1Ch 16:16 which he concluded with Abraham, which was sworn by him to Isaac,

1Ch 16:17 since he confirmed it as a law for Jacob, as an eternal covenant for Israel,

1Ch 16:18 saying, 'I will give you the country; Canaan is the measure of your inheritance,

1Ch 16:19 'though you are few in number, only a few strangers there!'

1Ch 16:20 As they wandered from nation to nation, from this kingdom to that people,

1Ch 16:21 he would not let anyone oppress them and on their account he admonished kings,

1Ch 16:22 'You are not to touch my anointed ones, my prophets are not to be harmed!'

1Ch 16:23 Sing to Yahweh, all the earth, day after day proclaim his salvation!

1Ch 16:24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvels to every people!

1Ch 16:25 Great is Yahweh, worthy of all praise, more awesome than any of the gods.

1Ch 16:26 Nothingness, all the gods of the nations. Yahweh it was who made the heavens, 1Ch 16:27 in his presence are splendour and majesty, in his sanctuary strength and joy.

1Ch 16:28 Give Yahweh his due, families of peoples, give Yahweh his due of glory and power,

1Ch 16:29 give Yahweh the glory due to his name! Bring an offering and enter his courts, bow down to Yahweh in his sacred court,

1Ch 16:30 tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firm, it cannot be moved,

1Ch 16:31 let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad! Say among the nations, 'Yahweh is king!'

1Ch 16:32 Let the sea thunder and all it holds, the countryside exult and everything that is in it,

1Ch 16:33 and all the trees of the forest cry out for joy at Yahweh's approach, for he is coming to judge the earth.

1Ch 16:34 Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for his faithful love lasts for ever!

1Ch 16:35 Say, 'Save us, God of our salvation, gather us together and free us from the nations, so that we may give thanks to your holy name -- to be extolled whenever you are praised!'

1Ch 16:36 Blessed be Yahweh, God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! To which all the people said, 'Amen, Alleluia!'

1Ch 16:37 There before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh David left Asaph and his kinsmen to maintain a permanent ministry before the ark as each day's ritual required, 1Ch 16:38 and also Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight kinsmen. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were gatekeepers.

1Ch 16:39 Zadok the priest and the priests, his kinsmen, he left before the dwelling of Yahweh on the high place at Gibeon

1Ch 16:40 to bring burnt offerings to Yahweh unfailingly, morning and evening, on the altar of burnt offering, and to carry out all that is written in the Law of Yahweh laid down for Israel.

1Ch 16:41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those who were chosen and assigned by name to give thanks to Yahweh, 'for his faithful love lasts for ever'.

1Ch 16:42 With them were Heman and Jeduthun to play trumpets and cymbals, as well as instruments for accompanying sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were in charge of the gates.

1Ch 16:43 Then all the people went back to their homes, and David went back to bless his household.

1Ch 17:1 It happened, once David had settled into his palace, that David said to the prophet Nathan, 'Here am I living in a cedar-wood palace, while the ark of the covenant of Yahweh is under awnings.'

1Ch 17:2 Nathan said to David, 'Do whatever you have in mind, for God is with you.'

1Ch 17:3 But that very night the word of God came to Nathan, as follows:

1Ch 17:4 'Go and tell my servant David, "Yahweh says this: You must not build a temple for me to live in.

1Ch 17:5 I have never lived in a house from the day when I brought Israel out until today, but have kept travelling from tent to tent and from shelter to shelter.

1Ch 17:6 In all my travels with all Israel, did I say to any of the judges of Israel, whom I had commanded to shepherd my people: Why do you not build me a cedar-wood temple?

1Ch 17:7 This is what you must say to my servant David: Yahweh Sabaoth says this: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader of my people Israel.

1Ch 17:8 I have been with you wherever you went; I have got rid of all your enemies for you. I am going to make your fame like that of the greatest men on earth.

1Ch 17:9 I am going to provide a place for my people Israel; I shall plant them there and there they will live and never be disturbed again; nor will they be oppressed by the wicked as they were in former times

1Ch 17:10 ever since I instituted judges to govern my people Israel; I shall subdue all your enemies. Yahweh moreover tells you that he will build you a dynasty.

1Ch 17:11 And when your days are over and you have gone to join your ancestors, I shall appoint your heir -- who will be one of your sons -- to succeed you, and I shall make his sovereignty secure.

1Ch 17:12 He will build a temple for me and I shall make his throne secure for ever.

1Ch 17:13 I shall be his father and he will be my son, and I shall not withdraw my favour from him, as I withdrew it from your predecessor.

1Ch 17:14 I shall set him over my temple and kingdom for ever and his throne will be for ever secure."

1Ch 17:15 Nathan related all these words and this whole revelation to David.

1Ch 17:16 King David then went in, sat down in Yahweh's presence and said: 'Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my lineage, that you have led me as far as this?

1Ch 17:17 Yet, to you, O God, this seemed too little, and now you extend your promises for your servant's family into the distant future, making me see as it were a whole succession of men, and it is Yahweh God himself who raises it up.

1Ch 17:18 What more can David reply to you for the honour you have given to your servant? You yourself have singled out your servant.

1Ch 17:19 For your servant, and since you were so inclined, you have had the generosity to reveal all this greatness to come.

1Ch 17:20 Yahweh, there is no one like you, no God but you alone, as everything that we have heard confirms.

1Ch 17:21 Is there another people on earth like your people Israel, whom a god has proceeded to redeem, to make them his people and to make them famous and do for them great and terrible deeds, by driving out nations before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt? -

1Ch 17:22 for you made your people Israel your own people for ever and you, Yahweh, became their God.

1Ch 17:23 'Now, Yahweh, may the promise which you have made for your servant and as regards his family hold good for ever, and do as you have said.'

1Ch 17:24 May it hold good, so your name will be exalted for ever and people will say, "Israel's God is Yahweh Sabaoth; he is God for Israel." Your servant David's dynasty will be secure before you 1Ch 17:25 since you, my God, have disclosed to your servant that you are going to build him a dynasty. Hence, your servant has ventured to offer this prayer to you.

1Ch 17:26 Yes, Yahweh, you are God indeed, and you have made this generous promise to your servant.

1Ch 17:27 What is more, you have deigned to bless your servant's dynasty, so that it may remain for ever before you; and since you, Yahweh, have blessed it, blessed will it be for ever.'

1Ch 18:1 After this David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. From the grip of the Philistines he wrested Gath and its dependencies.

1Ch 18:2 He also defeated the Moabites; the Moabites became David's subjects and paid him tribute.

1Ch 18:3 David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah, which lies in the direction of Hamath, when the latter mounted an expedition to assert his rule on the River Euphrates.

1Ch 18:4 David captured one thousand chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers from him; David hamstrung all the chariot teams, keeping only a hundred of them.

1Ch 18:5 The Aramaeans of Damascus came to the help of Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David killed twenty-two thousand of the Aramaeans.

1Ch 18:6 David then imposed governors in Aram of Damascus, and the Aramaeans became David's subjects and paid him tribute. Wherever David went, Yahweh gave him victory.

1Ch 18:7 David took the golden shields carried by Hadadezer's guards and brought them to Jerusalem.

1Ch 18:8 From Tibhath and from Cun, towns belonging to Hadadezer, David captured a great quantity of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars and the bronze implements.

1Ch 18:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

1Ch 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him on having made war on

Hadadezer and on having defeated him, since Hadadezer was at war with Tou. He also sent all sorts of objects made of gold, silver and bronze, 1Ch 18:11 which King David also consecrated to Yahweh, as well as the silver and gold which he had levied from all the nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek.

1Ch 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah defeated the Edomites in the Valley of Salt -- eighteen thousand of them.

1Ch 18:13 He stationed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. Wherever David went, Yahweh gave him victory.

1Ch 18:14 David ruled over all Israel, administering law and justice to all his people.

1Ch 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was in command of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was herald;

1Ch 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Abiathar son of Ahimelech were priests; Shusha was secretary;

1Ch 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the Cherethites and Pelethites; David's sons took first place after the king.

1Ch 19:1 After this, when Nahash king of the Ammonites died and his son Hanun succeeded him,

1Ch 19:2 David thought, 'I shall show Hanun son of Nahash the same faithful love as his father showed me.'

And David sent representatives to offer him condolences over his father. But when David's representatives reached Hanun in the Ammonites' country to present these condolences,

1Ch 19:3 the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, 'Do you really think David means to honour your father when he sends you messengers with sympathy? On the contrary, the reason why his representatives have come to you is to explore, overthrow and reconnoitre the country.'

1Ch 19:4 Whereupon Hanun seized David's representatives, shaved them, cut their clothes off half-way up, right by their buttocks, and sent them away.

1Ch 19:5 As soon as David was told how the men had been treated, he sent someone to meet them, since the men were overcome with shame. 'Stay in Jericho,' the king said, 'until your beards have grown, and come back then.'

1Ch 19:6 When the Ammonites realised that they had antagonised David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and cavalry from the Aramaeans of Upper Mesopotamia, of Maacah and of Zobah.

1Ch 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah with his people, who came and encamped before Medeba, while the Ammonites, having left their towns and mustered, were advancing to the war.

1Ch 19:8 When David heard this, he sent Joab with the whole army, the champions.

1Ch 19:9 The Ammonites marched out and drew up their line of battle at the city gate, while the kings who had come kept their distance in the open country.

1Ch 19:10 Joab, seeing that he had to fight on two fronts, to his front and to his rear, chose the best of Israel's picked men and drew them up in line facing the Aramaeans.

1Ch 19:11 He entrusted the rest of the army to his brother Abishai, and drew them up in line facing the Ammonites.

1Ch 19:12 'If the Aramaeans prove too strong for me,' he said, 'you must come to my help; if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, I shall come to yours.'

1Ch 19:13 Be brave and let us fight valiantly, for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God! And let Yahweh dispose as he thinks fit!

1Ch 19:14 Joab and the force with him joined battle with the Aramaeans, who fled at his onslaught.

1Ch 19:15 When the Ammonites saw that the Aramaeans had fled, they too fled from his brother Abishai and withdrew into the city. Joab then returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 19:16 The Aramaeans, realising that Israel had got the better of them, sent messengers and mobilised the Aramaeans living on the other side of the River, with Shophach, commander of Hadadezer's army, at their head.

1Ch 19:17 David, being informed of this, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, made contact with them and took up position near them. David drew up his line of battle facing the Aramaeans, who then engaged him.

1Ch 19:18 But the Aramaeans fled from Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their chariot teams and forty thousand men; and also Shophach, the commander of the army.

1Ch 19:19 When Hadadezer's vassals saw that Israel had got the better of them, they made peace with David and became his subjects. The Aramaeans were unwilling to give any more help to the Ammonites.

1Ch 20:1 At the turn of the year, at the time when kings go campaigning, Joab led out the troops and, having ravaged the Ammonites' territory, proceeded to lay siege to Rabbah. David, however, remained in Jerusalem. Joab reduced Rabbah and dismantled it.

1Ch 20:2 David took the crown off Milcom's head and found that it weighed a talent of gold, and in it was set a precious stone which went on David's head instead. He carried off great quantities of booty from the city.

1Ch 20:3 And he expelled its inhabitants, setting them to work with saws, iron picks and axes. David treated all the Ammonite towns in the same way. David and all the people then returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 20:4 After this war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. This was when Sibbecai of Hushah killed Sippai, one of the Rephaim, and the Philistines were subdued.

1Ch 20:5 Again, war with the Philistines broke out, and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi brother of Goliath of Gath, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

1Ch 20:6 There was further warfare at Gath, where there was a man of huge stature with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all. He too was a son of Rapha.

1Ch 20:7 When he defied Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, brother of David cut him down.

1Ch 20:8 These men were sons of Rapha in Gath and fell at the hands of David and his guards.

1Ch 21:1 Satan took his stand against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

1Ch 21:2 David said to Joab and the people's princes, 'Go, and take a census of Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, then bring it back to me and let me know the total.'

1Ch 21:3 Joab replied, 'May Yahweh multiply his people to a hundred times what they are today! But my lord king, are they not all my lord's servants in any case? Why should my lord insist on this? Why should he involve Israel in guilt?'

1Ch 21:4 But the king enforced his order on Joab, and Joab set out, travelled throughout all Israel, and then returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 21:5 Joab gave David the census results for the people: all Israel had eleven hundred thousand men who could wield a sword; Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who could wield a sword.

1Ch 21:6 Joab had found the king's command so distasteful that he did not include Levi and Benjamin.

1Ch 21:7 God looked with displeasure on this and punished Israel in consequence.

1Ch 21:8 David then said to God, 'I have committed a grave sin by doing this. But now I beg you to forgive your servant for this fault, for I have acted very foolishly.'

1Ch 21:9 Yahweh then spoke to Gad, David's seer,

1Ch 21:10 'Go and say to David, "Yahweh says this: I offer you three things; choose which one of them I am to inflict on you."

1Ch 21:11 So Gad went to David and said, 'Yahweh says this,

1Ch 21:12 "Take your choice between three years of famine; or three months of disaster at the hands of your enemies, with your enemies' sword overtaking you; or three days of Yahweh's sword, an epidemic in the country, while the angel of Yahweh wreaks havoc throughout the territory of Israel." Now decide how I am to answer him who sends me.'

1Ch 21:13 David said to Gad, 'I am very apprehensive. Better for me to fall into Yahweh's hand, since his mercies are very great, than for me to fall into the hands of human enemies.'

1Ch 21:14 So Yahweh unleashed an epidemic on Israel, and seventy thousand Israelites succumbed.

1Ch 21:15 Next, God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but as he was about to destroy it, Yahweh looked down and felt sorry about the calamity; and he said to the destroying angel, 'Enough now! Hold your hand!' The angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 David, raising his eyes, saw the angel of Yahweh standing between earth and heaven, a drawn sword in his hand stretched out towards Jerusalem. David and the elders then put on sackcloth and fell on their faces,

1Ch 21:17 and David said to God, 'Did I not order the people to be counted? I was the one who sinned and actually committed the wrong. But these, the flock, what have they done? Yahweh my God, let your hand lie heavy on me and on my family; but spare your people from the plague!'

1Ch 21:18 The angel of Yahweh then ordered Gad to tell David that David should go up and erect an altar to Yahweh on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:19 So, at Gad's bidding, given in Yahweh's name, David went up.

1Ch 21:20 Ornan had turned round and seen the angel, and he and his four sons with him had hidden.

1Ch 21:21 When David arrived Ornan was threshing wheat. He looked up and saw David and came off the threshing-floor and prostrated himself on the ground at David's feet.

1Ch 21:22 David then said to Ornan, 'Let me have the site of the threshing-floor, so that I can build an altar to Yahweh on it; let me have it at the full price -- so that the plague may be lifted from the people.' Ornan said to David,

1Ch 21:23 'Take it, and let my lord the king do what he thinks fit. Look, I shall give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing-sleds for the wood and the wheat for the oblation. I shall give everything.'

1Ch 21:24 'No,' said King David to Ornan, 'I insist on buying it at the full price. I will not offer Yahweh what belongs to you or bring burnt offerings which have cost me nothing.'

1Ch 21:25 So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the site.

1Ch 21:26 There David built an altar to Yahweh and brought burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on Yahweh, and Yahweh answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1Ch 21:27 Then Yahweh ordered the angel to sheathe his sword.

1Ch 21:28 Whereupon, seeing that Yahweh had answered him on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, David offered sacrifice there.

1Ch 21:29 The Dwelling which Moses had made in the desert and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon, 1Ch 21:30 but David could not go there to consult God because he was terrified of the angel's sword.

1Ch 22:1 David then said, 'This is to be the house of Yahweh God and this the altar of burnt offering for Israel.'

1Ch 22:2 David then gave orders for all foreigners in Israel to be rounded up, and appointed quarrymen to cut dressed stone for building the house of God.

1Ch 22:3 David also prepared great quantities of iron to make nails for the leaves of the doors and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed,

1Ch 22:4 as well as innumerable cedar-wood logs, as the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought cedar logs to David in great quantities.

1Ch 22:5 David then said, 'My son Solomon is young and immature, and the house to be built for Yahweh must be superlatively fine, the most famous and splendid in any country. I shall now make the preparations for it.' And so, before he died, David made ample preparations.

1Ch 22:6 He then summoned his son Solomon and commanded him to build a house for Yahweh, God of Israel.

1Ch 22:7 'My son,' David said to Solomon, 'my heart was set on building a house for the name of Yahweh my God.

1Ch 22:8 But the word of Yahweh came to me, "You have shed much blood and fought great wars; it is not for you to build a house for my name, since you have shed much blood in my sight on earth.

1Ch 22:9 Look, a son will be born to you. He will be a man of peace, and I shall give him peace from his enemies on all sides; for Solomon is to be his name, and in his days I shall give Israel peace and tranquillity.

1Ch 22:10 He must build a house for my name; he will be my son and I shall be his father, and I shall make the throne of his kingdom secure over Israel for ever."

1Ch 22:11 Now, my son, may Yahweh be with you and give you success in building a house for Yahweh your God, as he has promised about you.

1Ch 22:12 And especially, may Yahweh give you discretion and discernment, may he give you his orders for Israel, so that you may observe the Law of Yahweh your God.

1Ch 22:13 Success will be yours, only if you observe the statutes and ordinances which Yahweh gave Moses as regulations for Israel. Be strong and stand fast, be fearless, be dauntless.

1Ch 22:14 Now, poor as I am, I have set aside for the house of Yahweh a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver and more bronze and iron than can be weighed, there being so much. I have also provided timber and stone, to which you may add more.

1Ch 22:15 Furthermore, you have a large number of workmen, quarrymen, masons, carpenters and all sorts of craftsmen for every kind of work,

1Ch 22:16 while your gold and silver, bronze and iron will be beyond reckoning. Set to work, then, and may Yahweh be with you!'

1Ch 22:17 David then commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon.

1Ch 22:18 'Has not Yahweh your God been with you and given you peace on all sides, having put the inhabitants of the country into my power and the country now having been subdued for Yahweh and his people?

1Ch 22:19 So now devote heart and soul to searching for Yahweh your God. Set to and build the sanctuary of Yahweh God, so that you can bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh and the holy vessels of God into the house built for the name of Yahweh.'

1Ch 23:1 When David had become old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king of Israel, 1Ch 23:2 and then summoned all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and Levites.

1Ch 23:3 A census was taken of those Levites thirty years old and upwards. On a count of heads, they numbered thirty-eight thousand men;

1Ch 23:4 twenty-four thousand were responsible for the service of the House of Yahweh, six thousand were officials and judges, 1Ch 23:5 four thousand were gatekeepers and four thousand praised Yahweh on the instruments which David had made for praising him.

1Ch 23:6 David then divided the Levites into classes: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

1Ch 23:7 Of the Gershonites there were Ladan and Shimei.

1Ch 23:8 Sons of Ladan: Jehiel first, Zetham, Joel; three in all.

1Ch 23:9 Sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel, Haran; three in all. These are the heads of families of Ladan.

1Ch 23:10 Sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, Beriah; these were the sons of Shimei; four in all.

1Ch 23:11 Jahath was the eldest, Zizah the second, then Jeush and Beriah, who had not many children and were reckoned as one family.

1Ch 23:12 Sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, Uzziel; four in all.

1Ch 23:13 Sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to consecrate the things that were especially holy, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense in the presence of Yahweh, to serve him and to bless in his name for ever.

1Ch 23:14 Moses, man of God, and his sons were reckoned with the tribe of Levi.

1Ch 23:15 Sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

1Ch 23:16 Sons of Gershom: Shebuel, the first.

1Ch 23:17 Of the sons of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

1Ch 23:18 Sons of Izhar: Shelomith, the first.

1Ch 23:19 Sons of Hebron: Jeriah first, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, Jekameam fourth.

1Ch 23:20 Sons of Uzziel: Micah first, Isshiah second.

1Ch 23:21 Sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. Sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

1Ch 23:22 Eleazar died without sons, but he did have daughters, whom their cousins, the sons of Kish, married.

1Ch 23:23 Sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, Jeremoth: three in all.

1Ch 23:24 These were the sons of Levi by their families, the heads of families, and those registered by name, individually; whoever was twenty years old or upwards had his function in the service of the Temple of Yahweh.

1Ch 23:25 For David said, 'Since Yahweh, God of Israel, has given rest to his people Israel and has taken up residence in Jerusalem for ever,

1Ch 23:26 the Levites need no longer carry the Dwelling or any of the objects required for its service.'

1Ch 23:27 For, according to the last words of David, the Levites who had been registered were of twenty years and upwards.

1Ch 23:28 Their duty now is to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the House of Yahweh, in the care of the courts and rooms, the purification of all the holy things, the work for the service of the House of God, 1Ch 23:29 the loaves of permanent offering, the flour for the oblation, the wafers of unleavened bread, the pan-baked materials, the unmixed materials and all measures of volume and length.

1Ch 23:30 Furthermore, they have to be present every morning to give thanks and praise to Yahweh, and also in the evening,

1Ch 23:31 and at the bringing of every burnt offering to Yahweh on Sabbath, New Moon or solemn feast, appearing regularly before Yahweh in accordance with the numbers required of them.

1Ch 23:32 In serving the Temple of Yahweh they observe the ritual of the Tent of Meeting, the ritual of the sanctuary and the ritual of their kinsmen, the sons of Aaron.'

1Ch 24:1 Orders of the sons of Aaron: Sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, Ithamar.

1Ch 24:2 Nadab and Abihu died in their father's lifetime leaving no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar filled the office of priest.

1Ch 24:3 With Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, David allocated them according to the classification of their duties.

1Ch 24:4 Since the sons of Eleazar were found to have more headmen than the sons of Ithamar, they allocated sixteen heads of families to the sons of Eleazar and eight heads of families to the sons of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:5 They allocated them by lot, both alike, there being religious officials and officials of God among the sons of Eleazar, as among the sons of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:6 The levitical scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, recorded them in the presence of the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar and the heads of the priestly and levitical families, so that two families were selected for Eleazar for each one selected for Ithamar.

1Ch 24:7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

1Ch 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

1Ch 24:9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

1Ch 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

1Ch 24:11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

1Ch 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

1Ch 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Ishbaal,

1Ch 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

1Ch 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,

1Ch 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

1Ch 24:17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

1Ch 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

1Ch 24:19 These were their classifications for their duties when they entered the House of Yahweh in accordance with their prescriptions laid down by Aaron their ancestor as Yahweh, God of Israel, had commanded him.

1Ch 24:20 As regards the rest of the sons of Levi: Of the sons of Amram: Shubael. Of the sons of Shubael:

Jehdeiah.

- 1Ch 24:21 As regards Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah: Isshiah, the first one.
1Ch 24:22 Of the sons of Izhar: Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.
1Ch 24:23 Of the sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.
1Ch 24:24 The son of Uzziel was Micah; of the sons of Micah: Shamir.
1Ch 24:25 The brother of Micah was Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.
1Ch 24:26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; of his sons: Jaaziah his son.
1Ch 24:27 The sons of Merari by his son Jaaziah were Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.
1Ch 24:28 Of Mahli, there was Eleazar who had no sons,
1Ch 24:29 and Kish; and of the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.
1Ch 24:30 The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These were the Levites according to families.
1Ch 24:31 Like their kinsmen, the sons of Aaron, these heads of families, senior and junior alike, also drew lots in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the priestly and levitical families.
1Ch 25:1 For the liturgy, David and the religious officials selected the sons of Asaph, of Heman and of Jeduthun, who were to prophesy to the accompaniment of harps, lyres and cymbals. The list of ministrants for this service was as follows:
1Ch 25:2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph who prophesied at the king's direction.
1Ch 25:3 Of Jeduthun there were the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun who, with the harp, prophesied when thanks and praise were to be given to Yahweh.
1Ch 25:4 Of Heman there were the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.
1Ch 25:5 All these were sons of Heman, the king's seer; at God's word they blew the horn. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.
1Ch 25:6 Under the king's direction all these had the duty of singing to the accompaniment of cymbal, lyre and harp for the liturgy of the house of God under the direction of their fathers. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman, 1Ch 25:7 trained in the songs of Yahweh, with their brothers, numbered two hundred and eighty-eight, all expert.
1Ch 25:8 Junior and senior, master and pupil alike, they drew lots for their term of duty.
1Ch 25:9 The first to whom the lot fell was the Asaphite, Joseph. The second was Gedaliah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:10 The third was Zaccur, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:11 The fourth was Izri, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:12 The fifth was Nethaniah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:13 The sixth was Bukkiah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:14 The seventh was Jesharelah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:15 The eighth was Jeshaiah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:16 The ninth was Mattaniah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:17 The tenth was Shimei, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:18 The eleventh was Azarel, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:19 The twelfth was Hashabiah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:20 The thirteenth was Shubael, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:21 The fourteenth was Mattithiah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:22 The fifteenth was Jeremoth, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:23 The sixteenth was Hananiah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:24 The seventeenth was Joshbekashah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:25 The eighteenth was Hanani, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:26 The nineteenth was Mallothi, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:27 The twentieth was Eliathah, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:28 The twenty-first was Hothir, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:29 The twenty-second was Giddalti, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:30 The twenty-third was Mahazioth, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 25:31 The twenty-fourth was Romamti-Ezer, who with his sons and brothers made twelve.
1Ch 26:1 As regards the orders of the gatekeepers: Of the Korahites there was Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Ebiasaph, 1Ch 26:2 and Meshelemiah's sons: Zechariah the first-born, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,
1Ch 26:3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

1Ch 26:4 Obed-Edom's sons were: Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, 1Ch 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; God had indeed blessed him.

1Ch 26:6 His son Shemaiah also had sons who wielded authority in their family, because they were men of outstanding quality.

1Ch 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah were: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were outstanding men.

1Ch 26:8 All these were sons of Obed-Edom, who with their sons and brothers were men of standing, well fitted for their task. Obed-Edom had sixty-two.

1Ch 26:9 Meshhelemiah had eighteen outstanding sons and brothers.

1Ch 26:10 Hosah, one of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri was the first, for although he was not the first-born his father had made him the chief.

1Ch 26:11 Hilkiah was the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: Hosah had thirteen sons and brothers in all.

1Ch 26:12 These orders of gatekeepers, allocated according to their headmen, had duties, just like their brothers, of serving in the house of Yahweh.

1Ch 26:13 Similarly, they drew lots for each gate, whether their families were large or small.

1Ch 26:14 For the eastern one, the lot fell to Shelemiah; and when they drew lots for Zechariah his son, a shrewd counsellor, his lot came out for the north.

1Ch 26:15 To Obed-Edom went the south, and to his sons the storehouses.

1Ch 26:16 To Shuppim and Hosah went the west with the Gate of the Felled Tree-trunk on the upper road. The corresponding guards were as follows:

1Ch 26:17 for the east gate, six per day; for the north gate, four per day; for the south gate, four per day; for the storehouses, two each;

1Ch 26:18 for the Parbar at the west gate, four by the road and two for the Parbar.

1Ch 26:19 These were the orders of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and the sons of Merari.

1Ch 26:20 The Levites, their brothers, who were responsible for the treasures of the house of God and for the treasures of consecrated gifts, 1Ch 26:21 were the sons of Ladan and belonged to the Gershonites -- the heads of the families of Ladan were descended from Ladan the Gershonite -- that is to say, the Jehielites.

1Ch 26:22 The sons of the Jehielites, Zetham and Joel his brother, were responsible for the treasures of the house of Yahweh.

1Ch 26:23 Over the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites, and Uzzielites

1Ch 26:24 was Shebuel son of Gershom, son of Moses, who was governor of the treasures;

1Ch 26:25 and his brothers of the line of Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomoth his son.

1Ch 26:26 This Shelomoth and his kinsmen were responsible for all the consecrated treasures dedicated by King David, by the heads of families, by the commanders of the thousands and hundreds and by the commanders of the army,

1Ch 26:27 who had dedicated a part of the spoils of war to the service of the house of Yahweh, 1Ch 26:28 and also for all that Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah had dedicated. In fact, whatever was dedicated was the responsibility of Shelomoth and his kinsmen.

1Ch 26:29 Of the Izharites, Chananiah and his sons were assigned to secular duties for Israel as officials and judges.

1Ch 26:30 Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his kinsmen, one thousand seven hundred outstanding men were in charge of Israel west of Jordan in everything pertaining to Yahweh and to the service of the king.

1Ch 26:31 Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was the head. In the fortieth year of David's reign research was done on the lineage and relationships of the Hebronites, and men of outstanding quality from among them were found at Jazer in Gilead.

1Ch 26:32 There were twenty-seven hundred outstanding men, heads of families, whom King David put in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh in all matters pertaining to God and the king.

1Ch 27:1 The Israelites listed according to heads of families, commanders of thousands and hundreds, with their officials in the king's service who dealt with all matters affecting the companies on monthly duty, month by month throughout the year, each company consisting of twenty-four thousand men:

1Ch 27:2 The commander of the first company detailed for the first month was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:3 He belonged to the family of Perez and was the senior military officer of all those detailed for the first month.

1Ch 27:4 The commander of the company for the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:5 The officer commanding the third body of men for the third month was Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the chief priest, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:6 This was the Benaiah who was an important member of the Thirty and his company. His son was Ammizabad.

1Ch 27:7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel brother of Joab, and his son Zebadiah after him, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:8 The fifth officer commanding for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Zerahite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira son of Ikkesh of Tekoa, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:10 The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, one of the Ephraimites, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbecai of Hushah, a Zerahite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer of Anathoth, a Benjaminite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:13 The tenth for the tenth month was Maherai of Netophah, a Zerahite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah of Pirathon, an Ephraimite, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai of Netophah, of Othniel, whose company consisted of twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:16 Responsible for the tribes of Israel were chief Eliezer son of Zichri for the Reubenites, Shephatiah son of Maacah for the Simeonites,

1Ch 27:17 Hashabiah son of Kemuel for the Levites, Zadok for the Aaronites,

1Ch 27:18 Elihu, one of David's brothers, for Judah, Omri son of Michael for Issachar,

1Ch 27:19 Ishmaiah son of Obadiah for Zebulun, Jerimoth son of Azriel for Naphtali,

1Ch 27:20 Hoshea son of Azaziah for the Ephraimites, Joel son of Pedaiah for the half-tribe of Manasseh,

1Ch 27:21 Iddo son of Zechariah for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Jaasiel son of Abner for Benjamin, 1Ch 27:22 and Azarel son of Jeroham for Dan. These were the tribal chiefs of Israel.

1Ch 27:23 Now in the census David did not include those who were twenty years old and under, since Yahweh had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars of heaven.

1Ch 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began the count but never finished. This is why retribution came upon Israel, and the number did not come up to that recorded in the annals of King David.

1Ch 27:25 Overseer of the king's supplies: Azmaveth son of Adiel. Overseer of supplies in the countryside, towns, villages and fortresses: Jonathan son of Uzziah.

1Ch 27:26 Overseer of the farmers who tilled the land: Ezri son of Chelub.

1Ch 27:27 Overseer of vineyards: Shimei of Ramah. Overseer of those in the vineyards who looked after the wine cellars: Zabdi of Shepham.

1Ch 27:28 Overseer of olive and sycamore trees in the Shephelah: Baal-Hanan of Geder. Overseer of oil supplies: Joash.

1Ch 27:29 Overseer of cattle at pasture in the plains of Sharon: Shitrai of Sharon. Overseer of cattle in the valleys: Shaphat son of Adlai.

1Ch 27:30 Overseer of camels: Obil the Ishmaelite.

1Ch 27:31 Overseer of donkeys: Jehdeiah of Meranoth. Overseer of flocks: Jaziz the Hagrite. All the above supervised the property belonging to King David.

1Ch 27:32 Jonathan, David's uncle, a councillor, wise man and scribe, and Jehiel son of Hachmoni took care of the king's sons.

1Ch 27:33 Ahitophel was the king's counsellor and Hushai, the Archite, was Friend of the King.

1Ch 27:34 Jehoiada son of Benaiah and Abiathar succeeded Ahitophel -- Joab was commander of the king's army.

1Ch 28:1 David then summoned to Jerusalem all the officials of Israel -- the tribal chiefs, the senior officials in the royal service, the commanders of the thousands, the commanders of the hundreds and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and to his sons -- including the court officials, the champions and all the men of standing.

1Ch 28:2 King David then rose to his feet and said: 'My brothers and my people, listen to me. I have set my heart on building a settled home for the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, for the footstool for our God, but when I was ready to build it,

1Ch 28:3 God said to me, "You must not build a house for my name, for you have been a man of war and have shed blood."

1Ch 28:4 'Even so, out of my entire family, it was I whom Yahweh, God of Israel, chose to reign over Israel for ever. Having chosen Judah as leader, and my family out of the House of Judah, it pleased him out of all my father's sons to make me king of all Israel.'

1Ch 28:5 Out of all my sons -- for Yahweh has given me many -- he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on Yahweh's sovereign throne over Israel.

1Ch 28:6 Furthermore, he has told me, "Solomon your son is the man to build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son and I shall be his father."

1Ch 28:7 I shall make his sovereignty secure for ever if he sturdily carries out my commandments and ordinances as he does now."

1Ch 28:8 'So now in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the hearing of our God, I charge you to observe and adhere strictly to all the commandments of Yahweh your God, so that you may retain possession of this fine country and leave it to your sons after you as a heritage for ever.'

1Ch 28:9 'And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with an undivided heart and willing mind; for Yahweh scrutinises all hearts and understands whatever plans they may devise. If you seek him, he will let you find him; but forsake him and he will cast you off for ever.'

1Ch 28:10 So, since Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for his sanctuary, go resolutely to work!'

1Ch 28:11 David then gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico, the plans for the buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms and the room for the throne of mercy

1Ch 28:12 as well as the plans for everything that he had in mind: for the courts of the house of Yahweh, for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasures of the house of God and for the sacred treasures,

1Ch 28:13 for the orders of priests and Levites, for all the duties to be carried out in the service of the house of Yahweh, and for all the liturgical objects to be used in the house of Yahweh;

1Ch 28:14 for the gold bullion, for all the golden liturgical objects of various uses; for the silver bullion, for all the silver liturgical objects of various uses;

1Ch 28:15 for the gold bullion for the golden lamp-stands and for their lamps, and for the silver bullion for the silver lamp-stands and their lights, depending on the function of each lamp-stand;

1Ch 28:16 for the gold bullion for each of the tables for the loaves of permanent offering and the silver for the silver tables;

1Ch 28:17 for the pure gold for the forks, the bowls and the jars, for the gold bullion for each of the golden basins and for the silver bullion for each of the silver basins;

1Ch 28:18 and for the refined gold bullion for the altar of incense; also for the gold for the model of the chariot and of the great winged creatures which cover the ark of the covenant of Yahweh with wings outspread-

1Ch 28:19 all this was in the document conveying Yahweh's instructions, by which he revealed the pattern of what was to be done.

1Ch 28:20 David then said to his son Solomon, 'Be resolute and courageous in your work, do not be afraid or disheartened, because Yahweh God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you before you have finished all the work to be done for the house of Yahweh.'

1Ch 28:21 And besides, there are the orders of priests and Levites for whatever is needed in connection with the house of God, and you have at your disposal every kind of craftsman for whatever has to be done, as well as the officials and all the people entirely at your command.'

1Ch 29:1 David then addressed the whole assembly, 'Solomon my son, whom Yahweh has specifically chosen, is young and immature, and the work is great; this palace is not for any human being but for Yahweh God.'

1Ch 29:2 With all the resources I can command, for the house of my God I have provided gold for what must be made of gold, silver for what must be made of silver, bronze for what must be made of bronze, iron for what must be made of iron, wood for what must be made of wood, as well as cornelian for inlay work, slabs of multi-coloured mosaic, every kind of precious stone and quantities of alabaster.'

1Ch 29:3 Furthermore, because my affections are set on the house of my God, I have also given what gold and silver I personally own for the house of my God, over and above everything which I have already provided for the holy Temple-

1Ch 29:4 that is to say, three thousand talents of gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the buildings,

1Ch 29:5 the gold being for what must be made of gold, and the silver for what must be made of silver: and for whatever the craftsmen must make. Who, then, is willing to devote himself to Yahweh's service today?'

1Ch 29:6 At this, the heads of families, the tribal chiefs of Israel, the commanders of the thousands and the hundreds and those who managed the king's affairs,

1Ch 29:7 volunteered a gift of five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze and a hundred thousand talents of iron, 1Ch 29:8 while those who owned precious stones presented them to the treasury of the house of Yahweh in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1Ch 29:9 The people rejoiced at what these had given so readily, since they had presented their freewill offerings wholeheartedly to Yahweh. King David too was filled with joy.

1Ch 29:10 Hence, in the presence of the whole assembly David blessed Yahweh. David said: 'May you be blessed, Yahweh, God of Israel our ancestor, for ever and for ever!

1Ch 29:11 Yours, Yahweh, is the greatness, the power, the splendour, length of days and glory, everything in heaven and on earth is yours. Yours is the sovereignty, Yahweh; you are exalted, supreme over all.

1Ch 29:12 Wealth and riches come from you, you are ruler of all, in your hand lie strength and power, and you bestow greatness and might on whomsoever you please.

1Ch 29:13 So now, our God, we give thanks to you and praise your majestic name,

1Ch 29:14 for who am I and what is my people, for us to be able to volunteer offerings like this? - since everything has come from you and we have given you only what you bestowed in the first place,

1Ch 29:15 and we are guests before you, and passing visitors as were all our ancestors, our days on earth fleeting as a shadow and without hope.

1Ch 29:16 Yahweh our God, all this wealth, which we have provided to build a house for your holy name, has come from you and all belongs to you.

1Ch 29:17 'Knowing, my God, how you examine our motives and how you delight in integrity, with integrity of motive I have willingly given all this and have been overjoyed to see your people, now present here, willingly offering their gifts to you.

1Ch 29:18 Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel our ancestors, watch over this for ever, shape the purpose of your people's heart and direct their hearts to you,

1Ch 29:19 and give an undivided heart to Solomon my son to keep your commandments, your decrees and your statutes, to put them all into effect and to build the palace for which I have made provision.'

1Ch 29:20 David then addressed the whole assembly: 'Now bless Yahweh your God! And the whole assembly blessed Yahweh, God of their ancestors, bowing down in homage to Yahweh, and to the king.

1Ch 29:21 On the day following this, they slaughtered sacrifices and brought burnt offerings to Yahweh on behalf of Israel -- a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs with their libations, as well as many other sacrifices-

1Ch 29:22 and they ate and drank that day in Yahweh's presence with great joy. They then made Solomon son of David king a second time, anointing him as leader for Yahweh, and Zadok as priest.

1Ch 29:23 Solomon took his seat on Yahweh's throne, to reign in succession to David his father. He prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

1Ch 29:24 All the chiefs, all the leading citizens and all King David's other sons pledged allegiance to King Solomon.

1Ch 29:25 Yahweh made Solomon exceedingly powerful, as all Israel could see, and gave him a reign of such splendour as no previous king of Israel ever had.

1Ch 29:26 David son of Jesse was king of all Israel.

1Ch 29:27 He was king of Israel for a period of forty years; he reigned at Hebron for seven years, and in Jerusalem for thirty-three.

1Ch 29:28 He died at a good old age, full of days, riches and honour. Then his son Solomon succeeded him.

1Ch 29:29 The history of King David, from first to last, is all written down in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer, 1Ch 29:30 with his entire reign, his mighty deeds and the times which he, Israel and all the kings of other countries, had experienced.

2Ch 1:1 Solomon son of David then made himself secure over his kingdom. Yahweh his God was with him, making him more and more powerful.

2Ch 1:2 Solomon then spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of families.

2Ch 1:3 Solomon, and the whole assembly with him, then went to the high place at Gibeon, where God's Tent of Meeting was, which Moses, servant of God, had made in the desert.

2Ch 1:4 The ark of the covenant, however, David had brought from Kiriath-Jearim to the place which he had prepared for it, having pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:5 The bronze altar which Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, had made was there, in front of Yahweh's Dwelling, where Solomon and the assembly consulted him.

2Ch 1:6 There Solomon presented a burnt offering before Yahweh on the bronze altar of the Tent of Meeting, making on it one thousand burnt offerings.

2Ch 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said, 'Ask what you would like me to give you.'

2Ch 1:8 Solomon replied to God, 'You showed most faithful love to David my father, and you have made me king in succession to him.'

2Ch 1:9 Yahweh God, the promise you made to David my father has now been fulfilled, since you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2Ch 1:10 Therefore give me wisdom and knowledge to act as leader of this people, for how otherwise could such a great people as yours be governed?'

2Ch 1:11 'Since that is what you want,' God said to Solomon, 'since you have asked, not for riches, treasure, honour, the lives of your enemies, or even for a long life, but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people of whom I have made you king,

2Ch 1:12 therefore wisdom and knowledge are granted you. I give you riches too, and treasure, and honour such as no king had before you and none will have after you.'

2Ch 1:13 So Solomon came away from the high place at Gibeon, from the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem and reigned over Israel.

2Ch 1:14 Solomon then built up a force of chariots and cavalry; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses; these he kept in the chariot towns and near the king at Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:15 In Jerusalem the king made silver and gold as common as stones, and cedar wood as plentiful as sycamore in the lowlands.

2Ch 1:16 Solomon's horses were imported from Muzur and Cilicia. The king's dealers acquired them in Cilicia at the prevailing price.

2Ch 1:17 A chariot was imported from Egypt for six hundred silver shekels and a horse from Cilicia for a hundred and fifty. They also supplied the Hittite and Aramaean kings, who all used them as middlemen.

2Ch 1:18 Solomon then gave the order to build a house for the name of Yahweh and a palace in which to reign.

2Ch 2:1 And Solomon allocated seventy thousand men to be porters and eighty thousand to quarry in the hills and three thousand six hundred overseers for them.

2Ch 2:2 And Solomon sent this message to Huram king of Tyre, 'Do as you did for my father David when you sent him cedars for him to build himself a palace to live in.'

2Ch 2:3 You see, I am building a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to acknowledge his holiness so that perfumed incense may be burnt before him, the loaves of permanent offering be perpetually laid out and the burnt offerings be made morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, New Moons and solemn festivals of Yahweh our God, as prescribed to Israel for ever;

2Ch 2:4 and the house which I am building must be large, for our God is greater than all gods;

2Ch 2:5 even so, who would not find it an impossible task to build a house for him, when the heavens and the heavens of the heavens cannot contain him? And who am I to build a house for him except to burn incense before him?

2Ch 2:6 So now send me a man skilled at working in gold, silver, bronze, iron, scarlet, crimson and violet materials, and who knows the art of engraving too; he is to work with my skilled men in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David has provided.

2Ch 2:7 Also send me cedar, juniper and algum trunks from the Lebanon, for I know that your servants know the art of felling timber in the Lebanon. And, my servants will work with your servants

2Ch 2:8 in preparing a vast quantity of timber for me, since the house which I intend to build is to be of a size to marvel at.

2Ch 2:9 Furthermore, for the upkeep of the woodcutters whom you employ to cut the timber, I shall provide twenty thousand kor of wheat, twenty thousand kor of barley, twenty thousand bat of wine and twenty thousand bat of oil.'

2Ch 2:10 In a letter sent to King Solomon, Huram king of Tyre replied, 'Because Yahweh loves his people he has made you their king!'

2Ch 2:11 Huram went on to say, 'Praised be Yahweh, God of Israel, who made heaven and earth and has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and discernment, to build a house for Yahweh and a palace in which to reign!-

2Ch 2:12 I am now sending you a skilled and intelligent man, Huram-Abi

2Ch 2:13 the son of a Danite woman by a Tyrian father. He knows the arts of working in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, wood, scarlet, violet, fine linen and crimson materials, and is competent to carry out any kind of engraving and to execute any design which may be entrusted to him, in collaboration with your skilled men and those of my lord David, your father.

2Ch 2:14 'So now let my lord send his servants the wheat, barley, oil and wine as promised

2Ch 2:15 and we will fell all the wood you need from Lebanon, and bring it you in rafts by sea to Jaffa; and it will be your responsibility to transport it to Jerusalem.'

2Ch 2:16 Solomon then took a census of all the aliens resident in Israel similar to the census which his father David had taken; it was found that there were a hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.

2Ch 2:17 He impressed seventy thousand of them as porters, eighty thousand as quarrymen in the hills and three thousand six hundred as overseers to make sure the people worked.

2Ch 3:1 Solomon then began building the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah where David his father had had a vision -- on the site which David had prepared -- on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2Ch 3:2 He began building it on the second day of the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

2Ch 3:3 These are the dimensions which Solomon fixed for the structure of the house of God: its length in cubits, according to the old standard, was sixty cubits and its width twenty cubits;

2Ch 3:4 and the portico in front of the house was the full width of the house, that is, twenty cubits, and its height was a hundred and twenty cubits; on the inside he overlaid it with pure gold.

2Ch 3:5 The Great Hall he lined with juniper, which he overlaid with fine gold and ornamented with palm trees and festoons,

2Ch 3:6 and he decorated the hall beautifully with precious stones and with gold from Parvaim,

2Ch 3:7 overlaying the hall, its beams and its thresholds, its walls and its doors, with gold and engraving the walls with great winged creatures.

2Ch 3:8 He also made the Holy of Holies, the length of which corresponded to the width of the Great Hall, being twenty cubits, with a width of twenty cubits, and this he overlaid with fine gold weighing six hundred talents, 2Ch 3:9 while the weight of the gold nails was fifty shekels. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

2Ch 3:10 In the Holy of Holies he modelled two winged creatures of wrought metal work and overlaid them with gold.

2Ch 3:11 The total span of their wings was twenty cubits; one wing, being five cubits long, touched the wall of the house and the other wing, being five cubits long, touched the wing of the other winged creature;

2Ch 3:12 while one wing of the other, five cubits long, touched the other wall of the house and the other wing, five cubits long, touched the wing of the other winged creature.

2Ch 3:13 The spread of these creatures' wings was twenty cubits. They stood in an upright position, with their faces towards the Hall.

2Ch 3:14 He also made the Curtain of violet, scarlet, crimson and fine linen, working a design of winged creatures on it.

2Ch 3:15 In front of the Hall he made two pillars thirty-five cubits high, and on the top of each a capital measuring five cubits.

2Ch 3:16 He made festoons, in the Debir, to go at the tops of the pillars, and made a hundred pomegranates to go on the festoons.

2Ch 3:17 He erected the pillars in front of the Temple, one on the right, the other on the left; the one on the right he called Jachin and the one on the left, Boaz.

2Ch 4:1 He made a bronze altar, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.

2Ch 4:2 He made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from rim to rim, circular in shape and five cubits high; a cord thirty cubits long gave the measurement of its girth.

2Ch 4:3 Under it and completely encircling it were things like oxen, ten to the cubit round the entire Sea; the oxen were in two rows, of one and the same casting with the rest.

2Ch 4:4 It rested on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, three facing east; on these, their hindquarters all turned inwards, stood the Sea.

2Ch 4:5 It was a hand's breadth in thickness, and its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup-lily-shaped. It could hold three thousand bat.

2Ch 4:6 He made ten basins, putting five on the right and five on the left, for washing in; the things to be offered as burnt offerings were to be rinsed in these, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

2Ch 4:7 He made the ten golden lamp-stands according to the pattern and placed them in the Hekal, five on the right and five on the left.

2Ch 4:8 He made ten tables which he set up in the Hekal, five on the right and five on the left. He also made a hundred golden sprinkling bowls.

2Ch 4:9 He made the court of the priests and the great court with its gates and plated the gates with bronze.

2Ch 4:10 The Sea he placed on the right-hand side of the Temple, to the south-east.

2Ch 4:11 Huram made the ash containers, the scoops and the sprinkling bowls. Thus Huram completed all the work done for King Solomon for the Temple of God:

2Ch 4:12 the two pillars; the mouldings of the capitals surmounting the two pillars; the two sets of filigree to cover the two mouldings of the capitals surmounting the pillars;

2Ch 4:13 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of filigree -- two rows of pomegranates for each set of filigree;

2Ch 4:14 the ten stands and the ten basins on the stands;

2Ch 4:15 the one Sea and the twelve oxen beneath it;

2Ch 4:16 the ash containers, scoops and forks. All these utensils made by Huram-Abi for King Solomon for the Temple of Yahweh were of burnished bronze.

2Ch 4:17 The King made them by the process of sand casting, in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zeredah.

2Ch 4:18 There was such an enormous quantity of them that the weight of the bronze could not be calculated.

2Ch 4:19 Solomon made all the objects designed for the Temple of God, as well as the golden altar and the tables for the loaves of permanent offering;

2Ch 4:20 the lamp-stands with their lamps to burn, as prescribed, in front of the Debir, of pure gold;

2Ch 4:21 the floral work, the lamps, the tongs, of gold (and it was pure gold);

2Ch 4:22 the snuffers, the sprinkling bowls, incense ladles and the pans, of real gold; and the entrance to the Temple, the inner doors (for the Holy of Holies) and the doors of the Temple itself, that is of the Hekal, were also made of gold.

2Ch 5:1 Thus all the work done by Solomon for the Temple of Yahweh was completed, and Solomon brought in the gifts which his father David had consecrated; and he had the silver, the gold and all the utensils put into the treasuries of the Temple of God.

2Ch 5:2 Solomon then assembled the elders of Israel to Jerusalem, all the tribal chiefs, the princes of the families of Israel, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh up from the City of David, that is, Zion.

2Ch 5:3 All the men of Israel assembled round the king at the time of the feast, that is, in the seventh month.

2Ch 5:4 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark;

2Ch 5:5 they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred utensils which were in the Tent; the levitical priests brought them up.

2Ch 5:6 King Solomon and the whole assembly of Israel present with him before the ark sacrificed countless, innumerable sheep and oxen.

2Ch 5:7 The priests brought the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, in the Debir of the Temple, that is, in the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the winged creatures;

2Ch 5:8 for they spread their wings over the place where the ark stood, forming a canopy over the ark and its shafts.

2Ch 5:9 The shafts were so long, however, that the ends of the shafts of the ark could be seen in front of the Holy Place in front of the Debir, though they could not be seen from outside. They are still there today.

2Ch 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses had placed in it at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of Egypt.

2Ch 5:11 Now when the priests came out of the Holy Place -- for all the priests present had sanctified themselves regardless of the orders to which they belonged,

2Ch 5:12 and all the levitical singers, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun with their sons and brothers, dressed in linen, were standing to the east of the altar with cymbals, lyres and harps and with them one hundred and twenty priests blowing the trumpets,

2Ch 5:13 and the harmony between trumpeters and singers was such that only one melody could be heard as they praised and gave thanks to Yahweh -- and the singing began, to the accompaniment of trumpets, cymbals and musical instruments, and they praised Yahweh 'for he is good, for his faithful love is everlasting' -- then the Temple was filled with the cloud of the glory of Yahweh, 2Ch 5:14 and because of the cloud the priests could not stay and perform their duties. For the glory of Yahweh filled the Temple of God.

2Ch 6:1 Then Solomon said: Yahweh has chosen to dwell in thick cloud, 2Ch 6:2 and I have built you a princely dwelling, a residence for you for ever.

2Ch 6:3 Then the king turned round and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while the whole assembly of Israel stood.

2Ch 6:4 He said, 'Blessed be Yahweh, God of Israel, who has carried out by his hand what he promised verbally to my father David, when he said,

2Ch 6:5 "From the day I brought my people out of Egypt I chose no city, in any of the tribes of Israel, to have a temple built where my name should be, nor did I choose anyone to be prince of my people Israel;

2Ch 6:6 but I did choose Jerusalem for my name to be there, and I did choose David to rule my people Israel."

2Ch 6:7 My father David had set his heart on building a temple for the name of Yahweh, God of Israel,

2Ch 6:8 but Yahweh said to my father David, "You have set your heart on building a temple for my name, and in this you have done well;

2Ch 6:9 and yet, you are not the man to build the temple; but your son, yet to be born to you, will be the one to build the temple for my name."

2Ch 6:10 Yahweh has kept the promise which he made: I have succeeded my father David and am seated on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised; I have built the temple for the name of Yahweh, God of Israel,

2Ch 6:11 and I have placed in it the ark containing the covenant of Yahweh, which he made with the Israelites.'

2Ch 6:12 Then in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel, he stood facing the altar of Yahweh and stretched out his hands-

2Ch 6:13 for Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and five cubits high, which he had placed in the middle of the court and on which he was standing; he knelt down in front of the whole assembly of Israel, stretched out his hands to heaven-

2Ch 6:14 and said, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven or on earth, you who are loyal to the covenant and show faithful love to your servants as long as they walk wholeheartedly in your way.

2Ch 6:15 You have kept it with your servant, my father David, as you promised him you would. What you promised verbally today you have carried out by your hand.

2Ch 6:16 And now, Yahweh, God of Israel, keep the promise which you made to your servant David when you said, "You will never lack for a man to sit in my presence before me on the throne of Israel, provided that your sons are careful how they behave, following my law as you yourself have done."

2Ch 6:17 So now, God of Israel, let the words come true which you spoke to your servant, my father David.

2Ch 6:18 Yet will God really live with the people on earth? Why, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens cannot contain you! How much less this temple built by me!

2Ch 6:19 Even so, listen favourably to the prayer and entreaty of your servant, Yahweh my God; listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant makes to you:

2Ch 6:20 Day and night, may your eyes watch over this temple, over this place in which you have promised to put your name. Listen to the prayer which your servant offers in this place.

2Ch 6:21 'Listen to the entreaties of your servant and of your people Israel; whenever they pray in this place, listen from the place where you reside in heaven; and when you hear, forgive.'

2Ch 6:22 'If someone has wronged his neighbour and a curse is laid on him to make him swear here before your altar in this Temple,

2Ch 6:23 then listen from heaven and do justice between your servants, paying back the guilty one by making him suffer for his conduct, and acquitting the upright by rewarding him as his uprightness deserves.'

2Ch 6:24 'If your people Israel are defeated by the enemy because they have sinned against you, but then return to you and acknowledge your name, and pray and seek your favour in this temple,

2Ch 6:25 then listen from heaven; forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the country which you gave to them and their ancestors.'

2Ch 6:26 'When the heavens are shut and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, if they pray in this place and praise your name and, having been humbled by you, desist from their sin,

2Ch 6:27 then listen from heaven and forgive the sin of your servant and of your people Israel -- for you are constantly showing them the good way which they must follow -- and send rain on your country, which you have given to your people as their heritage.'

2Ch 6:28 'Should there be famine in the country, or pestilence, wind-blast or mildew, locust or caterpillar; should their enemy lay siege to their territory; should there be any plague or any disease;

2Ch 6:29 whatever be the prayer or entreaty of any individual, or of all your people Israel, each being aware of his own affliction and pain; when he stretches out his hands towards this Temple,

2Ch 6:30 then listen from heaven where you reside; forgive and, since you know what is in his heart, deal with each as his conduct deserves -- for you alone know what is in the human heart-

2Ch 6:31 so that they may revere you by following your directions, which you gave to our ancestors, throughout their lives on earth.

2Ch 6:32 'Even the foreigner, not belonging to your people Israel but coming from a distant country, attracted by your great name, your mighty hand and outstretched arm, if he comes and prays in this Temple,

2Ch 6:33 then listen from heaven where you reside, and grant all that the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may acknowledge your name and, like your people Israel, revere you, and know that this Temple, which I have built, bears your name.'

2Ch 6:34 'If your people go out to war against their enemies, on whatever mission you send them, and they pray to you, turning towards this city which you have chosen and towards the Temple which I have built for your name,

2Ch 6:35 then listen from heaven to their prayer and their entreaty, and uphold their cause.

2Ch 6:36 'When they sin against you -- for there is no one who does not sin -- and you are angry with them and abandon them to the enemy, and their captors carry them off to a country be it far away or near,

2Ch 6:37 if they come to their senses in the country to which they have been taken as captives and pray to you once again in the country of their captivity, saying, "We have sinned, we have acted wrongly and wickedly,"

2Ch 6:38 and turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the country of their captivity to which they have been carried away as captives, and pray, turning towards the country which you gave to their ancestors, towards the city you have chosen, and towards the Temple which I have built for your name,

2Ch 6:39 then listen from heaven where you reside, hear their prayer and entreaties, uphold their cause and forgive your people for having sinned against you.'

2Ch 6:40 'Now, O my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to prayer offered in this place.
2Ch 6:41 And now Yahweh God, go up to your resting-place, you and your fortress, the Ark! Let your priests, Yahweh God, be robed in salvation, let your faithful rejoice in what is good!
2Ch 6:42 Yahweh God, do not rebuff your Anointed -- remember the faithful love of your servant David!"
2Ch 7:1 When Solomon had finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the Temple.
2Ch 7:2 The priests could not enter the Temple of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh filled the Temple of Yahweh.
2Ch 7:3 When all the Israelites saw the fire come down and the glory of Yahweh resting on the Temple, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the earth, worshipping and praising Yahweh with 'For he is good, for his faithful love lasts for ever!'
2Ch 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Yahweh.
2Ch 7:5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep; and thus the king and all the people dedicated the Temple of God.
2Ch 7:6 The priests stood in their places, as did the Levites with Yahweh's musical instruments which King David had provided, to render 'Give thanks to Yahweh, for his faithful love lasts for ever!' whenever David offered praise to their accompaniment. Opposite them, the priests blew trumpets, while all Israel stood.
2Ch 7:7 Solomon also consecrated the middle part of the court in front of the Temple of Yahweh; for that was where he presented the burnt offerings and the fatty parts of the communion sacrifices, since the bronze altar which Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offering, the oblation and the fatty parts.
2Ch 7:8 And then Solomon and with him all Israel from the Pass of Hamath to the Torrent of Egypt -- a very great assembly -- celebrated the feast for seven days.
2Ch 7:9 On the eighth day they held the assembly, for they had devoted seven days to the dedication of the altar and seven days to the feast.
2Ch 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month Solomon dismissed the people to their homes, rejoicing and happy of heart over the goodness which Yahweh had shown to David, to Solomon and to his people Israel.
2Ch 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the Temple of Yahweh and the royal palace, and he successfully concluded everything that he was of a mind to do in the Temple of Yahweh and in his own palace.
2Ch 7:12 Then Yahweh appeared to Solomon in the night and said, 'I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.
2Ch 7:13 If I shut the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the country, or if I send pestilence among my people,
2Ch 7:14 if my people who bear my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my presence and turn from their wicked ways, then I will listen from heaven and forgive their sins and restore their country.
2Ch 7:15 Now and for the future my eyes are open and my ears attentive to prayer offered in this place,
2Ch 7:16 for now I have chosen and consecrated this Temple, for my name to be there for ever; my eyes and my heart will constantly be there.
2Ch 7:17 And if, for your part, you walk before me as your father David did, and do everything that I have commanded you to do, and keep my laws and my ordinances,
2Ch 7:18 I shall make your royal throne secure, as I covenanted with your father David when I said: You will never lack for a male to rule in Israel.
2Ch 7:19 But if you turn away and forsake my laws and commandments which I have laid down for you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,
2Ch 7:20 then I shall uproot them from the country which I have given them, and shall disown this Temple which I have consecrated for my name and make it a proverb and a byword among all the peoples.
2Ch 7:21 And at this once-exalted Temple, everyone who passes by will be appalled, and will say, "Why has Yahweh treated this country and this Temple like this?"
2Ch 7:22 And the answer will be, "Because they deserted Yahweh, the God of their ancestors, who brought them out of Egypt, and adopted other gods and worshipped and served them; that is why he has brought all these disasters on them."
2Ch 8:1 At the end of the twenty years which it took Solomon to build the Temple of Yahweh and his own palace,
2Ch 8:2 and to rebuild the towns which Huram had given him and settle them with Israelites,
2Ch 8:3 Solomon mounted an expedition against Hamath-Zobah and captured it.
2Ch 8:4 He also fortified Tadmor in the desert and all the storage towns which he had built in Hamath.
2Ch 8:5 He also built Upper Beth-Horon and Lower Beth-Horon as fortified towns with walls and gates and bars,
2Ch 8:6 also Baalath and all Solomon's storage towns, all the towns for his chariots and horses, and everything which Solomon was pleased to build in Jerusalem, in the Lebanon and throughout the territory under his rule.
2Ch 8:7 All those who survived of the Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Hivite and Jebusite peoples, who did not belong to Israel-

2Ch 8:8 those of their descendants still remaining in the country, whom the Israelites had not exterminated, these Solomon levied for forced labour, as is still the case today.

2Ch 8:9 Solomon did not, however, impose forced labour on the Israelites for his work -- for they were soldiers, his senior officers and his chariot and cavalry commanders.

2Ch 8:10 There were two hundred and fifty of King Solomon's officials in charge of the foremen who supervised the people.

2Ch 8:11 Solomon moved Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace which he had built for her. 'I must not be responsible', he said, 'for a woman living in the palace of David king of Israel, for these buildings to which the ark of Yahweh has come are sacred.'

2Ch 8:12 Thereafter, Solomon made burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh which he had built in front of the portico, 2Ch 8:13 in accordance with the regular prescriptions for burnt sacrifice as commanded by Moses, on the Sabbaths, New Moons and the three annual feasts; the feast of Unleavened Bread, the feast of Weeks and the feast of Shelters.

2Ch 8:14 Following the prescriptions of his father David, he assigned the orders of priests to their duties and the Levites to their tasks of praise and of assisting the priests in accordance with day-to-day requirements; as also the gatekeepers in their various orders to each gate -- for such was the command of David, man of God.

2Ch 8:15 Nor was there deviation on any point from the king's command as regards the priests, the Levites or even the storehouses.

2Ch 8:16 Thus, all the work was over which Solomon had put in hand when the Temple of Yahweh was founded until it was finished. The Temple of Yahweh was complete in every detail.

2Ch 8:17 Solomon then mounted an expedition to Ezion-Geber and Elath on the sea-coast of Edom.

2Ch 8:18 Huram sent him ships through his agents, as well as experienced sailors, who went to Ophir with men in Solomon's service, where they took on four hundred and fifty talents of gold, which they brought back to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:1 The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame and came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with difficult questions, with a very large retinue with camels laden with spices and an immense quantity of gold and precious stones. Having reached Solomon, she discussed everything that she had in mind with him, 2Ch 9:2 and Solomon had an answer for all her questions; not one of them was too obscure for Solomon to answer for her.

2Ch 9:3 When the queen of Sheba saw how wise Solomon was, the palace which he had built,

2Ch 9:4 the food at his table, the accommodation for his officials, the organisation of his staff and the way they were dressed, his cupbearers and the way they were dressed, and the burnt offerings, which he made in the Temple of Yahweh, it left her breathless,

2Ch 9:5 and she said to the king, 'The report I heard in my own country about you and about your wisdom in handling your affairs was true, then!

2Ch 9:6 Until I came and saw for myself, I did not believe the reports, but clearly I was told less than half about the true extent of your wisdom. You surpass what was reported to me.

2Ch 9:7 How fortunate your people are! How fortunate your courtiers, continually in attendance on you and listening to your wisdom!

2Ch 9:8 Blessed be Yahweh your God. Because your God loved Israel and meant to keep it secure for ever, he has made you its king to administer law and justice.'

2Ch 9:9 And she presented the king with a hundred and twenty talents of gold and great quantities of spices and precious stones. There never were such spices as those which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:10 Similarly, the men employed by Huram and the men employed by Solomon, who brought the gold from Ophir, also brought back al gum wood and precious stones.

2Ch 9:11 Of the al gum wood the king made steps for the Temple of Yahweh and for the royal palace, and harps and lyres for the musicians, the like of which had never before been seen in Judah.

2Ch 9:12 And King Solomon, in his turn, presented the queen of Sheba with everything that she expressed a wish for, besides what he gave her in exchange for what she had brought to the king. After which, she went home to her own country, she and her servants.

2Ch 9:13 The weight of the gold received annually by Solomon amounted to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 2Ch 9:14 besides what tolls and foreign trade brought in; all the Arab kings and the provincial governors also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2Ch 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred great shields of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of beaten gold going into one shield;

2Ch 9:16 also three hundred small shields of beaten gold, three hundred shekels of gold going into one shield; and the king put these into the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

2Ch 9:17 The king also made a great ivory throne which he overlaid with refined gold.

2Ch 9:18 The throne had six steps with a golden foot-rest attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat and two lions standing beside the arms,

2Ch 9:19 and twelve lions stood on either side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

2Ch 9:20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the plate in the House of the Forest of Lebanon was of pure gold; silver was little thought of in Solomon's days, 2Ch 9:21 since the king's ships went to Tarshish with Huram's employees, and once every three years the merchantmen would come back laden with gold and silver, ivory, apes and baboons.

2Ch 9:22 For riches and for wisdom, King Solomon surpassed all kings on earth,

2Ch 9:23 and all the kings in the world consulted Solomon to hear the wisdom which God had implanted in his heart,

2Ch 9:24 and everyone would bring a present with him: objects of silver and of gold, robes, armour, spices, horses and mules; and this went on year after year.

2Ch 9:25 Solomon also had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand cavalrymen; these he stationed in the chariot towns and near the king in Jerusalem.

2Ch 9:26 He was overlord of all the kings from the River to the territory of the Philistines and the Egyptian border.

2Ch 9:27 In Jerusalem the king made silver as common as stones, and cedar wood as plentiful as sycamore in the Lowlands.

2Ch 9:28 Horses were imported for Solomon from Muzur and all the other countries too.

2Ch 9:29 The rest of the history of Solomon, from first to last, is this not all written down in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the Prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh, and in the Vision of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?

2Ch 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

2Ch 9:31 When Solomon fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of his father David; Rehoboam his son succeeded him.

2Ch 10:1 Rehoboam then went to Shechem, all Israel having come to Shechem to proclaim him king.

2Ch 10:2 As soon as Jeroboam son of Nebat heard the news -- he was in Egypt, where he had taken refuge from King Solomon -- he returned from Egypt.

2Ch 10:3 They now sent for him, so Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke as follows to Rehoboam,

2Ch 10:4 'Your father laid a cruel yoke on us; if you will lighten your father's cruel slavery, that heavy yoke which he imposed on us, we are willing to serve you.'

2Ch 10:5 He said to them, 'Come back to me in three days' time.' And the people went away.

2Ch 10:6 King Rehoboam then consulted the elders, who had been in attendance on his father Solomon while he was alive, and said, 'How do you advise me to answer this people?'

2Ch 10:7 They replied, 'If you are fair to these people, pleasant to them and give them a fair reply, they will remain your servants for ever.'

2Ch 10:8 But he rejected the advice given him by the elders and consulted the young men in attendance on him, who had grown up with him.

2Ch 10:9 He said, 'How do you advise us to answer these people who have been saying, "Lighten the yoke which your father imposed on us"?'

2Ch 10:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, 'This is the way to answer the people who have been saying, "Your father made our yoke heavy, you must lighten it for us!" This is the right thing to say to them, "My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!"

2Ch 10:11 Although my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I shall make it heavier still! My father controlled you with the whip, but I shall apply a spiked lash!"'

2Ch 10:12 On the third day, Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam in obedience to the king's instructions, 'Come back to me in three days' time.'

2Ch 10:13 And the king gave them a harsh answer. King Rehoboam, rejecting the advice of the elders,

2Ch 10:14 spoke to them as the young men had recommended, 'My father made your yoke heavy, but I shall add to it. My father controlled you with the whip, but I shall apply a spiked lash.'

2Ch 10:15 Thus the king refused to listen to the people, and this was brought about by God, so that Yahweh might fulfil the promise which he had made through Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

2Ch 10:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, the people answered the king thus: What share have we in David? -no heritage in the son of Jesse! Each of you, to your tents, Israel! Now look to your own house, David! So Israel went home again.

2Ch 10:17 Rehoboam, however, reigned over those Israelites who lived in the towns of Judah.

2Ch 10:18 When King Rehoboam sent Adoram who was in charge of forced labour, the Israelites stoned him to death, while King Rehoboam managed to mount his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

2Ch 10:19 And Israel has remained in rebellion against the House of David from that day to this.

2Ch 11:1 When Rehoboam reached Jerusalem, he mustered a hundred and eighty thousand picked warriors of the House of Judah and Benjamin to fight Israel and win back the kingdom for Rehoboam.

2Ch 11:2 But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, man of God,

2Ch 11:3 'Say this to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 2Ch 11:4 "Yahweh says this: Do not go and make war on your brothers; let everyone go home, for this is my doing." ' They obeyed Yahweh's command and went back instead of marching against Jeroboam.

2Ch 11:5 Rehoboam, residing in Jerusalem, fortified a number of towns for the defence of Judah.

2Ch 11:6 He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2Ch 11:7 Beth-Zur, Soco, Adullam,

2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, Hebron, these being the fortified towns in Judah and Benjamin.

2Ch 11:11 He equipped these fortresses, stationing commanders in them, with supplies of food, oil and wine, 2Ch 11:12 and shields and spears in each of these towns, making them extremely strong and thus retaining control of Judah and Benjamin.

2Ch 11:13 The priests and the Levites from all over Israel left their districts to put themselves at his disposal.

2Ch 11:14 The Levites, indeed, abandoned their pasture lands and their holdings and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from the priesthood of Yahweh.

2Ch 11:15 Jeroboam had appointed his own priests for the high places dedicated to the satyrs and calves which he had made.

2Ch 11:16 And those members of all the tribes of Israel who were determined to seek Yahweh, God of Israel, followed those priests and Levites to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yahweh, God of their ancestors.

2Ch 11:17 These added strength to the kingdom of Judah and gave their support to Rehoboam son of Solomon for three years. For three years they remained loyal to David and Solomon.

2Ch 11:18 Rehoboam married Mahalath daughter of Jerimoth, son of David, and of Abihail daughter of Eliab son of Jesse, 2Ch 11:19 and she bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 After her, he married Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

2Ch 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom, more than all his other wives and concubines. He had in fact a total of eighteen wives and sixty concubines and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2Ch 11:22 Rehoboam named Abijah son of Maacah as head, hence leader, of his brothers, with a view to making him king, 2Ch 11:23 and acted wisely by distributing his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin, some in each fortified town, where he provided plenty of food for them and found them wives.

2Ch 12:1 When Rehoboam had consolidated the kingdom and become strong, he, and all Israel with him, abandoned the Law of Yahweh;

2Ch 12:2 and thus it happened that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt marched on Jerusalem, because they had been unfaithful to Yahweh, 2Ch 12:3 with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand cavalry and countless hordes of Libyans, Sukkiim and Cushites who came from Egypt with him.

2Ch 12:4 They captured the fortified towns of Judah and reached Jerusalem.

2Ch 12:5 The prophet Shemaiah then came to Rehoboam and the generals of Judah, who had fallen back on Jerusalem before Shishak's advance, and said to them, 'Yahweh says this, "You have abandoned me and so I have abandoned you into Shishak's clutches."

2Ch 12:6 At this, the Israelite generals and the king humbled themselves and said, 'Yahweh is just!'

2Ch 12:7 When Yahweh saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah as follows, 'They have humbled themselves. I shall not destroy them but shall grant them some degree of deliverance. My retribution will not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak;

2Ch 12:8 they are nonetheless to become his slaves, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving kings of other countries.'

2Ch 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt advanced on Jerusalem and carried off the treasures of the Temple and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything away, including the golden shields which Solomon had made.

2Ch 12:10 To replace these, King Rehoboam made bronze shields, entrusting them to the commanders of the guard who guarded the king's palace gate.

2Ch 12:11 Whenever the king went to the Temple of Yahweh, the guards would come out carrying them, returning them to the guardroom afterwards.

2Ch 12:12 Because King Rehoboam had humbled himself, the retribution of Yahweh turned away from him so as not to destroy him completely; and there were also some good features in Judah.

2Ch 12:13 Thus he was able to strengthen his position in Jerusalem and continue as king; for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he came to the throne and remained king for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city chosen by Yahweh from all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite.

2Ch 12:14 But he did wrong in not setting his heart on seeking Yahweh.

2Ch 12:15 The history of Rehoboam, from first to last, is this not all written down in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer? Warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam went on throughout the period.

2Ch 12:16 When Rehoboam fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of David; his son Abijah succeeded him.

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah

2Ch 13:2 and reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. When war broke out between Abijah and Jeroboam, 2Ch 13:3 Abijah took the field with an army of four hundred thousand picked warriors, while Jeroboam took the field against him with eight hundred thousand picked warriors.

2Ch 13:4 Abijah took position on Mount Zemaraim, in the highlands of Ephraim. 'Jeroboam and all Israel,' he cried, 'listen to me!'

2Ch 13:5 Do you not know that Yahweh, God of Israel, has given eternal sovereignty of Israel to David and his sons by an inviolable covenant?

2Ch 13:6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, the slave of Solomon son of David, rose in revolt against his master.

2Ch 13:7 Worthless men, scoundrels, rallied to him, proving too strong for Rehoboam son of Solomon, as Rehoboam was then inexperienced and timid and unable to resist them.

2Ch 13:8 And now you propose to resist Yahweh's sovereignty as exercised by the sons of David because there is a great number of you and you have the golden calves that Jeroboam made you for gods!

2Ch 13:9 Have you not driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, to make priests of your own like the peoples of foreign countries? Anyone who comes with a bull and seven rams to get himself consecrated can become priest of these gods that are no gods.

2Ch 13:10 But for our part, our God is Yahweh, and we have not abandoned him; our priests are sons of Aaron who minister to Yahweh, and those who serve are Levites;

2Ch 13:11 morning after morning, evening after evening, they present burnt offerings and perfumed incense to Yahweh, they put the bread of permanent offering on the clean table and nightly light the lamps on the golden lamp-stand; for we keep the decree of Yahweh our God, although you have abandoned him.

2Ch 13:12 See how God is with us, at our head, and his priests with trumpets to sound the alarm against you! Israelites, do not make war on Yahweh, God of your ancestors, for you will not succeed.'

2Ch 13:13 Now Jeroboam had sent a party round to ambush them from the rear; thus the main force confronted Judah and the ambush lay to their rear.

2Ch 13:14 And when Judah looked round, they found themselves being attacked from front and rear. They called on Yahweh, the priests sounded the trumpets, 2Ch 13:15 and the men of Judah raised the war cry and, as they raised the cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2Ch 13:16 So the Israelites fled before Judah, because God had given Judah the upper hand, 2Ch 13:17 and Abijah and his army inflicted a great slaughter on them: five hundred thousand of Israel's picked men fell, killed.

2Ch 13:18 So the Israelites were humbled on that occasion, while the Judaeans won, since they had relied on Yahweh, God of their ancestors.

2Ch 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam, taking from him the towns of Bethel with its dependencies, Jeshanah with its dependencies and Ephron with its dependencies,

2Ch 13:20 nor did Jeroboam regain strength during Abijah's lifetime. Eventually Yahweh struck him and he died, 2Ch 13:21 but Abijah grew stronger than ever; he married fourteen wives and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Ch 13:22 The rest of the history of Abijah, his conduct and his sayings, are recorded in the midrash of the prophet Iddo.

2Ch 13:23 When Abijah fell asleep with his ancestors, he was buried in the City of David; his son Asa succeeded him. In his time the country was at peace for ten years.

2Ch 14:1 Asa did what Yahweh his God regards as good and right.

2Ch 14:2 He abolished the foreign altars and the high places, broke the pillars, cut down the sacred poles,

2Ch 14:3 and urged Judah to seek Yahweh, God of their ancestors, and to observe the law and commandment.

2Ch 14:4 Because he abolished the high places and incense altars through the towns of Judah, the kingdom under him was undisturbed.

2Ch 14:5 He rebuilt the fortified towns of Judah, since the country was at peace and free of war during those years, because Yahweh had granted him peace.

2Ch 14:6 'Let us rebuild these towns,' he told Judah, 'let us surround them with wall and tower, with gate and bar while the country is still ours, for we have sought Yahweh our God and he has sought us and given us peace all around.' They built and prospered.

2Ch 14:7 Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men of Judah armed with shields and spears and two hundred and eighty thousand men of Benjamin armed with shields and bows, all of them outstanding soldiers.

2Ch 14:8 Zerah the Cushite took the field against them with an army a million strong and three hundred chariots, and penetrated to Mareshah.

2Ch 14:9 Asa took the field against him and the battle-lines were drawn up in the Valley of Zephathah, at Mareshah.

2Ch 14:10 Asa then called on Yahweh his God and said, 'Yahweh, numbers and strength make no difference to you when you give your help. Help us, Yahweh our God, for, relying on you, we are confronting this horde in your name. Yahweh, you are our God. Human strength cannot prevail against you!'

2Ch 14:11 Yahweh routed the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled,

2Ch 14:12 and Asa pursued them with his army as far as Gerar. So many of the Cushites fell that they were unable to survive. They were cut to pieces by Yahweh and his army. They carried off a great deal of booty, 2Ch 14:13 they destroyed all the towns round Gerar -- for a panic from Yahweh had seized the towns -- and plundered all the towns since they were full of loot.

2Ch 14:14 They also routed the cattle-owners and carried off great numbers of sheep and camels; then they returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 15:1 The spirit of God then came on Azariah son of Oded;

2Ch 15:2 he went out to meet Asa and said, 'Listen to me, Asa, and all you in Judah and in Benjamin: Yahweh will be with you so long as you are with him. If you seek him, he will let you find him; but if you desert him, he will desert you.'

2Ch 15:3 For a long time Israel did not have the true God or a teacher-priest or a law,

2Ch 15:4 but when in their distress they turned to Yahweh, God of Israel, and sought him, he let them find him.

2Ch 15:5 In those times there was no security for people as they went about their business, but great unrest affecting the inhabitants of all countries,

2Ch 15:6 nation being crushed by nation and city by city, since God caused confusion among them by every kind of distress.

2Ch 15:7 So be strong, do not be discouraged, for your deeds will be rewarded.'

2Ch 15:8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy, he took courage and removed the abominable idols throughout the land of Judah and Benjamin as well as from the towns which he had captured in the highlands of Ephraim, and repaired the altar of Yahweh which stood in front of the portico of Yahweh.

2Ch 15:9 He summoned all Judah and Benjamin as well as those Ephraimites, Manassehites and Simeonites who had settled with them -- for a great many people from Israel had gone over to Asa when they saw that Yahweh his God was with him.

2Ch 15:10 They assembled in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign, 2Ch 15:11 that day sacrificing to Yahweh seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep from the booty which they had brought back.

2Ch 15:12 They then made a covenant to seek Yahweh, God of their ancestors, with all their heart and soul;

2Ch 15:13 anyone who would not seek Yahweh, God of Israel, was to be put to death, whether high or low, man or woman.

2Ch 15:14 They pledged their oath to Yahweh in ringing tones, with shouts of joy, to the sound of trumpet and horn;

2Ch 15:15 all Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn it wholeheartedly, and sought him so earnestly that he allowed them to find him; Yahweh gave them peace all round.

2Ch 15:16 King Asa even deprived his mother Maacah of the dignity of Great Lady for having made an obscenity for Asherah; Asa cut down her obscenity, smashed it and burnt it in the ravine of the Kidron.

2Ch 15:17 Though the high places were not abolished in Israel, Asa's heart was loyal throughout his life.

2Ch 15:18 He deposited his father's and his own dedicated gifts of silver, gold and sacred vessels, in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 15:19 Up to the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign there was no war.

2Ch 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel marched on Judah and fortified Ramah to block the communications of Asa king of Judah.

2Ch 16:2 Asa then took silver and gold from the treasuries of the Temple of Yahweh and the royal palace and sent this with the following message to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus,

2Ch 16:3 'Let us make an alliance between me and you, between my father and your father! Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Come, break off your alliance with Baasha king of Israel, which will make him withdraw from me.'

2Ch 16:4 Ben-Hadad listened favourably to King Asa and sent the generals of his armies to attack the towns of Israel; he ravaged Ijon, Dan, Abel-Maim and all the storage towns of Naphtali.

2Ch 16:5 When Baasha heard this he gave up fortifying Ramah, abandoning this work.

2Ch 16:6 King Asa then had all Judah carry away the stones and timber with which Baasha had been fortifying Ramah, and used them to fortify Geba and Mizpah.

2Ch 16:7 Then it was that Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said, 'Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on Yahweh your God, the king of Aram's army will slip through your fingers.'

2Ch 16:8 Did not the Cushites and Libyans form a vast army with great numbers of chariots and cavalry? Even so, because you relied on Yahweh, he gave you the upper hand;

2Ch 16:9 for Yahweh's eyes rove to and fro across the whole world to support those whose hearts are loyal to him. You have acted like a fool in this respect; hence, from now on you will have wars.'

2Ch 16:10 Enraged with the seer, Asa had him put in the stocks in prison, being angry with him over this; at the same time Asa ill-treated some of the people too.

2Ch 16:11 The history of Asa, from first to last, is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa contracted a disease in his feet, which became very severe; in his illness, however, he consulted not Yahweh but the doctors.

2Ch 16:13 Asa then fell asleep with his ancestors, dying in the forty-first year of his reign.

2Ch 16:14 He was buried in the tomb which he had ordered to be cut for him in the City of David. He was laid in the burial chamber which was filled with perfume blended from all sorts of oils, and a very great funeral fire was made for him.

2Ch 17:1 When his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him, he made himself stronger against Israel

2Ch 17:2 by stationing troops in all the fortified towns in Judah and by garrisoning Judah and the towns of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured.

2Ch 17:3 Yahweh was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father's earlier days and did not have recourse to Baal, 2Ch 17:4 but sought Yahweh, the God of his father, following his commandments and not behaving as Israel did.

2Ch 17:5 Because of this, Yahweh put him in secure control of the kingdom, while all Judah gave Jehoshaphat presents until ample riches and honour were his.

2Ch 17:6 He was so enthusiastic about obeying Yahweh that once again he abolished the high places and sacred poles in Judah.

2Ch 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his leading men-Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah, to give instruction in the towns of Judah.

2Ch 17:8 With them went the Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah and Tobijah, the Levites; Elishama and Jehoram the priests went with them.

2Ch 17:9 They gave instruction in Judah, having with them the book of the Law of Yahweh, and went round all the towns of Judah instructing the people.

2Ch 17:10 A panic from Yahweh seized all the kings of the countries surrounding Judah, as a result of which they did not make war on Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and a load of silver and the Arabs brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.

2Ch 17:12 Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built fortresses and storage towns in Judah.

2Ch 17:13 He accumulated ample supplies in the towns of Judah. He also had warriors, outstanding men, in Jerusalem.

2Ch 17:14 According to family, this is how they were classified: Over the commanders of the thousands of Judah was General Adnah, who had three hundred thousand outstanding men;

2Ch 17:15 Under him was General Jehohanan, who had two hundred and eighty thousand;

2Ch 17:16 Under him was Amasiah son of Zichri, who had volunteered for Yahweh and who had two hundred thousand outstanding men;

2Ch 17:17 That outstanding soldier, Eliada, represented Benjamin, and he had two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

2Ch 17:18 And under him Jehozabad, who had one hundred and eighty thousand equipped for war.

2Ch 17:19 These were in attendance on the king, apart from those whom the king had stationed in the fortified towns all over Judah.

2Ch 18:1 Although Jehoshaphat enjoyed great wealth and honour, he allied himself by marriage to Ahab.

2Ch 18:2 After some years he paid a visit to Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered an immense number of sheep and oxen for him and his retinue, to induce him to attack Ramoth-Gilead.

2Ch 18:3 Ahab king of Israel then said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, 'Will you come with me to Ramoth-Gilead?' He replied, 'I will share in battle with you, my men with yours.'

2Ch 18:4 Jehoshaphat, however, said to the king of Israel, 'First, please consult the word of Yahweh.'

2Ch 18:5 So the king of Israel called the prophets together, four hundred of them. 'Should we go and attack Ramoth-Gilead,' he asked, 'or should I hold back?' 'March,' they replied, 'for God will deliver it into the king's power.'

2Ch 18:6 Jehoshaphat, however, said, 'Is there no other prophet of Yahweh here, for us to consult?'

2Ch 18:7 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, 'There is one more man through whom we can consult Yahweh, but I hate him because he never has a favourable prophecy for me, always unfavourable ones; he is Micaiah son of Imlah.' 'The king should not say such things,' said Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 18:8 The king of Israel then summoned a court official and said, 'Bring Micaiah son of Imlah immediately.'

2Ch 18:9 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, wearing their robes; in an open space just outside the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them,

2Ch 18:10 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah, who had made himself some iron horns, said, 'Yahweh says, "With horns like these, you will gore the Aramaeans till you make an end of them."

2Ch 18:11 And all the prophets prophesied in the same vein, saying, 'March on Ramoth-Gilead! Success is sure, for Yahweh has already given it to the king!'

2Ch 18:12 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, 'Look! What the prophets are saying is uniformly favourable to the king. So I hope you will say the same as they do and speak favourably.'

2Ch 18:13 Micaiah said, 'As Yahweh lives, I shall speak exactly as Yahweh tells me!'

2Ch 18:14 When he came to the king, the king said, 'Micaiah, should we march to attack Ramoth-Gilead, or should I hold back?' He replied, 'Go and conquer, Yahweh will deliver them into your power!'

2Ch 18:15 The king went on, 'How often must I put you on oath to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh?'

2Ch 18:16 Then he spoke out. I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep without a shepherd. And Yahweh said, 'These have no master, let them all go peacefully home!'

2Ch 18:17 At this the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'Did I not tell you that he never gives me favourable prophecies, but only unfavourable ones?'

2Ch 18:18 Micaiah went on, 'Now listen to the word of Yahweh. I saw Yahweh seated on his throne with the whole array of heaven standing on his right and on his left.'

2Ch 18:19 Yahweh said, "Who will entice Ahab king of Israel into marching to his death at Ramoth-Gilead?" At which some answered one way, and some another.

2Ch 18:20 A spirit then came forward and stood before Yahweh and said, "I will entice him." "How?" Yahweh asked.

2Ch 18:21 He replied, "I shall go and be a deceptive spirit in the mouths of all his prophets." Yahweh said, "You will succeed in enticing him. Go and do it."

2Ch 18:22 And now, you see, Yahweh has put a deceptive spirit into the mouths of your prophets here, for in fact Yahweh has pronounced disaster on you.'

2Ch 18:23 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah then came up, struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, 'Which way did Yahweh's spirit leave me, to speak to you?'

2Ch 18:24 'That is what you will find out,' Micaiah retorted, 'the day you go from room to room, trying to hide.'

2Ch 18:25 The king of Israel said, 'Seize Micaiah and hand him over to Amon governor of the city, and Joash the king's son,

2Ch 18:26 and say, "These are the king's orders: Put this man in prison and feed him on nothing but bread and water until I am safely home."

2Ch 18:27 Micaiah said, 'If you ever do get home safely, Yahweh has not spoken through me.'

2Ch 18:28 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah marched on Ramoth-Gilead.

2Ch 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'I shall disguise myself to go into battle, but you put on your robes.' So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

2Ch 18:30 Now, the king of Aram had given his chariot commanders the following order, 'Do not attack anyone of whatever rank, except the king of Israel.'

2Ch 18:31 So, when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, 'That is the king of Israel,' and surrounded him to attack. But when Jehoshaphat shouted his war cry, Yahweh came to his help, God drew them away from him, 2Ch 18:32 for the chariot commanders, realising that he was not the king of Israel, broke off their pursuit.

2Ch 18:33 Someone, however, drawing his bow without any special aim, shot the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. 'Turn about!' he said to his charioteer. 'Get me out of the fighting; I am collapsing.'

2Ch 18:34 But the battle grew fiercer as the day went on, and the king of Israel had to be held upright in his chariot facing the Aramaeans until the evening, and at sunset he died.

2Ch 19:1 Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned home safely, however, to Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:2 Jehu son of Hanani the seer went to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, 'Should a man give help to the wicked? Should you love those who hate Yahweh and so bring his retribution on yourself?

2Ch 19:3 All the same, there are good things to your credit, since you have removed the sacred poles from the country and have set your heart on seeking God.'

2Ch 19:4 Jehoshaphat resided in Jerusalem but regularly went on progress among the people, from Beersheba to the highlands of Ephraim, to convert them to Yahweh, God of their ancestors.

2Ch 19:5 He also appointed judges in the country in every one of the fortified towns of Judah,

2Ch 19:6 saying to the judges, 'Be careful what you do, since you are judging not by any human power but in the name of Yahweh, who will be with you when you pronounce sentence.'

2Ch 19:7 This being so, let fear of Yahweh govern you; be careful what you do, for Yahweh our God will not tolerate malpractice, partiality or the taking of bribes.'

2Ch 19:8 Jehoshaphat also appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of Israelite families in Jerusalem to settle disputes. They lived in Jerusalem

2Ch 19:9 and Jehoshaphat gave them the following charge: 'In fear of Yahweh and with conscientious integrity, this is how you are to act:

2Ch 19:10 whatever case your brothers living in other towns refer to you, whether involving blood feuds or law and commandment, statutes and judgements, you are to instruct them in such manner that they do not incur guilt before Yahweh and that you and your brothers do not incur his anger. If you act thus, you will not incur guilt.

2Ch 19:11 Amariah the chief priest himself will be your president in all religious cases, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, leader of the House of Judah, in all civil ones, while the Levites will act as officers of the court. Be firm, put this into practice and may Yahweh protect the right!'

2Ch 20:1 Some time later, the Moabites and Ammonites, and with them the Meunites, advanced to war against Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 20:2 Jehoshaphat received the following intelligence, 'A vast horde is advancing on you from the other side of the Sea, from Edom; they are already at Hazazon-Tamar, that is, En-Gedi.'

2Ch 20:3 Jehoshaphat was alarmed and resolved to have recourse to Yahweh; he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

2Ch 20:4 So Judah assembled to seek help from Yahweh; to seek Yahweh they came from every town in Judah.

2Ch 20:5 Then, standing in the Temple of Yahweh in front of the new court among the assembled people of Judah and Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat

2Ch 20:6 said, 'Yahweh, God of our ancestors, are you not God in heaven, and do you not rule all the kingdoms of the nations? Your power and might are such that no one can resist you.'

2Ch 20:7 Did not you, our God, dispossess the inhabitants of this country for your people Israel and give it to the descendants of Abraham, your friend, for ever?

2Ch 20:8 They have lived in it and built you a sanctuary there for your name,

2Ch 20:9 saying, "If disaster, war, flood, pestilence or famine befall us, and we stand in front of this Temple, before you -- for your name is in this Temple -- and cry to you in our distress, then you will listen and rescue us."

2Ch 20:10 'Now see, the Ammonites and Moabites and the people of Mount Seir, whom you would not allow Israel to invade when they came out of Egypt -- on the contrary, Israel avoided them, and did not destroy them-

2Ch 20:11 see how they reward us, by coming to drive us out of your possession which you allotted to us!'

2Ch 20:12 Our God, will you not pass sentence on them, since we are helpless against this vast horde about to attack us? Because we do not know what to do, we look to you.'

2Ch 20:13 All Judah, including their families, wives and children, were standing before Yahweh,

2Ch 20:14 when, in the middle of the assembly, the spirit of Yahweh came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah the Levite, a member of the clan of Asaph, 2Ch 20:15 who then cried, 'Listen, all Judah and you citizens of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat!

Yahweh says this to you, "Do not be afraid, do not be daunted by this vast horde, for the war is not your affair but God's.

2Ch 20:16 Go down against them tomorrow; they are coming up by the Slope of Ziz and you will encounter them at the end of the ravine near the desert of Jeruel.

2Ch 20:17 You will not need to fight in this battle. Take up your position, stand firm, and see what salvation Yahweh has in store for you. Judah and Jerusalem, be fearless, be dauntless; march out against them tomorrow and Yahweh will be with you."

2Ch 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed his head, his face to the ground, and all Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem fell down before Yahweh to worship Yahweh.

2Ch 20:19 Then the Levites -- both the Kohathites and Korahites -- stood up to praise Yahweh, God of Israel, at the top of their voices.

2Ch 20:20 Early next morning they prepared to set out for the desert of Tekoa. As they were setting out, Jehoshaphat stood up and said, 'Listen to me, Judah and you citizens of Jerusalem! Believe in Yahweh your God and you will be secure; believe in his prophets and you will be successful.'

2Ch 20:21 Then, having conferred with the people, he appointed singers who were to praise Yahweh and go out ahead of the army in sacred vestments, singing Praise Yahweh, for his faithful love endures for ever!

2Ch 20:22 The moment they began their shouts of praise, Yahweh sprang an ambush on the Ammonites, Moabites and the people of Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and that was the end of them,

2Ch 20:23 for the Ammonites and Moabites turned on the people of Mount Seir, and put them under the curse of destruction and then, having finished off the people of Seir, set to work slaughtering one another.

2Ch 20:24 When Judah reached the point overlooking the desert and looked towards the horde, there were nothing but corpses lying on the ground; no one escaped.

2Ch 20:25 When Jehoshaphat arrived to take the booty, they found quantities of cattle and innumerable possessions, clothes and valuables, which they seized for themselves; it was impossible to carry it, and it took them three days to collect it.

2Ch 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, where they blessed Yahweh -- hence the place was given the name Valley of Beracah, which it still has today.

2Ch 20:27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem with Jehoshaphat at their head as Yahweh had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 To the sound of lyre, harp and trumpet they came to Jerusalem, to the Temple of Yahweh, 2Ch 20:29 and a panic from Yahweh seized all the neighbouring kings when they heard how Yahweh had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2Ch 20:30 And henceforth Jehoshaphat's reign was undisturbed, for his God gave him peace all round.

2Ch 20:31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

2Ch 20:32 He followed the example of his father Asa undeviatingly, doing what Yahweh regards as right.

2Ch 20:33 The high places, however, were not abolished; the people had still not set their hearts on the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 20:34 The rest of the history of Jehoshaphat, from first to last, is written down in the records of Jehu son of Hanani, which are quoted in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

2Ch 20:35 Afterwards, Jehoshaphat formed a partnership with Ahaziah king of Israel, which was very wrong of him.

2Ch 20:36 He joined him in building some ships to go to Tarshish; they built them at Ezion-Geber.

2Ch 20:37 Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah then prophesied against Jehoshaphat as follows, 'Because you have become Ahaziah's partner, Yahweh has wrecked your efforts.' The ships were wrecked and were never fit to sail for Tarshish.

2Ch 21:1 Then Jehoshaphat fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.

2Ch 21:2 Jehoram's brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah -- all of them sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

2Ch 21:3 Their father had lavishly given them presents of silver, gold and other valuables as well as fortified towns in Judah; but the throne he bequeathed to Jehoram since he was the first-born.

2Ch 21:4 Jehoram, having taken control of his father's kingdom and secured his own position, put all his brothers to the sword and some officials of Israel too.

2Ch 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 21:6 He followed the example of the kings of Israel as the House of Ahab were doing, he having married one of Ahab's daughters; and he did what is displeasing to Yahweh.

2Ch 21:7 But Yahweh would not destroy the House of David, because of the covenant which he had made with David, promising to provide him and his sons with a lamp for ever.

2Ch 21:8 In his time Edom threw off the domination of Judah and set up a king for itself.

2Ch 21:9 Jehoram crossed the frontier, and with him his commanders and all his chariots. Under cover of dark, he and his chariot commanders broke through the Edomites surrounding him.

2Ch 21:10 Thus Edom threw off the domination of Judah and has remained free to the present day. Libnah revolted against him at the same time, because he had abandoned Yahweh, God of his ancestors.

2Ch 21:11 What is more, he set up high places in the highlands of Judah, leading the citizens of Jerusalem and the people of Judah into apostasy.

2Ch 21:12 Something written by the prophet Elijah then came into his hands. It said, 'Yahweh, God of your ancestor David, says this, "Since you have not followed the example of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa king of Judah,

2Ch 21:13 but have followed the example of the kings of Israel and have led Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem into apostasy, just as the House of Ahab has led Israel into apostasy, and have even murdered your brothers, your own family, who were better men than you,

2Ch 21:14 Yahweh is going to afflict your people, your sons, your wives and all your property with a great calamity,

2Ch 21:15 and you yourself with a severe disease affecting your bowels, as a result of which disease, continuing day after day, you will suffer protrusion of your bowels." '

2Ch 21:16 Yahweh then roused the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs living near the Cushites against Jehoram.

2Ch 21:17 They invaded Judah, forcing their way into it and carrying off all the property to be found in the king's palace, as well as his sons and his wives, so that he was left no sons at all except his youngest son Jehoahaz.

2Ch 21:18 And after all this, Yahweh afflicted him with an incurable disease of the bowels;

2Ch 21:19 in due time, after about two years, his bowels protruded as a result of his disease and he died in acute pain. His people did not make a funeral pyre for him, as they had for his ancestors.

2Ch 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. He passed away unlamented and was buried in the City of David, though not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 22:1 The inhabitants of Jerusalem then made his youngest son Ahaziah king in succession to him, since the marauders who had attacked the camp with the Arabs had killed all the older ones. That was why Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah became king.

2Ch 22:2 Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, descendant of Omri.

2Ch 22:3 He too followed the example of the House of Ahab, for his mother being his adviser brought about his condemnation.

2Ch 22:4 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh as the House of Ahab did, for they were his advisers after his father's death, to his undoing.

2Ch 22:5 He followed their advice and went with Jehoram son of Ahab, king of Israel, to make war on Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead. But the Aramaeans wounded Jehoram, 2Ch 22:6 who returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramoth, fighting against Hazael king of Aram. Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to visit Jehoram son of Ahab because he was ailing.

2Ch 22:7 Through this visit to Jehoram God brought ruin on Ahaziah. On his arrival he went out with Jehoram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi whom Yahweh had anointed to make an end of the House of Ahab.

2Ch 22:8 While Jehu was executing sentence on the House of Ahab and came across the officers of Judah and Ahaziah's nephews who were in attendance on Ahaziah, he killed them, 2Ch 22:9 and then went in search of Ahaziah. The latter was captured while hiding in Samaria, and taken to Jehu who put him to death. But they gave him burial because, they said, 'He was the grandson of Jehoshaphat who sought Yahweh with all his heart.' As a result, there was no member of Ahaziah's family left who was strong enough to rule the kingdom.

2Ch 22:10 When Athaliah mother of Ahaziah learned that her son was dead, she promptly did away with all the royal stock of the House of Judah.

2Ch 22:11 But Jehosheba the king's daughter, surreptitiously rescued Joash son of Ahaziah from among the chiefs who were to be murdered, and put him with his nurse in the sleeping quarters; in this way Jehosheba daughter of King Joram and wife of Jehoiada the priest -- she was the sister of Ahaziah -- hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.

2Ch 22:12 He stayed hidden with them in the Temple of God for six years while Athaliah governed the country.

2Ch 23:1 In the seventh year Jehoiada decided to take action and made a pact with the regimental commanders, Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah and Elishaphat son of Zichri.

2Ch 23:2 These went all over Judah, gathering the Levites from all the towns of Judah, and the heads of the Israelite families, who then came to Jerusalem, 2Ch 23:3 and the whole assembly made a pact with the king in the Temple of God. Jehoiada said to them, 'Look, the king's son is now to be king, as Yahweh has promised of the sons of David!

2Ch 23:4 This is what you must do: a third of you priests and Levites who come on duty on the Sabbath must guard the gates, 2Ch 23:5 a third the royal palace, a third the Foundation Gate, while the people must all stay in the courts of the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 23:6 No one must enter the Temple of Yahweh except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may come in because they are consecrated. But the people must all observe Yahweh's regulations.

2Ch 23:7 The Levites must surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hands; anyone who enters the Temple must be killed. And you will escort the king when he comes in and when he leaves.'

2Ch 23:8 The Levites and all Judah did everything as Jehoiada the priest had ordered, and each one brought his men, those coming on duty on the Sabbath and those going off duty on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest had not released any of the divisions from duty.

2Ch 23:9 Jehoiada the priest then issued the regimental commanders with King David's spears and large and small shields, which were kept in the Temple of God.

2Ch 23:10 He then positioned all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the south side of the Temple to the north side of the Temple, close to the altar and the Temple, to form a circle round the king.

2Ch 23:11 Then they brought the king's son out, crowned him, gave him a copy of the covenant and made him king. When Jehoiada and his sons had anointed him, they shouted, 'Long live the king!'

2Ch 23:12 On hearing the people shouting as they ran to acclaim the king, Athaliah joined the people in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 23:13 When she looked, there stood the king on his dais by the entrance, with the officers and trumpeters at the king's side, and all the people of the country rejoicing and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments leading the hymns of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, 'Treason, treason!'

2Ch 23:14 Jehoiada the priest then gave the order to the regimental commanders in charge of the troops, 'Take her out between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her.' For the priest had already said, 'Do not kill her inside the Temple of Yahweh.'

2Ch 23:15 So they made way for her, and when she reached the entrance to the Horses' Gate of the palace, they killed her there.

2Ch 23:16 Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king to remain Yahweh's people.

2Ch 23:17 All the people then went to the temple of Baal and demolished it; they smashed its altars and its images and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

2Ch 23:18 Jehoiada entrusted the security of the Temple of Yahweh to the priests and Levites, whom David had put in charge of the Temple of Yahweh to present the burnt offerings of Yahweh as laid down in the Law of Moses, with joy and song as ordained by David.

2Ch 23:19 He also appointed gatekeepers for the gates of the Temple of Yahweh, so that no one who was unclean might enter for any purpose at all.

2Ch 23:20 He then took the regimental commanders, the nobles, the government officials and all the people of the land and he escorted the king down from the Temple of Yahweh. Entering the palace through the Upper Gate, they placed the king on the royal throne.

2Ch 23:21 All the people of the land were delighted, and the city made no move after Athaliah had been put to death.

2Ch 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2Ch 24:2 Joash did what Yahweh regards as right throughout the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest.

2Ch 24:3 Jehoiada found him two wives and he fathered several sons and daughters.

2Ch 24:4 Later, Joash made up his mind to repair the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 24:5 Calling the priests and the Levites together, he said, 'Go out to the towns of Judah and collect money from all Israel for annual repairs to the Temple of Yahweh. Do this quickly.' But the Levites were in no hurry,

2Ch 24:6 so the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said, 'Why have you not insisted on the Levites' bringing in the tax from Judah and Jerusalem for the Tent of Witness, as imposed by Moses servant of Yahweh and the community of Israel?' --

2Ch 24:7 Athaliah and her sons, whom she corrupted, despoiled the Temple of God and even assigned all the sacred revenues of the Temple of Yahweh to Baal.

2Ch 24:8 So, at the king's order, a chest was made and put outside the gate of the Temple of Yahweh, 2Ch 24:9 and a proclamation was issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem that the tax, which Moses servant of God had imposed on Israel in the desert, was to be brought to Yahweh.

2Ch 24:10 Then all the officials and all the people gladly brought in their contributions, depositing them in the chest until the payment was complete.

2Ch 24:11 Whenever the chest was brought by the Levites for royal inspection and found to contain a large sum of money, the king's secretary and the chief priest's representative would come and empty the chest and then have it returned to its place. This was done day after day and a great deal of money was collected.

2Ch 24:12 The king and Jehoiada handed it over to the foreman attached to the Temple of Yahweh, and the hired masons and carpenters set about repairing the Temple of Yahweh; and iron-workers and bronze-workers laboured to repair the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 24:13 The workmen got on with the task -- the repair work made good progress at their hands -- until they had restored the Temple of God to its former state and reconditioned it.

2Ch 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the balance of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with this vessels were made for the Temple of Yahweh, vessels for the liturgy and for the burnt offerings, bowls and other gold and silver vessels. And the perpetual burnt offering was offered in the Temple of Yahweh throughout Jehoiada's lifetime.

2Ch 24:15 But Jehoiada, growing old, had his fill of days and died. He died at the age of a hundred and thirty years, 2Ch 24:16 and was buried with the kings in the City of David because he had served Israel and God and his Temple well.

2Ch 24:17 After Jehoiada's death the officials of Judah came to pay court to the king, and the king listened to their advice, 2Ch 24:18 and they abandoned the Temple of Yahweh, God of their ancestors, for the worship of sacred poles and idols. Judah and Jerusalem incurred wrath because of this guilt of theirs.

2Ch 24:19 He sent their prophets to lead them back to Yahweh; these put the case against them, but they would not listen.

2Ch 24:20 The spirit of God then invested Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood up before the people and said, 'God says this, "Why transgress Yahweh's commands to your certain ruin? For if you abandon Yahweh, he will abandon you."

2Ch 24:21 They then plotted against him and, at the king's order, stoned him in the court of the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 24:22 Thus King Joash, forgetful of the devotion which Jehoiada father of Zechariah had displayed on his behalf, murdered his son, who cried out as he died, 'Yahweh will see this and avenge it!'

2Ch 24:23 At the turn of the year, the Aramaean army made war on Joash. When they reached Judah and Jerusalem, they massacred all the nation's government officials and sent all their booty to the king of Damascus.

2Ch 24:24 Although the invading Aramaean army was only a small body of men, Yahweh allowed them to defeat a very large army because they had abandoned Yahweh, God of their ancestors; thus they executed judgement on Joash. After they had retired -- for they left him seriously wounded-

2Ch 24:25 his own retainers plotted against him to avenge the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest and murdered him in his bed. When he died he was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 24:26 These were the conspirators: Zabad son of Shimeath the Ammonite and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabite.

2Ch 24:27 As regards his sons, the heavy tribute imposed on him, and the restoration of the Temple of God, this is recorded in the Commentary on the Book of the Kings. His son Amaziah succeeded him.

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2Ch 25:2 He did what Yahweh regards as right, though not wholeheartedly.

2Ch 25:3 Once the kingdom was firmly under his control, he killed those of his retainers who had murdered the king his father.

2Ch 25:4 But he did not put their sons to death; this was in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the book of Moses, where Yahweh had commanded, 'Parents may not be put to death for children, nor children for parents, but each must be put to death for his own crime.'

2Ch 25:5 Amaziah summoned Judah and organised all Judah and Benjamin by families under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. He also made a register of those who were twenty years old and upwards, and found there were three hundred thousand picked men, ready for service and capable of wielding spear and shield.

2Ch 25:6 Furthermore, he hired a hundred thousand tough fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

2Ch 25:7 A man of God then came to him and said, 'My lord king, do not let the Israelite troops march with you, for Yahweh is not with Israel or with any of the Ephraimites.'

2Ch 25:8 For however valiantly you act in war, God will bring you down before the enemy, for God has the power to uphold or to throw down.'

2Ch 25:9 Amaziah said to the man of God, 'But what about the hundred talents which I have paid for the Israelite troops?' 'Yahweh can give you far more than that,' said the man of God.

2Ch 25:10 At this, Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home again. They were furious with Judah and went home in a great rage.

2Ch 25:11 Amaziah then, coming to a decision, led out his own troops and, having reached the Valley of Salt, struck down ten thousand Seirites.

2Ch 25:12 The men of Judah captured ten thousand more alive and, taking them to the summit of the Rock, threw them off the summit of the Rock so that they were all dashed to pieces.

2Ch 25:13 Meanwhile, the troops whom Amaziah had dismissed and not allowed to go into battle with him rased the towns of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-Horon, killing three thousand of their inhabitants and capturing great quantities of plunder.

2Ch 25:14 On returning from his slaughter of the Edomites, Amaziah brought the gods of the Seirites with him; he set these up as his gods, bowing down before them and burning incense to them.

2Ch 25:15 Yahweh's anger was aroused by Amaziah and he sent him a prophet, who said to him, 'Why do you consult those people's gods when they could not save their own people from your clutches?'

2Ch 25:16 He was still speaking when Amaziah interrupted him. 'Have we appointed you a royal counsellor? Stop, as you value your life!' So the prophet stopped, and then said, 'I know that God has decided to destroy you for having done this and for not listening to my advice.'

2Ch 25:17 After consultation, Amaziah king of Judah then sent a message to Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, 'Come and make a trial of strength!'

2Ch 25:18 Joash king of Israel sent back word to Amaziah king of Judah, 'The thistle of Lebanon sent a message to the cedar of Lebanon, saying, "Give my son your daughter in marriage"; but a wild animal of the Lebanon ran over the thistle and squashed it.'

2Ch 25:19 "Look at me, the conqueror of Edom," you say, and now aspire to even greater glory. But stay where you belong! Why challenge disaster, to your own and Judah's ruin?'

2Ch 25:20 But Amaziah would not listen, for this was an act of God to deliver them up for having consulted the gods of Edom.

2Ch 25:21 So Joash king of Israel marched to the attack. And at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah, he and Amaziah king of Judah made their trial of strength.

2Ch 25:22 Judah was defeated by Israel, and everyone fled to his tent.

2Ch 25:23 The king of Judah, Amaziah son of Joash, son of Ahaziah, was taken prisoner at Beth-Shemesh by Joash king of Israel who led him off to Jerusalem, where he demolished four hundred cubits of the city wall between the Ephraim Gate and the Corner Gate;

2Ch 25:24 he then took back with him to Samaria all the gold and silver, and all the vessels to be found in the Temple of God in the care of Obed-Edom, the treasures in the palace, and hostages besides.

2Ch 25:25 Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ch 25:26 The rest of the history of Amaziah, from first to last, is this not recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

2Ch 25:27 Some time after Amaziah had defected from Yahweh, a plot having been hatched against him in Jerusalem, he fled to Lachish where he was murdered.

2Ch 25:28 He was then transported by horse and buried with his ancestors in the city of David.

2Ch 26:1 All the people then chose Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in succession to his father Amaziah.

2Ch 26:2 It was he who rebuilt Elath, recovering it for Judah, after the king had fallen asleep with his ancestors.

2Ch 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

2Ch 26:4 He did what is pleasing to Yahweh, just as his father Amaziah had done;

2Ch 26:5 he consulted God throughout the lifetime of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God. And as long as he consulted Yahweh, God gave him success.

2Ch 26:6 He went on campaign against the Philistines, demolished the walls of Gath, the walls of Jabneh and the walls of Ashdod, and built towns in the area of Ashdod and elsewhere in Philistine territory.

2Ch 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines, the Arabs living at Gur-Baal and the Meunites.

2Ch 26:8 The Meunites paid tribute to Uzziah and his fame spread as far as the frontier of Egypt, since he kept growing stronger and stronger.

2Ch 26:9 Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem, at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the Angle, and fortified them.

2Ch 26:10 He built towers in the desert too, and dug many storage-wells, for he had large herds in the lowlands and on the tableland, and farmers and vine dressers in the hills and fertile lands: for he loved the land.

2Ch 26:11 Uzziah had a trained army ready to go on campaign, organised in companies manned as detailed by the scribe Jeiel and the staff-officer Maaseiah, and commanded by Hananiah one of the king's generals.

2Ch 26:12 The heads of families of the military champions numbered in all two thousand six hundred.

2Ch 26:13 Under them was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred men ready for war, a powerful force to support the king against the enemy.

2Ch 26:14 Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, armour, bows and sling-stones for the entire army.

2Ch 26:15 He also erected expertly contrived devices for the towers and angles of Jerusalem from which to shoot arrows and drop large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was miraculously helped to become strong.

2Ch 26:16 But once he was strong, his arrogance was such that it led to his downfall; he was unfaithful to Yahweh his God by entering the Temple of Yahweh to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:17 Azariah the priest with eight brave priests of Yahweh followed him in;

2Ch 26:18 confronting King Uzziah, they said to him, 'Uzziah, you are not allowed to burn incense to Yahweh; only the Aaronite priests consecrated for the purpose may burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful and will have no honour from Yahweh God.'

2Ch 26:19 Uzziah, censer in hand to burn incense, flew into a rage. But while he was raging at the priests, a virulent skin-disease broke out on his forehead in the presence of the priests, in the Temple of Yahweh, there by the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:20 When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests turned towards him, there was skin-disease on his forehead and they hurried him outside, and he himself was equally anxious to get out, because Yahweh had struck him.

2Ch 26:21 King Uzziah was afflicted with skin-disease till his dying day. Because of this, he lived confined to his room and was excluded from the Temple of Yahweh, while Jotham his son, who was master of the palace, governed the people of the country.

2Ch 26:22 The rest of the history of Uzziah, from first to last, has been written by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2Ch 26:23 Then Uzziah fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried with them in the field beside the burial ground of the kings since, it was reasoned, he was afflicted with virulent skin-disease. His son Jotham then succeeded him.

2Ch 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah daughter of Zadok.

2Ch 27:2 He did what Yahweh regards as right, just as his father Uzziah had done. Only he did not enter Yahweh's sanctuary. But the people continued to do wrong.

2Ch 27:3 It was he who built the Upper Gate of the Temple of Yahweh and carried out considerable work on the wall of the Ophel.

2Ch 27:4 He also built towns in the highlands of Judah and built forts and towers in the wooded areas.

2Ch 27:5 He also went to war against the king of the Ammonites and defeated them; and the Ammonites had to give him a hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kor of wheat and ten thousand of barley that year. And the Ammonites paid him the same amount, the second and third years afterwards.

2Ch 27:6 Jotham became powerful because he kept an unwavering course before Yahweh his God.

2Ch 27:7 The rest of the history of Jotham, all his wars and his policy, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 27:9 Then Jotham fell asleep with his ancestors, and was buried in the City of David; his son Ahaz succeeded him.

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what Yahweh regards as right, as his ancestor David had done.

2Ch 28:2 He followed the example of the kings of Israel, even having images cast for the Baals;

2Ch 28:3 he burned incense in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, caused his sons to pass through the fire of sacrifice, copying the disgusting practices of the nations whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.

2Ch 28:4 He offered sacrifices and incense on the high places, on the hills and under every green tree.

2Ch 28:5 So Yahweh his God put him at the mercy of the king of Aram, who defeated him and took large numbers of captives, carrying them off to Damascus. He also put him at the mercy of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him.

2Ch 28:6 In a single day, Pekah son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah, all of them prominent men, because they had abandoned Yahweh, God of their ancestors.

2Ch 28:7 Zichri, an Ephraimite champion, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the controller of the household and Elkanah the king's second-in-command.

2Ch 28:8 Of their brothers, the Israelites took two hundred thousand captive including wives, sons, daughters; they also took quantities of booty, carrying everything off to Samaria.

2Ch 28:9 Now there was a prophet of Yahweh there by the name of Oded, who went out to meet the troops returning to Samaria and said, 'Look, because Yahweh, God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, he put them at your mercy, but you have slaughtered them with such fury as reached to heaven, 2Ch 28:10 and now you propose to reduce the children of Judah and Jerusalem to being your male and female slaves! Have you not yourselves committed sins against Yahweh your God?

2Ch 28:11 Now listen to me: release the captives you have taken from your brothers, for the fierce anger of Yahweh hangs over you.'

2Ch 28:12 Some of the Ephraimite chieftains -- Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechaiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum and Amasa son of Hadlai -- then protested to those returning from the war
2Ch 28:13 and said to them, 'You must not bring the captives here, for we have already sinned against Yahweh and you propose to add to our sin and guilt, although our guilt is already great, and fierce anger is hanging over Israel.'

2Ch 28:14 So in the presence of the officials and whole assembly, the soldiers gave up the captives and the booty.

2Ch 28:15 Men nominated for the purpose then took charge of the captives. From the booty they clothed all those of them who were naked; they gave them clothing and sandals, provided them with food and drink, mounted on donkeys all those who were infirm and took them back to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

2Ch 28:16 This was when King Ahaz sent asking the king of Assyria to come to his assistance.

2Ch 28:17 The Edomites again invaded, defeated Judah, and carried off captives, 2Ch 28:18 while the Philistines raided the towns in the lowlands and in the Negeb of Judah, capturing Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, Gedereth, Soco and its dependencies, Timnah and its dependencies and Gimzo and its dependencies, and settled there.

2Ch 28:19 For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, since he behaved without restraint in Judah and had been unfaithful to Yahweh.

2Ch 28:20 Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria attacked and besieged him; but he could not overpower him.

2Ch 28:21 Although Ahaz robbed the Temple of Yahweh and the palaces of the king and princes and gave the proceeds to the king of Assyria, he received no help from him.

2Ch 28:22 During the time when he was under siege he disobeyed Yahweh even more grossly, this King Ahaz.

2Ch 28:23 For he offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him. 'Since the gods of the kings of Aram', he thought, 'have supported them, I shall sacrifice to them, and perhaps they will help me.' But they proved to be his and all Israel's downfall.

2Ch 28:24 Ahaz then collected the equipment of the Temple of God, broke up the equipment of the Temple of God, sealed the doors of the Temple of Yahweh and put his own altars in every corner of Jerusalem;

2Ch 28:25 he set up high places in every town of Judah to burn incense to other gods, thus provoking the anger of Yahweh, God of his ancestors.

2Ch 28:26 The rest of his history, his whole policy, from first to last, is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 28:27 Then Ahaz fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the City, in Jerusalem, though he was not taken to the tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah succeeded him.

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2Ch 29:2 He did what Yahweh regards as right, just as his ancestor David had done.

2Ch 29:3 In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the Temple of Yahweh, having repaired them.

2Ch 29:4 He then brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the eastern square,

2Ch 29:5 and said to them, 'Listen to me, Levites! First sanctify yourselves, then sanctify the Temple of Yahweh, God of your ancestors, and remove the filth from the sanctuary.'

2Ch 29:6 Our ancestors were unfaithful, and did what is displeasing to Yahweh our God. They abandoned him, turned their faces away from Yahweh's home and turned their backs on him.

2Ch 29:7 They even closed the doors of the portico, put out the lamps and stopped burning incense and making burnt offerings in the sanctuary of the God of Israel.

2Ch 29:8 This was why Yahweh's anger fell on Judah and Jerusalem and he made them an object of terror, astonishment and derision, as you can see for yourselves.

2Ch 29:9 Yes, our ancestors were put to the sword, and our sons, our daughters and our wives were taken captive because of this.

2Ch 29:10 I am now determined to make a covenant with Yahweh, God of Israel, so that his fierce anger may turn away from us.

2Ch 29:11 Now, my sons, do not be remiss, for Yahweh has chosen you to stand in his presence and serve him by conducting his worship and offering him incense.'

2Ch 29:12 The Levites set about it -- Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah, from the Kohathites; Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallel, from the Merarites; Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah, from the Gershonites;

2Ch 29:13 Shimri and Jeuel, of the sons of Elizaphan; Zechariah and Mattaniah of the sons of Asaph;

2Ch 29:14 Jehiel and Shimei of the sons of Heman; Shemaiah and Uzziel of the sons of Jeduthun-

2Ch 29:15 and gathered their brothers together; they sanctified themselves, and in obedience to the king's order, in accordance with the words of Yahweh, they came to purify the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 29:16 The priests went into the inner part of the Temple of Yahweh to purify it. They brought all the unclean things which they found in Yahweh's sanctuary, out into the court of the Temple of Yahweh, where the Levites collected them and took them out to the Kidron Valley.

2Ch 29:17 They began sanctifying on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month had reached Yahweh's portico; thus they took eight days to sanctify the Temple of Yahweh, and by the sixteenth day of the first month everything was finished.

2Ch 29:18 They then waited on King Hezekiah and said, 'We have purified the whole Temple of Yahweh, the altar of burnt offering with all its equipment and the table for the loaves of permanent offering with all their equipment.

2Ch 29:19 We have also got ready and sanctified all the equipment which King Ahaz in his infidelity had removed during his reign. It is all ready in front of Yahweh's altar.'

2Ch 29:20 King Hezekiah lost no time but called the officials of the city together and went up to the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven goats as a sin sacrifice for the royal house, for the sanctuary and for Judah, and he ordered the Aaronite priests to offer them on Yahweh's altar.

2Ch 29:22 So they slaughtered the bulls and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it over the altar. They then slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood over the altar; and they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood over the altar.

2Ch 29:23 Then they brought the goats, the sacrifice for sin, before the king and the assembly who laid their hands on them.

2Ch 29:24 The priests slaughtered them and made a sacrifice for sin with their blood at the altar to expiate for all Israel, since the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sacrifice for sin on behalf of all Israel.

2Ch 29:25 He positioned the Levites in the Temple of Yahweh with cymbals, lyres and harps, in accordance with the ordinance of David, of Gad the king's seer and of Nathan the prophet, for such was Yahweh's order conveyed through his prophets.

2Ch 29:26 When the Levites stood with David's musical instruments, and the priests with the trumpets,

2Ch 29:27 Hezekiah ordered the burnt offering to be presented on the altar. And as the burnt offering began, the hymns of Yahweh began too, and the trumpets sounded, to the accompaniment of the instruments of David king of Israel, 2Ch 29:28 while the whole congregation worshipped, the singers singing and the trumpeters sounding the trumpets, continuously until the burnt offering was over.

2Ch 29:29 When the burnt offering was finished, the king and all those present with him fell to their knees and worshipped.

2Ch 29:30 Then King Hezekiah and the officials told the Levites to sing praise to Yahweh in the words of David and Asaph the seer; and joyfully they sang their praises, then knelt in worship.

2Ch 29:31 Hezekiah spoke again, 'Now that you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh, come forward and bring thanksgiving sacrifices to the Temple of Yahweh.' Then the congregation brought thanksgiving sacrifices and those who were generous brought burnt offerings.

2Ch 29:32 The number of burnt offerings brought by the congregation was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred lambs, all as burnt offerings for Yahweh.

2Ch 29:33 The consecrated gifts amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

2Ch 29:34 The priests were too few, however, and were unable to dismember all the burnt offerings, so their brothers, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished and the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites had been more conscientious about sanctifying themselves than the priests had.

2Ch 29:35 In addition to the abundance of burnt offerings, there were also the fatty pieces for communion sacrifices and the libations for the burnt offerings. And so the liturgy of Yahweh's Temple was restored, 2Ch 29:36 and Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had provided for the people, since everything had happened so suddenly.

2Ch 30:1 Hezekiah sent messengers to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, bidding them come to the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover in honour of Yahweh, God of Israel.

2Ch 30:2 For the king and his officials and the whole congregation in Jerusalem had agreed to celebrate the Passover in the second month, 2Ch 30:3 having been unable to celebrate it at the proper time, since the priests had not purified themselves in sufficient number, and the people were not assembled in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:4 And since this arrangement seemed fitting to the king and the whole congregation,

2Ch 30:5 they resolved to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, calling on the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate a Passover in honour of Yahweh, God of Israel, since they had not celebrated it in a body as prescribed.

2Ch 30:6 So, by order of the king, courtiers set out with letters from the king and his officials for every part of Israel and Judah, saying, 'Israelites, return to Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and he will return to those of you who are left and have escaped the grasp of the kings of Assyria.'

2Ch 30:7 Do not be like your fathers and brothers who were unfaithful to Yahweh, God of their ancestors; he brought them to ruin, as you can see.

2Ch 30:8 Do not be stubborn like your ancestors. Submit to Yahweh, come to his sanctuary which he has consecrated for ever, and serve Yahweh your God, so that his fierce anger may turn away from you.

2Ch 30:9 For if you return to Yahweh, your brothers and your sons will be treated mercifully by their captors and be allowed to return to this country; for Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful and will not turn his face away from you, if you return to him.'

2Ch 30:10 The courtiers went from town to town through the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulon but the people laughed and scoffed at them;

2Ch 30:11 even so, some people from Asher and Manasseh and Zebulon were humble enough to come to Jerusalem,

2Ch 30:12 while in Judah the hand of God was also at work inspiring a unanimous desire to obey the order of the king and the officials in accordance with the word of Yahweh.

2Ch 30:13 A huge crowd assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month. An immense crowd

2Ch 30:14 set to work removing the altars then in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

2Ch 30:15 They then slaughtered the Passover victims on the fourteenth day of the second month. Ashamed of themselves, the priests and Levites had in the meanwhile sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the Temple of Yahweh, 2Ch 30:16 so they now stood in their positions prescribed in the Law of Moses man of God, the priests sprinkling the blood handed to them by the Levites.

2Ch 30:17 Since many people in the congregation had not sanctified themselves, the Levites took care of the slaughter of the Passover victims to consecrate them to Yahweh for all who were not clean.

2Ch 30:18 For a great many people, especially from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulon, had not purified themselves, since they did not eat the Passover as prescribed. But Hezekiah prayed for them as follows, 'May Yahweh in his goodness pardon

2Ch 30:19 everyone whose heart is set on seeking God, Yahweh, God of his ancestors, even if he has not been purified as holy things demand.'

2Ch 30:20 Yahweh listened to Hezekiah and left the people unharmed.

2Ch 30:21 Amid great rejoicing, the Israelites present in Jerusalem celebrated the feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days, while day after day the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh with all their might.

2Ch 30:22 Hezekiah then encouraged all the Levites who had such understanding of Yahweh. Having finished the seven-day festival, during which they sacrificed communion sacrifices and praised Yahweh, God of their ancestors,

2Ch 30:23 the whole congregation decided to celebrate for a further seven days. So they joyfully celebrated for another seven days,

2Ch 30:24 Hezekiah king of Judah contributing a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for the congregation, and the officials another thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a large number of priests sanctified themselves.

2Ch 30:25 The whole congregation of Judah, the priests, the Levites, the whole congregation coming from Israel and the foreigners coming from the territory of Israel as well as those resident in Judah, rejoiced.

2Ch 30:26 There was great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David, king of Israel, nothing comparable had ever occurred in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:27 The levitical priests then stood up and blessed the people and their voice was heard, and their prayer reached his holy dwelling in heaven.

2Ch 31:1 When all this was complete, all Israel present went out to the towns of Judah, broke the pillars, cut down the sacred poles, wrecked the high places and the altars, and did away with them entirely throughout Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh. Then all the Israelites returned to their towns, everyone to his property.

2Ch 31:2 Hezekiah re-established the priestly and levitical orders, each man in his proper order according to his duties, whether priest or Levite, to bring burnt offerings and communion sacrifices, to serve and to give thanks and praise within the gates of Yahweh's camp.

2Ch 31:3 He also established a king's portion from his possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, New Moons and festivals, as laid down in the Law of Yahweh.

2Ch 31:4 He furthermore requested the people living in Jerusalem to present the portion for the priests and Levites so that they might devote themselves to the Law of Yahweh.

2Ch 31:5 As soon as the order had been promulgated, the Israelites provided the first fruits of grain, new wine, olive oil, honey and every other kind of agricultural produce in abundance; they brought in an abundant tithe of everything.

2Ch 31:6 The Israelites and Judaeans living in the towns of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of sacred gifts consecrated to Yahweh their God, laying them in heaps.

2Ch 31:7 They began accumulating the heaps in the third month and had finished them by the seventh.

2Ch 31:8 When Hezekiah and the officials came to inspect the heaps they praised Yahweh and his people Israel.

2Ch 31:9 While Hezekiah was questioning the priests and Levites about the heaps,

2Ch 31:10 Azariah, the chief priest, of the family of Zadok, replied as follows, 'Since they began bringing the contributions to the Temple of Yahweh,' he said, 'we have had enough to eat and quantities left over, for Yahweh has blessed his people; this mass of stuff is left.'

2Ch 31:11 Hezekiah then ordered them to have storerooms prepared in the Temple of Yahweh and, when they had got them ready,

2Ch 31:12 they conscientiously brought in the contributions, tithes and consecrated gifts, Conaniah the Levite was put in charge of them, with Shimei his brother as his assistant,

2Ch 31:13 and with Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jeremith, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah as overseers under Conaniah and his brother Shimei, by order of King Hezekiah and of Azariah, the chief of the Temple of God.

2Ch 31:14 Kore son of Jimnah the Levite, keeper of the eastern gate, was made responsible for the voluntary offerings to God and for providing the portion set aside for Yahweh and the most holy gifts.

2Ch 31:15 Supporting him loyally in the priestly towns were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shechaniah, who made the distributions to their brothers in their various orders, whether high or low,

2Ch 31:16 irrespective of their official genealogy, to the males of thirty years and upwards -- to each one who attended the Temple of Yahweh to fulfil his daily obligations -- for the performance of their duties appropriate to their orders:

2Ch 31:17 the priests being registered according to family and the Levites of twenty years and upwards according to their duties within their orders.

2Ch 31:18 And the official genealogy included all their household, their wives, their sons and their daughters, throughout the community, since these men were obliged to keep sanctifying themselves anew.

2Ch 31:19 The Aaronite priests who lived on the pasture lands belonging to their towns, had men named in every town to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone included in the official genealogy of the Levites.

2Ch 31:20 Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah. He did what Yahweh his God regards as good and right and loyal.

2Ch 31:21 Everything that he undertook, whether in the service of the Temple of God or in connection with the law or the commandments, he did in absolute devotion to his God, and so succeeded.

2Ch 32:1 After these loyal actions, Sennacherib king of Assyria advanced and invaded Judah, and laid siege to the fortified towns, intending to demolish them.

2Ch 32:2 Hezekiah, realising that Sennacherib's advance was the preliminary to an attack on Jerusalem, 2Ch 32:3 consulted his officers and warriors about sealing off the waters of the springs outside the city, and they supported him.

2Ch 32:4 So a large number of people were called out to block all the springs and cut off the watercourse flowing through the country. 'Why', they said, 'should the kings of Assyria find plenty of water when they arrive?'

2Ch 32:5 Acting with determination, he also repaired all the damaged parts of the wall, built towers on it, constructed a second wall on the outer side, strengthened the Millo of the City of David and made quantities of missiles and shields.

2Ch 32:6 He then appointed generals to command the people, summoned them to him in the square by the city gate and spoke as follows to encourage them,

2Ch 32:7 'Be strong and brave; do not be afraid or tremble when you face the king of Assyria and the whole horde he brings with him, for there are more on our side than on his.'

2Ch 32:8 He has only human strength, but we have Yahweh our God to help us and fight our battles.' The people took heart at the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

2Ch 32:9 Next, Sennacherib king of Assyria, who was then besieging Lachish with all his forces, sent his representatives to Jerusalem, to Hezekiah king of Judah, and all Judah at Jerusalem, with the following message,

2Ch 32:10 'Sennacherib king of Assyria says this, "What gives you the confidence to remain in the fortress of Jerusalem?

2Ch 32:11 Isn't Hezekiah deluding you, only to condemn you to die of famine and thirst, when he says: Yahweh our God will save us from the King of Assyria's clutches?

2Ch 32:12 Isn't Hezekiah the very man who has suppressed his high places and altars, and given the order to Judah and to Jerusalem: You must worship before one altar and on that alone offer incense?

2Ch 32:13 Don't you know what I and my ancestors have done to all the peoples of the other countries? Have the national gods of those countries had the slightest success in saving their countries from my clutches?

2Ch 32:14 Of all the gods of those nations whom my ancestors devoted to destruction, which one has been able to save his people from my clutches, for your god to be able to save you from my clutches?

2Ch 32:15 Do not let Hezekiah mislead you. Do not let him delude you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from me or from my ancestors' clutches. No more will your god be able to save you from my clutches."

2Ch 32:16 And his representatives said a great deal more, maligning Yahweh God, and his servant Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:17 He also wrote a letter to insult Yahweh, God of Israel, maligning him as follows, 'Just as the national gods of the other countries could not save their peoples from my clutches, so Hezekiah's god cannot save his people from my clutches.'

2Ch 32:18 They then shouted loudly in the Judaean language to the people of Jerusalem on the ramparts to frighten and confuse them, in the hope of capturing the city, 2Ch 32:19 maligning the God of Jerusalem as though he were one of the man-made gods of other peoples in the world.

2Ch 32:20 Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed and cried out to Heaven about this,

2Ch 32:21 and Yahweh sent an angel who destroyed every warrior, commander and officer in the king of Assyria's camp. So he had to retire shamefacedly to his own country and when he went into the temple of his god, some of his own sons there struck him down with the sword.

2Ch 32:22 So Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the clutches of Sennacherib king of Assyria and of everyone else, and gave them peace on every side.

2Ch 32:23 Many people then brought gifts to Yahweh in Jerusalem and valuable presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; from then on, all the other nations held him in high esteem.

2Ch 32:24 About then Hezekiah fell ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to Yahweh, who heard him and granted him a sign.

2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah made no return for the benefit which he had received; he became proud and brought retribution on himself and on Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 32:26 Then, however, Hezekiah did humble himself in his pride, and so did the inhabitants of Jerusalem; as a result of which, Yahweh's retribution did not overtake them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

2Ch 32:27 Hezekiah enjoyed immense riches and honour. He built himself treasures for gold, silver, precious stones, spices, jewels and every kind of desirable object, 2Ch 32:28 as well as storehouses for his returns of grain, new wine and olive oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle and pens for the flocks.

2Ch 32:29 He also provided himself with donkeys in addition to his immense wealth of flocks and herds, since God had made him immensely wealthy.

2Ch 32:30 It was Hezekiah who stopped the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them straight down on the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all that he undertook, 2Ch 32:31 although when the envoys were sent to him by the rulers of Babylon to enquire about the extraordinary thing which had taken place in the country, God left him alone to test him and discover what lay in his heart.

2Ch 32:32 The rest of the history of Hezekiah, and his deeds of faithful love, are recorded in the Vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 32:33 Then Hezekiah fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem paid him honours at his death. His son Manasseh succeeded him.

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:2 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, copying the disgusting practices of the nations whom Yahweh had dispossessed for the Israelites.

2Ch 33:3 He rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had demolished, he set up altars to Baal and made sacred poles, he worshipped the whole array of heaven and served it.

2Ch 33:4 He built altars in the Temple of Yahweh, of which Yahweh had said, 'My name will be in Jerusalem for ever.'

2Ch 33:5 He built altars to the whole array of heaven in the two courts of the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 33:6 He caused his sons to pass through the fire of sacrifice in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom. He practised soothsaying, divination and sorcery, and had dealings with mediums and spirit-guides. He did very many more things displeasing to Yahweh, thus provoking his anger.

2Ch 33:7 He put a sculpted image, an idol which he had made, inside the Temple of which God had said to David and his son Solomon, 'In this Temple and in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name for ever.'

2Ch 33:8 Nor shall I ever again remove Israel's foot from the soil on which I established your ancestors on condition that they were careful to observe all I commanded them as laid down in the whole Law, the statutes and the ordinances, given through Moses.'

2Ch 33:9 But Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into doing worse things than the nations which Yahweh had destroyed for the Israelites.

2Ch 33:10 When Yahweh spoke to Manasseh and his people, they would not listen.

2Ch 33:11 Yahweh then brought down on them the generals of the king of Assyria's army who captured Manasseh with hooks, put him in chains and took him to Babylon.

2Ch 33:12 While in his distress, he placated Yahweh his God by genuinely humbling himself before the God of his ancestors.

2Ch 33:13 When he prayed to him, he was moved by his entreaty, heard his supplication and brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Manasseh realised then that Yahweh is God.

2Ch 33:14 Afterwards, he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, to the west of Gihon, in the valley, up to the Fish Gate and round the Ophel, and made it very much higher. And he stationed military governors in all the fortified towns of Judah.

2Ch 33:15 He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the Temple of Yahweh, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the Temple of Yahweh and in Jerusalem, and threw them out of the city.

2Ch 33:16 He repaired the altar of Yahweh and offered communion sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve Yahweh, God of Israel.

2Ch 33:17 The people, however, went on sacrificing at the high places, although only to Yahweh their God.

2Ch 33:18 The rest of the history of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the prophecies of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yahweh, God of Israel, can be found in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

2Ch 33:19 His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, all his sins, his infidelity, the sites where he built high places and set up sacred poles and idols before humbling himself, are set down in the records of Hozai.

2Ch 33:20 Then Manasseh fell asleep with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his palace. His son Amon succeeded him.

2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:22 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh, as his father Manasseh had done, for Amon sacrificed to all the images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

2Ch 33:23 He did not humble himself before Yahweh as his father Manasseh had done; on the contrary, Amon wilfully added to his guilt.

2Ch 33:24 His retinue plotted against him and killed him in his own palace.

2Ch 33:25 The people of the country, however, slaughtered all those who had plotted against King Amon and proclaimed his son Josiah as his successor.

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:2 He did what is pleasing to Yahweh, and followed the example of his ancestor David, not deviating from it to right or to left.

2Ch 34:3 In the eighth year of his reign, when he was still a youth, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David. In the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the sacred poles and the sculpted and cast images.

2Ch 34:4 He superintended the smashing of the altars of Baal, he broke up the incense altars standing above them, he shattered the sacred poles and the sculpted and cast images and reduced them to powder, scattering the powder on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2Ch 34:5 He burned the bones of their priests on their altars and so purified Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:6 In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and round their open spaces, 2Ch 34:7 he smashed the altars and sacred poles, reduced the sculpted images to powder and broke up all the incense altars throughout the territory of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, after purging the country and the Temple, he commissioned Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah governor of the city and the herald Joah son of Joahaz, to repair the Temple of Yahweh his God.

2Ch 34:9 When they came to the high priest Hilkiah, they handed over the money contributed to the Temple of God and collected by the levitical guardians of the threshold from Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the rest of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:10 They handed it over to the masters of works attached to the Temple of Yahweh, and these gave it to the men working on the Temple of Yahweh to repair and restore the Temple;

2Ch 34:11 they gave it to the craftsmen and builders for buying dressed stone and timber for beams, to underpin the buildings which the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into decay.

2Ch 34:12 The men were conscientious in doing their work; their foremen were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites descended from Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, descended from Kohath, who supervised. The Levites -- all of whom were skilled instrumentalists-

2Ch 34:13 were in charge of the carriers and supervised all the workmen at their various jobs, while some of the Levites acted as secretaries, book-keepers and gatekeepers.

2Ch 34:14 While bringing out the money contributed to the Temple of Yahweh, the priest Hilkiah found the book of the Law of Yahweh given through Moses.

2Ch 34:15 Hilkiah then said to Shaphan the secretary, 'I have found the Book of the Law in the Temple of Yahweh.' And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

2Ch 34:16 Shaphan took the book to the king, reporting furthermore to him as follows, 'Your servants have done everything entrusted to them.

2Ch 34:17 They have melted down the silver which was in the Temple of Yahweh and have handed it over to the supervisors and the masters of works.'

2Ch 34:18 Shaphan the secretary also informed the king, 'The priest Hilkiah has given me a book'; and Shaphan read extracts from it in the king's presence.

2Ch 34:19 On hearing the words of the Law, the king tore his clothes.

2Ch 34:20 Then the king gave the following order to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's minister,

2Ch 34:21 'Go and consult Yahweh on behalf of me and of those left in Israel and Judah about the words of the book that has been discovered: for Yahweh's furious wrath has been pouring down on us because our ancestors did not obey the word of Yahweh by doing what this book says they ought to have done.'

2Ch 34:22 Hilkiah and those whom the king had designated went to the prophetess Huldah wife of Shallum, son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe; she lived in Jerusalem in the new town. They spoke to her about this,

2Ch 34:23 and she replied, 'Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, "To the man who sent you to me reply:

2Ch 34:24 Yahweh says this: I am going to bring disaster on this place and the people who live in it -- all the curses set down in the book read in the king of Judah's presence.

2Ch 34:25 Because they have abandoned me and burnt incense to other gods, so as to provoke my anger by their every action, my wrath is about to be poured down on this place, and nothing can stop it.

2Ch 34:26 As for the king of Judah who sent you to consult Yahweh, say this to him: Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: The words you have heard . . .

2Ch 34:27 But since your heart has been touched and you have humbled yourself before God on hearing what he has decreed against this place and the people who live in it, have torn your clothes and wept before me, I too have heard"-Yahweh says this.

2Ch 34:28 "Look, when I gather you to your ancestors, you will be gathered into your grave in peace; you will not live to see the great disaster that I am going to bring on this place and on the people who live in it." ' They took this answer to the king.

2Ch 34:29 The king then had all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem summoned, 2Ch 34:30 and the king went up to the temple of Yahweh, with all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, priests, Levites and all the people, high and low. In their hearing he read out the entire contents of the Book of the Covenant discovered in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 34:31 The king then, standing on the dais, bound himself by the covenant before Yahweh, to follow Yahweh, to keep his commandments, decrees and laws with all his heart and soul and to carry out the terms of the covenant as written in this book.

2Ch 34:32 He made all those present in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge their allegiance to it. The citizens of Jerusalem took action in keeping with the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors, 2Ch 34:33 while Josiah removed all the abominations throughout the territories belonging to the Israelites and required all inhabitants of Israel to serve Yahweh their God; throughout his lifetime they did not deviate from following Yahweh, God of their ancestors.

2Ch 35:1 Josiah then celebrated a Passover to Yahweh in Jerusalem. The Passover victims were slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2Ch 35:2 He assigned the priests to their posts, encouraging them to do their duty in the Temple of Yahweh.

2Ch 35:3 Then he said to the Levites, who had understanding for all Israel and were consecrated to Yahweh,

'Put the sacred ark in the Temple built by Solomon son of David, king of Israel. You need not carry it about on your shoulders any more. Now serve Yahweh your God and Israel his people!

2Ch 35:4 Prepare yourselves by families according to your orders, as laid down in the decree of David king of Israel and that of Solomon his son, 2Ch 35:5 and take up positions in the sanctuary corresponding to the family divisions of your brothers the laity, so that there are Levites for each family division.

2Ch 35:6 Slaughter the Passover, sanctify yourselves and prepare it so that your brothers can observe it in the way the word of Yahweh through Moses requires.'

2Ch 35:7 For the laity Josiah provided small livestock, that is, lambs and young goats -- everything for the Passover offerings for all who attended -- to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand bullocks; these were from the king's own possessions.

2Ch 35:8 His officials also made voluntary contributions for the people, the priests and the Levites; and Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the chiefs of the Temple of God, gave two thousand six hundred lambs and three hundred bullocks to the priests for the Passover offerings;

2Ch 35:9 while Conaniah, Shemaiah, Nethanel his brother, Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the head Levites, provided five thousand lambs and five hundred bullocks as Passover offerings for the Levites.

2Ch 35:10 So the service was arranged, the priests stood in their places and the Levites in their orders as the king had commanded.

2Ch 35:11 Then they slaughtered the Passover victims and while the priests sprinkled the blood as they received it from the Levites, the latter did the skinning.

2Ch 35:12 Next they put the burnt offering aside for presentation to the family divisions of the laity, so that they could offer it to Yahweh in the way prescribed in the Book of Moses; they did the same with the bullocks.

2Ch 35:13 They roasted the Passover victim over an open fire in accordance with the regulation and boiled the consecrated offerings in pots, kettles and pans, which they then distributed to all the laity as quickly as they could.

2Ch 35:14 Afterwards they provided for themselves and the priests, since the Aaronite priests were kept busy till nightfall making the burnt offerings and offering the fat; that was why the Levites prepared the Passover for themselves and for the Aaronite priests.

2Ch 35:15 The Asaphite singers were at their places, in accordance with the command of David and Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun the king's seer; so were the gatekeepers at each gate. Because they could not leave their duties, their brothers the Levites prepared the Passover for them.

2Ch 35:16 So the whole service of Yahweh was arranged that day to celebrate the Passover and to bring burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh, in accordance with King Josiah's command.

2Ch 35:17 On that occasion the Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

2Ch 35:18 No Passover like this one had ever been celebrated in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel, nor had any of the kings of Israel ever celebrated a Passover like the one celebrated by Josiah, the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 35:19 This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

2Ch 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had provided for the Temple, Necho king of Egypt advanced to give battle at Carchemish on the Euphrates and Josiah went to intercept him.

2Ch 35:21 Necho however sent him messengers to say, 'Why be concerned about me, king of Judah? I have not come today to attack you; my quarrel is with another dynasty. God has commanded me to move quickly, so keep well clear of the god who is with me!'

2Ch 35:22 But Josiah was not to be deflected from his determination to fight him, and would not listen to Necho's words, which came from the mouth of God. He gave battle in the plain of Megiddo.

2Ch 35:23 The archers shot King Josiah. The king then said to his retainers, 'Take me away; I am badly wounded.'

2Ch 35:24 So his retainers lifted him out of his own chariot, transferred him to one which he had in reserve and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died and was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Judah and Jerusalem held mourning for Josiah.

2Ch 35:25 Jeremiah composed a lament for Josiah and all the male and female singers to this day lament Josiah in their dirges; they have made it a rule in Israel; they are recorded in the Lamentations.

2Ch 35:26 The rest of the history of Josiah, his deeds of faithful love conforming to what is prescribed in the Law of Yahweh, 2Ch 35:27 his history from first to last, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 36:1 The people of the land then took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and proclaimed him king of Jerusalem in succession to his father.

2Ch 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:3 The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed a levy of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold on the country.

2Ch 36:4 The king of Egypt then made his brother Eliakim king of Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Carrying off his brother Jehoahaz, Necho took him to Egypt.

2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what is displeasing to Yahweh his God.

2Ch 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him, loaded him with chains and took him to Babylon.

2Ch 36:7 To Babylon Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the objects belonging to the Temple of Yahweh and put them in his palace in Babylon.

2Ch 36:8 The rest of the history of Jehoiakim, the shameful things that he did and what happened to him in consequence, these are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. His son Jehoiachin succeeded him.

2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what is displeasing to Yahweh.

2Ch 36:10 At the turn of the year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and had him taken to Babylon, with the valuables belonging to the Temple of Yahweh, and made his brother Zedekiah king of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he came to the throne, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:12 He did what is displeasing to Yahweh his God. He did not listen humbly to the prophet Jeremiah who spoke for Yahweh.

2Ch 36:13 Furthermore, he rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance to him by God. He became stubborn, and obstinately refused to return to Yahweh, God of Israel.

2Ch 36:14 Furthermore, all the leaders of Judah, the priests and the people too, added infidelity to infidelity, copying all the shameful practices of the nations and defiling the Temple of Yahweh which he himself had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:15 Yahweh, God of their ancestors, continuously sent them word through his messengers because he felt sorry for his people and his dwelling, 2Ch 36:16 but they ridiculed the messengers of God, they despised his words, they laughed at his prophets, until Yahweh's wrath with his people became so fierce that there was no further remedy.

2Ch 36:17 So against them he summoned the king of the Chaldaeans and he put their young men to the sword within the very building of their Temple, not sparing young man or girl, or the old and infirm; he put them all at his mercy.

2Ch 36:18 All the things belonging to the Temple of God, whether large or small, the treasures of the Temple of Yahweh, the treasures of the king and his officials, everything he took to Babylon.

2Ch 36:19 He burned down the temple of God, demolished the walls of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces to the ground and destroyed everything of value in it.

2Ch 36:20 And those who had escaped the sword he deported to Babylon, where they were enslaved by him and his descendants until the rise of the kingdom of Persia,

2Ch 36:21 to fulfil Yahweh's prophecy through Jeremiah: Until the country has paid off its Sabbaths, it will lie fallow for all the days of its desolation -- until the seventy years are complete.

2Ch 36:22 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia -- to fulfil the word of Yahweh through Jeremiah -- Yahweh roused the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia to issue a proclamation and to have it publicly displayed throughout his kingdom:

2Ch 36:23 'Cyrus king of Persia says this, "Yahweh, the God of Heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build him a Temple in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him! Let him go up."

Ezr 1:1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia -- to fulfil the word of Yahweh spoken through Jeremiah -Yahweh roused the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia to issue a proclamation and to have it publicly displayed throughout his kingdom:

Ezr 1:2 'Cyrus king of Persia says this, "Yahweh, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build him a Temple in Jerusalem, in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 Whoever among you belongs to the full tally of his people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem, in Judah, and build the Temple of Yahweh, God of Israel, who is the God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:4 And let each survivor, wherever he lives, be helped by the people of his locality with silver, gold, equipment and riding beasts, as well as voluntary offerings for the Temple of God which is in Jerusalem." '

Ezr 1:5 Then the heads of families of Judah and of Benjamin, the priests and the Levites, in fact all whose spirit had been roused by God, prepared to go and rebuild the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem;

Ezr 1:6 and all their neighbours gave them every kind of help: silver, gold, equipment, riding beasts and valuable presents, in addition to their voluntary offerings.

Ezr 1:7 Furthermore, King Cyrus handed over the articles belonging to the Temple of Yahweh which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his god.

Ezr 1:8 Cyrus king of Persia handed them over to Mithredath the treasurer who checked them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezr 1:9 The inventory was as follows: thirty gold dishes; one thousand silver dishes, twenty-nine repaired;

Ezr 1:10 thirty gold bowls; a thousand silver bowls, four hundred and ten damaged; one thousand other articles.

Ezr 1:11 In all, five thousand four hundred articles of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar took all these with him when he led the exiles back from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezr 2:1 These were the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the Exile, those whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town.

Ezr 2:2 They were the ones who arrived with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of the country of Israel:

Ezr 2:3 sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

Ezr 2:4 sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

Ezr 2:5 sons of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five;

Ezr 2:6 sons of Pahath-Moab, that is to say the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve;

Ezr 2:7 sons of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Ezr 2:8 sons of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five;

Ezr 2:9 sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

Ezr 2:10 sons of Bani, six hundred and forty-two;

Ezr 2:11 sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:12 sons of Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two;

Ezr 2:13 sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six;

Ezr 2:14 sons of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six;

Ezr 2:15 sons of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four;

Ezr 2:16 sons of Ater, that is to say of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;

Ezr 2:17 sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:18 sons of Jorah, one hundred and twelve;

Ezr 2:19 sons of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:20 sons of Gibbar, ninety-five;

Ezr 2:21 sons of Bethlehem, one hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:22 men of Netophah, fifty-six;

Ezr 2:23 men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;

Ezr 2:24 sons of Azmaveth, forty-two;

Ezr 2:25 sons of Kiriath-Jearim, Chephirah and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;

Ezr 2:26 sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;

Ezr 2:27 men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;

Ezr 2:28 men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:29 sons of Nebo, fifty-two;

Ezr 2:30 of Magbish, one hundred and fifty-six;

Ezr 2:31 sons of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Ezr 2:32 sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty;

Ezr 2:33 sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five;

Ezr 2:34 sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;

Ezr 2:35 sons of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.

Ezr 2:36 The priests: sons of Jedaiah, of the House of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;

Ezr 2:37 sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;

Ezr 2:38 sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;

Ezr 2:39 sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

Ezr 2:40 The Levites: sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the line of Hodaviah, seventy-four.

Ezr 2:41 The singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.

Ezr 2:42 The sons of the gatekeepers: sons of Shallum, sons of Ater, sons of Talmon, sons of Akkub, sons of Hatita, sons of Shobai: in all, one hundred and thirty-nine.

Ezr 2:43 The temple slaves: sons of Ziha, sons of Hasupha, sons of Tabbaoth,

Ezr 2:44 sons of Keros, sons of Siaha, sons of Padon,

Ezr 2:45 sons of Lebanah, sons of Hagabah, sons of Akkub,
Ezr 2:46 sons of Hagab, sons of Shamlai, sons of Hanan,
Ezr 2:47 sons of Giddel, sons of Gahar, sons of Reaiah,
Ezr 2:48 sons of Rezin, sons of Nekoda, sons of Gazzam,
Ezr 2:49 sons of Uzza, sons of Paseah, sons of Besai,
Ezr 2:50 sons of Asnah, sons of the Meunites, sons of the Nephisites,
Ezr 2:51 sons of Bakbuk, sons of Hakupha, sons of Harhur,
Ezr 2:52 sons of Bazluth, sons of Mehida, sons of Harsha,
Ezr 2:53 sons of Barkos, sons of Sisera, sons of Temah,
Ezr 2:54 sons of Neziah, sons of Hatipha.
Ezr 2:55 The sons of Solomon's slaves: sons of Sotai, sons of Hassophereth, sons of Peruda,
Ezr 2:56 sons of Jaalah, sons of Darkon, sons of Giddel,
Ezr 2:57 sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Pochereth-ha-Zebaim, sons of Ami.
Ezr 2:58 The total of the temple slaves and the sons of Solomon's slaves: three hundred and ninety-two.
Ezr 2:59 The following, who came from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Cherub, Addan and Immer, could not prove that their families and ancestry were of Israelite origin:
Ezr 2:60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda: six hundred and fifty-two.
Ezr 2:61 And among the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai -- who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, whose name he adopted.
Ezr 2:62 These had looked for their entries in the official genealogies but were not to be found there, and were hence disqualified from the priesthood.
Ezr 2:63 Consequently, His Excellency forbade them to eat any of the consecrated food until a priest appeared who could consult urim and thummim.
Ezr 2:64 The whole assembly numbered forty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty people,
Ezr 2:65 not counting their male and female slaves to the number of seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. They also had two hundred male and female singers.
Ezr 2:66 Their horses numbered seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
Ezr 2:67 their camels four hundred and thirty-five and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
Ezr 2:68 When they arrived at the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem, a certain number of heads of families made voluntary offerings for the Temple of God, for its rebuilding on its site.
Ezr 2:69 In accordance with their means they gave sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand silver minas and one hundred priestly robes to the sacred treasury.
Ezr 2:70 The priests, the Levites and some of the people settled in Jerusalem; the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple slaves in their appropriate towns; and all the other Israelites in their own towns.
Ezr 3:1 When the seventh month came after the Israelites had been resettled in their towns, the people gathered as one person in Jerusalem.
Ezr 3:2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak, with his brother priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, with his brothers, set about rebuilding the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it as prescribed in the Law of Moses man of God.
Ezr 3:3 They erected the altar on its old site, despite their fear of the people of the country, and on it they presented burnt offerings to Yahweh, burnt offerings morning and evening;
Ezr 3:4 they celebrated the feast of Shelters as prescribed, offering daily the number of burnt offerings required from day to day,
Ezr 3:5 and in addition presented the continual burnt offerings prescribed for the Sabbaths, for the New Moons and for all the festivals sacred to Yahweh, as well as those voluntary offerings made by individuals to Yahweh.
Ezr 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month they began presenting burnt offerings to Yahweh, though the foundations of the Temple of Yahweh had not yet been laid.
Ezr 3:7 They also contributed money for the masons and carpenters, and food, drink and oil for the Sidonians and Tyrians for bringing cedar wood from Lebanon by sea to Jaffa, for which Cyrus king of Persia had given permission.
Ezr 3:8 It was in the second month of the second year after their arrival at the Temple of God in Jerusalem that Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak, with the rest of their brothers, the priests, the Levites and all the people who had returned to Jerusalem from captivity, began the work by appointing some of the Levites who were twenty years old or more to superintend the work on the Temple of Yahweh.
Ezr 3:9 The Levites, Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, with Kadmiel, Binnui and his sons, the sons of Hodaviah, agreed to superintend the men working on the Temple of God.
Ezr 3:10 When the builders had laid the foundations of the Temple of Yahweh, the priests in their robes stood forward with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Yahweh according to the ordinances of David king of Israel.

Ezr 3:11 They chanted praise and thanksgiving to Yahweh because for Israel, they said, 'he is good, and everlasting in his faithful love.' Then all the people raised a mighty shout of praise to Yahweh, since the foundations of the Temple of Yahweh had now been laid.

Ezr 3:12 Many of the older priests, Levites and heads of families, who had seen the first temple, wept very loudly when the foundations of this one were laid before their eyes, but many others shouted aloud for joy, Ezr 3:13 so that nobody could distinguish the noise of the joyful shout from the noise of the people's weeping; for the people shouted so loudly that the noise could be heard far away.

Ezr 4:1 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building the Temple of Yahweh, God of Israel,

Ezr 4:2 they came to Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the heads of families and said, 'Let us help you build, for we resort to your God as you do and we have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.'

Ezr 4:3 Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other heads of Israelite families replied, 'It is out of the question that you should join us in building a Temple for our God. We shall build for Yahweh, God of Israel, on our own, as King Cyrus king of Persia has commanded us.'

Ezr 4:4 The people of the country then set about demoralising the people of Judah and deterring them from building;

Ezr 4:5 they also bribed counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose throughout the lifetime of Cyrus king of Persia right on into the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 4:6 In the reign of Xerxes, at the beginning of his reign, they drew up an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 4:7 In the days of Artaxerxes, Mithredath, Tabeel and their other associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia against Jerusalem; the text of the letter was written in Aramaic writing and dialect.

Ezr 4:8 Then Rehum the governor and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter to King Artaxerxes, denouncing Jerusalem as follows:

Ezr 4:9 'From Rehum the governor and Shimshai the secretary and their other associates, the judges, the legates, the Persian officials, the people of Uruk, Babylon and Susa -- that is, the Elamites-

Ezr 4:10 and the other peoples whom the great and illustrious Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the towns of Samaria and in the rest of Transeuphrates.'

Ezr 4:11 This is the text of the letter which they sent him: 'To King Artaxerxes, from your servants the people of Transeuphrates:

Ezr 4:12 'May the king now please be informed that the Jews, who have come up from you to us, have arrived in Jerusalem and are rebuilding the rebellious and evil city; they have begun rebuilding the walls and are laying the foundations;

Ezr 4:13 and now the king should be informed that once this city is rebuilt and the walls are restored, they will refuse to pay tribute, tax or toll, thus the king will incur a loss;

Ezr 4:14 and now, because we eat the palace salt, it is not proper for us to see this affront offered to the king; we therefore send this information to the king

Ezr 4:15 so that a search may be made in the archives of your ancestors: in which archives you will find and learn that this city is a rebellious city, the bane of kings and provinces, and that sedition has been stirred up there from ancient times; that is why this city was destroyed.

Ezr 4:16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are restored, you will soon have no territories left in Transeuphrates.'

Ezr 4:17 The king sent this reply: 'To Rehum the governor, to Shimshai the secretary, and to their other associates resident in Samaria and elsewhere in Transeuphrates: Greetings!

Ezr 4:18 'And now, the document which you sent us has been accurately translated for me,

Ezr 4:19 and by my orders search has been made, and it has been found that this city has rebelled against the kings in the past and that revolt and sedition have been contrived in it;

Ezr 4:20 and that powerful kings have reigned in Jerusalem, governing the whole of Transeuphrates and exacting tribute, tax and toll;

Ezr 4:21 now give orders for these men to cease work; this city is not to be rebuilt until I give the order.

Ezr 4:22 Beware of acting negligently in this matter. Why should the harm grow, to endanger the king?'

Ezr 4:23 As soon as the text of King Artaxerxes' document had been read to Rehum the governor, Shimshai the secretary and their associates, they hurried to the Jews in Jerusalem and stopped their work by force of arms.

Ezr 4:24 Work on the Temple of God in Jerusalem then ceased, and was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius King of Persia.

Ezr 5:1 When the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them,

Ezr 5:2 Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began rebuilding the Temple of God in Jerusalem; with them were the prophets of God, supporting them.

Ezr 5:3 It was then that Tattenai governor of Transeuphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and their associates came to them and asked, 'Who gave you the order to rebuild this Temple and complete this structure?

Ezr 5:4 What are the names of the men putting up this building?'

Ezr 5:5 But the eyes of their God were watching over the elders of the Jews, so they were not forced to stop until a report could reach Darius and an official reply about the matter could be received from him.

Ezr 5:6 A copy of the letter which Tattenai, governor of Transeuphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and his associates, the officials in Transeuphrates, sent to King Darius.

Ezr 5:7 They sent him a report which ran as follows: 'To King Darius, hearty greetings!

Ezr 5:8 'The king should be informed that we went to the province of Judah, to the Temple of the great God, which is being rebuilt with large stones; beams are being embedded in the walls; the work is being carried out energetically and is making good progress.'

Ezr 5:9 Questioning these elders, we asked them, "Who gave you permission to rebuild this Temple and complete this structure?"

Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names, to inform you, so that we could record the names of the men who were their leaders.

Ezr 5:11 'They gave us the following answer, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth; we are rebuilding the Temple built many years ago, which a great king of Israel had built and completed.'

Ezr 5:12 But because our ancestors angered the God of heaven, he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldaean king of Babylon who destroyed this Temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezr 5:13 In the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, however, King Cyrus issued an official order that this Temple of God should be rebuilt;

Ezr 5:14 furthermore, those gold and silver articles belonging to the Temple of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had removed from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple of Babylon, King Cyrus in turn removed from the temple of Babylon and handed back to a certain Sheshbazzar whom he had appointed governor.

Ezr 5:15 He said to him, 'Take these articles; go and return them to the Temple which is in Jerusalem and let the Temple of God be rebuilt on its original site;'

Ezr 5:16 this Sheshbazzar then came and laid the foundations of the Temple of God in Jerusalem, and it has been under construction ever since, and is not yet finished."

Ezr 5:17 'Hence, if it please the king, let search be made in the royal treasuries in Babylon, to find out if it is true that an official order was issued by King Cyrus for this temple of God in Jerusalem to be rebuilt; and let the king's decision on this matter be sent to us.'

Ezr 6:1 Then, on the order of King Darius, search was made in the archives deposited in the treasuries in Babylon

Ezr 6:2 and a scroll was found in the fortress of Ecbatana, which ran as follows: 'Memorandum.

Ezr 6:3 'In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued this order: "Temple of God in Jerusalem. "The Temple is to be rebuilt as a place of offering sacrifice and its foundations retained. Its height is to be sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits, Ezr 6:4 with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. The cost is to be met by the royal treasury.

Ezr 6:5 Furthermore, the gold and silver articles belonging to the Temple of God which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon are to be given back and returned to the temple in Jerusalem, each to its proper place, and deposited in the Temple of God."

Ezr 6:6 'Hence, Tattenai governor of Transeuphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and your associates, the officials of Transeuphrates, keep away from there!

Ezr 6:7 Leave the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews alone, to get on with their work on that Temple of God; they are permitted to rebuild that Temple of God on that site.

Ezr 6:8 And herewith are my instructions as to how you will assist these elders of the Jews in the rebuilding of that Temple of God: the cost is to be paid in full to these men from the royal revenue, that is, from the taxes of Transeuphrates, and without interruption.

Ezr 6:9 And whatever is required -- young bulls, rams, lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, oil, as the priests in Jerusalem request -- is to be given them day by day without fail,

Ezr 6:10 so that they may offer sacrifices acceptable to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezr 6:11 Furthermore I have issued an instruction that if anyone disobeys this order, a beam is to be torn from his house, he is to be impaled on it and his house is to be reduced to a rubbish-heap for his offence;

Ezr 6:12 and may the God who has caused his name to live there overthrow the king of any people who dares to defy this and destroy that Temple of God in Jerusalem! I, Darius, have issued this order. Let it be punctiliously obeyed!'

Ezr 6:13 Tattenai governor of Transeuphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and their associates punctiliously obeyed the instructions sent by King Darius;

Ezr 6:14 and the elders of the Jews made good progress over their building, thanks to the prophetic activity of the prophet Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo, completing the reconstruction in accordance with the command of the God of Israel and the order of Cyrus and of Darius.

Ezr 6:15 This Temple was completed on the twenty-third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezr 6:16 The Israelites -- the priests, the Levites and the remainder of the exiles -- joyfully celebrated the dedication of this Temple of God;

Ezr 6:17 for the dedication of this Temple of God they offered one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 Then they installed the priests in their orders and the Levites in their positions for the ministry of the Temple of God in Jerusalem, as prescribed in the Book of Moses.

Ezr 6:19 The exiles celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Ezr 6:20 The Levites, as one man, had purified themselves; all were pure, so they sacrificed the Passover for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

Ezr 6:21 So the Israelites who had returned from exile and all those who had renounced the filthy practices of the people of the country to join them in resorting to Yahweh, God of Israel, ate the Passover.

Ezr 6:22 For seven days they joyfully celebrated the feast of Unleavened Bread, for Yahweh had given them cause to rejoice, having moved the heart of the king of Assyria in their favour to support them in their work on the Temple of God, the God of Israel.

Ezr 7:1 After these events, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of the chief priest Aaron-

Ezr 7:6 this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a scribe versed in the Law of Moses, which Yahweh, God of Israel, had given. The king gave him everything that he asked for, since the hand of Yahweh his God was over him.

Ezr 7:7 A number of Israelites, priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple slaves went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of the reign of King Artaxerxes.

Ezr 7:8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month, in the seventh year of the king's reign;

Ezr 7:9 for he had ordered the departure from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, since the kindly hand of his God was over him.

Ezr 7:10 For Ezra had devoted himself to studying the Law of Yahweh so as to put into practice and teach its statutes and rulings.

Ezr 7:11 This is the text of the document which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra, the priest-scribe, a student of matters pertaining to Yahweh's commandments and statutes relating to Israel:

Ezr 7:12 'Artaxerxes, king of kings, to the priest Ezra, Secretary of the Law of the God of heaven: greetings!

Ezr 7:13 'Now here are my orders. All members of the people of Israel in my kingdom, including their priests and Levites, who freely choose to go to Jerusalem, may go with you,

Ezr 7:14 for you are being sent by the king and his seven counsellors to investigate how the Law of your God, in which you are expert, is being applied in Judah and Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:15 and to transport the silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have voluntarily offered to the God of Israel who resides in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:16 as well as all the silver and gold which you receive throughout the province of Babylon and the voluntary offerings freely contributed by the people and the priests for the Temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:17 'This money you will punctiliously use for the purchase of bulls, rams, lambs and the materials for the oblations and libations which go with them, offering these on the altar of the Temple of your God in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:18 and using the remainder of the silver and gold in accordance with the will of your God as you and your brothers may think fit.

Ezr 7:19 'You will deliver the articles which have been given you for the ministry of the Temple of your God, to the God of Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:20 and whatever else is needed and you are obliged to supply for the Temple of your God, you will supply from the royal treasury.

Ezr 7:21 'I, King Artaxerxes, have issued the following instruction to all the treasurers of Transeuphrates:

Whatever the priest Ezra, Secretary of the Law of the God of heaven, may request of you is to be punctiliously complied with:

Ezr 7:22 up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kor of wheat, one hundred bat of wine, one hundred bat of oil, and unlimited salt.

Ezr 7:23 Whatever the God of heaven demands for the Temple of the God of heaven must be diligently provided; why should retribution come on the realm of the king and of his sons?

Ezr 7:24 You are further informed that it is against the law to impose tribute, tax or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple slaves or other servants of this temple of God.

Ezr 7:25 'And you, Ezra, by virtue of the wisdom of your God, which you possess, are to appoint magistrates and scribes to administer justice for the whole people of Transeuphrates, that is, for all who know the Law of your God; and you are to teach it to those who do not know it.'

Ezr 7:26 And on anyone who will not comply with the Law of your God and the Law of the king let sentence be swiftly executed, whether it be death, banishment, fine or imprisonment.'

Ezr 7:27 Blessed be Yahweh, God of our ancestors, who moved the king's heart in this way to restore the beauty of the Temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:28 won for me the faithful love of the king, his counsellors and all the most powerful of the king's officials! Taking heart since the hand of Yahweh my God was over me, I assembled those Israelite heads of families who were to go with me.

Ezr 8:1 These, with their genealogies, were the heads of families who set out from Babylon with me in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezr 8:2 Of the sons of Phinehas: Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar: Daniel; of the sons of David: Hattush

Ezr 8:3 son of Shechaniah; of the sons of Parosh: Zechariah, and with him a hundred and fifty males officially registered;

Ezr 8:4 of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Elieoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males;

Ezr 8:5 of the sons of Zattu: Shechaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males;

Ezr 8:6 of the sons of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;

Ezr 8:7 of the sons of Elam: Jeshaiyah son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;

Ezr 8:8 of the sons of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him eighty males;

Ezr 8:9 of the sons of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;

Ezr 8:10 of the sons of Bani: Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty males;

Ezr 8:11 of the sons of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males;

Ezr 8:12 of the sons of Azgad: Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males;

Ezr 8:13 of the sons of Adonikam: the younger sons, whose names are: Eliphelet, Jeiel and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males;

Ezr 8:14 and of the sons of Bigvai: Uthai son of Zabud, and with him seventy males.

Ezr 8:15 I assembled them near the canal which runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days. I noticed laymen and priests, but I could not discover any Levites there.

Ezr 8:16 I then sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, judicious men,

Ezr 8:17 and sent them to Iddo, the leading man of a place called Casiphia; I told them what they were to say to Iddo and his kinsmen, living at the place called Casiphia, that is, to provide us with people to serve the Temple of our God.

Ezr 8:18 And because the hand of God was good to us, they sent us a wise man of the sons of Mahli son of Levi, son of Israel, a certain Sherebiah with his sons and kinsmen: eighteen men;

Ezr 8:19 also Hashabiah and with him his brother Jeshaiyah of the sons of Merari with his kinsmen and sons: twenty men;

Ezr 8:20 and two hundred and twenty temple slaves -- descendants of the temple slaves whom David and the princes had assigned to serve the Levites -- all of them designated by name.

Ezr 8:21 There, beside the Ahava Canal, I then proclaimed a fast, to humble ourselves before our God and to pray to him for a successful journey for us, our dependants and all our belongings.

Ezr 8:22 For I should have been ashamed to ask the king for a company of cavalry to protect us from hostile people on our road, as we had already said to the king, 'The hand of our God is over all who seek him for their protection, but his mighty retribution befalls all those who forsake him.'

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and pleaded with our God about this, and he heard us.

Ezr 8:24 I next chose twelve of the leading priests, and also Sherebiah and Hashabiah with ten of their kinsmen.

Ezr 8:25 To them I weighed out the silver, the gold and the utensils, the contributions which the king, his counsellors, his notables and all the Israelites there present had made for the Temple of our God.

Ezr 8:26 To them I weighed out and handed over six hundred and fifty talents of silver, one hundred utensils of silver valued at two talents, one hundred talents of gold,

Ezr 8:27 twenty golden bowls valued at a thousand darics and two utensils of fine burnished copper as precious as gold.

Ezr 8:28 I said to them, 'You are consecrated to Yahweh; these utensils are consecrated too; the silver and gold are a voluntary offering to Yahweh, God of your ancestors.'

Ezr 8:29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out to the leading priests, the Levites, and the heads of families of Israel in Jerusalem in the rooms of the Temple of Yahweh.'

Ezr 8:30 The priests and Levites then took charge of the silver, the gold and the utensils thus weighed, to bring them to Jerusalem to the Temple of our God.

Ezr 8:31 On the twelfth day of the first month we left the Ahava Canal to make our way to Jerusalem; the hand of our God was over us and protected us from enemies and surprise attacks on our way.

Ezr 8:32 When we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested for three days.

Ezr 8:33 On the fourth day the silver, the gold and the utensils were weighed in the Temple of our God and handed over to the priest Meremoth son of Uriah and, with him, Eleazar son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezr 8:34 By number and weight all was there. The total weight was recorded at the same time.

Ezr 8:35 When the exiles arrived from their captivity, they offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel -- twelve bulls on behalf of all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-two lambs, and as a sin offering twelve he-goats: the whole of this as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

Ezr 8:36 They also delivered the king's instructions to the king's satraps and the governors of Transeuphrates, who then supported the people and the Temple of God.

Ezr 9:1 Once this was done, the officials approached me to say, 'The people of Israel, the priests and the Levites, have not renounced the disgusting practices of the people of the country -- the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites-

Ezr 9:2 since they and their sons have married some of their women, as a result of which the holy race has been contaminated by the people of the country. The officials and leaders have been the worst offenders in this act of infidelity.'

Ezr 9:3 On hearing this, I tore my clothes and my cloak; I pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down in horror.

Ezr 9:4 All who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered round me, when faced with the infidelity of the exiles, while I went on sitting there in horror until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr 9:5 At the evening sacrifice I came out of my stupor and, falling on my knees in my torn clothes and cloak, stretched out my hands to Yahweh my God,

Ezr 9:6 and said: 'My God, I am ashamed, I blush to lift my face to you, my God. For our iniquities have increased, until they are higher than our heads, and our guilt has risen as high as heaven.

Ezr 9:7 From the days of our ancestors until now we have been deeply guilty and, because of our iniquities, we, our kings and our priests, have been handed over to the kings of other countries, to the sword, to captivity, to pillage, to shame, as is the case today.

Ezr 9:8 And now, for a brief moment, the favour of Yahweh our God has allowed a remnant of us to escape and given us a stable home in his holy place, so that our God can raise our spirits and revive us a little in our slavery.

Ezr 9:9 For we are slaves; but God has not forgotten us in our slavery; he has extended his faithful love to us even under the kings of Persia and revived us to rebuild the Temple of our God, restore its ruins and provide us with a refuge in Judah and in Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 But now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have abandoned your commandments,

Ezr 9:11 which you gave through your servants the prophets in these terms, "The country which you are about to possess is a polluted country, polluted by the people of the country and their disgusting practices, which have filled it with their filth from end to end."

Ezr 9:12 Hence you are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, or let their daughters marry your sons, or ever concern yourselves about peace or good relations with them, if you want to grow stronger, to live off the fat of the land and bequeath it to your sons for ever."

Ezr 9:13 'After all that has befallen us because of our evil deeds and our deep guilt -- though you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserved and have allowed us to escape like this-

Ezr 9:14 are we to break your commandments again and intermarry with people with these disgusting practices? Would you not be enraged with us to the point of destroying us, leaving neither remnant nor survivor?

Ezr 9:15 Yahweh, God of Israel, you are upright. We survive only as the remnant we are today. We come before you in our guilt; because of it we cannot stand in your presence.'

Ezr 10:1 While Ezra, weeping and prostrating himself in front of the Temple of God, was praying and making confession, a very large crowd of men, women and children of Israel gathered round him, the people weeping bitterly.

Ezr 10:2 Then Shechaniah son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, 'We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the people of the country. But, in spite of this, there is still some hope for Israel.'

Ezr 10:3 We will make a covenant with our God to send away all the foreign wives and their children in obedience to the advice of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let us act in accordance with the Law.

Ezr 10:4 Go ahead, do your duty; we support you. Be brave, take action!"

Ezr 10:5 Then Ezra stood up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel on oath to do what had been said. They took the oath.

Ezr 10:6 Ezra then left his place in front of the Temple of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib, where he spent the night without eating food or drinking water, because he was still mourning over the exiles' infidelity.

Ezr 10:7 A proclamation was issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem that all the exiles were to assemble in Jerusalem,

Ezr 10:8 and that anyone who failed within three days to answer the summons of the officials and elders was to forfeit all his possessions and himself be excluded from the community of the exiles.

Ezr 10:9 As a result, all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem within the three days; it was the twentieth day of the ninth month. All the people sat down in the square in front of the Temple of God, trembling because of the matter in hand and because of the heavy rain.

Ezr 10:10 The priest Ezra then stood up and said to them, 'You have been unfaithful and have married foreign wives, thus adding to Israel's guilt.'

Ezr 10:11 So now give thanks to Yahweh, God of your ancestors, and do his will by holding aloof from the people of the country and from foreign wives.'

Ezr 10:12 In ringing tones, the whole assembly answered, 'Yes, our duty is to do as you say.'

Ezr 10:13 But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; we cannot stay out in the open; besides, this is not something that can be dealt with in one or two days, since many of us have been unfaithful over this.

Ezr 10:14 Let our officials deputise for the whole community, and all the people in our towns who have married foreign wives can come at stated times, accompanied by elders and judges from each town, until our God's fierce anger over this is turned away from us.'

Ezr 10:15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, were opposed to this.

Ezr 10:16 The exiles did as had been proposed. And the priest Ezra selected the family heads of the various families, all of them by name, who began their sittings on the first day of the tenth month to look into the matter.

Ezr 10:17 And by the first day of the first month they had dealt with all the men who had married foreign women.

Ezr 10:18 Among the priests who were found to have married foreign wives were: of the sons of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah,

Ezr 10:19 who agreed to send their wives away; their guilt offering was a ram from the flock for their guilt;

Ezr 10:20 of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

Ezr 10:21 of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah;

Ezr 10:22 of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasar;

Ezr 10:23 of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah -- that is, Kelita-Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer;

Ezr 10:24 of the singers: Eliashib and Zaccur; of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri;

Ezr 10:25 and of the Israelites: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah;

Ezr 10:26 of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah;

Ezr 10:27 of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza;

Ezr 10:28 of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Atlai;

Ezr 10:29 of the sons of Bigvai: Meshullam, Malluch, Jedaiah, Jashub, Sheal, Jeremoth;

Ezr 10:30 of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh;

Ezr 10:31 of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,

Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah;

Ezr 10:33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei;

Ezr 10:34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bediah, Jeluhi,

Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasau;

Ezr 10:38 of the sons of Binnui: Shimei,

Ezr 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan and Adaiah;

Ezr 10:40 of the sons of Zaccai: Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, Joseph;

Ezr 10:43 of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, Benaiah.

Ezr 10:44 All these had married foreign wives but sent them away with their children.

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah. It happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, Neh 1:2 that Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with some men from Judah. I asked them about the Jews -- those who had escaped and those who survived from the captivity -- and about Jerusalem.

Neh 1:3 They replied, 'The survivors remaining there in the province since the captivity are in a very bad and demoralised condition: the walls of Jerusalem are in ruins and its gates have been burnt down.'

Neh 1:4 On hearing this I sat down and wept; for some days I mourned, fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Neh 1:5 I said, 'Yahweh, God of heaven -- the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps a covenant of faithful love with those who love him and obey his commandments-

Neh 1:6 let your ear be attentive and your eyes open, to listen to your servant's prayer, which I now offer to you day and night on behalf of your servants the Israelites. I admit the sins of the Israelites, which we have committed against you. Both I and my father's House have sinned;

Neh 1:7 we have acted very wickedly towards you by not keeping the commandments, laws and rulings which you enjoined on your servant Moses.

Neh 1:8 Remember, I beg you, the promise which you solemnly made to your servant Moses, "If you are unfaithful, I shall scatter you among the peoples;

Neh 1:9 but if you come back to me and keep my commandments and practise them, even though those who have been banished are at the very sky's end, I shall gather them from there and bring them back to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling-place for my name."

Neh 1:10 Since they are your servants, your people, whom you have redeemed with your mighty power and strong hand,

Neh 1:11 O Lord, let your ear now be attentive to your servant's prayer and to the prayer of your servants who want to revere your name. I beg you let your servant be successful today and win this man's compassion.' At the time I was cupbearer to the king.

Neh 2:1 In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, since I was in charge of the wine, I took the wine and offered it to the king. Now, he had never seen me looking depressed before.

Neh 2:2 So the king said to me, 'Why are you looking depressed? You are not sick! This must be a sadness of the heart.' Thoroughly alarmed by this,

Neh 2:3 I said to the king, 'May the king live for ever! How can I not look depressed when the city where the tombs of my ancestors are lies in ruins and its gates have been burnt down?'

Neh 2:4 The king then said to me, 'What would you like me to do?' Praying to the God of heaven,

Neh 2:5 I said to the king, 'If the king approves and your servant enjoys your favour, send me to Judah, to the city of the tombs of my ancestors, so that I can rebuild it.'

Neh 2:6 The king -- with the queen sitting beside him--said, 'How long will your journey take, and when will you come back?' Once I had given him a definite time, the king approved my mission.

Neh 2:7 I then said to the king, 'If the king approves, may I be given orders for the governors of Transeuphrates to let me pass through on my way to Judah?

Neh 2:8 Also an order for Asaph, keeper of the king's forest, to supply me with timber for the beams of the gates of the citadel of the Temple, for the city walls and for the house which I am to occupy?' These the king granted me because the kindly hand of my God was over me.

Neh 2:9 When I reached the governors of Transeuphrates, I gave them the king's orders. The king had sent an escort of army officers and cavalry along with me.

Neh 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the official of Ammon heard about this, they were exceedingly displeased that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

Neh 2:11 And so I reached Jerusalem. After I had been there three days,

Neh 2:12 I got up during the night with a few other men -- I had not told anyone what my God had inspired me to do for Jerusalem -- taking no animal with me other than my own mount.

Neh 2:13 Under cover of dark I went out through the Valley Gate towards the Dragon's Fountain as far as the Dung Gate, and examined the wall of Jerusalem where it was broken down and its gates burnt out.

Neh 2:14 I then crossed to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but it was impassable to my mount.

Neh 2:15 So I went up the Valley in the dark, examining the wall; I then went in again through the Valley Gate, coming back

Neh 2:16 without the officials knowing where I had gone or what I had been doing. So far I had said nothing to the Jews: neither to the priests, the nobles, the officials nor any other persons involved in the undertaking.

Neh 2:17 I then said to them, 'You see what a sorry state we are in: Jerusalem is in ruins and its gates have been burnt down. Come on, we must rebuild the walls of Jerusalem and put an end to our humiliating position!'

Neh 2:18 And I told them how the kindly hand of my God had been over me, and the words which the king had said to me. At this they said, 'Let us start building at once!' and they set their hands to the good work.

Neh 2:19 When Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the official of Ammon, and Geshem the Arab heard about this, they laughed at us and jeered. They said, 'What is this you are doing? Are you going to revolt against the king?'

Neh 2:20 But I gave them this answer, 'The God of heaven will grant us success and we, his servants, mean to start building; as for you, you have neither share nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem.'

Neh 3:1 Eliashib the high priest with his brother priests then set to work and rebuilt the Sheep Gate; they made the framework, hung its doors, fixed its bolts and bars and proceeded as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

Neh 3:2 The men of Jericho built next to him; Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

Neh 3:3 The sons of Ha-Senaah rebuilt the Fish Gate; they made the framework, hung its doors and fixed its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:4 Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, carried out repairs next to them; Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel, carried out repairs next to him; and Zadok son of Baana carried out repairs next to him.

Neh 3:5 The men of Tekoa carried out repairs next to him, though their nobles would not demean themselves to help their masters.

Neh 3:6 Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the gate of the New Quarter; they made the framework, hung its doors and fixed its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:7 Next to them repairs were carried out by Melatiah of Gibeon, Jadon of Meronoth, and the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, for the sake of the governor of Transeuphrates.

Neh 3:8 Next to them repairs were carried out by Uzziel son of Harhaiah, a member of the metal-workers' guild, and next to him repairs were carried out by Hananiah of the perfumers' guild. These renovated the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Neh 3:9 Next to them repairs were carried out by Rephaiah son of Hur, who was head of one half of the district of Jerusalem.

Neh 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah son of Harumaph carried out repairs opposite his own house; next to him repairs were carried out by Hattush son of Hashabneiah.

Neh 3:11 Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section as far as the Furnace Tower.

Neh 3:12 Next to them repairs were carried out by Shallum son of Hallohes, head of the other half of the district of Jerusalem, by him and his sons.

Neh 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate: they rebuilt it, hung its doors and fixed its bolts and bars; they also repaired a thousand cubits of wall up to the Dung Gate.

Neh 3:14 Malchijah son of Rechab, head of the district of Beth-ha-Cherem, repaired the Dung Gate; he rebuilt it, hung its doors and fixed its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:15 Shallum son of Col-Hozeh, head of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it, roofed it, hung its doors and fixed its bolts and bars. He also rebuilt the wall of the Pool of Siloah, adjoining the king's garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David.

Neh 3:16 After him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, head of half the district of Beth-Zur, carried out repairs from a point opposite the Davidic Tombs to the artificial pool and the House of the Champions.

Neh 3:17 After him, repairs were carried out by the Levites: Rehum son of Bani; and next to him Hashabiah, head of one half of the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his own district.

Neh 3:18 After him, repairs were carried out by their brothers: Binnui son of Henadad, head of the other half of the district of Keilah.

Neh 3:19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, headman of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the ascent to the armoury at the Angle.

Neh 3:20 After him, Baruch son of Zabbai repaired another section from the Angle to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Neh 3:21 After him, Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, repaired another section from the door of Eliashib's house as far as the end of Eliashib's house.

Neh 3:22 And after him repairs were carried out by the priests who lived in the district.

Neh 3:23 After them repairs were carried out by Benjamin and Hasshub, opposite their own house. After them repairs were carried out by Azariah son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah, beside his own house.

Neh 3:24 After him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section from Azariah's house as far as the Angle at the corner.

Neh 3:25 After him, Palal son of Uzai carried out repairs in front of the Angle and the tower projecting from the king's Upper Palace by the Court of the Guard; and after him, Pedaiah son of Parosh carried out the repairs

Neh 3:26 to a point by the Water Gate to the east and the projecting tower.

Neh 3:27 After him, the men of Tekoa repaired another section from in front of the great projecting tower as far as the wall of Ophel.

Neh 3:28 From the Horse Gate onwards repairs were carried out by the priests, each in front of his own house.

Neh 3:29 After them repairs were carried out by Zadok son of Immer in front of his house, and after him repairs were carried out by Shemaiah son of Shechaniah, keeper of the East Gate.

Neh 3:30 After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun sixth son of Zalaph repaired another section, after whom repairs were carried out by Meshullam son of Berechiah in front of his room.

Neh 3:31 After him Malchijah, of the metal-workers' guild, repaired as far as the Hall of the temple slaves and merchants, in front of the Muster Gate, as far as the upper room at the corner.

Neh 3:32 And between the upper room at the corner and the Sheep Gate repairs were carried out by the goldsmiths and the merchants.

Neh 3:33 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furiously angry.

Neh 3:34 He ridiculed the Jews and in front of his kinsmen and the aristocracy of Samaria he exclaimed, 'What are these pathetic Jews doing . . . ? Are they going to give up? Or offer sacrifices? Or complete the work in a day? Can they put new life into stones taken from rubbish heaps and even charred?'

Neh 3:35 And beside him Tobiah of Ammon remarked, 'If a jackal were to jump on what they are building, it would knock their stone wall down!'

Neh 3:36 Listen, our God, for we are despised! Make their sneers fall back on their own heads! Send them as booty to a land of captivity!

Neh 3:37 Do not pardon their wickedness, may their sin never be erased before you, for they have insulted the builders to their face!

Neh 3:38 Meanwhile we were rebuilding the wall, which was soon joined up all the way round to mid-height; the people put their hearts into the work.

Neh 4:1 When Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that repairs to the walls of Jerusalem were going forward -- that the gaps were beginning to fill up -- they became very angry,

Neh 4:2 and they all plotted to come and attack Jerusalem and upset my plans.

Neh 4:3 We, however, prayed to our God and organised a guard day and night to protect the city from them.

Neh 4:4 But in Judah the saying went, 'The strength of the carrier falters, the rubbish heap is so vast that by ourselves we cannot rebuild the wall!'

Neh 4:5 And our opponents said, 'They will never know or see a thing, until we are in there among them, and then we shall massacre them and put a stop to the work.'

Neh 4:6 Now when the Jews who lived near them had warned us ten times over, 'They are coming up against us from every place they live in,'

Neh 4:7 men took up position in the space behind the wall at those points where it was lowest, and I organised the people by families with their swords, spears and bows.

Neh 4:8 Aware of their anxiety, I then addressed the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, 'Do not be afraid of them. Remember the great and awe-inspiring Lord and fight for your kinsmen, your sons, your daughters, your wives and your homes.'

Neh 4:9 Once our enemies heard that we were forewarned and that God had thwarted their plan, they withdrew and we all went back to the wall, each one to his work.

Neh 4:10 From then on, half my own retainers went on working, while the other half stood by, armed with spears, shields, bows and armour to protect the whole House of Judah as they rebuilt the wall.

Neh 4:11 The carriers were armed, working with one hand and holding a spear in the other.

Neh 4:12 Each builder had his sword strapped to his side as he built. Beside me stood a trumpeter.

Neh 4:13 I then said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, 'The work is great and widely spread out, and we are deployed along the wall some way from one another.'

Neh 4:14 Rally to us wherever you hear the trumpet sounding; our God will fight for us.'

Neh 4:15 And so we went on with the work from break of day until the stars came out.

Neh 4:16 At the same time I also told the people, 'Let every man, with his attendant, spend the night inside Jerusalem; we shall spend the night on guard and the day at work.'

Neh 4:17 Neither I, nor my brothers, nor my attendants, nor my bodyguards, ever took off our clothes; each one kept his spear in his right hand.

Neh 5:1 There was a great outcry from the people, and from their wives, against their brother Jews.

Neh 5:2 Some said, 'We are having to pledge our sons and daughters to get enough grain to eat and keep us alive.'

Neh 5:3 Others said, 'We are having to mortgage our fields, our vineyards and our houses to get grain because of the shortage.'

Neh 5:4 Still others said, 'We have had to borrow money on our fields and our vineyards to pay the royal tax;

Neh 5:5 and though we belong to the same race as our brothers, and our children are as good as theirs, we shall have to sell our sons and our daughters into slavery; some of our daughters have been sold into slavery already. We can do nothing about it, since our fields and our vineyards now belong to others.'

Neh 5:6 When I heard their complaints and these words I was very angry.

Neh 5:7 Having turned the matter over in my mind, I reprimanded the nobles and the officials as follows, 'Each of you is imposing a burden on his brother.' Summoning a great assembly to deal with them,

Neh 5:8 I said to them, 'To the best of our power, we have redeemed our brother Jews who were forced to sell themselves to foreigners, and now you in turn are selling your brothers, for them to be bought back by us!' They were silent and could find nothing to say.

Neh 5:9 'What you are doing', I went on, 'is wrong. Do you not want to walk in the fear of our God and escape the sneers of the nations, our enemies?

Neh 5:10 I too, with my brothers and retainers, have lent them money and grain. Let us cancel these pledges.

Neh 5:11 This very day return them their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, and cancel the claim on the money, grain, new wine and olive oil, which you have lent them.'

Neh 5:12 'We shall make restitution,' they replied, 'we shall claim nothing more from them; we shall do as you say.' Summoning the priests, I then made them swear to do as they had promised.

Neh 5:13 Then, shaking out the fold of my garment, I said, 'May God thus shake out of house and possessions anyone who does not make good this promise; may he be shaken out thus and left empty!' And the whole assembly answered, 'Amen' and praised Yahweh. And the people kept this promise.

Neh 5:14 What is more, from the time when the king appointed me to be their governor in Judah, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ever levied the governor's subsistence allowance, Neh 5:15 whereas the former governors, my predecessors, had been a burden on the people, from whom they took forty silver shekels a day for food and wine, while their attendants oppressed the people too. But I, fearing God, never did this.

Neh 5:16 Also, not acquiring any land, I concentrated on the work of this wall and all my attendants joined in the work together, too.

Neh 5:17 Furthermore, magistrates and officials to the number of a hundred and fifty ate at my table, not to mention those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Neh 5:18 Every day, one ox, six fine sheep, as well as poultry, were prepared for me; every ten days, skins of wine were brought in bulk. But even so, I never claimed the governor's subsistence allowance, since the people already had burden enough to bear.

Neh 5:19 To my credit, my God, remember all I have done for this people.

Neh 6:1 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and our other enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that not a single gap was left -- though at that time I had not fixed the doors to the gates-

Neh 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message, 'Come and meet us at Ha-Cephirim in the Vale of Ono.' But they had evil designs on me.

Neh 6:3 So I sent messengers to them to say, 'I am engaged in a great undertaking, so I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?'

Neh 6:4 Four times they sent me the same invitation and I made them the same reply.

Neh 6:5 The fifth time, with the same purpose in mind, Sanballat sent me his servant bearing an open letter.

Neh 6:6 It ran, 'There is a rumour among the nations -- and Gashmu confirms it -- that you and the Jews are thinking of rebelling, which is why you are rebuilding the wall, and you intend to become their king;

Neh 6:7 and that you have even briefed prophets to acclaim you in Jerusalem with the cry, "There is a king in Judah!" Now, these rumours are going to reach the king; so you had better come and discuss them with us.'

Neh 6:8 To this I sent him the following reply, 'As regards what you say, nothing of the sort has occurred; it is a figment of your own imagination.'

Neh 6:9 For they were all trying to terrorise us, thinking, 'They will become demoralised over the work and it will not get finished.' But my morale rose even higher.

Neh 6:10 Then, when I went to visit Shemaiah son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, since he was prevented from coming to me, he said: We must gather at the Temple of God, inside the sanctuary itself; we must shut the sanctuary doors, for they are coming to kill you, they are coming to kill you tonight!

Neh 6:11 But I retorted, 'Should a man like me run away? Would a man like me go into the Temple to save his life? I shall not go in!'

Neh 6:12 I realised that God had not sent him to say this, but that he had produced this prophecy for me because Tobiah was paying him

Neh 6:13 to terrorise me into doing as he said and committing a sin, so that they would have grounds for blackening my reputation and blaming me.

Neh 6:14 Remember Tobiah, my God, for what he did; and Noadiah the prophetess, and the other prophets who tried to terrorise me.

Neh 6:15 The wall was finished within fifty-two days, on the twenty-fifth of Elul.

Neh 6:16 When all our enemies heard about it and all the surrounding nations saw it, they thought it a wonderful thing, because they realised that this work had been accomplished by the power of our God.

Neh 6:17 During this same period, the nobles of Judah kept sending letter after letter to Tobiah, and letters from Tobiah kept arriving for them;

Neh 6:18 for he had many sworn to his interest in Judah, since he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arahi, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

Neh 6:19 They even cried up his good deeds in my presence, and they reported what I said back to him. And Tobiah kept sending letters to terrorise me.

Neh 7:1 Now, when the wall had been rebuilt and I had hung the doors, the gatekeepers (the singers and the Levites) were then appointed.

Neh 7:2 I entrusted the administration of Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, and to Hananiah the commander of the citadel, for he was a more trustworthy, God-fearing man than many others.

Neh 7:3 I said to them, 'The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun gets hot; and the doors must be shut and barred before it begins to go down. Detail guards from the residents of Jerusalem, each to his post, in front of his own house.'

Neh 7:4 The city was large and spacious but the population was small, and the houses had not been rebuilt.

Neh 7:5 My God then inspired me to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people for the purpose of taking a census by families. I discovered the genealogical register of those who had returned in the first group, and there I found entered:

Neh 7:6 These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the Exile, those whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town.

Neh 7:7 They were the ones who arrived with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Neh 7:8 sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

Neh 7:9 sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

Neh 7:10 sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two;

Neh 7:11 sons of Pahath-Moab, that is to say sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;

Neh 7:12 sons of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Neh 7:13 sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five;

Neh 7:14 sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

Neh 7:15 sons of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight;

Neh 7:16 sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight;

Neh 7:17 sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two;

Neh 7:18 sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven;

Neh 7:19 sons of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven;

Neh 7:20 sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five;

Neh 7:21 sons of Ater, that is to say of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;

Neh 7:22 sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight;

Neh 7:23 sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four;

Neh 7:24 sons of Hariph, one hundred and twelve;

Neh 7:25 sons of Gibeon, ninety-five;

Neh 7:26 men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight;

Neh 7:27 men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;

Neh 7:28 men of Beth-Azmaveth, forty-two;

Neh 7:29 men of Kiriath-Jearim, Chephirah and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;

Neh 7:30 men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;

Neh 7:31 men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;

Neh 7:32 men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;

Neh 7:33 men of the other Nebo, fifty-two;

Neh 7:34 sons of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Neh 7:35 sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty;

Neh 7:36 sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;

Neh 7:37 sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;

Neh 7:38 sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

Neh 7:39 The priests: sons of Jedaiah, of the House of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;

Neh 7:40 sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;

Neh 7:41 sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;

Neh 7:42 sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.
Neh 7:43 The Levites: sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodiah, seventy-four.
Neh 7:44 The singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.
Neh 7:45 The gatekeepers: sons of Shallum, sons of Ater, sons of Talmon, sons of Akkub, sons of Hatita, sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.
Neh 7:46 The temple slaves: sons of Ziha, sons of Hasupha, sons of Tabbaoth,
Neh 7:47 sons of Keros, sons of Sia, sons of Padon,
Neh 7:48 sons of Lebana, sons of Hagaba, sons of Shalmi,
Neh 7:49 sons of Hanan, sons of Giddel, sons of Gahar,
Neh 7:50 sons of Reaiah, sons of Rezin, sons of Nekoda,
Neh 7:51 sons of Gazzam, sons of Uzza, sons of Paseah,
Neh 7:52 sons of Besai, sons of the Meunites, sons of the Nephusites,
Neh 7:53 sons of Bakbuk, sons of Hakupha, sons of Harhur,
Neh 7:54 sons of Bazlith, sons of Mehida, sons of Harsha,
Neh 7:55 sons of Barkos, sons of Sisera, sons of Temah,
Neh 7:56 sons of Nezaiah, sons of Hatipha.
Neh 7:57 The sons of Solomon's slaves: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereth, sons of Perida,
Neh 7:58 sons of Jaala, sons of Darkon, sons of Giddel,
Neh 7:59 sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Pochereth-ha-Zebaim, sons of Amon.
Neh 7:60 The total of the temple slaves and the sons of Solomon's slaves: three hundred and ninety-two.
Neh 7:61 The following, who came from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer, could not prove that their families and ancestry were of Israelite origin:
Neh 7:62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda: six hundred and forty-two.
Neh 7:63 And among the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai -- who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, whose name he adopted.
Neh 7:64 These had looked for their entries in the official genealogies but were not to be found there, and were hence disqualified from the priesthood.
Neh 7:65 Consequently, His Excellency forbade them to eat any of the consecrated food until a priest appeared who could consult urim and thummim.
Neh 7:66 The whole assembly numbered forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty people,
Neh 7:67 not counting their slaves and maidservants to the number of seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. They also had two hundred and forty-five male and female singers.
Neh 7:68 They had four hundred and thirty-five camels and six thousand seven hundred and twenty donkeys.
Neh 7:69 A certain number of heads of families contributed to the work. His Excellency contributed one thousand gold drachmas, fifty bowls, and thirty priestly robes to the fund.
Neh 7:70 And heads of families gave twenty thousand gold drachmas and two thousand two hundred silver minas to the work fund.
Neh 7:71 The gifts made by the rest of the people amounted to twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly robes.
Neh 7:72 The priests, the Levites and some of the people lived in Jerusalem and thereabouts; the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple slaves in their appropriate towns; and all the other Israelites, in their own towns.
Now when the seventh month came round -- the Israelites being in their towns--
Neh 8:1 all the people gathered as one man in the square in front of the Water Gate, and asked the scribe Ezra to bring the Book of the Law of Moses which Yahweh had prescribed for Israel.
Neh 8:2 Accordingly, on the first day of the seventh month, the priest Ezra brought the Law before the assembly, consisting of men, women and all those old enough to understand.
Neh 8:3 In the square in front of the Water Gate, in the presence of the men and women, and of those old enough to understand, he read from the book from dawn till noon; all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.
Neh 8:4 The scribe Ezra stood on a wooden dais erected for the purpose; beside him stood, on his right, Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; on his left, Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.
Neh 8:5 In full view of all the people -- since he stood higher than them all -- Ezra opened the book; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.
Neh 8:6 Then Ezra blessed Yahweh, the great God, and all the people raised their hands and answered, 'Amen! Amen!'; then they bowed down and, face to the ground, prostrated themselves before Yahweh.
Neh 8:7 And Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabab, Hanan, Pelaiah, who were Levites, explained the Law to the people, while the people all kept their places.
Neh 8:8 Ezra read from the book of the Law of God, translating and giving the sense; so the reading was understood.

Neh 8:9 Then His Excellency Nehemiah and the priest-scribe Ezra and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people, 'Today is sacred to Yahweh your God. Do not be mournful, do not weep.' For the people were all in tears as they listened to the words of the Law.

Neh 8:10 He then said, 'You may go; eat what is rich, drink what is sweet and send a helping to the man who has nothing prepared. For today is sacred to our Lord. Do not be sad: the joy of Yahweh is your stronghold.'

Neh 8:11 And the Levites calmed all the people down, saying, 'Keep quiet; this is a sacred day. Do not be sad.'

Neh 8:12 Then all the people went off to eat and drink and give helpings away and enjoy themselves to the full, since they had understood the meaning of what had been proclaimed to them.

Neh 8:13 On the second day, the heads of families of the whole people, and the priests and Levites, gathered round the scribe Ezra to study the words of the Law.

Neh 8:14 And written in the Law that Yahweh had prescribed through Moses they found that the Israelites were to live in shelters during the feast of the seventh month.

Neh 8:15 So they issued a proclamation and had it circulated in all their towns and in Jerusalem: 'Go into the hills and bring branches of olive, pine, myrtle, palm and other leafy trees to make shelters, as it says in the book.'

Neh 8:16 The people went out; they brought branches and made shelters for themselves, each man on his roof, in their courtyards, in the precincts of the Temple of God, in the square of the Water Gate and in the square of the Ephraim Gate.

Neh 8:17 The whole assembly, all who had returned from the captivity, put up shelters and lived in them; this the Israelites had not done from the days of Joshua son of Nun till that day, and there was very great merrymaking.

Neh 8:18 Each day, from the first day to the last one, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days; on the eighth day, as prescribed, they held a solemn assembly.

Neh 9:1 On the twenty-fourth day of this month the Israelites, in sackcloth and with dust on their heads, assembled for a fast.

Neh 9:2 Then those of Israelite stock who had severed relations with all foreigners stood up and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their ancestors.

Neh 9:3 Standing, each man in his place, they read from the Book of the Law of Yahweh their God for one quarter of the day; for another quarter they confessed their sins and worshipped Yahweh their God.

Neh 9:4 On the Levites' platform stood Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chenani, calling to Yahweh their God in ringing tones.

Neh 9:5 The Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah said, 'Stand up and bless Yahweh your God! Blessed are you, Yahweh our God from everlasting to everlasting, and blessed be your glorious name, surpassing all blessing and praise!

Neh 9:6 'You, Yahweh, are the one, only Yahweh, you have created the heavens, the heaven of heavens and all their array, the earth and all it bears, the seas and all they hold. To all of them you give life, and the array of heaven worships you.

Neh 9:7 'You are Yahweh God, who chose Abram, brought him out of Ur in Chaldaea and changed his name to Abraham.

Neh 9:8 Finding his heart was faithful to you, you made a covenant with him, to give the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites and the Gergashites to him and his descendants. And you have made good your promises, for you are upright.

Neh 9:9 'You saw the distress of our ancestors in Egypt, you heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds.

Neh 9:10 You displayed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants and all the people of his land; for you knew how arrogantly they treated them. You won a reputation which you keep to this day.

Neh 9:11 You opened up the sea in front of them: they walked on dry ground right through the sea. Into the depths you hurled their pursuers like a stone into the raging waters.

Neh 9:12 With a pillar of cloud you led them by day, with a pillar of fire by night: to light the way ahead of them by which they were to go.

Neh 9:13 You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven; you gave them right rules, reliable laws, good statutes and commandments;

Neh 9:14 you revealed your holy Sabbath to them; you laid down commandments, statutes and law for them through your servant Moses.

Neh 9:15 For their hunger you gave them bread from heaven, for their thirst you brought them water out of a rock, and you told them to go in and take possession of the country which you had sworn to give them.

Neh 9:16 'But they and our ancestors acted arrogantly, grew obstinate and flouted your commands.

Neh 9:17 They refused to obey, forgetful of the wonders which you had worked for them; they grew obstinate and made up their minds to return to their slavery in Egypt. But because you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, patient and rich in faithful love, you did not abandon them!

Neh 9:18 'Even when they cast themselves a calf out of molten metal and said, "This is your God who brought you up from Egypt!" and committed monstrous impieties,

Neh 9:19 you, in your great compassion, did not abandon them in the desert: the pillar of cloud did not leave them, leading them on their path by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, lighting the way ahead of them by which they were to go.

Neh 9:20 You gave them your good spirit to instruct them, you did not withhold your manna from their mouths, you gave them water for their thirst.

Neh 9:21 For forty years you cared for them in the desert, so that they went short of nothing, their clothes did not wear out, nor were their feet swollen.

Neh 9:22 'You gave them kingdoms and peoples, allotting them these as frontier lands; they occupied the country of Sihon king of Heshbon, and the country of Og king of Bashan.

Neh 9:23 You gave them as many children as there are stars in the sky, and brought them into the country which you had promised their ancestors that they would enter and possess.

Neh 9:24 The children entered and took possession of the country and before them you subdued the country's inhabitants, the Canaanites, whom you put at their mercy, with their kings and the peoples of the country, for them to treat as they pleased;

Neh 9:25 they captured fortified towns and a fertile countryside, they took possession of houses stocked with all kinds of goods, of storage-wells ready-hewn, of vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in profusion; so they ate, were full, grew fat and revelled in your great goodness.

Neh 9:26 'But they grew disobedient, rebelled against you and thrust your law behind their backs; they slaughtered your prophets who had reproved them to bring them back to you, and committed monstrous impieties.

Neh 9:27 So you put them at the mercy of their enemies who oppressed them. But when they were being oppressed and called to you, you heard them from heaven and because of your great compassion you gave them deliverers who rescued them from their oppressors' clutches.

Neh 9:28 But once at peace again, again they did what was wrong before you; so you put them at the mercy of their enemies who then became their rulers. When they called to you again, you heard them from heaven and, because of your compassion, rescued them many times.

Neh 9:29 You warned them, to bring them back to your law, but they became arrogant, did not obey your commandments and sinned against your rules, in whose observance is life; they turned a stubborn shoulder, were obstinate, and disobeyed.

Neh 9:30 You were patient with them for many years and warned them by your spirit through your prophets, but they would not listen; so you put them at the mercy of the people of the country.

Neh 9:31 But, because of your great compassion, you did not destroy them completely nor abandon them, for you are a gracious, compassionate God.

Neh 9:32 Now, our God -- the great God, the Mighty and Awe-inspiring One, maintaining the covenant and your faithful love- count as no small thing this misery which has befallen us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, and all your people from the times of the Assyrian kings to the present day.

Neh 9:33 You have been upright in all that has happened to us, for you acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

Neh 9:34 Our kings, our princes, our priests and our ancestors did not keep your law or pay attention to your commandments and obligations which you imposed upon them.

Neh 9:35 Even in their own kingdom, despite your great goodness which you bestowed on them, despite the wide and fertile country which you had lavished on them, they did not serve you or renounce their evil deeds.

Neh 9:36 See, we are slaves today, slaves in the country which you gave to our ancestors for them to eat the good things it produces.

Neh 9:37 Its abundant produce goes to the kings whom, for our sins, you have set over us, who rule over our persons and over our cattle as they please. We are in great distress.'

Neh 10:1 In view of all this we make a firm agreement, in writing. Our princes, our Levites, our priests and the rest of the people have put their names to the document under seal.

Neh 10:2 On the sealed document were the names of: Nehemiah, son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah;

Neh 10:3 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Neh 10:4 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

Neh 10:5 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Neh 10:6 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Neh 10:7 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Neh 10:8 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Neh 10:9 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.

Neh 10:10 The Levites were: Jeshua son of Azariah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,

Neh 10:11 and their kinsmen Shebaniah, Hodaviah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

Neh 10:12 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,
Neh 10:13 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
Neh 10:14 Hodiah, Bani, Chenani.
Neh 10:15 The leaders of the people were: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
Neh 10:16 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
Neh 10:17 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
Neh 10:18 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
Neh 10:19 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
Neh 10:20 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
Neh 10:21 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
Neh 10:22 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
Neh 10:23 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
Neh 10:24 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
Neh 10:25 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
Neh 10:26 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
Neh 10:27 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
Neh 10:28 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

Neh 10:29 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple slaves and all those who had severed relations with the people of the country to adhere to the law of God, as also their wives, their sons, their daughters, that is, all those who had reached the age of discretion,

Neh 10:30 have joined their esteemed brothers in a solemn oath to follow the law of God given through Moses, servant of God, and to observe and practise all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, with his rules and his statutes.

Neh 10:31 We will not give our daughters in marriage to the peoples of the country, nor allow their daughters to marry our sons.

Neh 10:32 If the people of the country bring goods or foodstuff of any kind to sell on the Sabbath day, we will buy nothing from them on Sabbath or holy day. In the seventh year, we will forgo the produce of the soil and the exaction of all debts.

Neh 10:33 We recognise the following obligations: to give one-third of a shekel yearly for the service of the Temple of our God:

Neh 10:34 for the loaves of permanent offering, for the perpetual oblation, for the perpetual burnt offering, for the sacrifices on Sabbaths, on New Moons and on festivals, for the consecrated gifts, the sin offerings to expiate for Israel, in short, for the whole work of the Temple of our God;

Neh 10:35 Furthermore, as regards deliveries of wood for burning on the altar of our God as the law prescribes, we have arranged, by drawing lots, how these deliveries are to be made at the Temple of our God by the priests, the Levites and the people by families, at stated times every year. We will no longer neglect the Temple of our God.

Neh 10:36 and further, to bring yearly to the Temple of our God the first-fruits of our soil and the first-fruits of all our orchards,

Neh 10:37 also the first-born of our sons and of our cattle, as the law prescribes, the first-born of our herds and flocks should be taken to the Temple of our God for the priests officiating in the Temple of our God.

Neh 10:38 Furthermore, we shall bring the best of our dough, of every kind of fruit, of the new wine and of the oil to the priests, to the storerooms of the Temple of our God, and the tithe on our soil to the Levites -- the Levites will themselves collect the tithes from all the towns of our religion.

Neh 10:39 An Aaronite priest will accompany the Levites when they collect the tithes, and the Levites will bring a tenth part

Neh 10:40 a,b of the tithes to the Temple of our God, into the treasury storerooms; for these rooms are where the Israelites and the Levites are to bring the contributions of corn, wine and oil, and where the vessels of the sanctuary are, and the officiating priests, the gatekeepers and the singers.

Neh 11:1 Now the leaders of the people took up residence in Jerusalem; so the rest of the people drew lots: one man in ten was to come and live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine were to stay in the towns outside.

Neh 11:2 The people praised all those who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Neh 11:3 In the towns of Judah each man lived on his own property, but these are the provincial leaders, the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple slaves and the descendants of Solomon's slaves, who made their homes in Jerusalem:

Neh 11:4 Of the sons of Judah and the sons of Benjamin who made their homes in Jerusalem there were: Of the sons of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mehalalel, of the descendants of Perez;

Neh 11:5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-Hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, descendant of Shelah.

Neh 11:6 The total number of the descendants of Perez living in Jerusalem was four hundred and sixty-eight outstanding people.

Neh 11:7 These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiah, Neh 11:8 and his brothers Gabbai and Sallai; nine hundred and twenty-eight.

Neh 11:9 Joel son of Zichri was their chief, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command of the city.

Neh 11:10 Of the priests there were Jedaiah son of Joiakim, son of Neh 11:11 Seraiah, son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meremoth, son of Ahitub, the chief of the Temple of God,

Neh 11:12 and their kinsmen who performed the Temple liturgy: eight hundred and twenty-two; Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah,

Neh 11:13 and his kinsfolk, heads of families: two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,

Neh 11:14 and his kinsfolk, outstanding people: one hundred and twenty-eight. Their chief was Zabdiel son of Haggadol.

Neh 11:15 Of the Levites there were Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni;

Neh 11:16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, the levitical leaders responsible for work outside the Temple of God;

Neh 11:17 Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, who led the praises and intoned the thanksgiving associated with the prayer, Bakbukiah being his junior colleague; and Obadiah son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

Neh 11:18 The total number of Levites in the holy city was two hundred and eighty-four.

Neh 11:19 The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon and their kinsmen, who kept watch at the gates: one hundred and seventy-two.

Neh 11:20 The rest of Israel, including the priests and Levites, made their homes throughout the towns of Judah, each man on his own inheritance,

Neh 11:21 The temple slaves lived on Ophel; Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple slaves.

Neh 11:22 The official in charge of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, who led the singing in the liturgy of the Temple of God;

Neh 11:23 for the singers were under royal orders, with regulations laying down what was required of them day by day.

Neh 11:24 Petahiah son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's minister for all matters connected with the people.

Neh 11:25 and in the villages near their lands. Some of the sons of Judah made their homes in Kiriath-Arba and its dependencies, Dibon and its dependencies, Jekabzeel and its dependencies,

Neh 11:26 Jeshua, Moladah, Beth-Pelet,

Neh 11:27 Hazar-Shual, Beersheba and its dependencies,

Neh 11:28 Ziklag, Meconah and its dependencies,

Neh 11:29 En-Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,

Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, Lachish and its lands, and Azekah and its dependencies; thus, they settled from Beersheba as far as the Valley of Hinnom.

Neh 11:31 And some Benjaminites made their homes in Geba, Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its dependencies,

Neh 11:32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

Neh 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

Neh 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

Neh 11:35 Lod, Ono and the Valley of Craftsmen.

Neh 11:36 Some levitical groups lived in Judah, some in Benjamin.

Neh 12:1 These are the priests and the Levites who came back with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua:

Neh 12:2 Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Neh 12:3 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Neh 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

Neh 12:5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah -- these were the heads of the priests and their kinsmen in the days of Jeshua.

Neh 12:8 The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, Mattaniah -- this last, with his brothers, was in charge of the songs of praise, Neh 12:9 while Bakbukiah and Unno, their colleagues, formed the alternate choir to theirs.

Neh 12:10 Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada, Neh 12:11 Joiada fathered Johanan, and Johanan fathered Jaddua.

Neh 12:12 In the days of Joiakim the heads of the priestly families were: family of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

Neh 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

Neh 12:14 of Malluch, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

Neh 12:15 of Harim, Adna; of Meremoth, Helkai;

Neh 12:16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

Neh 12:17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Minjamin, . . . ; of Moadiah, Piltai;

Neh 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

Neh 12:19 and of Jojarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

Neh 12:20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

Neh 12:21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

Neh 12:22 In the time of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, the heads of the families of priests were registered in the Book of Chronicles, up to the reign of Darius the Persian.

Neh 12:23 The Levites who were heads of families were registered in the Book of Chronicles up to the time of Johanan, grandson of Eliashib.

Neh 12:24 The heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, while their brothers who formed an alternate choir for the hymns of praise and thanksgiving, as David, man of God, had prescribed, section corresponding to section, Neh 12:25 were Mattaniah, Bakbukiah and Obadiah. Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were the gatekeepers guarding the stores at the gates.

Neh 12:26 These lived in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest-scribe.

Neh 12:27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem the Levites were sent for, wherever they lived, to come to Jerusalem and joyfully perform the dedication with hymns of thanksgiving and songs to the accompaniment of cymbals, lyres and harps.

Neh 12:28 Accordingly, the levitical singers assembled from the district round Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites, Neh 12:29 from Beth-Gilgal and from their farms at Geba and Azmaveth -- for the singers had built themselves villages all round Jerusalem.

Neh 12:30 When the priests and Levites had purified themselves, they then purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Neh 12:31 I then made the leaders of Judah come on to the top of the wall and appointed two large choirs. One made its way along the top of the wall, to the right, towards the Dung Gate;

Neh 12:32 bringing up the rear were Hoshaiah and half the leaders of Judah,

Neh 12:33 and also Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Neh 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah and Jeremiah,

Neh 12:35 of the priests, with trumpets; then Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph, Neh 12:36 with his kinsmen, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Juda, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David, man of God. The scribe Ezra walked at their head.

Neh 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they went straight on up the steps of the City of David, along the top of the rampart by the stairway of the wall, above the Palace of David as far as the Water Gate, on the east.

Neh 12:38 The other choir made its way to the left; I and half the leaders of the people followed them along the top of the wall from the Tower of the Furnaces to the Broad Wall,

Neh 12:39 from the Ephraim Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred as far as the Sheep Gate, and they came to a halt at the Prison Gate.

Neh 12:40 The two choirs then took their places in the Temple of God. But I had half the magistrates with me

Neh 12:41 as well as the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah with the trumpets,

Neh 12:42 and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. The singers sang loudly under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Neh 12:43 There were great sacrifices offered that day and the people rejoiced, God having given them good cause for rejoicing; the women and children rejoiced too, and the joy of Jerusalem could be heard from far away.

Neh 12:44 For the rooms intended for the treasures, contributions, first-fruits and tithes, supervisors were then appointed whose business it was to collect in them those portions from the town lands awarded by the Law to the priests and Levites. For Judah rejoiced in the officiating priests and Levites,

Neh 12:45 since they -- with the singers and gatekeepers -- performed the liturgy of their God and the rites of purification as ordained by David and his son Solomon.

Neh 12:46 For from ancient times, from the days of David and Asaph, they had been the leaders in rendering hymns of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Neh 12:47 In the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all Israel supplied regular daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers, and gave the dedicated contributions to the Levites; and the Levites gave the dedicated contributions to the Aaronites.

Neh 13:1 At that time they were reading to the people from the Book of Moses, when they found this written in it, 'No Ammonite or Moabite is to be admitted to the assembly of God, and this is for all time,

Neh 13:2 since they did not come to meet the Israelites with bread and water, and even hired Balaam to oppose them by cursing them; but our God turned the curse into a blessing.'

Neh 13:3 Having heard the Law, they excluded all foreigners from Israel.

Neh 13:4 Earlier, Eliashib the priest, who was in charge of the rooms of the Temple of our God, and who was close to Tobiah,

Neh 13:5 had provided him with a large room where they previously used to store the meal offerings, incense, utensils, tithes of corn, wine and oil, that is, the part of the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

Neh 13:6 While all this was going on I was away from Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had gone to see the king. But after some time I asked the king for permission to leave, Neh 13:7 and returned to Jerusalem, where I learned about the crime which Eliashib had committed for Tobiah's benefit, by providing him with a room in the courts of the Temple of God.

Neh 13:8 I was extremely displeased and threw all Tobiah's household goods out of the room and into the street.

Neh 13:9 I then gave orders for the room to be purified, and had the utensils of the Temple of God, the meal offerings and the incense, all replaced.

Neh 13:10 I also learned that the Levites had not been receiving their allocations, as a result of which the Levites and singers who performed the liturgy had all withdrawn to their farms.

Neh 13:11 I then reprimanded the officials. 'Why is the Temple of God deserted?' I asked. And I collected them together again and brought them back to their posts;

Neh 13:12 and all Judah then delivered the tithe of corn, wine and oil to the storehouses.

Neh 13:13 As supervisors of the storehouses I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, Pedaiah one of the Levites and, as their assistant, Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, since they were considered reliable people; their duty was to make the distributions to their kinsmen.

Neh 13:14 Remember me for this, my God, and do not blot out the good deeds which I have done for the Temple of my God and its observances!

Neh 13:15 At the same time I saw people in Judah treading the winepress, bringing in sacks of grain and loading donkeys on the Sabbath; they were also bringing wine, grapes, figs and every kind of merchandise into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I forbade them to sell the food.

Neh 13:16 Tyrians living there were bringing in fish and every kind of merchandise which they were selling to the Judaeans on the Sabbath in Jerusalem itself.

Neh 13:17 So I also reprimanded the leading men of Judah, saying to them, 'What a wicked way to behave, profaning the Sabbath day!'

Neh 13:18 Was this not exactly what your ancestors did, with the result that our God brought all this misery down on us and on this city? And now you are adding to the wrath hanging over Israel by profaning the Sabbath yourselves!'

Neh 13:19 So when the gates of Jerusalem were getting dark at the approach of the Sabbath, I gave orders for the doors to be shut and directed that they were not to be opened again until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my attendants at the gates to make sure that no merchandise was brought in on the Sabbath day.

Neh 13:20 So the traders and dealers in goods of all kinds spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice,

Neh 13:21 until I reprimanded them. I said to them, 'Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? Do it again, and I shall use force on you.' After this, they did not come on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:22 I then ordered the Levites to purify themselves and act as guards at the gates, so that the Sabbath day might be kept holy. Remember this also to my credit, have pity on me in the greatness of your faithful love.

Neh 13:23 At that time too, I saw Jews who had married wives from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab;

Neh 13:24 as regards their children, half of them spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, but could no longer speak the language of Judah.

Neh 13:25 I reprimanded them, I cursed them, I struck several of them and tore out their hair and adjured them by God, 'You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons or let their daughters marry your sons, or marry them yourselves!'

Neh 13:26 Was it not because of women like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Although among many nations there was no king like him and he was loved by his God, and God made him king of all Israel, even then foreign women led him into sinning!

Neh 13:27 Were you obedient when you committed this very grave crime: breaking faith with our God by marrying foreign wives?

Neh 13:28 One of the sons of Jehoiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; I drove him from my presence.

Neh 13:29 Remember them, my God, for having defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priests and Levites!

Neh 13:30 And so I purged them of everything foreign; I drew up regulations for the priests and Levites, defining each man's duty,

Neh 13:31 as well as for the deliveries of wood at the proper times, and for the first-fruits. Remember this, my God, to my credit!

Tob 1:1 The tale of Tobit son of Tobiel, son of Ananiel, son of Aduel, son of Gabael, of the lineage of Asiel and tribe of Naphtali.

Tob 1:2 In the days of Shalmaneser king of Assyria, he was exiled from Thisbe, which is south of Kedesh-Naphtali in Upper Galilee, above Hazor, some distance to the west, north of Shephat.

Tob 1:3 I, Tobit, have walked in paths of truth and in good works all the days of my life. I have given much in alms to my brothers and fellow country-folk, exiled like me to Nineveh in the country of Assyria.

Tob 1:4 In my young days, when I was still at home in the land of Israel, the whole tribe of Naphtali my ancestor broke away from the House of David and from Jerusalem, though this was the city chosen out of all the tribes of Israel for their sacrifices; here, the Temple -- God's dwelling-place -- had been built and hallowed for all generations to come.

Tob 1:5 All my brothers and the House of Naphtali sacrificed on every hill-top in Galilee to the calf that Jeroboam king of Israel had made at Dan.

Tob 1:6 Often I was quite alone in making the pilgrimage to Jerusalem, fulfilling the Law that binds all Israel perpetually. I would hurry to Jerusalem with the first yield of fruits and beasts, the tithe of cattle and the sheep's first shearings.

Tob 1:7 I would give these to the priests, the sons of Aaron, for the altar. To the Levites ministering at Jerusalem I would give my tithe of wine and corn, olives, pomegranates and other fruits. Six years in succession I took the second tithe in money and went and paid it annually at Jerusalem.

Tob 1:8 I gave the third to orphans and widows and to the strangers who live among the Israelites; I brought it them as a gift every three years. When we ate, we obeyed both the ordinances of the law of Moses and the exhortations of Deborah the mother of our ancestor Ananiel; for my father had died and left me an orphan.

Tob 1:9 When I came to man's estate, I married a woman from our kinsfolk whose name was Anna; she bore me a son whom I called Tobias.

Tob 1:10 When the banishment into Assyria came, I was taken away and went to Nineveh. All my brothers and the people of my race ate the food of the heathen,

Tob 1:11 but for my part I was careful not to eat the food of the heathen.

Tob 1:12 And because I had kept faith with my God with my whole heart,

Tob 1:13 the Most High granted me the favour of Shalmaneser, and I became the king's purveyor.

Tob 1:14 Until his death I used to travel to Media, where I transacted business on his behalf, and I deposited sacks of silver worth ten talents with Gabael the brother of Gabrias at Rhages in Media.

Tob 1:15 On the death of Shalmaneser his son Sennacherib succeeded; the roads into Media were barred, and I could no longer go there.

Tob 1:16 In the days of Shalmaneser I had often given alms to the people of my race;

Tob 1:17 I gave my bread to the hungry and clothes to those who lacked them; and I buried, when I saw them, the bodies of my country-folk thrown over the walls of Nineveh.

Tob 1:18 I also buried those who were killed by Sennacherib. When Sennacherib was beating a disorderly retreat from Judaea after the King of heaven had punished his blasphemies, he killed a great number of Israelites in his rage. So I stole their bodies to bury them; Sennacherib looked for them and could not find them.

Tob 1:19 A Ninevite went and told the king it was I who had buried them secretly. When I knew that the king had been told about me and saw myself being hunted by men who would put me to death, I was afraid and fled.

Tob 1:20 All my goods were seized; they were all confiscated by the treasury; nothing was left me but my wife Anna and my son Tobias.

Tob 1:21 Less than forty days after this, the king was murdered by his two sons, who then fled to the mountains of Ararat. His son Esarhaddon succeeded. Ahikar the son of my brother Anael, was appointed chancellor of the exchequer for the kingdom and given the main ordering of affairs.

Tob 1:22 Ahikar then interceded for me and I was allowed to return to Nineveh, since Ahikar had been chief cupbearer, keeper of the signet, administrator and treasurer under Sennacherib king of Assyria, and Esarhaddon had kept him in office. He was a relation of mine; he was my nephew.

Tob 2:1 In the reign of Esarhaddon, therefore, I returned home, and my wife Anna was restored to me with my son Tobias. At our feast of Pentecost (the feast of Weeks) there was a good dinner. I took my place for the meal; Tob 2:2 the table was brought to me and various dishes were brought. I then said to my son Tobias, 'Go, my child, and seek out some poor, loyal-hearted man among our brothers exiled in Nineveh, and bring him to share my meal. I will wait until you come back, my child.'

Tob 2:3 So Tobias went out to look for some poor man among our brothers, but he came back again and said, 'Father!' I replied, 'What is it, my child?' He went on, 'Father, one of our nation has just been murdered; he has been strangled and then thrown down in the market place; he is there still.'

Tob 2:4 I sprang up at once, left my meal untouched, took the man from the market place and laid him in one of my rooms, waiting until sunset to bury him.

Tob 2:5 I came in again and washed myself and ate my bread in sorrow,

Tob 2:6 remembering the words of the prophet Amos concerning Bethel: I shall turn your festivals into mourning and all your singing into lamentation.

Tob 2:7 And I wept. When the sun was down, I went and dug a grave and buried him.

Tob 2:8 My neighbours laughed and said, 'See! He is not afraid any more.' (You must remember that a price had been set on my head earlier for this very thing.) 'Once before he had to flee, yet here he is, beginning to bury the dead again.'

Tob 2:9 That night I took a bath; then I went into the courtyard and lay down by the courtyard wall. Since it was hot I left my face uncovered.

Tob 2:10 I did not know that there were sparrows in the wall above my head; their hot droppings fell into my eyes. This caused white spots to form, which I went to have treated by the doctors. But the more ointments they tried me with, the more the spots blinded me, and in the end, I became completely blind. I remained without sight four years; all my brothers were distressed on my behalf; and Ahikar provided for my upkeep for two years, until he left for Elymais.

Tob 2:11 My wife Anna then undertook woman's work; she would spin wool and take cloth to weave;

Tob 2:12 she used to deliver whatever had been ordered from her and then receive payment. Now on the seventh day of the month of Dystros, she finished a piece of work and delivered it to her customers. They paid her all that was due, and into the bargain presented her with a kid for a meal.

Tob 2:13 When the kid came into my house, it began to bleat. I called to my wife and said, 'Where does this creature come from? Suppose it has been stolen! Let the owners have it back; we have no right to eat stolen goods'.

Tob 2:14 She said, 'No, it was a present given me over and above my wages.' I did not believe her, and told her to give it back to the owners (I felt deeply ashamed of her). To which, she replied, 'What about your own alms? What about your own good works? Everyone knows what return you have had for them.'

Tob 3:1 Then, sad at heart, I sighed and wept, and began this prayer of lamentation:

Tob 3:2 You are just, O Lord, and just are all your works. All your ways are grace and truth, and you are the Judge of the world.

Tob 3:3 Therefore, Lord, remember me, look on me. Do not punish me for my sins or for my needless faults or those of my ancestors.

Tob 3:4 For we have sinned against you and broken your commandments; and you have given us over to be plundered, to captivity and death, to be the talk, the laughing-stock and scorn of all the nations among whom you have dispersed us.

Tob 3:5 And now all your decrees are true when you deal with me as my faults deserve, and those of my ancestors. For we have neither kept your commandments nor walked in truth before you.

Tob 3:6 So now, do with me as you will; be pleased to take my life from me; so that I may be delivered from earth and become earth again. Better death than life for me, for I have endured groundless insult and am in deepest sorrow. Lord, be pleased to deliver me from this affliction. Let me go away to my everlasting home; do not turn your face from me, O Lord. Better death for me than life prolonged in the face of unrelenting misery: I can no longer bear to listen to insults.

Tob 3:7 It chanced on the same day that Sarah the daughter of Raguel, who lived in Media at Ecbatana, also heard insults from one of her father's maids.

Tob 3:8 For she had been given in marriage seven times, and Asmodeus, the worst of demons, had killed her bridegrooms one after another before ever they had slept with her as man with wife. The servant-girl said, 'Yes, you kill your bridegrooms yourself. That makes seven already to whom you have been given, and you have not once been in luck yet.'

Tob 3:9 Just because your bridegrooms have died, that is no reason for punishing us. Go and join them, and may we be spared the sight of any child of yours!'

Tob 3:10 That day, she grieved, she sobbed, and she went up to her father's room intending to hang herself. But then she thought, 'Suppose they were to blame my father! They would say, "You had an only daughter whom you loved, and now she has hanged herself for grief." I cannot cause my father a sorrow which would bring down his old age to the dwelling of the dead. I should do better not to hang myself, but to beg the Lord to let me die and not live to hear any more insults.'

Tob 3:11 And at this, by the window, with outstretched arms she said this prayer: You are blessed, O God of mercy! May your name be blessed for ever, and may all things you have made bless you everlasting.

Tob 3:12 And now I turn my face and I raise my eyes to you.

Tob 3:13 Let your word deliver me from earth; I can hear myself insulted no longer.

Tob 3:14 O Lord, you know that I have remained pure; no man has touched me;

Tob 3:15 I have not dishonoured your name or my father's name in this land of exile. I am my father's only daughter, he has no other child as heir; he has no brother at his side, nor has he any kinsman left for whom I ought to keep myself. I have lost seven husbands already; why should I live any longer? If it does not please you to take my life, then look on me with pity; I can no longer bear to hear myself defamed.

Tob 3:16 This time the prayer of each of them found favour before the glory of God,

Tob 3:17 and Raphael was sent to bring remedy to them both. He was to take the white spots from the eyes of Tobit, so that he might see God's light with his own eyes; and he was to give Sarah the daughter of Raguel as bride to Tobias son of Tobit, and to rid her of Asmodeus, that worst of demons. For it was to Tobias before all other suitors that she belonged by right. Tobit was coming back from the courtyard into the house at the same moment as Sarah the daughter of Raguel was coming down from the upper room.

Tob 4:1 The same day Tobit remembered the silver that he had left with Gabael at Rhages in Media

Tob 4:2 and thought, 'I have come to the point of praying for death; I should do well to call my son Tobias and tell him about the money before I die.'

Tob 4:3 He summoned his son Tobias and told him, 'When I die, give me an honourable burial. Honour your mother, and never abandon her all the days of your life. Do all that she wants, and give her no reason for sorrow.

Tob 4:4 Remember, my child, all the risks she ran for your sake when you were in her womb. And when she dies, bury her at my side in the same grave.

Tob 4:5 'My child, be faithful to the Lord all your days. Never entertain the will to sin or to transgress his laws.

Do good works all the days of your life, never follow ways that are not upright;

Tob 4:6 for if you act in truthfulness, you will be successful in all your actions, as everyone is who practises what is upright.

Tob 4:7 'Set aside part of your goods for almsgiving. Never turn your face from the poor and God will never turn his from you.

Tob 4:8 Measure your alms by what you have; if you have much, give more; if you have little, do not be afraid to give less in alms.

Tob 4:9 So doing, you will lay up for yourself a great treasure for the day of necessity.

Tob 4:10 For almsgiving delivers from death and saves people from passing down to darkness.

Tob 4:11 Almsgiving is a most effective offering for all those who do it in the presence of the Most High.

Tob 4:12 'My child, avoid all loose conduct. Choose a wife of your father's stock. Do not take a foreign wife outside your father's tribe, because we are the children of the prophets. Remember Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, our ancestors from the beginning. All of them took wives from their own kindred, and they were blessed in their children, and their race will inherit the earth.

Tob 4:13 You, too, my child, must love your own brothers; never presume to despise your brothers, the sons and daughters of your people; choose your wife from among them. For pride brings ruin and much worry; idleness causes need and poverty, for the mother of famine is idleness.

Tob 4:14 'Do not keep back until next day the wages of those who work for you; pay them at once. If you serve God you will be rewarded. Be careful, my child, in all you do, well-disciplined in all your behaviour.

Tob 4:15 Do to no one what you would not want done to you. Do not drink wine to the point of drunkenness; do not let excess be your travelling companion.

Tob 4:16 'Give your bread to those who are hungry, and your clothes to those who lack clothing. Of whatever you own in plenty, devote a proportion to almsgiving; and when you give alms, do it ungrudgingly.

Tob 4:17 Be generous with bread and wine on the graves of upright people, but not for the sinner.

Tob 4:18 'Ask advice of every wise person; never scorn any profitable advice.

Tob 4:19 Bless the Lord God in everything; beg him to guide your ways and bring your paths and purposes to their end. For wisdom is not the property of every nation; their desire for what is good is conferred by the Lord. At his will he lifts up or he casts down to the depths of the dwelling of the dead. So now, my child, remember these precepts and never let them fade from your heart.

Tob 4:20 'Now, my child, I must tell you I have left ten talents of silver with Gabael son of Gabrias, at Rhages in Media.

Tob 4:21 Do not be afraid, my child, if we have grown poor. You have great wealth if you fear God, if you shun every kind of sin and if you do what is pleasing to the Lord your God.'

Tob 5:1 Tobias then replied to his father Tobit, 'Father, I shall do everything you have told me.'

Tob 5:2 But how am I to recover the silver from him? He does not know me, nor I him. What token am I to give him for him to believe me and hand the silver over to me? And besides, I do not know what roads to take for this journey into Media.'

Tob 5:3 Then Tobit answered his son Tobias, 'Each of us set his signature to a note which I cut in two, so that each could keep half of it. I took one piece, and put the other with the silver. To think it was twenty years ago I left this silver in his keeping! And now, my child, find a trustworthy travelling companion -- we shall pay him for his time until you arrive back -- and then go and collect the silver from Gabael.'

Tob 5:4 Tobias went out to look for a man who knew the way to go with him to Media. Outside he found Raphael the angel standing facing him, though he did not guess he was an angel of God.

Tob 5:5 He said, 'Where do you come from, friend?' The angel replied, 'I am one of your brother Israelites; I have come to these parts to look for work.' Tobias asked, 'Do you know the road to Media?'

Tob 5:6 The other replied, 'Certainly I do, I have been there many times; I have knowledge and experience of all the ways. I have often been to Media and stayed with Gabael one of our kinsmen who lives at Rhages in Media. It usually takes two full days to get from Ecbatana to Rhages; Rhages lies in the mountains, and Ecbatana is in the middle of the plain.'

Tob 5:7 Tobias said, 'Wait for me, friend, while I go and tell my father; I need you to come with me; I shall pay you for your time.'

Tob 5:8 The other replied, 'Good, I shall wait; but do not be long.'

Tob 5:9 Tobias went in and told his father that he had found one of their brother Israelites. And the father said, 'Fetch him in; I want to find out about his family and tribe. I must see if he is going to be a reliable companion for you, my child.' So Tobias went out and called him, 'Friend,' he said, 'my father wants you.'

Tob 5:10 The angel came into the house; Tobit greeted him, and the other answered, wishing him happiness in plenty. Tobit replied, 'Can I ever be happy again? I am a blind man; I no longer see the light of heaven; I am sunk in darkness like the dead who see the light no more. I am a man buried alive; I hear people speak but cannot see them.' The angel said, 'Take comfort; before long God will heal you. Take comfort.' Tobit said, 'My son Tobias wishes to go to Media. Will you join him as his guide? Brother, I will pay you.' He replied, 'I am willing to go with him; I know all the ways; I have often been to Media, I have crossed all its plains and mountains, and I know all its roads.'

Tob 5:11 Tobit said, 'Brother, what family and what tribe do you belong to? Will you tell me, brother?'

Tob 5:12 'What does my tribe matter to you?' the angel said. Tobit said, 'I want to be quite sure whose son you are and what your name is.'

Tob 5:13 The angel said, 'I am Azarias, son of the great Ananias, one of your kinsmen.'

Tob 5:14 'Welcome and greetings, brother! Do not be offended at my wanting to know the name of your family; I find you are my kinsman of a good and honourable line. I know Ananias and Nathan, the two sons of the great Shemaiah. They used to go to Jerusalem with me; we have worshipped together there and they have never strayed from the right path. Your brothers are worthy men; you come of good stock; welcome.'

Tob 5:15 He went on, 'I engage you at a drachma a day, with the same expenses as my own son's. Complete the journey with my son

Tob 5:16 and I shall go beyond the agreed wage.' The angel replied, 'I shall complete the journey with him. Do not be afraid. On the journey outward all will be well; on the journey back all will be well; the road is safe.'

Tob 5:17 Tobit said, 'Blessings on you, brother!' Then he turned to his son. 'My child', he said, 'prepare what you need for the journey, and set off with your brother. May God in heaven protect you abroad and bring you both back to me safe and sound! May his angel go with you and protect you, my child!' Tobias left the house to set out and kissed his father and mother. Tobit said, 'A happy journey!'

Tob 5:18 His mother burst into tears and said to Tobit, 'Why must you send my child away? Is he not the staff of our hands, as he goes about before us?

Tob 5:19 Surely money is not the only thing that matters? Surely it is not as precious as our child?

Tob 5:20 The way of life God had already given us was good enough.'

Tob 5:21 He said, 'Do not think such thoughts. Going away and coming back, all will be well with our child. You will see for yourself when he comes back safe and sound! Do not think such thoughts; do not worry on their account, my sister.'

Tob 5:22 A good angel will go with him; he will have a good journey and come back to us well and happy.'

Tob 6:1 And she dried her tears.

Tob 6:2 The boy left with the angel, and the dog followed behind. The two walked on, and when the first evening came they camped beside the Tigris.

Tob 6:3 The boy had gone down to the river to wash his feet, when a great fish leapt out of the water and tried to swallow his foot. The boy gave a shout

Tob 6:4 and the angel said, 'Catch the fish; do not let it go.' The boy mastered the fish and pulled it onto the bank.

Tob 6:5 The angel said, 'Cut it open; take out gall, heart and liver; set these aside and throw the entrails away, for gall and heart and liver have curative properties.'

Tob 6:6 The boy cut the fish open and took out gall and heart and liver. He fried part of the fish for his meal and kept some for salting. Then they walked on again together until they were nearly in Media.

Tob 6:7 Then the boy asked the angel this question, 'Brother Azarias, what can the fish's heart, liver and gall cure?'

Tob 6:8 He replied, 'You burn the fish's heart and liver, and their smoke is used in the case of a man or woman plagued by a demon or evil spirit; any such affliction disappears for good, leaving no trace.'

Tob 6:9 As regards the gall, this is used as an eye ointment for anyone having white spots on his eyes; after using it, you have only to blow on the spots to cure them.'

Tob 6:10 They entered Media and had nearly reached Ecbatana

Tob 6:11 when Raphael said to the boy, 'Brother Tobias.' 'Yes?' he replied. The angel went on, 'Tonight we are to stay with Raguel, who is a kinsman of yours. He has a daughter called Sarah,

Tob 6:12 but apart from Sarah he has no other son or daughter. Now you are her next of kin; she belongs to you before anyone else and you may claim her father's inheritance. She is a thoughtful, courageous and very lovely girl, and her father loves her dearly.'

Tob 6:13 You have the right to marry her. Listen, brother; this very evening I shall speak about the girl to her father and arrange for her to be betrothed to you, and when we come back from Rhages we can celebrate the marriage. I assure you, Raguel has no right whatever to refuse you or to betroth her to anyone else. That would be asking for death, as prescribed in the Book of Moses, once he is aware that kinship gives you the pre-eminent right to marry his daughter. So listen, brother. This very evening we shall speak about the girl and ask for her hand in marriage. When we come back from Rhages we shall fetch her and take her home with us.'

Tob 6:14 Tobias replied to Raphael, 'Brother Azarias, I have been told that she has already been given in marriage seven times and that each time her bridegroom has died in the bridal room. He died the same night as he entered her room; and I have heard people say it was a demon that killed them,'

Tob 6:15 and this makes me afraid. To her the demon does no harm because he loves her, but as soon as a man tries to approach her, he kills him. I am my father's only son, and I have no wish to die. I do not want my father and mother to grieve over me for the rest of their lives; they have no other son to bury them.'

Tob 6:16 The angel said, 'Have you forgotten your father's advice? After all, he urged you to choose a wife from your father's family. Listen then, brother. Do not worry about the demon; take her. This very evening, I promise, she will be given you as your wife.'

Tob 6:17 Then once you are in the bridal room, take the heart and liver of the fish and lay a little of it on the burning incense. The reek will rise,

Tob 6:18 the demon will smell it and flee, and there is no danger that he will ever be found near the girl again. Then, before you sleep together, first stand up, both of you, and pray. Ask the Lord of heaven to grant you his grace and protection. Do not be afraid; she was destined for you from the beginning, and you are the one to save her. She will follow you, and I pledge my word she will give you children who will be like brothers to you. Do not worry.' And when Tobias heard Raphael say this, when he understood that Sarah was his sister, a kinswoman of his father's family, he fell so deeply in love with her that he could no longer call his heart his own.

Tob 7:1 As they entered Ecbatana, Tobias said, 'Brother Azarias, take me at once to our brother Raguel's.' And he showed him the way to the house of Raguel, whom they found sitting beside his courtyard door. They greeted him first, and he replied, 'Welcome and greetings, brothers.' And he took them into his house.

Tob 7:2 He said to his wife Edna, 'How like my brother Tobit this young man is!'

Tob 7:3 Edna asked them where they came from; they said, 'We are sons of Naphtali exiled in Nineveh.'

Tob 7:4 'Do you know our brother Tobit?' 'Yes.' 'How is he?'

Tob 7:5 'He is alive and well.' And Tobias added, 'He is my father.'

Tob 7:6 Raguel leapt to his feet and kissed him and wept.

Tob 7:7 Then, finding words, he said, 'Blessings on you, child! You are the son of a noble father. How sad it is that someone so bright and full of good deeds should have gone blind!' He fell on the neck of his kinsman Tobias and wept.

Tob 7:8 And his wife Edna wept for him, and so did his daughter Sarah.

Tob 7:9 Raguel killed a ram from the flock, and they gave them a warm welcome. They washed and bathed and sat down to table. Then Tobias said to Raphael, 'Brother Azarias, will you ask Raguel to give me my sister Sarah?'

Tob 7:10 Raguel overheard the words, and said to the young man, 'Eat and drink, and make the most of your evening; no one else has the right to take my daughter Sarah -- no one but you, my brother. In any case even I am not at liberty to give her to anyone else, since you are her next of kin. However, my boy, I must be frank with you:

Tob 7:11 I have tried to find a husband for her seven times among our kinsmen, and all of them have died the first evening, on going to her room. But for the present, my boy, eat and drink; the Lord will grant you his grace and peace.' Tobias spoke out, 'I will not hear of eating and drinking till you have come to a decision about me.' Raguel answered, 'Very well. Since, by the prescription of the Book of Moses she is given to you, Heaven itself decrees she shall be yours. I therefore entrust your sister to you. From now on you are her brother and she is your sister. She is given to you from today for ever. The Lord of heaven favour you tonight, my child, and grant you his grace and peace.'

Tob 7:12 Raguel called for his daughter Sarah, took her by the hand and gave her to Tobias with these words, 'I entrust her to you; the law and the ruling recorded in the Book of Moses assign her to you as your wife. Take her; bring her home safe and sound to your father's house. The God of heaven grant you a good journey in peace.'

Tob 7:13 Then he turned to her mother and asked her to fetch him writing paper. He drew up the marriage contract, and so he gave his daughter as bride to Tobias according to the ordinance of the Law of Moses.

Tob 7:14 After this they began to eat and drink.

Tob 7:15 Raguel called his wife Edna and said, 'My sister, prepare the second room and take her there.'

Tob 7:16 She went and made the bed in this room as he had ordered, and took her daughter to it. She wept over her, then wiped away her tears and said, 'Courage, daughter! May the Lord of heaven turn your grief to joy! Courage, daughter!' And she went out.

Tob 8:1 When they had finished eating and drinking and it seemed time to go to bed, the young man was taken from the dining room to the bedroom.

Tob 8:2 Tobias remembered Raphael's advice; he went to his bag, took the fish's heart and liver out of it and put some on the burning incense.

Tob 8:3 The reek of the fish distressed the demon, who fled through the air to Egypt. Raphael pursued him there, shackled him and strangled him forthwith.

Tob 8:4 The parents meanwhile had gone out and shut the door behind them. Tobias rose from the bed, and said to Sarah, 'Get up, my sister! You and I must pray and petition our Lord to win his grace and his protection.'

Tob 8:5 She stood up, and they began praying for protection, and this was how he began: You are blessed, O God of our fathers; blessed too is your name for ever and ever. Let the heavens bless you and all things you have made for evermore.

Tob 8:6 You it was who created Adam, you who created Eve his wife to be his help and support; and from these two the human race was born. You it was who said, 'It is not right that the man should be alone; let us make him a helper like him.'

Tob 8:7 And so I take my sister not for any lustful motive, but I do it in singleness of heart. Be kind enough to have pity on her and on me and bring us to old age together.

Tob 8:8 And together they said, 'Amen, Amen.'

Tob 8:9 and lay down for the night. But Raguel rose and called his servants, who came and helped him dig a grave.

Tob 8:10 He had thought, 'Heaven grant he does not die! We should be overwhelmed with ridicule and shame.'

Tob 8:11 When the grave was ready, Raguel went back to the house, called his wife

Tob 8:12 and said, 'Will you send a maid to the room to see if Tobias is still alive? For if he is dead, we may be able to bury him without anyone else knowing.'

Tob 8:13 They sent the maid, lit the lamp, opened the door and the maid went in. She found the two fast asleep together;

Tob 8:14 she came out again and whispered, 'He is not dead; all is well.'

Tob 8:15 Then Raguel blessed the God of heaven with these words: You are blessed, my God, with every blessing that is pure; may you be blessed for evermore!

Tob 8:16 You are blessed for having made me glad. What I feared has not happened, instead you have shown us your boundless mercy.

Tob 8:17 You are blessed for taking pity on this only son, this only daughter. Grant them, Master, your mercy and your protection; let them live out their lives in happiness and in mercy.

Tob 8:18 And he made his servants fill the grave in before dawn broke.

Tob 8:19 He told his wife to make an ovenful of bread; he went to his flock, brought back two oxen and four sheep and gave orders for them to be cooked; and preparations began.

Tob 8:20 He called Tobias and said, 'I will not hear of your leaving here for a fortnight. You are to stay where you are, eating and drinking, with me. You will make my daughter happy again after all her troubles.'

Tob 8:21 After that, take away a half of all I have, and take her safe and sound back to your father. When my wife and I are dead you shall have the other half. Courage, my boy! I am your father, and Edna is your mother.

We are your parents in future, as we are your sister's. Courage, my son!

Tob 9:1 Then Tobias turned to Raphael.

Tob 9:2 'Brother Azarias,' he said, 'take four servants and two camels and leave for Rhages.'

Tob 9:3 Go to Gabael's house, give him the receipt and see about the money; then invite him to come with you to my wedding feast.

Tob 9:4 You know that my father must be counting the days and that I cannot lose a single one without worrying him.

Tob 9:5 You see what Raguel has pledged himself to do; I am bound by his oath.' So Raphael left for Rhages in Media with the four servants and two camels. They stayed with Gabael, and Raphael showed him the receipt. He told him about the marriage of Tobias son of Tobit and gave him his invitation to the wedding feast. Gabael started counting out the sacks to him -- the seals were intact -- and they loaded them on to the camels.

Tob 9:6 Early in the morning they set off together for the feast, and reached Raguel's house where they found Tobias dining. He rose to greet Gabael, who burst into tears and blessed him with the words, 'Excellent son of a father beyond reproach, just and generous in his dealings! The Lord give heaven's blessing to you, to your wife, to your wife's father and mother! Blessed be God for granting me the sight of this living image of my cousin Tobit!'

Tob 10:1 Every day, meanwhile, Tobit kept reckoning the days required for the journey there and the journey back. The full number went by, and still his son had not come.

Tob 10:2 Then he thought, 'I hope he has not been delayed there! I hope Gabael is not dead, so that no one will give him the silver.'

Tob 10:3 And he began to worry.

Tob 10:4 His wife Anna kept saying, 'My son is dead! He is no longer among the living!' And she began to weep and mourn over her son. She kept saying,

Tob 10:5 'Alas! I should never have let you leave me, my child, you, the light of my eyes.'

Tob 10:6 And Tobit would reply, 'Hush, my sister! Do not worry. All is well with him. Something has happened there to delay them. His companion is someone we can trust, one of our kinsmen at that. Do not lose heart, my sister.'

Tob 10:7 He will soon be here.' But all she would say was, 'Leave me alone; do not try to deceive me. My child is dead.' And every day she would go abruptly out to watch the road by which her son had left. She trusted no eyes but her own. Once the sun had set she would come home again, only to weep and moan all night, unable to sleep. After the fourteen days of feasting that Raguel had sworn to keep for his daughter's marriage, Tobias came to him and said, 'Let me go now; my father and mother must have lost all hope of seeing me again. So I beg you, father, to let me return to my father's house; I have told you the plight he was in when I left him.'

Tob 10:8 Raguel said to Tobias, 'Stay, my son, stay with me. I shall send messengers to your father Tobit to give him news of you.'

Tob 10:9 But Tobias pressed him, 'No, I beg you to let me go back to my father's house.'

Tob 10:10 Without more ado, Raguel committed Sarah his bride into his keeping. He gave Tobias half his wealth, slaves, men and women, oxen and sheep, donkeys and camels, clothes and money and household things.

Tob 10:11 And so he let them leave happily. To Tobias he said these parting words, 'Good health, my son, and a happy journey! May the Lord of heaven be gracious to you and to your wife Sarah! I hope to see your children before I die.'

Tob 10:12 To his daughter Sarah he said, 'Go now to your father-in-law's house, since henceforward they are as much your parents as those who gave you life. Go in peace, my daughter, I hope to hear nothing but good of you, as long as I live.' He said goodbye to them and let them go. Edna in her turn said to Tobias, 'Dear son and brother, may it please the Lord to bring you back again! I hope to live long enough to see the children of you and my daughter Sarah before I die. In the sight of the Lord I give my daughter into your keeping. Never make her unhappy as long as you live. Go in peace, my son. Henceforward I am your mother and Sarah is your sister. May we all live happily for the rest of our lives!' And she kissed them both and saw them set out happily.

Tob 10:13 Tobias left Raguel's house with his mind at ease. In his gladness he blessed the Lord of heaven and earth, the King of all that is, for the happy issue of his travels. He gave this blessing to Raguel and his wife Edna, 'May it be my happiness to honour you for the rest of my life!'

Tob 11:1 They were nearly at Kaserin, opposite Nineveh,

Tob 11:2 when Raphael said, 'You know the plight in which we left your father;

Tob 11:3 let us go on ahead of your wife and prepare the house ourselves while she travels behind with the others.'

Tob 11:4 They went on together (Raphael warned Tobias to take the gall with him) and the dog followed them.

Tob 11:5 Anna was sitting, watching the road by which her son would come.

Tob 11:6 She was sure at once it must be he and said to the father, 'Here comes your son, with his companion.'

Tob 11:7 Raphael said to Tobias before he reached his father, 'I give you my word that your father's eyes will open.

Tob 11:8 You must put the fish's gall to his eyes; the medicine will smart and will draw a filmy white skin off his eyes. And your father will no more be blind but will be able to see the light.'

Tob 11:9 The mother ran forward and threw her arms round her son's neck. 'Now I can die,' she said, 'I have seen you again.' And she wept.

Tob 11:10 Tobit rose to his feet and stumbled across the courtyard through the door. Tobias came on towards him

Tob 11:11 (he had the fish's gall in his hand). He blew into his eyes and said, steadying him, 'Take courage, father!' With this he applied the medicine, left it there a while,

Tob 11:12 then with both hands peeled away a filmy skin from the corners of his eyes.

Tob 11:13 Then his father fell on his neck

Tob 11:14 and wept. He exclaimed, 'I can see you, my son, the light of my eyes!' And he said: Blessed be God! Blessed be his great name! Blessed be all his holy angels! Blessed be his great name for evermore!

Tob 11:15 For, having afflicted me, he has had pity on me and now I see my son Tobias! Tobias went indoors, joyfully blessing God at the top of his voice. Then he told his father everything; how his journey had been successful and he had brought the silver back; how he had married Sarah the daughter of Raguel; how she was following him now, close behind, and could not be far from the gates of Nineveh.

Tob 11:16 Tobit set off to the gates of Nineveh to meet his daughter-in-law, giving joyful praise to God as he went. When the people of Nineveh saw him walking without a guide and stepping forward as briskly as of old, they were astonished.

Tob 11:17 Tobit described to them how God had taken pity on him and had opened his eyes. Then Tobit met Sarah the bride of his son Tobias, and blessed her in these words. 'Welcome, daughter! Blessed be your God for sending you to us, my daughter. Blessings on your father, blessings on my son Tobias, blessings on yourself, my daughter. Welcome now to your own house in joyfulness and in blessedness. Come in, my daughter.' That day brought joy to the Jews of Nineveh, Tob 11:18 and his cousins Ahikar and Nadab came to share in Tobit's happiness.

Tob 12:1 When the wedding feast was over, Tobit called his son Tobias and said, 'My son, you ought to think about paying the amount due to your fellow traveller; give him more than the figure agreed on.'

Tob 12:2 'Father,' he replied, 'how much am I to give him for his help? Even if I give him half the goods he brought back with me, I shall not be the loser.'

Tob 12:3 He has brought me back safe and sound, he has cured my wife, he has brought the money back too, and now he has cured you as well. How much am I to give him for all this?'

Tob 12:4 Tobit said, 'He has richly earned half what he brought back'.

Tob 12:5 So Tobias called his companion and said, 'Take half of what you brought back, in payment for all you have done, and go in peace.'

Tob 12:6 Then Raphael took them both aside and said, 'Bless God, utter his praise before all the living for the favour he has shown you. Bless and extol his name. Proclaim before all people the deeds of God as they deserve, and never tire of giving him thanks.'

Tob 12:7 It is right to keep the secret of a king, yet right to reveal and publish the works of God as they deserve. Do what is good, and no evil can befall you.

Tob 12:8 'Prayer with fasting and alms with uprightness are better than riches with iniquity. Better to practise almsgiving than to hoard up gold.'

Tob 12:9 Almsgiving saves from death and purges every kind of sin. Those who give alms have their fill of days; Tob 12:10 those who commit sin and do evil bring harm on themselves.

Tob 12:11 'I am going to tell you the whole truth, hiding nothing from you. I have already told you that it is right to keep the secret of a king, yet right too to reveal in a worthy way the words of God.'

Tob 12:12 So you must know that when you and Sarah were at prayer, it was I who offered your supplications before the glory of the Lord and who read them; so too when you were burying the dead.

Tob 12:13 When you did not hesitate to get up and leave the table to go and bury a dead man, I was sent to test your faith,

Tob 12:14 and at the same time God sent me to heal you and your daughter-in-law Sarah.

Tob 12:15 I am Raphael, one of the seven angels who stand ever ready to enter the presence of the glory of the Lord.'

Tob 12:16 They were both overwhelmed with awe; they fell on their faces in terror.

Tob 12:17 But the angel said, 'Do not be afraid; peace be with you. Bless God for ever.'

Tob 12:18 As far as I was concerned, when I was with you, my presence was not by any decision of mine, but by the will of God; he is the one whom you must bless as long as you live, he the one that you must praise.'

Tob 12:19 You thought you saw me eating, but that was appearance and no more.

Tob 12:20 Now bless the Lord on earth and give thanks to God. I am about to return to him who sent me from above. Write down all that has happened.' And he rose in the air.

Tob 12:21 When they stood up again, he was no longer visible. They praised God with hymns; they thanked him for having performed such wonders; had not an angel of God appeared to them?

Tob 13:1 And he said: Blessed be God who lives for ever, for his reign endures throughout all ages!

Tob 13:2 For he both punishes and pardons; he sends people down to the depths of the underworld and draws them up from utter Destruction; no one can escape his hand.

Tob 13:3 Declare his praise before the nations, you who are the children of Israel! For if he has scattered you among them,

Tob 13:4 there too he has shown you his greatness. Extol him before all the living; he is our Lord and he is our God; he is our Father, and he is God for ever and ever.

Tob 13:5 Though he punishes you for your iniquities, he will take pity on you all; he will gather you from every nation wherever you have been scattered.

Tob 13:6 If you return to him with all your heart and all your soul, behaving honestly towards him, then he will return to you and hide his face from you no longer. Consider how well he has treated you; loudly give him thanks. Bless the Lord of justice and extol the King of the ages. I for my part sing his praise in the country of my exile; I make his power and greatness known to a nation that has sinned. Sinners, return to him; let your conduct be upright before him; perhaps he will be gracious to you and take pity on you.

Tob 13:7 I for my part extol God and my soul rejoices in the King of heaven. Let his greatness

Tob 13:8 be on every tongue, his praises be sung in Jerusalem.

Tob 13:9 Jerusalem, Holy City, God has scourged you for what you have done but will still take pity on the children of the upright.

Tob 13:10 Thank the Lord as he deserves and bless the King of the ages, that your Temple may be rebuilt with joy within you; within you he may comfort every exile, and within you he may love all those who are distressed, for all generations to come.

Tob 13:11 A bright light will shine over all the regions of the earth; many nations will come from far away, from all the ends of the earth, to dwell close to the holy name of the Lord God, with gifts in their hands for the King of heaven. Within you, generation after generation will proclaim their joy, and the name of her who is Elect will endure through the generations to come.

Tob 13:12 Cursed be any who affront you, cursed be any who destroy you, who throw down your walls, who rase your towers, who burn your houses! Eternally blessed be he who rebuilds you!

Tob 13:13 Then you will exult, and rejoice over the children of the upright, for they will all have been gathered in and will bless the Lord of the ages.

Tob 13:14 Blessed are those who love you, blessed those who rejoice over your peace, blessed those who have mourned over all your punishment! For they will soon rejoice within you, witness all your blessedness in days to come.

Tob 13:15 My soul blesses the Lord, the great King

Tob 13:16 because Jerusalem will be built anew and his house for ever and ever. What bliss, if one of my family be left to see your glory and praise the King of heaven! The gates of Jerusalem will be built of sapphire and of emerald, and all your walls of precious stone, the towers of Jerusalem will be built of gold and their battlements of pure gold.

Tob 13:17 The streets of Jerusalem will be paved with ruby and with stones from Ophir; the gates of Jerusalem will resound with songs of exultation; and all her houses will say, 'Alleluia! Blessed be the God of Israel.' Within you they will bless the holy name for ever and ever.

Tob 14:1 The end of the hymns of Tobit. Tobit died when he was a hundred and twelve years old and received an honourable burial in Nineveh.

Tob 14:2 He had been sixty-two when he went blind; and after his cure, he lived in comfort, practising almsgiving and continually praising God and extolling his greatness.

Tob 14:3 When he was at the point of death he summoned his son Tobias and gave him these instructions,

Tob 14:4 'My son, take your children and hurry away to Media, since I believe the word of God pronounced over Nineveh by Nahum. Everything will come true, everything happen that the emissaries of God, the prophets of Israel, have predicted against Assyria and Nineveh; not one of their words will prove empty. It will all take place in due time. You will be safer in Media than in Assyria or in Babylon. Since I for my part know and believe that everything God has said will come true; so it will be, and not a word of the prophecies will fail. A census will be taken of our brothers living in the land of Israel and they will be exiled far from their own fair country. The entire territory of Israel will become a desert, and Samaria and Jerusalem will become a desert, and the house of God, for a time, will be laid waste and burnt.'

Tob 14:5 Then once again God will take pity on them and bring them back to the land of Israel. They will rebuild his house, although it will be less beautiful than the first, until the time is fulfilled. But after this, all will return from captivity and rebuild Jerusalem in all her glory, and the house of God will be rebuilt within her as the prophets of Israel have foretold.

Tob 14:6 And all the people of the whole earth will be converted and will reverence God with all sincerity. All will renounce their false gods who have led them astray into error,

Tob 14:7 and will bless the God of ages in uprightness. All the Israelites spared in those days will remember God in sincerity of heart. They will come and gather in Jerusalem and thereafter dwell securely in the land of Abraham, which will be theirs. And those who sincerely love God will rejoice. And those who commit sin and wickedness will vanish from the earth.

Tob 14:8 'And now, my children, I lay this duty on you; serve God sincerely, and do what is pleasing to him. And lay on your children the obligation to behave uprightly, to give alms, to keep God in mind and to bless his name always, sincerely and with all their might.'

Tob 14:9 'So then, my son, leave Nineveh, do not stay here.'

Tob 14:10 As soon as you have buried your mother next to me, go the same day, whenever it may be, and do not linger in this country where I see wickedness and perfidy unashamedly triumphant. Consider, my child, all the things done by Nadab to his foster-father Ahikar. Was not Ahikar forced to go underground, though still a living man? But God made the criminal pay for his outrage before his victim's eyes, since Ahikar came back to the light of day, while Nadab went down to everlasting darkness in punishment for plotting against Ahikar's life. Because of his good works Ahikar escaped the deadly snare Nadab had laid for him, and Nadab fell into it to his own ruin.

Tob 14:11 So, my children, you see what comes of almsgiving, and what wickedness leads to, I mean to death. But now breath fails me.' They laid him back on his bed; he died and was buried with honour.

Tob 14:12 When his mother died, Tobias buried her beside his father. Then he left for Media with his wife and children. He lived in Ecbatana with Raguel, his father-in-law.

Tob 14:13 He treated the ageing parents of his wife with every care and respect, and later buried them in Ecbatana in Media. Tobias inherited the patrimony of Raguel besides that of his father Tobit.

Tob 14:14 Much honoured, he lived to the age of a hundred and seventeen years.

Tob 14:15 Before he died he witnessed the ruin of Nineveh. He saw the Ninevites taken prisoner and deported to Media by Cyaxares king of Media. He blessed God for everything he inflicted on the Ninevites and Assyrians. Before his death he had the opportunity of rejoicing over the fate of Nineveh, and he blessed the Lord God for ever and ever. Amen.

Jdt 1:1 It was the twelfth year of Nebuchadnezzar who reigned over the Assyrians in the great city of Nineveh. Arphaxad was then reigning over the Medes in Ecbatana.

Jdt 1:2 He surrounded this city with walls of dressed stones three cubits thick and six cubits long, making the rampart seventy cubits high and fifty cubits wide.

Jdt 1:3 At the gates he placed towers one hundred cubits high and, at the foundations, sixty cubits wide,

Jdt 1:4 the gates themselves being seventy cubits high and forty wide to allow his forces to march out in a body and his infantry to parade freely.

Jdt 1:5 About this time King Nebuchadnezzar gave battle to King Arphaxad in the great plain lying in the territory of Ragae.

Jdt 1:6 Supporting him were all the peoples from the highlands, all from the Euphrates and Tigris and Hydaspes, and those from the plains who were subject to Arioch, king of the Elymaeans. Thus many nations had mustered to take part in the battle of the Cheleoudites.

Jdt 1:7 Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians sent a message to all the inhabitants of Persia, to all the inhabitants of the western countries, Cilicia, Damascus, Lebanon, Anti-Lebanon, to all those along the coast,

Jdt 1:8 to the peoples of Carmel, Gilead, Upper Galilee, the great plain of Esraelon,

Jdt 1:9 to the people of Samaria and its outlying towns, to those beyond Jordan, as far away as Jerusalem, Bethany, Chelous, Kadesh, the river of Egypt, Tahpanhes, Rameses and the whole territory of Goshen, Jdt 1:10 beyond Tanis too and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt as far as the frontiers of Ethiopia.

Jdt 1:11 But the inhabitants of these countries ignored the summons of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians and did not rally to him to make war. They were not afraid of him, since in their view he appeared isolated. Hence they sent his ambassadors back with nothing achieved and in disgrace.

Jdt 1:12 Nebuchadnezzar was furious with all these countries. He swore by his throne and kingdom to take revenge on all the territories of Cilicia, Damascus and Syria, of the Moabites and of the Ammonites, of Judaea and Egypt as far as the limits of the two seas, and to ravage them with the sword.

Jdt 1:13 In the seventeenth year, he gave battle with his whole army to King Arphaxad and in this battle defeated him. He routed Arphaxad's entire army and all his cavalry and chariots;

Jdt 1:14 he occupied his towns and advanced on Ecbatana; he seized its towers and plundered its market places, reducing its former magnificence to a mockery.

Jdt 1:15 He later captured Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragae and, thrusting him through with his spears, destroyed him once and for all.

Jdt 1:16 He then retired with his troops and all who had joined forces with him: a vast horde of armed men.

Then he and his army gave themselves up to carefree feasting for a hundred and twenty days.

Jdt 2:1 In the eighteenth year, on the twenty-second day of the first month, a rumour ran through the palace that Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians was to have his revenge on all the countries, as he had threatened.

Jdt 2:2 Summoning his general staff and senior officers, he held a secret conference with them, and with his own lips pronounced utter destruction on the entire area.

Jdt 2:3 It was then decreed that everyone should be put to death who had not answered the king's appeal.

Jdt 2:4 When the council was over, Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians sent for Holofernes, general-in-chief of his armies and subordinate only to himself. He said to him,

Jdt 2:5 'Thus speaks the Great King, lord of the whole world, "Go; take men of proven valour, about a hundred and twenty thousand foot soldiers and a strong company of horse with twelve thousand cavalrymen;

Jdt 2:6 then advance against all the western lands, since these people have disregarded my call.

Jdt 2:7 Bid them have earth and water ready, because in my rage I am about to march on them; the feet of my soldiers will cover the whole face of the earth, and I shall plunder it.

Jdt 2:8 Their wounded will fill the valleys and the torrents, and rivers, blocked with their dead, will overflow.

Jdt 2:9 I shall lead them captive to the ends of the earth.

Jdt 2:10 Now go! Begin by conquering this whole region for me. If they surrender to you, hold them for me until the time comes to punish them.

Jdt 2:11 But if they resist, look on no one with clemency, hand them over to slaughter and plunder throughout the territory entrusted to you.

Jdt 2:12 For by my life and by the living power of my kingdom I have spoken. All this I shall do by my power.

Jdt 2:13 And you, neglect none of your master's commands, act strictly according to my orders without further delay.' '

Jdt 2:14 Leaving the presence of his sovereign, Holofernes immediately summoned all the marshals, generals and officers of the Assyrian army

Jdt 2:15 and detailed the picked troops as his master had ordered, about a hundred and twenty thousand men and a further twelve thousand mounted archers.

Jdt 2:16 He organised these in the normal battle formation.

Jdt 2:17 He then secured vast numbers of camels, donkeys and mules to carry the baggage, and innumerable sheep, oxen and goats for food supplies.

Jdt 2:18 Every man received full rations and a generous sum of gold and silver from the king's purse.

Jdt 2:19 He then set out for the campaign with his whole army, in advance of King Nebuchadnezzar, to overwhelm the whole western region with his chariots, his horsemen and his picked body of foot.

Jdt 2:20 A motley gathering followed in his rear, as numerous as locusts or the grains of sand on the ground; there was no counting their multitude.

Jdt 2:21 Thus they set out from Nineveh and marched for three days towards the Plain of Bectileth. From Bectileth they went on to pitch camp near the mountains that lie to the north of Upper Cilicia.

Jdt 2:22 From there Holofernes advanced into the highlands with his whole army, infantry, horsemen, chariots.

Jdt 2:23 He cut his way through Put and Lud, carried away captive all the sons of Rassis and sons of Ishmael living on the verge of the desert south of Cheleon, Jdt 2:24 marched along the Euphrates, crossed Mesopotamia, rased all the fortified towns controlling the Wadi Abron and reached the sea.

Jdt 2:25 Next he attacked the territories of Cilicia, butchering all who offered him resistance, advanced on the southern frontiers of Japheth, facing Arabia,

Jdt 2:26 completely encircled the Midianites, burned their tents and plundered their sheep-folds,

Jdt 2:27 made his way down to the Damascus plain at the time of the wheat harvest, set fire to the fields, destroyed the flocks and herds, sacked the towns, laid the countryside waste and put all the young men to the sword.

Jdt 2:28 Fear and trembling seized all the coastal peoples; those of Sidon and Tyre, those of Sur, Ocina and Jamnia. The populations of Azotos and Ascalon were panic-stricken.

Jdt 3:1 They therefore sent envoys to him to sue for peace, to say,

Jdt 3:2 'We are servants of the great King Nebuchadnezzar; we lie prostrate before you. Treat us as you think fit.'

Jdt 3:3 Our cattle-farms, all our land, all our wheat fields, our flocks and herds, all the sheep-folds in our encampments are at your disposal. Do with them as you please.

Jdt 3:4 Our towns and their inhabitants too are at your service; go and treat them as you think fit.'

Jdt 3:5 These men came to Holofernes and delivered the message as above.

Jdt 3:6 He then made his way down to the coast with his army and stationed garrisons in all the fortified towns, levying outstanding men there as auxiliaries.

Jdt 3:7 The people of these cities and of all the other towns in the neighbourhood welcomed him, wearing garlands and dancing to the sound of tambourines.

Jdt 3:8 But he demolished their shrines and cut down their sacred trees, carrying out his commission to destroy all local gods so that the nations should worship Nebuchadnezzar alone and people of every language and nationality should hail him as a god.

Jdt 3:9 Thus he reached the edge of Esdraelon, in the neighbourhood of Dothan, a village facing the great ridge of Judaea.

Jdt 3:10 He pitched camp between Geba and Scythopolis and stayed there a full month to re-provision his forces.

Jdt 4:1 When the Israelites living in Judaea heard how Holofernes, general-in-chief of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, had treated the various nations, plundering their temples and destroying them,

Jdt 4:2 they were thoroughly alarmed at his approach and trembled for Jerusalem and the Temple of the Lord their God.

Jdt 4:3 They had returned from captivity only a short time before, and the resettlement of the people in Judaea and the reconsecration of the sacred furnishings, of the altar, and of the Temple, which had been profaned, were of recent date.

Jdt 4:4 They therefore alerted the whole of Samaria, Kona, Beth-Horon, Belmain, Jericho, Choba, Aesora and the Salem valley.

Jdt 4:5 They occupied the summits of the highest mountains and fortified the villages on them; they laid in supplies for the coming war, as the fields had just been harvested.

Jdt 4:6 Joakim the high priest, resident in Jerusalem at the time, wrote to the inhabitants of Bethulia and of Betomesthaim, two towns facing Esdraelon, towards the plain of Dothan.

Jdt 4:7 He ordered them to occupy the mountain passes, the only means of access to Judaea, for there it would be easy for them to halt an attacking force, the narrowness of the approach not allowing men to advance more than two abreast.

Jdt 4:8 The Israelites carried out the orders of Joakim the high priest and of the people's Council of Elders in session at Jerusalem.

Jdt 4:9 All the men of Israel cried most fervently to God and humbled themselves before him.

Jdt 4:10 They, their wives, their children, their cattle, all their resident aliens, hired or slave, wrapped sackcloth round their loins.

Jdt 4:11 All the Israelites in Jerusalem, including women and children, lay prostrate in front of the Temple, and with ashes on their heads stretched out their hands before the Lord.

Jdt 4:12 They draped the altar itself in sackcloth and fervently joined together in begging the God of Israel not to let their children be carried off, their wives distributed as booty, the towns of their heritage destroyed, the Temple profaned and desecrated for the heathen to gloat over.

Jdt 4:13 The Lord heard them and looked kindly on their distress. The people fasted for many days throughout Judaea as well as in Jerusalem before the sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

Jdt 4:14 Joakim the high priest and all who stood before the Lord, the Lord's priests and ministers, wore sackcloth round their loins as they offered the perpetual burnt offering and the votive and voluntary offerings of the people.

Jdt 4:15 With ashes on their turbans they earnestly called on the Lord to look kindly on the House of Israel.

Jdt 5:1 Holofernes, general-in-chief of the Assyrian army, received the intelligence that the Israelites were preparing for war, that they had closed the mountain passes, fortified all the high peaks and laid obstructions in the plains.

Jdt 5:2 Holofernes was furious. He summoned all the princes of Moab, all the generals of Ammon and all the satraps of the coastal regions.

Jdt 5:3 'Men of Canaan,' he said, 'tell me: what people is this that occupies the hill-country? What towns does it inhabit? How large is its army? What are the sources of its power and strength? Who is the king who rules it and commands its army?

Jdt 5:4 Why have they disdained to wait on me, as all the western peoples have?'

Jdt 5:5 Achior, leader of all the Ammonites, replied, 'May my lord be pleased to listen to what your servant is going to say. I shall give you the facts about these mountain folk whose home lies close to you. You will hear no lie from the mouth of your servant.'

Jdt 5:6 These people are descended from the Chaldaeans.

Jdt 5:7 They once came to live in Mesopotamia, because they did not want to follow the gods of their ancestors who lived in Chaldaea.

Jdt 5:8 They abandoned the way of their ancestors to worship the God of heaven, the God they learnt to acknowledge. Banished from the presence of their own gods, they fled to Mesopotamia where they lived for a long time.

Jdt 5:9 When God told them to leave their home and set out for Canaan, they settled there and accumulated gold and silver and great herds of cattle.

Jdt 5:10 Next, famine having overwhelmed the land of Canaan, they went down to Egypt where they stayed till they were well nourished. There they became a great multitude, a race beyond counting.

Jdt 5:11 But the king of Egypt turned against them and exploited them by forcing them to make bricks; he degraded them, reducing them to slavery.

Jdt 5:12 They cried to their God, who struck the entire land of Egypt with incurable plagues, and the Egyptians expelled them.

Jdt 5:13 God dried up the Red Sea before them

Jdt 5:14 and led them forward by way of Sinai and Kadesh-Barnea. Having driven off all the inhabitants of the desert,

Jdt 5:15 they settled in the land of the Amorites and in their strength exterminated the entire population of Heshbon. Then, having crossed the Jordan, they took possession of all the hill-country,

Jdt 5:16 driving out the Canaanites before them and the Perizzites, Jebusites, Shechemites and all the Gergashites, and lived there for many years.

Jdt 5:17 All the while they did not sin before their God, prosperity was theirs, for they have a God who hates wickedness.

Jdt 5:18 But when they turned from the path he had marked out for them some were exterminated in a series of battles, others were taken captive to a foreign land. The Temple of their God was rased to the ground and their towns were seized by their enemies.

Jdt 5:19 Then having turned once again to their God, they came back from the places to which they had been dispersed and scattered, regained possession of Jerusalem, where they have their Temple, and reoccupied the hill-country which had been left deserted.

Jdt 5:20 So, now, master and lord, if this people has committed any fault, if they have sinned against their God, let us first be sure that they really have this reason to fail, then advance and attack them.

Jdt 5:21 But if their nation is guiltless, my lord would do better to abstain, for fear that their Lord and God should protect them. We should then become the laughing-stock of the whole world.'

Jdt 5:22 When Achior had ended this speech, all the people crowding round the tent began protesting.

Holofernes' own senior officers, as well as all the coastal peoples and the Moabites, threatened to tear him limb from limb.

Jdt 5:23 'Why should we be afraid of the Israelites? They are a weak and powerless people, quite unable to stand a stiff attack.

Jdt 5:24 Forward! Advance! Your army, Holofernes our master, will swallow them in one mouthful!'

Jdt 6:1 When the uproar of those crowding round the council had subsided, Holofernes, general-in-chief of the Assyrian army, reprimanded Achior in front of the whole crowd of foreigners and Ammonites.

Jdt 6:2 'Achior, who do you think you are, you and the Ephraimite mercenaries, playing the prophet like this with us today, and trying to dissuade us from making war on the people of Israel? You claim their God will protect them. And who is God if not Nebuchadnezzar? He himself will display his power and wipe them off the face of the earth, and their God will certainly not save them.'

Jdt 6:3 But we, his servants, shall destroy them as easily as a single individual. They can never resist the strength of our cavalry.

Jdt 6:4 We shall burn them all. Their mountains will be drunk with their blood and their plains filled with their corpses. Far from being able to resist us, every one of them will die; thus says King Nebuchadnezzar, lord of the whole world. For he has spoken, and his words will not prove empty.'

Jdt 6:5 As for you, Achior, you Ammonite mercenary, who in a rash moment said these words, you will not see my face again until the day when I have taken my revenge on this brood from Egypt.

Jdt 6:6 And then the swords of my soldiers and the spears of my officers will pierce your sides. You will fall among their wounded, the moment I turn on Israel.'

Jdt 6:7 My servants will now take you into the hill-country and leave you near one of the towns in the passes;

Jdt 6:8 you will not die, until you share their ruin.'

Jdt 6:9 No need to look so sad if you cherish the secret hope that they will not be captured! I have spoken; none of my words will prove idle.'

Jdt 6:10 Holofernes having commanded his tent-orderlies to seize Achior, to take him to Bethulia and to hand him over to the Israelites,

Jdt 6:11 the orderlies took him, escorted him out of the camp and across the plain, and then, making for the hill-country, reached the springs below Bethulia.

Jdt 6:12 As soon as the men of the town sighted them, they snatched up their weapons, left the town and made for the mountain tops, while all the slingers pelted them with stones to prevent them from coming up.

Jdt 6:13 However, they managed to take cover at the foot of the slope, where they bound Achior and left him lying at the bottom of the mountain and returned to their master.

Jdt 6:14 The Israelites then came down from their town, stopped by him, unbound him and took him to Bethulia, where they brought him before the chief men of the town,

Jdt 6:15 who at that time were Uzziah son of Micah of the tribe of Simeon, Chabris son of Gothoni and Charmis son of Melchiel.

Jdt 6:16 These summoned all the elders of the town. The young men and the women also hurried to the assembly. Achior was made to stand with all the people surrounding him, and Uzziah questioned him about what had happened.

Jdt 6:17 He answered by telling them what had been said at Holofernes' council, and what he himself had said in the presence of the Assyrian leaders, and how Holofernes had bragged of what he would do to the House of Israel.

Jdt 6:18 At this the people fell to the ground and worshipped God.

Jdt 6:19 'Lord God of heaven,' they cried, 'take notice of their arrogance and have pity on the humiliation of our race. Look kindly today on those who are consecrated to you.'

Jdt 6:20 They then spoke reassuringly to Achior and praised him warmly.

Jdt 6:21 After the assembly Uzziah took him home and gave a banquet for the elders; all that night they called on the God of Israel for help.

Jdt 7:1 The following day Holofernes issued orders to his whole army and to the whole host of auxiliaries who had joined him, to break camp and march on Bethulia, to occupy the mountain passes and so open the campaign against the Israelites.

Jdt 7:2 The troops broke camp that same day. The actual fighting force numbered one hundred and twenty thousand infantry and twelve thousand cavalry, not to mention the baggage train with the vast number of men on foot concerned with that.

Jdt 7:3 They penetrated the valley in the neighbourhood of Bethulia, near the spring, and deployed on a wide front from Dothan to Balbaim and, in depth, from Bethulia to Cyamon, which faces Esdraelon.

Jdt 7:4 When the Israelites saw this horde, they were all appalled and said to each other, 'Now they will lick the whole country clean. Not even the loftiest peaks, the gorges or the hills will be able to stand the weight of them.'

Jdt 7:5 Each man snatched up his arms; they lit beacons on their towers and spent the whole night on watch.

Jdt 7:6 On the second day Holofernes deployed his entire cavalry in sight of the Israelites in Bethulia.

Jdt 7:7 He reconnoitred the slopes leading up to the town, located the water-points, seized them and posted pickets over them and returned to the main body.

Jdt 7:8 The chieftains of the sons of Esau, all the leaders of the Moabites and the generals of the coastal district then came to him and said,

Jdt 7:9 'If our master will be pleased to listen to us, his forces will not sustain a single wound.

Jdt 7:10 These Israelites do not rely so much on their spears as on the height of the mountains where they live. And admittedly it is not at all easy to scale these heights of theirs.

Jdt 7:11 'This being the case, master, avoid engaging them in a pitched battle and then you will not lose a single man.

Jdt 7:12 Stay in camp, keep all your troops there too, while your servants seize the spring which rises at the foot of the mountain,

Jdt 7:13 since that is what provides the population of Bethulia with their water supply. Thirst will then force them to surrender their town. Meanwhile, we and our men will climb the nearest mountain tops and form advance posts there to prevent anyone from leaving the town.

Jdt 7:14 Hunger will waste them, with their wives and children, and before the sword can reach them they will already be lying in the streets outside their houses.

Jdt 7:15 And you will make them pay dearly for their defiance and their refusal to meet you peaceably.'

Jdt 7:16 Their words pleased Holofernes as well as all his officers, and he decided to do as they suggested.

Jdt 7:17 Accordingly, a troop of Moabites moved forward with a further five thousand Assyrians. They penetrated the valley and seized the Israelites' waterpoints and springs.

Jdt 7:18 Meanwhile the Edomites and Ammonites went and took up positions in the highlands opposite Dothan, sending some of their men to the south-east opposite Egrebel near Chous on the Wadi Mochmur. The rest of the Assyrian army took up positions in the plain, covering every inch of the ground; their tents and equipment made an immense encampment, so vast were their numbers.

Jdt 7:19 The Israelites called on the Lord their God, dispirited because the enemy had surrounded them and cut all line of retreat.

Jdt 7:20 For thirty-four days the Assyrian army, infantry, chariots, cavalrymen, had them surrounded. Every water-jar the inhabitants of Bethulia had was empty, Jdt 7:21 their storage-wells were drying up; on no day could a man drink his fill, since their water was rationed.

Jdt 7:22 Their little children pined away, the women and young men grew weak with thirst; they collapsed in the streets and gateways of the town; they had no strength left.

Jdt 7:23 Young men, women, children, the whole people thronged clamouring round Uzziah and the chief men of the town, shouting in the presence of the assembled elders, Jdt 7:24 'May God be judge between you and us! For you have done us great harm, by not suing for peace with the Assyrians.

Jdt 7:25 And now there is no one to help us. God has delivered us into their hands to be prostrated before them in thirst and utter helplessness.

Jdt 7:26 Call them in at once; hand the whole town over to be sacked by Holofernes' men and all his army.

Jdt 7:27 After all, we should be much better off as their booty than we are now; no doubt we shall be enslaved, but at least we shall be alive and not see our little ones dying before our eyes or our wives and children perishing.

Jdt 7:28 By heaven and earth and by our God, the Lord of our fathers, who is punishing us for our sins and the sins of our ancestors, we implore you to take this course now, today.'

Jdt 7:29 Bitter lamentations rose from the whole assembly, and they all cried loudly to the Lord God.

Jdt 7:30 Then Uzziah spoke to them, 'Take heart, brothers! Let us hold out five days more. By then the Lord our God will take pity on us, for he will not desert us altogether.

Jdt 7:31 At the end of this time, if no help is forthcoming, I shall do as you have said.'

Jdt 7:32 With that he dismissed the people to their various quarters. The men went to man the walls and towers of the town, sending the women and children home. The town was full of despondency.

Jdt 8:1 Judith was informed at the time of what had happened. She was the daughter of Merari son of Ox, son of Joseph, son of Oziel, son of Elkiah, son of Ananias, son of Gideon, son of Raphaim, son of Ahitub, son of Elijah, son of Hilkiah, son of Eliab, son of Nathanael, son of Salamiel, son of Sarasadai, son of Israel.

Jdt 8:2 Her husband Manasseh, of her own tribe and family, had died at the time of the barley harvest.

Jdt 8:3 He was supervising the men as they bound up the sheaves in the field when he caught sunstroke and had to take to his bed. He died in Bethulia, his home town, and was buried with his ancestors in the field that lies between Dothan and Balamon.

Jdt 8:4 As a widow, Judith stayed inside her home for three years and four months.

Jdt 8:5 She had had an upper room built for herself on the roof. She wore sackcloth next to the skin and dressed in widow's weeds.

Jdt 8:6 She fasted every day of her widowhood except for the Sabbath eve, the Sabbath itself, the eve of New Moon, the feast of New Moon and the joyful festivals of the House of Israel.

Jdt 8:7 Now she was very beautiful, charming to see. Her husband Manasseh had left her gold and silver, menservants and maidservants, herds and land; and she lived among all her possessions

Jdt 8:8 without anyone finding a word to say against her, so devoutly did she fear God.

Jdt 8:9 Hearing how the water shortage had demoralised the people and how they had complained bitterly to the headman of the town, and being also told what Uzziah had said to them and how he had given them his oath to surrender the town to the Assyrians in five days' time,

Jdt 8:10 Judith immediately sent the serving-woman who ran her household to summon Chabris and Charmis, two elders of the town.

Jdt 8:11 When these came in she said: 'Listen to me, leaders of the people of Bethulia. You were wrong to speak to the people as you did today and to bind yourself by oath, in defiance of God, to surrender the town to our enemies if the Lord did not come to your help within a set number of days.

Jdt 8:12 Who are you, to put God to the test today, you, of all people, to set yourselves above him?

Jdt 8:13 You put the Lord Almighty to the test! You do not understand anything, and never will.

Jdt 8:14 If you cannot sound the depths of the human heart or unravel the arguments of the human mind, how can you fathom the God who made all things, or sound his mind or unravel his purposes? No, brothers, do not provoke the anger of the Lord our God.

Jdt 8:15 Although it may not be his will to help us within the next five days, he has the power to protect us for as many days as he pleases, just as he has the power to destroy us before our enemies.

Jdt 8:16 But you have no right to demand guarantees where the designs of the Lord our God are concerned. For God is not to be threatened as a human being is, nor is he, like a mere human, to be cajoled.

Jdt 8:17 Rather, as we wait patiently for him to save, let us plead with him to help us. He will hear our voice if such is his good pleasure.

Jdt 8:18 'And indeed of recent times and still today there is not one tribe of ours, or family, or village, or town that has worshipped gods made by human hand, as once was done,

Jdt 8:19 which was the reason why our ancestors were delivered over to sword and sack, and perished in misery at the hands of our enemies.

Jdt 8:20 We for our part acknowledge no other God but him; and so we may hope he will not look on us disdainfully or desert our nation.

Jdt 8:21 'If indeed they capture us, as you expect, then all Judaea will be captured too, and our holy places plundered, and we shall answer with our blood for their profanation.'

Jdt 8:22 The slaughter of our brothers, the captivity of our country, the unpeopling of our heritage, will recoil on our own heads among the nations whose slaves we shall become, and our new masters will look down on us as an outrage and a disgrace;

Jdt 8:23 for our surrender will not reinstate us in their favour; no, the Lord our God will make it a thing to be ashamed of.

Jdt 8:24 So now, brothers, let us set an example to our brothers, since their lives depend on us, and the sanctuary -- Temple and altar -- rests on us.

Jdt 8:25 'All this being so, let us rather give thanks to the Lord our God who, as he tested our ancestors, is now testing us.'

Jdt 8:26 Remember how he treated Abraham, all the ordeals of Isaac, all that happened to Jacob in Syrian Mesopotamia while he kept the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother.

Jdt 8:27 For as these ordeals were intended by him to search their hearts, so now this is not vengeance that God is exacting on us, but a warning inflicted by the Lord on those who are near his heart.'

Jdt 8:28 Uzziah replied, 'Everything you have just said comes from an honest heart and no one will contradict a word of it.'

Jdt 8:29 Not that today is the first time your wisdom has been displayed; from your earliest years all the people have known how shrewd you are and of how sound a heart.

Jdt 8:30 But, parched with thirst, the people forced us to act as we had promised them and to bind ourselves by an inviolable oath.

Jdt 8:31 You are a devout woman; pray to the Lord, then, to send us a downpour to fill our storage-wells, so that our faintness may pass.'

Jdt 8:32 Judith replied, 'Listen to me, I intend to do something, the memory of which will be handed down to the children of our race from age to age.'

Jdt 8:33 Tonight you must be at the gate of the town. I shall make my way out with my attendant. Before the time fixed by you for surrendering the town to our enemies, the Lord will make use of me to rescue Israel.

Jdt 8:34 You must not ask what I intend to do; I shall not tell you until I have done it.'

Jdt 8:35 Uzziah and the chief men said, 'Go in peace. May the Lord show you a way to take revenge on our enemies.'

Jdt 8:36 And leaving the upper room they went back to their posts.

Jdt 9:1 Judith threw herself face to the ground, scattered ashes on her head, undressed as far as the sackcloth she was wearing and cried loudly to the Lord. At the same time in Jerusalem the evening incense was being offered in the Temple of God. Judith said:

Jdt 9:2 Lord, God of my ancestor Simeon, you armed him with a sword to take vengeance on the foreigners who had undone a virgin's belt to her shame, laid bare her thigh to her confusion, violated her womb to her dishonour, since, though you said, 'This must not be,' they did it.

Jdt 9:3 For this you handed their leaders over to slaughter, and their bed, defiled by their treachery, was itself betrayed in blood. You struck the slaves with the chieftains and the chieftains with their retainers.

Jdt 9:4 You left their wives to be carried off, their daughters to be taken captive, and their spoils to be shared out among the sons you loved, who had been so zealous for you, had loathed the stain put on their blood and called on you for help. O God, my God, now hear this widow too;

Jdt 9:5 for you have made the past, and what is happening now, and what will follow. What is, what will be, you have planned; what has been, you designed.

Jdt 9:6 Your purposes stood forward; 'See, here we are!' they said. For all your ways are prepared and your judgements delivered with foreknowledge.

Jdt 9:7 See the Assyrians, with their army abounding glorying in their horses and their riders, exulting in the strength of their infantry. Trust as they may in shield and spear, in bow and sling, in you they have not recognised the Lord, the breaker of battle-lines;

Jdt 9:8 yours alone is the title of Lord. Break their violence with your might, in your anger bring down their strength. For they plan to profane your holy places, to defile the tabernacle, the resting place of your glorious name, and to hack down the horn of your altar.

Jdt 9:9 Observe their arrogance, send your fury on their heads, give the strength I have in mind to this widow's hand.

Jdt 9:10 By guile of my lips strike down slave with master, and master with retainer. Break their pride by a woman's hand.

Jdt 9:11 Your strength does not lie in numbers, nor your might in strong men; since you are the God of the humble, the help of the oppressed, the support of the weak, the refuge of the forsaken, the Saviour of the despairing.

Jdt 9:12 Please, please, God of my father, God of the heritage of Israel, Master of heaven and earth, Creator of the waters, King of your whole creation, hear my prayer.

Jdt 9:13 Give me a beguiling tongue to wound and kill those who have formed such cruel designs against your covenant, against your holy dwelling-place, against Mount Zion, against the house belonging to your sons.

Jdt 9:14 And demonstrate to every nation, every tribe, that you are the Lord, God of all power, all might, and that the race of Israel has no protector but you.

Jdt 10:1 Thus Judith called on the God of Israel. When she had finished praying, Jdt 10:2 she got up from the floor, summoned her maid and went down into the rooms which she used on Sabbath days and festivals.

Jdt 10:3 There she removed the sackcloth she was wearing and taking off her widow's dress, she washed all over, anointed herself plentifully with perfumes, dressed her hair, wrapped a turban round it and put on the robe of joy she used to wear when her husband Manasseh was alive.

Jdt 10:4 She put sandals on her feet, put on her necklaces, bracelets, rings, earrings and all her jewellery, and made herself beautiful enough to beguile the eye of any man who saw her.

Jdt 10:5 Then she handed her maid a skin of wine and a flask of oil, filled a bag with barley girdle-cakes, cakes of dried fruit and pure loaves, and wrapping all these provisions up gave them to her as well.

Jdt 10:6 They then went out, making for the town gate of Bethulia. There they found Uzziah waiting with the two elders of the town, Chabris and Charmis.

Jdt 10:7 When they saw Judith, her face so changed and her clothes so different, they were lost in admiration of her beauty. They said to her:

Jdt 10:8 May the God of our ancestors keep you in his favour! May he crown your designs with success to the glory of the children of Israel, to the greater glory of Jerusalem!

Jdt 10:9 Judith worshipped God, and then she said, 'Have the town gate opened for me so that I can go out and fulfil all the wishes you expressed to me.' They did as she asked and gave orders to the young men to open the gate for her.

Jdt 10:10 This done, Judith went out accompanied by her maid, while the men of the town watched her all the way down the mountain and across the valley, until they lost sight of her.

Jdt 10:11 As the women were making straight through the valley, an advance unit of Assyrians intercepted them,

Jdt 10:12 and, seizing Judith, began to question her. 'Which side are you on? Where do you come from? Where are you going?' 'I am a daughter of the Hebrews,' she replied, 'and I am fleeing from them since they will soon be your prey.'

Jdt 10:13 I am on my way to see Holofernes, the general of your army, to give him trustworthy information. I shall show him the road to take if he wants to capture all the hill-country without losing one man or one life.'

Jdt 10:14 As the men listened to what she was saying, they stared in astonishment at the sight of such a beautiful woman.

Jdt 10:15 'It will prove the saving of you,' they said to her, 'coming down to see our master of your own accord. You had better go to his tent; some of our men will escort you and hand you over to him.'

Jdt 10:16 Once you are in his presence do not be afraid. Tell him what you have just told us and you will be well treated.'

Jdt 10:17 They then detailed a hundred of their men as escort for herself and her attendant, and these led them to the tent of Holofernes.

Jdt 10:18 News of her coming had already spread through the tents, and there was a general stir in the camp. She was still outside the tent of Holofernes waiting to be announced, when a crowd began forming round her.

Jdt 10:19 They were immediately impressed by her beauty and impressed with the Israelites because of her. 'Who could despise a people who have women like this?' they kept saying. 'Better not leave one of them alive; let any go and they could twist the whole world round their fingers!'

Jdt 10:20 The bodyguard and adjutants of Holofernes then came out and led Judith into the tent.

Jdt 10:21 Holofernes was resting on his bed under a canopy of purple and gold studded with emeralds and precious stones.

Jdt 10:22 The men announced her and he came out to the entrance to the tent, with silver torches carried before him.

Jdt 10:23 When Judith confronted the general and his adjutant, the beauty of her face astonished them all. She fell on her face and did homage to him, but his servants raised her from the ground.

Jdt 11:1 'Courage, woman,' Holofernes said, 'do not be afraid. I have never hurt anyone who chose to serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of the whole world.'

Jdt 11:2 Even now, if your nation of mountain dwellers had not insulted me, I would not have raised a spear against them. This was their fault, not mine.

Jdt 11:3 But tell me, why have you fled from them and come to us? . . . Anyhow, this will prove the saving of you. Courage! You will live through this night, and many after.

Jdt 11:4 No one will hurt you. On the contrary, you will be treated as well as any who serve my lord King Nebuchadnezzar.'

Jdt 11:5 Judith said, 'Please listen favourably to what your slave has to say. Permit your servant to speak in your presence, I shall speak no word of a lie to my lord tonight.'

Jdt 11:6 You have only to follow your servant's advice and God will bring your work to a successful conclusion; in what my lord undertakes he will not fail.

Jdt 11:7 Long life to Nebuchadnezzar, king of the whole world, who has sent you to set every living soul to rights; may his power endure! Since, thanks to you, he is served not only by human beings, but because of your might the wild animals themselves, the cattle, and the birds of the air are to live in the service of Nebuchadnezzar and his whole House.

Jdt 11:8 'We have indeed heard of your genius and adroitness of mind. It is known everywhere in the world that throughout the empire you have no rival for ability, wealth of experience and brilliance in waging war.'

Jdt 11:9 We have also heard what Achior said in his speech to your council. The men of Bethulia having spared him, he has told them everything that he said to you.

Jdt 11:10 Now, master and lord, do not disregard what he said; keep it in your mind, since it is true; our nation will not be punished, the sword will indeed have no power over them, unless they sin against their God.

Jdt 11:11 But as it is, my lord need expect no repulse or setback, since death is about to fall on their heads, for sin has gained a hold over them, provoking the anger of their God each time that they commit it.

Jdt 11:12 As they are short of food and their water is giving out, they have resolved to fall back on their cattle and decided to make use of all the things that God has, by his laws, forbidden them to eat.

Jdt 11:13 Not only have they made up their minds to eat the first-fruits of corn and the tithes of wine and oil, though these have been consecrated by them and set apart for the priests who serve in Jerusalem in the presence of our God, and may not lawfully even be handled by ordinary people,

Jdt 11:14 but they have sent men to Jerusalem -- where the inhabitants are doing much the same -- to bring them back authorisation from the Council of Elders.

Jdt 11:15 Now this will be the outcome: when the permission arrives and they act on it, that very day they will be delivered over to you for destruction.

Jdt 11:16 'When I, your servant, came to know all this, I fled from them. God has sent me to do things with you at which the world will be astonished when it hears.'

Jdt 11:17 Your servant is a devout woman; she honours the God of heaven day and night. I therefore propose, my lord, to stay with you. I, your servant, shall go out every night into the valley and pray to God to let me know when they have committed their sin.'

Jdt 11:18 I shall then come and tell you, so that you can march out with your whole army; and none of them will be able to resist you.'

Jdt 11:19 I shall be your guide right across Judaea until you reach Jerusalem; there I shall enthrone you in the very middle of the city. And then you can round them up like shepherd-less sheep, with never a dog daring to bark at you. Foreknowledge tells me this; this has been foretold to me and I have been sent to reveal it to you.'

Jdt 11:20 Her words pleased Holofernes, and all his adjutants. Full of admiration at her wisdom they exclaimed,

Jdt 11:21 'There is no woman like her from one end of the earth to the other, so lovely of face and so wise of speech!'

Jdt 11:22 Holofernes said, 'God has done well to send you ahead of the others. Strength will be ours, and ruin theirs who have insulted my lord.'

Jdt 11:23 As for you, you are as beautiful as you are eloquent; if you do as you have promised, your God shall be my God, and you yourself shall make your home in the palace of King Nebuchadnezzar and be famous throughout the world.'

Jdt 12:1 With that he had her brought in to where his silver dinner service was already laid, and had his own food served to her and his own wine poured out for her.

Jdt 12:2 But Judith said, 'I would rather not eat this, in case I incur some fault. What I have brought will be enough for me.'

Jdt 12:3 'Suppose your provisions run out,' Holofernes asked, 'how could we get more of the same sort? We have no one belonging to your race here.'

Jdt 12:4 'May your soul live, my lord,' Judith answered, 'the Lord will have used me to accomplish his plan, before your servant has finished these provisions.'

Jdt 12:5 Holofernes' adjutants then took her to a tent where she slept until midnight. A little before the morning watch, she got up.

Jdt 12:6 She had already sent this request to Holofernes, 'Let my lord kindly give orders for your servant to be allowed to go out and pray,'

Jdt 12:7 and Holofernes had ordered his guards not to prevent her. She stayed in the camp for three days; she went out each night to the valley of Bethulia and washed at the spring where the picket had been posted.

Jdt 12:8 As she went she prayed to the Lord God of Israel to guide her in her plan to relieve the children of her people.

Jdt 12:9 Having purified herself, she would return and stay in her tent until her meal was brought her in the evening.

Jdt 12:10 On the fourth day Holofernes gave a banquet, inviting only his own staff and none of the other officers.

Jdt 12:11 He said to Bagoas, the officer in charge of his personal affairs, 'Go and persuade that Hebrew woman you are looking after to come and join us and eat and drink in our company.'

Jdt 12:12 We shall be disgraced if we let a woman like this go without seducing her. If we do not seduce her, everyone will laugh at us!'

Jdt 12:13 Bagoas then left Holofernes and went to see Judith. 'Would this young and lovely woman condescend to come to my lord?' he asked. 'She will occupy the seat of honour opposite him, drink the joyful wine with us and be treated today like one of the Assyrian ladies who stand in the palace of Nebuchadnezzar.'

Jdt 12:14 'Who am I', Judith replied, 'to resist my lord? I shall not hesitate to do whatever he wishes, and doing this will be my joy to my dying day.'

Jdt 12:15 So she got up and put on her dress and all her feminine adornments. Her maid preceded her, and on the floor in front of Holofernes spread the fleece which Bagoas had given Judith for her daily use to lie on as she ate.

Jdt 12:16 Judith came in and took her place. The heart of Holofernes was ravished at the sight; his very soul was stirred. He was seized with a violent desire to sleep with her; and indeed since the first day he saw her, he had been waiting for an opportunity to seduce her.

Jdt 12:17 'Drink then!' Holofernes said. 'Enjoy yourself with us!'

Jdt 12:18 'I am delighted to do so, my lord, for since my birth I have never felt my life more worthwhile than today.'

Jdt 12:19 She took what her maid had prepared, and ate and drank facing him.

Jdt 12:20 Holofernes was so enchanted with her that he drank far more wine than he had drunk on any other day in his life.

Jdt 13:1 It grew late and his staff hurried away. Bagoas closed the tent from the outside, having shown out those who still lingered in his lord's presence. They went to their beds wearied with too much drinking,

Jdt 13:2 and Judith was left alone in the tent with Holofernes who had collapsed wine-sodden on his bed.

Jdt 13:3 Judith then told her maid to stay just outside the bedroom and wait for her to come out, as she did every morning. She had let it be understood she would be going out to her prayers and had also spoken of her intention to Bagoas.

Jdt 13:4 By now everyone had left Holofernes, and no one, either important or unimportant, was left in the bedroom. Standing beside the bed, Judith murmured to herself: Lord God, to whom all strength belongs, prosper what my hands are now to do for the greater glory of Jerusalem;

Jdt 13:5 now is the time to recover your heritage and to further my plans to crush the enemies arrayed against us.

Jdt 13:6 With that she went up to the bedpost by Holofernes' head and took down his scimitar;

Jdt 13:7 coming closer to the bed she caught him by the hair and said, 'Make me strong today, Lord God of Israel!'

Jdt 13:8 Twice she struck at his neck with all her might, and cut off his head.

Jdt 13:9 She then rolled his body off the bed and pulled down the canopy from the bedposts. After which, she went out and gave the head of Holofernes to her maid

Jdt 13:10 who put it in her food bag. The two then left the camp together, as they always did when they went to pray. Once they were out of the camp, they skirted the ravine, climbed the slope to Bethulia and made for the gates.

Jdt 13:11 From a distance, Judith shouted to the guards on the gates, 'Open the gate! Open! For the Lord our God is with us still, displaying his strength in Israel and his might against our enemies, as he has done today!'

Jdt 13:12 Hearing her voice, the townsmen hurried down to the town gate and summoned the elders.

Jdt 13:13 Everyone, great and small, came running down, since her arrival was unexpected. They threw the gate open, welcomed the women, lit a fire to see by and crowded round them.

Jdt 13:14 Then Judith raised her voice and said, 'Praise God! Praise him! Praise the God who has not withdrawn his mercy from the House of Israel, but has shattered our enemies by my hand tonight!'

Jdt 13:15 She pulled the head out of the bag and held it for them to see. 'This is the head of Holofernes, general-in-chief of the Assyrian army; here is the canopy under which he lay drunk! The Lord has struck him down by the hand of a woman!'

Jdt 13:16 Glory to the Lord who has protected me in the course I took! My face seduced him, only to his own undoing; he committed no sin with me to shame me or disgrace me.'

Jdt 13:17 Overcome with emotion, the people all prostrated themselves and worshipped God, exclaiming with one voice, 'Blessings on you, our God, for confounding your people's enemies today!'

Jdt 13:18 Uzziah then said to Judith: May you be blessed, my daughter, by God Most High, beyond all women on earth; and blessed be the Lord God, Creator of heaven and earth, who guided you to cut off the head of the leader of our enemies!

Jdt 13:19 The trust which you have shown will not pass from human hearts, as they commemorate the power of God for evermore.

Jdt 13:20 God grant you may be always held in honour and rewarded with blessings, since you did not consider your own life when our nation was brought to its knees, but warded off our ruin, walking in the right path before our God. And the people all said, 'Amen! Amen!'

Jdt 14:1 Judith said, 'Listen to me, brothers. Take this head and hang it on your battlements.

Jdt 14:2 When morning comes and the sun is up, let every man take his arms and every able-bodied man leave the town. Appoint a leader for them, as if you meant to march down to the plain against the Assyrian advanced post. But you must not do this.

Jdt 14:3 The Assyrians will gather up their equipment, make for their camp and wake up their commanders; they in turn will rush to the tent of Holofernes and not be able to find him. They will then be seized with panic and flee at your advance.

Jdt 14:4 All you and the others who live in the territory of Israel will have to do is to give chase and slaughter them as they retreat.

Jdt 14:5 'But before you do this, call me Achior the Ammonite, for him to see and identify the man who held the House of Israel in contempt, the man who sent him to us as someone already doomed to die.'

Jdt 14:6 So they had Achior brought from Uzziah's house. No sooner had he arrived and seen the head of Holofernes held by a member of the people's assembly than he fell on his face in a faint.

Jdt 14:7 They lifted him up. He then threw himself at Judith's feet and, prostrate before her, exclaimed: May you be blessed in all the tents of Judah and in every nation; those who hear your name will be seized with dread!

Jdt 14:8 'Now tell me everything that you have done in these past few days.' And surrounded by the people, Judith told him everything she had done from the day she left Bethulia to the moment when she was speaking.

Jdt 14:9 When she came to the end, the people cheered at the top of their voices until the town echoed.

Jdt 14:10 Achior, recognising all that the God of Israel had done, believed ardently in him and, accepting circumcision, was permanently incorporated into the House of Israel.

Jdt 14:11 At daybreak they hung the head of Holofernes on the ramparts. Every man took his arms and they all went out in groups to the slopes of the mountain.

Jdt 14:12 Seeing this, the Assyrians sent word to their leaders, who in turn reported to the generals, the captains of thousands and all the other officers;

Jdt 14:13 and these in their turn reported to the tent of Holofernes. 'Rouse our master,' they said to his major-domo, 'these slaves have dared to march down on us to attack -- and to be wiped out to a man!'

Jdt 14:14 Bagoas went inside and struck the curtain dividing the tent, thinking that Holofernes was sleeping with Judith.

Jdt 14:15 But as no one seemed to hear, he drew the curtain and went into the bedroom, to find him thrown down dead on the threshold, with his head cut off.

Jdt 14:16 He gave a great shout, wept, sobbed, shrieked and rent his clothes.

Jdt 14:17 He then went into the tent which Judith had occupied and could not find her either. Then, rushing out to the men, he shouted,

Jdt 14:18 'The slaves have rebelled! A single Hebrew woman has brought shame on the House of Nebuchadnezzar. Holofernes is lying dead on the ground, without his head!'

Jdt 14:19 When they heard this, the leaders of the Assyrian army tore their tunics in consternation, and the camp rang with their wild cries and their shouting.

Jdt 15:1 When the men who were still in their tents heard the news they were appalled.

Jdt 15:2 Panic-stricken and trembling, no two of them could keep together, the rout was complete, with one accord they fled along every track across the plain or through the mountains.

Jdt 15:3 The men who had been bivouacking in the mountains round Bethulia were fleeing too. Then all the Israelite warriors charged down on them.

Jdt 15:4 Uzziah sent messengers to Betomasthaim, Bebai, Choba, Kola, throughout the whole territory of Israel, to inform them of what had happened and to urge them all to hurl themselves on the enemy and annihilate them.

Jdt 15:5 As soon as the Israelites heard the news, they fell on them as one man and massacred them all the way to Choba. The men of Jerusalem and the entire mountain country also rallied to them, once they had been informed of the events in the enemy camp. Then the men of Gilead and Galilee attacked them on the flank and struck at them fiercely till they neared Damascus and its territory.

Jdt 15:6 All the other inhabitants of Bethulia fell on the Assyrian camp and looted it to their great profit.

Jdt 15:7 The Israelites returning from the slaughter seized what was left. The hamlets and villages of the mountain country and the plain also captured a great deal of booty, since there were vast stores of it.

Jdt 15:8 Joakim the high priest and the entire Council of Elders of Israel, who were in Jerusalem, came to gaze on the benefits that the Lord had lavished on Israel and to see Judith and congratulate her.

Jdt 15:9 On coming to her house, they blessed her with one accord, saying: You are the glory of Jerusalem! You are the great pride of Israel! You are the highest honour of our race!

Jdt 15:10 By doing all this with your own hand you have deserved well of Israel, and God has approved what you have done. May you be blessed by the Lord Almighty in all the days to come! And the people all said, 'Amen!'

Jdt 15:11 The people looted the camp for thirty days. They gave Judith the tent of Holofernes, all his silver plate, his divans, his drinking bowls and all his furniture. She took this, loaded her mule, harnessed her carts and heaped the things into them.

Jdt 15:12 All the women of Israel, hurrying to see her, formed choirs of dancers in her honour. Judith took wands of vine-leaves in her hand and distributed them to the women who accompanied her;

Jdt 15:13 she and her companions put on wreaths of olive. Then she took her place at the head of the procession and led the women as they danced. All the men of Israel, armed and garlanded, followed them, singing hymns.

Jdt 15:14 With all Israel round her, Judith broke into this song of thanksgiving and the whole people sang this hymn:

Jdt 16:1 Break into song for my God, to the tambourine, sing in honour of the Lord, to the cymbal, let psalm and canticle mingle for him, extol his name, invoke it!

Jdt 16:2 For the Lord is a God who breaks battle-lines; he has pitched his camp in the middle of his people to deliver me from the hands of my oppressors.

Jdt 16:3 Assyria came down from the mountains of the north, came with tens of thousands of his army. Their multitude blocked the ravines, their horses covered the hills.

Jdt 16:4 He threatened to burn up my country, destroy my young men with the sword, dash my sucklings to the ground, make prey of my little ones, carry off my maidens;

Jdt 16:5 but the Lord Almighty has thwarted them by a woman's hand.

Jdt 16:6 For their hero did not fall at the young men's hands, it was not the sons of Titans struck him down, no proud giants made that attack, but Judith, the daughter of Merari, who disarmed him with the beauty of her face.

Jdt 16:7 She laid aside her widow's dress to raise up those who were oppressed in Israel; she anointed her face with perfume,

Jdt 16:8 bound her hair under a turban, put on a linen gown to seduce him.

Jdt 16:9 Her sandal ravished his eye, her beauty took his soul prisoner and the scimitar cut through his neck!

Jdt 16:10 The Persians trembled at her boldness, the Medes were daunted by her daring.

Jdt 16:11 These were struck with fear when my lowly ones raised the war cry, these were seized with terror when my weak ones shouted, and when they raised their voices these gave ground.

Jdt 16:12 The children of mere girls ran them through, pierced them like the offspring of deserters. They perished in the battle of my Lord!

Jdt 16:13 I shall sing a new song to my God. Lord, you are great, you are glorious, wonderfully strong, unconquerable.

Jdt 16:14 May your whole creation serve you! For you spoke and things came into being, you sent your breath and they were put together, and no one can resist your voice.

Jdt 16:15 Should mountains be tossed from their foundations to mingle with the waves, should rocks melt like wax before your face, to those who fear you, you would still be merciful.

Jdt 16:16 A little thing indeed is a sweetly smelling sacrifice, still less the fat burned for you in burnt offering; but whoever fears the Lord is great for ever.

Jdt 16:17 Woe to the nations who rise against my race! The Lord Almighty will punish them on judgement day. He will send fire and worms in their flesh and they will weep with pain for evermore.

Jdt 16:18 When they reached Jerusalem they fell on their faces before God and, once the people had been purified, they presented their burnt offerings, voluntary offerings and gifts.

Jdt 16:19 All Holofernes' property given her by the people, and the canopy she herself had stripped from his bed, Judith vowed to God as a dedicated offering.

Jdt 16:20 For three months the people gave themselves up to rejoicings in front of the Temple in Jerusalem, where Judith stayed with them.

Jdt 16:21 When this was over, everyone returned home. Judith went back to Bethulia and lived on her property; as long as she lived, she enjoyed a great reputation throughout the country.

Jdt 16:22 She had many suitors, but all her days, from the time her husband Manasseh died and was gathered to his people, she never gave herself to another man.

Jdt 16:23 Her fame spread more and more, the older she grew in her husband's house; she lived to the age of one hundred and five. She emancipated her maid, then died in Bethulia and was buried in the cave where Manasseh her husband lay.

Jdt 16:24 The House of Israel mourned her for seven days. Before her death she had distributed her property among her own relations and those of her husband Manasseh.

Jdt 16:25 Never again during the lifetime of Judith, nor indeed for a long time after her death, did anyone trouble the Israelites.

Est 1:1 It was in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus whose empire stretched from India to Ethiopia and comprised one hundred and twenty-seven provinces. (a) In the second year of the reign of the Great King, Ahasuerus, on the first day of Nisan, a dream came to Mordecai son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, (b) a Jew living at Susa and holding high office at the royal court. (c) He was one of the captives whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported from Jerusalem with Jeconiah king of Judah. (d) This was his dream. There were cries and noise, thunder and earthquakes, and disorder over the whole earth. (e) Then two great dragons came forward, each ready for the fray, and set up a great roar. (f) At the sound of them every nation made ready to wage war against the nation of the just. (g) A day of darkness and gloom, of affliction and distress, oppression and great disturbance on earth! (h) The entire upright nation was thrown into consternation at the fear of the evils awaiting it and prepared for death, crying out to God. (i) Then from its cry, as from a little spring, there grew a great river, a flood of water. (j) Light came as the sun rose, and the humble were raised up and devoured the mighty. (k) On awakening from this dream and vision of God's designs, Mordecai thought deeply about the matter, trying his best all day to discover what its meaning might be. (l) Mordecai was lodging at court with Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the palace. (m) Having got wind of their plotting and gained knowledge of their designs, he discovered that they were preparing to assassinate King Ahasuerus, and he warned the king against them. (n) The king gave orders for the two officers to be tortured; they confessed and were executed. (o) He then had these events entered in his Record Book, while Mordecai himself also wrote an account of them. (p) The king then appointed Mordecai to an office at court and rewarded him with presents. (q) But Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, who enjoyed high favour with the king, determined to injure Mordecai in revenge for the affair of the king's two officers.

Est 1:2 In those days, when King Ahasuerus was sitting on his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,

Est 1:3 in the third year of his reign, he gave a banquet at his court for all his officers-of-state and ministers, Persian and Median army-commanders, nobles and provincial governors.

Est 1:4 Thus he displayed the riches and splendour of his empire and the pomp and glory of his majesty; the festivities went on for a long time, a hundred and eighty days.

Est 1:5 When this period was over, for seven days the king gave a banquet for all the people living in the citadel of Susa, to high and low alike, on the esplanade in the gardens of the royal palace.

Est 1:6 There were white and violet hangings fastened with cords of fine linen and purple thread to silver rings on marble columns, couches of gold and silver on a pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and precious stones.

Est 1:7 For drinking there were golden cups of various design and plenty of wine provided by the king with royal liberality.

Est 1:8 The royal edict did not, however, make drinking obligatory, the king having instructed the officials of his household to treat each guest according to the guest's own wishes.

Est 1:9 Queen Vashti, for her part, gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, the seven officers in attendance on the person of King Ahasuerus,

Est 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king, crowned with her royal diadem, in order to display her beauty to the people and the officers-of-state, since she was very beautiful.

Est 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the officers. The king was very angry at this and his rage grew hot.

Est 1:13 Addressing himself to the wise men who were versed in the law -- it being the practice to refer matters affecting the king to expert lawyers and jurists-

Est 1:14 he summoned Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, seven Persian and Median officers-of-state who had privileged access to the royal presence and occupied the leading positions in the kingdom.

Est 1:15 'According to law,' he said, 'what is to be done to Queen Vashti for not obeying the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the officers?'

Est 1:16 In the presence of the king and the officers-of-state, Memucan replied, 'Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the officers-of-state and all the peoples inhabiting the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:17 The queen's conduct will soon become known to all the women, who will adopt a contemptuous attitude towards their own husbands. They will say, "King Ahasuerus himself commanded Queen Vashti to appear before him and she did not come."

Est 1:18 Before the day is out, the wives of the Persian and Median officers-of-state will be telling every one of the king's officers-of-state what they have heard about the queen's behaviour; and that will mean contempt and anger all round.

Est 1:19 If it is the king's pleasure, let him issue a royal edict, to be irrevocably incorporated into the laws of the Persians and Medes, to the effect that Vashti is never to appear again before King Ahasuerus, and let the king confer her royal dignity on a worthier woman.

Est 1:20 Let this edict issued by the king be proclaimed throughout his empire -- which is great -- and all the women will henceforth bow to the authority of their husbands, both high and low alike.'

Est 1:21 This speech pleased the king and the officers-of-state, and the king did as Memucan advised.

Est 1:22 He sent letters to all the provinces of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each nation in its own language, ensuring that every husband should be master in his own house.

Est 2:1 Some time after this, when the king's wrath had subsided, Ahasuerus remembered Vashti, how she had behaved, and the measures taken against her.

Est 2:2 The king's gentlemen-in-waiting said, 'A search should be made on the king's behalf for beautiful young virgins,

Est 2:3 and the king appoint commissioners throughout the provinces of his realm to bring all these beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the harem under the authority of Hegai the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. Here he will give them whatever they need for enhancing their beauty,

Est 2:4 and the girl who pleases the king can take Vashti's place as queen.' This advice pleased the king and he acted on it.

Est 2:5 Now in the citadel of Susa there lived a Jew called Mordecai son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin,

Est 2:6 who had been deported from Jerusalem among the captives taken away with Jeconiah king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,

Est 2:7 and was now bringing up a certain Hadassah, otherwise called Esther, his uncle's daughter, who had lost both father and mother; the girl had a good figure and a beautiful face, and on the death of her parents Mordecai had adopted her as his daughter.

Est 2:8 On the promulgation of the royal command and edict a great number of girls were brought to the citadel of Susa where they were entrusted to Hegai. Esther, too, was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, the custodian of the women.

Est 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favour. Not only did he quickly provide her with all she needed for her dressing room and her meals, but he gave her seven special maids from the king's household and transferred her and her maids to the best part of the harem.

Est 2:10 Esther had not divulged her race or parentage, since Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.

Est 2:11 Mordecai walked up and down in front of the courtyard of the harem all day and every day, to learn how Esther was and how she was being treated.

Est 2:12 Each girl had to appear in turn before King Ahasuerus after a delay of twelve months fixed by the regulations for the women; this preparatory period was occupied as follows: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with spices and lotions commonly used for feminine beauty treatment.

Est 2:13 When each girl went to the king, she was given whatever she wanted to take with her, since she then moved from the harem into the royal household.

Est 2:14 She went there in the evening, and the following morning returned to another harem entrusted to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's officer, custodian of the concubines. She did not go to the king any more, unless he was particularly pleased with her and had her summoned by name.

Est 2:15 But when it was the turn of Esther the daughter of Abihail, whose nephew Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter, to go into the king's presence, she did not ask for anything beyond what had been assigned her by Hegai, the king's officer, custodian of the women. Esther won the approval of all who saw her.

Est 2:16 She was brought to King Ahasuerus in his royal apartments in the tenth month, which is called Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign;

Est 2:17 and the king liked Esther better than any of the other women; none of the other girls found so much favour and approval with him. So he set the royal diadem on her head and proclaimed her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:18 The king then gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his officers-of-state and ministers, decreed a holiday for all the provinces and distributed largesse with royal prodigality.

Est 2:19 When Esther, like the other girls, had been transferred to the second harem,

Est 2:20 she did not divulge her parentage or race, in obedience to the orders of Mordecai, whose instructions she continued to follow as when she had been under his care.

Est 2:21 At this time Mordecai was attached to the Chancellery and two malcontents, Bigthan and Teresh, officers in the king's service as Guards of the Threshold, plotted to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Est 2:22 Mordecai came to hear of this and informed Queen Esther, who in turn, on Mordecai's authority, told the king.

Est 2:23 The matter was investigated and proved to be true. The two conspirators were sent to the gallows, and the incident was recorded in the Annals, in the royal presence.

Est 3:1 Shortly afterwards, King Ahasuerus singled out Haman son of Hammedatha, a native of Agag, for promotion. He raised him in rank, granting him precedence over all his colleagues, the other officers-of-state,

Est 3:2 and all the royal officials employed at the Chancellery used to bow low and prostrate themselves whenever Haman appeared -- such was the king's command. Mordecai refused either to bow or to prostrate himself.

Est 3:3 'Why do you flout the royal command?' the officials of the Chancellery asked Mordecai.

Est 3:4 Day after day they asked him this, but he took no notice of them. In the end they reported the matter to Haman, to see whether Mordecai would persist in his attitude, since he had told them that he was a Jew.

Est 3:5 Haman could see for himself that Mordecai did not bow or prostrate himself in his presence; he became furiously angry.

Est 3:6 And, on being told what race Mordecai belonged to, he thought it beneath him merely to get rid of Mordecai, but made up his mind to wipe out all the members of Mordecai's race, the Jews, living in Ahasuerus' entire empire.

Est 3:7 In the first month, that is the month of Nisan, of the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, the pur (that is, the lot) was cast in Haman's presence, to determine the day and the month. The lot falling on the twelfth month, which is Adar,

Est 3:8 Haman said to King Ahasuerus, 'There is a certain unassimilated nation scattered among the other nations throughout the provinces of your realm; their laws are different from those of all the other nations, and the royal laws they ignore; hence it is not in the king's interests to tolerate them.'

Est 3:9 If their destruction be signed, so please the king, I am ready to pay ten thousand talents of silver to the king's receivers, to be credited to the royal treasury.'

Est 3:10 The king then took his signet ring off his hand and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the persecutor of the Jews.

Est 3:11 'Keep the money,' he said, 'and you can have the people too; do what you like with them.'

Est 3:12 The royal scribes were therefore summoned for the thirteenth day of the first month, when they wrote out the orders addressed by Haman to the king's satraps, to the governors ruling each province and to the principal officials of each people, to each province in its own script and to each people in its own language. The edict was signed in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with his ring,

Est 3:13 and letters were sent by runners to every province of the realm, ordering the destruction, slaughter and annihilation of all Jews, young and old, including women and children, on the same day -- the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is Adar -- and the seizing of their possessions. (a) The text of the letter was as follows:

'The Great King, Ahasuerus, to the governors of the hundred and twenty-seven provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia, and to their subordinate district commissioners: (b) 'Being placed in authority over many nations and ruling the whole world, I have resolved never to be carried away by the insolence of power, but always to rule with moderation and clemency, so as to assure for my subjects a life ever free from storms and, offering my kingdom the benefits of civilisation and free transit from end to end, to restore that peace which all men desire.

(c) In consultation with our advisers as to how this aim is to be effected, we have been informed by one of them, eminent among us for prudence and well proved for his unfailing devotion and unshakeable trustworthiness, and in rank second only to our majesty, Haman by name, (d) that there is, mingled among all the tribes of the earth, a certain ill-disposed people, opposed by its laws to every other nation and continually defying the royal ordinances, in such a way as to obstruct that form of government assured by us to the general good. (e)

'Considering therefore that this people, unique of its kind, is in complete opposition to all humanity from which it differs by its outlandish laws, that it is hostile to our interests and that it commits the most heinous crimes, to the point of endangering the stability of the realm: (f) 'We command that those persons designated to you in the letters written by Haman, who was appointed to watch over our interests and is a second father to us, be all destroyed, root and branch, including women and children, by the swords of their enemies, without any pity or mercy, on the fourteenth day of the twelfth month, Adar, of the present year, (g) so that, these past and present malcontents being in one day forcibly thrown down to Hades, our government may henceforward enjoy perpetual stability and peace.'

Est 3:14 Copies of this decree, to be promulgated as law in each province, were published to the various peoples, so that each might be ready for the day aforementioned.

Est 3:15 At the king's command, the runners set out with all speed; the decree was first promulgated in the citadel of Susa. While the king and Haman gave themselves up to feasting and drinking, consternation reigned in the city of Susa.

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned what had happened, he tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes.

Then he walked into the centre of the city, wailing loudly and bitterly,

Est 4:2 until he arrived in front of the Chancellery, which no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter.

Est 4:3 And in every province, no sooner had the royal command and edict arrived, than among the Jews there was great mourning, fasting, weeping and wailing, and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

Est 4:4 When Queen Esther's maids and officers came and told her, she was overcome with grief. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he refused them.

Est 4:5 Esther then summoned Hathach, an officer whom the king had appointed to wait on her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai and enquire what the matter was and why he was acting in this way.

Est 4:6 Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the Chancellery,

Est 4:7 and Mordecai told him what had happened to him personally, and also about the sum of money which Haman had offered to pay into the royal treasury to procure the destruction of the Jews.

Est 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the edict of extermination published in Susa for him to show Esther for her information, with the message that she was to go to the king and implore his favour and plead with him for the race to which she belonged. (a) 'Remember your humbler circumstances,' he said, 'when you were fed by my hand. Since Haman, the second person in the realm, has petitioned the king for our deaths, (b) invoke the Lord, speak to the king for us and save us from death!'

Est 4:9 Hathach came back and told Esther what Mordecai had said;

Est 4:10 and she replied with the following message for Mordecai,

Est 4:11 'Royal officials and people living in the provinces alike all know that for anyone, man or woman, who approaches the king in the private apartments without having been summoned there, there is only one law: he must die, unless the king, by pointing his golden sceptre towards him, grants him his life. And I have not been summoned to the king for the last thirty days.'

Est 4:12 These words of Esther were reported to Mordecai,

Est 4:13 who sent back the following reply, 'Do not suppose that, because you are in the king's palace, you are going to be the one Jew to escape.'

Est 4:14 No; if you persist in remaining silent at such a time, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another quarter, but both you and your father's whole family will perish. Who knows? Perhaps you have come to the throne for just such a time as this.'

Est 4:15 Whereupon Esther sent this reply to Mordecai,

Est 4:16 'Go and assemble all the Jews now in Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink day or night for three days. For my part, I and my waiting-women shall keep the same fast, after which I shall go to the king in spite of the law; and if I perish, I perish.'

Est 4:17 Mordecai went away and carried out Esther's instructions. (a) Then calling to mind all the wonderful works of the Lord, he offered this prayer: (b) Lord, Lord, Almighty King, everything is subject to your power, and there is no one who can withstand you in your determination to save Israel. (c) You have made heaven and earth, and all the marvels that are under heaven. You are the Master of the universe and no one can resist you, Lord. (d) You know all things, you, Lord, know that neither pride, self-esteem nor vainglory prompted me to do what I have done: to refuse to prostrate myself before proud Haman. Gladly would I have kissed the soles of his feet, had this assured the safety of Israel. (e) But what I have done, I have done, rather than place the glory of a man above the glory of God; and I shall not prostrate myself to anyone except, Lord, to you, and, in so doing, I shall not be acting in pride. (f) And now, Lord God, King, God of Abraham spare your people! For our ruin is being plotted, there are plans to destroy your ancient heritage. (g) Do not overlook your inheritance, which you redeemed from Egypt to be yours. (h) Hear my supplication, have mercy on your heritage, and turn our grief into rejoicing, so that we may live, Lord, to hymn your name. Do not suffer the mouths of those who praise you to perish. (i) And all Israel cried out with all their might, since death was staring them in the face. (k) Queen Esther also took refuge with the Lord in the mortal peril which had overtaken her. She took off her sumptuous robes and put on sorrowful mourning. Instead of expensive perfumes, she covered her head with ashes and dung. She mortified her body severely, and the former scenes of her happiness and elegance were now littered with tresses torn from her hair. She besought the Lord God of Israel in these words: (l) My Lord, our King, the Only One, come to my help, for I am alone and have no helper but you and am about to take my life in my hands. (m) I have been taught from infancy in the bosom of my family that you, Lord, have chosen Israel out of all the nations and our ancestors out of all before them, to be your heritage for ever; and that you have treated them as you promised. (n) But we have sinned against you and you have handed us over to our enemies for paying honour to their gods. Lord, you are upright. (o) But they are not satisfied with the bitterness of our slavery: they have pledged themselves to their idols to abolish the decree that your own lips have uttered, to blot out your heritage, to stop the mouths of those who praise you, to quench your altar and the glory of your House, (p) and instead to open the mouths of the heathen, to sing the praise of worthless idols and for ever to idolise a king of flesh. (q) Do not yield your sceptre, Lord, to what does not exist. Never let our ruin be matter for laughter. Turn these plots against their authors, and make an example of the man who leads the attack on us. (r) Remember, Lord; reveal yourself in the time of our distress. As for me, give me courage, King of gods and Master of all powers! (s) Put persuasive words into my mouth when I face the lion; change his feeling into hatred for our enemy, so that he may meet his end, and all those like him! (t) As for ourselves, save us by your hand, and come to my help, for I am alone and have no one but you, Lord. (u) You have knowledge of all things, and you know that I hate honours from the godless, that I loathe the bed of the uncircumcised, of any foreigner whatever. (w) You know I am under constraint, that I loathe the symbol of my high position bound round my brow when I appear at court; I loathe it as if it were a filthy rag and do not wear it on my days of leisure. (x) Your servant has not eaten at Haman's table, nor taken pleasure in the royal banquets, nor drunk the wine of libations. (y) Nor has your servant found pleasure from the day of her promotion until now except in you, Lord, God of Abraham. (z) O God, whose strength prevails over all, listen to the voice of the desperate, save us from the hand of the wicked, and free me from my fear!

Est 5:1 (a) On the third day, when she had finished praying, she took off her suppliant's mourning attire and dressed herself in her full splendour. Radiant as she then appeared, she invoked God who watches over all people and saves them. With her, she took two ladies-in-waiting. With a delicate air she leaned on one, while the other accompanied her carrying her train. (b) Rosy with the full flush of her beauty, her face radiated joy and love: but her heart shrank with fear. (c) Having passed through door after door, she found herself in the presence of the king. He was sitting on his royal throne, dressed in all his robes of state, glittering with gold and precious stones -- a formidable sight. (d) He looked up, afire with majesty and, blazing with anger, saw her. The queen sank to the floor. As she fainted, the colour drained from her face and her head fell against the lady-in-waiting beside her. (e) But God changed the king's heart, inducing a milder spirit. He sprang from his throne in alarm and took her in his arms until she recovered, comforting her with soothing words. (f) 'What is the matter, Esther?' he said. 'I am your brother. Take heart, you are not going to die; our order applies only to ordinary people. Come to me.' (g) And raising his golden sceptre he laid it on Esther's neck, embraced her and said, 'Speak to me.'

Est 5:2 (a) 'Sire,' she said, 'to me you looked like one of God's angels, and my heart was moved with fear of your majesty. For you are a figure of wonder, my lord, and your face is full of graciousness.' (b) But as she spoke she fell down in a faint. The king grew more agitated, and his courtiers all set about reviving her.

Est 5:3 'What is the matter, Queen Esther?' the king said. 'Tell me what you want; even if it is half my kingdom, I grant it you.'

Est 5:4 'Would it please the king,' Esther replied, 'to come with Haman today to the banquet I have prepared for him?'

Est 5:5 The king said, 'Tell Haman to come at once, so that Esther may have her wish.'

Est 5:6 So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared and, during the banquet, the king again said to Esther, 'Tell me your request; I grant it to you. Tell me what you want; even if it is half my kingdom, it is yours for the asking.'

Est 5:7 'What do I want, what is my request?' Esther replied.

Est 5:8 'If I have found favour in the king's eyes, and if it is his pleasure to grant what I ask and to agree to my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet I intend to give them tomorrow, and then I shall do as the king says.'

Est 5:9 Haman left full of joy and high spirits that day; but when he saw Mordecai at the Chancellery, neither standing up nor stirring at his approach, he felt a gust of anger.

Est 5:10 He restrained himself, however. Returning home, he sent for his friends and Zeresh his wife

Est 5:11 and held forth to them about his dazzling wealth, his many children, how the king had raised him to a position of honour and promoted him over the heads of the king's officers-of-state and ministers.

Est 5:12 'What is more,' he added, 'Queen Esther has just invited me and the king -- no one else except me -- to a banquet she was giving, and better still she has invited me and the king again tomorrow.'

Est 5:13 But what do I care about all this when all the while I see Mordecai the Jew sitting there at the Chancellery?'

Est 5:14 'Have a fifty-cubit gallows run up,' said Zeresh his wife and all his friends, 'and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then you can go with the king to the banquet, without a care in the world!' Delighted with this advice, Haman had the gallows erected.

Est 6:1 That night the king could not sleep; he called for the Record Book, or Annals, to be brought and read to him.

Est 6:2 They contained an account of how Mordecai had denounced Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs serving as Guards of the Threshold, who had plotted to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Est 6:3 'And what honour and dignity', the king asked, 'was conferred on Mordecai for this?' 'Nothing has been done for him,' the gentlemen-in-waiting replied.

Est 6:4 The king then said, 'Who is outside in the antechamber?' Haman had, that very moment, entered the outer antechamber of the private apartments, to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on the gallows which he had just put up for the purpose.

Est 6:5 So the king's gentlemen-in-waiting replied, 'It is Haman out in the antechamber.' 'Bring him in,' the king said,

Est 6:6 and, as soon as Haman came in, went on to ask, 'What is the right way to treat a man whom the king wishes to honour?' 'Whom', thought Haman, 'would the king wish to honour, if not me?'

Est 6:7 So he replied, 'If the king wishes to honour someone,

Est 6:8 royal robes should be brought from the king's wardrobe, and a horse from the king's stable, sporting a royal diadem on its head.

Est 6:9 The robes and horse should be entrusted to one of the noblest of the king's officers-of-state, who should then array the man whom the king wishes to honour and lead him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him: "This is the way a man shall be treated whom the king wishes to honour."

Est 6:10 'Hurry,' the king said to Haman, 'take the robes and the horse, and do everything you have just said to Mordecai the Jew, who works at the Chancellery. On no account leave out anything that you have mentioned.'

Est 6:11 So taking the robes and the horse, Haman arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him: 'This is the way a man shall be treated whom the king wishes to honour.'

Est 6:12 After this Mordecai returned to the Chancellery, while Haman went hurrying home in dejection and covering his face.

Est 6:13 He told his wife Zeresh and all his friends what had just happened. His wife Zeresh and his friends said, 'You are beginning to fall, and Mordecai to rise; if he is Jewish, you will never get the better of him. With him against you, your fall is certain.'

Est 6:14 While they were still talking, the king's officers arrived in a hurry to escort Haman to the banquet that Esther was giving.

Est 7:1 The king and Haman went to Queen Esther's banquet,

Est 7:2 and this second day, during the banquet, the king again said to Esther, 'Tell me your request, Queen Esther. I grant it to you. Whatever you want; even if it is half my kingdom, it is yours for the asking.'

Est 7:3 'If I have found favour in your eyes, O king,' Queen Esther replied, 'and if it please your majesty, grant me my life -- that is my request; and the lives of my people -- that is what I want.'

Est 7:4 For we have been handed over, my people and I, to destruction, slaughter and annihilation; had we merely been sold as slaves and servant-girls, I should not have said anything; but in the present case, it will be beyond the persecutor's means to make good the loss that the king is about to sustain.'

Est 7:5 King Ahasuerus interrupted Queen Esther, 'Who is this man?' he exclaimed. 'Where is the man who has thought of doing such a thing?'

Est 7:6 Esther replied, 'The persecutor, the enemy? Why, this wretch Haman!' Haman quaked with terror in the presence of the king and queen.

Est 7:7 In a rage the king got up from the banquet and went into the palace garden; while Haman, realising that the king was determined on his ruin, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Est 7:8 When the king came back from the palace garden into the banqueting hall, he found Haman sprawled across the couch where Esther was reclining. 'What!' the king exclaimed. 'Is he going to rape the queen in my own palace?' The words were scarcely out of his mouth than a veil was thrown over Haman's face.

Est 7:9 In the royal presence, Harbona, one of the officers, said, 'There is that fifty-cubit gallows, too, which Haman ran up for Mordecai, who spoke up to the king's great advantage. It is all ready at his house.' 'Hang him on it,' said the king.

Est 7:10 So Haman was hanged on the gallows which he had erected for Mordecai, and the king's wrath subsided.

Est 8:1 That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the persecutor of the Jews. Mordecai was presented to the king, Esther having revealed their mutual relationship.

Est 8:2 The king, who had recovered his signet ring from Haman, took it off and gave it to Mordecai, while Esther gave Mordecai charge of Haman's house.

Est 8:3 Esther again went to speak to the king. She fell at his feet, weeping and imploring his favour, to frustrate the malice that Haman the Agagite had been plotting against the Jews.

Est 8:4 The king held out the golden sceptre to her, whereupon Esther stood up and faced him.

Est 8:5 'If such is the king's good pleasure,' she said, 'and if I have found favour before him, if my petition seems proper to him and if I myself am pleasing to his eyes, may he be pleased to issue a written revocation of the letters which Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, has had written, ordering the destruction of the Jews throughout the royal provinces.'

Est 8:6 For how can I look on, while my people suffer what is proposed for them? How can I bear to witness the extermination of my relatives?'

Est 8:7 King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, 'I for my part have given Esther Haman's house, and have had him hanged on the gallows for planning to destroy the Jews.

Est 8:8 You, for your part, write what you please as regards the Jews, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet; for any edict written in the king's name and sealed with his signet is irrevocable.'

Est 8:9 The royal scribes were summoned at once -- it was the third month, the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day -- and at Mordecai's dictation an order was written to the Jews, the satraps, governors and principal officials of the provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to each province in its own script, and to each people in its own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.

Est 8:10 These letters, written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet, were carried by couriers mounted on horses from the king's own stud-farms.

Est 8:11 In them the king granted the Jews, in whatever city they lived, the right to assemble in self-defence, with permission to destroy, slaughter and annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might attack them, together with their women and children, and to plunder their possessions,

Est 8:12 with effect from the same day throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus -- the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is Adar. (a) The text of the letter was as follows: (b) 'The Great King, Ahasuerus, to the satraps of the hundred and twenty-seven provinces which stretch from India to Ethiopia, to the provincial governors and to all our loyal subjects, greeting: (c) 'Many people, repeatedly honoured by the extreme bounty of their benefactors, only grow the more arrogant. It is not enough for them to seek our subjects' injury, but unable as they are to support the weight of their own surfeit they turn to scheming against their benefactors themselves. (d) Not content with banishing gratitude from the human heart, but elated by the plaudits of people unacquainted with goodness, notwithstanding that all is for ever under the eye of God, they expect to escape his justice, so hostile to the wicked. (e) Thus it has often happened to those placed in authority that, having entrusted friends with the conduct of affairs and allowed themselves to be influenced by them, they find themselves sharing with these the guilt of innocent blood and involved in irremediable misfortunes, (f) the upright intentions of rulers having been misled by false arguments of the evilly disposed. (g) This may be seen without recourse to the history of earlier times to which we have referred; you have only to look at what is before you, at the crimes perpetrated by a plague of unworthy officials. (h) For the future, we shall exert our efforts to assure the tranquillity and peace of the realm for all, (i) by adopting new policies and by always judging matters that are brought to our notice in the most equitable spirit. (k) 'Thus Haman son of Hammedatha, a Macedonian, without a drop of Persian blood and far removed from our goodness, enjoyed our hospitality (l) and was treated by us with the benevolence which we show to every nation, even to the extent of being proclaimed our 'father' and being accorded universally the prostration of respect as second in dignity to the royal throne. (m) But he, unable to keep within his own high rank, schemed to deprive us of our realm and of our life. (n) Furthermore, by tortuous wiles and arguments, he would have had us destroy Mordecai, our saviour and constant benefactor, with Esther the blameless partner of our majesty, and their whole nation besides. (o) He thought by these means to leave us without support and so to transfer the Persian empire to the Macedonians. (p) 'But we find that the Jews, marked out for annihilation by this arch-scoundrel, are not criminals: they are in fact governed by the most just of laws. (q) They are children of the Most High, the great and living God to whom we and our ancestors owe the continuing prosperity of our realm. (r) You will therefore do well not to act on the letters sent by Haman son of Hammedatha, since their author has been hanged at the gates of Susa with his whole household: a fitting punishment, which God, Master of the Universe, has speedily inflicted on him. (s) Put up copies of this letter everywhere, allow the Jews to observe their own customs without fear, and come to their help against anyone who attacks them on the day originally chosen for their maltreatment, that is, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is Adar. (t) For the all-powerful God has made this day a day of joy and not of ruin for the chosen people. (u) You, for your part, among your solemn festivals celebrate this as a special day with every kind of feasting, so that now and in the future, for you and for Persians of good will, it may commemorate your rescue, and for your enemies may stand as a reminder of their ruin. (v) 'Every city and, more generally, every country, which does not follow these instructions, will be mercilessly devastated with fire and sword, and made not only inaccessible to human beings but hateful to wild animals and even birds for ever.'

Est 8:13 Copies of this edict, to be promulgated as law in each province, were published to the various peoples, so that the Jews could be ready on the day stated to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Est 8:14 The couriers, mounted on the king's horses, set out in great haste and urgency at the king's command. The edict was also published in the citadel of Susa.

Est 8:15 Mordecai left the royal presence in a princely gown of violet and white, with a great golden crown and a cloak of fine linen and purple. The city of Susa shouted for joy.

Est 8:16 For the Jews there was light and gladness, joy and honour.

Est 8:17 In every province and in every city, wherever the king's command and decree arrived, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and holiday-making. Of the country's population many became Jews, since now the Jews were feared.

Est 9:1 The king's command and decree came into force on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, Adar, and the day on which the enemies of the Jews had hoped to crush them produced the very opposite effect: the Jews it was who crushed their enemies.

Est 9:2 In their towns throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the Jews assembled to strike at those who had planned to injure them. No one resisted them, since the various peoples were now all afraid of them.

Est 9:3 Provincial officers-of-state, satraps, governors and royal officials, all supported the Jews for fear of Mordecai.

Est 9:4 And indeed Mordecai was a power in the palace and his fame was spreading through all the provinces; Mordecai was steadily growing more powerful.

Est 9:5 So the Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, with resulting slaughter and destruction, and worked their will on their opponents.

Est 9:6 In the citadel of Susa alone, the Jews put to death and slaughtered five hundred men,

Est 9:7 notably Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Est 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Est 9:9 Parmashtha, Arisai, Aridai and Jezatha,

Est 9:10 the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the persecutor of the Jews. But they took no plunder.

Est 9:11 The number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day.

Est 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, 'In the citadel of Susa the Jews have killed five hundred men and also the ten sons of Haman. What must they have done in the other provinces of the realm? Tell me your request; I grant it to you. Tell me what else you would like; it is yours for the asking.'

Est 9:13 'If such is the king's pleasure,' Esther replied, 'let the Jews of Susa be allowed to enforce today's decree tomorrow as well. And as for the ten sons of Haman, let their bodies be hanged on the gallows.'

Est 9:14 Whereupon, the king having given the order, the edict was promulgated in Susa and the ten sons of Haman were hanged.

Est 9:15 Thus the Jews of Susa reassembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in the city. But they took no plunder.

Est 9:16 The other Jews who lived in the king's provinces also assembled to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies. They slaughtered seventy-five thousand of their opponents. But they took no plunder.

Est 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. On the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:18 But for the Jews of Susa, who had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days, the fifteenth was the day they rested, making that a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:19 This is why Jewish country people, those who live in undefended villages, keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of gladness, feasting and holiday-making, and the exchanging of presents with one another, (a) whereas for those who live in cities the day of rejoicing and exchanging presents with their neighbours is the fifteenth day of Adar.

Est 9:20 Mordecai committed these events to writing. Then he sent letters to all the Jews living in the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

Est 9:21 enjoining them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar every year,

Est 9:22 as the days on which the Jews had rid themselves of their enemies, and the month in which their sorrow had been turned into gladness, and mourning into a holiday. He therefore told them to keep these as days of festivity and gladness when they were to exchange presents and make gifts to the poor.

Est 9:23 Once having begun, the Jews continued observing these practices, Mordecai having written them an account

Est 9:24 of how Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the persecutor of all the Jews, had plotted their destruction and had cast the pur, that is, the lot, for their overthrow and ruin;

Est 9:25 but how, when he went back to the king to ask him to order the hanging of Mordecai, the wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews recoiled on his own head, and both he and his sons were hanged on the gallows;

Est 9:26 and that, hence, these days were called Purim, from the word pur. And so, because of what was written in this letter, and because of what they had seen for themselves and of what had happened to them,

Est 9:27 the Jews willingly bound themselves, their descendants and all who should join them, to celebrate these two days without fail, in the manner prescribed and at the time appointed, year after year.

Est 9:28 Thus commemorated and celebrated from generation to generation, in every family, in every province, in every city, these days of Purim will never be abrogated among the Jews, nor will their memory perish from their race.

Est 9:29 Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, wrote with full authority to ratify this second letter,

Est 9:30 and sent letters to all the Jews of the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the realm of Ahasuerus, in terms of peace and loyalty

Est 9:31 enjoining them to observe these days of Purim at the appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew had recommended, and in the manner prescribed for themselves and their descendants, with additional ordinances for fasts and lamentations.

Est 9:32 The ordinance of Esther fixed the law of Purim, which was then recorded in a book.

Est 10:1 King Ahasuerus put not only the mainland under tribute but the Mediterranean islands as well.

Est 10:2 All his feats of power and valour, and the account of the high honour to which he raised Mordecai: all this is recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Media and Persia.

Est 10:3 And Mordecai the Jew was next in rank to King Ahasuerus. He was a man held in respect among the Jews, esteemed by thousands of his brothers, a man who sought the good of his people and cared for the welfare of his entire race. (a) And Mordecai said, 'All this is God's doing. (b) I remember the dream I had about these matters, nothing of which has failed to come true: (c) the little spring that became a river, the light that shone, the sun, the flood of water. Esther is the river -- she whom the king married and made queen. (d) The two dragons are Haman and myself. (e) The nations are those that banded together to blot out the name of Jew. (f) The single nation, mine, is Israel, those who cried out to God and were saved. Yes, the Lord has saved his people, the Lord has delivered us from all these evils, God has worked such signs and great wonders as have never occurred among the nations. (g) 'Two destinies he appointed, one for his own people, one for the nations at large. (h) And these two destinies were worked out at the hour and time and day laid down by God, involving all the nations. (i) In this way God has remembered his people and vindicated his heritage; (k) and for them these days, the fourteenth and fifteenth of the month of Adar, are to be days of assembly, of joy and of gladness before God, through all generations and for ever among his people Israel.' (l) In the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemy and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who affirmed that he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemy his son brought the foregoing letter concerning Purim. They vouched for its authenticity, the translation having been made by Lysimachus son of Ptolemy, a member of the Jerusalem community.

1Ma 1:1 Alexander of Macedon son of Philip had come from the land of Kittim and defeated Darius king of the Persians and Medes, whom he succeeded as ruler, at first of Hellas.

1Ma 1:2 He undertook many campaigns, gained possession of many fortresses, and put the local kings to death.

1Ma 1:3 So he advanced to the ends of the earth, plundering nation after nation; the earth grew silent before him, and his ambitious heart swelled with pride.

1Ma 1:4 He assembled very powerful forces and subdued provinces, nations and princes, and they became his tributaries.

1Ma 1:5 But the time came when Alexander took to his bed, in the knowledge that he was dying.

1Ma 1:6 He summoned his officers, noblemen who had been brought up with him from his youth, and divided his kingdom among them while he was still alive.

1Ma 1:7 Alexander had reigned twelve years when he died.

1Ma 1:8 Each of his officers established himself in his own region.

1Ma 1:9 All assumed crowns after his death, they and their heirs after them for many years, bringing increasing evils on the world.

